GOOD HEALTH & SEXUAL VIGOR CAN BE YOURS

Vitamins are substances which are required by the body if it is to function properly. They are normally provided by foods, but not always in sufficient quantities. This is particularly true of processed foods which have been depleted of their vitamin content.

When extraordinary demands tax the body its nutrients are drained and must be replenished. We do this through proper nutrition; by eating good foods and supplementing our meals with vitamins and minerals. Those of us who have sex every day are especially concerned about the ability to perform successfully and safeguard against impotency—a condition which may be aggravated when certain nutrients are lacking . . . particularly those vitamins associated with sexual potency.

First and foremost the sexually-active adult should take a powerful multi-vitamin & mineral tablet daily for his general well being. During times of stress, and particularly the type which is associated with sex, the body requires more energy and therefore demands additional B vitamins to assist in the metabolic processes. Vitamin E is associated with sexual prowess and is consumed by thousands of sexually-active people who attribute their drive in great part to this vitamin. Bee pollen is gathered from the bee colonies and unsprayed flower fields in Southern Europe—where it is believed that bee pollen has aphrodisiacal properties. Korean Ginseng, particularly highest quality "heaven grade" processed from roots that are at least six years old, has for thousands of years been considered a wondrous rejuvenator and reactivator of the sexual organs in the Orient.

With this knowledge we have combined the highest-quality natural food supplements available for sexually-active adults. Three Sex Combos are available to meet the most discriminating requirements—and only you will know their value after you have added them to your diet. And like hundreds of others now taking Sex Combos we believe you too will find a new and livelier sexual awareness in your life.

The components may be purchased separately, but greater savings are realized when they are bought as Sex Combo packages.

Luggage— Late And Lost Some Tips On How To Cope

By Jon Lorrimer

Is your suitcase a veteran of foreign wars? That is, does it still bear as battle scars the baggage labels from previous trips abroad? That first Queen Mary label, for example—how proud of it you were! And another from the 'dowager' Queen Elizabeth—as well as others from ships of the French, Italian and United States Lines that no longer ply the Atlantic sealanes—is your luggage still encrusted with them, along with various flight-baggage stubs looped around the handles?

Perhaps you keep them on for sentimental reasons . . . of remembered joys when you look at them—your ego dancing a little jig as you recall gay adventures of many vacation summers. But "thanks for the memory" is a nuisance to airline baggage handlers here and abroad and can pose a threat to the safe/simultaneous arrival of your luggage when you reach your destination. This is but one of several don'ts of air travel that we should like to point out in this brief article, along with some helpful hints about what to do if your luggage is delayed or definitely lost.

As a typical example, let's take the flight from New York to San Juan. During the on-season of heavy vacation travel there may be a double or even triple flight of 747s landing within minutes of one another. So the picture at the San Juan terminal is that of 1500-plus travelers ganged up, clamoring for their baggage. The margin for human error is great enough at such a time without increasing it with superfluous labels.

If to 3½ hours of flight time you add another 3½ hours while your obscurely-labeled bag is tracked down among 2000 or more other pieces being processed, your holiday mood, when you do finally reach gay Condado Beach, will be anything but. Had you removed all labels except the specific one for that particular flight the attendant could quickly spot it/check it and get you out of the terminal rapidamente. This clearing-off of ancient labels will also help prevent baggage from being actually lost in/after a flight. Count on the fact that careless others will be there who also have forgotten to take such simple precautions as this, and so—if you are among them—'have a happy' while filling out the required lost-baggage form, in which you must list everything contained in such baggage, describing it in detail (often embarrassing to gay guys) and noting the approximate price you paid for each item. Here are some suggestions that can help make your flight trouble-free and your vacation all the more pleasant.

1. Don't wait until the bite-your-nails last moment to arrive at the airport to check your baggage. You can be sure that although you may make the plane, your baggage won't. Airlines personnel try their very best, but 'dovetailing' is not one of their specialties. It will likely follow on the next available flight, and so you'll have the thankless task of returning to the airport to claim it. A needless outlay of money and a waste of cruising time.

2. Put your name/address on a small, pasted-down label on each piece of luggage. Also do the same inside where, once opened, it can be easily identified if the outside label has been ripped off or damaged beyond legibility.

3. When packing your luggage, jot down on a list each item placed in each piece. If it should be lost you have 'total recall'. Also, the baggage-complaint officials may be so impressed they may order a special search to turn up the 'culprit'. And in filling out the lost-baggage form it virtually authenticates your claim of what was inside. (This is also helpful to you, even if every piece of luggage arrives intact. With your lists at hand there's no need to guess where a particular item is stashed . . . no need to tear through bag after bag until "There it is!")

4. Mark each piece of luggage with an identical design on both sides and both ends. This will give it a personal identification that you can recognize at a distance, amid luggage of similar design. This might be a two-color diagonal stripe; or a colored circle; or an arrangement of multicolored dots; or dots and stripes. Then if you must 'peer and point' at a mountain of lost luggage you can easily spot it, mention it to the attendant, and he can retrieve it quickly. This can be of help in foreign countries when it is not easy to describe the piece of luggage in the attendant's native language. 'Design', such as a flag, he can recognize; one's high-school French, however, can be a knotty problem.

5. Tie something distinctive around the handle of hand-luggage to be stored in the carry-on receptacle. In these days when plastic luggage and briefcases look alike, this peas-in-a-pod mistake can be avoided. A simple chain; a piece of cord; or strips of masking tape attached to the handle will quickly identify it for you, and if someone else should mistakenly pick it up thinking it is his, the 'feel' of the strange handle will alert and deter him. Nick of time stuff.

6. Lock your suitcase/briefcase to prevent curious examination by someone who may think it's his. He'll be stymied when his own key doesn't fit the lock . . . will wonder why . . . light will dawn . . . and he'll return it to retrieve his own.

7. Travel light. Today's synthetic washables/dryables/permanent pressables make it unnecessary to pack an entire wardrobe of shirts, socks and shorts. A 'Jimmy Carter' carryon can accommodate changes of these, plus two suits, slax, jeans and shoes. No need to go through the miseries of baggage checking/handling/losing/waiting/breastbeating. After all, if the President has given the carryon (although not the carry-on!) his blessing, who are we to say him nay?

8. Shoulder bags. Although Gucci may have designed the shoulder bag, some gay saint inspired it. In this bag carry the 'tools' of the trade, including your pet dildo (it won't mind bending a little if the bag is otherwise full), your amyl, condoms, and your grooming aids. Thus with carryon and shoulder bag you've got it all together, all the time. This can also make a chance romance at the airport john all the more workable. Don't just lust in your heart . . . live a little! Why waste a precious moment?

REALLY LOST LUGGAGE— WHAT TO DO

Airlines officials say that most bags are recovered and returned to the owners promptly. So if you couldn't travel light and have several brought along, one or more of which may not show up at the baggage-claim area, first notify airline personnel at once so that they can make a thorough search before the plane takes off again, and/or before the flight attendants have departed. Failure to report missing baggage immediately may result in denial of your claim. Don't waste time.

Next, see that the airline clerk fills out a report form which is called 'Notice of Baggage Irregularity' which requires from you a statement describing the bag and its contents. This is more or less a tracer. If after three days the baggage has not turned up it is considered lost.

Your next step will be to fill out a Claim Form, again describing the items and place of purchase and cost. If you have sales slips to substantiate your claim, all the better. But if this is not possible (and usually it isn't) it does not invalidate your claim. Obviously any evidence or substantiation helps speed any issue. Be sure that you don't exaggerate your loss . . . the airline's legal eagle can trip you easily, resulting in a longer delay and possibly less reimbursement for your loss.

Suppose, however, that your bag finally arrives, although damaged? Again, report the problem before leaving the area. The clerk will complete a 'Baggage Damage Report' and you must retain your baggage-claim check until the matter is settled. The claim will be settled according to the airline's assessment of your loss. In most cases this means a maximum $500, although the Civil Aeronautics Board is considering increasing this to $750, and may already have done so. Some carriers also compute depreciation of items in figuring liability, which is another reason why dated sales slips will be helpful.

Another most important thing in checking baggage. Don't just figure on the minimum-less-depreciation of a claim. Be sure to obtain additional coverage above the amount by declaring excess value and paying the required fee for extra coverage. A little can get you lots more than you might have otherwise!

Airlines are not liable for breakage of fragile items that have been packed inside your luggage. While you will be reimbursed for a broken bag handle, a broken Accu-Jac inside will get you only (sob!) sympathy, and you can't get much sexual mileage out of that.

And don't pack cash, jewelry, and, especially, prescribed medicines that are important to your health, which cannot be replaced without a visit to a local doctor and another prescription.

These are really just common-sense precautions which, if taken, can make your flight less chancy/dicey, and your vacation a 'best ever'.

San Francisco Gay Update

Delights In The Bay City

By A. Jay

Yes, dear readers, the editors are conscious of the fact that San Francisco—the gay Oz at the end of the Yellow Brick Road—was comprehensively covered in Ciao! (July/August 1976) and that Folsom Street in all its funky glory was expounded in QQ (September/October 1976). But we're ever ready to keep you well-informed and on top of the heap, so to speak, and are also aware of the many new changes on the Bay City's multi-gay scene since our last visit. And because San Francisco tops everyone's travel list, an updating is in order. Another big incentive for this article, by the way, is the good news from the C.A.B. All the major airlines servicing California recently lowered their fares so, consequently, a very heavy influx of gay tourists are expected to hit the West Coast these up-and-coming months.

Before I start naming names and places I do want to make mention of the fact that some old, popular facades, long in the S.F. gayscene, are no longer. Their customers have moved on to bigger, better, more exciting playgrounds. So remember . . . you read about them first here!

Gone-but-not-forgotten Department: In October of last year a blaze completely gutted the popular tubs—the Folsom Barracks and its downstairs bar, The Red Star Annex. Fortunately there were no serious injuries. At the moment there doesn't seem to be any indication of its being rebuilt, but that is probably only temporary . . . insurance settlements being what they are. There is also that old adage: 'Old tubs never die . . . they just become Anita Bryant!'

Then on February 9th of this year a mysterious fire destroyed the Ritch Street Baths, once one of San Francisco's top baths. Unfortunately there were some serious injuries in this blaze, including a fireman. Fire officials believe the flames started in the orgy room on an oily mattress. The day after this fire, Herb Caen, a columnist of the San Francisco Chronicle reported that the two fires were more than coincidental. He claimed Big Mob Money was trying to squeeze into the local gay baths business—a lucrative indepent operations up until recently.

To complicate matters, the big Club Baths Chain, whose franchises operate in about 40 cities in the East, Midwest, and Canada, had just finished negotiations for the take-over of the Ritch Street operation and had planned to change the name to Club San Francisco. This would have been the Club Baths chain's first venture into the California tub scene. (To confuse you even more, it should be stated that the S.F. baths that bear the names 'Club', have no connection with the big CBC.) There has been no comment from CBC officials about the fire, but don't be surprised to see a new badeanstalten rise out of them those ashes. Stay tuned in . . .

Alas, one of the town's hottest watering holes has hit the dust under the wrecker's ball. The Folsom Prison is no more! This bar was once the funkier place in town. Its reputation was at its peak about 3 to 6 years ago when the FP featured slave auctions, and its john was the most notorious west of the Mississippi! Just mention the Folsom Prison john to any local water-sports enthusiast and the tears will flow. At the closing bash, on January 2nd, the faithful took pieces of the bar, the john door, toilet seats, posters, and bricks as mementoes. Will the Folsom Prison relocate? The owners say yes . . . as soon as a suitable location can be uncovered.

And now on to the good news:

THE TUBS

The Slot management shut its Playland/Hungry Hole bar complex and converted it into a baths. The new name is The Waiting Arms and its location is at 1118 Folsom Street near 8th. The place is catching on and could become hot competition for its big brother down the street—The Slot Baths at 970 Folsom.

Incidentally, The Waiting Arms opens at 4 p.m. and the rooms run $5; lockers are $3. If you want to plan ahead, a reserved room costs $10, and the number is 861-0874. There is also a $1 locker night on Thursday. An 8-hour time limit prevails at all times—as it does in most baths around town.

The baths, once known as The Tubs, at 1015 Folsom at Harriet (near 6th Street) has been upgraded in its macho image and has changed its name to Folsom St. Baths. This could be just the shot in the arm the place has needed since the demise of The Barracks. The hours are 7 p.m. to 6 a.m., with the following tariffs: Lockers are $2, Monday through Wednesday; $3, Thursday through Sunday. Rooms cost $4 Monday through Wednesday; $5 from Thursday through Sunday. FSB also has double rooms for $1 extra. If you'd like to check out the place, but don't want a room or locker, the fee is only $1.

Another hot contender on the baths scene for the levi/leather trade is The Hotel at 975 Harrison, a few doors from The Endup. It offers three floors of lockers, man-size rooms, a leather boutique, a snack bar, a TV lounge, and Tuesday-night $1 lockers (bargain rooms are only $3). The Hotel rates are as follows: rooms are $5 on Friday and Saturday; lockers are $3. On other nights the rooms are $4; lockers $2. It's open 24 hours, by the way.

The Club Post (no relation to the biggie) has just opened its portals and is located at 1157 Post Street (between Van Ness and Polk) only a few doors away from Jack's Baths. It also is open 24 hours and rates for its rooms and lockers are in line with the other tubs. The CPB offers a licensed masseur, maze steam room, a sauna, a game room, a toy store, and one or two other kinky surprises. The place is super hot on weekends!

The Club Baths (still no relation to the big one, or the others) at 201 Eighth at Howard, will be passing its first birthday very soon and is still getting some very glowing recommendations. The age bracket of its growing clientele runs from twinkies to late collegiate. The accommodations are still very good and the place never shuts.

The 21st Street Baths at 3244

CIAOI!

Twenty-first Street (near Valencia) is another hot baths that's still packing 'em in! Its many features include a secluded sun-deck for nude sunbathing, large lounge with color TV, movies nightly, lots of dark nooks for quick encounters, easy parking, easy access to both Muni buses and the BART, and is open 24 hours. Very popular with the lunchtime crowd.

