GAY AMERICA TITLE TO DALLAS

The coveted Miss Gay America Title has come to rest in the Lone Star State! Shan Covington, Miss Gay Dallas, walked away from three nights of competition with 29 contestants from all over the U.S., with the crown and trophy.

Cindy Birdsong, also of Dallas captured the 1st runnerup spot. The 2nd runnerup was Danny Gilllette of Michigan.

The contestants competed Friday and Saturday nights in preliminary judging and Sunday evening 10 finalists were announced. The finalists then began their hard fought battle over again.

The list of judges was an impressive one with one of the owners of The Miss World Pageant and a consulting editor of a national hair and fashion magazine on the panel of judges.

A standing room only crowd packed Houston's Depository Club beyond capacity to watch the final night of competition. Some of the nations finest female impersonators turned out in force to present one of the finest shows ever presented anywhere.

Norma Kristie, Miss Gay America 1972, The Lady Baroness, Miss Gay America 1973, and Shawn Luis, the reigning Miss Gay America were all on hand for the coronation of the new monarch.

Mr. C. J. Harrington, Jennifer George, and Chelsey St. John were on hand to handle the master of ceremonies job. The pageant was presented and run very smoothly throughout the three day period.

FROM THE EDITOR

I'm sure that it has been noticed by now that a merger of The Nuntius and UpDate Weekly Southwest has already transpired. As stated ele stated elsewhere in this publication, this has been done to better serve you the reader, we hope to have your continued support. The format of our paper will not change. We will still provide coverage in the Southwest and continue our FREE weekly distribution. But once a month The Nuntius will appear on your news stands in a large edition. This larger edition will carry coverage of news and events that the weekly edition did not have space for or was unable to provide coverage due to early press dates.

As in the past, I will still solicit your views and opinions on anything you feel is worth discussing. Your support in the past has been greatly appreciated and hopefully will continue.

This past week in Houston has been quite an active one with the Miss Gay America Pageant. I have heard some grumbling about the final results and only have one answer. My favorite did not win either. But the judges were impartial and fair. Regardless of wher the pageant is held, a local favorite would be entered. Because our individual favorite does not win, there is no reason to claim foul. The top competitors in the country were on hand for the event. So regardless of which contestant regardless of which contestant have won, the Gays of America would have been more than amply represented. My personal congratulations go out ot Shan Covington of Dallas, the new Miss Gay America.

The Bayou Landing in Dallas stills seems to be rolling along as one of the hottest spots in Bid D. Speaking of hot items - the Ah Men fashion show at the Pageant has to be one of the hottest ever given anywhere! I've never seen so much prime beef at one time before. Rolling right along on prime beef, the Locker, Houston's leather bar, will hold Slave Auction #6 on Dec. 19th. The last one was really hot, but this one appears it will top them all.

The very lovely Jann Stewart is still entertaining on Saturday and Sunday nights at Dirty Sally's. Be sure to check Sally's ad for their ever changing happenings for their customers every week.

Word has been sent that TJ's of Dallas was filled to the rafters this past Sunday with their second "All Butch Drag Show". We understand it was the hottest show going in Big D this past weekend.

I guess that's all for this issue. Til next week,

Mel

SLAVE AUCTION!

Slave auction time has once again arrived at the Locker, Houston's only leather bar. Locker money is now being given out with each drink and rapidly being saved by all of Houston's auction fans.

The next auction is scheduled for December 19th with an expected overflow crowd. Auction time begins at 10 pm.

Dear Aunt Sofa:

I understand that the wearing of a handkerchief in the back pocket symbolize different tastes in sexual orientation. Is this true? Just what are some of the meanings?

ADVISE:

Below you will find a few of the meanings. I had to ask around, as I myself was not "update" on the answer. I understand that there are some more, but this is all I have been able to come up with at the time. If there are any corrections that need to be made or additions, let me hear from you.

Dear Aunt Sofa:

I have been to several bookstores, but really don't have the nerve to approach anyone. So far, no one has bothered with me either. I thought the book stores were supposed to be an easy place to find a trick. Is there something I am supposed to do or maybe there's something I'm not doing?

ADVISE:

I have never been much on bookstores myself, but I can't deny the fact that I have been in a few here and there. Bookstore may vary according to the locale and/or owners of the establishment. Certain areas around the country don't have any "activities" due to the local authorities. But the sect- really active.

I suppose that the cruising is done primarily in the dark hall ways surrounding the movie booths. From what I understand most people score quite easily. That I can understand as most back rooms are kept quite dark. It's really hard to tell what you're getting in the dark. But then again these people aren't looking for a long term relationship - only about a quarters worth. Keep going if you're really interested in it. I'm sure it will come to you naturally after awhile.

