FROM THE EDITOR

Welcome once again, one and all, to Update Weekly. As you probably noticed when you picked up the paper, it is considerably larger than usual. This has happened only because you the reader with your support of our newspaper and advertisers have made us grow to meet the needs of the gay society throughout the state.

Unfortunately in the past, Update has primarily been Houston area news. I must admit, it was not due to a lack of news across the state, but because of being understaffed and really overworked. But Update as of this issue will strive to continue giving coverage to activities across the state where ever they might be happening. Also I would like to thank the bar owners and managers across the Lone Star State for becoming more active in letting us know just what is happening at their establishments. After all, who can turn down free publicity!

Once again, a great big Thank You from the staff of Update for helping us to grow and serve you even better than before. And this will be continued as such as long as each and every one of you demands it!

MICHAEL GREER SHOW to open in Houston

Isn't it time that you find out what the critics already know... Rex Reed says "Michael Greer knocks the audience on its behind with sheer talent... this man is absolutely crazy and I can promise you that no matter what you expect, he'll surprise you... his timing and choice of material is polished like new silver and when he sings, it is a moving beautiful treat." After Dark Magazine says "Michael Greer weaves through a crazy quilt of gossip, songs, and some of the biggest laughs since Shelley Winter's underwater scenes in "The Poseidon Adventure". Such are just two of the reviews being given across the country to one of the nation's most upcoming and aspiring night club acts presented by Michael Greer.

Michael Greer is a tall 6' giant of an entertainer who challenges the scope of your emotions in his one-man show. He has total command of himself and the audience; neither could he ever be accused of "understanding". Michael Greer weaves through a crazy quilt of gossip, songs, and some of the biggest laughs since Shelley Winter's underwater scenes in "The Poseidon Adventure". Such are just two of the reviews being given across the country to one of the nation's most upcoming and aspiring night club acts presented by Michael Greer.

Such are just two of the reviews being given across the country to one of the nation's most upcoming and aspiring night club acts presented by Michael Greer.

Michael Greer and his one-man show will be opening Halloween night at Houston's Depository Club for a three day run. Two shows will be presented Friday and Saturday nights, with the closing show on Sunday. It should be noted that Mr. Greer's shows are basically different each time, and something new can always be expected at every performance. Michael Greer is a truly original and entertaining artist that should not be missed!

PISCES BURNS

The Pisces Club in Houston, known to many as the Second Sun II, was reportedly to have been seriously damaged by fire last Sunday night. As of press time, all that could be confirmed was that the Pisces will be closed indefinitely. A complete follow up story will follow next week.

MISS HOUSTON AT LARGE

The Hi Kamp Klub of Houston recently held its second annual Miss Houston At Large Contest and Pageant. The competition was strictly for the Big girls as a weight minimum of 200 pounds was required for entry.

Five contestants made up the field for competition in Sportswave's Gown and Talent. The entrants were not assigned numbers, but were weighed in on stage and went by their respective weights.

The talent competition was hot and heavy as over a half ton of entertainment was presented to the packed house. Tootie, contestant #33r, moved the house with Aretha Franklin's Spirit In The Sky. Michelle, #237, performed Show Me A Man and then finished with the Stripper. #204, Jill Jordan, performed Streisand's How Lucky Can You Get. Another contestant that literally rocked the house was Donna Day, #264, with her Aretha Franklin medley. But somehow the biggest turned out to be the best. Terry #350 plus, and his rendition of Pearl Bailey's Hello Dolly brought a standing ovation and three encores.

Terry walked away with the $100 and trophy for first prize, while Tootie collected $100 and a trophy for 3rd place. The money prize was only available on a who of the SWAMP TRASH
The "Mona Lisa" skit is the most ingenious piece of comedy to be seen or heard in a long time. It is a running dialogue between the "Mona Lisa", "Whistler's Mother", and "Blue Boy" who all expected at every performance. Michael Greer is a truly original and entertaining artist that should not be missed.

