AIDS, CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY AND COUNSELING

BY SHARON STONE

Therapists Must Be Knowledgeable of the Issues Surrounding Sexual Orientation and HIV When Dealing with Clients

IDS is a special issue that cannot be 🖰 ignored because it affects gay men, IV drug users, bisexual and heterosexual people, and alcoholics (whatever their sexual orientation), who are often among those at high risk because of sexual experiences while drinking and because of the effects of alcohol on their immune systems. AIDS cannot be ignored because it affects everyone in some way-physically, emotionally, spiritually and, yes, even sexually. AIDS cannot be ignored by people committed to providing treatment for alcoholism because ignoring it violates our trust as care givers and our responsibility as human beings.

To work knowledgeably with an alcoholic population, counselors need to understand what AIDS is. AIDS refers to Acquired (developed at some time after birth or passed from pregnant mothers to fetuses) Immune Deficiency (a lack or weakness in the body's defense system against many kinds of infections and cancers) Syndrome (a cluster of symptoms). The cause of AIDS is the HIV virus, which weakens the immune system and creates the opportunity for certain diseases (known as "opportunistic" infections) to invade the body. The two most common that occur with AIDS are Kaposi's sarcoma and pneumocystis carinii pneumonia.

Some people get ARC, or AIDS-Related Complex, a somewhat milder version of the depression of the immune system, but they are still subject to a range of mild-to-severe illnesses. People with ARC may or may not develop AIDS. The HIV virus is transmitted by exchanges of bodily fluids, especially semen and blood.

Counselors need to know what their agencies' policies are toward people with AIDS. Are PWAs acceptable for admission? Or does the agency or institution refuse to admit anyone with AIDS or ARC? What happens if someone has an HIV positive test reading? It is critically important to know these policy factors to anticipate events and attitudes if a client discloses himself as gay, or if a client discloses him or herself as an IV drug user or reveals a background of sexual activity while drinking which places him or her at high risk for exposure to HIV.

If a client has AIDS, would he or she be forced to leave the unit or be placed in isolation? If the agency has a policy of admitting people with AIDS or ARC, what procedures have been established to manage these occurrences? Are there lists of standard precautions? Are they posted so that all staff and clients can read them? Is literature explaining AIDS available to all patients and staff? Do all staff receive

A NYC Indie Label House Compilation A "Declaration of Independents I & II" CD Giveaway thorough, ongoing, in-service training? Is a discussion of AIDS included as a standard part of lectures on sexuality? Are safe sex practices included in sexuality lectures? What is the agency's policy regarding testing for HIV? How are the findings of this test handled regarding confidentiality and state laws? Do clients have the right to refuse the test? Or will they be asked (or pressured) to leave if they refuse?

If counselors are going to provide good treatment for gay males and other clients, they need to know enough about AIDS/ ARC to teach and reassure other staff and clients. The public's irrational fears about AIDS are enormously powerful, and these fears fuel others-especially homophobia. Therefore, informed, level-headed staff are needed to teach others in order to allay some of these fears. It is important for counselors to know enough about AIDS to address the fears of the "worried well," people in high-risk groups (gay men especially) who are often irrationally convinced that they have or soon will have AIDS. It is equally important for counselors to be able to address the denial some people have about the risks of unsafe sex practices or the sharing of needles.

If counselors are going to provide good treatment for gay males and other clients, they need to know enough about AIDS to teach and reassure other staff and clients.

Although not all fear can be banished by teaching about AIDS, education is certainly a most effective weapon. In educating others, it is best to assume people know little about the disease. It helps to begin with the most basic information, especially how the disease is and is not transmitted, because many people-including a number of gay men and lesbians-are remarkably uninformed or illinformed, holding such beliefs as that AIDS can be caught by touching someone who has it. Information about the ways alcohol and drugs can weaken the immune system should be included in any lecture on the physical effects of alcoholism and chemical dependency. Everyone—especially gay men and bisexual men and women—should be taught about safe sex practices and the risks of unsafe sex practices.

One other aspect needs to be considered. What attitudes about sobriety do staff members and affected clients have in the face of a fatal diagnosis of AIDS? Any client who is on a treatment unit and has been diagnosed as having AIDS has to deal with the value of sobriety in the face of impending death. Other clients and staff may have to deal with that question also. All staff—from the cleaning people to the psychiatrists—should be trained in death and dying issues and their relationship to the Twelve Steps.

Staff people also need to turn to one another when dealing with the inevitable stress involved in working with death and dying. The staff needs to monitor their own attitudes regarding AIDS and the ways people contract the disease to determine whether they feel gay men are paying the price for sexual promiscuity. If staff members have such attitudes, they need to refer the client to someone else or work through their feelings. Ultimately, this whole issue comes down to the same essentials: counselors need to be well informed, aware of their own attitudes and willing to assist clients in feasible and appropriate ways.

Whatever issues arise for individual clients, the essential truth is that failure to address and attend to them can be destructive to the clients. There is no scientific way to measure the destructiveness of such negligence. But gay and lesbian alcoholics repeatedly report how terrible it felt to have counselors ignore obvious clues about sexual orientation or tell them that sexual orientation was not relevant to recovery. Being gay or lesbian involves far more than sexual orientation and raises many important life issues. Not to be acknowledged as a whole person feels terrible. It also means proper and appropriate treatment cannot be given.

On the other hand, counselors who address these special issues with knowledge and sensitivity provide gay and lesbian alcoholics with the quality of treatment that can help them recover from their alcoholism or chemical dependency.

Sharon Stone is a Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor and Hypnotherapist with a practice in Houston.

The Annual Dallas Fund-Raiser, Which Benefits the AIDS Programs of Oak Lawn Community Services, Has Grown into One of the Top 10 Walks In the United States

N ine years ago, community and AIDS activists in Los Angeles recognized a need for relief and education services to deal with the growing AIDS crisis in Southern California. To raise the funds necessary to start addressing these needs, these activists created the first AIDS walk. Now, AIDS walks have become one of the primary fund-raising sources for the disease in 16 cities across the United States, six of those cities being in Texas.

At about the same time of the first AIDS walk in Los Angeles, Dallasite Howie Daire saw the need to establish a center to address the psychosocial, counseling and educational needs of the gay and lesbian community. Based on his vision, Oak Lawn Counseling Center was formed, and has been at the forefront of AIDS-related service providers since 1983. While the organization's name was changed to Oak Lawn Community Services in 1988 to better reflect the growing number of services offered to the community, the group's commitment to AIDS care and education remains unchanged.

It seemed appropriate, therefore—when organizers decided two years ago to present LifeWalk in Dallas—that the AIDS programs of Oak Lawn Community Services be the designated recipient of proceeds from the event. In just two years, LifeWalk has generated over $350,000 for OLCS, enabling the many programs offered to those individuals challenged by AIDS to continue and expand.

While no single organization can fill all the needs of those with HIV, Oak Lawn Community Services has succeeded in establishing a comprehensive program of seven services designed to address the direct care and emotional and educational needs of its HIV/AIDS-infected clients.

One of the most integral parts of the direct care aspect of OLCS's programs is the Daire Center, a daytime activity center for persons living with AIDS. Opened in 1988 to help increase the quality of life for people with AIDS, who often experience isolation and loneliness as a result of their illness, the Center also provides a respite for their primary caregivers.

According to Kay Cox, the Center's coordinator, "At the Daire Center, the emphasis is not on what we can't do, but on things we can do. Many PWAs have had little time for leisure activities in the past, and have not developed the skills or hobbies to make that time meaningful. Our activities program provides many opportu-

The Center is designed to enhance the quality of life for persons living with AIDS, and the philosophy is one of positive self-concept and self-empowerment. Our goal is to help people develop their best human potential and integrate themselves back into the community."

Perhaps the goals of the Daire Center can best be expressed in the words of one of its clients. "I have worked most of my adult life, and was devastated when I had to quit because of the progression of HIV. I sat at home and watched television and thrived on self-pity for three months. I saw no reason to get up in the morning. My diet was terrible, and I was losing weight. Now, I go to the Center several days a week. I know I can go there and be with other people, have good meals, play games, talk with riends, learn more about services, talk with a nurse and spend the day in a supportive, positive atmosphere."

One of the most integral parts of OLCS' programs is the Daire Center, which helps increase quality of life for people with AIDS and provides a respite for their primary care givers.

The Daire Center program, which operates Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., involves social interaction, structured activities, discussion groups, fields trips, nutritious meals and health monitoring. Through the Center's efforts, clients can reduce their isolation and achieve enhanced self-esteem, increased energy and weight gain, increased socialization and development of personal skills, increased nutritional intake and a broadened support system.

While the Daire Center fulfills a number of pressing needs in the AIDS community, it cannot—and does not aspire to—replace the benefits of long-term interpersonal relationships. That's where the Buddy Project at Oak Lawn Community Services takes over.

The Buddy Project is an outreach program of the Marketing Department of OLCS. Created in 1983, the project was the first of its kind in Texas, and has served as a model for similar programs in other cities. It offers support and guidance to persons with symptomatic HIV infection and their families and friends, and provides a public information forum about HIV/AIDS on a bimonthly basis.