The heavy leather crowd is still jamming The Slot at 970 Folsom Street and reservations are strongly advised if you want a room on a weekend. Room and locker prices are more or less the same as for The Waiting Arms since they are both under the same management. The Slot's phone numbers are 495-9828 and 543-3276.

That very popular baths down in Palo Alto, the Bachelor Quarters, has opened another branch in Oakland at 2544 - 73rd Avenue (Hegenberger Road) that features a 60-foot swimming pool and a sun patio. Also go and look over the new tubs, The Steam Works, in Berkeley at 2107 Fourth Street if you ever visit the East Bay.

Before we proceed any further you first-timers to San Francisco should be quickly briefed on the five hotbeds of gay action in the city!

1. The Castro Gay Ghetto . . . or as it would like to be known, Castro Village, has its hub on Castro Street from Market up to 20th Street. It's a very revealing place to visit since you'll find lots 'n lots of hunky guys lolling about everywhere—day and night. The costumes can get a bit bizarre, especially in the warmer weather. A good portion of the area's businesses are gay-owned and operated and a strong gay community spirit exists. As someone once remarked after viewing the Castro-scene for the first time, "My God, I thought I was at a Nazi Youth Rally!"

2. The famous Polk Street boulevard is one of the city's busiest and cruisiest. It's lined with everything 'n anything to warm the cockles of any hard-on . . . from adult bookshops to zanie boutiques, with hot diversions of all types in-between! The pace here is a bit faster, and the guys are flashier and more varied than their brothers over on Castro.

3. Folsom Street, roughly between 5th and 10 Streets, is where the big boys come out and play at night. During the day the street is nondescript . . . lined with small businesses and warehouses. But after the sun goes down, Folsom Street and adjoining blocks take on another character. It's macho levis 'n leather all the way at the many action-packed bars/baths.

4. Downtown. This area, roughly bounding Market from Powell to Larkin is known as the Tenderloin. You'll find nothing tender on these streets, but maybe lots of loin (for sale). Some good gay restaurants, bars, and male flic palaces in and through this portion of town, but caution is advised.

5. Haight Street. Once the heavy drug/dropout sector of town. The tone has changed drastically these past few years, and now a congenial neighborhood spirit has blossomed between straights and gays. Consequently, many gays have settled in the area and many gay businesses have sprung up. It is a good browsing area.

Mention should be made also of the Sacramento Street area startind down around Divisadero. Many gay businesses are opening their doors along this attractive street and it is becoming another Union Street mecca of smart shops, boutiques, galleries, pubs, restaurants, and expensive funk.

THE BARS/DISCOS

The San Francisco bar/disco scene has held quite steady these past few months. "Private Stock," QQ Publishing Company's 1977 International Gay Travel Directory has still the hottest listings on the Bay City's best watering holes, so don't be without it! You can add the following to your S.F. itinerary.

On and off the Polkstrasse:

The Mocambo, Polk at Sutter, is the latest cabaret/showroom in town and has gotten off to a smashing start. It is attracting a big straight/gay/bisexual following, but how could it not be helped with headliners like Barbara Cook, Julie Wilson, Sally Kellerman, Louis St. Louis and Kay Ballard? The place has a comfortable, understated elegance with ample seating on the main floor, a circular balcony and a small mezzanine. Viewing is good from all seats and the sound system is flawless. The beautiful Belgium Bar is off in a room of its own and should be seen. The house policy: a door charge is $5 and there's a two-drink minimum. Reservations are advised (776-2133) and dress can be casual.

Rumors persist that the super cabaret/bar/disco down in L.A., called Studio One, is thinking seriously of opening a similar operation in S.F. Could give The City, over at 936 Montgomery a run for its money.

Andromeda at 1550 California Street, off Polk (2nd floor). The ambience is intimate and warm with wall carpeting and oversized pillows to rest those aching bods after some heavy turns on the dance floor. This disco also has live band entertainment during the cocktail hour, 5:30 to 7:30.

Oil Can Harry's at 709 Larkin is considered by many to be the town's hottest gay disco and is now skyrocketing into its second year. Great sound, great lights, great bods, great bives . . . with expansion plans in the works. Open 7 days a week from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m.

Levels, at Polk and Pine (formerly the Elbow Room) is having an extensive facelift and should be a bright new addition to the active Polk bar scene when it opens. Its second-story windows should afford the customers a terrific vantage spot to check-out the action below.

The Horny Owl, 741 O'Farrell; Saddle Tramp Saloon, 1087 Sutter; the Wooden Horse, 622 Polk; and the Vagabond, 800 Larkin are four friendly new watering holes in and around the Polk Street scene.

Folsom Street and vicinity:

A brand new place, the Tattoo Lagoon, at 8th and Howard has just opened and it appears to wear many hats. First, it's a disco with no cover and opens at 9 p.m. Then the Tattoo Lagoon offers both lunch and a light dinner menu from 6 to 1 a.m., with a $1 dinner special on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Then to round things out, the TL has an active bar, and then has a sumptuous Sunday hunt breakfast, including champagne, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Just the thing after a strenuous Saturday night at the Club Baths, located just across the street.

The Jackeroo, 1551 Mission at South Van Ness. This friendly new macho bar is building a steady clientele . . . especially since word has spread that those humpy Australian cowboys frequent the place when in town.

Out with the old, on with the new department. The old Covered Wagon has reopened and it's now called Hot Rocks. It's located at 278 Eleventh Street, just off Folsom and is drawing a big after-hours crowd. H.R. is very hot on weekends.

Mister B's Ballroom, at 224 Sixth Street, is another busy, busy spot when the bars close.

The Glory Hole has moved down the street to larger quarters. It's now holing up at 225 Sixth Street between Folsom and Howard. The hours are from noon to 4 a.m. daily. The official name of the place is The New South of Market Club and that name is what you find stuck on the front door. It costs $2 to join and $1 per visit. The management has added a group playroom to entice their many customers, alongside those very active rows of side-by-side private booths with large glory holes on all sides. The G.H.'s motto: "A private club for those with lust in mind." Enter a booth and sit (on milk stools!) 'n slurp!

In case you were wondering, the four hottest bars on the Folsom Strip at the moment are The Bolt at 1347 Folsom; The Ramrod at 1225 Folsom; the Ambush at 1351 Harrison; and Fe-Be's at 1501 Folsom.

There is also talk of another new bar coming soon to the Miracle Mile. Its tentative name is Lost On Folsom. Watch for the ads and posters.

Castro/Mission:

The Hombre, 2348 Market, is a levi/leather saloon that's drawing 'em in from all points. The place is also very popular with the hunks from the Castro. Good cruising . . . especially if you're that new face in town. The Hombre serves brunch on Sunday.

The Men's Room, 3988 - 18th Street at Noe (2 blocks below Castro). A small, friendly Castro bar that attracts a steady stream of macho types. Despite its name, this is not one of your kinky Folsom Street-type w/s playgrounds.

If you feel like throwing that bod of yours around to some good sounds, try the new Outer Limits at 853 Valencia. It is the first dance bar in Valencia Valley and has a big black/white following. The hours are from 2 p.m. to 2 a.m. Monday through Friday, and from noon to 2 a.m. on weekends. Cocktail hour: 5-7, Monday Through Friday with drinks 65 cents; beer 50 cents. The Outer Limits, by the way, is located almost directly across from the popular bar/restaurant, The Fickle Fox.

Another new watering hole in the area is the Chicago Saloon, 200 Capp Street on 17th Street, between Mission and Van Ness. Very pleasant surroundings with very friendly personnel. It serves brunches Saturday and Sunday from noon to 4 p.m. in their Stockyard.

Downtown:

The only relatively new places to report on in this part of town are Slagel's at 117 Taylor Street, and The Peter Pan Lounge at 30 Mason Street. These raunchy, gay oases are plunk in the heart of the Tenderloin. Hustlers.

RESTAURANTS

One of the great joys of travel is the adventure of discovering new dining delights and San Francisco abounds with gastronomic pleasures. The town has an abundance of marvelous restaurants like no other . . . from Cantonese to Vietnamese, from seafood to sauerbraten with all shades 'n tastes in-between. One thing you'll quickly discover is that S.F. is blessed with a growing number of fine, imaginative, gay eating establishments and even more astounding is the pleasant discovery that the final tab will run only $8 to $12 in the better restaurants—and that includes wine and tip!

Since most of the following restaurants are scattered about town, I'll try to group them by locale. I'll also include some of the better oldies along with the new.

Castro/Market/Mission:

The Galleon at 718 - 14th Street (behind the Church St. Station) is a marvelous new bar/restaurant that serves delicious fare. The specials vary nightly, including a $4.95 dinner Monday through Friday, and a very special complete dinner at $2.50 on Monday and Tuesday. The atmosphere is cordial and the staff is both helpful and hunky. Moderate prices prevail and reservations are advised (431-0253). A brunch is also served on Saturday and Sunday from 11 to 3.

All you ex-New Yorkers take heart . . . The New York Deli at 16th and Market is just about to open. It promises to have all those marvelous, mouthwatering delicacies you remember so fondly. There will be both table and take-out service.

For friendly, warm ambience and good homecooking, the Neon Chicken, 4063 - 18th Street is one of the best.

Sumptuous and sophisticated dining is at the new Caracole, 3600 - 18th Street that overlooks busy Market Street below. Moderately expensive. There is a well-stocked bar. Reservations are advised (552-3737).

The Cafe Flore, at 16th and Market, across from The Caracole and the New York Deli, not only serves good food all day and night, but has an outside dining patio that gives the customers a sunny glimpse of the passing parade to and from the Castro-scene. The clientele here is very mixed, but the sidewalk action is heavily gay.

Burton's, 2223 Market Street, has gotten some top word-of-mouth reports. It's offering both Sunday brunch from 11:30 to 3, and dinner nightly from 5:30 to 10, Friday and Saturday 6 to 11. For reservations call 621-0441.

The Mint, 1942 Market Street, is one of the town's most popular restaurants with a reputation for good, wholesome dining. The bar is very active and gives the place a feeling of joviality and warmth. Service is good and unobtrusive. Moderate prices. Telephone 626-4726 for reservations.

For the best pizza in town, avoid the Sausage Factory on Castro, and instead go directly to the Haystack at 3881 - 24th Street and try their Zorba, The Greek pizza. H-e-a-v-e-n-l-y! This very, very popular Italian restaurant is not gay, but many gayguys from the Castro area pack the place.

For breakfast, a quick snack, a light lunch or shades in-between, try either Without Reservations, Castro Cafe, and/or Elephant Walk . . . all located on Castro Street between 18th and 19th. And if you're lucky, you'll grab a window table to watch the busy street action.

Badlands at 4121 - 18th Street at Castro offers an extensive menu and is noted for its succulent prime ribs. Prices are moderately expensive with complete dinners from $10 to $12 with wine. The funky Eagle Creek Saloon at 1884 Market also has an extensive menu. The Fickle Fox over in the Mission at 842 Valencia Street has a fine kitchen, noted for its seafood. The Church Street Station, at 14th and Market, serves hearty meals and snacks 24 hours, 7 days a week. The Circle Club at 811 Valencia Street and 19th still boasts the best steaks in town. I will not recommend Fanny's on 18th Street. Surly, rude service and mediocre food do not make a winner. Not in the town!

Haight Street:

One of the warmest, friendliest eateries in town is Mommy Fortuna's, 1649 Haight Street. The food is excellent whether breakfast, lunch or dinner. "June" supervises the busy kitchen and staff while you indulge yourself in the fun/funk surroundings. All this, and very moderate prices too.

Avoid the Family Cooking Co. on Haight, at all costs! They're the creeps who circulated the "Keep The Haight Straight" posters.

Downtown/Folsom and the Waterfront:

Sorry to report that the once popular Brighton Express has vanished from the scene, but the following fine restaurants should fill the void.

Gordon's, 118 Jones Street, has a New York feeling with its comfortable leather booths and low-key, quiet atmosphere. The menu is both extensive and moderately priced, the food well prepared, and the service courteous. The varied menu includes everything from fettuccine and rack of lamb to steak au poivre, with daily specials.

The original Jackson's, 2237 Powell has been around for many moons and is still serving tasty offerings to its many gay friends in their elegant dining room. Sunday brunch is served and there is entertainment Wednesday through Sunday at the piano bar. Lunches from 11 to 2:30, Monday-Friday, dinners from 6-11 nightly. Call 397-9797 for reservations.

Cafe Biarritz, 391 Broadway at Montgomery, is open 7 days with dinner from 6 to 11 p.m. The large, well-stocked bar is separate from their big, plush dining room. The large special dinners vary nightly . . . anything 'n everything—from baked red snapper to fried chicken with all the trimmin's (including champagne) for a bargain $2.69 every Wednesday. Beat that!

Also note: The City, 936 Montgomery at Broadway, in the North Beach area, is still holding strong as the top bar/disco/cabaret for all the gays, bi's and straights. It is located just around the corner from the Biarritz. The headliners here include such stars as Wayland Flowers, Manhattan Transfer, Jane Oliver, and Charles Pierce . . . so write the place in on your dance card.

Over on the docks is one of the town's oldest, funkiest, and best gay eateries, Pier 54. It's located at Pier 54 on China Basin Road, but wheels and perseverance are needed to get to its door. Once there, though, you will be rewarded. The food is delicious, the portions generous, the service is unhurried, and the view of the bay and S.F.'s skyline is very special. Just the right place for a romantic, quiet dinner. Pier 54 is bustling at lunchtime too, with many local dockside workers filling the tables Monday thru Friday from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. For reservations call 398-7946. By the by, Pier 54 has a special dessert for their funky, gay customers . . . a frozen chocolate dildo (eclair). What could be more San Francisco than that?

Trinity Place, between Bush and Sutter, is a very popular new bar/restaurant where the Sutter Street ribbon-clerks lunch 'n check out the Montgomery St. chic. Gucci loafers, and Lacoste shirts abound . . . and the air is heavy with Aramis. Reservations advised. Spacious bar downstairs, with a smaller one upstairs for the faithful who are waiting for a table.

Nearby, Sutter's Mill at 315 Bush is one of the financial district's oldest and best gay lunchtime restaurants/bars. The place is always jammed so reservations are advised here too. The food is good and the service is efficient, considering the crowd.

