REVIEWED BY

Andrew Dawson, Grant Kilpatrick and David M. Dukes share a moment from Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph.

The Group's Production of
Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph
at Houston's Kuumba House

This weekend is the last chance for Houstonians to see the Group's production of Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph, Glenn Raul's play about two couples a generation apart, yet with so much in common.

The older couple, Earl and Ollie (played by Dan Flahive and Stephen Burton), met during World War II and have been together for 50 years. The younger pair, Austin and Ralph (David M. Dukes and Andrew Dawson), met at a picnic organized by Ralph's gay political action group and are on the verge of a breakup. Austin and Ralph are vacationing at the older couple's hotel in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, making one last attempt to settle their differences and get back together.

I was especially fascinated by Grant Kilpatrick's portrayal of Rogers, an elderly occupant of the hotel who doesn't let his age interfere with his interest in the younger, blond and blue-eyed Austin.

As the play began, I found myself (and the rest of the audience) laughing often. Later, though I still laughed at times, I found myself reflecting—about relationships; about growing older; about gay politics; about the humanness of us all; about how some people are simply not ready to deal with their core issues; and about how that inability sometimes separates two people who've been walking together for a time.

Sometimes the humor in Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph evokes overt laughter; other times a soft chuckle as the audience connects with some insight contained in the dialogue.

When the curtain rang down, I found myself on the verge of tears. To find out why, you'll have to see Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph for yourself.

Stephen Burton, David M. Dukes and Dan Flahive star in The Group's production of Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph at Houston's Kuumba House.

Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph made me grateful for couples like Earl and Ollie who really have stayed together for decades and who've done the work so that could happen. Couples like that provide real encouragement to the rest of us that permanence in relationships can be more than just a dream.

Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph has quality, substance, insight and, with all that, great comedy. This is great theatre.

Sitting in the theater watching this drama unfold, I found myself asking, "Why aren't there more people here tonight? Why aren't there more of us coming out to see plays like this?" Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph has quality, substance, insight and, with all that, great comedy. This is great theatre.

Earl, Ollie, Austin & Ralph is a powerful, funny play with a powerful, serious message, and I encourage Houstonians who haven't yet seen it not to miss the chance.

Some call it Turkey Day. Others call it Holiday Shopping Season Eve. Most call it Thanksgiving.

A little history. One hundred and two pilgrims, after a four-month journey that began in Holland, landed at Plymouth on December 11, 1620, leading many to speculate that their route had been charted by

THANKSGIVING

History, Traditions and Wishbones

Southwest Airlines. There they encountered severe weather, and a plague that killed hundreds of local Indians. By the following autumn, 46 members of their party had succumbed to scurvy and pneumonia. The survivors were happy that food and religious freedom, if nothing else, were abundant.

Let's party!

The first Thanksgiving celebration lasted three days, much like the extended birthday celebration of today's lesbian. The work of preparing the feast—for 147 diners—fell to four Pilgrim women and two teenage girls. Thirteen women had died in the previous year, and were probably thankful for that in itself. The men were delegated to the woods, where they waited quietly until the early 1960s, when college football was introduced as a holiday television tradition.

The Pilgrims' first Thanksgiving menu included duck, goose, venison, lobster, clams, bass, corn, green vegetables, dried fruit, watercress, leeks, bitter wild plums and dried berries. Yum. The Indians brought popcorn. No videos, though. Wild cranberries were boiled and mashed to make sauce for the meats, but surprisingly enough, turkey was probably not on the menu. Neither was pumpkin pie, nor bread as we recognize it today. Pumpkin was boiled and eaten, and boiled corn was kneaded into round cakes and fried in venison fat—still a Thanksgiving drive-through favorite at Taco Cabana.

Because the following year's crop was not bumper, Thanksgiving was not celebrated the next year by the settlers. Either that, or the women were still too busy doing dishes from the year before.

The first national Thanksgiving Proclamation was issued 168 years later by President Washington the year of his inauguration. The proclamation was condemned two years later by Thomas Jefferson, who felt that the hardships endured by a few early settlers did not warrant commemoration on a national scale. Remember, Jefferson spent a lot of time rocking on his front porch, smoking hemp. It got harder and harder to motivate ol' Tom after the Declaration of Independence went to press.

The high emotional toll the Civil War took upon the country's population may have been instrumental in President Lincoln's decision to address the "Hey, even though we are a nation divided against itself, we have a heck of a lot to be thankful for" issue. In 1863, he designated the last Thursday in each November as a national day of thanksgiving.

This year, I have a great deal to be thankful for. My families, both nuclear and extended, are alive and well. Those members of my families who aren't alive this year are nonetheless well, for which I am also thankful. I am thankful that at any given moment on this great planet of ours, I Love Lucy is being broadcast. This knowledge gives me a definite sense of continuity. I am thankful for natural Texas wonders, like the rising of a beautiful full moon, the sunset when it's screaming orange, and Blue Bell ice cream. I'm thankful that I don't wake up every morning and go to a job as a chicken sexer (one of the few vocations I haven't considered as an alternative to comedy when I'm not feeling funny), but that's another topic for another column.

My personal favorite Thanksgiving tradition, next to bingeing sans purging, is wishing on the turkey wishbone. Wishbone wishes rate second in reliability only to blowing out birthday candles, and statistically are far preferable to the elusive wishing on a falling star.

The ancient Etruscans (are there any other kind?) are credited with having begun the tradition of the wishbone. Each time a sacred fowl was killed, the bird's collarbone was placed in the sun to dry. An Etruscan hoping to benefit from the dead bird's mystic powers was instructed to stroke the bone, being careful not to break it, and make a wish. Hence the name "wishbone." Stroking one's bone is still considered lucky in many parts of the world, with the possible exception of Pee Wee Herman's neighborhood.

The first Thanksgiving wishes offered by its participants probably included statements like "I wish they'd stop calling us 'Redskins' and use the more politically correct 'Native Americans' " and "I wish I had a nice parkerhouse roll instead of this nasty ball of boiled corn fried in venison fat."

As I stroke and snap my bone this holiday, I wish for...

...world peace, and an end to disease and hunger...

...even one gay or lesbian person on Houston City Council; please? just one?...

...Cindy Crawford.

That's it; that's all. My needs are simple. Pass the watercress.

REMEMBERING NAOMI

A Tribute To Naomi Sims

In the 12 months that have passed since the death of Naomi Sims, many readers have wondered when THIS WEEK IN TEXAS would profile the life of one of Texas' foremost entertainers. We thought it would be appropriate on this, the anniversary of Naomi's passing, to present some fond remembrances of her dear friend, Bob Dineen.

Like so many other people who admired and loved Naomi Sims, I saw him for the first time illuminating a stage with one of his electrifying performances. The stage in question was at Sunset Boulevard in San Antonio in 1978, but it could have just as easily been at The Landing in Dallas, the Sweet Gum Head in Atlanta, the Copa in Houston or Fort Lauderdale or one of hundreds of stages across the United States—the scope of Naomi's fame was that far-reaching.

It may be hard for some to believe that the fame that Naomi worked so hard to achieve came so easily and so quickly, but anyone who knew Naomi also knew that once he set his mind on something—whether it be a title or a potential new love interest—he usually got it.

Naomi's amazing life began on March 19, 1953 in Lafayette, Louisiana when Newman S. Braud, Jr. was born, the first child of Newman, Sr. and Melba Braud, both educators. His parents' profession, coupled with an inquisitive nature and a brilliant mind, formed the foundation for what would become one of the most talented and creative forces yet seen in gay entertainment.

After graduating from the University of Southwest Louisiana with a degree in Speech and Drama, Newman began the career that would bring him the national attention he so richly deserved—that of female impersonator. Performing under the stage names of Pepper and Christine, he quickly gained recognition for his sense of style and incomparable dance abilities. While still in Lafayette, he was crowned Miss May Day of the South, a preliminary to Miss Gay America. The crowning, and his appearance at that year's national contest, brought him an even wider circle of fans and friends. It also made him realize that while Lafayette would always be home, there was a bigger stage on which to perform.

Newman moved to Houston in 1975, and became a regular at the Lamp Post in what is now West University. The club sponsored him at Miss Texas the following year—a title he won, thanks in part to his fabulous interpretation of "Music in the Mirror" from A Chorus Line. That same talent garnered him first runner-up honors in the subsequent Miss Gay America Pageant that same year, with Michael Andrews being crowned the national title holder.