Delia Loe, Volunteer Development Coordinator at OLCS, describes a Buddy this way: "A Buddy is a concerned individual who has agreed to volunteer a portion of his or her free time to help an OLCS client diagnosed with symptomatic HIV infection maintain a sense of control and independence in his or her life, contributing significantly to the client's self-esteem and quality of life. Buddies are trained by professionals in the fields of medicine, psychology and social work. After training, the Buddy is assigned to work with a client, becoming that client's friend and providing emotional support and assistance with activities of daily living."

In addition to the support needs of people with AIDS, each OLCS client also faces practical challenges as well. With the progression of the disease, HIV-infected persons lose mobility, either because of physical considerations or financial constraints. The Care-A-Van program was designed for these individuals.

"Just as most of us are well into our second round of snooze-alarm sleep," states OLCS Director of Health Services Gary Swisher, "the drivers of the Oak Lawn Community Services Transportation Department are gearing up to hit the streets. Treks to far north and south Dallas, as well as the Oak Lawn area, are on the agenda each morning.

"By the time we desk-bound individuals are sipping a second up of coffee, an average of 25 clients have been picked up and delivered to their destinations."

"The transportation needs of OLCS's clients vary. The PWA who is unable to provide his or her own transportation this month due to medical problems may be able to hop in the car and go next month. Others may be without transportation regardless of their medical status. Still others may be resigned to relying on others for all their transportation needs from now on. Getting where they need to go, when they need to get there, is the most important goal. The OLCS Transportation Department is the means."

Clients are provided door-to-door service to various medical and social service organizations in the Dallas area, using one of three vehicles: a 7-passenger van, a 15-passenger van and a 12-passenger/wheelchair lift bus. According to Swisher, "these vehicles have been averaging more than 10,000 miles per month in servicing the needs of OLCS clients. That's an average of 100 miles per day per van."

One of the most important considerations facing a person challenged by AIDS is medication. Because the medication currently prescribed for HIV-infected individuals is so expensive, many PWAs find it necessary to obtain their prescriptions through the Parkland Memorial Hospital OutPatient Pharmacy, and therein lies the challenge. Lori Eades, Director of Prescription Services at OLCS, describes the ordeal at Parkland.

"The lines begin to form every weekday morning around 8 a.m. The seasoned veteran finds a comfortable spot against the wall and settles in for the wait. For most individuals the wait is, at the very least, frustrating. For persons living with AIDS, the wait can by deadly."

"The average clinic visit at Parkland can consume a good three to four hours, depending on the needs of the patient. By the time PWAs have finished at Parkland Hospital, their energy is depleted and spirits greatly diminished."

But through the Prescription Services Department at OLCS, these waits are eliminated. Processing of original prescriptions and supply orders is handled by this department, which, according to Eades, suggests that the client "request to be discharged from the AIDS Clinic through Care-A-Van Prescription Service by the Discharge Nurse on Duty. Any prescriptions, clinic cards, and/or appointment slips are simply placed in the Care-A-Van box (at OLCS) for pickup.

"A client who needs refills may leave written notice or empty prescription bottles in the pickup box inside the AIDS Clinic at Parkland, or call the Care-A-Van office to request refill service. Once the prescriptions have been filled at Parkland, they are returned to the Care-A-Van office for client pickup."

All four of these vital services—the Daire Center, the Buddy Project, Care-A-Van and Prescription Services—answer the direct care needs of persons challenged by AIDS. Next week, TWT will focus on the educational and support functions of OLCS, and how LifeWalk ensures their continued existence.

AIDS Research in Dallas

When the federal government was establishing the AIDS Clinical Trials Group [ACTG], Dallas already had a high incidence of AIDS. Despite that fact, little effort went into the grant application of that first round and, as they say, "the rest is history." Dallas, and the entire state of Texas for that matter, lost out early when it came to AIDS research, and has never caught up.

Ironically, Dallas has been one of the top cities in providing people for AIDS clinical trials at the National Institutes of Health. However, in order for people to enroll in those studies, they must pay for their first trip to the Washington D.C. area for screening; needless to say, this eliminates a lot of PWAs from even considering taking part in such studies, as it is cost prohibitive for them. In 1989, the American Foundation for AIDS Research [AmFAR], recognizing the great need for AIDS research in Dallas, provided seed funding for the establishment of the Nelson-Tebedo Community Clinic for AIDS Research.

Since its inception, the Nelson-Tebedo Community Clinic has participated in phase II and phase III clinical trials open to all clients who meet the eligibility criteria of the given study. Trials have included a Burroughs Wellcome-sponsored AZT and Acyclovir trial; an HEM Pharmaceutical company study of Ampligen; an Adria Pharmaceutical trial of Rifabutin; an

BY DEB TROTT

AmFAR-sponsored study of Pyrimethamine; an AmFAR-sponsored Observational Data Base [ODB]; and a Glaxo Pharmaceutical-sponsored 3TC study. In addition, there are several other clinical trials under negotiation at this time.

The Clinic, along with the AIDS Resource Center, has also participated in a variety of other research projects dealing with issues related to HIV and AIDS. These have included lesbian and HIV behavioral risks verses perception of risk; HIV and women; relapse in the gay male community; nutritional supplements and AIDS; perceptions concerning reproductive issues and HIV-positive persons; coping styles and skills in HIV counseling and awaiting results; and the use of alternative treatments and their relationship to traditional medical treatment.

Dallas has been able, through a variety of health care delivery systems, to have clinical trials for drugs which are promising in AIDS treatment. Due to the lack of any large AIDS research facility in the area, the HIV-positive community is relatively naive about clinical trials. Over time, a number of area physicians have moved to Dallas after having participated in large AIDS research centers. They have brought with them the expertise gained at other sites, and Dallas-area PWAs have benefited from their knowledge and the studies done in private offices through pharmaceutical sponsorships.

For example, Dr. Steve Nightingale has worked closely with pharmaceutical companies and secured the Rifabutin for MAI prophylaxis trial for both Parkland and the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic. He continues to utilize his pharmaceutical connections to provide access to clinical trials to persons with AIDS in smaller, rural cities throughout the state. Likewise, other community physicians have assisted in the research effort in Dallas, utilizing their contacts, to secure clinical trials in their offices and by volunteering their time in being "principle investigators" for trials at the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic. In spite of the lack of trials through "traditional" research facilities in Dallas, the community-based concept of clinical trials is alive, well and

Each quarter the Nelson-Tebedo Research Coordinator surveys local community physicians and other health care agencies involved in AIDS care concerning clinical trials being done in the Dallas area. The results of the survey are listed regularly in the AIDS Update and are available through the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic. One way for all HIV-positive individuals to hecome involved with research is to enroll in the Observational Date Base [ODB] through Nelson-Tebedo or through several local physicians' offices. The ODB is a long-term data study of HIV-positive persons. It does not require any additional laboratory work, and the followups for this study can be done through your physician's office. The OBD is confidential, with all forms being completed with a unique code.

The data collected is combined with that from over 11,000 other persons, and data analysis from this study will enable physicians to make predictions about the disease. This study is providing the first longitudinal study of HIV disease in North America. Locally the OBD is used to identify clients who may be eligible for specific clinical trials. So far, the ODB has been utilized to identify clients for three separate clinical trials in the past few months. As the Clinic starts more trials, the OBD will be the first place in which potential clients are identified.

The challenge for Dallas where AIDS research is concerned is twofold. First, we must continue to encourage the growth of community-based research and push for even more of a collaborative effort between all who are involved in AIDS care. The second challenge is for UT Southwestern Medical School, which had Nobel Peace Prize winners two out of three years in the late 1980s, to make AIDS research a number one priority, which will not only prolong and save lives, but pick up another Nobel Prize along the way.

Deborah Trott is Director of Clinical and Client Services at the AIDS Resource Center in Dallas.

Unfortunately, I didn't get to meet you personally, but I had to drop you a note. You may recall a brief conversation I had with you on Tuesday, November 17. Remember: Oklahoma, Josh, 5'11", brown/blue? Anyway, I had to let you know that when I called I wasn't sure if I could actually bring myself to go to Midtowne. I've always been fascinated by the notion of bathhouses, but wasn't sure it was for me.

I did stay at Midtowne on Tuesday night, and had a great time. I was very surprised and pleased by how nice and clean and professional Midtowne was. I had to let you know that had Inot had such a good conversation with you, I likely would not have had the guts to come to Midtowne. Your lighthearted, casual, comfortable and fun attitude on the phone is a very valuable asset to the Midtowne Spa. You should be Again, I had a great time, and although my visit was in the complimented! middle of the week, I thought the quality of the clientele was good. I can only imagine and look forward to what it might be like on the weekend. I also think that friends of mine from Okla. homa (and even from Dallas) will now come see you after having heard my description of the spa. I only wish Midtowne had a spa in Tulsa. Oh well, something to look forward to on my next trip south. Perhaps next time, I can actually meet the guy responsible for getting me to actually go. After all, in this day and age, with all of the changes in the ways we live our lives and the entertainment which was so common to the gay lifestyle, I think it's great that a person like me, who at 26 is too young to remember the bathhouse scene, can go and see something of what it was like. Thanks!

