OFFERING A WIDE SELECTION OF GAY BOOKS AND MAGAZINES WITH A HOT ACTION MOVIE ARCADE... THE LARGEST ARCADE IN HOUSTON!
Houston, Tx. The New Miss Gay America Pageant presented Miss Gay America 1976 before full houses for three nights at the Old Plantation Club in Houston. Twenty-nine contestants from over the United States competed for the coveted title.

After two hard nights of preliminary judging, eleven semi-finalists were named to compete on the final night of competition.

After all eleven contestants had finished competing in evening gown, sportswear, and talent, five finalists were announced to answer a live interview question on stage.

The five finalists were Lady LaRey, Miss Gay California, Naomi Simms, Miss Gay Texas, Michael Andrews, Miss Gay South, Donna Day, Miss Soul of the Southland, and Erika Lane, Miss Dallas Ft. Worth Metroplex.

All contestants had previously competed in categories on stage, and were also judged in male interviews twice and once in a female interview.

After the closest balloting ever in the history of the pageant, Michael Andrews was crowned the new Miss Gay America. Naomi Simms was 1st runner-up and Erika Lane was 2nd runner-up.

In the balloting among the contestants, Latese Chevron of Daytona Beach, Florida, was named Miss Congeniality.

In preliminary judging, Misty LaMour, Miss Gay Alabama, and Michael Andrews won trophies in Sportswear, while Naomi Simms and Donna Day won the talent competition.

The three day extravaganza was emceed by the former Miss Gay Americas, Norma Kristie, Lady Baronessa, Shawn Luis, and Dani Diletto, along with Mr. Tuna Starr, Grand Empress of Arkansas, and the Old Plantation’s Jennifer George and Ernestine.

Contestants in this year’s pageant came from California, Alabama, Michigan, Texas, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Florida, and Louisiana.

Now that the first BIG pageant is now behind us, it is just about time for Mr. Gay Texas (Aug. 19th in Houston) and Mr. Gay America (Sept. 5th in Dallas) to be hitting the boards. The Miss Gay America Pageant last weekend in Houston was an overwhelming success and the turn out this year was tremendous. On behalf of Norma Kristie and myself, many thanks go out to the following: Ron Oruc & Associates Floral Designers, Sally’s, The Locker, The Old Plantation, The Pet Shop in El Paso, Cruise magazine in Atlanta, the Bourbon Pub in New Orleans, and Tooter’s Restaurant. These businesses helped with the sponsorship of the Pageant, and without them it would not have taken place. Many thanks for their support!

As mentioned above, don’t forget Mr. Gay Texas will be on Thursday, August 19th at the OP in Houston. Some really hot, and I mean hot numbers have already entered, and it should be quite a show.

Michael Andrews, the new Miss Gay America, will be appearing at the Bayou Landing in Dallas this Sunday along with Sahdji. Don’t miss it.

And for those of you in Houston wondering about the cleanliness of some of Houston’s bars lately… well, JEM Sanitation is cleaning up the town like never before...
Sunday along with Sahdji. Don't miss it.

And for those of you in Houston wondering about the cleanliness of some of Houston's bars lately... well, JEM Sanitation is cleaning up the town like crazy!

And After Dark Bookstore & Film Gallery ... well, what can I say? It is certainly more than just another bookstore. With a fantastic sound system overhead and the largest and cleanest booths anywhere, it certainly has brought new innovations to bookstores in Houston.

And while talking about bookstores, R U I 2 at 900 Lovett is one of the hottest of the smaller, more "intimate" places around. It should be a big show in both the Dallas and Houston Old Plantations this weekend. In Dallas, the Houston cast of Ernestine, Latese Chevron Miss Congeniality Jennifer George, Donna Day, Jessica Landa, Naomi Simms, and Carmelita will be appearing. In Houston Jann Russell and the Pan- tomanies featuring Randi Delight, Shalimar, and Alan Allison with the "Living Dolls" will be premiering. Don't forget that talent night will be beginning on Tuesday night, August 17th at the Houston OP.

On Thursday, June 24, Karla Jay, co-editor of Out of the Closets: Voices of Gay Liberation and After You're Out, David Goodstein, editor of the Advocate, and Adrian Scott, editor-in-chief of Blueboy, appeared on Tom Snyder's Tomorrow show. The segment, part three of a series, on "The Sex Business in America" featured a tour through the gay world.

Lesbian/activist Karla Jay was significantly more eloquent and articulate than her two male cohorts. During a discussion of labels used for gays, Ms. Jay said that in the strictest sense of the word, she was not a lesbian, that is to say a native of the Island of Lesbos (a Greek island now off the coast of Turkey in the Adriatic Sea. The island was purportedly a haven for homosexual women, most notably the poetess Sappho - Ed.) Asked by Snyder if she was happy (gay) 100% of the time, Karla responded, "No, just 95% of the time."

A confrontation shortly ensued between the two men and Karla over the question of how wealthy gay people are. Adrian Scott said that gay people on the whole had more money to spend because they didn't have the responsibilities of a spouse or children. Ms. Jay retorted that historically there's always been the straight men and their women. She doesn't want it to be gay males and their women. Karla pointed out that lesbians are also discriminated against as women, and thus make substantially lower salaries, so they are not included when others talk about "wealthy gay people."

The subject then turned to effeminacy where Scott made so much of a point emphasizing that not all gay people were effeminate that Ms. Jay rose again to the occasion that effeminate people like women "truck drivers" and others have a right to be the way they are.

During the course of the show Snyder also conducted a live interview with two members of the New York gay scene. Part of this segment featured on-the-spot action in one of New York's gay discos.

Interestingly, one of the bar owners interviewed said straight trade in gay bars was a necessary and positive factor in good business.