Two years later, Newman entered and won the first Miss Gay USA title at Numbers in Houston from a field of 33 contestants. Ironically, many of the same performers who had beaten Newman in previous Miss Gay America contests also entered Miss Gay USA that year, and in an almost unbelievable twist of fate, Newman's first runner-up was Michael Andrews, the same person Newman was first runner-up to at Miss Gay America two years earlier.

Characteristic of his pride and enthusiasm, Newman wore his Miss USA crown to work the next day at Foley's Northwest Mall store in Houston. He and his dear friend Pete "Carmalita" Davila were both fashion merchandisers at the store, and Newman wanted both staff and management at the store to be aware of his accomplishment.

During that same time period, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS held the Texas Entertainer of the Year competition. Based on the votes of readers from around the state, the most popular female impersonator for each city and the most popular entertainer in the state were announced onstage at various showbars around Texas. The first two years, Ernestine, a popular comedic performer from Houston, was named Texas Entertainer of the Year. In 1978, Donna Day was Texas Entertainer of the Year. But in 1979, 1980 and 1981, Newman did what many thought was the unthinkable—he alone reigned as Texas Entertainer of the Year for three consecutive years!

Perhaps it was his uncanny ability to create the illusion of a woman on and off stage; perhaps it was his rapport and camaraderie with audiences; perhaps it was his incredible skill as a dancer and pantomimist; or perhaps it was just the fact that Newman was a regular cast member at the Copa in Houston and Sunset Boulevard in San Antonio—in addition to being a semi-regular in showbars across the state—that earned him that honor. Whatever the reason, Newman accomplished something that no one had ever done, or has ever done since!

In 1980, Newman traveled to Atlanta to compete in the Miss Gay Universe Pageant. In that competition, each contestant represents a foreign land, and true to Newman's creativity and sense of pageantry, his costume was brilliant, outshining all others as he walked the runway as Miss Timbuktu. As in so many other pageants before, Newman walked away triumphant, carrying the Miss Gay Universe crown out of the Southeast for the first time in the contest's history.

After winning Miss Gay USA and Miss Gay Universe, and after being named Texas Entertainer of the Year for three consecutive years, Newman set his sights on the one title that had eluded him, the one title that he wanted above all others—Miss Gay America. So, in September of 1982, Naomi entered national competition again, placing in the top ten at the Miss Gay America Pageant, with Detroit's Jennifer Foxx being named the winner.

The following year, Newman entered and won the Miss Gay South Pageant in San Antonio and competed for the Miss Gay America crown in Charlotte, North Carolina. He was named first runner-up to Francesca Wakeland. In 1983, he represented the Miss Gay Tri-States Pageant as first runner-up at Miss Gay America in Oklahoma City, being named first runner-up again, this time to Tasha Kohl.

That same year, Euro-Tan International sponsored the Female Impersonator of the Year contest at the Shamrock Hilton hotel in Houston. Entertainers from across the United States competed onstage for the largest prize in female impersonation—$15,000. Combining his unique sense of style and grace, with his now famous interpretation of Liza Minnelli's "New York, New York," Newman captured the title, and the cash prize.

Despite this incredible string of successes, it wasn't until 1984 that Newman would realize what had long been his dream—to be named Miss Gay America. That year, representing Miss Dreamstates, he won the title on his home turf—Texas—at the Dallas Convention Center Theatre. The response to his much-deserved and long-desired victory was, needless to say, overwhelming.

Having achieved this final goal, Newman turned his sights on using his talents to entertain and to raise funds and awareness in the battle against AIDS. He continued to perform in cities across America, making Houston his permanent base of operations as he had done for most of his adult life. He even found time to involve himself in a new national pageant system, National Entertainer of the Year, and was instrumental in resurrecting Texas Entertainer of the Year in 1992.

It was also in 1992 that Newman's suspicions of his own HIV status were confirmed. In the spring of that year, Newman began feeling "not quite right." A Houston doctor confirmed his worst fears, and Newman—with a T-cell count of only eight—began his last competition.

In July and August of last year, tributes to Naomi's life and career were held at both Heaven in Houston and Village Station in Dallas. In attendance were fellow entertainers and fans who loved Newman, and were so much a part of his life. While thousands of dollars were raised to help him with the financial burden of his illness, it was the tremendous show of support and respect that these two benefits represented that made the biggest difference in his life.

Newman succumbed to complications from AIDS quietly in his home on Tuesday, November 10, 1992. It would not be an understatement to say that Newman's funeral was a fitting tribute to our friend. It was, in the words of the director of the funeral home where the service was held, the largest attendance of any service held in their facility. Fans and admirers from across America joined together to say goodbye to a person who had made such a difference in all of our lives. From the spontaneous standing ovation offered by those in attendance to the beautiful balloon release symbolizing the release of Newman's soul from this earthly plain, it was the kind of service that Newman himself would have designed, and one of which he would be immensely proud.

Now, one year later, the world seems a little lonelier; the lights are a little dimmer; and the parade seems a little less festive. Because the gay community lost one of its brightest stars, one of its most dynamic performers.

We love you, Newman.

ARLINGTON/GRAPEVINE

Trinity Metropolitan Community Church has scheduled its first annual Fall Festival and Craft Show for Saturday, November 20 from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. The festival will include crafts, garage sale items and baked goods, all for sale at affordable prices. Proceeds will benefit both Trinity MCC and other fund-raising organizations that are expected to participate. The festival will take place on the church's property at Truman and Sanford in Arlington. For more information, or to register your organization for the festival, call the church office at (214)265-5454.

AUSTIN

The third annual "Octopus Club Art Auction," a benefit for AIDS Services of Austin, will be held this Sunday (November 14) from 4-7 p.m. at ACME ART, 5512 Clay Avenue. Local artists have donated original works of art, furniture and sculpture for a silent auction. Guest deejays will provide entertainment, food and beverages will be served, and there will be door prizes and a raffle held throughout the evening.

DALLAS

A benefit concert for the young man who was shot in the head in the Oak Lawn area of Dallas while walking home from this year's Texas Freedom Parade will be held tomorrow (Saturday, November 13) at The Orbit Room Live, 2809 Commerce Street, beginning at 9 p.m. Scheduled entertainment includes Hash Palace, Elysian Fields, Dancin' with Manson and Tempered. All proceeds will benefit the victim's relief fund. For more information, contact Mark Weddington at (214)520-1796.

Cheer Dallas, the cheerleaders charged with supporting Team Dallas' participation in the Gay Games in New York City next June, will host its first fund-raising event tomorrow night (Saturday, November 13) at the Centrum Sports Club, 3102 Oak Lawn, Suite 400, from 9 p.m.-1 a.m. The event—which will feature a cash bar and the music of deejay Ric Herrington—will be reminiscent of the famed Stark Club, which was one of Dallas' preeminent nightspots during the heady and glittery days of the 1980s. A $10 donation, which will be used to assist the team in getting to New York, is requested. For more information, contact Ken Jorns at (214)263-9200 or Fred Bowles at (214)739-5087.

New options in holiday shopping are now available through a unique gift catalog being offered by the Cathedral of Hope Metropolitan Community Church. "Gifts of Cheer, Gifts of Hope" is the first-ever catalog published by the church, and offers a selection of books on lifestyle, spirituality and religion, as well as gay and lesbian pride gifts, apparel, accessories and decorative items. Proceeds from the sales of catalog items help Cathedral of Hope meet its diverse goals of serving the community. Copies of the catalog may be obtained at the church, 5910 Cedar Springs, or by calling (214)351-1901.

"Lambda Weekly," North Texas' leading gay and lesbian radio program, continues its participation in the KNON-FM Fall Pledge Drive this Sunday (November 14). The drive is vital to obtain the funding needed to keep "Lambda Weekly" and KNON on the air. Special guest for this Sunday's broadcast will be Karen Purvis, who will discuss the upcoming Celebrity Auction for AIDS benefiting the AIDS Resource Center. "Lambda Weekly" airs Sundays from 2-4 p.m. on KNON-FM 89.3.