Nestled among the warehouses and industrial buildings at 4th and Brannen is Ruby's. This pleasant restaurant has acquired a steady, loyal stream of followers, and it has become the smart 'in' place to dine by both Pacific Heights society, and the gay elite. Its colorful, informal setting, imaginative cuisine, fast, competent service has made this the perfect place for a leisurely lunch or dinner, and a smart new addition to S.F.'s expanding gastronomic scene. Ruby's will have an outdoor dining patio open soon to handle the busy lunchtime crowd. Also, Ruby's operates a deli take-out counter on one side of the building if you want to snack it. Call 495-0457 for lunch and dinner reservations.

surroundings of The Communion at 1123 Folsom Street near 7th. The hardy, nourishing, vegetarian fare served here is first rate. Your stomach will thank you. Very reasonable too. a great lunchtime place.

Another chic addition to the gay dining scene is the Brasserie at 1600 Folsom, near 11th. This restaurant is a beautiful duplication of a French bistro that would make any interior designer worth his salt turn piss green. The cuisine is bourgeois French and there are about six entrees chalked up on its blackboard nightly. The quality of the food ranges from good to excellent, with the final tab for two running in the $25 range. Since the Brasserie is on Folsom, the dress is naturally casual, but reservations are necessary (621-9491).

Still the best gay dining room, for my money, is Le Domino at 17th and Florida. The fine French cuisine, the gracious, impeccable service, and the warm, friendly ambience are no better anywhere in town. You never go wrong in choosing anything from their extensive menu . . . and their fabulous nightly specials are just that . . . fabulous! Reservations are advised. Call 626-3095. The large downstairs bar offers cabaret entertainment on weekends and certain nights. Le Domino is closed Sundays.

The 527 Club at 527 Bryant Street (between 3rd and 4th) is still dishing up tasty meals at lunch, Sunday brunch, and dinner. Very hot with the leather crowd. Phone 397-2452 for reservations

And what would life be without one of Hamburger Mary's delectable morsels? Just the tonic before you move on to the heavier action after the bars close. HM is located at 1582 Folsom.

Polk Street:

This area hasn't gained any distinctive new dining spots, so the latest listings in Ciao! No. 22 and QQ'S "Private Stock" still stand. I do want to mention that my very favorite hamburger haven, the ever-fanciful Grub-stake II has renovated its kitchen and is still serving up the best burgers, omelets, and fries this side of the Rockies. Their doors are open 24 hours, by the way.

I should also mention that a new taco/burrito parlor, Nito's Burritos, has opened at the corner of Sutter and Polk and is attracting much gays since the food is good and the tables afford a great view of the Polk Street action till 3 a.m.

MISCELLANY

Must See: There are two beautiful buildings that you must definitely mark high on your 'things-to-see' list. The first is the new St. Mary's Cathedral at 1111 Gough. Follow O'Farrell to the end and you can't miss it. When the old St. Mary's burned to the ground a few years back the papal powers that be decided to erect this present structure at this new site. Its Italian designer was given free reign, and the result is an unbelievable, ultra-modern piece of architecture that is something soaring, thrilling and awesome. The organ alone is a breathtaking work of art . . . an exquisite piece of sculpture. Consider yourself lucky if you find a concert scheduled when you're in town!

If you are into stained glass (and who isn't these days?) make a fast trek to Temple Emanu-el at Augelio and Lake to view the exquisite new stained glass windows given by the Zellerbach family. The impressionistic windows designate fire and water and one is filled with veneration while sitting in the synagogue's massive auditorium lat in the afternoon, watching the sun give life to these beautiful windows. Temple Emanu-el also has organ recitals on occasion.

Not to slip from the religious to the sublime.

Showbiz: If you get a bit weary from bar/baths/disco hopping and want a touch of Broadway diversion to round out your vacation, get tickets to one of the following:

1. The Civic Light Opera opens here in the early spring and the lineup of this season's new musicals will be more exciting than in seasons past. The CLO's new impresarios will be Cy Feuer and Ernest Martin (of Where's Charlie and Guys and Dolls fame) and the CLO's new home will be the refurbished Orpheum Theater on Market at 8th. The 1977 season ticks off with Debbie Reynolds in a revival of Irving Berlin's Annie Get your Gun, followed by Liza Minnelli in a new musical In Person, written by the successful team of Kander and Ebb (Cabaret, and Chicago) and new productions of Kismet and Irma La Douce.

2. The American Conservatory Theatre (ACT) at the downtown Geary Theater offers fine productions of both classical and contemporary theatre. (Can anyone forget the colorful, muscle-bound production of Taming of the Shrew the ACT put on the tube last winter?) The ACT's lineup of plays is constantly changing, so check the entertainment section of the dailies when you arrive. Clive Barnes, drama critic of the New York Times (though he's recently decided to give up that post and devote himself solely to dance criticism), calls the ACT the most outstanding repertory company in America . . . so don't miss it!

3. The San Francisco Ballet, The San Francisco Opera, and the San Francisco Symphony, all thriving cultural institutions in the Bay City, ring down their curtains after their spring seasons and don't raise them till fall. But the San Francisco Summer Opera Company holds forth at the Curran Theater all summer long. Also many world-famous dance companies, such as the American Ballet Theatre, appear at the Opera House, and traveling road companies of smash Broadway shows, such as A Chorus Line, periodically blow into town for limited runs.

4. A special musical funtrip called "Beach Blanket Babylon" has been captivating audiences here for over two years and is still going strong! It's a rollicking, campy, mixed-bag revue starring the young empress of the S.F. music hall, Nancy Bleiweiss. Every gayperson in town has seen this show at least six times . . . so go! Even Clive Barnes saw the show and had choice superlatives for it. BBB is at the Club Fugazi, 678 Green and runs Wednesday and Thursday at 8:30; Friday and Saturday at 8:30 and 11; and Sunday at 7:30. Tickets can be obtained at the boxoffice or the Gramophone, 1538 Polk.

5. San Francisco and Berkeley are also red-hot with local theatrical productions. One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest was first done here and ran for six years before moving on to fame and fortune. The producers of that show are opening anew new production of Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap at the New Alcazar Theater, 650 Geary, in March, with the high hopes that it will hold audiences chill-bound as long as its London counterpart.

If you want to get a complete rundown of the town's weekly entertainment scene, buy the Sunday Chronicle/Examiner and check-out the pink section called Datebook. It lists everything.

Gay Flicks: Yes, Virginia . . . the town has its share of gay pornpalaces, and the Radio City Musci Hall of them all is The Nob Hill Theatre at 729 Bush. The local film critic from the Chronicle has even reviewed it and found the place highly entertaining . . . "if you're into that sort of thing." Not only does the NHC offer such hardcore classics as "The Kansas City Trucking Company," but provides a very busy orgy area, located directly behind the screen, complete with small roomettes, glory holes and the like. A very cruisy place.

There's also good news for all you legit film buffs. The new owners of the Castro Theater knew which way the gay cookie crumbled when they converted that towering Spanish stucco filmpalace into a revival theater. When the Castro reopened with a Kate Hepburn Film Festival the lines went around the block and there were almost riots in the street! The management is now planning an enormous Columbia Picture retrospective and it should continue to draw big gay audiences. The Castro, by the way, is in the dead-center of all the action on Castro Street, between 17th and 18th. Popcorn, anyone?

The Beau Geste, 3968 - 17th Street, very near the crossroads of Market and Castro, is the newest gay flic theater on the S.F. scene. It does show some really hot films, has an Early Bird Bargain Matinee (until noon) and draws lots of horny dudes. There's also an action area there.

Alas . . . the old and ever-popular Laurel Theater on Polk Street might bite the dust soon. The R.C. church, located nearby, is pressuring the city fathers to revoke the theater's license.

Where To Stay:

A new, attractive hotel, the Grand Central, has just started advertising in the local gay press. The hotel has a warm, continental atmosphere and offers 120 handsomely furnished rooms (some with detached baths) at moderate tariffs. A single without bath runs from $10 to $15; double without bath is from $12 to $18. The Grand Central couldn't be more convenient to the action areas of Polk and Folsom . . . and is only a short streetcar/bus ride to the Castroscene. The hotel is at 1412 Market Street between Polk and Van Ness, and the phone number is 431-9191.

Another hot plus for the Grand Central is that it has opened a spa called the Grand Central Sauna & Hot Tub Co. The entrance is at 15 Fell Street at the rear of the building. It's brand new . . . and just the place to steam and soak those horny muscles before you move on to the evening's activities. The hours are from 11 a.m. to 12 midnight from Monday through Thursday; and 11 a.m. until 2 a.m. on Friday and Saturday.

Pumping Up: For all you body-builders who insist on a workout or two even while on vacation, I've uncovered a few new gyms. One is The Pump Room and is at 2164 Market. Short-term memberships can be arranged. If you happen to be on the Nautilus training program, try the new Bodyworks at 1230 Sutter. If a downtown location is more convenient, three ol' standbys are at your disposal . . . Allen Health Club, 86 Golden Gate; The Golden Gate Health Club, 48 Golden Gate; and the popular Apollo Health Club, 851 O'Farrell Street for nude workouts.

Gaywomen: It always amazes me that gay waterholes for lesbians never seem to advertise . . . the out-of-town gals just seem instinctively to know where to head. I guess their underground word-of-mouth mu very hot. Well, Peg's Place has broken the rules and is advertising. It lists itself as 'A Women's Club', is located at 4737 Geary Blvd. (between 11th and 12th) and features a dj, dancing, and a pool table. The hours are from 4 p.m. daily; from 12 noon on Sunday. Closed Tuesday.

Magazines: Still the very best place of all for your favorite pormags, gay papers, etc., etc., is Le Salon, 1118 Polk St. A really great selection—as the crowds testify. Head here if you're a stranger who forgot QQ's "Private Stock" at home and pick up another copy, and the other local gay poop sheets. Friendly and helpful management. The best.

Gay Buys: A lot of merchandise of every description for gayguys under one roof—at the world's only gay department store, I remind you of Trading Post at 960 Folsom Street.

Johns: Here john cruising is hardly necessary because there are so many other diversions, as already mentioned. Doing the glory hole scene at The Glory Hole (see above) satisfies the same urge/need—without the hassle of cops, management or crazies . . . and in complete safety. But if you're really into toilet teasers please consult your 1977 "Private Stock" for locations—a few of the most noteworthy being the heads in the Ferry Building on the Embarcadero (2nd and 3rd floors); C.S.U. (Library, 2nd floor, and Creative Arts Bldg.); and Pier I Imports at Fisherman's Wharf.

Art: Good galleries all over town, but do stop in at the new Kee Fung Ng Gallery, in Chinatown at 757 Grant Avenue. It's a family operation and Kee's mother handles the sale of his striking paintings of Chinese children. These are expensive (upper hundreds and thousands) but the artist is gifted and also does scenes of San Francisco; they are beautiful and make a great memento—for about $50.

Gay Goodies: Well, the word has leaked out! San Francisco does have the best homemade ice cream in the world! Connoisseurs have kept this hot bit of news to themselves for many years . . . but finally, the big secret is out. The two big rivals for top places are Bud's and Swenson's. A double coffee caramel fudge cone of either has driven strong men mad . . . and friends have been known to become bitter enemies after fighting long 'n hard over the merits of each. So you can determine for yourself which ranks numero uno, sample Swenson's at Union and Hyde on Russian Hill, and Bud's at 1300 Castro, corner of 24th. (Bud's is also sold at various better confectionery shops around the city.)

Incidentally, 24th Street at Castro and Noe is a great browsing block. Lots of interesting quasi-gay shops, boutiques, restaurants and such. It's a bit of an uphill hike to get from lower Castroville . . . but remember, a Bud's ice cream cone awaits you at the end! If you don't want to climb, a #24 bus will assist.

If you are house-guesting it in S.F. and really want to give your host a succulent, calorie-laden, super surprise, I suggest that you head for The Cake Gallery at 290 Ninth Street, right off Folsom. This isn't your everyday, run-of-the-mill bakery, but a gay-owned cake emporium that custom-designs delicious French vanilla/sour cream fudge cakes into myriad designs and fancy toppings. The big house specialties for the hardcore gaycrowds are their erotic cakes . . . i.e., an imaginatively-designed cake in the shape of a large cock, complete with balls, cockring, and studs. It's just one the many unusual, beautifully crafted, creative efforts . . . so do check out The Cake Gallery's catalog before ordering. Prices are quite reasonable for such delectable works of art. Ron and John, the owners, also offer cake-decorating classes. Call 861-CAKE.

The Forbidden: There is a Saturday Night Special here in S.F. that is unique in the Western World . . . perhaps in the entire world! It's a mind-boggling private club for FFA devotees. For obvious reasons the owners want to keep a low profile on the place and to respect their wishes to keep the club as anonymous as possible, I won't give away its name or address, but will refer to it as the 'C'. The club's appointments are first-class, the orgy areas and equipment are the best, and the crowd is both hot and friendly. Admission to the 'C' is strictly by introduction through a member, and voyeurs are discouraged. So if you are heading this way and want to make the scene at 'C' . . . and are heavily into FFA-ing. I suggest you dig out your S.F. address book and look up any or all friends who are also into the scene. If you don't know anyone here who's fist-prone, I can only suggest trying The Slot baths for possible contacts.

A Final Note: California's lack of rainfall this past winter is causing all sorts of problems, so be considerate of the situation when you arrive. Signs are starting to appear on some of the funkier gay bulletin boards at some of the funkier bars that read . . . 'Shit With A Friend—Save A Flush!' and 'Shower With A Pal—Piss On A Plant!' Water-sports enthusiasts take note!

The creative juices in San Francisco are rampant! Nowhere this side of Atlanta will you find such graphic-chic blended with such freedom, color, imagination and 100% pure funk. This unique mixture shows, everywhere you look . . . in the shops, bistros, boutiques, malls, showrooms, galleries, and restaurants . . . from Ghirardelli Square, The Cannery, Embarcadero Center to Union Street, Sacramento Street, and beyond. For the gay tourist, the Bay City affords a never-ending wonderland of visual delights 'n surprises, including the hunkier two-legged kind!

So turn-on . . . and have a supercalifragilisticexpialidocious trip!

