

Gay Reading Pleasures*

THE GOLD DIGGERS by Paul Monette

A novel of adventure and mystery, a poetic love story, and a biting commentary on homosexual lifestyles and California lifestyles in general. "Witty...puzzling yet oddly fascinating.... Knowledgeable disquisitions on art and values, the importance of love, and the place of sex of all kinds." —Library Journal Avon Trade Paperback $4.95

GET OFF MY SHIP: Ensign Berg vs. the U.S. Navy by E. Lawrence Gibson

The full story of Vernon Berg's successful battle to overturn his dishonorable discharge for homosexuality, a precedent-setting case with repercussions extending far beyond the military. Listing it as one of the 10 best books of the year, Richard Hall of The Advocate wrote: "The book exposes military homophobia at its ugliest...it's all here." And Merle Miller called it: "True, enthralling courtroom drama and an intimate love story of two extraordinary men....I was moved and shocked and enlightened by it." Avon Trade Paperback $4.95

LOVERS: THE STORY OF TWO MEN by Michael Denny
An honest, un sentimental account of a 3½ year love affair between two men, Philip and Neil, expanded from the Christopher Street article, "Anatomy of a Love Affair." Based on substantial interviews interlarded with over 30 photographs Philip and Neil took of each other over the course of their relationship, this is a remarkable document, of interest to anyone who has ever fallen in or out of love. Avon Trade Paperback $4.95

"AND GOD BLESS UNCLE HARRY AND HIS ROOMMATE JACK, WHO WE'RE NOT SUPPOSED TO TALK ABOUT"
The Editors of Christopher Street
The popular, bestselling collection of cartoons from Christopher Street. Each cartoon concerns the joys, problems, and seldom celebrated ironies of homosexual life in this country. Avon Trade Paperback $2.95

GAY AMERICAN HISTORY edited by Jonathan Katz
A pioneering book that brings together for the first time a large group of historical chronicles of American lesbian and gay life, coupled with the heterosexual attitudes of various eras. "It sweeps across American history, meticulously documenting the experiences of lesbians and gay men...a unique and much-needed contribution inasmuch as it fills so many voids in the general knowledge of and about gay Americans." —Los Angeles Times Avon/Discus $3.95

GAY PLAYS edited by William Hoffman
A landmark anthology of eight plays representing a broad range of homosexual experience, both male and female; edited and with an introduction by William Hoffman. Includes Joe Orton's ENTERTAINING MR. SLOANE, Lanford Wilson's THE MADNESS OF LADY BRIGHT, Robert Patrick's T-SHIRTS, Frank Marcus's THE KILLING OF SISTER GEORGE, and Bill Solly's and Donald Ward's BOY MEETS BOY. Avon/Bard $3.50

THE LESBIAN BODY by Monique Wittig
A celebration of the body by "the best writer of her generation." —Mary McCarthy. This novel about lesbian love and femaleness explores what women would be like were they to live in a "world" where men do not exist. Translated from the French by D. LeVay. Avon/Bard $1.75

*Avon also publishes over a dozen works by Christopher Isherwood, and Gordon Merrick, plus many other titles of homosexual interest, ranging from current popular fiction to works of scholarly concern. For a complete list of books about gays, write Avon Books, Room 307A, 959 Eighth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10019.

MARTIN P. LEVINE, editor

Although many histories of homosexuality and gay rights have been written, very little has been devoted to the gay life style. Here, from a wide variety of sources, Martin Levine presents a lucid and accurate appraisal of the male homosexual subculture based on recent social research by nationally recognized experts. Among the subjects covered are legal rights; gays in the church, in the military and at work; gay baths and bars; couplehood; gay fathers; black and gay; prostitution; the history of gay politics.

The Sociology of Male Homosexuality

the limits of MASCULINITY

MALE IDENTITY AND WOMEN'S LIBERATION

ANDREW TOLSON

"In by far the best book I have seen on this subject since Marcuse, Andrew Tolson examines the way in which schools, social and work hierarchies, and the requirements of the economic order lock men in modes of thought and behavior which don't work any longer in their personal lives... the accepted forms of male bonding, like drinking, sport, and work, are predicated on competition and boasting — strutting and rutting, or pretending you do. They do not exactly facilitate mutual groping towards a new concept of self: Tolson is one of the few who have been able to get together in men's groups to explore their role."

Guides and Directories

Users of this or any guide or directory should bear in mind the fact that not only is it beginning to be out of date at the time of its publication, but that local conditions can change rapidly. We urge travelers, wherever possible, to buy the local gay papers: new bars etc. will usually be found advertising and dangers will probably be indicated. The local contact numbers given in GAYELLOW PAGES and the list of Switchboards should prove useful. GAYELLOW PAGES welcomes feedback on its entries, both concerning new listings and those which have ceased to be of interest to gay people. This section does not include purely local directories, which are listed with publications under the cities they serve.

National Publications

This section is divided into:

General Publications, whose projected readership includes women and men (although we realize that in practice it may not work out that way!)

Women's Publications, whose audience is specifically female.

Men's Publications, whose audience is specifically male.

Contact and penpal publications are listed in Meeting and Traveling.

Transvestite, Transgenderist, and Transsexual publications are listed in Transgenderist Resources.

Guides and Directories have their own section.

Publications whose coverage and readership is mainly local will be found listed under their city addresses. We recognize that most local publications do have a national mailing list, and generally include some national news coverage, but in separating the two categories, we have assumed that local coverage and advertising is predominant. Please consider carefully before requesting a national listing whether this will serve your best interests in the matter of readership and advertiser appeal. Duplicate listings, under local and national headings, will only be made in very exceptional cases.

A RARE AND SENSITIVE NOVEL OF GAY LOVE.

Set against the turbulent background of the Forties, The Catch Trap is the story of Tommy and Mario—two spectacular young performers who had the courage to love at a time when their world forbade it.

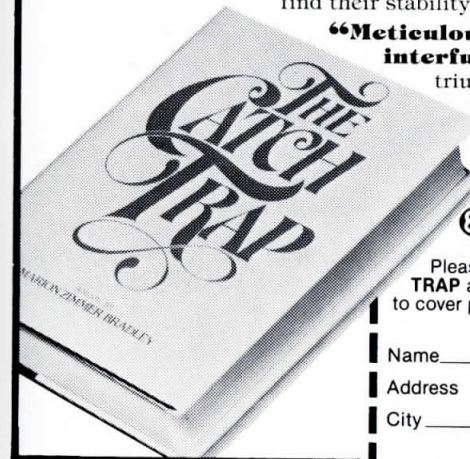

From tawdry backwater circuses to the glamour of Hollywood and the excitement of Madison Square Garden, here's a powerful, moving and stormy tale of two men who wouldn't let the difficulties of their love come between them.

"Magnificent, grand, spectacular . . . the narrative soars! Tommy and Mario are drawn into a darkly complex relationship in which sex is only one aspect of the 'shared need, the obsession' to find their stability through one another." —Kirkus Reviews

"Meticulously wrought, brilliantly interfused, engrossing . . . The most triumphant feature of the story is the rare sensitivity of its portrayal of the homosexual relationship."

—Publishers Weekly
