Summer is just about upon us, and instead of things slowing down, it seems that things are speeding up.

First, happy anniversary wishes to The Locker from the Nuntius. This Friday night, May 7th, is the big event. For its second anniversary, The Locker will introduce you to Odin and an unbelievable Barbarian Feast. It will be an event that only the Locker can bring about. Also, Mr. Texas ’76 will be selected with $150 and the Locker Belt going to the winner. Don’t miss it!

Coming up in Dallas on Sunday, May 20th, the Old Plantation’s Annual Beer Bust and Weiner Roast will be taking place at Queen’s Point on Lake Dallas. Parry starts at noon, so don’t be late!

The Second Sun in Houston has just finished their extensive remodeling job. Now the front overlooking Cruzy Westheimer is a super picture window. Street cruising has just become the favorite past time again. Also, Dirty Sally (Paul Stewart for those who don’t know) is no longer with us, but we can find her daily at the Super Picture Window. Street cruising has just become the favorite past time again. Also, Dirty Sally herself can be found daily at the Second Sun. So be sure to stop in and say hello to one of Houston’s most favorite “celebrities.”

This Friday night, May 7th, is the 24th birthday of the Old Plantation. Party starts at 9:00 p.m. and it will be a Wakefield Poole Film Festival. For those of who can’t quite place the name, the famous porn film maker has many credits but does Boys In The Sand ring a bell? It should be one of the hottest all male screenings around! Don’t forget Mother’s Day is Sunday. And according to Ren Oruc & Associates Floral Designers it should be a busy weekend for them. So order your flowers now and don’t miss out because of the last minute rush.

My personal thanks to Rhoda Blabheit for her Scoop to Scoop column this issue. Rhoda used to write her infamous column for that infamous magazine Swampwalker. Rhoda will be writing for us periodically, so all I can say is — look out!

S.B.—I Dead?

Massachusetts Senator Edward Kennedy has reportedly switched his position and has decided to oppose any further effort to work out a compromise version of the controversial “Senate Bill I.” Kennedy’s change of position could signal the end of “S-1.”

S-1 is the 799 page bill that proposes a sweeping re-codification of the federal criminal statute. Critics of S-1 contend it amounts to an American ‘official secrets act.’

The National Commission on Law Enforcement and Social Justice (N.C.L.E.), a research arm of the Church of Scientology, reports that Senator Kennedy decided last week to halt his efforts to compromise on the bill, and that Kennedy will now oppose S-1.

Kennedy was one of three liberal members of the Senate who — along with James Abourezk of South Dakota and Phillip Hart of Michigan — had been attempting behind the scenes for months to work out an acceptable version of S-1.

However, according to the N.C.L.E., the conservative senators rejected Kennedy’s request to accept most of the compromise proposals submitted by Kennedy, Hart, and Abourezk.

Kennedy’s office, in the meantime, is considering how to deny the report that he has decided to finally oppose S-1. The Washington office said a final statement of S-1 will soon be made public, most likely this week.

Senator’s Abourezk’s office confirms that Abourezk has some serious misgivings about the compromise version of S-1, however. Even under the compromise bill, journalists could be imprisoned for up to three years for unauthorized possession of government documents.

Show of Stars
The New Miss Gay America Pageant
Saturday, May 22nd

To the Editor

Dear Mel,

There's something that needs to be brought to your attention. I hope you print this letter.

Last night I saw a drag show at the Old Plantation. Needless to say, the show was great. Great except for one religious number that was blatantly sacrilegious. It was sick!

How are we going to get the respect we crave from the straight community when we don't respect religious institutions? It is no wonder St. Anne's Catholic Church wants the Depository closed! I don't blame them!

As a matter of fact, we make such a big to-do about being respected for our sexual preferences that the Miss Gay Texas finalists had to answer several questions about being gay and justifying it to a "straight friend." We were reminded by the judges that Miss Gay Texas had to be an ambassador of good will to the straight community and represent all gay people proudly. Well, guess who was in the sacrilegious skit? Right! The new Miss Gay Texas, Naomi Sims!!