FORT WORTH

The AIDS Outreach Center, the primary service organization in Tarrant County for persons with HIV/AIDS, will host a safer sex workshop for men on Saturday, November 20, at the Sexuality Education Center, 901 Lake Street in Fort Worth. Workshop participants will be afforded the opportunity to learn how AIDS is transmitted and prevented; meet interesting people; explore healthy ways of relating; have their sexuality affirmed; practice negotiating safer sex; and have fun. There is no charge for the workshop, which will be held from 3-7 p.m., but attendance is limited to 25 persons. To register by the

'Wigs' Made Spirit of Giving
Come Alive

Dear TWT:

Bubbling cauldrons of hobgoblin stew, witch doctors, black cats with shiny gold eyes and teased tails, white magic and gay magic all combined to form a Saturday night of Voodoo Wigs On Fire. October 16 became a pre-All Hallows Eve monster bash to end all bashes in the form of a charity event for the Colt 45's. A most magnificent obsession went on that night with party, party, party. The warlocks and voodoo dames made Samantha and Endora of Bewitched look like amateurs with their tricks, plots and ploys.

Truly, the Wigs On Fire Voodoo Crew made an outstanding contribution to the community with not only a festive, hedonistic evening, but with another financial sword thrust against AIDS. That Excalibur, through the generosity of all who attended, carried a crest of contribution which totaled $6,400. The Colt 45's would gladly straddle a fiery doo any year for the betterment of the community and our clients by supporting the efforts of Wigs On Fire. Their magical spoof on drag as a kickoff to the Halloween spirit makes the spirit of giving come alive. With our continued charity, communication and cooperation, our spell of a better life for PWAs can come true.

NAMBLA Must Go

Dear TWT:

In an effort to demonstrate inclusiveness, the newly-recognized gay representative organization to the United Nations, the International Lesbian and Gay Association [ILGA], has listed the North American Man/Boy Love Association [NAMBLA] as a member organization. As a result, the United Nations authorities, upon discovering NAMBLA's membership, are likely to rescind IGLA's consultative status. Rather than persist in keeping NAMBLA as a member, ILGA and all other gay rights organizations should not recognize it as part of the movement for gay equality.

NAMBLA is an organization whose sole purpose, as its name states, is to facilitate sex between adult men and young boys. It publishes guides to seducing boys through the use of alcohol intoxication and pornographic materials, and promotes travel packages for pedophiles who frequent foreign countries where children are sexually exploited for profit. The only distinctive element of NAMBLA which its members believe entitles it to inclusion in our movement is the fact that it advocates same-sex pedophilia among men.

This issue is not about inclusion or First Amendment rights. It is about a pedophile support group cloaking their mission in civil rights language. Exploitation of young people is deplorable regardless of the sexual orientation of the predator or the victim. Now that NAMBLA is under assault across the country due to its notoriety, it is looking to the gay community for support.

Rather than allow this group to pretend to be fighting for civil rights, the gay community should serve notice to NAMBLA that, contrary to the stereotypes and far-right propaganda, gay Americans do have moral values, and we will voice them.

The gay community deplores sexual exploitation of children, which we know to be perpetrated most often by heterosexual men against young boys and girls. At the urging of gay activists, city and state governments are empaneling commissions on gay youth to study and implement programs that will make growing up a more normal, stable and safe process for young gay people. As the former Director

WARNING!

Here we go again! Another year, more "gay treatment programs"! Some huge psychiatric hospital chains are suddenly claiming to be gay affirming. Others tempt with offers of an exotic resort location but are not even accredited treatment facilities!! Founded seven years ago as the nation's first accredited lesbian and gay treatment center, Pride Institute has helped thousands of our sisters and brothers. Call for our free consumer tip sheet, "Facts Every Gay Person Should Know When Considering a Treatment Program" before committing yourself to any program.

for Adolescent health for the state of Massachusetts, and from my experience in working closely with Gov. William Weld's Commission on Gay and Lesbian Youth, I can't imagine anything more detrimental to our young people than sending them the message that sexual exploitation of children is okay.

Pedophilia advocacy is directly contrary to where the gay movement stands. On behalf of Log Cabin Republicans, I call on ILGA to remove NAMBLA from their list of member organizations. But we shouldn't rest there. In our marches, parades and lobbying efforts, NAMBLA should no longer be at our side. One of the signs of a politically mature movement is its ability to clearly articulate what it is and what it isn't. NAMBLA marching under our banner of gay equality is a travesty. We need to say it, and we need to stop it.

Theater LaB Houston presents the local premiere of Maria Irene Fornes' Fefu and Her Friends. Set in 1935 New England, this drama focuses on eight complex, idiosyncratic women who gather to organize a fund-raiser supporting art as a learning tool. As the play unfolds, the women voice their unique views of the world around them, revealing the pain, comforts and fragility of their lives. Theatre LaB is located at 1706 Alamo. Fefu and Her Friends runs through December 11, with performances at 8 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and a 3 p.m. matinee this Sunday, November 14. (no performances November 26 or 27). Tickets are $12. Call (713)868-7516.

Last Call: The Attitude Club, Marianne Pendino's one-woman send-up of self-help programs, concludes its Sunday evening run at Main Street Theater next Sunday, November 21. Through a clever mix of songs, monologues and eight memorable characters involved in a 12-step program called The Attitude Club, Pendino takes aim at a spectrum of contemporary issues and obsessions. Shows are at 7:30 p.m.. Tickets, $12, may be obtained by calling the box office at (713)524-6706. Main Street Theater is located at 2540 Times Boulevard in the University Village.

More than 30 years ago, Tennessee Williams premiered what is considered one of his most beautiful works, Summer and Smoke, in Dallas. Today, Moonstruck Theatre Company brings the story of the lifelong relationship between a minister's daughter and the boy next door back to Dallas audiences for a three-week run beginning next Thursday, November 18, and running through December 4. Proceeds from the production—which examines the struggle between spiritual love and physical desires and the ever constant search for fulfillment—will benefit Artists Helping Artists, a recently-formed organization which provides help to artists of all mediums who are suffering from a catastrophic illness. Tickets for the Thursday, Friday and Saturday 8:15 p.m. performances are $8-$10, and can be obtained by calling (214)526-2700.

Fort Worth's favorite comedy duo, Jaston Williams and Joe Sears, return for their third appearance November 16-21 in their Yuletide classic A Tuna Christmas at Will Rogers Auditorium. In the play, quick-change artists Williams and Sears portray all 22 characters during the holiday season in Tuna, Texas, the fictional third smallest town in the Lone Star State. Along with favorites Aunt Pearl, Vera Carp, Bertha Bumiller, Didi Snively, Petey Fisk and so on, audiences will see Inita Goodwin and Dixie Deberry cope with Tuna at Christmas as the Christmas Phantom strikes, the Smut Snatchers Society questions "round young virgins" and the city secretary pulls the plug on the community theatre's production of A Christmas Carol. Performances are Tuesday through Saturday evenings at 8 p.m., with Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. Tickets, $8-$28, are available through Casa Manana at (817) 332-2272 or through any TicketMaster location.

Judy Collins helps Galveston's Grand 1894 Opera House kick off the holiday season in grand style with her Judy Collins Christmas Special on Sunday, November 21. The folk-turned-pop diva, who performed at President Clinton's inaugural festivities in January, will perform both old favorites like "Send in the Clowns" and "Both Sides Now" as well as "a few surprises." A presence in American music for over three decades, Collins has also donated her time and talents to working for world peace, civil liberties, AIDS research and other causes. Tickets for the 8 p.m. show at the Grand are $15, $27 and $30, and can be obtained by calling (409) 765-1894, (713)480-1894 or (800)821-1894. The Grand is located at 2020 Postoffice.

Bill of Wrongs

BY HUGH B. CALLAWAY

How might the Bill of Rights, the amendments added to the U.S. Constitution in 1791 to clarify certain individual and state rights, look if written to take into account the experiences and past history of homosexual Americans? Hugh B. Callaway of Dallas offers the following "revision" of the ten amendments to illustrate how gay men and lesbians have been excluded from the fundamental guarantees contained in our nation's founding documents.

