The January 23-30
OLD PLANTATION BURNS

Saturday night employees of the Old Plantation club, Dallas were just finishing up the days work about 10:30 p.m. The new club was a little less than a week away from its grand opening. Fresh paint and new wall paper were all we still were in the building at 3520 Cedar Springs. Earlier that same day a new 50 ton air conditioner had been placed on the roof and installed. All that really lacked were some bar fixtures for the club. 12:45 am, Sunday, the Dallas Fire department received an alarm at 3520 Cedar Springs. Upon arrival, the firemen began battling the blaze which had become a 4 alarm fire by 2 am. By the time the fire was out, the roof of the building was laying on the floor of the structure. Apparently $75,000 in damage had been done. The Dallas Fire department has said that arson was definitely involved. The fire was started on the roof and quickly spread throughout the structure, which has led the officials to believe professional was involved. The Dallas arson squad had definite leads in the investigation.

The bar scene in Houston has been quite a different scene in the past two years and has several similarities with the Dallas fires. How-ever, the Oak Lawn area of Dallas where the old New Old Plantation was located had five arson fires in the past week.

Scott Hews, general manager of the Plantations, said that the Dallas club will open within the next two weeks at a temporary location until a permanent location can be found and built. They have also promised that the new location into a true super bar and give the Gays in Big D a bar they have never seen before. “They can burn us out, but not keep us down. The Old Plantation will rise,” stated Hews.

DEPOSITORY REMODELING

The Depoitory club, Houston will shut its doors Monday, Jan- uary 24th, and will re-open with a newly remodeled facility on Thurs- day, January 29th. General man-ager Jay Allen stated that the st- ructure has taken quite a beating since opening last year and that the closure for remodeling will enable the Depoitory to clean up the club thoroughly, install a new dance floor, a new fascinating light show, and a new men’s shop. C. J. Harrington, the former Mr. David will be opening his clothing shop, The Grand re-opening January 29th should prove to be quite festive. There will be a $2.00 cover and all bar drinks will be Free to the entire Memorial Day weekend. It will also be Free.

A survey by the Pentagon has found that 49% of the enlisted men in the Marines admit to having used marijuana at least once.

A report to the Senate Armed Services Committee said a six month survey showed that non-high school graduates and Marines under the age of 21 were the most prominent drug users.

HOUSTON PRICE WAR

I'm sure most of us can remember the good old days of the gasoline price wars. You know the days when regular was only 24.9¢. Unfortunately the price war that is currently being waged in Houston is not gasoline. To the glee of many, it is in mixed drinks! The super bar powers in Houston have once again so benevolently decided to see which bar can hold out the longest and lowered well drink prices to a bare minimum. Be sure to check the bar ads in the Nuntius for the best drink buys in town!