Back in the studio Snyder inquired of Goodstein and Scott if they had ever featured any straight national advertisers. Goodstein said, "Summarily, no," claiming that many are afraid of tarnishing their image.

Then, point blank, Snyder drilled Goodstein with the following: "Are you in this for the money or the Movement?"

To which Goodstein replied, "I don't feel they two are mutually exclusive." ... Karla Jay just smiled ... It was all a matter of political consciousness.

Houston Gay Population

Over the past few years the gay population has been estimated to be the second largest in the United States behind that of San Francisco. But what actually is that estimated count?

Houston is now the fifth largest city in the U.S. with an estimated population of 2.5 million people. Of the 2.5 million only 50% are estimated to be adults, leaving a total of 1.25 million adults.

A national survey has estimated that only 4% of the population nationally is homosexual. But in metropolitan areas the percentage of homosexuals rises to 6% of the population.

Thus working with the 6 per cent figure, it can be estimated that a total of 75,000 homosexuals reside in the greater metropolitan area of Houston.

One would figure that out of 75,000 people gay establishments would be thriving with such a business. But that fact is far from being true. Only an estimated 10,000 people are bar goers, with only half of that figure being what is referred to as “regular” bar goers.

So surprisingly as it may be, in what is the nation’s second largest colony of homosexuals, only a small per centage are what can be called “liberated” or outgoing homosexuals who regularly support gay establishments.

So what many think is a gold mine for gay establishment owners is actually a battle field for customers. Don’t ever think that a business has all the customers it can handle, as the crowds in gay establishments come and go as often as the tide washes in and out.

HAWAII LAW CHALLENGED

A Hawaii man has thrown a legal challenge to that state by challenging that its marijuana laws pose a public health hazard.

Walter Bachman, the twenty-seven year old manager of the University of Hawaii’s campus radio station, was arrested last May after he reported to police the theft of marijuana plants he had been cultivating.

Bachman was charged with the third degree promotion of a detrimental drug, a petty dissembler in Hawaii. If found guilty, he faces a maximum penalty of a $500 fine and 30 days in jail.

In a hearing this month before a district court judge, Bachman, however, argued that Hawaii’s marijuana laws were not only “unreasonable and unconstitutional”, but that they posed a genuine health hazard.

Bachman says that he smokes about two “joints” a day to correct digestive problems caused by a surgical operation several years ago. Bachman argued that “for me, the state law is dangerous because I use marijuana as a medicine.”

Another example, Bachman says, is the case of a terminal cancer patient in Hawaii who used marijuana in her tea as a pain-killer and appetite stimulant. That woman was denied access to the substance after her husband was busted for growing marijuana in their back yard and, the station manager claims she subsequently “suffered a relapse when the plants were confiscated.”

Says Bachman, “The law forbids the use of T.H.C. in this state. So, in my estimation, the law is promoting cancer.”

Bachman is scheduled to appear for an August 26th hearing, during which he says he will introduce considerable evidence proving that marijuana is not harmful, and in some cases, can be medically helpful.

MADALYN FOR GOVERNOR

(ZNS) Will Texas have the first atheist governor?

Madalyn Murray O’Hair, who brought the 1960 civil suit which resulted in the Supreme Court decision banning compulsory prayers in public schools, says she’s going to run for Governor of Texas.

O’Hair, a self-described atheist, says she doesn’t particularly want the highest office in that state. Instead, she merely wants to get a count of the Texas atheist population, whom O’Hair believes will flock to her banner.

Well, gang, Rhoda is back one more time!

Things were buzzing hot and heavy this past weekend in Houston with the Miss Gay America Pageant on hand. And any time you put twenty-nine drag queens together, you can bet that there is a lot of stirring going on.

It seems that one contestant claimed the reason she received such a low score on her talent was because she had tricked with one of the judges the night before. I'm wondering, if she really did trick with the judge (which she categorically denied ever having said), which talent was she giving her a rating on?

It seems that most contestants got along fairly well, but it appears that some sponsors didn't do quite as well. Jerry Bradley from Alabama made a sudden threat on one judge Sunday night and was promptly removed to the city jail.

Most of the out-of-towners in Houston stayed at the Gulf Coast Motor Hotel, and from what I saw, the pool was one of the most festive places I've been around in a long time.

It appears that the battle of the Mr. Gay America Pageants is now over. It seems that one had been scheduled in Dallas and also in Florida both on Labor Day Weekend. Only it happens that the one in Dallas has a registered federal trademark on the name. It may still turn out to be a free for all yet, but I don't really look for it to happen.

And what has happened to the hot "romance" in New Orleans? I guess that long distance romances just aren't so hot after they have a few weeks to simmer. Isn't that right Mel?

And speaking of dead romances, well, T. G. Pretender's pet monkey Concheeta has FINALLY died. Rest in Peace!!!

And for all of you around who have heard the word Shonda lately and don't know the meaning of the word, well get ready. Arkansas' Tuna Starr, the originator of the catchy word, explained it to everyone this past weekend. To make a long story short, it means to "get the spirit!" So next time you happen to get the spirit, just let out a loud Shonda!

Well, gang, before our illustrious editor cuts our column space off completely, I guess I had better close for this week. Happy tails to you!!!

Here's an item for all you King Kong groupies.

I have Christian beliefs but am tolerant and liberal minded. Love all music, good wine, good rapport and interesting, good looking, nicely built, manly, young guys. No heavy involvement desired and no strings attached. My "early everything" Montrose flat is yours to call home in exchange for minor chores. If you are congenial and could get off to such an arrangement. Prefer not to hear from heavy dopers, hustlers, bar flys or s/m's. Will answer all letters. DON'T keep me waiting. Come on you butch guys write.
