CRUISING THE STARS

by Mike Voss

For June 23rd - June 29th

CANCER
(June 22 - July 21)
Be aware of being pursued. You may be everyone's romantic target this week. Not all are suitable partnership material. Best love aspects are on the 27th & 29th. On the 26th & 28th, play all business hunches & win.

LEO
(July 22 - Aug. 21)
Success comes this week from behind the scenes. Business plans should not be announced just yet. After the 25th, go public. Love life looks complicated on both the 23rd & 24th. Love triangles could blow up in your face. Domestic issues favored on the 28th. Career pursuits find helping hands on the 29th. Strength, position & financial resources are offered. Don't pass this one up.

VIRGO
(Aug. 22 - Sept. 22)
Renew social bonds this week. Take time for old friends . . . you've been working too hard. Romantic entanglements look great on the 24th & 25th. Attend social functions for best results. On the 26th, avoid excesses & embarrassment simultaneously. Marriage proposals come out of the blue on the 27th. Not a bad match either. Honors from friends on both the 28th & 29th fill emotional banks.

LIBRA
(Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)
Career opportunities should be siezed all week. Get up early & stay up late. Work hard & you'll be monetarily rewarded for a change. Love life may play second fiddle, which is unusual for you. Let others grant you favors. Enjoy.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)
Business efforts can pay off big this week. For those of you who have not given up under pressure, it is now the time to enjoy the fruits of your labor. Love life is charmed on the 24th & 25th. Business & legal affairs are blessed on the 28th & 29th.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)
Friends & business ventures couple together this week for profit. Travel over the weekend confuses romantic issues. Make up your mind. On the 25th & 26th, promotions available. New loves march into your life on the 27th. On the 28th, finances are finagled in your favor. Domestic concerns & love blend well on the 29th.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)
Marriage may consume your thoughts all week. Some of you will no doubt accomplish this task. Career depends on public image through the 26th. This should be no problem. Financial snags could blow up into emotional storms on the 28th. Others seem unwilling to yield. On the 29th, tie love knots successfully. Career may be involved or changed.