SECOND SUN GLOWS
The Second Sun in Houston plans a full evening of gala activities for Halloween night. A Costume Ball is in order for the evening with two judgings for the Best Costume.

The first judging will be at 10 pm, with a $50 prize going to the best costume. The stroke of midnight has been set for the last judging and a $100 prize in cash will be awarded the winner.

The Second Sun will have no cover charge Halloween night and free champagne will be served from 10 pm till midnight.

CHEZ PARIS MASQUERADE
Corpus Christi's only mixed drink bar, the Chez Paris, will definitely be the highlight of the city on Halloween night.

A full evening of entertainment has been planned for all with a Costume Ball. Trophies will be awarded for Best Costume for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place.

All the fun and activities should be well underway by 10:30 PM. A $2.00 cover charge has been set for admission at the front door.

ENCORE FESTIVITIES
Tex and Joe, owners of Dallas' ever popular Encore Club, once again expect to have a full house to join in the Halloween activities. A Costume Party has been planned for this festive occasion.

Disco dancing will take place all evening under the lighted ceiling over the dancefloor most of the evening, but a pause will be in order to select the winners of Best Costume. The lucky recipients will win $100, $75, and $50 each. Activities should be well into action by 10 pm and for a memorable Halloween evening, don't miss the action at the Encore in Dallas.

HOUSTON FARMHOUSE FESTIVITIES
The Farmhouse Club, Houston is not one to be left out at Halloween and has planned a full schedule for everyone.

The Farmhouse's Annual Costume Ball will once again take place this year with the crowning of Mr. and Miss. Farmhouse the highlight of the evening. The winners will receive $100, $75, and $50 for the winners, 1st runnerup, and 2nd runnerup, respectively.

Also Best Costume will be awarded, but instead of to an individual, it will be given to the best couple or group, regardless of sex. The prize for this category will be $100 for the winners, with $75 and $50 going to the runnerups.

Everything will be getting underway at 9 pm. and of course after-hours will be a must until 4 am.

HI KAMP SPECTACULAR
The Hi Kamp Klub, Houston will present its 5th Annual Halloween Contest, Extravaganza, Spectacular on Thursday, October 30th.

Categories in the contests range from Best Costume, Best Comic Drag, and Best Professional Drag right on to the selecting of Mr. and Miss Hi Kamp.

Then, Halloween night at the stroke of midnight, the Hi Kamp will have a Super Halloween Contest. The winners and runnerups in all categories will gather from all the Houston bars to compete for the grand title of Miss Houston Halloween and Miss Runnerup.

Fabulous cash prizes and trophies will be awarded to these winners.

MIXED DRINKS. . . SELECT WINES

Well, folks, another sequel has hit the theaters. This time it's "Let's Do It Again" starring Bill Cosby, Sidney Poitier, and Jimmy J. J. Walker. It's a sequel to "Uptown Saturday Night", a very popular movie last year. Being a box office hit, they naturally had to make a sequel.

One strong point is that "Let's Do It Again" is a far better film than "Uptown". It's comedy impact is a lot stronger and it moves at a much faster pace. Not that "Uptown" wasn't good; it was, in "Let's Do It Again" our good guys played by Cosby and Poitier are out once again trying to get rich quick. They go after a fighter that goes in the ring as underdog each fight. What they do in this situation is to take a down and out fighter (J. J.) and hypnotize him into winning fights. That's right skinny ole funny "Good Times" Walker wins fights against everyone he meets in the ring. Now if that's not comedy, I don't know what is. The film is good comedy with plenty of sight gags thrown in for more fun. At times the film tends to slow down, but don't fret as it never stops. It just keeps moving along til the very end. It's definitely worth looking at in my opinion.

Big Duke Wayne has now brought back his Rooster Cogburn role out of hiding. You can remember that part from the highly successful "True Grit". This time he doesn't have Kim Darling to give him hell; now its Katie Hepburn hot on his tracks.

