AROUND TOWN

Eight of the contestants for Mr. Gay Atlanta pose with Jim Grey, the current Mr. Gay Atlanta (center front) at The Annex.

THE ANNEX WAS FIRST HOST TO MR. GAY ATLANTA CONTEST

This week of "Meet and Greet the Contestants" was successfully kicked off this past Monday with a warm and friendly crowd at The Annex.

These hunky contenders vying for the title of Mr. Gay Atlanta 1979 will be seen all over town this week prior to the contest on Monday, May 7th at the Sweet Gum Head.

Bulldog & Company hosted a festive party on Tuesday night followed by a Hors d'oeuvres Party on Wednesday at Shelly's. Tonight, Stephen's Saloon is having a buffet from 8 till 10 PM.

On Saturday, Le Cove will have a buffet from 3 to 5 PM and then on to Club Atlanta on Sunday for a pool-side cookout from 5 till 7 PM to conclude "Greet Week". The contest will be held at the Sweet Gum Head, Monday, May 7th at 10 PM. $5 cover.

STANDING ROOM ONLY AT THE HERBIE JOHNS SPECIAL

The Sweet Gum Head was filled with an enthusiastic crowd to see Herbie and his special guests Dina, Ron Ellis, Lena Lust and Taisha Wallis in a complete production of "Illusions."

The entire show was excellently executed with the precision of a swiss watch.

Inclusive of the theme, the cast portrayed visitors from outer space who arrived to study and understand earthlings.

STEVE MARGRAVE WINS MR. ONYX 1979

Talented puppeteer Steve Margrave walked away with the trophy and title of Mr. Onyx last week.

The entries this year included Eddie Green, sponsored by the We Three Lounge in Macon; Mike Seidel, sponsored by Lisa Alexander; Herbie John, sponsored by Adrian Lee; David Martin backed by Crystal Lambega and Miss Mousie; John Martin (a former CRUISE man of the month) was also sponsored by the We Three Lounge. D & T Productions entered Tony DeMarco; Clifford Phillips was sponsored by H.A.M.; and Models Atlanta backed Drew Averett.

The opening production number with Taisha Wallis, Randy Knight, Amber Richards, and Ron Ellis was not only superb, but unique as well. They intermingled two other flawless productions throughout the contest. Hostess and emcee for the evening was none other than Micky Day.

BENEFIT HELD FOR THE ATLANTA GAY CENTER

The Atlanta Gay Center celebrated their first benefit on April 24 at the Onyx Lounge, which was hosted by Howard Walters of the New Order.

Frank Scheuren, President of the Atlanta Gay Center.

We are pleased for the encouragement from the people that attended and are sure that all Gays are certainly interested in this community cause. Obviously it just takes more time to gain the support of our fellow gays.

We are please to say, that with the small turnout we did raise $214. which was given to the center. Accepting the contribution for the Center was President Frank Scheuren.

The Center wishes to thank all performers for contributing their own time and the fabulous talents of each and every one. The following is a list of performers who helped make this event the success that it was: Tiger Lil, Comedian of the Year, Randy Knight, Eddie Rooney, Crystal Lambega, Most Unique Performer of the Year, Dusty Rhoades, Angela Jones, Lamar Jackson, Ron Ellis, Male Actor of the Year, and Mr. Club Baths 1979, and Ginger Grant. The fabulous Micky Day, winner of the Mary Pickford Award emceed the event.

The Center would also like to thank the owner of the Onyx Lounge, Jim Nalley and Steve Riley and Paul

Westlake for assisting at the door. "This is our community and we should support it."

CRUISE MARKET PLACE

The Head Hunter features different specials each month, and is currently offering a 20% discount on all services (haircuts, hennas, perms, colorings, manicures, etc.) until May 15th. The shop keeps a complete stock of Redken cosmetics and hair supplies, and also offers trichoanalysis. Catering to men and women of all ages, the shop is officially open from 9:30 to 5:30 Tuesdays thru Saturdays, but will accept appointments in the evenings. Drop by the Head Hunter and pick up your very own "Head Hunter" T-shirt, only $4.50, these gems are guaranteed not to shrink. And if you send five referrals to the shop, these nice people will cut your hair FREE!

The Head Hunter is one of Atlanta's most established hair salons, having enjoyed 14 years at its Cheshire Bridge Road Location. Once one passes through the doors of the shop, one is impressed with its unique "African style motif" walls lined with bamboo, chairs upholstered in leopard, etc. The place is comfortable and relaxed and its staff is friendly; owner Glenda Marr and stylist Chuck Francis are both award-winning hair designers, and manicurist Jeannette Cable is personally responsible for the care of entertainer Amber Richards' nails.