Montreal

A Rich Slice Of Gay Life

By Jerry Roberts

Since our last article on Montreal, Canada's gayest city, in the June 1973 issue of Ciao!, the gay scene in this city has greatly expanded with the opening of a number of new super discos, quiet piano bars, active cruising bars, and a baths complex. These new gay spots have brought about a marked increase in the number of gay guys (especially young ones) participating openly and proudly in Montreal's gay activities.

Gay life is open, accepted, and without hassle among gays themselves, and there is only a minimum of police interference (at present this is aimed at the baths). Straight young guys, sometimes with their girls, frequent a few of the most popular gay discos and bars.

This renaissance—or resurgence—in Montreal's gay scene has changed the picture we painted in our previous article in Ciao! now almost four years ago, and makes the city so appealing as a vacation spot for gays, especially since the cost of European vacations has climbed almost out of reach, that we feel we should give you an update on Montreal. We highly recommend this city as a vacation spot for all year 'round, either for a long weekend (you'll want to return often) or preferably for a week or longer. It's hardly an hour by air from New York.

Just about everything you could want as a visitor to a foreign country, and also in gay life, is in Montreal. A large number of friendly, easy-to-meet gays, many of them Latin types—being mostly French Canadians with some English and recent immigrants of all races from many countries—are on hand to meet you. Some of them attend one of the five major universities or one of the many high schools in the city. Most of the sex is free and most guys are uninhibited in bed. Hustlers are easily found any time. Gays are easy to meet in cruising spots, bars or discos—all of which are very active every day of the week. There is a place to suit every visitor's taste.

Montreal's gay clubs are no longer exploiting their customers. There is a new tendency in the better discos and bars to make improvements so that they will be more comfortable for gays. This is done regularly. Entertainers in bars and discos are of high quality and are usually changed weekly. Gay establishments are outdoing one another in lining up special evenings and parties for their gay clientele. Many bars and discos have nights where you get two drinks for the price of one and drinks are very inexpensive Sunday afternoons.

Fortunately for the visitor, nearly all gay spots are pretty well centralized in the main downtown shopping area. This gay area is centered at the intersection of Stanley Street and St. Catherine Street West. There is another small area starting at the intersection of St. Laurent Boulevard and St. Catherine Street East. Within these areas all places can be easily reached on foot. The few gay spots lying outside these two areas are within easy access to a metro station, so you don't need a car.

There are two gay inns where you can stay and meet other gay guys, as well as some new, large, first-class hotels—all in the gay area. The streets of Montreal are safe day and night.

More than 300 good restaurants of all nationalities, many of them expensive and rivaling the best in Europe; many large department stores; hundreds of modern boutiques; quite a few antique stores; and the latest films in English offer the visitor at least as much as he can find in most European cities. For the clothes-conscious, there are many first-class boutiques with the latest styles of Paris and New York.

The American dollar goes further in Montreal; at this writing the U.S. dollar is worth $1.05 Canadian.

The Place des Arts on St. Catherine Street West—between the east and west Montreal gay areas—offers a good selection of ballet, opera, concerts, folk music and plays. Check the newspapers. During the winter months hockey night at Montreal's Forum (Atwater metro station) can be fun as well as cruisy.

Man And His World (it was the Montreal Expo in 1967) is open again this summer. It's worth a metro trip to see the exhibits and cruise in nearby La Ronde Amusement Park, both located on St. Helen's island in the cool St. Lawrence River.

As discussed in more detail below, there are other cities of interest within an hour, to a few hours, of Montreal. These include a gay camping ground, and the cities of Ottawa and Quebec. Toronto is less than 5 hours by train.

There is excellent skiing in the winter months just north of Montreal.

With Montreal as your base of operations you can easily spend a week or two seeing this city and surrounding cities and it won't cost you that much. You can get by on English and drink the water.

COME IN THE WARM MONTHS

Montreal gay life is active all year long. The flavor of Montreal, however, is best savored during the warmer months, from mid-April through the end of September. During this time you can walk around and visit the different districts and outdoor cruising spots and meet Montrealers more freely.

GUIDE BOOKS

It is impossible in this article to mention the many places of historic and scenic interest Montreal has to offer, and so we recommend that you purchase the popular pocket-size guidebook published yearly called "Montreal Inside Out" (282 pages) for $3.95. It's available from the Berkshire Traveler Press, Stockbridge, Massachusetts 01262. If you are on a tight budget you might find The Bluejean Guide To Montreal (128 pages) at $2.95 of use. Both guide books have good sections on where to eat, drink, sleep and shop as well as things to do and places to see. The better-known gay bars and discos are listed in a separate section in both guide books—something that would have been unheard of in Montreal a few years ago.

The Saturday edition of the Montreal Star devotes a number of pages to what's going on in films, theater, music, art galleries, discos and live entertainment.

METRO

The Montreal Metro (subway) is the most modern in North America and provides quick, direct transportation to all our gay spots. The cars ride on rubber tires so it is smooth, clean and quiet. Lots of young guys riding, especially weekend evenings, so it's also quite cruisy. It's useful to make a listing of the names of the metro stations from the maps in any of the cars. A ride is 50 cents, or 12 tickets for $5. The metro closes at 1 a.m. but buses continue after that.

NEARBY CITIES

For those who have time for a longer stay in Montreal during the summer we recommend that you consider taking a few days to visit Quebec City and Ottawa by bus. By bus Quebec City is only 3 hours from Montreal, and Ottawa is about 2½ hours away. Buses leave every hour on the hour, from 6 a.m. till 1 a.m. for both cities. Inexpensive rates are available for one-day excursion tours, the last bus being 1 a.m., allowing you to leave early and return late. Buses leave from the Voyageur Bus Station just above the Berri de Montigny metro station.

Quebec and Ottawa are best appreciated during the summer months when one can leisurely stroll to see the outdoor sights of scenic and historic interest, as well as cruise. A large number of easy-to-meet student visitors from all over Canada and the United States travel to both cities then and crowd the streets and sidewalk cafes in the evenings. Gay spots of interest in Quebec are described in an article in the February 1977 issue of Ciao!. QQ's publication "Private Stock" lists gay places of interest in Ottawa as well as nearby Hull, and more detailed information is given in an article in the June 1974 issue of Ciao!.

Another possibility is Toronto, a 5-hour train trip from Montreal. The weekend is the most active time in Toronto.

GENERAL WAYS OF LIFE

Although Montreal has a fairly large English population, most Montrealers are French-speaking and French is the language you'll generally hear in most gay spots. Most English Montrealers speak French in public. A few words of your high-school French will be most appreciated as an opener and you will then find that your new friend will switch to English—which, in many cases, is quite good. Some east-end Montrealers do not come in in contact with English-speaking guys too often and so their English in some cases may be more limited.

Hash and pot are smoked in some of the larger establishments where the odor can hardly be noticed. There is quite a bit of coke. Other drugs are not generally encountered.

Legal age for drinking is 18 but ID cards are not checked often and you'll find guys under 18 in places. It is recommended that you carry proof of your identity (driver's license, and so on) as police may check this on rare occasions when they visit a gay bar.

Wine, liquor and European beer are sold only in government-operated branches of La Societe des Alcools de Quebec,

The St. Lawrence River

Downtown Montreal

A Metro Station

"Man and His World"

Alexis Nihon Plaza

which are open Monday through Saturday but not on Sunday. Those nearer the gay area are in Place Ville Marie and Place Bonaventure shopping centers. Beer and apple cider (10%-11% alcohol) are sold in small grocery stores. Neither beer nor liquor can be sold in stores on Sunday. Bars may serve beer/liquor till 3 a.m. every day. Taverns must close at midnight and are closed Sunday.

Federal Canadian law permits sex between two consenting adults (21 years or older—interpreted as 18 in the Province of Quebec) of the same sex in private. Police do not infringe on this right. Generally there is no prosecution if a minor is involved unless the minor brings charges. Sex in public, as in parks or public washrooms, is against the law and police have been cracking down on this by visiting well-known cruising spots. They've raided the baths and have visited a few clubs to check on overcrowding, but there's no entrapment or harassing of gay guys by the police. Don't grope anybody in public; it's against the law!

Montreal is the most openly gay city and has by far the most active gay life of any city in Canada. Toronto is second, followed by Vancouver.

WHERE THE ACTION IS

This article is lengthy and detailed, so we are summarizing here where the best and surest action is. Details of all places are given below.

There is always action at the baths.

In the afternoon, after checking the best indoor/outdoor cruising places, try the Peel Pub, Dominion Square Tavern, and the Bellevue Taverne. Some hustlers at each.

In the early evening try the Peel Pub, Gambrinus Tavern, or a tavern that appeals to you. Tough hustlers are always available at the Bellevue Taverne.

About 10 p.m. go to the top floor The Trux, where you are sure to score, or—if you want commercial chicken at $20 a basket—go to P.J.'s Cabaret.

The best time to pick up the guys dancing at the discos is in the wee hours when they've had their fill of dancing; many will get glad to go with you. Give the Studio One a try after 10 p.m. as it's a good spot for cruising; then try Le Jardin.

On Sunday afternoon you'll find good cruising at Cafe Monarch, Trux and Le Mystique. The Hollywood, La Boite en Haute, and 1160 Club are less popular, and fairly social.

INDOOR CRUISING

Large indoor shopping centers, metro stations, the Voyageur Bus Station, pinball galleries and pool halls are good cruising spots for chicken, and—to some extent—older gays. Some of the shopping centers and the bus station are policed and likely-looking chickens are asked to move on.

Place Desjardins, St. Catherine West (3 blocks west of St. Laurent Boulevard and facing Place des Arts) was officially opened in April 1976 and should soon become the #1 indoor cruising spot, especially for chicken. It's the nearest indoor cruising spot to the big supply of tasty east-end Montreal youngsters. The enormous shopping mall, decorated with numerous large green leaf plants, trees and even a waterfall, is on 5 levels connected by escalators and features restaurants, bars and movie theaters. Free, youth-oriented pop concerts are quite frequent in the evenings, so check this out as it draws the crowds. Lots of people come for an evening stroll. It's one of the sights that should be seen by all visitors.

Place Bonaventure Shopping Center, situated beneath the Bonaventure Hotel, is an excellent place to pick up fresh young chicken during the day and early evening. The going rate is $20. Try the stairway near the metro.

Place Ville-Marie Shopping Center, situated beneath the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, and also the adjacent C.N. Railway Station is a popular place for a stroll during the day or evening for gays of all ages who enjoy window-shopping in the many boutiques. There is an underground connection to the Bonaventure metro station and Place Bonaventure.

Plaza Alexis Nihon Shopping Center, just next to the Atwater metro station is good for chicken after school and early evenings. Some are non-commercial. Also check out the Pinball Gallery and Les Carabiniers Tavern on the main floor of the shopping center.

The Forum, next to the Plaza Alexis Nihon, and the Atwater metro station, is really cruisy on evenings when there's a rock concert; it's jammed with thousands of young guys, many feeling high on pot or hash.

The Voyageur Bus Terminus just above the Berri de Montigny metro station, is cruisy day and night.

Young guys, many non-commercial, from Longueuil (just across the St. Lawrence River from Montreal) cruise the spacious Longueuil Metro Station—making it the cruisiest of all metro stations. East-end commercial chickens cruise the Berri de Montigny Metro Station. Actually, most metro stations are somewhat fruitful afternoons and evenings, especially weekends. Late in the evening, especially weekends, the majority of passengers in the metro trains are under 25 and so a ride can be rewarding.

The toilet on the main floor of the YMCA, 1441 Drummond Street, is well-cruised by occupants of the Y and students at the university next door.

The large Billiard Hall, 1600 Berri Street (second floor) across from the Voyageur bus station, is a cruisy place for young east-end Montrealers. It's open from 11 a.m. till 2 a.m. and features 13 tables.

Montreal Billiards, 1644 St. Catherine Street West, open from 10 a.m. till midnight, features 26 tables and is worth checking out.

A new and fast-growing phenomenon in Montreal is the pinball arcade. These are manned mainly by young guys eager for a few more dollars to continue their games. Try Penny Arcade, 1389 St. Catherine Street West; Crystal Palace, 1196 St. Catherine Street West; Attraction Center, 1489 St. Catherine Street West; Silver Amusements, 1212 St. Laurent Boulevard; and the Pinball Gallery in Plaza Alexis Nihon Shopping Plaza.

The Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, 1379 Sherbrooke Street West, tends to attract a higher proportion of gays than other places of scenic interest. While not known as a cruising spot, it is worthwhile to visit this much-enlarged museum which just reopened after a $10 million expansion program. Try the inexpensive restaurant or the coffee shop featuring delicious sandwiches made before your eyes and a terrific selection of delicious French pastries. Just on the fringe of the gay action area it's worth a visit. You can always invite a new friend for coffee and pastries.

SOFT-CORE PORNO MOVIE THEATERS

About the only thing Montreal doesn't have are hard-core porno movies. A number of theaters, however, specialize in X-rated or soft-core straight films (restricted to those 18 and over) which naturally get the blood flowing very fast in the many young guys (some under 18) watching them. Making out is not that hard and as a matter of fact some young guys go there to get serviced as well as watch the film. Best afternoons or early evenings. Try Eros Theater, 59 St. Catherine Street East or Eve Theater, 1229 St. Laurent Boulevard (both St. Laurent metro station). Both of these are in east-end Montreal in the vicinity of several gay taverns and a cruisy walk on St. Catherine Street East and St. Laurent Boulevard and attract young east-end Montreal guys. Other cruisy soft-core theaters servicing different neighborhoods are Guy Theater, 1435 Guy Street (Guy metro station) located near the west end of the gay action area, and Le Beaver, 5117 Park Avenue, located in a residential area populated to a large extent by recent immigrants from southern Europe.

OUTDOOR CRUISING

One of the great pleasures for many visitors to Montreal is exploring the city's different districts and beautiful parks on foot. There are no muggings, so you are safe. Walking—especially evenings and weekend afternoons—is a way of life in the Province of Quebec just as in Europe. Montreal, like Paris, does have districts of different flavor which can be savored only at a leisurely pace on foot. Most of these are not in the specific cruising areas mentioned below, but they are nonetheless fruitful for cruising. Some of them are: Le Vieux Montreal (Old Montreal) off at Place d'Armes metro station) with its many fine French restaurants, antique shops and art galleries, as well as being the center for the HIP group, a great many of them being summertime visitors; in the evening Crescent Street (the one block between St. Catherine Street West and de Maisonneuve Boulevard West) is jammed with the HIP-university-motorcycle crowd visiting one of the street's many boites or cafes; Saint Denis Street from the Berri de Montigny metro station north toward Mount Royal Park or south toward St. Catherine Street East with its many small cafes, boutiques and young hunky-looking first- or second-generation European guys as well as HIP crowd; Sherbrooke Street West with its many art galleries, boutiques, and fine old homes; and St. Helen Island, a 123-acre park crowded with youthful visitors on a hot summer's day.