Amendment I:

Congress shall make laws insuring the dominance of Judeo-Christian religion, and insuring the oppression and suppression of all those condemned by said religion, and shall make no laws abridging the freedom of speech, except for those condemned by the Judeo-Christian religion, or the right of the people to peacefully assemble, or to petition the government for redress of grievances, unless those grievances involve gay and lesbian child custody; marriage; participation in the armed services; basic human rights, etc., ad infinitum.

Amendment II:

A well-regulated militancy having become necessary to the security of a morally bankrupt, bigoted state, the right to keep and bear arms, and to use them against gays and lesbians, shall not be infringed.

Amendment III:

No soldier shall, in a time of peace, be quartered in the house of a gay or lesbian. But in a time of war, the government shall not give a hoot for the duration.

Amendment IV:

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures applies only to heterosexuals. Unsupported suspicion of law enforcement officials is enough for the confiscation of gay and lesbian publications, and the harassment of such people in public places and imprisonment for the possession of any object deemed to be homosexually obscene by heterosexual culture.

Amendment V:

Those known to be gay or lesbian shall give evidence against themselves, and failure to do so is an admission of guilt. They shall not be afforded the same protections as heterosexual criminals and shall be judicially gay-bashed to the fullest extent.

Amendment VI:

In all criminal prosecutions, gays and lesbians shall enjoy the right to a speedy conviction. The accused shall have the right to the assistance of a back-stabbing, homophobic, jackleg lawyer to help with his or her prosecution, conviction and execution when applied.

Amendment VII:

In suits at common law, gays and lesbians shall have the right to spend all their life savings and sell all their possessions to pay the legal fees of manipulative, homophobic lawyers, but they shall never receive justice. If the family of a gay or lesbian person's lifemate contests that person's will, forget it. Visitation and custody of children shall be severely limited and unenforceable in the former, and never granted in the latter. In all other cases, the judge and jury shall know that a sexual reprobate is before the court and shall be accordingly prejudiced.

In suits at common law, gays and lesbians shall have the right to spend all their life savings and sell all their possessions to pay the legal fees of manipulative, homophobic lawyers, but they shall never receive justice.

Amendment VIII:

Sufficient bail shall be required to prevent release of gays and lesbians so that they may be gang-raped and kept in conditions of cruel and unusual punishment.

Amendment IX:

The enumeration of certain rights in the Constitution shall not be construed to mean that there are not other rights that can be denied gays and lesbians by the government and the general Judeo-Christian heterosexual population to insure that right-wing fundamentalist family values are promoted and protected.

Amendment X:

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution are reserved to anyone who also wants to participate in violence, oppression and suppression directed at gays and lesbians, who are to be considered citizens in name only, and only for the purpose of their persecution and taxation.

Venus and Jupiter changed signs from Libra to Scorpio late last week while energetic Mars moved from Scorpio to Sagittarius. What effect does all this planetary activity have on us mortals? Venus and Jupiter expand our ardor and generosity while Mars calls us to action. Read ahead and see where these three planets create a passion play in your own horoscope.

SCORPIO: (October 24 - November 22) Venus and Jupiter bring you into the public eye in an attractive and dramatic way. It's all or nothing, sweetheart. Be warned—Jupiter's current placement in your horoscope could cause you to put on a little weight, so dress accordingly! Mars in Sagittarius waves a magic wand over finances. Some long dormant investments could suddenly take off.

SAGITTARIUS: (November 23 - December 21) You may uncover a closely guarded secret this week now that Venus and Jupiter have moved into Scorpio, the detective sign. All hell breaks loose—Sagittarians are never good at keeping secrets. Thank goodness Mars, in your own sign, pushes you to center stage, where you and you alone can make a public splash. Then it's everyone into the pool!

CAPRICORN: (December 22 - January 20) Friends play a prominent role in your life this week, tossing their own particular brand of mirth and merriment in your path. This is all very well, but Mars in Sagittarius encourages you to become more seriously involved in great group causes. Why not make a difference by volunteering or by getting more politically involved in an AIDS-related cause? Now is the time to take action.

AQUARIUS: (January 21 - February 18) Venus and Jupiter in Scorpio affect your career and social standing in the community. You can, for once, enjoy the fruits of your labor and can see advancement and opportunity on the horizon. Put your life in balance with Mars in Sagittarius—get out and mingle! Enjoy the company of friends and companions. Remember—all work and no play...

PISCES: (February 19 - March 20) Vacations now have the seal of approval from Venus and Jupiter. You can truly enjoy yourself in an exotic and restful locale. Before you know it, Mars in Sagittarius will begin to push its own agenda—career requirements and obligations. Do what's necessary to achieve and get to where you want to go, but do it so you can still look at yourself in the mirror each morning.

ARIES: (March 21 - April 20) If sex seems more meaningful than usual, it's probably because of the blessings of Venus and Jupiter in passionate Scorpio. These two mavericks now enhance all intensely personal relationships. Are you ready for commitment? Maybe not quite yet—Mars in independent Sagittarius may encourage you to seek the exotic and test the waters in a new location before you make a decision.

TAURUS: (April 21 - May 21) Venus and Jupiter in Scorpio help to solidify and enhance personal relationships. You are able to visualize what you need and with whom you must seek it. And seek it you will—Mars

In Sagittarius turns up the heat quite a bit in your love life. Much information can be gathered now on prospective and/or current partners. Are you prepared to find out every little thing?

GEMINI: (May 22 - June 21) You may feel that you're running on a treadmill at work—keeping pace but going nowhere. The work keeps coming...you keep working...nothing finishes or progresses. Never fear—Venus and Jupiter will provide you with the courage and incentive to proceed no matter what. Active Mars in Sagittarius demands that recalcitrant partners do their bit for the greater cause.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) It may be possible to loosen up and have more fun now that Venus has made its move to Scorpio. Jupiter warns you not to overdo it, though. Mars in Sagittarius gives you the green light to accomplish many onerous tasks on the job all at once with unbounded energy. You may feel more charged up than usual in general, and would benefit from a more enhanced and challenging exercise regime.

LEO: (July 23 - August 23) Gather 'round the home fires and surround yourself with good friends and convivial company. Venus and Jupiter in Scorpio encourage you to entertain at home. Be sure to strike a happy balance, though, and schedule some time to be alone to meditate and recharge. Mars in Sagittarius encourages you to be more romantic and take more of a "seat of the pants" approach to courtship.

VIRGO: (August 24 - September 23) You feel expansive and benevolent and you don't mind telling people all about it. Venus and Jupiter in Scorpio accentuate your communication skills and there will be no holding you back! Just be sure your opinions are based on sound, hard facts. Meantime, Mars in Sagittarius sets you off on a course of redecorating, cleaning or changing your home in some way.

LIBRA: (September 24 - October 23) Money has a way of coming in and going out again with relative speed. Venus and Jupiter in Scorpio can bring dramatic ebbs and flows of fortune, so keep a watchful eye on your bank account. But oh what fun, anyway! At least Mars in Sagittarius gives you a chance to happily roar your news across the galaxies with little repercussion.

GAY SKATING

Houston — The Lambda Roller Skating Club hosts their skate night this Tuesday, November 16 from 7:30–10:30 p.m. at Hobby Skate World, 6804 Easthaven (two blocks east of I-45 and Monroe). This is a new day for skate night. Due to low participation at the Monday night skates, the Lambda group has moved their skates to the first, third and fifth Tuesdays of each month. Admission is $5 and includes skates and a raffle ticket.

For more information, call Ray at (713) 862-4875 or Keith at 933-5818.

TWO GAY MEN IN DALLAS ATTACKED ON HALLOWEEN

*Assault by Convenience Store Clerk
May Be Classified as Hate Crime.*

DALLAS — Oak Lawn residents Gene Phillips and his lifemate Chris Padgett were not unlike the hundreds of other gay men and lesbians who donned costumes for the annual Halloween street parade on Cedar Springs. But unlike the majority of their counterparts, their evening did not end on a happy note.

Before returning home at approximately 10:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 31, the pair stopped by the Stop & Go convenience store located at 4040 Cedar Springs Road and Knight Street—one block from the festivities—to purchase a few items. Upon entering the store, they noticed that the cashier, who they identified as "James" from the name tag he was wearing, was very "agitated and rude to the customers." After completing their purchases, Gene Phillips reached across the counter to get his receipt and leave quietly, since the clerk was arguing with another customer. "James" told Phillips that he had "an attitude," to which Phillips replied, "No, you have an attitude." With that, the pair turned to leave the store.

