Questions

- How did you end up in Houston, or are you from here?
- Can you share a little about your histories in LGBTQI+ communities in Houston?
- When and why did you start collecting materials?
- In what ways do your archives differ from other archives?
- Can you talk about any of the challenges or obstacles that you've experienced in your efforts to collect materials, how you navigated them, and the outcome? Anything you would do differently if you had to start over?
- Are there any particular items in your collections that you would like to show the audience and share a little about them?
- Do you have any current projects underway for your archives or your organization?
- Are you looking for volunteers to help you with your archives?
- Do you have any advice for anyone who is interested in collecting materials?
