Nutrition and Your Health

Dietary Guidelines for Americans

What should you eat to stay healthy?

Hardly a day goes by without someone trying to answer that question. Newspapers, magazines, books, radio, and television give us a lot of advice about what foods we should or should not eat. Unfortunately, much of this advice is confusing.

Some of this confusion exists because we don't know enough about nutrition to identify an "ideal diet" for each individual. People differ — and their food needs vary depending on age, sex, body size, physical activity, and other conditions such as pregnancy or illness.

In those chronic conditions where diet may be important — heart attacks, high blood pressure, strokes, dental caries, diabetes, and some forms of cancer — the roles of specific nutrients have not been defined.

Research does seek to find more precise nutritional requirements and to show better the connections between diet and certain chronic diseases.

But today, what advice should you follow in choosing and preparing the best foods for you and your family?

The guidelines below are suggested for most Americans. They do not apply to people who need special diets because of diseases or conditions that interfere with normal nutrition. These people may require special instruction from trained dietitians, in consultation with their own physicians.

These guidelines are intended for people who are already healthy. No guidelines can guarantee health or well-being. Health depends on many things, including heredity, lifestyle, personality traits, mental health and attitudes, and environment, in addition to diet.

Food alone cannot make you healthy. But good eating habits based on moderation and variety can help keep you healthy and even improve your health.

DIETARY GUIDELINES FOR YOU:

- Eat a variety of foods
- Maintain ideal weight
- Avoid too much fat, saturated fat, and cholesterol
- Eat foods with adequate starch and fiber
- Avoid too much sugar
- Avoid too much sodium
- If you drink alcohol, do so in moderation

bar snooping. . .

Lots of goodies this time hon's. . . What famous picture-taker was recently named "Chicken Hawk of the year", and on top of that was presented with two live Chickens to raise as his own???? A certain bar owner had better watch his gold jewelry a little better. Some rip off?? Hope you catch him.

A certain prince was recently named mouth of the year. . .huh, wonder why? Caught the show at the Tower theatre and the singers can sing too. Thanks for a very good show. . .P.S. the Pajama game was fun fun fun?? Just what are people to wear nowadays that some of our bars are going in to certain dress codes. . . Guess all the surplus stores are doing a raving business anyway. . . Just which is the oldest, the bar on Leland or the one on Bell St. . . Ask Big Mama, she can tell you. . . ?

Attacks on us again, but this time away from the Montrose area. . . A very lighted area also and still one of our famous entertainers got knifed. . . Certainly glad it was not serious. . . Where or where is our patrol that is talked about so much?? It's so dark in the stairways of a popular bar that you don't even know who you are groping. . . but who cares???? Ain't we all glad that the ones in charge are going to let DRAGS in the parade. . . And that's the theme "Proud to BE"?? Should be a hot hot parade though?? What surprise guest will be on the show with the Texas Tornado. . . The Snoop knows? Politics and booze don't mmm, certainly some people should realize this??? Sure was some excitement at a certain cafe on Alabama when a straightteeee got smart with the big ole gayeeeeee. . . Hit 'em again honeeee????

Gay Country — the work is almost over and the party's about to begin. So get ready Houston for one HOT bar. There will also be a limited, security controlled parking lot in back.

Venture N — well there's going to be a deck in this new bar— or should we say second floor. I wonder what they have planned for up there?

Lampost — their going to have one fine patio.

Inside/Outside — still working up stairs.

Rocky's — take a look at this bar, it looks different each week.

Rico's — patio number two starting soon.

Dog Patch II — a new patio and liquor.

EUREKA HOOVER KIRBY

Who was the man that Terry was squiring around the Mining Company. Sure has been some hot Sunday afternoons there. Don, Charlie and Randolph will service your needs, well, most of them.

I sure was brazen the other evening. I met a guy named Doug at the Bunk House and two real hot guys at the Mining Company. I wish I could remember their names. One of these days I'll stay sober and remember them.

Haven't heard from Don A. and Jack T. lately.

Sophie was disappointed cause I didn't mention her last week. Well, here you are!

Jesse and Cole had a really nice brunch on Sunday. Michael Mc, Sophie, Wayne C., George G., Wayne S., Roy S., Rita and Jane, Jerry S., Jerry B., David H., Gerald B. and two of his guys were all there. Sausage, eggs, bloody Mary's, biscuits, jelly and coffee. A good time was had by all.

Went to the Galleria. So many hot men out there. I could spend a whole day out there just cruising. Marshall Field has some hot sales people out there especially one in the men's department. I sure hope he calls if the button-down collars come in. Even if they don't come in, he can still call.

There are some really hot men in the summer leagues. Go out on a Monday night to Stadium Lanes and you'll have a good time. There are some really good bowlers out there.

Went to the Club Houston, the other night. There were some real daddies there.

Sissy Allen, you are just a mess. Your San Fran Frock is just a hoot! It's a pleasure seeing you at Baja's.

Velma Duvall and Baroness Creighton are leasing the Winchester Mansion on Heights Blvd. this fall. Lady Winchester is doing something, but I haven't gotten a scoop.

If you didn't hear the Montrose Singers you missed a real treat. Our community can really be proud of them. I know I am.

Mary's is killing me. But it's a pleasure. All those MEN! WOW!!!

It seems as though all the bars were busy. Red, keep it hanging. You gorgeous hunk, too bad I'm not your type.

I'm letting out the nets again. See you next week.