As they were about to exit, the clerk suddenly jumped over the counter and ran to the door. Then, according to the Dallas Police Department incident report, the clerk "struck the complainant (Phillips) in the mouth with his right fist. The suspect (James) then struck the witness (Padgett). As the suspect was going back inside, he stopped and stated, 'You fucking faggots, I don't have to put up with you for $4.25 an hour.'"

Phillips and Padgett further reported that, as they were getting into their car, the clerk stood in the door of the store and screamed "fucking fags!" a number of times. The clerk had already left the premises when officers arrived to question him.

After reviewing the store's videotape of the incident and hearing the account of a female employee who witnessed the altercation, the manager of the Stop & Go terminated the employee in question, whose full name was not released by company officials in Arlington or Houston.

The assault resulted in a contusion to the lower lip for Phillips, and a contusion near the right eye and swelling of the right side of the jaw for Padgett. Officials at Stop & Go's headquarters in Houston have called the couple to express their regret for the incident. Additionally, they have offered to compensate the pair for any medical bills that are incurred as the result of the attack.

Both Phillips and Padgett report that the police officers who investigated the incident were "courteous and helpful." Officer Martin Alig, who filed the report, recommended that the offense be flagged as a hate crime.

BLACK TIE DINNER IN HOUSTON RAISES FUNDS IN STYLE

*Proceeds from Gala Will Be Divided
Among Eight Local Groups,
Human Rights Campaign Fund.*

HOUSTON — Getting dressed up in their finest, hundreds of gay men and lesbians, their friends and supporters gathered for an evening of formal fun and fund-raising at the 1993 Houston Black Tie Dinner, held last Saturday evening at the Westin Oaks Hotel. The event was organized by The Houston Black Tie Dinner, Inc., a newly created nonprofit group that plans to make the fund-raiser an annual event.

A cocktail reception gave partiers a chance to bid on items in a silent auction, after which they moved to a lavishly decorated ballroom. A fireworks display and entertainment by the Gay Men's Chorus of Houston preceded the dinner.

After opening remarks by Dinner Committee co-chairs Shelly Porter and Frank Campisi and HRCF Executive Director Tim McFeeley, keynote speaker Roberta Achtenberg spoke of her appointment as HUD Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity earlier this year. Achtenberg, who made history as the first openly lesbian woman to win appointment to such a high post, referred to her confirmation process, during which Sen. Jesse Helms called her a "damned lesbian" during her confirmation process. She said she hoped her appointment would be remembered for its historical significance rather than for the controversy it created.

"...I don't want people to remember

only that I was called names...and 31 senators voted against me. What I want people to remember is that the President asked me to do an important job, and 65 senators said yes."

The evening took a lighter turn when lesbian comedian Karen Williams took the stage.

Honored for their contributions to the struggle for gay and lesbian civil rights were Houston activist Clair Koepsel and state Sen. John Whitmire. Koepsel, who received the 1993 Hollyfield Humanitarian Award, became involved with gay and HIV issues through her son Michael King, who died of AIDS several years ago. She is on the board of directors of AIDS Foundation Houston, is a member of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus and has worked with ACT-UP Gulf Coast.

Sen. Whitmire, who received the Houston Black Tie Dinner Human Rights Award, earlier this year led a vigorous, though ultimately unsuccessful, fight to keep provisions against homosexual sodomy out of the state's revised penal code.

Proceeds from the Black Tie Dinner will be divided among HRCF and eight Houston-area nonprofit organizations. Although fund-raising totals were not available at press time, co-chair Frank Campisi said he believed last Saturday's dinner was very successful, and that the silent auction in particular had exceeded organizers' expectations.

"We should do very well, because we had so much of it underwritten—almost all of it."

Campisi said he foresees a successful future for Houston Black Tie Dinner, Inc., which was responsible for this year's gala, and said the group is already looking forward to planning next year's event. "We feel we're on the map now, and we're here to stay."

SAFE SEX CALENDAR RAISES FUNDS FOR DALLAS' AIDS RESOURCE CENTER

Proceeds Will Help Underwrite Organization's Education Programs.

DALLAS — Just as the ways in which the HIV pandemic has affected people's lives are varied and diverse, so too are the myriad ways in which AIDS service groups have developed to raise the funds necessary to fight the disease. From AIDS awareness ribbons and T-shirt lines to benefit shows and concerts, fund-raising projects of various kinds have become as noteworthy as the disease itself.

The AIDS Resource Center has developed a unique fund-raising concept which, while not new, is unique to the Dallas market. It's a 1994 Safe Sex calendar, featuring 14 handsome and interesting men from the Dallas area.

According to Reed Hunsdorfer, AIDS Resource Center Development Manager, "The project was started in March of this year to help inform the general public about safe sex in an entertaining way. All costs of production were underwritten by 12 sponsors, one for each month. These sponsors were chosen for their community involvement and continuous support of education in the gay and lesbian community."

Hunsdorfer went on to explain, "We selected local talent to make the calendar more 'Dallas,' and also to provide the vision that safe sex is not just for 'supermodel hunks,' but your variety of friends and potential friends that are met in everyday life.

"The models also donated their time and talents to provide a safe sex message to their friends. The calendar contains many listings for days of special interest, such as the date of the Gay Games, the celebration of the Stonewall anniversary, the Marquis de Sade's birthday and also Madonna's!"

Michael McKinney, one-time TWT staff photographer and news writer, donated his time to the cause, providing all of the stunning pictures used in the calendar. McKinney died just one month after completion of all the photo sessions, and the calendar is dedicated to his memory.

While the initial sales outreach of the calendar has been to the community in Dallas, Hunsdorfer sees a potential for sales nationwide. "We will be trying to not only market this calendar locally, but throughout the country. It will help put the AIDS Resource Center on the map as a leader in spreading the safe sex message."

Cost of the 1994 Safe Sex Calendar is $10, with all proceeds being utilized to help underwrite the education programs of the AIDS Resource Center. Out-of-town orders should include $2.50 for postage and handling. For more information about the calendar, contact Reed Hunsdorfer at (214)521-5124.

SUPPORTERS OF HOUSTON GAY CANDIDATE CLAIM HARASSMENT DURING RECENT ELECTIONS

Calloway Volunteers Accused of Pulling Up Harrington Signs, Issuing Threats in City Council Race.

HOUSTON — In the week and a half since the November 2 city elections, volunteers with the Gene Harrington campaign have come forward with charges that workers for his opponent, incumbent Al Calloway, had employed unfair tactics and intimidation in the days leading up to and including election day. Harrington, an openly gay law professor and activist, lost to Calloway by a wide margin in the race for City Council District C, which includes Houston's heavily gay Montrose area.

Harrington supporters are claiming that Calloway campaign workers pulled up or destroyed Harrington yard signs, used epithets like "faggot" and on several occasions had threatened them with physical harm.

The harassment claims were discussed at the November 3 meeting of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus, whose membership voted to send a letter to Calloway expressing its concern over the alleged actions of his campaign workers. In the letter, released earlier this week, GLPC President Terri Richardson referred to several of the incidents and said Harrington signs had been removed from her own yard in the Riverside Terrace neighborhood of Houston.

Richardson appeared at a City Hall press conference on Tuesday with Harrington campaign volunteer Maureen O'Reilly and with Michael Lee, who was not affiliated with the Harrington campaign but claimed he had been harassed by Calloway workers on several occasions while putting up modified Calloway campaign signs to protest the Council member's support for a plan to construct a sewage lift station in Lee's neighborhood.

Harrington told TWT NEWS he has been in communication with the Justice Department concerning a possible federal investigation into the harassment claims.

'HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS' TO RAISE TRAVEL FUNDS FOR DALLAS PWAS

*December 1 Event Emceed by Jahna Steele Includes Performances
By Encore!, Women's Chorus and Linda and Larry Petty.*

DALLAS — During the holiday season, perhaps the single most important gift a person with AIDS can receive is that precious commodity of time with loved ones. But distances and cost for those facing the huge financial burden of a life-threatening illness often prove to be prohibitive.

