Hello ICS family and greetings to my fellow courtiers and honored guests from far and wide! On behalf of the entire membership of ERSICSS, we welcome you to Coronation XL and we thank you for being here tonight as we celebrate 40 remarkable years of service to our community. We invite you now to get comfortable, enjoy our great food here at the Wyndham NRG Park, grab a drink from the bar, and witness the awesome entertainment we have planned for you tonight. We also invite you to check out the historical items we have on display at the back of the ballroom and make sure to support our wonderful vendor market.

My friends, it has been my esteemed honor to serve as the President of the Board of Directors of ERSICSS this past year. I have found it to be a tremendous experience and am certain that I am a stronger leader, communicator, and person because of it. I will forever be grateful to the membership and the board of ERSICSS for allowing me to serve in this capacity.

My message to our old guard monarchs and members is simply..... tell your stories! Here in Houston, we lost another founding member Emperor 1 and 2 Marty Rocha. I know there are many courts around the country experiencing the same thing. It is more important than ever for our old guard to come out and pass down the history and stories that have shaped our organizations. If you don't pass down this history, it may be lost forever.

Tonight, we honor the historic and impactful reign of Emperor XXXIX Borque Duran Whitney Bouvier and Empress XXXIX Anastacia Kelly-Anne Fontaine Whitney. What a year it has been! With the overwhelming support of our membership, we were able to create a nonbinary monarch title of Emprex here in Houston and have successfully put forth multiple candidates in what will result in the crowning of only the second Emprex in the history of the United Courts of Texas! We also made important and needed changes to our treasury department and protocol changes for the wearing of crowns for our line members. It has been wisely said that if you refuse to change with the new then you are destined to wither on the vine and die with the old. We are hopeful that our membership continues to have an open mind towards needed change that will result in a broadening of our policies and influence. Over the last several years, we have very mindfully implemented incremental changes that have pushed our court in a more modern direction and this reign was no exception. Truly, this year has been impactful in so many ways and it's influence will be felt throughout our community for years to come.

As I step aside now to pursue other passions and goals that I have set for myself, I take with me the lessons learned in the past year and am certain that my story with ERSICSS is not yet done. I will always support our Court in the capacity that I am able and look forward with confidence to see ERSICSS thrive in the coming years as the needs of our community dictates. For now, I wish you a fabulous evening with friends, family, and those like-minded people that support ERSICSS and it's causes.

Forever in Service,
Jonathan Mount aka Angela Mercy

To All My Friends and Chosen Family,

As I sit here reflecting on this past year and my experiences during my reign as Emperor 39 of ERSICSS, I find myself at a loss for words that truly capture the depth of my emotions. The journey has been incredible, filled with remarkable people who have not only contributed to the success of my reign but have also enriched my life in countless ways. If I could, I would express my gratitude to each of you individually—but know that your support and friendship made all of this possible.

I've often said that we do this to give back to our community—raising one dollar at a time to uplift those in need. This work demands our time, energy, and resources. Yet, what we receive in return is priceless: the lifelong friendships and connections we forge along the way. Thank you all for your tireless efforts, for your love, and for making a tangible difference in our community.

To my home court and the Houston community: Your dedication, hard work, and unwavering support have not gone unnoticed. Together, we've raised funds for ERSICSS, TGRA, NLA, PWA, BCP, and many other local groups. We've united to make Houston a better, more caring place. I'm deeply honored to be part of this incredible effort.

ERSICSS members: Your relentless devotion and passion are the heartbeat of our court. I'm humbled and grateful for each one of you. Your commitment made this year extraordinary, and I am so proud to call you my friends and family.

To my fellow Texas courts and monarchs: Sharing this reign with you has been an absolute pleasure. The bonds we've formed, the advice, support, and encouragement you've offered—these have meant the world to me. Our unity in the UCT is a beautiful testament to what community truly means.

To my friends across the ICS: You are all inspiring, unique, and full of love and laughter. Traveling to support your coronations and events has given me cherished memories and life-changing experiences. Your acceptance and warmth have made me feel at home wherever I go. I hope I've shown you even a fraction of the love and support you've shown me.

Alexa: You've been my rock. Your unwavering support and love carried me through the hardest moments. I'm proud to be your son and best friend—I love you with all my heart.

Geary: You've been like a big brother to me. Your wisdom and kindness have guided me, often without you even realizing it. Thank you for being such a steady mentor in my life.

Angela: Your support and care have meant more to me than words can express. I look up to you and am grateful beyond measure for everything you've done. I love you dearly.

Angie: You are my sister and confidante. I miss our Tuesday talks and hope we can return to them soon. Your advice, support, and love have been a lifeline for me. Thank you for everything.

