Ahhh, Spring....When a young man's heart turns to fancy another man's heart! Is it true that a new treehouse is being built in Tampa even more elaborate than the last to honor yet another prestigious wedding? Ask Rene.Spring is supposed to be a time for "itchy feet"...just as long as that's all that itches, you're o.k.....Speaking of itchy feet, M.C.C. founder, Troy Perry keeps 'em....he's traveling constantly, here and abroad...usually abroad lately. His recent visit to Fort Lauderdale for the Southeast Conference (M.C.C.) also took him to Miami to confer with political hopeful, Jack Campbell at the Club 8000. Word has it Jack officially received M.C.C. endorsement of his candidacy for Miami City Commissioner, Group 3 at that meeting and Troy got to stand next to 8000 Club Manager, Jim Gordon for this photo.

THE TAPERED BACK

Ever notice the muscles on the back of a really nicely developed body, that shape it to a "V"? Those are the Latissimus Dorsi muscles, or better known as the "Lats." They draw the arm downward and backwards, and are used in rowing and pulling. Sailors usually have well developed lats.

The nice thing about lats is, they help make the shoulders look wider, the waist look smaller, and the chest look higher. They make the upper body look good from the front as well as from the back.

Waterskiing, swimming, and rowing are active sports that really involve and build up the lats. Pictured on the next page are the all-time favorite exercises that will develop the lats, and make them grow - - pull ups and chin-ups.

With the palms forward, grasp a chin bar as wide as you can. Pull yourself up until your chin is above the bar, then lower yourself down, slowly. For variation, pull yourself up until the bar is behind your neck. Do three sets of as many reps as you are able.

The standard chin up not only works the lats from another angle, but gives the arms as well as most of the upper body a good workout. Grasp the bar with the palms facing you not wider than twelve inches apart. Pull yourself up until your chin clears the bar, then lower yourself, slowly. Again, do three sets of as many reps as you can.

Remember, lower yourself down, SLOWLY. Doing exercises slowly not only increases the effectiveness, but helps reduce your chances of injury.

NUDE OR NOT

Dear Brick:
I noticed that in the pictures accompanying your last article (THIS WEEK, Number 32), you are doing exercises in the nude. A lot of the guys at the gym where I work out wear sweat suits, and they say that even if you exercise at home, a sweat suit should be worn. What type of clothing should I wear when I exercise, or does it make any difference?

George,
Jacksonville

Dear George:
Actually, what you wear during your exercising depends largely on what you are doing, and where you are. The most important thing to remember when exercising, is to avoid getting

....Les and Chris from the Tunnel got itchy feet and took off to Key West for a second Honeymoon...just to get away from it all for a while. Guess who they ran into?...Natch. Don and Bob from the Grotto. Second Honeymoon there too? Your guess is as good as ours....Estelle's really got a pair of itchy ones...She's selling her house too (would you believe 17 rooms?) to move to Delray. She assures us the Full Moon will move into good hands.. ...Spring Fever caught Lefty from the Poop Deck and Keith from Keith's this last week so they threw a mammoth party at Birch State Park for their tons of employees....and "tons" it was too with Lefty, Keith, Sebastian from Keith's and Dan and Tony from the Poop Deck!.....The new Mr. Ramrod is a familiar face nowadays, but always a hunky one by the name of Roy Stolte, also a current Club Bath's Mr. Body Beautiful. The Ramrod was packed to the tit-rings and all thoroughly enjoyed the show put on by the new Miss Florida, Noly Greer... the Thebans are sponsoring a costume party at the Rack June 6th to celebrate the opening of their portrayal of the "Fortune in Men's Eyes" at the Warehouse VIII the next night.....The hunky dude at right is the new "Mr Dixieland" Richard Conway. The contest was held at the Treasure Island Inn in Daytona and was sponsored by the Club Hollywood.....Just got word that Campaign Headquarters for Jack Campbell will be located at 3033 Grand Ave., Suite 4 in Coconut Grove. Volunteers are needed and appreciated...Hate to sound like a bore mentioning this campaign every other breath, but we hate more to pass up this chance to have a voice we KNOW on the City Commission in Miami....we've needed one for a long time and now's our chance to do something about it. This column is presented as a public service to allow readers to "air" their opinions. Here's your chance to "Sound Off". If you've got something constructive to say about anything, send it in to us for possible publication in this column. Editorially, we would ask that all contributions refrain from "mud slinging" and personal vendettas. If you've got a criticism, voice it, but carry it one step forward by posing a possible solution. We welcome any and all comments or opposing points of view by responsible citizens. Ed. THIS WEEK'S CONTRIBUTION FROM: SOLY HARTSTEIN