Outdoor cruising is good in the warmer months, especially evenings and weekend afternoons. Many Montreal guys prefer outdoor cruising to club cruising. Visitors in pairs stand a good chance of making quick contacts on the street as many Montreal guys prefer to walk, talk, windowshop and cruise in pairs. Police are cracking down on obvious cruising in public parks—especially Lafontaine Park and Mount Royal.

The most populated cruising area is on St. Catherine Street West from McGill Street to Guy

Street. Many gay couples and some singles stroll in this downtown shopping area, window-shopping for the latest styles in clothing displayed in the windows of small boutiques and large department stores, and are eager to make new friends. Several cross-streets in this area are very cruisy. In the evening Stanley Street (now Montreal's gay street) for about half a block on either side of St. Catherine Street West is busily cruised with a continual procession of gay guys going from one to the other of eight gay bars on this street; there is a big congregation in front of Le Jardin. Crescent Street just north of St. Catherine West is jammed evenings with the HIP-university set just walking or visiting one of the many bars or discos along the way. Commercial chickens lean against the fire hydrant in front of the tobacco store on the corner of Peel Street and St. Catherine West (southside—opposite the Peel Pub) waiting for a passing car to pick them up. At times hustlers congregate in front of the A & W Coffee Shop, 1116 St. Catherine St. West.

Young east-end Montrealers, many of them hustlers, frequent the area on St. Catherine East starting at St. Laurent Boulevard, and going eastward for 4 or 5 blocks as well as on St. Laurent Boulevard in the pool halls, theaters, hotdog stands and pinball galleries.

A favorite place for hitchhiking with young hustlers is on the corner in front of Bellevue Taverne, 151 St. Catherine Street East.

LaFontaine Park, Sherbrooke Street East, just in front of the 1160 Club is the best outdoor place for chicken, some of them commercial. The park is cruised on foot and by car. At night young guys hitchhike at the corner of the park opposite the 1160 Club. The park is policed. Recently gangs of toughs have made their appearance in the park robbing and beating gays.

Dominion Square Park (Peel Street just below St. Catherine West) is an excellent place for commercial chicken and gays of all ages. It's a sure bet and a popular cruising spot for visitors staying in the big hotels (nearly all the hotels mentioned at the end of this article) that overlook the Park. Good cruising after the nearby bars on Stanley Street close at 3 a.m.

Mount Royal Park, the big hill in the center of Montreal, is very popular for summer cruising with gays of all ages. Cruising starts at the monument and continues along the path up the hill to the TV tower and cross at the top. Action takes place in the woods. It's policed now and then. Get off at Laurier metro station.

La Ronde Amusement Park at Man and His World on St. Helen's Island is cruised by many of the young guys who go there for a good time. Open summertime only. At St. Helene metro station.

The waterfront area on de la Commune Street is a good place to meet sailors from the many ships that dock in the vicinity.

Place Jacques Cartier, in old Montreal, the hangout of Montreal's large congregation of hip visitors, and is usually quite rewarding.

If you pass by Phillips Square on St. Catherine Street West (corner of Union Street) opposite the Baie Company store, check out who's near the huge statue of King Edward VII in the center.

Cruising by car at the corner of Tupper and St. Marc Streets late in the evening is usually fruitful. This, however, is outside the gay area.

McGill University. A stroll on the lovely campus off Sherbrooke Street West in the early evening or later at night can be rewarding.

GAY TAVERNS

Taverns are for men only. They serve beer and soft drinks. Some have good, inexpensive meals at lunchtime so the crowd then is not necessarily all gay. Taverns open by mid-morning and close at midnight and are closed Sunday.

Taverns are the best indoor places for afternoon/early evening encounters since the discos and piano bars don't get going until about 9 p.m. Cruising is informal, and generally good. Young hustlers are generally around.

Most taverns are mixed as far as ages go, so you'll see guys from 18 to 70. The accent, however, is not on youth in most of them, but rather middle age (25 to 50) as most of the younger guys go directly to one of the many new deluxe discos or piano bars. An exception are the taverns in east-end Montreal (east of St. Laurent Boulevard) which are manned by working-class French Canadians from the area, most of whom do not go to discos. Many taverns are like social clubs in that their clients tend to frequent the same tavern rather than cruise several in an evening. The gay taverns then are both for socializing and cruising and so conversations are easy and you will have no trouble getting to know people. A few taverns have a specialized clientele such as the dominance of the leather/western/he-man type in the Neptune Taverne or the heads in the Bellevue Tavern, but even in these places everyone is welcome. While conversation in most of them is in French, most people can speak at least some English and welcome the chance to talk with visitors from the States.

For interesting conversations and to get to know Montreal guys better I highly recommend visiting several of the gay taverns described below. It's a compliment to send a beer to the table of somebody you want to meet. For meeting average guys we recommend the Peel Pub, Taverne Lincoln and Taverne Gambrinus.

Peel Pub, 1107 St. Catherine West (corner of Peel) is the largest and most popular gay tavern in Montreal. Guys 18 to 60 mix and converse at large and small tables. Sports are shown on the large TV sets located on each side of the large stone-walled tavern. Somewhat mixed during the afternoon but still one of the best taverns for afternoon cruising; it is solidly gay by early evening and packed by 8 p.m. A large, active washroom. This is about the best spot for the mature gay visitor to start his first evening. People there will help you with information on gay spots that suit you.

Neptune Tavern, 121 de la Commune Street West (near the corner of Place Royale Street) is located by the waterfront just a short taxi ride from Montreal's gay center. Popular with the leather crowd, sailors and merchant seamen, and headquarters of several cycle clubs. For the bike crowd. Good, inexpensive noontime meals with accent on fish.

Taverne Gambrinus (LeClerc), 1151 Ontario Street East (corner of Wolf Street) is very typical and has perhaps the friendliest, most fun-loving crowd of all east-end Montreal taverns. The long, narrow tavern with pool table and photos of nude guys pasted on the walls is packed with fun-loving east-end Montrealers, mostly between 25 and 50 talking and joking against the background of a loud jukebox playing pop songs in French. Most of the guys are regulars. There's a lot of joie de vivre in this tavern and the guys will be glad to meet you and make you feel at home. Mr. Beautiful is probably not here for you, but you will meet genuine, sincere, open, average gay Montrealers. The odd hustler now and then. After your visit to the Peel Pub I highly recommend the Taverne Gambrinus. Get off at the Beaudry metro station and walk up a few blocks. It's just one block from Gambrinus up the hill to the 1160 Club.

Taverne Ste. Catherine, 1703 St. Catherine East (corner Papineau Street) has a similar atmosphere and types of guys but it's smaller and not as active. It's a friendly neighborhood tavern for average average gay east-end Montrealers from 18 up, in jeans, to a few mature guys with ties. Not a place for hustlers. The walls in the back part are papered with a forest scene, furnishing a cozy atmosphere for meeting guys at the two pinball machines or pool table. Jukebox furnishes background music. A few steps from the Papineau metro station.

Bellevue Taverne, 151 St.

Catherine East, is packed with tough, youngish, macho hustlers and the east-end Montreal gay hip set in jeans in the 18 to 35 bracket and older. Some smoking in the place. Lots of mixing with guys walking around and visiting at tables or playing pool. Contacts often made openly or by following the person you like into the john. Colored flashing lights give the place a slight psychedelic atmosphere. Draws the biggest crowds of all east-end Montreal taverns. While it's interesting to visit and observe, some people there are rough and risky.

Dominion Square Tavern, at 1243 Metcalfe Street (faces on Dominion Square Park) attracts mostly mature masculine guys, some of them in the jeans/leather/S&M set. It's most popular afternoons, especially on Saturdays when guys come to watch sports on TV and cruise in the downstairs john, where action is possible. At times the odd hustler. Informal, friendly atmosphere in a smallish tavern with inexpensive meals at noon time. Cruising is good if you are interested in the average guys present, as that's what they are there for. Not overly crowded. A few older straights.

Taverne Lincoln, 4481 St. Denis Street, is situated in a residential area away from the gay downtown center. It attracts local working-class men of the district, mostly 25 to 70 who are there for friendly conversation and anything else that's available. Most guys under 25 go downtown to the discos. The odd local hustler. On weekends most of the guys go upstairs to the Cafe Lincoln after midnight. Very highly recommended to all visitors so you can get to know some mature, average, French-speaking gay Montrealers. One block from the Mount Royal metro station.

Les Carabiniers Tavern, situated on the main floor of the Plaza Alexis Nihon Shopping Center, is mainly straight but some of the students and young guys in the rear, left-hand part (go left as you enter) under the flags, are gay or bisexual. Some are willing to go with you if they need money for pot or hash, or a hockey game or rock concert. Popular with English-speaking students. Some discreet cruising. A nice, cozy, 'diminish' atmosphere with friendly guys watching TV on a giant screen. Good inexpensive meals till 8 p.m. from 99 cents to $2. Underground passage from the Atwater metro station gets you there.

Taverne de Montreal, 1415 St. Laurent Boulevard near the corner of St. Catherine East is sparsely populated with a few cute chickens playing pool or moving around, and a miscellaneous bunch of east-end Montrealers including a few sex changes. Loud jukebox music livens up the atmosphere of this very long rectangular room. A few "dads" come with their chickens. Not too much there; you can always take a peek or walk the length of the tavern to the john in the back. St. Laurent metro station.

Taverne de la Paix, 350 St. Catherine Street East, a clean, very brightly-lit, squarish room attracts average friendly guys, mostly 25 to 60. No jeans. Few if any hustlers. Lower income, friendly, French-speaking guys glad to meet you; many of them alone at a table.

Taverne Plateau, 73 St. Catherine East, is a dingy, smallish place with a few queens, tough hustlers, a pool table, juke box, and not too many people. Fairly tough crowd. Take care.

BARS

The bars listed in this section usually have no entertainment and are mainly for cruising.

Trux Cruise Bar, 1426 Stanley Street, is the best and surest cruising spot in Montreal. Located on the third floor just above the old Rocambole Discotheque (now part of Trux); just about all the guys are there to cruise and many will settle for Mr. Average. Many are in the leather-denim group and most in the 20 to 50 age bracket, but all types are here and easy to meet. Now the most popular spot for the leather crowd. During the week there are two shifts. The earlier starts at 10 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. and wants to leave with somebody before midnight so they can get to work the next day. The later shift starts after midnight and continues till closing time. Guys come here to cruise when they've finished socializing or dancing at other clubs. The room is long, rectangular and unfurnished except for a bar serving beer at 60 cents, a few piles of tires, a few pinball machines, and a jukebox and a few benches—no chairs or tables. Either you follow the crowd walking around the room looking at the guys standing still, or stand still and look at the guys as they pass by you. Free, old straight movies Tuesday evenings at 9 are popular. Open Sunday from 2 p.m. on. You can always take a prospective friend down to the second floor disco (formerly Le Rocambole) for a quiet drink and dancing or to the Mystique Piano Bar on the first floor via the back stairs, which is open during the week. Not to be missed.

Cafe Monarch, 162 St. Catherine East, known to many Montrealers as "The Zoo," is an excellent place for cruising on Sunday afternoons only. The guys are mature, macho, many leather-denim, and some will come up to you and pop the question direct. A polite yes or no is all that is given in reply. Everyone sits at tables with white tablecloths and drinks the large one-quart-size bottles of beer. This is a long-time institution in Montreal. Crowded and highly recommended from 3 p.m. on. A few blocks' walk from the St. Laurent metro station.

Cafe Lincoln, 4478 St. Denis Street (second floor) attracts local average, lower-income, French-speaking guys in the 25 to 60 age bracket from the residential area in which it is situated. Open weekends only, it is one of the best gay bars in Montreal for friendly conversation with an average guy in a quiet atmosphere. Many of the guys start earlier at the Lincoln Tavern downstairs. Everyone sits at tables but move around. One block from the Mount Royal metro station and a few blocks from the Crystal Baths.

Corral, at 1419 Drummond Street (3rd floor) attracts some of the leather-denim crowd. Not overly crowded as competition at The Trux is too keen, but worth a visit if this is your scene. Now open weekends only.

Kon Tiki Bar, 1455 Peel Street (next to the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel) serves Polynesian drinks and attracts a well-dressed crowd of businessmen. Gay at the bar.

Metro Bar, off the lobby of the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel (1455 Peel Street) is popular with visiting straight, bisexual and gay businessmen who are looking for convenient action at cocktail time.

PIANO BARS, SHOW BARS, DISCO-SHOW BARS

The number of piano bars, show bars and disco-show bars has increased from three in 1972 to thirteen in 1977. A great many more Montrealers are now on the gay scene, going out more frequently. Besides cruising and dancing they want varied entertainment and a nice atmosphere for socializing and cruising. Most places have a female vocalist and in some cases a male vocalist and piano player; entertainment usually changes weekly and in many places Monday is the day off. Some of the most popular are smallish, intimate, and to the guys who return week after week they are like a private club. Cruising goes on in all of them, but for many, their primary function is social or in some cases the show. Very popular with couples and groups. Dancing at all of them.

P.J.'s Cabaret, 1422 Peel Street, is jammed with chicken ready to be taken out at $20 or more a basket. Most of the guys are well under 21 and commercial. Many are quite masculine, and while not all are gay they all enjoy sex. You will see some of them in the daytime in some of the cruising spots.

The kids need money to take out girls, buy records, pot, hash and clothes, and go to rock concerts. This is the best spot in Montreal for chicken. There's a good drag show several times nightly which changes weekly (11:15 p.m. and 1:15 a.m. on weekends) and both shows are different. Dancing to disco music between shows. There's a lineup early on weekends. Police visit the place now and then to check for overcrowding. Show and atmosphere are well worth a visit by every visitor. This is Montreal's first gay bar, and was first known as the Tropical Bar.