HOUSTON OLD PLANTATION
OPENING

The Old Plantation Club, Houston, will open its doors for an invitation only opening on Wednesday, December 17th. The official opening will be at 5:00 pm. on Thursday, December 16th. The club will open its doors for the first time to the public on Wednesday and Thursday, December 10th and 11th, when the Houston MCC will present "Godspell".

The present location was formerly the Bayou Landing, but the new owners have "gutted" the building and bar goes in the city will find a totally new bar having emerged. Instead of the large open room that once existed, the new theme revolves around four bars. Immediately past the newly remodeled lobby, the Ah Men Boutique is the first item on the agenda. Immediately to the right on the sidewalk is the Old Plantation House with a bar inside. Just past the Ah Men shop on the walk is Lafittes, a Bourbon Street type pub. The walk then curves along to a patio area located inside the building. Here you can find brick dividers with high lattice work walls with live plants hanging, standing, and actually growing. Just past the patio is the Oak Room. This is where the pool tables are located and more or less secluded from the main room. This addition has been sound proffed and separates the disco portion of the bar as far as the sound goes. Large bay windows look out into the main room so that no one is ever out of sight of the action. Just past the lobby and to the left is a quiet bar appropriately named the French Connection. This is the quiet area and contains a piano bar.

The opening of this super structure has previously been delayed with some legal difficulties, but the end result has well been worth the wait. The new structure seems to have something for everyone located inside the building.

MALE Prostitution!

by R. D. Loftice

For hundreds of years, female prostitution has grown to large proportions throughout the United States. But what about male prostitution? Does it pay off? Does enough women support male prostitutes to make it profitable?

In the San Francisco Bay area of California, a male house of prostitution does exist. Business is booming! Women from the age of 24 to 70 support the house daily. And . . . not all the clients use the service for sexual encounters.

In Los Angeles, on Santa Monica Blvd, there is a business offering male models. This business is about a year old and business is quite good.

Male prostitution in Los Angeles is a big business. Anyone can buy a copy of the L.A. Free Press, which offers a so-called "services" directory in the shape of personal ads, and just dial a number for fast, discreet service. Prices vary from $25 to $150, depending on what you require. The services are used both by women, couples and men.

In the New York area, similar services are advertised in "Screw Magazine." Around 42nd St. and Broadway there are always men and young boys for hire. These individuals are picked up both by men and women and the fees vary. Men are also picked up in "Adult Theaters" by both men and women where the action takes place in the restrooms where the fees for quickies vary from $25 or less.

In Texas, male prostitution is on a small scale compared to New York and California. A San Antonio store selling womens apparel downtown is a front for a male prostitution ring. This operation has been quite successful for the past three years.

In Dallas the major downtown hotels and bars are the spots where you are most likely to find male prostitutes proudly displaying their wares with pride.

The Adolphus in the heart of downtown Dallas is frequented by one male known to this reporter. We will refer to this individual as Mike. You will find Mike very conservatively dressed for his 23 years mingling among the rich who frequent the stately Adolphus.

Mike states, "when I'm making it with a "trick" regardless of age, my thoughts are more of the money than the sex act itself. I find the money talks loudest and business in this spot is good as the wealthy frequent the Adolphus."

Mike continued, "before I started working the Adolphus, my scene was on Cedar Springs and Oak Lawn at a elub called the "Key-Note". This club is frequented by women willing to pay and my first weeks take was around $900.00.

Mikes younger and more personable clients pay for an evening of entertainment and service. Some are sexually frustrated and want varying action. "One of my clients is a woman that works for the City of Dallas. Her sexual fantasy is being tied, teased and then layed."

Mike said, "all of my clients do not want sex but pay for my services as an escort, particularly the older women. I see many movies and do more shopping than the average housewife."