It's difficult, when proferring a review of And the Band Played On, to say anything that hasn't already been said about the much anticipated HBO production. The film—which has been in pre-production, production, pre-post-production, post-production and post-post-production for over six years—has garnered more press and been the center of more controversy than the search MGM launched for Scarlett O'Hara over 50 years ago. Since many of us have not performed our civic duty and read Randy Shilts' book, we can't fall back on the common reviewing technique of comparing HBO's interpretation of his work with the book itself

What can be offered, however, are impressions of the film, not so much from a creative or technical standpoint, but from that of a person affected by the AIDS crisis. These impressions come from the AIDS Resource Center/Foundation for Human Understanding premiere of the film at the Lakewood Theatre in Dallas—a premiere that was, in the words of ARC executive director John Thomas, "a thankyou" to all the dedicated volunteers and workers in the AIDS community in Dallas.

Kudos must be offered to HBO for undertaking And the Band Played On. NBC wouldn't do it, CBS wouldn't do it-none of the "major" networks would do it. HBO did it, and did it well. The performances-by such luminaries as Alan Alda, Richard Gere, Anjelica Huston, Steve Martin and Swoosie Kurtz-are all first-rate. and the technical aspects are more than adequate. One thing was disturbing, however. In press coverage of the film, and even at the premiere, mention was made of how many Emmys HBO is bound to win for this cinematic event. One would hope that Band was made, not for its potential award-winning capabilities, but for the social, moral and educational potential the

If the Dallas premiere screening was any indication, TV audiences will be strongly affected by this film. It is uncommon for movie audiences to remain almost completely silent throughout the entire screening of a film. Everyone in our audience—save for one chatty individual seated, naturally, directly behind us—was properly attentive and respectful, despite the pacing of the film which, at times, seemed to echo the government's slowness to recognize that there even was a health crisis.

The final three minutes of the film were the most powerful in the entire production.

ND THE BAND PLAYED ON

REVIEWED BY BOB DINEEN

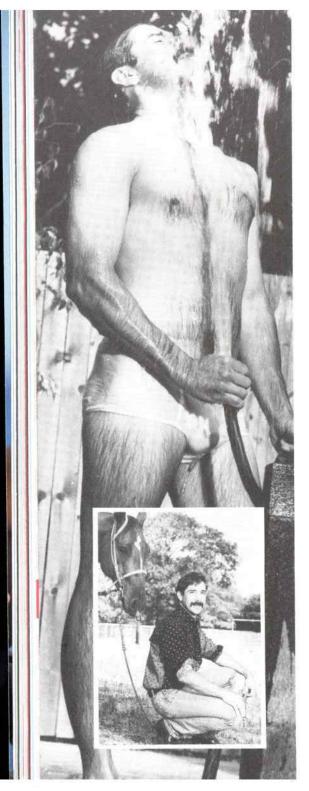

Images of AIDS activists such as Elizabeth Taylor and Magic Johnson, and famous and not-so-famous friends we have lost to the disease were beamed onto the screen accompanied by Elton John's "The Last Song." It was no wonder, then, that few words were spoken and few greetings exchanged outside the theater after the screening. It was at once a time for reflection, a time for sorrow, a time for hope and, hopefully, a time to rededicate ourselves to the battle against AIDS. Because now, ten years into the crisis, it is still our community that must face this challenge, our community that must stop the dying.

It's hard to believe that And the Band Played On will change middle America's perception of AIDS. The chances of an lowan farm couple even having HBO, let alone tuning in to it on any of the many nights the film will be aired, seem minimal at best. Until it affects them directly, their minds are probably pretty much made up.

What is apparent is that And the Band Played On is a necessary step in the evolution of our community and its response to AIDS. It is also a very positive affirmation of the brilliance of Randy Shilts' original work, and of the integrity of those individuals who participated in the filming, most of whom, if not all, worked for scale union wages.

All in all, not bad for a film the big networks wouldn't touch.

And the Band Played On can be seen on HBO throughout the month of September.

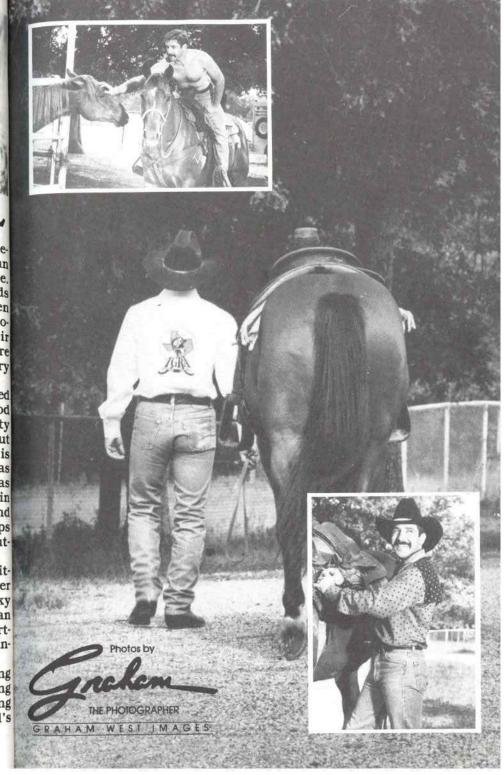

LARRY HILL

This weekend, Dallas celebrates the Tenth Annual Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade. There will, of course, be bands and floats and a host of gay men and lesbians who will join together to demonstrate their pride in our community. There will also be our cover man, Larry Hill.

Even though Larry was raised in Alabama, his rugged good looks and winning personality exemplify all that is good about Texas and our community. He is an active member of the Texas Gay Rodeo Association, and has been riding and competing in barrel racing, pole bending and flag racing since 1988. He keeps a stable of horses on a ranch outside of Dallas.

But horses aren't this Sagittarian's only interest. A former aircraft mechanic, this hunky equestrian also aspires to be an entrepreneur, having just started his own business, Hill's Cleaning Service.

So whether you're wanting riding lessons, a quick dusting and cleaning or just something gorgeous to look at, Larry Hill's the man to fill your needs.

Nitespot One of the Best

Dear TWT:

I recently attended the Miss Gay West Texas/America Pageant in Odessa at Miss Lillie's Nitespot. I have traveled throughout Texas for several years, and one thing I can always count on is to see the Nitespot. Miss Lillie has one of the best clubs in West Texas. I want to thank Miss Lillie for being around for 16 years, and I hope that she will be around for many more.

The quality of the Nitespot can compete with some of the bars in the Metroplex. I would urge everyone in Texas to stop at the Nitespot if they can. Believe me, you will enjoy the experience. This is one of the cleanest and friendliest atmospheres I have been around.

I am proud to be gay and am an avid supporter of gay events. Thanks, Miss Lillie, from Snyder, Texas.

'Red Ribbon' Auction, Film

Dear TWT:

We would like to offer the community a chance to participate in "Project: Red Ribbon '93," a fund-raising event to benefit the Bering Community Service Foundation.

First is the celebrity auction, which began September 1 and continues through December 1, 1993, World AIDS Day. The "silent" auction has received the support of many notables, including the cast of Blossom; Cher; the cast of The Days of Our Lives; Arsenio Hall; Jay Leno; Shirley MacLaine; Amanda McBroom; Madonna; the cast of Miss Saigon; RuPaul; Susan Sarandon; Steven Seagal; Barbra Streisand; and Vanessa Williams. Minimum bids begin at just $5 and, and 100% of the profits will benefit Bering. Free auction catalogs are available by calling (713) 867-9124 anytime.

I addition, principal photography has begun on "The Red Ribbon: A Documentary." We have established a telephone number that will receive calls to answer the question "What would you say to someone with AIDS?" Selected responses will be included in the film. The phone number is (713)866-4841; calls will be taken through Saturday, September 25.

In addition, persons who would be interested in being interviewed for the film may call (713)789-0278 through October 1.

BRB Changes Hands

Dear TWT:

Rumor has it...isn't that a Reba song? Yes, it is, but it's also why we are writing this letter.

As most of you have heard, Mr. Bill Havard has purchased the Brazos River Bottom club lock, stock and barrel, along with the pink pig and green chickens that grace the patio.

Bill has been involved with the BRB for a long time now, including having not only a financial interest but a personal interest as well. I guess what we're saying is that the "family" is still a family.

The Brazos River Bottom has been serving the Houston community for 15 years, and we plan on being here a lot longer. Not only is the BRB your Houston country home, but it is also well known for its tireless efforts to support the AIDS service organizations in our community.

So we hope that this letter will serve as an extinguisher to the "fairy tales" that have been circulating. We're not just here, we're getting better!

N ext Friday, September 24, Rice Cinema '93 presents two more films in the "What a Drag" series on its fall schedule. Katherine Hepburn hits the road with her father when he gets into trouble, disguising herself as a boy to avoid detection in Sylvia Scarlett. In Beggars of Life, a girl (Louise Brooks) shoots her foster father in self-defense, disguises herself as a boy and hides among a group of drifters in a hobo camp. Tickets are (both films) $4.25 and (second feature only) $3.25. For more information, call (713)527-4853.

Theater LaB Houston opens its 1993-94 season of "Dangerous Theatre" with the Houston premiere of Brad Fraser's Off-Broadway drama Unidentified Human Remains and the True Nature of Love, named one of the ten best plays of 1991 by Time magazine. A group of young people in Edmonton. Alberta search for meaningful relationships as a serial killer terrorizes the city. This play is recommended for adult audiences only. Performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. with Thursday shows September 30 and October 7 and 14, also at 8. Tickets are $12 for Thursdays and Fridays, $15 for Saturdays. For reservations, call (713)868-7516. Theater LaB is located at 1706 Alamo.