ANOTHER HEAVY BLOW FOR FREEDOM BY ONE OF OURS

What can one say except "Thank You" to someone as brave and honest as Sgt. Leonard P. Matlovich who, this week, put his 12 year career in the Air Force, on the line when he found that his gut and mind could no longer teach the courses in Race Relations as set out by U.S. Standards to his classes at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia, knowing that he is a homosexual and by military standards, homosexuality makes him unequal to others.

It is not hard to believe this brave brother who served three tours of duty in Viet Nam, winning medals for each tour of duty; who laid his life on the line on one of those tours by having been wounded and having received the Purple Heart; this honest and straight forward perfect example of what the true spirit of serving one's country in the best way he knows how; having received medals for the meritorious manner in which he taught his classes in Race Relations....No, it is not hard to believe that this type of record is being rewarded by our Great Government by handing the honorable....and I mean Honorable Sgt. Leonard P. Matlovich with a less than Honorable Discharge!!!

What courage it must have taken. What thoughts must have run through the Sgt's mind when he tried to visualize the reactions of his brother and sister soldiers when the announcement would be made that this Worthy One had become unworthy to wear the uniform of the U.S. Air Force, because he did his duty meritoriously, but unfortunately his sexual and social rhythms were out of tempo with the marching standards of our Great? Military System.

But the case does not end here. For this true martyr for a true cause announces that he will carry his case right to the Supreme Court of the United States, no matter how long it takes, to erase from our way of life, once and for all, the thought that a homosexually oriented person has no right to seek the understanding and equality of the protection of our society, but he has every right to defend not only the principles of what Freedom and Liberty stand for and if serving in the Armed Forces of the United States is what he considers to be his purpose in life, then, the Powers be Damned, give him and all of our other brothers and sisters who wish to follow this worthy purpose equal rights with every other social form to follow these dictates and... watch the world become a better place to live.

PRIDELESS ACTIONS

It's only human nature...if you do something that's really not quite up to ethical codes....and you don't even get your wrist slapped, you have a tendency to get a little more brazen the next time....and also a little more careless. In the past, we handled our competition as we would like to be treated ourselves. With respect. Our competition smiled and took a stab at us.....very unethically.....passing unfounded rumors which we ignored. They smiled saying "There's room enough for both of us" (How many bar owners have heard the same thing as their help and customers went to "check out" the competition?)

We watched advertisements appear proclaiming "The Convention with 'Class'.. was coming....."from the magazine you can believe in".....this we also ignored because we felt that they were entitled to their opinion even though the flaming arrows were directed toward us.

As every bar owner knows, one of the ways a new bar has of showing they don't care to be "friends" and "work together" is to approach your help to work for the new venture instead.... Both our current competitors have done this to us. In most cases, they failed miserably. Many of our supporters said they "smelled a rat" and decided to stick to the tried and true. We thank them from the bottoms of our hearts for their loyalty. Of course, this only frustrated the competition even more so more rumors were passed. But we're not devoting this entire page to weep on your shoulder. We've had our share of problems in the past and we've survived as we will again.