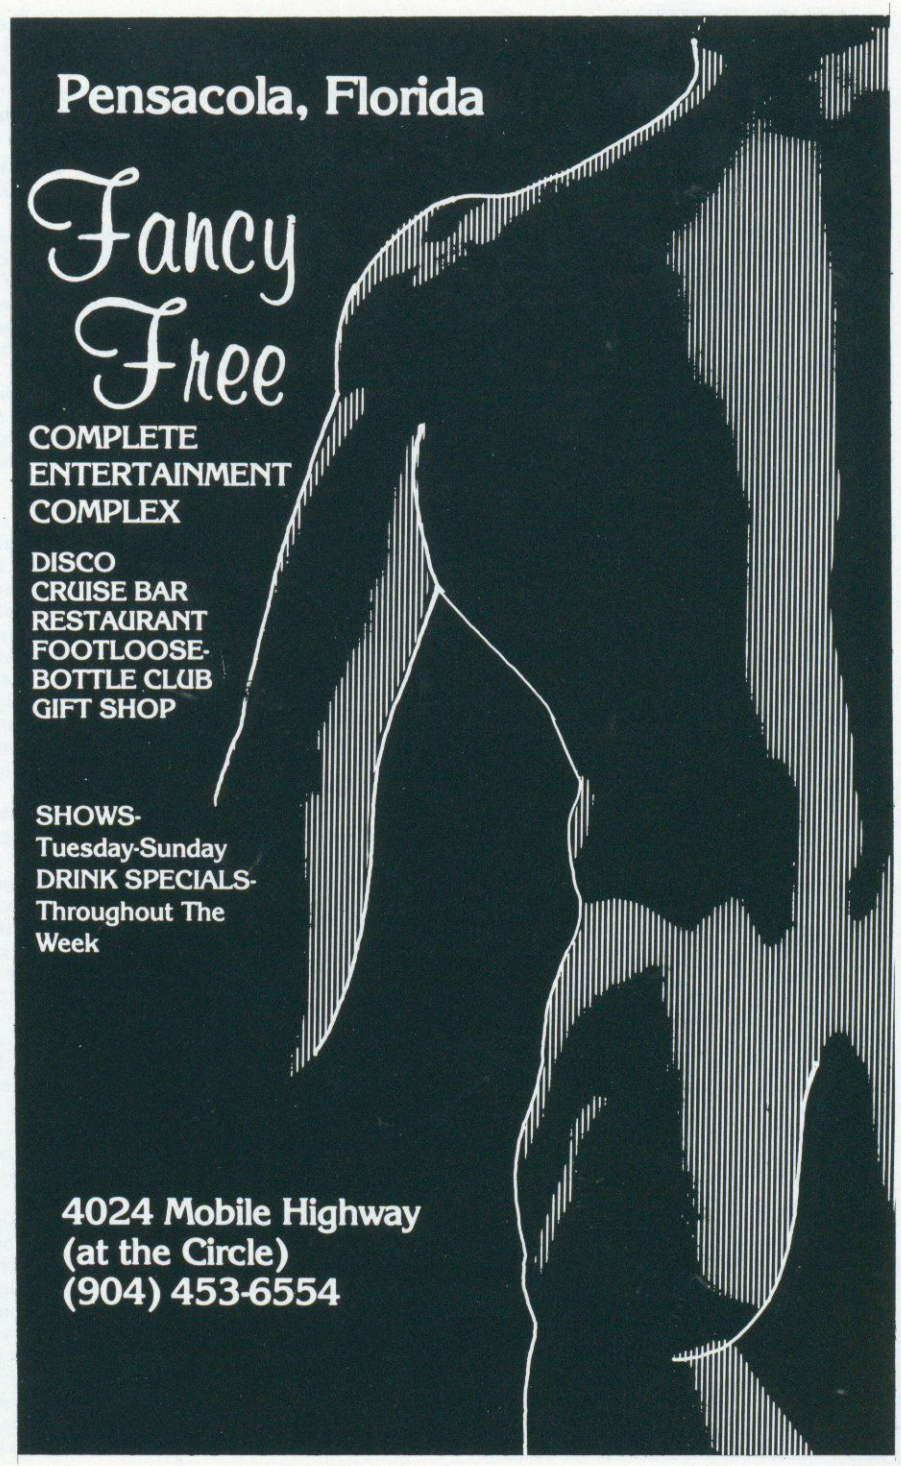

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Health issues may delay or complicate weekend plans. Don't panic; you're alright. On the 25th, friends offer terrific business solutions. Love & romance accompany social functions on the 26th & 27th. New loves sprout. On the 28th, career moves are advantageous. On the 29th, they are profitable.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - March 20)
Hopefully love finds you at home this week. Harmonious relations with others may have to do with long-awaited domestic changes. On the 23rd & 24th, travel looks romantic. Business & career plans get green lights on both the 26th & 27th. On the 29th, fall in love again. You've always enjoyed repeats. Go for it.

ARIES
(March 21 - April 19)
Domestic concerns may zap much of your energy this week. Secrets play important role in romance on the 23rd & 24th. Love is exciting but fleeting on the 25th. Domestic issues & romance tie nicely on the 26th & 27th. Partnerships may have a monetary foundation all week. After the 28th, finances should come in easier.

TAURUS
(April 20 - May 20)
Travel, communication & relatives may consume a great deal of energy this week. Romantic vibrations are on a high on the 24th & 25th. Stable partners are in abundance. On the 26th, businesses can be successfully launched as necessary monies are now available. Travel after the 28th is a must. Love accompanies all journeys.

GEMINI
(May 21 - June 21)
Career changes come this week through lucky connections. On the 23rd & 24th, accept all social invitiations. Something very good awaits. Friction with mate or partner on the 24th stems from excess affection not lavished in their direction. New loves tempting on the 26th. Travel fever runs high. On the 26th, business solutions are wrapped up in romance. Money & creativity combine for bigger buckos on both the 28th & 29th.

DEAR DIAMOND LIL

Do we have any gay pride? Self pride? Any pride? Are we feeling free as a community? As gay men or women? Or, just as a person? Do some of us feel that "freedom is just another word for nothing left to lose?" Some of us may be feeling that without absolute freedom everything else is lost. Now, Kitty-Belle, please tell me you're going to get off your duffs "before the parade passes you by" and do your share to improve our community. Do something/anything positive during Gay Pride Week that will make you and others feel better about themselves. In the meantime, won't you please help Miss Diamond feel a little better by dropping me a special note to Dear Diamond Lil, c/o Cruise Weekly, 729 Piedmont Ave. NE, Atlanta, GA 30308.
P.S. I love you all.

Dear Diamond Lil,

I really must take issue with the letter from "Already Free and Knowing It" which appeared in your column in No. 23 of Cruise. I don't know what world the author lives in, claiming that there is no discrimination against homosexuals in Atlanta and that they are treated the same as straights, but it certainly isn't mine or that of most gay Atlantans.

For example:

Until recently, I worked at a job where anyone known to be a homosexual was told that he/she would never have any advancement in his/her career. This was for all gays, not just those who ". . . flaunt it before the non-gays . . .," as the author seems to believe. I have had other friends at other jobs who have been told the same thing.