Several years ago, former Razzle Dazzle Dallas titleholders John Gordon and Patti Le Plae Safe recognized the importance of family during the holidays, and began what has become an annual fund-raising event, Home for the Holidays. Sponsored by Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Inc.—a 22-member all-volunteer, nonprofit organization devoted to providing funding to AIDS service organizations and AIDS/HIV-related causes—Home for the Holidays raises funds to provide holiday travel home to people living with AIDS.

This year's event will be held in the Cathedral of Hope Auditorium on Wednesday, December 1 beginning at 8 p.m. Featuring Suzanne Westenhoefer, the lineup also includes performances by Encore! from the Turtle Creek Chorale, the Women's Chorus of Dallas, and Linda and Larry Petty. Ms. Westenhoefer, a nationally known lesbian comedienne, will present her new show "Nothing in My Closet But My Clothes."

Entertainer Jahna Steele will serve as hostess and emcee of Dec. 1 "Home for the Holidays" fund-raiser in Dallas.

Hostess and emcee for the evening will be Jahna Steele. Ms. Steele, a native Texan, was a headliner at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas, and has been featured on A Current Affair and The Maury Povich Show.

Immediately following the show, an autograph party will be held at Ciao II, located in the Centrum Building at 3102 Oak Lawn Avenue.

General admission tickets are $20, and are available through any Rainbow Ticket-Master location and through their outlets at Sears, Sound Warehouse and Foley's. Tickets for the autograph signing party are $5 and are available at Ciao II or from any Razzle Dazzle Dallas boardmember.

AFH 'FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE' RAISES OVER $100,000

*1,200 Turn Out for Fund-raiser
Last Sunday Morning.*

HOUSTON — Over 1,000 people braved chilly temperatures last Sunday morning to take part in this year's "From All Walks of Life" fund-raising walk. The event, which has been held annually for the past five years, helps finance the services AIDS Foundation Houston provides to people with AIDS. As of last Tuesday, at least $125,000 had been raised in conjunction with the Walk.

Over 1,000 people braved the cold to take part in last Sunday's "From All Walks of Life" fund-raiser for AIDS Foundation Houston. TWT NEWS photo.

Participants gathered around 8 a.m. on the Old Sabine Street Bridge on Allen Parkway, not far from Houston's Montrose area and the city's downtown area. After brief speeches by Walk ambassadors, the estimated 1,200 walkers set off.

Co-chairs of this year's Walk were Mayor Bob Lanier and his wife, Elyse, who were unable to attend but sent a message of support with City Council member Vince Ryan.

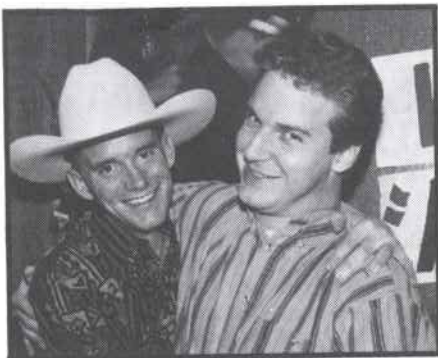

This year's total was significantly lower than the more than $170,000 raised at last year's Walk. But AFH Board chair Nagel said the Foundation was pleased with the results of this year's Walk.

"We were very happy with the outcome, and we're beginning to get started on planning for next year's Walk.

"We appreciate all the participation from the Houston community," he added.

AIDS Foundation Houston provides rent, utility and housing assistance to people with AIDS, HIV-related education, and food assistance through its Stone Soup pantry.

DALLAS TEA — Here's what's happening THIS WEEK IN DALLAS from Big D HOT TEA....

The annual event you've been waiting for is finally here. The Thanks for the Giving Show at the Round-Up Saloon is this Sunday, and if previous years are any indication, it's a show that you won't want to miss. Previous guest artists have included the inimitable John Thomas of the AIDS Resource Center, and our sources have indicated that Reed Hunsdorfer, also of the Center set, is a featured performer this year. Our sources also tell us that the fund set up to keep Reed from performing has not met expectations, so expect to see him in all his femme mimic splendor on stage with the other girls. Special guest for the fete is Reba McIntyre herself, Dyan Michaels. It's all a benefit for the AIDS Resource Center Food Pantry, which explains why the handsome pair above, Matthew Schaper and Kent Colton [l-r], have already claimed their seats....

At Sue Ellen's, gorgeous Cindy Hizby and Katie Walters [above, l-r] impressed the work crew that's on hand at the club overseeing the installation of the newest works of the Major Artery collection. The new paintings will all be the work of Dallas artist Robert Kirk, and from the preview showing we had at Major Artery's world headquarters, we have a sneaking suspicion that they may just divert your attention from Cindy and Katie. We said may....

Meanwhile, at Village Station, the staff and management is gearing up for next week's Miss Gay America Pageant, an event that annually attracts contestants and fans from every corner of the United States. Speaking of corners, look at the stunning quartet our

CRUISE CAMERA captured in one on a recent disco spin through the world-famous dance hall. The names that match the faces are David Boyer, Morris "The Conqueror" Williams, Michael "The Stunning" Litzinger and Michael "The Beefy" Sullivan [l-r] We're not sure if the two Michaels left their clothes elsewhere, or if they were ripped off by admiring fans, but we do hope they didn't catch a chill on their way home....

Over on Fitzhugh, we understand that Miss Mona is back on the road again, spreading her wings for the Crescent City and parts thereabouts. She leaves the helm of the Crews Inn in the capable hands of Vivian Vance, David Moore and the fab staff of the popular watering hole. Remember, these are the same hands that hand-pick the stable of penile projectionists for the club, so you know they're really capable. By the way, don't Gene and Larry make a handsome couple?...

Penile projectionists are a popular fixture at CI's sister bar, Zippers, which seems appropriate since zippers are oft-times the only thing that can contain a projecting penile. We've noticed Michael Pace at the club quite a bit lately, due, we're sure, to the fact that current weather conditions don't lend themselves to gardening activities. So, for now, Lady Bird Johnson and Mr. Pace are focusing on less natural endeavors....

While we're on the subject of natural, the Brick's precious Steve Cooper heard the call of nature recently and checked himself into the hospital for an emergency appendectomy. Apparently, the soybean burgers and Jell-O there weren't to his liking, however, because he was spotted out and about the very next day. He's feeling much better now, and is gearing up for the celebration of his birthday next Friday, November 19. Expected at the bash are the five proctologists who befriended Steve in the hospital, as well as an assortment of hot and hirsute hunks like James Thompson, Gavin Osborn and Rob Awanessian [above, l-r]. Happy birthday, Steve, from HOT TEA....

Back on the Springs, we ran into TMC manager old Frank what's-his-hame the other day, and we have to admit that this cold weather has really got us down. Frank was so layered in clothing that it was absolutely impossible to determine if they were over-the-calf or crew length. We do, however, know for a fact that they were white....

Handsome and talented Gary Floyd dropped by the other day to remind us about his appearance at John L's next weekend. Mr. F regaled us with stories of his recent Carnegie Hall appearance in New York with his equally stunning Wiseguy co-stars, Jim Caruso and Bart Shatto. Jim and Bart won't be at John L's next week, and we can only assume it's because they're still playing the Big Apple. But Gary will be there, and he's such a nice guy—not to mention a great singer—that we expect all of you will be, too....

We are pleased to report that pretty and perky Peggy Smith of Damewood'z fame is back to feeling pretty and perky after a recent bout of that nasty bug that's been going around—and just in time, too. Seems the powers that be at the club have booked Kno-How, the rising and electrifying alternative rock band that's heating up the dance music charts, into the club for Thanksgiving night. For those of you who don't know the band, we would like to be the first to share with you that Todd Wheeler, Kno-Who's lead singer, is...oh, how shall we say...gorgeous. So now you have two more reasons to stop into Damewood'z—Peggy Smith and Kno-How.

Well three, really, if you count Dangerous Dancer Joseph Bolima [above], who's not hard to look at either....

We heard recently from Sweet Savage, our very dear friend, who caught a bit of a cold while performing in Tulsa. Seems that the currently reigning Miss Gay USA was all the rage in our neighboring state to the north, where her name was heard and read in headlines on the radio, on TV and in the newspapers. Another example of a Texan making a big splash away from home. By the way, you can catch Savage every Wednesday night with her best girlfriend Coco at Bleos....