The question is, "Are we the only ones that are affected by these prideless actions?" The answer is a very loud, "No!". The entire gay community, at a time when South Florida has made such incredible strides forward, is being held back by these back-stabbers. What real support have they given to the B.O.A.? The answer is in their printed pages. Very little indeed. When Jack Campbell decided to run for City Commissioner, where were these new "Wonder Boys"? One relegated the candidate to the back cover with only what they called Mr. Campbell's "Acceptance"? Speech on the inside.... (it's interesting to note they called it an "Acceptance" speech after chiding us in print for being "unprofessional". The other publication did little more.

What they have accomplished is painfully clear. They took a breed of community minded bar owners and businessmen who try hard to support anything that's gay oriented and forced them into taking "sides" against those who continued to support us. Many of the bars and baths who have not relinquished their support have suddenly become victims of rumors designed to destroy their businesses. One of the nation's largest and most popular bars in Miami is not listed in the barguide in one of our competitor's magazines ostensibly because they would not listen to the magazine's unprofessional approach to business.

The latest rumor being spread by our competitor in Miami is that a lawsuit is being prepared against ourselves and Keith Landon for lifting "Original, copywrited artwork" in the form of the Club Miami ad that was used in Keith's Pageant Program! How community minded can you get?

We're sure our competitor realizes there is absolutely no grounds for suit and has no real desire to do so. It appears to be just another effort to make us look like "the bad guy".

Firstly, we understand the copywrite law to only cover unchanqed artwork.

This copy had been obviously altered. Secondly, it seems strange that a magazine that has in the past "lifted" ads from DAVID's publications (with minor changes) would be so touchy about their own.

Thirdly, it is also understood that an advertiser purchases the ad complete with artwork and does not just "rent" it and can do anything he pleases with it in the future.

Last, but not least, actions of this sort could hardly be construed as an effort to "Pull the community together" but as a drive to separate it further into factions. We've never felt it necessary before to write a column such as this... and we hope we never have to again.

It is time, however; for such actions to be openly exposed and "wrists slapped" before any further damage is done unchecked.

chilled. Jogging in cool weather, or working out in a gym with heavy air conditioning, will require warmer exercise clothes than doing push ups at home, or playing handball.

Remember, during your exercising, your pores are wide open, and while the air conditioning may feel good, you're running the risk of a chill and possibly a cold.

If you are doing any type of weight-lifting, a jock strap is advisable for support when lifting. (Incidentally, whenever you are lifting any type of weight, lift with your legs, not your back. Legs are much stronger than your back, so bend your knees and keep your back straight).

FOOD SUPPLIMENTS

Dear Brick:

I have read in your column and others the value of eating a "balanced diet". What is your opinion of food sup-

THIS WEEK WITH DAVID

Dear Jim.

Prior to the "technological revolution" in this country, just about all food supplements, such as vitamin and mineral pills?

Jim,
Fort Lauderdale,

contained the proper quantities of vitamins and minerals in their natural state. Farm lands were not saturated with pesticides, nor were their natural properties depleted by overproduction.

Today, however it is hard to find anything on the grocer's shelf that hasn't been tampered with, treated, refined, or otherwise robbed of nutritive value. Even a bigger problem than vitamin deficiency is, mineral deficiency.

The human body is a complex organism, and is unique in that no two people require exactly the same amount of nutrients. However, a high quality multiple vitamin and mineral supplement (commonly found in "health food stores") could be added to the diet to insure proper nutrition. (Of course.....serious nutrition problems should be handled with the aid of a qualified doctor).

Food Supplements are useless without giving prior thought to the basic type of food one eats. In general, these foods in the unprocessed state, and especially those which are raw and natural, provide a more balanced nutrient intake, than any scientific configuration.

Read the labels...and stay away from "take" foods. Put your dollars into foods that are as fresh as possible, with the least amount of tampering done to them.

Readers who have specific questions they would like answered in this column or information regarding a personal body development course should write to: Brick Mason, P.O. Box 3175, Daytona Beach, Florida, 32018. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope, please.