Tricket and Maximus: Your hard work and dedication made this year a success. I'm proud to call you my sons. Thank you for standing by me and the court.

Anastacia: Sharing this reign with you has been a gift. You will always be my Empress and hold a special place in my heart. We've faced challenges and celebrated victories, and through it all, our bond has deepened. I'm honored to call you my best friend and Empress for life—I love you.

To JR, Penny, Gideon, Andrea, Terry, Esmeralda, Ralph, and Maddison: Each of you has touched my life in unique and meaningful ways. Your love, advice, and support have lifted me up and inspired me. Thank you for being part of my journey.

From the bottom of my heart, I love and appreciate each of you. I look forward to the moments we'll share in the future. Thank you for making this year unforgettable.

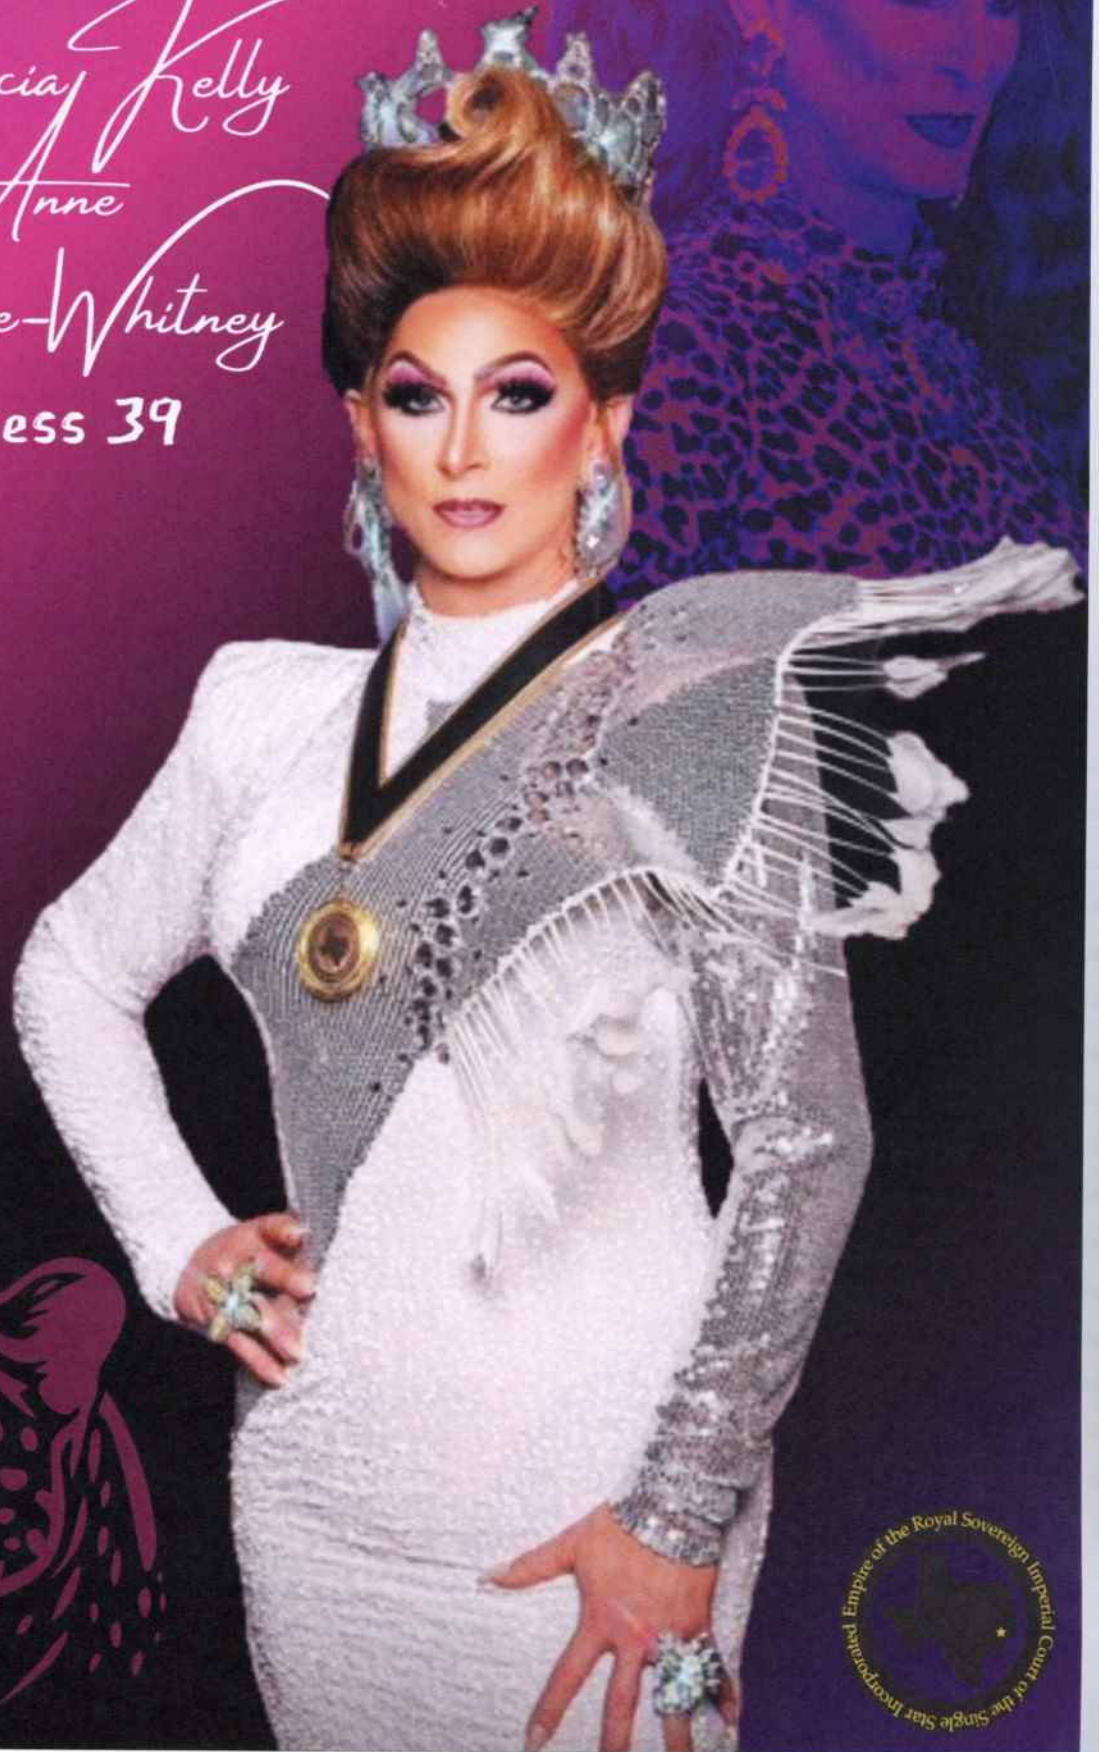

With all my love and gratitude,

Empress 39

Good evening Distinguished Guests, Friends and Family,

On behalf of The Empire of the Royal Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star, Inc. (ERSICSS), I am truly honored and humbled to welcome you all to Houston, Texas for Coronation 40: "Beauty and the Beast with a Grimm's Twist."

Wow...where do I start off? This has been a long time coming for me, as I have been a part of the International Court System and ERSICSS for almost 17 years now, and I have had the honor and pleasure of meeting such a vast number of individuals whom I can truly call family. My journey throughout the years has had a fair share of ups and downs but those moments only made me strong enough to become the Empress I had always hoped to become. The challenge when I sat down start writing my final letter as the Reigning Empress 39 of ERSICSS and All of Houston wasn't so much in the words that I was going to put down on paper but it was in the way that I was going to be able to give the full respect and appreciation to everybody that has helped me get to this place in my life.