Finally, at JR's, our CRUISE CAMERA lens just naturally focuses on handsome faces, so was it any wonder that it snapped a photo of Bernie Vasquez, Frank Gonzales and Bill Ross [above, l-r]? Mr. G got three stars on the camera's cute-o-meter, which really comes as no surprise. We were, after all, at JR's.

TARRANT TEA — Here's what's happening in Fort Worth from Cowtown HOT TEA....

We know you've heard about them, those reigning divas of female impersonation, the Magnolia Madames. We now provide for you, our dear readers, a snapshot of three of them: Ashley Rhone, Whitney Paige and Trella Thomas [above, l-r]. They're just part of the reason Magnolia Station is the place to be in Fort Worth on Sunday nights. The fourth reason, "Big Mama" Cassidy—another madame of note—was unavailable at the time this photo was taken. We believe she was downtown shoppin'.

HOUSTON HOTTea — Here's what's going on THIS WEEK IN HOUSTON from Bayou City HOT TEA....

Thousands of costumed partygoers converged on Rich's for the club's recent Cinema of Terror. The erotic talents of House of Porn special guest Ty Russell [above] were more titillating than terrifying. The hosts of the Outrage Party outdid themselves, raising over $7,000 for the Colt 45's. The club's second skirt party spins into action tonight with men, flesh and lots of plaid apparel....

This Sunday, November 14, Inergy presents the fourth annual Miss Inergy Pageant. Highlights include over $750 in cash and prizes and exciting special guests like Lori Love and Monique Johnson. For more information, contact Miss Love at (713)956-6396....

The Imperial Court's Scarecrow Revue at Gentry, hosted by Count and Countess IX Buddy Thompson [above, r] and Anita Mann [l], raised over $300 for the Colt 45's PWA Thanksgiving Project. This Sunday, Gentry's own Val Rodela presents Latin Fever II to benefit the AVES PWA Thanksgiving Fund. The turkey fiesta buffet with all the trimmings at 5 p.m. will be followed by the Latin Gobbler Revue at 9 p.m. Next Thursday, the club presents two showings of "March for Freedom," the critically acclaimed documentary of the 1993 March on Washington. Screenings are at 6:30 and 9:30 p.m....

Next Friday, November 19, the Montrose Counseling Center celebrates its fifteenth anniversary with a gala "Thank God, It's Friday" party. This event includes dinner, disco, a silent auction and a raffle featuring fabulous weekend getaways. The fun starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza, 222 West Loop South. For tickets or more information, call (713)529-0037....

Heaven, the club known for bringing you the hottest dance music chart-toppers, has done it again. The lovely ladies of Fem 2 [above] performed to a packed house. Our camera found promotions director Scott Lewis [c] trying to get into the act. Be prepared for even more incredible special appearances at Houston's video dance club on the cutting edge throughout the holiday season. It may be cold outside, but when the lights go out at this Sunday's Black Out flashlight undergear party, the heat turns on. Come check out all the handsome men showing off their best intimate apparel. You'll want to join the fun....

We've always known that the Montrose Mining Company was the best place to find hot, hairy hunks, and now the entire nation will know it, too. Next Wednesday, November 17, the photographers from Bear Magazine will be on hand for the Mine's Bear of the Month contest. So, before you settle in for that long winter nap, cruise on over to the Mine. It'll give you something to dream about....

Fall's most fascinating trend has found its Houston home. Every Tuesday, JR's presents Men in Skirts. Four sexy skirted dancers like Kirk Duncan [above] will tempt and tease you with their flashy antics. So, wear a skirt and get in on the fashion action. You don't have a skirt? Register to win one of those crazy kilts courtesy of Basic Brothers every Tuesday night. If that's not enough to make this event Houston's largest weekend night party, there's a strip contest at 11 p.m. and Grab for Cash at midnight....

Tomorrow night, Miss T.T. returns to the Lazy J stage with the newly crowned Miss Lazy J Rochelle Ramone and lots of special guests. Precious pageant pics may be viewed in next week's issue. Next weekend, November 20, Frankie Lane and Peaches take over the club's Super Saturday Show. The excitement never ends at the Lazy J....

Candidate for Empress X Damita Jo's recent Monster Bash TGRA fund-raiser attracted an incredible cowboy crowd. TGRA state president Seth Cortigene [above, l], Damita [c] and Houston chapter president Rick Chew [r] were all smiles over the show's success. This Sunday, November 14, Brandi Houston crowns her successor at this year's Miss BRB Pageant. Next Sunday, November 21, the second annual Bitch of the BRB employee turnabout show benefits the Lady Victoria Lust PWA Holiday Fund. But the question is: who can follow in the footsteps of the infamous Lady Naugahyde?...

The Four Seasons Club hosts its sixth annual Military Party this Sunday at the Ranch from 4-8 p.m. Proceeds will go toward the enlargement of the Bering Care Center kitchen. This year's event promises to be better than ever with games, activities and a show by the Military Miss-Fits at 6:30 p.m. From dress whites to camouflage, military attire is always encouraged....

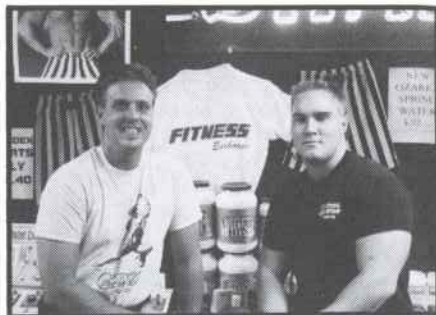

Automobile aficionados should plan to be at Pacific Street tomorrow night when the Classic Chassis Car Club presents Coupe d'Event III. The combination of vintage cars and classic examples of the masculine form is sure to create an exciting evening. In support of the Four Season Military Party, the club's Sunday Mandance/Monster T-Dance presents a special Uniform Party. All men in uniform get in free....

Over at Cousin's, Houston's funniest performers gathered for the Comedy Entertainer of the Year contest. In the winner's circle [above, l-r], we present first runner-up Rainbo DeKlown; last year's winner Crystal Rae Lee Love; the most humorous of them all, Evonne Supreme; and second runner-up Miss Zack. Don't forget about Cousin's male strip contest every Thursday and Cousin's and Company every Friday and Saturday....

The Houston Tribe of the Firedancers leather/levi club host Firedance Freedom VII: Shoot for the Stars this weekend. Blast off takes place tonight at Mary's. Tomorrow's bar tour, which includes Mary's, Gentry, E/J's, The Venture-N and the BRB, will culminate in the Mr. Firedancer Contest at the Venture-N. Join them for an out-of-this-world experience....

Fitness Exchange continues to offer one of the best deals around—gym membership for only $15 a month. Friendly staffers like manager John Langston [above, l] and trainer Troy Daniels [r] are always willing to explain the club's wide variety of equipment and services. All this and more from Houston's quality health club....

A festive crowd turned out for the Red Ribbon Restaurant Project kickoff party held Wednesday, November 3 at Pico's. Among partiers were [l-r] Grace Heckler of Body Positive/Houston; Candy Anderson and Guy Yount of the Red Ribbon Restaurant Project; Janice Richards and Arnaldo Richards of Pico's; Marilyn Zwirek of Star Pizza; Susan Stanfield, president of Body Positive/Houston; Mark Wood of the Red Ribbon Restaurant Project; and Gabrielle Hankamer of Post Oak Grill. Ask to be seated at the table with the Red Ribbon obelisk on it when you dine at participating restaurants. You'll be contributing to Body Positive and the American Foundation for AIDS Research.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — Here's what's going on THIS WEEK IN SAN ANTONIO from Alamo City HOT TEA....

The tenth annual Texas Gay Rodeo galloped into San Antonio, attracting scores of handsome cowboys and a sizeable number of lovely cowgirls, too. The CRUISE CAMERA captured the 1994 Royalty winners, who included [above, clockwise, l-r] Mr. TGRA Don Kent of Dallas, Miss TGRA De Shannon of Austin, Ms. TGRA Kim Haraway of Houston and Grand Marshals Debe Powell of Houston and R.D. Lynch of Dallas. Congratulations to the winners from Alamo City HOT TEA. For more photos of the Rodeo, turn to page 79....

the day, and encourage everyone to wear their favorite trailer park attire. There's never a dull moment on Fourth Street....