I have a friend who resembles "Already Free" in some ways: He works for a conservative company that knows he is gay, is relatively quiet, and does not flaunt his homosexuality. Recently, his landlord discovered that my friend was gay, and he immediately asked him to move, refusing to renew his lease. I know of other gay couples who have been refused housing.

Soon after I moved to Atlanta, I was stopped and beaten up by two policemen who suspected that I might be gay. No, I was not drunk; no, I do not use drugs; and no, I wasn't in drag or dressed strangely (as a matter of fact, I'm rather straight in appearance). I have a friend who was attacked on the street; when he reported the incident to the police, their reply was, "Well, you people expect this, don't you!"

The Gay Pride March is one way of educating people— to show them that we have hopes, dreams, and ideals just as straights do, and that we are proud of who and what we are.

Already free? Hardly! Honey, wake up and smell the coffee.

Still a Concerned Gay Citizen

Dear "Gay Citizen,"

What a timely message! Thank you very much for your feedback concerning an earlier letter in the Weekly.

Yes, there is a large number of us who have had difficulties in the community (including Miss Diamond); and then there are those of us who have not. There are those of us who speak out, and then there are those of us who are silent. By the way, I appreciate very much your point of view, Sweetheart.

Yours in love and peace,
Diamond Lil

P.S. Be sure and pick up my new album at the record shop. I think you'll particularly enjoy "Jailhouse Jezebel."

Dear Diamond Lil,

I read your column every week and actually look forward to it. More than just enjoying it I learn from it and believe that your care and concern are very real. I feel that your sharing of experience, strength and hope does the gay community more good than you know, and obviously, more good than all of the "trash" that's printed in the Atlanta gay community's so called "news media." Perhaps some of our local "publishers" should take a look at some of the other gay print media; The Washington D.C. Blade being just one good example of print available in other cities of comparable size to Atlanta. Of course, I realize that the gay community that doesn't need or want to organize probably doesn't need a viable gay press either. I'm sure that Mr. "Already Free" figures that as long as other gays here and elsewhere (mostly elsewhere) organize and get things done that he and his friends can happily sit on their bar stools or boogie their buns off, remain complacent and still reap the benefit of others' blood, sweat and tears. It this is true, all he needs to read or be informed about are the little pieces of questionable humor, and the big news about specials, parties and pageants at the local watering holes, as well as photos of what is going on in this bar or that, or this guy tends bar here; all of which look alike, from week to week.

I agree that parties, specials, etc. are fun and are a definite part of life. But sitting on a bar stool or resting on someone's else's laurels doesn't work forever. Listen to some of our local preachers and hate mongers. Tune into Dr. Jerry Falwell, experience his organization as it lobbies local, state and federal government and do nothing. Atlanta's problems haven't begun yet! These people are serious and dangerous! If we want the specials, parties, pageants and great fun raft race weekends, we'd better start doing something to safeguard them right here in Atlanta.

Just a few examples: Atlanta, a major gay city, can't even keep a strong, gay community center going or help it pay for a full-time executive director. Atlanta, has pitifully small gay pride marches, usually held away from people— never a march route where it will be seen. Atlanta's mayor refuses to sign a gay pride week proclamation (check other cities on this).

Several other cities have strong community centers. Other cities have fund raisers for gay pride week and at least two other cities have community centers who, working in conjunction with the gay bar owners associations or tavern guilds have gotten each gay bar to donate 5 to 10% of their proceeds for one week night and one weekend night to be pooled into an escrow account to help fund gay pride week, and the community center has put change cannisters in all bars for the patrons to drop a dime, quarter or other change to supplement gay pride funds. In Atlanta? . . . you tell me! Do we have a bar owners' association? I hope I haven't offended anyone. We do have concerned community leaders here. What we and they don't have is what they NEED—a concerned community!

Sign me,
Disgusted but Hopeful
Is it true what they say about Dixie?

Dear "Disgusted,"

What a letter! What viewpoints! Thank you so much for airing your feelings about our community and for your beautiful compliments about this column. People, like you, have to speak up if they want to get things done, and I'm mighty glad you did!

In answer to your question concerning a bar owners association, Atlanta has the Business and Professional Guild, whose membership includes gay professionals, retail and tavern businesses and the people who own and run them, and I'm mighty glad you did!

Peace and Love,
Diamond Lil

Confidential to L.C.: Watch for your letter, coming up soon.
Fans & Flagilators: Diamond Lil "live" with the High Energy Explosion Band will be making a very important appearance at the Moonshadow Saloon, 1880 Johnson Road, Dial 881-MOON, on Wednesday night, June 27th at 9:30 and 11:30pm. Be sure and circle the date on your calendar now!