I want to start off by thanking you all for being here this evening, and especially my family for being part of such a huge milestone with me. To my mother, Vivian Bridges, my late father, Charles Preiss, my brother, Morgan Preiss, my nephew and niece, Corgan and Rowan Preiss...it is because of the upbringing and growth into adulthood that you all were part of that has helped me become the person you see before you now.

I am very thankful that I have my biological family here tonight and, in my life, to help support me. As we all know, it truly takes a village and having such amazing individuals in my life as my chosen family means all the world to me as well. to name every single person that that I consider family in my life would take forever to be able to do and it would take more than two pages of a letter. So, I will say that you all know who you are, and I will be forever grateful that y'all are part of my life. To my wonderful husband Adrian Avila, or as the majority of you know him as Talon the Foxx Devereaux Whitney, I know we've had our rough patches, but we've also had some amazing times; always know that I would not ever want to go through any of those moments with anybody else. Deep down we both know that we love and support each other no matter what we decide to do in our lives and careers. You are truly the biggest pain in my butt, but you are also and will always be the true love of my life. Mama Cindy, you and I have such an intense and natural connection that even if we wanted to, we could never explain it to others, much less ourselves. Mama Helen, you inspire me in some many ways to never forget those moments of humor in life. I realize now that you have to savor and enjoy those moments when they are here, because tomorrow is truly never guaranteed. And Jerry...all I will say is I love the dynamic you and I have and you have always been there to help protect me, so thank you for that. Buy if you do get out of line, just remember..." First of All,...5 More Anna Mae..."