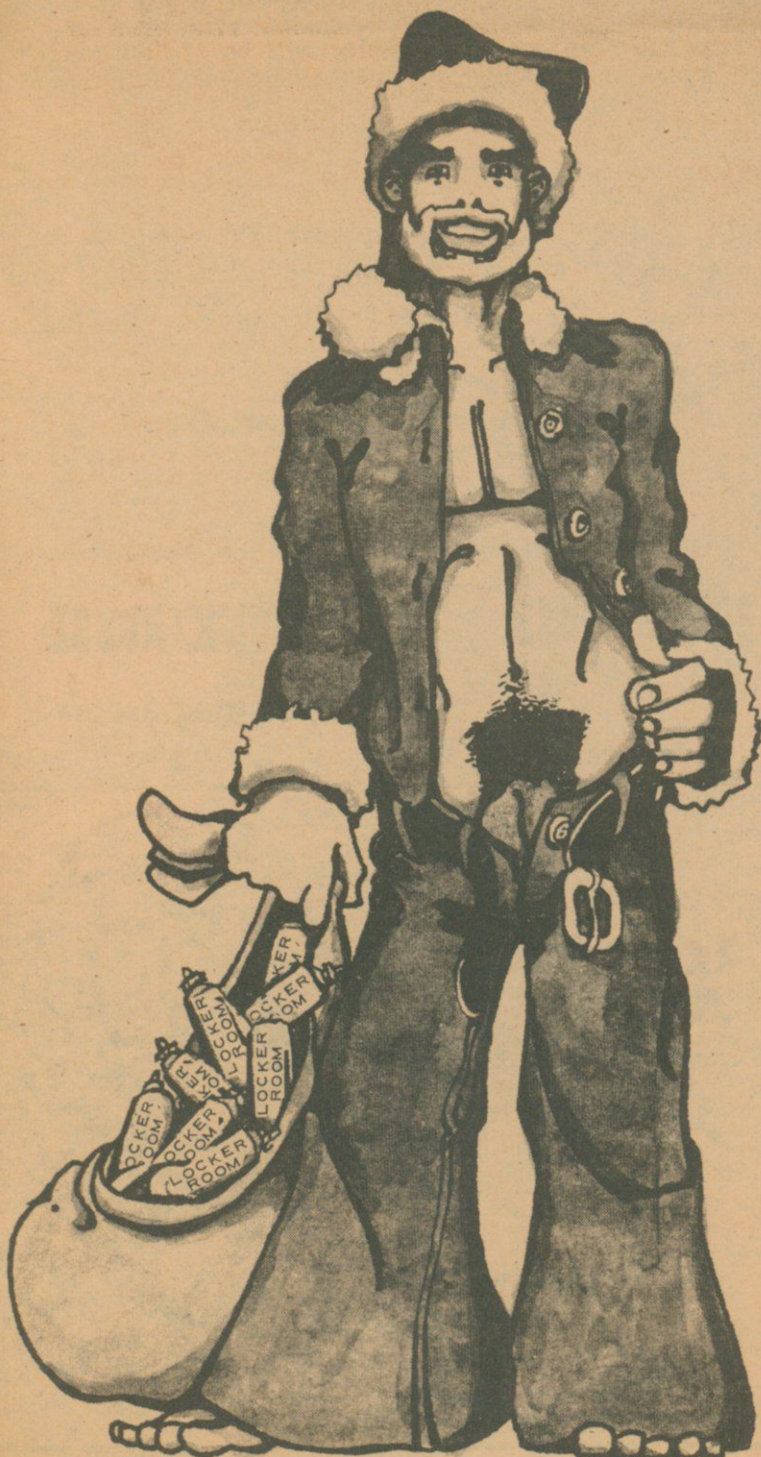

There may not be many male prostitutes, but for those with the qualifications and desire the pay is excellent and the places to make contact not that difficult to find.

HOROSCOPE

Aries (March 21 - April 20): Maintain your composure when partners may prove to be uncompromising. Give attention to your public image; you have a chance to meet important people. Financial matters will feel restrictive.

Taurus (April 21 - May 21): One of the most fortunate trends of the year for career and professional matters reaches its crest. You should find that your personal projects in other fields are equally stimulated.

Gemini (May 22 - June 21): This is not a good time to travel as conditions become hazardous. Do not look for any relief because three opposites to Jupiter create dangers in all forms of transportation. Use caution with money and in friendships.

Cancer (June 22 - July 23): Your interests in special studies and enjoyment of all travel in foreign lands are stimulated. Put your best foot forward at work. Do not hesitate to demonstrate your special skills. Important people have an eye on you.

Leo (July 24 - August 23): Your mind should be especially keen at judging values. You may find this particularly helpful in joint enterprises. Take steps to improve monetary matters in a shared undertaking.

Virgo (August 24 - September 23): Your partners should be favorably inclined to follow your suggestions when a difference of opinion in business matters may cause a temporary upset. You will have occasion to mend fences.

Libra (September 24 - October 23): Do your best to cooperate with career partners in joint enterprises. Do not show disappointment if your suggestions are not accepted. Wind up important matters in personal finances.

Scorpio (October 24 - November 22): Avoid parties when an adverse trend operates. Keep your motif simple at all times and hold your expenses to reasonable limits. Suspend financial operations, for you could be on the wrong track, one that could lead to set backs.

Sagittarius (Nov 23 - Dec 21): Entertaining important career associates in your home may help you advance your personal goals. Your prospects in future security matters should be better than earlier this year. Adhere wisely to your budget.