Editor's Note: After attempts at starting "news"papers in Atlanta, i.e. The Barb, The Gazette, The Great Speckled Bird, CruiseNews, et al., none of which could find the support needed to continue, another news magazine, Pulse, is coming our way. Atlanta does need a viable news source and we need to give them our support.

THE LISTING ATTIC

By now the whole world is familiar with the handkerchief/key signals that tell other people what one is into sexually. It's interesting to note that women have gotten into the game and have developed their own catalogue of outward visual signs and accoutrement. However, as any discipline goes along, it evolves as individuals develop new ideas that catch on. I feel that it is my duty as a columnist to alert my readers to the au courant. The following are some of the new wrinkles:

Yellow Handkerchief in Left Pocket: Means that the person had rather be pissed off than pissed on.

Red Handkerchief in Left Pocket: Means that the person was pissed on and is pissed off.

Chain Stuck up the Ass, Dragging Floor: Means that the person lives in an apartment building with wool hall carpets, and gets the bugle beads blown off their levi jacket from the static electricity everytime they stick their key in the door.

Long Leather Billfold sticking out of Pocket in Hustler Bar: Means the person is about to get fucked.

Madras Handkerchief in Back Right Pocket: This person is into curry farts.

Welcome Mat in Back Pocket: This person would like for you to come again.

Place Mat in Back Pocket: This person is dieting and would like for you to come for dinner. (Let's face it, it won't be very filling).

Red Handkerchief around Neck: This is not actually a sex signal. This individual is probably hiding chafe marks from a chastity belt.

Hamburger under each Arm: Probably just a waiter keeping the food warm for a customer.

Hot Dog between Legs: Don't eat it no matter how neat he looks.

Chop Sticks in Back Pocket: Don't go home with him..He'll just pick at it.

Tape Measure in Back Pocket: Probably a mortician.

Trout in Back Pocket: Means they like to do it on a waterbed stocked with live fish.

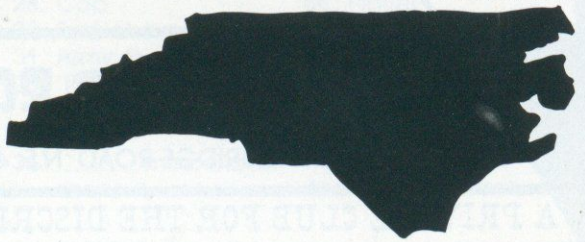

Picture of John Travolta in Back Pocket: Don't bother. This individual is totally into fantasies and can't deal with the real world.

Picture of Diamond Lil in Back Pocket: This is a very real person; if that's what you're looking for.

MARKET PLACE

VIDEO LIBRARY

Whether you have a craving for a special movie, or are just tired of the viewing selection offered by commercial television, the Video Library may be the place for you. With over 450 titles in stock to choose from, you should have no trouble finding just the film to suit your mood.

Louie Spetrini opened the Library only a year and a half ago with the idea of bringing the best and most efficient video rental system possible to the gay community, and in that short time, nearly five hundred members have found the service to be just that.

Offering not only reasonably priced rental tapes, Louie has a large assortment of tapes for sale (used and new) at prices that meet or beat any you can find at the more "elite," but less convenient stores. He also has a large line of accessories for sale, and even offers rentals on VCR's.

The annual membership fee is $59.99 ($49.99 for renewals) and for that price you get free motion picture rentals each month for a year, no deposit requirement on rentals of three tapes or less, advance notice of specials, a newsletter with listings of additional discounts and specials, and rentals for as little as $2.99 for two days.

So, if you're in the mood for a change of pace with a good movie, go by and see Louie at the Video Library, 805 Peachtree Street NE, in the Suncoast Building, Suite 176, and he'll be sure and show you how can fill all your video viewing needs.

since the mid-19th century will be on view.

The exhibition is drawn from the High Museum's extensive collection of photography and shows examples by the great masters as well as revealing images by unknown photographers, showing personalities carefully arranged or caught in fleeting introspection.

In portraiture, that special quality of photography—first-hand replication—is most striking. To look into the eyes of a sitter for a mirror-like daguerreotype, for example, is to delve into the persona of someone who could have seen George Washington or Napoleon. Our perception of the famous is to a large extent based on photographs; sometimes we know exactly how they looked, as if we had known Abraham Lincoln or Greta Garbo.