"Modest Bette Davis walks into the modest cottage that modest Joseph Cotton had built for her...she looks around and says, 'What a dump?' What's that from?" These immortal words, uttered by a bloated and frumpy Elizabeth Taylor to her on- and off-screen husband Richard Burton, are just a few of the memorable and campy lines from Taylor's Oscarwinning performance in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, the classic Mike Nicholsdirected film that chronicles one tumultuous night in the life of two very different couples. Sandy Dennis and George Segal co-star in the film, which returns to the big screen courtesy of the Major Theatre, Dallas' only repertory movie house. Woolf runs three nights only, beginning this Sunday, September 19. Curtain is at 8 p.m. General admission tickets are $5, with a dollar off if you bring three or more cans of food for the AIDS Resource Center Food Pantry. The Major Theatre is located at 2830 Samuell Boulevard near Grand Avenue. Call (214)821-FILM for more information.

Spectacular scenery, magnificent performances, memorable music and a classic story highlight Casa Manana's Fort Worth premiere of three-time Tony Award winner The Secret Garden. The musical, which is on a national tour, follows a young orphaned girl who is left under the guardianship of her uncle, a brooding widower whose wife died in childbirth. The girl comes back to life as she brings a secret garden, closed for ten years, back to life. The magic of The Secret Garden can be unlocked at the Tarrant County Convention Center September 22-26. Performances are Wednesday through Sunday evening at 8 p.m., with Thursday, Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. Tickets, $12-$35, can be obtained at any TicketMaster location and by calling (214) 332-2272.

One of the great classics of the musical stage, Brigadoon comes to Galveston's Grand 1894 Opera House in October. The Broadway hit, about an enchanted Scotish village that comes to life one day every century, enriched American musical lore with such tunes as "Almost Like Being in Love," "Waitin' for My Dearie," "The Heather on the Hill" and, of course, "Brigadoon." One performance only, Saturday, October 2 at 8 p.m. The Grand is located at 2020 Postoffice. For more information and ticket prices, call (409)765-1894, (713) 480-1894 or (800)821-1894.

GAY MEN AND LESBIANS ARE THE SAME AS EVERYONE.

BUT WE DON'T TREAT THEM THAT WAY.

At Charter Hospital of Grapevine, we know that when it comes to emotional and chemical dependency treatment for gay men and lesbians, there are a few things missing. Like freedom. Respect. Understanding. And pride.

That's why we've created a special program just for you. It's called Pride In Recovery — and it could mean the beginning of a new world of self-acceptance, serenity and fulfillment.

Pride In Recovery offers a safe place where you can talk about your lifestyle and where you can address issues such as:

- Addictions
- Depression
- Sexual/Physical/Emotional Abuse Recovery
- Self-Destructive Relationships
- · Dealing with Shame and Guilt

If you have an emotional or chemical dependency problem, please call us. And maybe, for the first time in your life you can face the world with a fresh, uninhibited outlook.

Jupiter changes signs once every year or so, bringing luck and/or excessive behavior to different areas of our lives. Currently, this expansive planet is nestled comfortably in Libra, causing some of us to put on extra weight or "burdening" us with far too many social invitations or financial windfalls. Jupiter squares off this week with Neptune, the planet of dreams and delusions. This could mean that some of us dream our opportunities away or seek splendid mirages. Read ahead to see how Jupiter and Neptune are spending time in your horoscope.

VIRGO: (Aug 24 - Sep 23) Jupiter in Libra energizes money and financial issues. Funds become available just when you need a lift. However, it may all seem to come to you too easily. Neptune in Capricorn now advises you to hold on to any easily acquired cash and deposit it directly into the bank for safe keeping. The lures of gambling could prove too addictive, and you could lose your money to deceptive hustlers.

LIBRA: (Sep 24 - Oct 23) Libras shine when Jupiter travels through their own sign. Personal charisma is strong and people seem to gravitate to you. You are certainly the life of the party! Interview for new jobs now. Neptune in serious Capricorn may cause you to divert your attention to mysterious and confusing home events, but you can handle these small diversions easily.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 22) Jupiter in Libra highlights intuition and psychic ability, but Neptune in Capricorn advises you to keep your lofty and off-the-wall intentions to yourself for now. Discussing what's on your mind could foil your best-laid plans (someone could steal your more practical ideas), or you could be labeled a bit nutty. Guard your ideas until Neptune and Jupiter go their separate ways at the end of October.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 23 - Dec 21) Friends come to your assistance. Jupiter in Libra

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 17 - SEPTEMBER 23 1993

TEXAN LARRY HAGMAN BORN IN WEATHERFORD SEPTEMBER 21, 1931

lends you a happy helping hand just when things look bleakest. Also, you may find yourself reaching out and helping friends in need. Word of warning: expansive Jupiter is thunderstruck by Neptune in Capricorn. If you decide to be generous with friends, put a limit on the amount you wish to give. Friends may surprise you with extrasticky fingers on your cash or your time.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 20) Career soars with Jupiter in Libra as your aspirations and achievements take off. You reap the benefits of hard work and concentrated efforts. Neptune in Capricorn offers you a word of caution—placing too much emphasis on corporate glory or status issues could cause you to question your life's goals. It's similar to selling out to the highest bidder. Remember, you still have to look at yourself in the mirror each morning.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 21 - Feb 18) This is the time to travel and see the world or to embark on a new course of study. Jupiter in Libra encourages you to reach out and grab fame, fortune and luck. Even Neptune in Capricorn contributes to this greater effort by sparking your imagination and your intuition. Let your mind wander and then go with some of your more creative ideas—there's no telling where it could lead you!

PISCES: (Feb 19 - Mar 20) Jupiter in Libra energizes and accentuates your sex drive. Your allure is almost overwhelming. (Lucky you!) Neptune in Capricorn, however, indicates that friends and social acquaintances may find your spark a little off-putting. Whether it's jealousy or a lack of self-confidence, they may have a dampening efect on your passion. Don't let them disrourage you-you are truly terrific.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 20) Do you feel esperially lucky in partnerships, or do they seem ike too much of a good thing? Jupiter in libra is currently affecting one-to-one relationships, while Neptune affects career and community standing. So partnerships could rause you to put aside your better judgment and disregard or miscalculate career opporfunities. Don't give up one for the otherwork slowly and try to maintain a balance.

TAURUS: (April 21 - May 21) You feel you can move mountains with Jupiter in Libra affecting job tasks; however, the excessiveness of "Planet Lucky" could mean that tasks overtake you! You find yourself burjed in minutiae, having to forgo more inspiring outlets like international travel and higher learning. Neptune encourages you to daydream about pastimes, rather than concentrate on the job at hand. Keep your mind focused and travel will come later.

GEMINI: (May 22 - June 21) It may be an opportune time to try your luck at the lottery. lupiter in Libra makes any attempts at games of chance more on target. Your quest for fun and frolic could have an impact on Neptune in dour Capricorn, Neptune now strongly suggests that you avoid pressing personal issues. You simply do not have all the facts, or are not seeing the situation clearly and accurately enough to make a fair and appropriate decision.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) You feel most content and gregarious at home with Jupiter in Libra. Now more than ever, you view your home as the center of the universea concept very much in tune with Cancerian values. Keep an open mind on partnership issues. Neptune in Capricorn may cause you to either imagine all sorts of unsightly things in others or to be blind to others' motives. Notice, listen and judge carefully.

LEO: (July 23 - August 23) You are the epitome of charm and grace when Jupiter is in Libra. The right words are spoken at the right time and you're able to express your viewpoint effortlessly and with great sincerity. Use this eloquence wisely. Don't try to fool all of the people all of the time. Neptune in Capricorn indicates that the time has come to differentiate between empty promises and meaningful commitments.

Monday, September 20 is gay and lesbian skate night at Hobby Skate World from 7:30–10:30 p.m. Admission is $5 and includes skates and a raffle ticket for door prizes. There will also be a garage and rummage sale held that evening.

An upcoming event for the Lambda Roller Skating Club is a camp-out on Lake Conroe. For more information on the club or the camping event, call Keith at (713)933-5818 or Ray at 862-4875.

FALL BOWLING

Houston — The fall leagues for Houston's bowling community have begun or are about to. Last Monday, September 13 at 6:30 p.m., the Monday Night Women's League began play at Fairlanes Bowling Alley at Gessner and Southwest Freeway. For more information on the league, call Pat at (713)437-6218 or Marla at 862-3630.

This Monday, September 20 at 9 p.m., the Montrose Monday Night Men's League begins. They also bowl at the Fairlanes alleys. For more information, call Steve at (713) 529-3261.

Then, next Thursday, September 23, the Houston Thursday Night Mixers will bowl beginning at 8:45 p.m. They compete at the Emerald Bowl at Bissonet and Boone. For more information, call Steve at (713)529-3261.

DALLAS CELEBRATES PRIDE WITH PARADE, LEE PARK GATHERING THIS SUNDAY

Deb Elder, Tom Davis and Ron Alford Named Grand Marshals.

