Houston’s E.D. Lloyd was a big hit as a special guest performer at the Miss Texas Show. The ever popular performer has been off the stage the past few months and was a welcomed site. E.D.’s shop at 900 Lovett has been moved to a new location in the complex. It seems that his business has really picked up.

Bobby’s of Houston, the shirt shop just off Montrose, is really having some spectacular shirt sales every Saturday. New shipments arrive on Fridays, so Saturday is really a shopping day! City Printers at 4319 Montrose in Houston, is no longer just City Printers – it’s now City Printers and Typesetters. The print shop is now complete to handle most any need you have.

One of the most popular films to ever play Houston is the History of the Gay Movie - has opened at the French Quarter for a week’s run.

NAOMI SIMMS NEW MISS TEXAS

This past weekend in Houston, the Nuntius hosted the Miss Gay Texas Pageant before overflowing crowds that were literally hanging from the rafters at the Old Plantation Club. A standing room only crowd appeared for both evenings of the Texas extravaganza to help cheer on their hometown favorites.

Forty-one contestants came from all across the Lone Star State to try to capture the coveted title.

This fourth annual event was perhaps the most successful and smoothly run pageant in its short history. Careful planning by Pageant Director Mel Plummer and the staff of the Old Plantation helped to bring off these two event filled nights.

Contestants arrived for orientation at 11 a.m. Saturday and began a long and trying two days with orientation. Shortly afterwards, the Old Plantation’s Ernestine and Jennifer George hosted a cocktail party for Pageant participants. Preliminary judging in Sportswear and Gown began at 5 p.m. and opening ceremonies started at 8:30 with Talent Competition.

Contestants returned Sunday to find out who the lucky ten semifinalists were. At the same time the announcement of Houston’s own Donna Day as Miss Congeniality was announced.

The panel of 5 judges were then set to judge the top 10 over again in all categories. From the 10, the contestants were narrowed down to five - Erika Lane, Jessica Landa, Janet, Naomi Simms, and Alan Allison. These five then answered a personal interview question to determine the new Miss Gay Texas 1976.

The panel of judges was headed by Miss Gay America Emeritus, Norma Kristie, and consisted of Mr. Jerry Meneeley, owner of the Bourbon Pub in New Orleans, Mr. Larry Bell, a representative of the El Vaquero in Laredo, Ms. Harri Kay Kaplan, a fashion account executive for a leading Houston entertainment journal, and Mrs. Ann Johnston of Windsor Coutures in Houston.

After a long deliberation with the closest balloting ever, the judges made up their minds. First runner-up from Houston was Janet. Second runner-up from Dallas, Alan Allison, and Miss Gay Texas 1975 - Naomi Simms.

The Pageant was host by Arkansas’ Tuna Starr, and Houston’s Jennifer George and Ernesyne.

(below) Naomi Simms is shown accepting the Miss Gay Texas 1976 trophy. Naomi is currently the reigning Miss Gay South, and Miss Gay Jacksonville, Fla. She is also a former Miss Gay Louisiana. Naomi will give up her title of Miss Gay South on May 8th in Hot Springs.

Miss Gay America in Houston

After a disappointing showing of support in Houston last year, in a surprise announcement during the Miss Texas Pageant, the Miss Gay America Pageant will return to Houston on August 6, 7, & 8.

Due to a change of location at the last moment this past year, the national pageant suffered heavy financial losses when crowds did not materialize until the last night.

Feeling that the cause for this was due to the location change and lack of publicity of it, the Miss Gay America Pageant will base itself this year at the Old Plantation.

Additional seating, a revamped stage, and 20 tons additional air conditioning has made the Houston site the best available.

Over 50 contestants are expected for this three day extravaganza.
Dear Aunt Sofa:

Is there a special way to excite an uncircumcised man? I love oral sex but recently I went out with my first uncircumcised man and he didn't seem too turned on by what I was doing to him. ADVISE:

The technique used depends on the particular person what he enjoys the most. Not all people find direct oral contact pleasurable, and some uncircumcised men prefer movement of the foreskin over the covered glans with the shaft held tight. The point is that the technique used depends on the giver and the recipient. If what you're doing has excited most other men, then maybe the difference is in the man's forehead, not his foreskin.

Dear Aunt Sofa: I'm different from the other guys. Most of my friends complain about never getting a good orgasm. I am just the opposite - I can come between eight and twelve times with each trick. I'm just turned eighteen and have had three year's experience. Can I burn myself out?

ADVICE: Multiple orgasms won't burn you out - but guilt and self doubt will. Physiologically speaking, there is no apparent limit to the number of orgasms a person can have. Physical exhaustion and desire, as well as your partner's stamina, usually dictate when to stop. Different people naturally have varying levels of sexual arousal. If many of your friends feel that they're failing (whatever that means), then it can be a very lonely experience for you to be "successful". However, there are no rules in sex and love, and so "live your difference."4

HO R S C O P E

ARIES (March 21 - April 20): A turnaround could be experienced where finances and shopping are concerned. Loved ones seem more impersonal than you would like. Differences are apparent.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21): Be careful with business and personal finances; don't let anyone put anything over on you. Certain types of group activities should be regarded with suspicion.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 21): This should be a good week for utilizing the talents of other people. A line of investigation can prove to be fruitful. Look for the silver lining.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23): This is a good stable week - a time for making wise decisions. Matters concerning loved ones can be discussed with a clear mind, keen insight.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23): Keep your eyes and ears open this week; you can learn much from following the example of your peers. Others are more open to compromises and efforts to cooperate.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23): You may have to be blunt where your mate or partner is concerned. Don't get into anything that seems the least bit dubious. Rumors can be spread too easily.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23): You are feeling more introspective this week. There could be a chance to finish up a project or get some debris out of the way. Visit an invalided individual.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22): Look out for delays and roadblocks; remove objects which might cause accidents. You may find value in a used item or antique. See that no one wants for anything.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21): You may have to make an exchange or give a refund. Read the fine print in contracts. Listen to others; you can discover valuable information. Give a confidence.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20): Togo things done you may have to apply extra pressure or persuasion. Use discretion in selection of personnel. An avoidable accident may trigger a health problem.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19): Avoid arguments over money the first of the week; don't make too much out of slight disagreements. Communications are mixed up later on. Take a second direction.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20): Something may come up to which you would give serious consideration. Get that comprehensive mind of yours organized along communicative lines. Shop thriftily.