Over at 'Bout Time, the club now has a newsletter called "The 'Bout Time Blabber." It highlights the month's events, and profiles a customer or bartender. Sounds scandalous. Don't forget the club's "Skirt Party" this Saturday—be bold and wear a skirt out on the town. Next Thursday, November 18, manager Pam will have her famous birthday party, featuring lots of good food. Mark your calendars; she's a sweetheart....

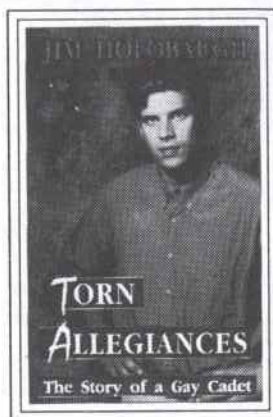

Happy belated birthday to Bryce Haltrey, who celebrated last week at the Chain Drive. By the way, besides working full-time at the Drive, Bryce is back in school full-time. We wish him well. Inside the Chain Drive at the Leather Chest, employee "Al" has jumped on the karaoke wagon. Keep your ears open for this up-and-coming star....

This Saturday night, Charlie's is having a "Skirt Party." Recently, Army Krause and Darren DeMottier [above] had to become "women" for the evening. Not bad; they should both be quite a sight on skirt night....

Garry Holly and Taylor Vaughn, the Crown Prince and Princess of the Imperial Court of the Capital City Empire, have started a food drive for ASA. They've placed collection containers in all the bars, and ask you to give so others can have a nice holiday. The drive runs until November 20.

The Gay Cadet

Jim Holobaugh was the perfect ROTC cadet: smart, handsome, and reliable. When he came out, he became not only a leading opponent of the military's ban on gay and lesbian soldiers, but also a vivid symbol of the policy's wastefulness. Here is his true story.

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, twr policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisement and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

ESCORTS/ MODELS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, twt policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

Jerry Lee McCall Jr.

September 10, 1961
to
November 12, 1988

In memory of the 5 years since you left. This year we are going to let Tim say it for us as he did so well...

We love you, Mom and Dad

My dearest Jerry-

Peacefully you went to sleep and to our new home. There was someone waiting to take your hand and guide you in a new direction, just as I promised.

Weren't you a lucky cowboy to be blessed with your mother and daddy? Faithful and loving through the good and bad, never judgmental. You were the love of their lives.

As for me, I'll always remember twinkling dark brown eyes, a mischievous grin and a loving heart towards others.

You were very special to many people and your parting leaves an empty space. But don't worry, we're OK. Take care until you extend your hand to one of us.

Love, Timothy

Survivors, Delores and Jerry L. McCall, Sr.

2/12/61 - 7/30/93

Mark Lancto, originally from Massena, New York, left this world for a plane "where no man has gone before" and did it peacefully after returning to Massena from the Space City, his home of 16 years. He attended the University of Houston before working for a major oil company as a systems analyst. "Marky Mark" leaves behind many friends in Houston and his father and two brothers in New York.

Donations in his name may be made to AIDS Foundation Houston.

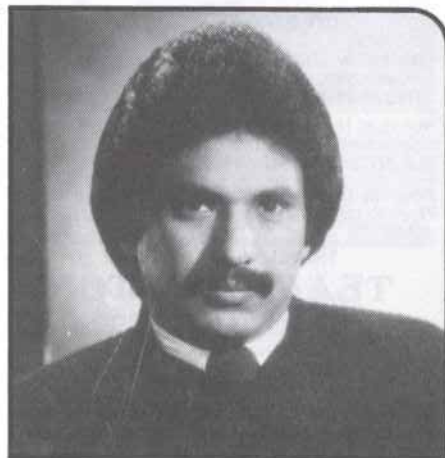

We love you
David, Terry, Paul,
Steve and Sue

In Loving Memory of
Billy Jackson
Born September 26, 1964
Died October 6, 1993

Billy passed away in my arms and now is in the arms of the Lord. Billy had courageously fought his fight with AIDS. He is preceded in death by his mate of 7 1/2 years, Monte Joe Harrington. Billy loved life through his loving and caring spirit.

I love you for making each day of my life beautiful and all my life's labor seem worthwhile. For as I go through my day, no matter how rough it gets, I can think of you and smile. We were blessed with each other's friendship. Neither I, nor any words I have ever written, can express the changes you've brought into my life.

Formerly of San Angelo, Texas, Jose Cardona died October 22 of AIDS-related complications.

I shall always miss your wonderful spirit and enthusiasm, your love of all mankind and your divine gift of creation. One of life's true heroes.

Love forever,
John Murphy

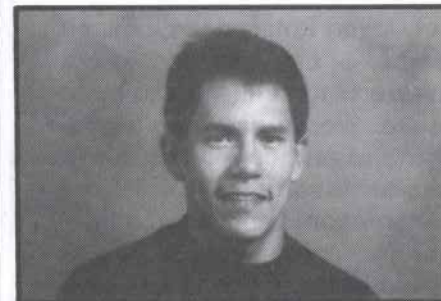

Alan Joseph Chartier (above)
Alan left us on September 28, 1993 from complications with AIDS. Alan was only 43 years old. He had such a sweet spirit about him and was the type of person who would give his last dime to a friend in need.

Alan will truly be missed by his friends and family. A memorial service will be held on November 20 at 3:30 p.m. at Zilker Park Rose Garden.

David died at his home in Dallas following a long illness. After graduating from Long Beach State University, he served as a senior financial officer in Los Angeles before moving to Dallas in 1980, where he had been a licensed caregiver for the Veterans Administration. He was an active volunteer in the community, and worked as a volunteer classroom teacher for the Association for Retarded Citizens of Dallas. He is survived by his sister and brother, as well as his stepmother and stepfather. He also leaves countless friends in the community to cherish his memory. A wake and celebration of his life will be held soon.

Joe B. Toahty (above)

Joe B. Toahty, 34, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, went to be with his Lord September 10, 1993 after a long illness. Joe was born July 2, 1959 in Pawnee, Oklahoma to Ralph W. and Juanita Toahty. He graduated from Midwest City High School in 1977. He worked as a typesetter in Dallas. He loved his God, family and friends. He enjoyed music and teddy bears. He will be dearly missed by all, but has left us with many cherished memories.

Survivors include his mother, Juanita, of the home; sisters, Terry Arnold of Happy, Texas and Gennie and brother-in-law, Kevin Clanin of Guthrie; brothers, Jim, Roe and David and sister-in-law Lisa, all of Midwest City; numerous nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles. He was preceded in death by his father, Ralph Sr. and brother, Ralph Jr.

January 9, 1960 - October 13, 1993
Jay was a native San Antonian. He passed away on October 13, 1993 after a long battle with AIDS. He is survived by his loving parents, sister and many friends. His loss brings us much sadness.

"Jay"
We've been thinking of all the times we had so many good and seldom bad
Remembering how we shared our time trying to make life satisfying
It's meant a lot to us to know that we were friends and we're proud to say so
You were one of the best friends we ever had and now you're gone and it makes us sad
You touched our hearts with joy and love and we hope to see you up above
Love,

Ephraim and Bill

Jackson Waters
February 10, 1957 - November 7, 1993
Jackson passed away peacefully after a lengthy battle with AIDS. His companion and caregiver, Dane, was at his side.

A celebration of Jackson's life will be held at the home of Gary Burks and Bill Young on Friday, November 19.

Lee Penny

April 1st, 1959 - November 6th, 1993

Lee Penny, a longtime employee of Caven Enterprises, passed from this life on Saturday, November 6. Lee was one of the most popular bartenders in Dallas, working at J.R.'s and most recently at Throckmorton Mining Co. Words seem so inadequate to express the loss of our friend and co-worker. Lee's courage and passion for life were an inspiration to all who knew and worked with him. Rich Thompson, Lee's companion, was a great source of strength for him. We love you, Rich, and are always here for you. Even in his last days, it was Lee who kept us laughing with his wit and great sense of humor. His absence in our lives will be felt for many years to come, but the memories of Lee will remain in our hearts forever. Goodbye, dear friend, your pain is over. Keep an eye on us, okay?

P.S. Dile a la turista

Donations may be made in Lee's name to your favorite AIDS charity.