DALLAS - With the announcement last Saturday of the Grand Marshals for this year's Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade, organizers officially mark the completion of the year-long planning phase of the event, now celebrating its tenth year. Named as Female Grand Marshal this year is Deb Elder, a successful Dallas real estate executive and President of the Dallas Gay and Lesbian Alliance. Tom Davis, popular manager of the Round-Up Saloon and avid supporter of Dallas' AIDS community, was named Male Grand Marshal. Honorary Grand Marshal for this year's parade is Ron Alford, also known as Sheri Powers, a popular and respected female impersonator who devotes much of his time to raising funds for AIDS charities throughout the Metroplex.

As with past parades, Dallas' annual celebration of gay pride and achievement will officially begin in front of the Oak Lawn branch of the Dallas Public Library, proceed south on Cedar Springs to Turtle Creek and end at Lee Park. Barring any unforeseen circumstances, the parade will begin at 3 p.m. this Sunday, September 19. The Dallas Tavern Guild, sponsors of the event, have published a 10-year commemorative book, featuring many stories about Dallas' gay and lesbian community.

This year's parade, which boasts 86 entries-11 more than last year-and is expected to attract some 1,200 participants and over 8,000 spectators, is dedicated to the memory of Bill Hunt, a longtime AIDS activist in Dallas who lost his battle with the disease this year. Similarly, the post-parade event, the Celebration in Lee Park, is dedicated to the memory of David Barton, who also succumbed as the result of complications of AIDS this year. Barton, one of the owners of Hunky's Restaurant, was also a member of several sports organizations in Dallas and was very active in fund-raising efforts for various AIDS service organizations in the fully challenged the Dallas Police Deparment's ban on the hiring of gays and less bians to serve on the force, will be the main speaker at the Celebration in Lee Park, Joining her at the podium will be Dallas City Council members Craig McDaniel and Chris Luna. Entertainment at the Lee Park event will be provided by the Cathedral of Hope Choir, Beth McFarland and Val Pettigrew, Lee Borchert, Texas Entertainer of the Year Tandi Andrews and the Dallas Silver Sabres. Also performing will be the Flirtations, who bill themselves as "the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multicultural a cappella singing group."

Following the Celebration in Lee Park, the Flirtations will perform a special benefit concert at the Cathedral of Hope Metropolitan Community Church, benefiting the Dallas Tavern Guild and the TCC AIDS Fund. Tickets for the concert are $20 for general admission seating.

Another highlight of this weekend's pride celebrations, which follow the national theme of "Family of Pride," will be the visit of Rich Tafel, Executive Director of the national lobby of the Log Cabin Federation. While in Dallas, Tafel will meet with several media representatives and will appear at various Pride Week events, including the Black Tie Dinner tomorrow night and a service in his honor at White Rock Community Church on Sunday.

ROBERTA ACHTENBERG TO KEYNOTE BLACK TIE DINNER IN HOUSTON

Fund-Raiser Will Benefit Human Rights Campaign Fund, Local Nonprofit Groups.

HOUSTON — The Houston Black Tie Dinner Committee has announced that Roberta Achtenberg, the nation's most prominent openly gay or lesbian government official, will deliver the keynote address at the group's Black Tie Dinner Dinner. The gala benefit is scheduled for Saturday, November 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the Consort Ballroom of the Westin Oaks Hotel.

Achtenberg, a San Francisco attorney

The Houston Black Tie Dinner Committee has announced that Roberta Achtenberg will be keynote speaker at its November 6 fund-raiser.

who previously served on the San Francisco City Board of Supervisors, was appointed by President Bill Clinton to the post of Assistant Secretary of Fair Housing earlier this year. She thus became the first openly gay or lesbian person to hold such a high appointive position in a federal agency.

Entertainment at the Black Tie Dinner will be provided by Atwood & Comeaux and the Ed Gerlach Orchestra. Partiers will also have the opportunity to place bids on merchandise in live and silent auctions.

Proceeds from the Black Tie Dinner will be divided among the Human Rights Campaign Fund and the following local nonprofit organizations: AIDS Foundation Houston, the Lesbian Health Initiative, the Gay Men's Chorus, Heartsong, the Bering Community Service Foundation, the Texas Human Rights Foundation, The Assistance Fund and the Houston Clinical Research Network of the Montrose Clinic. Those attending the Dinner can designate which local agency they wish to receive that portion of their ticket price.

The Human Rights Campaign Fund is a nationwide political organization that provides financial support to Democratic and Republican candidates with positive stands on gay/lesbian and AIDS issues; lobbies for passage of bills favorable to the gay community; and mobilizes voters through its "Speak Out" constituent mail program.

Regular tickets to the Houston Black Tie Dinner are $150, while VIP tickets are $250. For more information, call (713)524-4540. Tickets are also available at Crossroads Market & Bookstore and Lobo.

BLACK TIE DINNER IN DALLAS BENEFITS HRCF, LOCAL GROUPS

Oregon Gov. Barbara Roberts To Keynote This Saturday's Event.

DALLAS — The 1993 Black Tie Dinner, the largest fund-raiser in the nation for the Human Rights Campaign Fund and the largest seated ballroom event in Dallas, will welcome Oregon Governor Barbara Roberts as its keynote speaker for tomorrow night's gala event. More than 2,300 people are anticipated for the dinner, which will be held in the Chantilly and Wedgwood Ballrooms at the Loews Anatole Hotel.

The Black Tie Dinner, begun in 1982, was formed to help support HRCF, but through the years has evolved into a major source of financial support for several gay, lesbian and AIDS organizations. In just ten years, the event has raised nearly $1 million for HRCF and local beneficiaries. This year, in addition to HRCF, the dinner will benefit the AIDS Interfaith Network, the AIDS Resource Center, the Allan G. Calkin Fund, ARETE, the Cathedral of Hope Metropolitan Community Church, the Fort Worth AIDS Outreach Center, Northern Lights Alternative/The AIDS Ministry, Oak Lawn Community Services, the Texas AIDS Network, the Texas Human Rights Foundation, Turtle Creek Chorale, White Rock Community Church and the Women's Chorus of Dallas.

Black Tie Dinner organizers said they were especially pleased to have Gov. Roberts speak at this year's event, particularly because she is a strong proponent of "equal rights for all and special rights for none," this despite the efforts of the religious right in her state to orchestrate antigay legislation. In response to Oregon's Measure 9, voted on last year, for example, Roberts recently signed legislation prohibiting the enactment of any local laws that discriminate based on sexual orientation, and she has proposed a state Human Rights Commission that would mediate community tensions before they result in violence or civil rights violations.

Also scheduled during the Dinner is entertainment by the Turtle Creek Chorale, the Women's Chorus of Dallas and the Fort Worth Men's Chorus. There will also be a silent auction, and the Dinner Committee will bestow its annual Kuchling Award, named after Ray Kuchling and given to one lesbian and one gay man who have significantly impacted the gay and lesbian communities of the Dallas/Fort Worth area.

According to Steve Habgood, public relations chair of the dinner, the Black Tie event "is unique, in that we benefit HRCF as well as local beneficiaries. By allowing the participants to designate which organizations they want their donation given to, we give them a sense of ownership. We're fortunate that the Dallas/Fort Worth gay and lesbian community can work together so well in order to benefit so many worthwhile organizations."

HOUSTON ACTIVISTS RESPOND TO LATEST ANTI-GAY VIOLENCE

New Direct Action Group Stages 'Take Back the Streets 3' Tonight.

HOUSTON — Assaults on two men in the city's Montrose area in recent weeks have led to renewed awareness of the everpresent threat of anti-gay violence and resulted in the formation of a new directaction group.

In a statement released last week, activists Michael Crawford and Scott Lewis announced the formation of Outrage, which they described as filling the gap left by the dissolution of Queer Nation. That group was plagued by internal dissension when it disbanded earlier this year. "Take Back the Streets 3," the group's first action, is a direct response to the latest incidents of anti-gay violence in Houston.

Outrage is encouraging concerned citizens to take part in tonight's event, which begins with a gathering at 8:30 p.m. at the intersection of Waughcrest and California streets, site of one of the recent assaults, and continues with a march at 9.

On September 1, Christopher Dunning was approached by two men who asked for his money and then stabbed him, calling him "fag." On September 6, activist Rob Cavanaugh was attacked and beaten as he walked home from a convenience store, suffering a broken jaw and head injuries. Both incidents occurred in the city's heavily-gay Montrose area.

The first "Take Back the Streets," was held in July of 1991 when over 1,000 people, outraged at official indifference at antigay crime, gathered at a major intersection in Montrose, chanting slogans and block.

ing traffic for an hour.

The assaults on Cavanaugh and Dunning may also have sparked renewed interest in another organization that fights anti-gay violence. Q Patrol was formed in November of 1991 following the gay-bashing murders of Paul Broussard and Phillip Smith. Members gather on Friday and Saturday nights, splitting up into small groups that patrol the streets of Montrose on foot or in vehicles. Last Friday's turnout was up significantly, which members said may be due in part to renewed awareness of the threat of anti-gay violence.

Q Patrol has called for greater participation by the community in helping make the streets of Montrose safer. For more information about Q Patrol, call (713)666-3125.

HIV FUNDING PASSES IN SAN ANTONIO

Over $500,000 to Be Split Among Ten Area Agencies.

SAN ANTONIO — Last Thursday, the Bexar County AIDS Consortium met in emergency session to vote on the most recent funding proposals submitted by the group's funding oversight committee.