All of us can help the gay civil rights movement by showing more respect toward religious institutions and the straight community. All of us can also use our talents for the advancement of the movement and not its destruction!

Thank you for your patience.

Robert

Dear Mel,

Thank you for your letter and your views. Letters are always welcomed from our readers and as in the past, will always be given prompt attention.

A copy of your letter was forwarded to Mr. Bob Fournier, the manager of the Old Plantation in Houston. Mr. Fournier was also very grateful for your letter, as the Old Plantation recently has become very active in its community relationships.

The Old Plantation wishes to openly apologize to you or anyone who was offended by the drag skit. Mr. Fournier stated that the skit was not done or meant to be done in a sacrilegious manner. In today's society there has become so little to laugh about, when man himself and his ways of life can be most amusing. The skit you mentioned was done to laugh with mankind, not at his religion or even mankind himself. As stated before, the Old Plantation offers their sincerest apologies to anyone who was offended by the skit, but it was not meant as a sacrilege or slap in anyone's face.

The National Organization for Women is asking the Internal Revenue Service to conduct a major tax audit of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

In a letter to the IRS Commissioner, NOW President Karen DeCrow asked that all Roman Catholic Dioceses, The National Conference of Catholic Bishops, and the U.S. Catholic Conference be investigated to determine whether tax exempt dollars are being used illegally to create "an anti-abortion political network."

DeCrow wrote that U.S. Roman Catholic Bishops, at a national conference in Washington, stated their intent to use "all church sponsored or identifiable Catholic national, regional, or diocesan and parochial organizations and agencies to create an anti-abortion political network throughout the country."

DeCrow charged that the Catholic Church may be violating both its tax exempt status and the American principle of separation of church and state by funneling dollars or identifiable Catholic organizations and agencies to create an anti-abortion political network throughout the country."

Hustler Magazine has offered 84 year old Mae West $25,000 to pose for a nude centerfold. Mae, who will be 85 on August 17th, reports she has informed the magazine it can use a nude painting of her, which was done in 1931. Says Mae, "I haven't changed."

NO IMPORTANT JOBS

A survey by the Capitol Hill Women's Political Caucus has found that women hold almost no important positions in most presidential campaigns this year. The political caucus says that only 10 women hold "positions of real power" among the 69 top campaign jobs. Morris Udall's campaign is the only one to receive a "superior" rating -- while Ford, Reagan, and Wallace are all rated "unsatisfactory."

CUT THE CUT

If you're one of those people who dislike certain cuts on a particular album -- or if you simply like to hear the songs on an album in a different order -- there's good news for you.

A London company, B.S.R., is out with a new record turntable that automatically selects just the cuts you want to hear. B.S.R. offers an automated arm that uses an infrared scanner to count each track on the side of an album being played. By punching a few buttons ahead of time, you can tell the machine to avoid any tracks you don't want to hear, to play the cuts you like, and even jump back and forth to certain songs.

B.S.R. says that its automatic arm can handle up to 24 separate commands at one time, and keep track of as many as 13 tracks on each side of an album. One drawback is that the turntable alone sells for about $600.

NUMBER ONE SON?

ZNS Jimmy Carter's son has outdone President Ford's son on the marijuana question. Jack Ford shocked a number of people last year by admitting he has smoked marijuana and suggesting that weed should be decriminalized in the U.S.

Now, Jeff Carter, son of the Democratic candidate, is suggesting pot should be sold over the counter in stores. Says Jeff Carter: "I feel marijuana should be legalized and taxed." Young Carter adds he believes that legalization should take place in shops, with decriminalization happening first.

NOW OR NEVER

It's now or never for Ling Ling and Hsing Hsing -- at least for this year.

Officials at the National Zoo in Washington say they will use every diplomatic maneuver possible to get the two giant Chinese Pandas together to mate. Ling Ling and Hsing Hsing were given to the U.S. during Richard Nixon's 1972 China tour.

Zoo officials report that last spring, when the two Pandas were put together for their short 18 day mating season, nothing happened. The zookeepers now say they have consulted with Chinese Panda experts and hope for a breakthrough within the next two weeks -- and a little more than just detente between the two Pandas.