Clint Eastwood has a re-release out playing around the cinemas titled "Eiger Sanction", with George Kennedy co-starring. It seems that in this film, Eastwood is playing a gun for hire type character; a change from his usual "Dirty Harry" type characters in To make a long story short, Eastwood and Kennedy are hired to do a person in on top of a 600' mountain called "Eiger Sanction". Eastwood is to do the killing and Kennedy is hired to help him scale the mountain side (that's the only way up, you see). The mountain climbing sequences are scary as hell, so take along your tranquilizers for safe keeping as you'll need them. Eastwood's performance as Hemlock is good, but he can only go so far in his acting abilities. George Kennedy is his side kick through out the film, but don't expect too much from him.

The movie is so suspenseful, it will make you want to go back for more. It is definitely worth your time and money.

SUCCESSFUL “True Grit”. This time he doesn’t have Kim Darling to give him hell; now its Katie Hepburn hot on his tracks.

In “Rooster Cogburn and the Lady”, John Wayne and Katherine Hepburn have the whole film to each other. I bet you’re thinking it sounds like the western version of “The African Queen”; and you’re not far from being wrong. It seems that Rooster Cogburn is chasing a bunch of bandits that stole some very lethal explosives. On the way to capturing them he

SAN ANTONIO EXTRAVAGANZA
The San Antonio Extravaganza will stretch out not only the week before Halloween, but also into November. For Halloween evening a Costume Ball is on the program. ARIES: Fortunate trends boost your popularity and help you attract influential friends. One of the best opportunities to gain the support of an outstanding leader in your field occurs this week.

TAURUS: You have an opportunity to make progress in a joint enterprise. Plan things as carefully as possible, and do not hesitate to accept the suggestions of partners. Sudden changes in career matters could improve your prospects.

GEMINI: Your mind maybe flooded with new plans to advance professional projects. Sift through those exciting ideas and select the plan which promises to bring you the greatest advancement in your field and increased earnings.

CANCER: Try to remain calm when difficulties develop between family members and people in your neighborhood. Discount all rumors and hear-say; get the facts before you arrive at a decision in the matter.

LEO: Overlapping fortunate trends favor creative and artistic efforts. If you have doubts concerning your talent, get the advice of more experienced club members or consult and expert. An unbiased appraisal of your ability might save you time and money.

VIRGO: Although your financial outlook is good, it would be best to keep your spending well within budgetary limitations, especially when

VIRGO: Although your financial outlook is good, it would be best to keep your spending well within budgetary limitations, especially when someone you love tempts you to be extravagant. Do not overlook the possibility of discovering profitable business ventures.

LIBRA: Strengthen ties with your business partners and career associates when conditions may be unsettled. Postpone any efforts to start new projects. Romantic interests and artistic efforts may give you a chance for recognition.

SCORPIO: Make plans to pursue personal undertakings when you may expect to be uninterrupted. Make new plans now for cooperative projects you wish to start. Group activities and social life should be highly favorable for your interests.

SAGITTARIUS: Be prepared to deal with problems arising in your home. There seems to be a great deal of unrest and dissatisfaction among family members. Some of these difficulties may develop when responsibilities in career matters demand your personal attention.

CAPRICORN: Get set for a highly fortunate trend in your family and partnership enterprises. Take the lead in formulating ambitious plans for the future after you have contacted all interested people for their suggestions.

AQUARIUS: Career and financial interests are fortunately accented, but the results may be more satisfactory if you concentrate efforts on these concerns this week. To get maximum benefits from a private venture, finalize the matter before the month’s end.

PISCES: Your prospects for romance are excellent the first part of the week, but the trend deteriorates fast later in the week. Career obligations and your commitments to local groups may demand all your attention. Be prepared to take advantage of unusual developments.
DALLAS LANDING HIGHLIGHT

The Bayou Landing, Dallas should once again be a major highlight in the Metroplex. The Landing will start off the Halloween festivities on Wednesday night October 29th, with its first Annual Entertainer of the Year Awards. They will be offering $100 to the Entertainer of the Year, while the Best Serious and Best Comedy performer will each receive $25.