According to High Museum Director Gudmund Vigtel, and organizer of this exhibition, "The visitor will be startled by the 'speaking' liknesses of Camille Corot, or of Frieda Kahlo, the volatile Mexican painter—first in youthful innocence, then on her deathbed, almost dissolved by adversity. The formidable Sioux Chief, Red Cloud, is seen old, blind and worn; an unidentified boy poses with unselfconscious nonchalance in his new sailor suit."

The High Museum of Art is located at Peachtree and 16th Streets. One of the many benefits of High Museum membership is free admission to the Museum year-round. For information on joining the High Museum, call the Membership Office at 898-1151. For a recorded message on weekly High Museum programs, call the Museum Hotline at 892-HIGH, day or night.

OPTIONS '84 IS THIS SATURDAY

Atlanta, GA—

By now you've probably heard about Options '84, the Atlanta Gay Center's second annual conference for better living, and what it is designed to achieve. Now you're wondering what particular workshop topics are being offered this year.

Several workshops deal with the social implications of the gay and lesbian life, including communication between gay men and lesbians, gay and lesbian people of color, gay parenting, and religion and homosexuality.

Others deal with physical and emotional health, such as drug and alcohol use and organizations such as Alcoholics Anonymous, Al Anon, and Narcotics Anonymous; as well as with the possibilities for safe sex during an era of health concerns.

Also featured are personal growth issues such as being young and gay, growing older with style, improving self-esteem, the coming-out process, and discovering your creative self.

Both personal legal issues such as property and wills, child custody, and visitation; as well as criminal law concerns such as DUI and sex arrests will be dealt with.

Relationships of various kinds will be explored in workshops on dating, dealing with becoming single again, male and female couples, and friendship.

Options '84 will conclude with a general session on the positive aspects of being gay.

In other words, Options '84 offers many opportunities to explore the diversity of our community as well as its challenges and problems.

Options '84 will be held at the Unitarian-Universalist Congregation at 1911 Cliff Valley Way, NE, on Saturday, June 23rd. Registration will last from Noon until 1pm and workshops will continue until 6pm. The registration fee is $20 ($15 to members of the Atlanta Gay Center).

I'M TRULY MOIST!!!

Laverne Edwards, one of Atlanta's most versatile and popular "ladies of the night," has opened her new "Festival of Fantasies" at Gene and Gabe's Upstairs with a brand new cast of characters from the demented imagination of a true genius.

The show, though based on her popular beauty contest theme, includes an insane array of gorjuous girls (all "interpreted" by Laverne, of course) competing for the coveted title of "Miss Bisquick."

Cleaning out the entire stock of the Goodwill warehouse, our diva dons everything from a demure, pale green mother-of-the-bride dress to an ambitious psychodelic blue, lime green and hot pink tent dress, as she brings to the stage, and to the astonished audience, her "interpretations," singing live, twirling a baton or playing her pian-toe.

Laverne goes through no less than thirty seven costume changes and blows out at least two pairs of ultra-petite, K-mart slip-ons (size 12). She dances and prances, non-stop, from one end of the stage to the other with uncanny style and grace.

Joan Garland, a Miss Edwards discovery, fills in during costume changes with wonderful Judy Garland impersonations and an excellent bible-bearing Tammy Joan.

This is truly a show that must be seen to be believed; and even then, you probably won't believe it. Laverne's style, wit and energy are so contagious you'll leave the show utterly exhilarated, exhausted, and clamoring for more.

For showtimes and reservations call Gene and Gabes' Upstairs at 404 892-2261.

SAN JOSE
Restaurante—Cantina

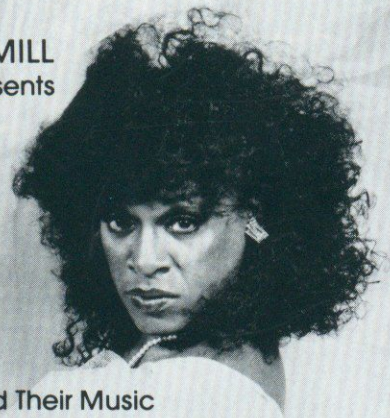

For Mexican food, San Jose in Ansley Square across from Crazy Ray'z is one of the best buys in Atlanta.

Their lunch especiales, numbered uno through nueve, and all priced under $4 are served sizzling hot with nachos and hot sauce. With everything you could want from tacos to overstuffed burritos, there is so much good food on the plates you might find yourself having to work to eat it all.

San Jose's also has an excellent dinner menu with entrees ranging in price from $5.25 to $7.95 and a good choice of aperitivos, ensaladas, and bebidas (try their Margaritas). Again, and even more so than lunch, the portions are for the really hungry so try not eating for a week or two before you go; once you taste the food you won't want to leave any on your plate.

If you like good, not overly spiced Mexican food, San Jose is a great place to eat.