Previous recommendations by the Consortium's funding committee had been approved, but were rejected by the Texas Department of Health, which cited, among other reasons, the fact that primary medical care was not adequately addressed. The new oversight committee was created to address those concerns and review the original recommendations.

Översight committee chair Vince Di-Castro said his panel had focused on policy and program descriptions as supplied by the requesting agencies in reaching its decisions. In addition, individual input was requested as needed at a special meeting called by DiCastro's committee, but only two representatives of agencies showed up. Several agencies claimed they were never notified of the meeting.

Before presenting his committee's funding recommendations, DiCastro called on Consortium members to take certain steps, including greater efforts to achieve cooperation among all agencies; creation of an 800 number similar to those in Dallas and Houston to direct clients requesting assistance to the proper agencies; an end to fighting among agencies; and increased consolidation of services, among others.

DiCastro then presented recommendations of awards totaling $521,085. In addition, there was an additional $29,848 in surplus funds of which the committee recommended that $4,063 be distributed to all of the agencies to purchase bus tickets for their clients. The remainder was allotted to SAAF for its hospice program.

All the revised funding recommendations were passed by the Consortium with the exception of the grant to BEAT AIDS, which had suffered the largest reduction in its award, from $71,793.53 in the original recommendations to the $24,058 the group was finally awarded. According to the oversight committee, the reduction was made because "this agency's request far exceeded the usual and customary allowances for the number of clients served... We requested information on the full budget and grants proposed. We never received this vital information. Therefore, we felt we could not justify further funding."

Commenting on his agency's greatly reduced award, executive director Paul Mayfield said, "The [funding] process is seriously flawed" due to the fact that the original funding committee's recommendation was passed by the Consortium 29–6. He requested that members go back and vote on the original recommendations, but his motion was defeated. The BEAT AIDS award was upheld in a further vote.

Asked by TWT NEWS what he planned to do, Mayfield said BEAT AIDS would either seek other sources of funding or reduce its caseload. Mayfield and John Ortega, chairman of the funding committee that made the original recommendations, hinted that they would appeal to top officials in the Texas Department of Health to reconsider the final awards and the process by which they were made.

AIDS ALLIANCE OF BAY AREA SEEKING SUPPORT

New Organization Hopes to Provide Education, Referrals in Clear Lake, Surrounding Communities.

CLEAR LAKE — A new group has formed that hopes to fill a need for AIDS education and services among people who don't live in Houston or other large cities with established networks of HIV-related organizations. In a press conference held last Thursday, organizers of the AIDS Alliance of the Bay Area [AABA] laid out the new group's purpose and goals and asked for help in getting the word out.

AABA founder and director George Barnhart said he became convinced of the need for such a group in the Clear Lake/Bay area, an area of small towns and rural communities located between Houston and Galveston, when he was himself diagnosed with full-blown AIDS a year ago and could find no assistance in the area. AABA opened its doors in August, and has applied to the IRS for 501(c)3 nonprofit status.

AABA is designed to be a communitybased organization whose primary purpose is HIV-related education. The Alliance will also provide referral services, and has a case manager who works several hours a week.

Barnhart recently announced the appointment of Andy Weber, LCDC, CADAC, as the organization's executive director. Weber, who serves on the Bay Area Council on Drugs and Alcohol, is expected to strengthen AABA's outreach in the areas of HIV and chemical dependency.

Ruben Martinez, a psychotherapist with a private practice in the Clear Lake area, is the group's new president. Martinez also serves as the primary facilitator for AABA's Living Well Support Group, which meets Tuesday evenings at the AABA offices.

Barnhart said he believed raising funds for AABA will become easier as soon as the group becomes more widely known. AABA recently received a starter grant from pharmaceutical company Burroughs-Wellcome which will fund AIDS Mastery workshops, to be conducted by Northern Lights Alternatives/Houston.

Fort Worth-Based Genetic Predisposition Explores Syntho Sound and Emotion On Its Debut Album

Fort Worth-based Genetic Predisposition brings their self-titled album to the market this month on the independent label GAF (read backwards). The entire collective work is based on the spectrum of our community's lifestyle. Emotions abound in this collection of syntho sounds, some instrumental and others featuring vocals by Scott Alan Russell. Genetic Predisposition is an all-gay album from conception to release.

"Fool-Radio" juggles an electrified early Devoesque rhythmic sound with a haunting vocal track that examines relationships. "Ghost-Radio" reeks of long-lost poetic love, with a hi-NRG beat keeping the dance alive with its rapid bpm and haunting early Depeche Mode-ish vocals.

"Fool-original" has more of the primitive syntho-pop/dance rhythms and repetitive syntho-tic-toc bpm, which set this tune apart as a dramatic work with a New Age classicism appeal. "Men On Men," heavy pop/dance bpm without vocals, transports the listener to a fantasy world, cocooning them with syntho melodies.

"World" is a New Age love song for the modern pop/dance alternative music listener. Russell's Bowie-esque vocals are aptly suited for this one. "Electric" is a fine attempt to connect the listener to the artist in the New Order style, featuring a percolating beat familiar to alternative club kids across the globe.

"Do You?" questions relationships in a deep, dramatic vocal tone with neo-classical synth to the nth degree. With an Elton John-ish storyteller style, Russell sets out to create a work that should appeal to the listener who is a seeker of love. "Eternity," again with rapid-fire modern dance bpm and no vocals, rushes the listener through a maze of syntho sounds that should keep dance floors hopping for a good time.

"Seasons" is a celebration of sweet syntho sounds that should satisfy any New Age melody fan. Upbeat and flowing, Russell's keyboard skills are crafted into a trademark tapestry on this work, without vocals. Holding to a solid rhythm throughout, "REM" gives the listener a chance to reflect and relish the sounds Russell supplies.

All in all, Genetic Predisposition has a premiere album of exceptional quality. This collection will have a varied appeal for the modern New Age music listener, from the primitive birth of New Age sounds to the neo-classical syntho cuts and the progressive hi-NRG pop/dance sounds. The vocals are a plus when applied, though non-vocal tracks are not lacking a certain appeal. Genetic Predisposition is in concert at Damewood'z this Wednesday, September 22.

DALLAS TEA — Here's what's happening THIS WEEK IN DALLAS from Big D HOT TEA....

If you were anywhere on Cedar Springs last Wednesday night—and were curious about a rather long, white limousine parked outside JR's—then you might be interested to know that its passenger was none other than la Liz herself [above]. Well, maybe not the real Elizabeth Taylor, but you couldn't convince the crowd that had gathered for the official opening of the Major Artery exhibit at the club of that. The real Jannie Minic, who created such a startling illusion of Miss Taylor, was so busy signing autographs that you would have thought the violet-eyed beauty really had graced us with her presence....

Meanwhile, at Throckmorton Mining Company, we've heard rumors that the switchboard at a certain managerial type's fabienda has been lighting up like a Christmas tree of late. Seems there's been a preponderance of phone calls to this handsome man's abode from a fan club that he didn't even know existed. Bill Badgett and David Vesper [above, I-r] are fans of a different sort—their loyalty lies with the popular Crossroads watering hole....

We had late-night food cravings several times this past week, and were forced to head down Lemmon Avenue to the Mockingbird Jack in the Box to satiate our rather ravenous appetite. On each and every occasion, we noticed that the Hidden Door parking lot was overflowing with cars. Apparently, the door is hidden no more....

Over on marvy Maple, we've been advised by very reliable sources that the Wave is pulling out all the stops to guarantee that its loyal customers have a multitude of options available for all their entertainment needs. For one, Michael Thomason, the club's perky happy hour bartender, guarantees to brighten your day, both with his phenomenal mixing talents and his selection of hot and hunky male dancers from 4-8 p.m. Fridays now offer Trash Disco, with deejay extraordinaire Jimmie Bartlett spinning all your favorite tunes from the disco era. Tomorrow night, Saturave hosts a Queer Nation pre-parade party, with its usual fare of hot, sexy dancers and femme mimic Coco. Then, this Sunday, the club inaugurates its new Fall T-Dances with very special guest, singer and gay porn video star David Burrill. If that isn't enough to keep you occupied, there's obviously too much free time on your hands....

Next door, in what can only be construed as an act of foreplay for the club's upcoming Mount-N-Men erotic sexual fantasy show, the Knights of Magic presented their own erogenous review during the recent Dungeon Dance at the Brick, and it's quite obvious from the CRUISE CAMERA photo above that there was a whole lot more than dancing going on in that basement....

The Round-Up Saloon was the site of the recent Miss Ten Pin contest, the annual lipstick and lash review that benefits the Dallas Invitational Columbus Day Bowling Tournament. Against a backdrop of bowling pins and balls, Amber Bonet's poise and talent scored a strike and catapulted her into the winner's circle. Amber is shown [above] being crowned by the currently reigning Miss Charity America Brooke Phoenix. Congratulations from HOTTEA....

Handsome and personable Tim Gregoire [above, r], the main stamp-checker at Village Station, will have his hands full tonight as the club presents the final night of competition for the twenty-first annual Miss Gay Texas Pageant. It would appear that he already has his hands full with an equally handsome and personable young man by the name of Matt Land []. We suggest you drop by the popular dance hall and see what you can get your hands on....