But to make things more suspenseful, the winners will not be announced until Halloween night.

Halloween night festivities will consist of competition in the following categories:
- Best Gown $150 & trophy
- Best Costume $200 & trophy
- Best Couple $100 & trophy
- Miss Halloween $150 & trophy

Activities should be getting underway about 9:30 Halloween evening. Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at the Landing for $3.00.

PET SHOP MASQUERADE

El Paso's Pet Shop has planned activities with everyone in mind. To start the evening off a Masquerade Ball and Show have been planned to begin at 10:30, after the other bars have held their own shows.

Judges will select customers from the crowds and will award trophies and cash prizes for Best Costumes. This way, all customers in costume will be participating in the festivities.

On November 2nd, the Pet Shop will gather the winners from all the other bars in El Paso for another gala evening. At this time, Miss Halloween El Paso will be chosen from the top winners in the city.

A complete weekend of activities should make the Pet Shop the center of activity in the popular border town. Don't forget for those planning to be out El Paso way, the Pet Shop is the ONLY mixed drink bar in the town!

A LEATHER HALLOWEEN

The Locker, Houston's only leather bar, will join in festivities to help celebrate Halloween. Kitty the Witch will be on hand to oversee all activities. The evening has been especially planned for those who help celebrate Halloween. Everyone who comes to the bar in costume will receive their drinks at half price. The Best Original Costume will also be chosen with a $100 cash prize going to the winner.

HYPOTHESIS REIGNS IN SAN ANTONIO

San Antonio's Hypothesis appears to be the place for Halloween evening in the Alamo City. A special Halloween show has been planned for Thursday, October 30th, plus a Masquerade Ball on Halloween night.

Turquoise jewelry will be awarded the winner of the Best Costume, while the winner of Worst Costume will receive a $5.00 bar tab.

An early crowd is expected, so don't delay in getting over to the Hypothesis and joining in the Halloween activities.

PET SHOP MASQUERADE

El Paso's Pet Shop has planned activities with everyone in mind. To start the evening off a Masquerade Ball and Show have been planned to begin at 10:30, after the other bars have held their own shows.

Judges will select customers from the crowds and will award trophies and cash prizes for Best Costumes. This way, all customers in costume will be participating in the festivities.

On November 2nd, the Pet Shop will gather the winners from all the other bars in El Paso for another gala evening. At this time, Miss Halloween El Paso will be chosen from the top winners in the city.

A complete weekend of activities should make the Pet Shop the center of activity in the popular border town. Don't forget for those planning to be out El Paso way, the Pet Shop is the ONLY mixed drink bar in the town!

SEX ADVISE

I have been reading the classifieds in some of the “sex” papers and have come across many terms and abbreviations I don’t understand. Could you possibly give a rundown of most of the terminology used in these ads?

I must admit there are quite a few lingos when it comes to the “classifieds” of all the papers. Here is a rundown of some of them:

b/d - Bondage and discipline
s/m - Sadism and masochism
ac/dc - Can perform sexually with both sexes
bi - same as ac/dc
Versatile - in straight ads can mean the same as ac/dc. In gay ads it usually means a person can go “fem” or “butch”.
French active - performs oral sex to partner
French passive - receives oral sex from partner
Greek active - performs anal sex on partner
Greek passive - you guessed it!
Roman - Orgies and grop sex activities
Straight - Male/female sex only
Water Sports - Enemas
Golden Showers - urinating on a person
TV - Television or a person who enjoys wearing the clothes of the opposite sex.
LOCKER SLAVE AUCTION

Houston's only leather bar, the Locker, presented one of its renowned "slave auctions" on Friday evening this past week. The bar was filled beyond capacity and the "Locker Money" was bid like flowing water.

The bidding was an active one for the customers and a lucrative one for the slaves. Winning bids ranged from fifty thousand dollars all the way up to two million dollars. A lot of disappointed bidders left empty handed, but all will return next month with even more "money" to try once again.