The 1160 Club, 1160 Sherbrooke Street East, offers more than any other Montreal piano bar and should not be missed. For a $1 entry fee you get dancing, entertainment (singer), cruising, and a free buffet. Best to go around 11:30 p.m. or after. The Club attracts nicely but informally dressed friendly mature average guys in the 25 to 50 age bracket who come here week after week to relax, socialize with their friends and sometimes to cruise. About half are singles and half couples. It's about the best and easiest place to meet friendly, sporty, middle-class guys who work in the professions, business or stores. Not at all a snobbish place for the elite. The atmosphere is that of a private club and the good-looking masculine waiters bend over backwards (literally) to please you. The Club is divided into two rooms; one for dining, and one for socializing, dancing and drinking. Many guys come later for the buffet of four salads, cold cuts and bread. Good meals are available Wednesday through Sunday from 7 p.m. till 1 a.m. for about $3.75. Open Sunday afternoons with entertainment. A very good place to make lasting friends. Two blocks' walk from the Sherbrooke metro station and opposite Lafontaine Park. Since it's a bit away from the gay area it does not attract the downtown crowd.

Le Mystique, 1424 Stanley Street, is a long, narrow, crowded piano bar attracting a nice varied crowd of all ages. The vocalist and piano player perform every hour from 10 p.m. on Tuesday through Sunday including Sunday afternoons, when it's jammed. The active Trux Cruise Bar is on the third floor. Le Mystique is a popular place for socializing on Sunday afternoons and at that time only attracts some of the leather crowd. A good, popular place for all mature gays even during the week, and recommended to all visitors no matter what their tastes may be.

La Boite d'en Haut, 1320 Alexandre de Seve (around the corner from 1488 St. Catherine East) is Montreal's quietest and coziest piano bar. It's mainly for socializing and poor for cruising. Like the 1160 Club, it has a club-like atmosphere and is jammed weekends with an established mature clientele including a few lesbians. No hustlers; jeans are discouraged. Best cruising is at the bar. This dimly-lit, intimate and extremely comfortable piano bar (you sit on thick padded chairs) is frequented mostly by well dressed couples and groups of guys who sit quietly talking and listening to a top vocalist and piano player. Free buffet Sunday afternoons. Good place to get to know people. Get off the metro at Papineau station and walk three blocks east on St. Catherine Street East.

Chez Fernand, 1086 MacKay Street (basement of Hotel Province, corner of Dorchester Street West) was once a piano bar, then a place for drag shows, and now it features a three-piece combo for dancing; it is the only gay bar with live music for dancing. Popular with the 25-45 age group. Friendly, middle-class guys at tables and some cruising at the bar. A few blocks over from the Guy metro station.

Le Gant de Velours, 2077 Victoria Street (above the Cafe Andre) is a moderate-size piano bar with good entertainment; red velvet walls; two dance floors; tables; booths and a big bar. There is quite a bit of moving around. Attracts a heterogeneous clientele of middle-class guys 25 and up, many single. A bit off the beaten path so the crowd is thin but interesting. Inexpensive drinks at cocktail hour 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday roast beef dinner at $4 from 6 until 9 p.m. A short walk north of the McGill metro station.

La Rose Rouge, 2112 St. Catherine Street West, attracts a generally well-educated, properly dressed mixed middle-class crowd in the over-30 bracket, many of whom are in the professions or in business. Just about the highest class group in any club. More for socializing than for cruising. A high-class, moderate-size piano bar situated at the west end of Montreal's downtown gay area. Different vocalist each week, from 10 p.m. (closed Monday). Most popular Friday and Saturday evenings. Cruising at the long narrow bar; couples and groups of friends sit at tables in a dim red-light atmosphere. Red carpet. No hustlers. Deluxe Sunday night dinner till 9 p.m. for $6. A few blocks' walk from the Atwater metro station.

Hollywood, at 1252 Stanley Street is a new large piano-disco bar with a different show weekly; formerly a lesbian bar.

Corral, at 1419 Drummond Street, formerly was the popular Taureau d'Or. A smallish disco-bar that's now only moderately popular with average mature types. Glass-topped dance floor with flashing colored lights. Mostly singles. Bar on third floor open only on weekends.

La Catalogne Chez Claude, 1484 Dorchester Street West, opened last October and offers varied entertainment. The long narrow room has a number of tables, a long bar for friendly cruising, and an old-fashioned player piano. Daily lunch at $2.25. Mature crowd.

Le Valentin Inc., 291 Mount Royal West, features a cruising bar on its first floor and disco on its second floor. Straight and gay; mostly social. Mount Royal metro station.

Chez Coco, 3767 St. Catherine Street East is run by lesbians. It opened January 1977 and welcomes both guys and girls.

Cafe Saguenay, 984 St. Laurent Boulevard, is a rundown show bar for lesbians and transvestites. Dancing on the stage. Shows at 9:30 and 11: p.m., and 1:30 a.m. on weekends. Thin crowd. No cover charge.

La Cedula, 857 Sainte Helene Street, Longueuil, is a small disco-show bar in a residential neighborhood on the south shore of the St. Lawrence. Nice to visit if you want to get away from the Montreal scene. Drag shows on Tuesday through Sunday at midnight and 1:30 a.m. To get there cross the Jacques Cartier bridge and exit at Longueuil; take the first left for one block (in front of a garage) and then turn right and you are on St. Helene Street—it's only a few blocks down.

DISCOTHEQUES

Large, first-class discos with the very best in sound, light, show and decor are a phenomenon of the past few years for Montreal, and the best of them draw big crowds every evening. Cruising, especially for the dancers, is generally best late in the evening when the guys have had their fill of dancing; many of them are available and appreciate a small thank you. The drinks in some of them are two for the price of one on slower evenings. There is no pressure in most of them to buy drinks, and only a few, as noted below, have entry charges. The five most popular discos are within a few blocks to a few steps of each other . . . four of them being on Stanley Street.

Le Jardin, 1258 Stanley, is the most popular all-male gay disco in Montreal; females are not permitted. A large, spacious, dimly-lit room with three bars; good, popular, even disco sound (a la Ritchie family style); terrific light show with black light, revolving colored lights and tiny lights in the ceiling; a dance floor in the center; plush sofas around the sides; and a corner alcove with plush sofas for romantic moments give guys there the only gay 'trip' in Montreal. The owner is continually making improvements to keep it the #1 gay disco. Overall, the place has the atmosphere of a disco but for those seated on the sofas it is more like a living room. A few pinball machines complete the decor. The crowd is 18 to 40 (mostly under 30), including all types and mostly single. Cruising is good all evening but if you want one of the guys dancing (many are available) wait until the wee hours. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday you get two drinks for the price of one. Never a lineup. During the warm months many guys hang around on the street outside the front door—a good place for cruising. The Lime Light is upstairs.

Lime Light, 1254 Stanley (just above Le Jardin) was Montreal's first super gay disco but now serves a mixed crowd. Their publicity was so good it began to attract the jet set, showbiz people, glitter set and straight couples who gradually integrated the place so it's now mixed. Actually it's pretty gay during the week and much less so on weekends. Extremely popular all week, there's a lineup on weekends early in the evening despite a $3 entry fee. Open until 6 a.m. Friday and Saturday nights (soft drinks served after 3 a.m.) and so it's good for late night cruising; most other places close at 3 a.m. They stamp your hand so you can leave and return later on. Gay guys come to dance so it's not really a good place for cruising unless you want to wait till the wee hours of the morning when the guys have finished dancing. The crowd is mainly 18 to 25 (there are straight older couples) and somewhat younger than at Le Jardin. On weekends most of those dancing are paired off boy-girl. The Lime Light is on two floors (2nd and 3rd). Both discos are in large rooms with a large dance floor covering about a third of the club. The light show is terrific, with thousands of tiny white lights, revolving colored lights, and frequent use of black light. The sound is loud, with a good-to-heavy Latin-type beat and so attracts some Latins, in contrast to a more pop disco sound in Le Jardin. Some cruising at small stand-up tables and pinball machines near the entrance. The first stop for the habitue of the disco scene.

Studio One, 968 St. Catherine West (2nd floor), is a moderate-size disco with good cruising all evening, and a good disco sound. It gets mostly average guys—not really the disco crowd—many in jeans in the 18-35 age bracket, although older guys are not out of place. Studio One is divided into two rooms—one for dancing, the other for cruising and the bar and conversation. Cruising is good all night long; there are lots of single guys standing around the dance floor or in the bar room. Most are looking for Mr. Average and are happy to go to bed with him. Conversation is easy in the barroom and the music is not too loud here. Sunday through Thursday (at the time of our visit) drinks were two for the price of one and were served by youthful, athletic-looking waiters, some of them in gym shorts. Mature guys will find good cruising here. Open till 6 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

Cabaret Milord, 1224 Stanley Street, opened last fall, and is trying to establish its image. It gets average guys in average dress, especially 25-40, who come to talk and dance to average disco music with an average light show. One big room with lots of tables and two small adjoining rooms each with a bar. Worthwhile for a drink later in the evening.

Stork Club, 1433 Guy Street (next to Guy metro station) is a deluxe, classically decorated disco attracting straight-gays, in a well-dressed 18-35 bracket who come to relax, trip and party. The sumptuous, classical, salon-type decor includes thick carpets, mirrors, chandeliers, and well-spaced cloth-covered tables with comfortable chairs. Great air-conditioning. Soul-type disco music from four huge sound columns on the large dance floor in the center of the club is just right for dancing and not too loud for conversation. Some cruising at the long bar. Entry charge of $3 on weekends and $2 other times. A terrific atmosphere for tripping or for a few moments of relaxation.

Le Valentin Inc., 291 Mount Royal Street, features a restaurant-showbar on the first floor and disco on the second. Its straight-gay, generally well-dressed crowd is in the 18-35 group and comes mainly to socialize rather than cruise.

The Greatest Invention Since The Human Mouth ACCU-JAC New Variable Speed Model

NEW VARIABLE SPEED MODEL
40 TO 100 STROKES PER MINUTE

If you are into masturbation then ACCU-JAC is for you. It is a professionally engineered massaging device that took four years of research and development.

ACCU-JAC uses alternating air pressure to move a smooth massaging membrane on the erect penis. The stroking motion is total and incorporates pressurized air flow which produces suction and compression to drive the massaging sleeve back and forth, thus approximating actual fellatio. This total massage combined with gentle suction results in violent climax.

No electrical parts ever touch you. ACCU-JAC is completely safe and entirely harmless. It is gentler than the hand or actual fellatio. A warranty is included to protect all electrical and mechanical parts.

The basic unit includes everything you need to use ACCU-JAC... there are no extras to buy. Additional sleeves for a variety of unusual sensations are available for later purchase. They are detailed in literature which accompanies ACCU-JAC and also in our 1975 Catalog advertised elsewhere in this magazine.

It is crucial that you furnish exact measurements of your erect penis to ensure perfect fit of the sleeve sent with your unit. If you are purchasing ACCU-JAC with a friend order an additional sleeve for the second person if his size is different from yours and/or you intend to use ACCU-JAC simultaneously with a T-connection accessory (see coupon).

If you wish to learn more about ACCU-JAC before purchasing see our detailed report in the February 1975 QQ Magazine. Send $3.50 ($4.50 in Canada & Mexico; $5.00 all other countries) for a copy; $1 for a Xerox copy of the report. Address on coupon.

Our prices include all shipping charges and taxes where applicable. We ship via insured parcel post. Cartons are sturdy and carefully packed and bear no revealing markings. U.S. residents desiring air service please add $10 to your order. A money-order or charge expedites shipment. Sorry, no C.O.D.'s. Price reflects manufacturer's 1974 increase. You must be over 21 to order.

Soaps Made From Honey, Seaweed, Pure Plant Oils and Clay

For centuries CLAY has been used in beauty products because it is Super Absorbent; it literally "drinks" clogged dirt, impurities and odors, deep-cleans, counteracts over-oiliness, removes blackheads and is naturally deodorant. It Stimulates; clay acts like a light massage, invigorating, tightening, toning and revitalizing. Clay is a Skin Balancer; preserving the skin's natural acid balance and removes harmful bacteria. It is Extra Gentle; clay is said to act with "nature's intelligence," being completely non-abrasive and non-irritant. Clay is used in the marvelous Pierre Cattier beauty products we carry:

Le Gant de Velours

La Rose Rouge

The Corral

Stanley St. Discos

Mount Royal metro station.

Le Palais d'Or (Lorelei), 1226 Stanley Street, is Montreal's largest disco with a huge dance floor. A few years ago it was jammed on weekends—half gay and half straight. New gay discos on Stanley Street have attracted their gay crowd so that now there are only a few gays, mostly at the long bar. $2 admission on weekends and $1 other evenings. Check on this place before going in.

BATHS

Until recent police raids early in 1976 in view of the coming Olympic Games, there was no police infringement and lots of action in the Montreal baths. There still is, but the biggest (the Neptune) is closed at this writing pending the outcome of a court case resulting from a police raid. If the outcome is favorable, the Neptune will be reopened. Meanwhile the Crystal and Colonial Baths, mentioned below, are taking up the slack and operating to capacity. There is lots of action in the baths and they are clean. Even Sunday afternoons are good. Age requirement is 18 up. Phone ahead to make sure your baths is open. The baths are an inexpensive place to sleep.

Neptune Sauna, 456 La Gauchetière West, is the newest and biggest and most popular baths. Opened only a few years ago it has done a great deal to make baths popular with young Montrealers. Being in the heart of town near several universities it's crowded with students. Physical facilities are first-class and include swimming pool, whirlpool bath, dry sauna, steam bath, restaurant and TV room on the ground floor; gym and lockers in the basement and about 125 private rooms on the top two floors. Operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Membership fee of $5 required. The Neptune may have been reopened by the time this article appears in print.