As if one sighting of Jannie Minic as la Liz wasn't enough to cause a stir on Cedar Springs, imagine her making a second stop at Sue Ellen's. Her appearance was in conjunction with the simultaneous openings at JR's and Sue Ellen's of the Major Artery

Collection. Portions of the proceeds from the sale of MA artwork during the opening were designated to the Nelson-Tebedo

Community Clinic, making any purchase an investment in both art and community service. Jannie is pictured above [c] with Sue Ellen's manager Kathy Jack and Major Artery President Patrick McReynolds [front, I-r], and four of the artists showing in the collection, Brian Cook, Tiffany Watson, Michelle Wiesner and Nicholas Spink [back, I-r]....

Down the road at Damewood'z, it wasn't artwork that attracted the huge crowd to the club on the very same night, it was the return engagement of Liquid Velvet, the allgirl band that's making quite a name for itself in Dallas. It was so crowded, in fact, that we lost sight of our favorite danceur de dique, and as talented as he is, that's no small feat....

If you've been to Crews Inn lately, you've probably noticed a particularly delectable new barback by the name of Christopher Morrison, pictured above [i] with fellow staffer Brian Costley [r]. From what we've heard, Christopher is not only a great employee, he's also a very popular addition with the customers. But apparently not as popular as Gene Maywald's new "roommate," Larry West. We've not had the pleasure of meeting Mr. West, but from what we understand, he's so stunning that the infamous Robert M. personally fit the young stud for a new pair of shoes. For the record, black market bushes are not available through Gene's Home Shopping Club, contrary to Miss Mona's protestations....

Speaking of bushes, Zipper's Michael Pace has been trying for weeks to get back to nature, but the weather just hasn't been cooperating lately. We originally thought it was because he had planned on doing some late summer gardening, but several sightings of his truck in various green spaces around the city lead us to believe otherwise.

TARRANT TEA — Here's what's happening in Fort Worth from Cowtown HOT TEA....

It's hard to believe that Fort Worth's premiere dance hall, Magnolia Station, will be celebrating its first anniversary next week. That's 365 days of providing Tarrant County residents with the gayest in entertainment. The festivities start next Wednesday, September 22, with a huge kickoff party that includes no cover, cheap drinks and male dancers. Then on Thursday, it's no cover and even more cheap drinks. The same applies to Friday, and includes the return of those fabulous dancers of the masculine set. Saturday, there's a Blue Moon party, and on Sunday the fabulous Super Show with very special guest, Texas Entertainer of the Year 1994 Tandi Andrews....

Speaking of shows, the fourth annual Miss Ashburn's Pageant has been scheduled for next Friday, September 24. A cast of Fort Worth favorites will be on hand, and you should be, too....

This weekend, Fort Worth welcomes the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt to the Amon Carter Exhibit Hall at Will Rogers Memorial Center. Over 1,600 panels will be displayed during the exhibit, which runs through Sunday. Contact the Fort Worth chapter of the NAMES Project at (817) 33-NAMES for more information....

Please don't forget that the International Gay Rodeo Finals come to Fort Worth for the very first time October 22–24, making this Metroplex city the place to see and be seen throughout the early months of fall.

HOUSTON HOTTea — Here's what's going on this week in Houston from Bayou City HOT TEA....

The Imperial Court's "Back to the Chicken Ranch" benefit was a great success. Cream A Friend organizer Jerel McNeil [above, 1] and Emperor IX Giovanni Lamond [r] are certainly amused by cream-covered Gentry owner Del McGee [c]. The pie toss and Chicken Ranch Revue raised $569 for the Colt 45's Stone Soup Fund. This Sunday night, there'll be lots of cowboy camp and comedy as candidate for Mr. TGRA 1994 Tim Davenport presents "Painted Angels and Drugstore Cowbovs" to benefit the Bering Community Service Foundation. Before the show, enjoy beef in many forms: delicious ribeve steak dinners and hot studs of the Lone Star Male Revue. Speaking of TGRA, the Houston chapter is sponsoring a carwash in the Gentry parking lot next Saturday, September 25 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m....

Heaven's Labor Day Weekend Neon Anniversary Party was one of the hottest events of the summer. The club sizzled with the super sexiness of adult video star Ryan Idol [above]. Because a picture speaks a thousand words, Mr. Idol really didn't need to say anything at all. This Sunday, Heaven gives you the perfect excuse to strip down and shown off the tan you've worked on all summer with a Flashlight Undergear Party. The club's Sunday South Beach dancers and fabulous drink specials give you many ways to heat up and cool down. Don't forget: Every Wednesday through Saturday from 9-11 p.m. and every Sunday from 7-10 p.m., you can get in Heaven free with a nonperishable food donation for the Stone Soup Pantry. Take advantage of no cover five nights a week and help those in need....

Next door, the crowd at JR's enthusiastically welcomed recording artists Fem 2 Fem [above]. These five open and unpretentious ladies answered questions and exchanged snappy repartee. Their single "Switch" is currently topping the dance charts. This special appearance proves that some of the classiest people and most festive events are at JR's

It's time once again for the hairy hunks of Houston to come out of their caves and converge on the Montrose Mining Company for the Bear of the Month contest next Wednesday, September 22, Two other exciting weekly events at the Mine are Country Tuesdays with Cowboys in Action and after hours on Fridays and Saturdays with even more hot, sexy dancers....

Rich's Splashguard Weekend Wet-N-Wild underwear party featured the singing/dancing/ stripping talents of adult film star David Burrill [above]. He does very well in all those categories and even better in some of the ones we can't talk about. Continuing the pursuit of pleasure, Club Hedonism grand opens next Thursday, September 23. The evening will be rich with no cover, reduced price well drinks, Club Kid dancers, Howie Keck's erotic artworks and a strong lust for the best in life....

On Labor Day Monday, BRB owner Bill Havard [above] served up a delightful fried catfish with all the trimmings. On the subject of good food, the BRB presents Steak Night every Sunday and 75¢ hamburgers every Thursday on the patio. By popular demand, this Sunday at 7:30 p.m., candidate for Miss TGRA 1994 Chablis Lee Love hosts "One Ringy Dingy II," a variety show to benefit the Gav and Lesbian Switchboard...

At Pacific Street's Cuir Next Door Party, our camera snapped Cuir magazine photographer Luke Owens Jabove, Il with tough customer Ron Cathcart [r]. Seven nights a week, Caged Heat/Men Behind Bars strut their stuff at the club that features special nights saluting the many aspects of our community. There's always something swinging at Pacific Street....

This Sunday from 5-8 p.m. at Cousin's, the Imperial Court of the Single Star will officially announce its candidates for Emperor and Empress X. Stop by and support the folks who will be campaigning throughout the community for the next four months. This organization celebrates its tenth anniversary on January 29, 1994....

SAN ANTONIO TEA - Here's what's going on THIS WEEK IN SAN ANTONIO from Alamo City HOT TEA....

Tonight, the Paper Moon hosts C.J. Harrington's 1993 Man of the Year contest beginning at 10 p.m. The hottest men from around Texas will strut their stuff and take it off in hopes of winning the Man of the Year title. Saturday, Miss Gay USA Sweet Savage emcees Muscles In Action in a super hot show kicking off at midnight. The CRUISE CAMERA captured recent Paper Moon guest entertainer and former Miss Gay Texas/USA at Large Rhapsody....

San Antonio is gearing up for the annual Gay Fiesta, coming up October 3 at La Villita Assembly Hall. A fund-raiser for AIDS services, this event always has plenty of food, fun and entertainment in store for everyone, so mark your calendars now....

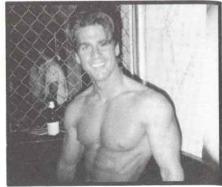

Noo Zoo Co. general manager Mark Montez [above] has been busy booking events for the Zoo in October, including the Miss Noo Zoo Co. Pageant and Florida superstar Tiffany Arieagus. Meanwhile, the luscious Babe Wells and Diamond join Jessica and Pauletta in Thursday's Zoo follies. The club has a surprise drink special each week....

2015 Place is the location for the Royal, Sovereign & Imperial Court of the Alamo Empire and San Antonio TGRA's benefit show tomorrow, Saturday, September 18. Proceeds go to TGRA, which is sponsoring Fall Fest at noon on Sunday in San Pedro Park. Join your friends and frolic in the sun while enjoying tasty edibles and live music, all courtesy of the San Antonio chapter of the Texas Gay Rodeo Association....

Sparks begins its Showboat Program at 10 p.m. Wednesday, a live comedy/melodrama revue. New to Saturday nights is rock 'n' roll music with deejay John at the turntables. The CRUISE CAMERA traveled to Sparks and captured the winner of the Mr. Gay Fiesta contest, handsome Christopher Graham. Congratulations from Alamo City HOT TEA....

The El Jardin throws a birthday party Sunday for the always delightful Billy Walker, A hot young dancer will be gyrating while Billy attempts to blow out the countless candles atop his cake. Munchies will also be served, and everyone is invited. Happy birthday, Billy, from Alamo City HOT TEA!...

Alamo City HOT TEA wishes Bamboleo's Latin Fever waiter Bobby Bustamante a happy birthday Monday, September 20.

AUSTINITE CIOUS — Here's what's going on this week in Austin from Capital City hot tea....