Capricorn (Dec 22 - Jan 20): Sudden development in a distant area may bring you a new concept in financial affairs. But it may also entail considerable danger to your person; therefore it is wise to observe all safety regulations and to maintain a check on your health.

Aquarius (Jan 21 - Feb 19): Favorable trends continue to operate in personal and family interests. One of your partners may have a brilliant idea to further your objectives. Adopt an impassive attitude on the job when problems develop between co-workers.

Pisces (February 19 - March 20): Keeping your projects conservative and employing only conventional methods to achieve your goals will increase the value of efforts. Exercise caution that you do not become so deeply involved with your own affairs that you forget obligations to others.

UPDATE WEEKLY

To the Readers of UpDate Weekly:

During the past year, many long standing Gay publications have fallen to the side or absorbed by larger publications. One of the reasons for this has been the birth of new Gay publications. When new publications appear a pinch is put on the advertisers pocket and the decision of which publication receives advertising is a life or death verdict.

For the past 18 months, The Nuntius, a long standing tradition in the Gay communities of the Southwest, has been absent from the bars and news stands. This was due primarily to the feeling that the Gay community was being properly served by other Gay publications.

And in the past four months, UpDate Weekly has come into existence and slowly, but surely, reached outstanding recognition in the Gay communities of the Southwest.

But due to the emergence of many new magazines and papers in this field, the market has become cramped. The revival of The Nuntius has long been awaited. And the outstanding growth of UpDate Weekly has been noticed by all.

To help better serve the Gay communities of the Southwest, the publishers of UpDate Weekly and The Nuntius feel that a merger of these two major publications would be in the best interest of the Gay communities. We feel that the existence of both publications would deter both from the goal of news reporting.

As of this issue, UpDate Weekly and The Nuntius will have merged and appear under The Nuntius' banner. The Nuntius will continue to serve you, the reader, as has been done in the past. We will be open to your suggestions and views when stated. We are here to serve you and will do so, hopefully, with your continued support.

CHRISTMAS CAROL COMING!

An original version of the age old "Christmas Carol" had originally been scheduled by Dirty Sally's of Houston. Due to the growth of the play and its warm reception by neighboring bars, "Christmas Carol" has now become a joint project of Dirty Sally's, The Second Sun, and Adam's Image.

The three bars will take turns in presenting the play on a rotating basis at each location. Dirty Sally's will host on December 17th, The Second Sun on the 21st, and Adam's Image on the 19th. Dirty Sally's and Adam's Image show will begin at 9pm. while Second Sun will be at 4 pm.

There will be No cover for this entertainment, but donations will be accepted and given to the Gay Political Caucus.

Not much to review this week folks so please bear with me and lets hope for something better next week. Anything really worth seeing in new releases is being held up until the week prior to Christmas. Thats when I'll be busy as hell with the movie business. Ah, Holidays!

My review is of a re-release from about two years ago. American Graffiti stars Ronnie (Happy Days) Howard and Richard (Jaws) Dreyfus. The film centers around 24 hours in your basic small town in 1962. Our principal characters are graduating seniors out for their last night of cruising the main strip and raising hell before heading to college.

The musical score is all period music by the original artists from the late 50's and early 60's.. I must say that the music was very neatly placed for each scene. The score alone is well worth the admission price. The music is a visual collage of personal happenings that take place for each individual.

From the guys trying to buy booze, to the usual necking scenes from high school days, we find the kids at the town lake with the usual moon lit night.

"American Graffiti" is a rare and unusual experience. Not too many films can take possession of your mind and make you remember days gone by. It is a truly top notch first rate film. I wholeheartedly recommend this film to all age groups. It is strictly fun time at the movies. You leave the cinema with a warm feeling inside, one of sadness, one of happiness, but moreover, one of sheer pleasure.

I almi

I almost forgot; everything in "Graffiti" is '62 period. That includes the sets all the way to Ronnie Howards shoe laces. The acting is super and Hollywood rally has some up and coming talent. Be on the lookout for these bright young stars of tomorrow.

Until next week,
T. G. Pretender

VANDAL CAUGHT AT SALLY'S

On the early morning of December 4th, the Clothes Circuit and Dirty Sally's, both located at 900 Lovett Blvd., Houston were vandalized. The vandal first took a sledge hammer and broke out the lower wall to the Clothes Circuit and loaded up with clothing and jewelry.

He then moved to Sally's where he knocked out the lower wall of the back bar and entered. There the sonic alarm system picked up his presence and set out the alarm. The police arrived in minutes and began a thorough search of the building. Having noticed a money bag dropped near a store room door, the police then found the thief hiding inside. After a brief altercation with the officers, he was quickly apprehended and taken downtown.