Crystal Baths, 4107 St. Denis Street, is the city's second most popular gay baths. Located in a four-story building it's a short taxi ride ($3) from the downtown gay center, or a few blocks from the Mount Royal metro station. It tends to draw a slightly older crowd than the Neptune. Showers and dry sauna in the basement; lockers, reception, TV room on the first floor; and about 30 private rooms on the upper two floors. Much of the action is in and beside the sauna. Fees are $6 for a room and $5 for a locker. Open 24 hours, 7 days, and to some extent services guys in the area, being located in a residential section populated by many recent immigrants from Europe. With the temporary closing of the Neptune, the Crystal sees lots of action. It's just a few blocks south of the gay Lincoln Tavern and Cafe Lincoln. A few blocks' walk from the Mount Royal metro station.

Colonial Baths, 3963 Colonial Street, is mixed and attracts mature guys. Mostly straight during the day, groups of straights often drop in after working hours—it becomes gay-er as the evening wears on. Tuesday afternoon is ladies day. Originally set up as an old-style steam baths and health club, it was modernized about four years ago. Facilities are excellent, including wet and dry steam baths, a hot water pool and gym. Rooms are $8.50 and lockers $7. Open 24 hours a day on weekends and till 5 a.m. during the week. It's a short taxi ride from Montreal's gay center.

Y.M.C.A., 1441 Drummond Street, offers a pool, sauna, gym and showers free to its guests and for a daily fee of $2.75 to non-residents. They provide towels (25 cents) but you must bring a swim suit. Guys of all ages here, including chicken. Cruising is, of course, good in all facilities. No action; a good place to meet a friend and arrange a rendezvous.

Hebergement Les Quatre Ans, 1581 Mount Royal East, advertises a 24-hour sauna at $5. We did not visit this new spot which could be of interest if other places are closed.

LATE NIGHT SNACKS

After an evening of dancing and drinking many guys go to one of a few inexpensive restaurarants in the wee hours which are open nearly 24 hours a day. These include Briton's Restaurant, 1606 St. Catherine Street West (near the corner of Guy Street); Strato's, 1122 St. Catherine West; and Dunn's, 892 St. Catherine West. Ben's Delicatessen, 990 de Maisonneuve Boulevard West (corner of Metcalfe Street) has been popular with Montrealers of all classes for generations, as well as visiting showbiz people of yesterday for its smoked sandwiches.

EATERIES POPULAR WITH GAYS

A & W Coffee Shop, 1116 St. Catherine West (near corner of Peel Street) is popular with hustlers and young gay guys day and evenings, inside and outside.

One of the best and most reasonably priced lunches or dinners is available at the Peel Pub, 1107 St. Catherine West. Meals served till 8 p.m. (7 p.m. on Saturday). Roast beef is just $1.60. There are always gay guys around.

Le Bogelet, 8406 St. Laurent Boulevard, although primarily straight, does attract gays who love the atmosphere of walls lined with antiques and authentic inexpensive Quebec cuisine served till midnight. Closed Sundays.

The dining room on the first floor of Le Valentin, 291 Mount Royal West, attracts a mixed clientele for dinner and entertainment. Phone ahead to see if in operation.

Rainbow Bar and Grill, 1430 Stanley Street, is popular with the hip set for drinks and meals. About 15% gay, some bisexuals and a sympathetic crowd. Cruising can be fruitful if you fit in. Nice for Sunday brunch. Free feature movies in the back room Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Chess played all the time.

Mike's Submarine Pizza Restaurant, 1420 Peel Street, is a popular meeting place for P.J.'s young clientele early in the evening before they go upstairs to P.J.'s Cabaret.

Mazurka, 33 Prince Arthur

Street (about two blocks east of Carre St. Louis Park on St. Denis Street) is a Polish restaurant popular with students as well as gay guys because of its good inexpensive food (about $2) and informal atmosphere where anything goes, including a warm embrace from at least one of its gay waiters. (Sherbrooke metro station).

RESTAURANTS

Aside from sex, one of the greatest attractions in Montreal is dining at one of its hundreds of foreign restaurants. There are restaurants of just about all nationalities; most are small, inexpensive, and the food tastes as if it were made in a private home. These excellent restaurants are run by people who have emigrated to Montreal since World War II. In many cases you get the native dishes just as they were made in the old country.

There's a good selection of these restaurants on Stanley, Drummond, Mountain and Crescent Streets on the block between St. Catherine Street East on St. Laurent Boulevard, and to the west (St. Laurent metro station). Priced menus are posted in all windows, so near meal times, as an appetizer, walk along at least one of the above-mentioned streets, reading the menus and savoring the exotic odors filtering out the cracks in the front doors and make your choice.

We strongly recommend that you make preparations in advance by reading up on Montreal's restaurants by purchasing a copy of "Guide To Dining Out In Montreal" which reviews over 270 restaurants, indexing them by price and ethnic cuisine and rating them in simple terms. Send $3.95 to Optimum Publishing Co., Ltd., P.O. Box 4090, Place d'Armes, Montreal, P.Q. Canada H2Y 3M1. There is a good but limited listing of restaurants in the excellent guide book "Montreal Inside Out."

at one of the many good first-class hotels. All are downtown within easy walking distance of gay clubs, taverns, bars, cruising spots, restaurants, and the main shopping center. It is advisable to make reservations during the summertime.

The Inn, 1070 MacKay Street (878-9393) has a very friendly, family-like, homey atmosphere in its TV lounge on the first floor, with easy conversation and cruising. Mainly young English-speaking guys, some of whom stay there on a long-time basis and work in Montreal. The Inn's 26 rooms on 3 floors have double or two single beds, running water, TV and telephone. Several bathrooms with shower and bath on each floor. Free parking facilities. Daily rates are $12 for a single; $16 double. Special reduced weekly/monthly rates. In a quiet residential area, this is a good place to go if you want a room for only an hour or so. Beer is available at the grocery store just across the street. A few blocks walk to the gay bars on Stanley Street.

The Bristol Inn, 1657 Saint Denis Street (845-4324) is a small European-style inn housed in a 120 year-old three-story French-Canadian home of the Victorian period. It's located a half block from the Berri de Montigny metro station and the Voyageur bus station. Saint Denis Street might be called the "Left Bank" area of Montreal and within a few blocks' walk of The Bristol Inn there are more than three dozen restaurants, cafe-terraces, bars, as well as several movie theaters, book shops, art galleries and assorted Bohemian boutiques frequented by some of the city's hip set. It's a lovely area to walk in day or night. The nearby metro or bus line will whiz you to the gay downtown area in a few minutes. The Bristol has been serving gay guys for only a few years. Each of its 12 rooms have different wallpaper and a color coordinated wall-to-wall shag carpet. All rooms have running hot and cold water and TV. Two rooms have private shower, and the other rooms have access to bathrooms on each floor. Free continental breakfast served in TV lounge. Beer and wine can be kept in the Bristol's refrigerator. Free parking. Rates are $6 per person based on double occupancy in the smaller rooms, to $10 per person double occupancy in the two large double rooms with shower. Two small single rooms are available at $9 per day. From November 1 to April 15 there is a reduction of 20% on the above rates.

YMCA, 1441 Drummond Street, offers single rooms with lavatory at $15 a day as well as deluxe carpeted doubles with TV at $24 per day. Very clean and friendly, with part of the university located next door. Right now the best action is on the ninth floor and to some extent the tenth and eleventh. There is no visiting between floors. Great cruising in the pool, showers, sauna and gym, all of which are free to residents but available to non-residents at $2.75 per day. The john on the main floor and cafeteria, open to all, are also cruised.

Auberge Chez Bebert, 4111 Saint Denis Street (845-3761) in the vicinity of the Crystal Baths offers gays 15 rooms. Singles are $10 to $20 and doubles $12 to $25. Bathrooms on every floor; a few rooms have private baths. Mount Royal metro station.

FIRST-CLASS HOTELS

A few of the large first-class hotels in downtown Montreal within walking distance of most gay bars are mentioned here. Self-service elevators in most of them make it easy to bring in young guests unnoticed. The airport bus stops at all of them.

Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel, 1455 Peel Street, is just a stone's throw from St. Catherine Street West and the Peel Pub and right across the street from P.J.'s, the take-out chicken club. Built in 1922, it's about the best of the old first-class hotels in the area with a spacious high-ceilinged lobby and bar in its center. Students looking for a friend like to sit in the lobby. The Peel metro station is just below. Singles are $31-$33 and doubles $35-40. There are 1015 rooms. Highly recommended and is

Hotel Bonaventure, Place Bonaventure, features a heated outdoor pool in attractive surroundings high up in the building. Self-service elevators whiz you down to Place Bonaventure, the cruisy (chicken) shopping center below, and the Bonaventure metro station. $47-$52 for a single and $57-$65 for a double. 400 rooms.

Queen Elizabeth Hotel, 900 Dorchester Street West, is a convention hotel that opened in 1959. It is situated on top of the C.N. Railway Station and the cruisy Place Ville Marie underground shopping center. An underground passage connects it with Place Bonaventure and the Bonaventure metro station. Singles are $44-$49; doubles $51-$59; 1100 rooms.

Chateau Champlain, Place du Canada, is a tall, narrow hotel of 36 stories completed in 1967. Its 614 deluxe rooms start at $44 single; $54 double. Royalty sleeps here.

Windsor Hotel, 1170 Peel Street, opened in 1878 and still is elegant and first-class with enormous high-ceilinged rooms and walk-in closets at $30 for a single and $39 for a double.

Ritz Carlton, 1228 Sherbrooke Street West, situated on fashionable Sherbrooke Street West, is Montreal's grandest hotel; $38-$53 for a single and $53-$57 for a double. 300 rooms.

Hotel de LaSalle, 1240 Drummond Street, is a second-class but clean and comfortable hotel. Elevators are run by hotel staff. Rates are $18-$20 single; $24-$26 for a double; 185 rooms.

GAY INFORMATION

Gay Info telephone service is ready to help gay guys with personal problems or data on gay bars, discos and saunas in Montreal. Operates Monday through Friday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Phone 288-1101.

Gayline provides aid by telephone to gays seven days a week from 7-11 each evening. Call 931-8686 or 931-5330.

MAGAZINES & BOOKS

There are no porno magazine shops in Montreal. There is, however, a good selection of the latest soft-core gay magazines and pocket books along with probably one of the largest selections of straight magazines from North America and Europe at Tabagie Laval, 826 St. Catherine Street East. Gay pocket books and picture books at rear of store. Gay periodicals are dispersed throughout the store. A few books from the Beaudry metro station. Open evenings.

A limited selection of best-selling non-porno, gay, hard-cover and pocket books, as well as Gay Lib publications are available at Librairie Androgynie Alternatives, 1217 Crescent Street (866-2131). The shop opens late and stays open till 9 p.m.

SEX TOYS

For your needs in the latest sex toys try National Sexe Boutique, 723 Mount Royal East; Le Salon Erotique Priope Enr., 1661 St. Catherine East; or Sex Shop, 1455 Crescent Street.

FLOWERS

If you need flowers for any occasion try gay-owned Fleuriste La Patrie, 168 St. Catherine Street East (861-8471). Jean Yves, the shop's friendly owner, will be happy to fill your needs, including delivery, and would be glad to answer questions you may have on gay Montreal. Open seven days a week.

GAY CAMPING GROUND

If you visit Montreal during the hot summer months, take a drive out to the nearby gay camping ground Domaine Plein Vent; it's only an hour's drive (45 miles) from Montreal. Plein Vent is without doubt the best summer camping ground for gay males (18 and over) in Canada. It's run by gay guys for gay guys on a simple, friendly, inexpensive basis. Most of the guys are from Montreal or Quebec City, but visitors come from as far as Ontario and the Eastern United States. Plein Vent is equipped to receive 40 trailers. On hot summer weekends nearly 400 guys may be there housed in some 40 private trailers (many are parked there for the entire summer), about 80 tents, and the few cabins and rooms owned by the camping ground.

During 1976 a new hard-working management took over and made vast improvements, so that the place now has a good restaurant serving everything from hamburgers through steaks till midnight (3 a.m. weekends); a huge enclosed dance floor, and game room with pool table and jukebox; a large pool with new Ph-filtration system; and a new building to house some of the best toilet and shower facilities (lots of hot water) to be found in any camping ground in Canada. There are even washing machines.

Rates are modest, and visitors of all color, race and nationalities are made to feel at home. The crowd is friendly (many new friendships have been made here and carried on through the winter months), mostly in the 20-45 age bracket, and a fair number are from the professions. While there are a good number of couples, there are lots of easy-to-meet single guys and plenty of lovely forest for action. There are many informal get-togethers for drinks, a meal or a chat. Everybody at one time or another joins in the almost continuous informal game of volleyball which goes on all day long; golfing on a nearby course. Different activities are planned for each weekend (weekends draw the biggest crowds) and, of course, there are lots of dances. Beer and groceries are available at the nearby town of Upton. You can keep beer or wine cool in the big refrigerator in the camping ground's restaurant.

The camping ground has only a few cabins and rooms (they are planning to build some motel-type units) so if you do not have your own tent or trailer it is advisable to write or call ahead for reservations. Write Domaine Plein Vent, Box 26, Station K, Montreal, P.Q., Canada H1N 2K9, or call 1-514-549-4313 or 352-3381. Over 850 people paid the yearly membership fee of $5 in 1976.

To reach Domaine Plein Vent, take Highway 20 on the south shore of the St. Lawrence River eastward from Montreal and exit 45 miles later at Exit (Sortie) 90, heading south on highway 16 for 5.7 miles when you will reach the small town of Upton. Stock up on beer here. Continue on through Upton for 4 miles on Highway 32 (crossing the railway tracks) and take a right turn going straight for 1.8 miles to the end of the road. Turn right and go for 0.6 miles on a gravel road and you will arrive at the gate of the camping ground.

Gay Hawaii

The World's No. 1 Tropical Playground

By George Desantis

It was my intention that Hawaii be featured in this edition of Ciao!—but our articles on San Francisco and Montreal are so extensive in their coverage that we simply do not have the pages that would be needed to cover Hawaii too—a comprehensive article that has 60 illustrations.

Hawaii will be covered in detail next month in the August 1977 edition of QQ Magazine. For those of you planning to visit the Islands this summer, or who are working up a winter vacation, the article will be in time to help make your stay even more enjoyable.

Most Ciao! readers also know QQ Magazine—and it would be unfair to publish the same article on Hawaii in both magazines. But many Ciao! readers do not know QQ Magazine—and it would not be fair of us to deny them some valuable tips on doing Hawaii. So we have decided to present the pertinent facts concerning the gay scene in this issue—and these will help you decide whether you really want to know more . . . in which case I urge you to see the detailed report in the August 1977 edition of QQ Magazine out in June.