Fifth Street Station has moved their karaoke night to Thursdays at 10 to make room for Monday night football on the club's seven video screens. Sunday, September 26, the Station will host a "Celebration of Life." Check out this week's ad for more details. Pictured above, manager Dan Bernhert welcomes longtime friend Fred Adams to the staff. It's good to see Fred back in the nightclub business....

Oilcan Harry's is where we lined up the shady-looking group above [I-r]: Michael Love, Steve Higginbotham, Brad Vassderg, Moose Stork and Todd Kirby. The club is always packed when we visit, so getting this many bartenders together for a photo took a minor miracle. We've been told a flashlight underwear party is in the works for Oilcan's, and the rest of the info will be announced soon. We'll keep you posted....

Over at the Crossing, Carl Jones is not only spinning behind the bar but also spinning on Saturday nights. Carl told us he likes to call Saturday his "789-DNT" night, which stands for "70s, '80s and '90s disco, New Wave and techno." Don't forget about Jeanette's cooking on Wednesday nights. It's great!....

'Bout Time is where Jerry Walters and Chaz Elliott [above] can be found pouring and entertaining the crowds. These guys are part of the incredible crew that runs 'Bout Time. Don't forget the Baby Picture Guessing Contest. Deadline for entries is Tuesday, September 21....

Charlie's has reinstated their Friday quarter drink nights, and for beer drinkers the club offers $1 domestic all night, too. The club has also installed the first ATM machine in a gay bar in Austin. Now, instead of having to write a check, you can get fast cash. Way to go, Charlie's! Check this week's ad for details on Lavaca Fest....

San Fran Cisco's held their turnabout show last Sunday. Don't forget: Mondays are dance lesson nights and San Fran Cisco's is the place to meet a cowboy during the week....

Did you hear about 404 Club bartender Robb Williams going to work at the wrong time? Seems Robb had fallen asleep after a long night when the alarm went off to go to work. He got dressed and headed to the club. When he arrived, management informed him it was 9 a.m., not 9 p.m. He'll never live this one down. Employee L.B. Dicky is pictured above showing Robb how to check the clock on the wall....

The big news coming from the Chain Drive is their new air conditioning! The club has battled the Texas heat all summer long, and won the fight with new units that blow up a storm. Keep your eyes on the Chain Drive for other new improvements now in the making....

Over at Auntie Mame's, you can now enjoy home cooking during karaoke nights on Sundays. Employees will prepare their favorites and bring them in for everybody to try. Saturday's happy hour group [above] joined together to show everyone how much they were having and invite everybody to come play.

OBITUARIES OBITUARIES ON

Richard L Conard (above) 2/21/27 - 9/3/93

Dick passed in his sleep with his loving dog, Heidi, beside him. An entrepreneur/business college president in Hutchinson, Kansas, he came to Houston in 1980 and continued success in real estate. Dick moved his surviving brother, Jim, to Houston after Jim suffered a stroke ten years ago. Survivors include nephew Rob, nieces Connie and Kay, and many friends: Susy, Jack, Donna, Jim, Joe, Rob, Dorothy, Tom and Dan. Preceded in death by parents; three sisters, Claire, Jean and Betty; and longtime friend, Dan Ford.

Services were held at Westminster Church of Aldine, Rev. Charles Akins officiating. Donations to St. Catherine's Village, Madison, MS (Jim's new residence) are resident.

Abel Henry Toscano (above) October 7, 1962 - August 1, 1993 "For he did not die, but only awoke from a dream of life."

Son of Jose Toscano and Enriqueta Gonzales from Floresville, Texas, he is survived by his sister, Sylvia Carson, and her husband, Anthony Carson; brother, Artie Flores; nieces, Tessa and Nicole Carson; dear friends Doraliza Cantu, Pablo Pena and Michael Simmons; and numerous other friends and relatives. Abel was raised in Floresville and graduated from Floresville High School, excelling in his school work. He spent his adult life in San Antonio. He worked in the clerical field and enjoyed his work immensely. He will be greatly missed, especially his incredible smile and sense of humor.

Born April 18, 1951 / Died August 16, 1993
A native Nebraskan, he moved to Dallas in 1982.
He is survived by his mother Ruby, sister Ilean, brothers Joe and Paul, seven nieces and nephews and his lover Steve.

Harvey, I miss you very much. Thank you for the best ten years of my life. I know we will walk arm in arm again some day.

My deepest love, Steve

Jose Carlos Lopez

Jose Carlos Lopez passed away Saturday morning, August 28, 1993 at 6:55 a.m. at the age of 41. He was born August 2, 1953. Survived by mother, Cristina Lopez; brother, Jose Luis Lopez; and lover of six years. Albert Caryer.

Carlos was a restaurant manager at Paul's Seafood & Oyster Bar on Hwy 6. In business, he was honest, fair to his employees. He had no enemies because he knew no strangers. He befriended everybody. Even though he had a small family, he considered everybody a brother or sister. He would do everything for everybody at a moment's notice. As a lover, he was great and ever faithful. He had respect for nature, loved animals and appreciated the arts. He was an associate of the AIDS Foundation and Stone Soup, and gave even in his time of need. He was very loved and respected. He was a colorful person, appreciated the finer things in life, but remembered where he came from. He is missed by all who knew him.

A memorial service was held at Woodlawn Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his name to AIDS Foundation Houston or Stone Soup.

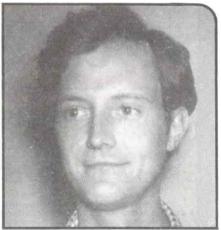

Raymond Love Clark, Jr. (above) November 24, 1951 - August 6, 1993

Ray was always a "fighter." Whatever he believed in, he attacked with great zeal. He lost his toughest yet greatest battle—the battle for life. His special companion, Brian, fought Ray's battle just as bravely, remaining at his side until the end. Rupert simply wonders when Ray will be home to walk him in the park.

Ray's love of life and friends will remain an inspiration to all who knew him. Though he may no longer be with us in body, he will forever be in our hearts.

> Until we share the light, Your loving family and friends (Brian, Mom, Dad, Linda, Tracy, Margo, Sam and Rupert ("The Dog")

On June 20, 1993, Derek Benton Overcash said his final goodbye. He struggled long and hard for many years. He volunteered for many of the experimental programs available to PWAs. His hope was that, even if he didn't make it, someone else could be helped with the knowledge acquired from his response to the treatments.

He kept up the good fight for as long as he was able and maintained his independence throughout, even though, at times, he was a source of problems to those of us who loved him enough to let him do it his wa

We know that he will be missed by the folks at Mary's bar, all of his friends in Montrose and especially by B.J. and Nancy. We leave him with the knowledge and hope that someday we will be together again.

So, dear friends, your love has gone
Only tears to dwell upon
I dare not say as the wind must blow
So a love is lost, a love is won
Go to sleep and dream again
Soon your hopes will rise and then
From all this gloom life can start anew
And there'll be no crying soon.

Randy Fields Jr. Born January 5, 1968 Died May 9, 1993

Randy was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana, and later moved to Houston. Randy was a longtime activist, and his involvements included ACT UP, Queer Nation and the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus. His accomplishments and victories can never be bought. Randy leaves behind quite a few friends, including myself (Richard Speck).

Randy came to us as a friend and left here as a humanitarian whose light will always shine. Randy, words can't possibly say how much we miss you and yet yearn to be with you.

Until we meet again, Ray Hill, Annise Parker, Pat Ryan, Richard S. Speck, Norm Thompson, Toni Knight, Claire Koepsel, Terri Richardson and lots of other close friends

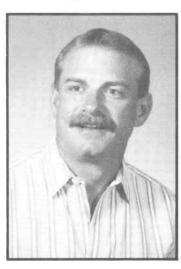

Though our community has lost a friend, in our hearts, Randy will always be there.

Neal Wright

September 11, 1953 to September 12, 1993

Neal departed this life last Sunday after a long and valiant struggle with AIDS. A favorite employee of the Round Up Saloon, Neal was a deeiay and dance teacher from September, 1985 until December, 1991. He is survived by his parents, Mary and Neal, Sr., family members Jan, Dustin and Becky as well as longtime companions Ron Crawford and Alan. Neal will be deeply missed by the countless individuals whose lives he touched in so many

Services will be held at 12 noon this Saturday, September 18, at Dallas' Cathedral of Hope MCC. In lieu of flowers, Neal requested that donations be made to Careline, 4334 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, TX

TOUCHING SHOULDERS

There's a comforting thought at the close of the day, When I'm weary and lonely and sad, That sort of grips hold of my crusty old heart And bids it be merry and glad. It gets in my soul and drives out the blues, And finally thrills through and through. It's just a sweet memory that chants the refrain: "I'm glad I touched shoulders with you!"

Did you know that you were brave, did you know you were strong? Did you know there was one leaning hard? Did you know that I waited and listened and prayed, And was cheered by your simplest word? Did you know that I longed for that smile on your face, For the sound of your voice ringing true? Did you know I grew stronger and better because I had merely touched shoulders with you?

I am glad that I live, that I battle and strive For the place that I know I must fill; am thankful for sorrows, I'll meet with a grin What fortune may send, good or ill. I may not have wealth, I may not be great, But I know I shall always be true, For I have in my life that courage you gave When once I rubbed shoulders with you.

Unknown

With love always. Alan & Ron