GAY HAWAII

Most vacationers fly to the island of Oahu and stay put—because that's where beautiful Waikiki is . . . and Waikiki is where it's at. A beautiful beach. Great hotels. Good shopping. Lots to do from morning to night—including guys, guys and more guys . . . mostly surfer types from California. There's no need to venture out—but if you must, there is a great shopping complex about five minutes away; downtown Honolulu has some spectacular new government buildings and a small street teeming with the military and merchant seamen . . . and dozens of porno shops—about 10 minutes by cab from Waikiki; the University of Hawaii, also about 10 minutes by cab—for glory holes filled with students; and, of course, the sights and memories Pearl Harbor has—about 20 minutes by cab.

You will want to visit the Outer Islands of Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai for their natural wonders, at least once. This can be done by small plane in a day—or in three days by allowing one day to each island. Gay life is limited outside of Waikiki and Honolulu.

OAHU

Bars in the Waikiki section are:

Blow Hole, 124 Kapahulu St. It's not that popular but it's the closest bar to the gay section of Waikiki Beach—which means it's a good stop to make in the late afternoon on your way back to the hotel. The place gets an older crowd most of the time.

Hula's, 2103 Kuhio Ave. In the heart of Waikiki and very popular. This disco is gay but you'll see a lot of straights making the scene every night. Like most discos—it isn't a good place for cruising . . . except in the afternoons around 4 or 5 when the beach crowd stops by. Mostly outdoors—Hula's is under a huge banyan tree.

Tomato, 240 McCully St. There's dancing here, too—but the cruising is better because of the layout. Very popular and just a couple of blocks from Hula's.

There's entertainment also.

As we go to press a new bar is supposed to be opening, across from the Ilikai Hotel. It's called Under Construction—and only time will tell of its success.

Bars just outside of Waikiki and in Honolulu proper are:

Cocktail Center, 435 Atkinson Dr. Not a great favorite with tourists. Guys on one side, lesbians on the other.

Glade Show Bar, 152 N. Hotel St. This is Honolulu's porno street—and the Glade features drag queens. The crowd is a mixture of gay tourists, straight gawkers, and curious seamen who really don't know what they are and why they are turned on by the performers.

Question Mark, 43 S. Beretania St. Near N. Hotel St. and very seedy. Older buyers and young sellers, mostly. It's practically across the street from the Armed Forces YMCA (see below).

Gay films are shown in two theatres:

Lavender Fox, 478 Ena Rd., in Waikiki. Typical flicks, a live sex show (skinny, untalented, lacklustre adolescents for the most part), and a dark "lounge" that has curtained stalls with glory holes. There are always a few goodlookers in the audience to make your visit worthwhile. Admission is $5 at all times.

Risque, 32 N. Hotel St. This small theatre is in the rear of a gay porno bookstore that also has peep show stalls (action is possible). The flicks are bad and the crowd is a mixture of older gays and closet seamen who sneak in for a look—and a blow job in the dark room behind the screen. Admission is $5.

There is a gay baths in Waikiki—and it's good. The Steam Works is at 307 Lewers St., on the second floor. Open 24 hours a day and always busy. Tourists. Locals. Military stationed in the area. Lockers are $2 and rooms are $5. Very modern and clean. Carpeting and subdued lighting throughout. Rock music plays continuously. There's a porno movie room as well as a TV lounge and everything else you'd expect to find at a good baths—including a dark orgy room that is parti-tioned like a maze. Everybody seems to make out—if nowhere else . . . in the dark corners of the group/grope room.

A new baths called the Roxy is supposed to be opening soon. It will have four floors of excitement . . . so the advance notices claim.

Meeting places include the gay section of Waikiki Beach—at the Diamond Head end . . . known as Queen's Surf. The dressing room in the structure that houses the food concession (next to the Aquarium) is where it's at—and outside on the sand and the lawn under the palm trees.

Action spots include the change room on the beach known as the "A-frame"—opposite the new Hyatt Hotel; the john is cruised day and night—but the action is mostly at night. Watch out for hustlers.

The john in the Queen's Surf change room is used at night. So are the dark corners around the building.

The john in the Outrigger Hotel—in the arcade opposite International Market on the main drag (Kalakua Ave.) is cruised and used . . . late at night when the bars start to empty.

On Kalakua Ave., between Lewers St. and Kalaimoku St. you'll find three peep show arcades; they're all cruised. The most popular is the one next to National Car Rental. It gets a lot of gay guys—who make it with one another and with curious studs who come in to see the straight flicks. Lots of action on the spot—especially in the late afternoon and early morning hours after midnight. Here a quarter goes a l-o-n-g way.

Outside of Waikiki, in the direction of downtown Honolulu, is the vast Ala Moana Shopping Center. The john near the Byron II restaurant is cruised all day long—and by some beauties too. It's watched and doing things on the spot is dangerous—so meet and go elsewhere. The Byron II is on the ocean side, Diamond Head end. At the other end—cross the street and you'll be at 404 Piikoi St. This is a low frame structure that houses various retail stores (Records Hawaii, for example) on the ground floor and assorted businesses on the second landing. Go up the stairs on the ocean end and there you'll find a john. There's a glory hole between the end stall and the urinals—and it is used all day long, especially around noon hour. Locals, mainly—mostly Portuguese and Japanese. It's not that active but there's enough to keep anybody happy—and some great contacts are possible.

In Honolulu proper the john in the Armed Forces YMCA, downtown, is cruised until it closes to the public at 7 P.M. Some action but it's usually dull. The Aloha Tower is a landmark; it's where cruise ships have been picking up and dropping off passengers for years—and it is here that you will board a hydrofoil if you decide to do the Outer Islands by sea. The ships owned by the Pacific Far East Line dock at Pier 10; at its entrance is a john that is heavily cruised when ships are in port. Otherwise, it's cruised by locals all day long but it's best at noon hour. If it's too busy to make out on the spot (and that goes on all the time) there's a quiet john over in the passageway leading to Pier 9.

Start out in Waikiki and go towards the mountains and you will come to the Manoa section (about 10 minutes by cab because the route isn't direct). The University of Hawaii is here—and two buildings are cruised day and night. George Hall has two active johns—one on the main floor (go right as you enter) and one on the 3rd floor (leaving the john on the main floor, turn right, then left and walk to the stairway in the rear). There are four stalls in the downstairs john and the last partition has a glory hole. The upstairs john has only two stalls—and a connecting glory hole. Very active—and the university doesn't seem to mind at all . . . because the house dicks are never around. The other active john is in Sinclair Library, downstairs. Anybody can enter the building (you're only checked on the way out, for books); there's a glory hole between the end stalls on the urinals side. And it's used too.

Concerning the Outer Islands you will likely visit:

HAWAII

Hawaii has as its main attraction Volcanoes National Park. If you score on this island just call it luck.

MAUI

Maui boasts a beautiful valley (the interior of an extinct volcano big enough to accommodate the island of Manhattan!) and a beautiful stretch of beach (Kanaapali)—which is where the great hotels are. Here you'll also find a shopping complex called Whaler's Village; the john is sometimes cruised. A short distance north, towards the airport, is Honokowai Beach Park; the john opposite the Honokowai Superette is cruised . . . it has a good glory hole. Go a short distance south and you'll be in Lahaina, an old whaling town—sort of the Hawaiian version of Provincetown—and here you'll find a shopping complex built around a courtyard called the Lahaina Market Place; the john is cruised. The john in another shopping complex, Whaler's Market Place, is also cruised lightly. Drive southeast and you'll come to the end of the sea road. Park and walk the short distance to Makena Beach—where nudism is legal. Mostly straights, but very hip and action in the bushes is possible. Maui is teeming with surfer types from California—as well as a lot of free-wheeling guys from every state in the union . . . so don't be surprised if things are a bit commercial.

KAUAI

On Kauai use the beach at the Kauai Surf Hotel. It's where the crowd goes—and if anybody gay is around you'll connect here. If you visit Coco Palms—a resort north of Lihue—check out the public john; it has a good glory hole.

This, then, in a nutshell, is Gay Hawaii—the most magical tropical playground in all the world. Visit our 50th state just once—and you'll kiss other wintertime places goodbye forever!

1977 GAY TRAVEL DIRECTORY

From The Editors Of Ciao!—The Most Celebrated Gay Travel Magazine In The World—A 1977 International Travel Directory Containing Nearly 4,000 Up-To-Date And Accurate Keyed Names And Addresses Of Gay Hotels, Bars, Baths, Movie Houses, Book/Sex Shops, Meeting Places And Action Spots Throughout The U.S.A., Canada, Mexico, Central America, The Caribbean, South America, Europe, Africa, The Middle East, Asia, And The Pacific . . . Your Passport To Gay Adventure In A Compact Booklet Small Enough To Fit In Your Pocket!

THE MOST ACCURATE GAY TRAVEL DIRECTORY IN THE WORLD

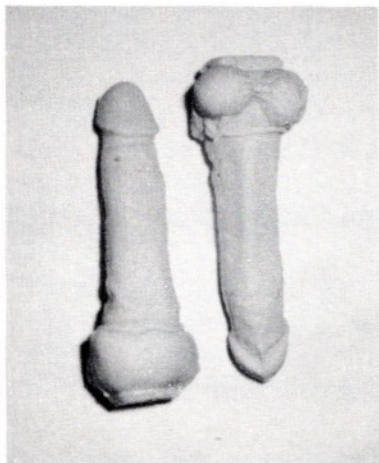

Nearly all existing gay travel directories are "rip-offs" of guides published years ago—providing information which is no longer valid. The editors of our gay travel magazine span the world—constantly gathering information for Ciao! They have prepared our 1977 gay travel directory—which we call "Private Stock." It contains nearly 4,000 accurate and up-to-date names and addresses of gay establishments and meeting places everywhere in the world—conveniently arranged by country and city in alphabetical order. By utilizing a concise system of "keys" we are able to present detailed information about each listing; the keys are so arranged that you can instantly interpret them and learn everything you need to know—whether a place is entirely gay, what you will encounter—young guys, old guys, sex, no booze, entertainment, food, lesbians, hustlers, muggers, cops, even dangerous animals (in jungle meat-racks!). And we dare to bare it all—including johns on college campuses, in subways and department stores that swing. By using small type which is easy to read we are able to cram all this valuable information in a compact booklet which is securely stapled together in magazine form and small enough (3x5) to fit in your shirt pocket. Its cover is durable and leather-grained with absolutely no "tell-tale" printing so that discreet travelers can use it anywhere. Plus other features such as where to look for sex in college towns, and how much hustlers are paid—and how to handle them. Published annually—"Private Stock" is the only gay travel directory you need . . . the only one you will ever want. It is your personal address book for hot times! Sent via certified 1st class.

The STROKER SYSTEM

With VARIABLE SUCTION CONTROL

by Funways®

Incredible Breakthrough!
only $39<sup>95</sup>
Delivered

- Gives TOTAL, 360° massaging contact for stimulation more like conventional sex than hand masturbation.
- Suction Control imitates the natural suction created by vaginal, anal and oral copulation. Constructed of solid brass with moving parts of stainless steel.
- Manual operation -- take it anywhere!
- Functions in any position -- on your back, as in masturbation, or your stomach, as in conventional intercourse.
- Lifelike suction and TOTAL massaging coverage will take you to a "SUPER NATURAL" orgasm!
- Special muffling circuit for quiet, discreet operation.
- Complete with Male Sleeve to your exact size, variable Suction Control, connecting tube, lubricant and easy to follow instructions.

(Patent Pending)

For the ULTIMATE in pleasure from self-stimulation. The STROKER is a genuine, form-fit ACCU-JAC® sleeve of soft, pliant materials. It is specially designed to imitate the naturally fleshy membranes of human sexuality, completely surrounding the penis with massaging contact. The STROKER Sleeve actually surpasses the sensations of hand manipulation many times over, because of this complete coverage. It gives orgasms similar to the automatic ACCU-JAC® appliances, except you apply the motion.

For an added dimension, the variable Suction Control gives SUPER erotic sensations, very closely resembling the natural suction created by vaginal, anal and oral sex! Now, the best of hand manipulation and copulation are combined for a TOTAL orgasm -- one like you've never had from simple masturbation.

In addition, the STROKER System can be used in virtually any position. Operate it while laying on your back and sitting, as you would masturbate. Or lay on your side and stomach, thrusting your body as in conventional intercourse! If you enjoy erotica, turn the pages at your leisure with both hands free.

The STROKER System operates as fast or slow as you wish, with suction that is variable throughout the entire speed range. For "tighter" sensations, such as in anal sex, add suction. This causes the sleeve to tighten around the penis. Decrease the Suction Control a little for oral stimulation or "looser" sex. Decrease it further for incredibly lifelike vaginal sensations. With all suction off, the STROKER resembles masturbation -- except for the superior massaging coverage. During orgasm, all semen collects inside the Sleeve. A short length of tube is conveniently disassembled near the Sleeve tip for easy cleaning.

You'll wonder how you ever got along without the STROKER.

THE GEMINI 18 can be used as a "single" by those who like length—or a "double" by two at the same time. Flesh-like, flesh-colored solid rubber over 18" long and better than 2" in diameter. Molded from life, very realistic. Over 2 lbs. of springy rubber. Completely washable. (A tip for the economy-minded: It can be divided in half by cutting, for two good-sized singles.) Sold as a novelty to adults only (please state you are over 21). Sent via insured parcel post in a large, plainly-marked box.

CARIBBEAN GAY GUIDE

The December 1975 C!ao! is devoted entirely to the Gay Caribbean—including The Yucatan. Also covered are the Bahamas and Bermuda. Puerto Rico is the main feature—and gay life on 25 other Caribbean islands is exposed. Find out about little-known male brothels and where the sun shines bright on gay vacationers. This issue is virtually an Official Guide to the Gay Caribbean and because places change slowly on the Islands the information will remain valid for years. If you are a wintertime vacationer—send for a copy now. Supply is limited. Specify issue by date when ordering. Only $3.50 a copy in the U.S.A., $4.50 in Canada and Mexico, $5.00 elsewhere.