These next individuals I am simply going to list here as they all encompass the overwhelming love and vital support; I was so very fortunate to have over the course of so many years within the ICS system and ERSICSS history. And I just know I will be miss naming out individuals, and please know that it is not at all intentional in any way whatsoever, but that my love, loyalty, and unwavering devotion will always withstand the test of time as the love you all have shown me has only grown exponentially throughout the years. As a drag performer/entertainer, we count our blessings if we are able to connect with just one individual who becomes a mentor to us in the form of a Drag Mother; well, I was extremely lucky and fortunate to have had six drag mothers throughout my career. Now do you all understand why I have so many freaking names??...just sayin...lol. The first of the six is Alicia Kelly, followed up by MJ Summors, then the cherished yet never forgotten Angel herself Crystal Rae Lee Love, then Esmeralda Kane-Jaymes, and as I got a wee bit closer to campaigning season to become Empress 39, I then was fortunate to add to that Co-Parenting monstrosity, Shy Anne and closing off this beautiful "Sister Wives Meets ICS Spinoff" with Alexis Nicole Whitney. Now I am not wanting simply throw their names out their like that, but hopefully looking at each one of them gives you a better understanding as to where I came from. On top of just naming my drag mothers/mentors, I have had the most gracious pleasure of getting to know people from all over that have become not just my Imperial Family, but simply put...they are my true family forever and always. I have gained Imperial Fathers, Imperial Mothers, Brothers and Sisters, and even children (which some were definitely a choice for sure, but I do so love all of them no matter what). I do want to give a special shoutout to a few true sisters I have known for quite some time and honestly, I would not have ever become Empress 39 nor would I be alive today to enjoy this most amazing journey that I have. I am simply going to list these ladies and leave it there, because each of them will know what their friendships and their love and support has meant to me. For you all I will forever and always be grateful for the fact that each of them and all of you, for that matter, were brought into my life. As I sit here and reflect on the changes I have made throughout my life and career and only was able to do that with this unconditional love and support from everyone in my life, I am humbled and overwhelmed, and truly honored. And yes, to everyone asking while reading this letter, I am crying at this very moment writing this. Growing up, I had the most amazing older brother, yet never had a sister; probably because I was the one putting on my mother's makeup, dresses, and shoes (which were crazy high heels backs in those days...lol). But to my sisters...my true sisters...Diamond, Shanda, Kerri, Brandi, JoAnn, Kari, Marcia, Anne Marie, Shelby, Sofonda, DD, Kimberly, Lillian, and Angela. These are the ladies I met earlier on coming in as a little baby charity queen, and no matter the poor decisions I was making in my life during that time, not one of you treated in any poor manner that I was doing to myself. You were the ones reaching out to me simply to say you appreciated me for being in your lives. I'm sorry...but what?!? But it was because of that undying love you all showed me that helped me to become someone I could love and respect...and I am so greatly for you all! In closing, this is my advice to all of you, but more focused on any of you who may aspire one day. Cherish those connections you make, cherish all the love you can find, and cherish all the ones who will help make your journey one hell of a ride.

*Borque Anastacia, Kellyanne
Whitney, Sonier Fantane, Whitney*

Lastly to my Emperor 39, Borque Duran Whitney Bouvier, we initially had a fairly structured foundation with a friendship prior to stepping into these positions together, which does help to make that transition smoother for sure. But for me, the love and respect that you and I built together for the entire Reign 39 has given me memories that I will forever cherish. You set out in the beginning to make this Reign 39 about me since it did take almost 16 years for me to get here, and even after arguing that point numerous times with you throughout the year, you still somehow were always that shining Emperor taking care of his Empress, and not because you felt obligated tradition places that duty at the Emperor's feet. No... you did so much for me because you actually wanted to and not because you "had to," and for that I will never be able to express the amount of appreciation and love I have for you...my brother, my friend, and my Emperor. But I do want you to hear me when I say...It was, in fact, OUR Reign together, and ultimately you and I both know we did the damn thing.

Once again, thank you all for being here in Houston with ERSICSS, to celebrate not just Borque and I, but the ones who did all the work to make our Reign 39 so phenomenally fabulous for His Majesty and I. Now I ask all of you to sit back, enjoy yourselves this evening, and please allow us to take you all on a spectacular journey of Tradition, Strength, Love, and Compassion as we embark on "Beauty and the Beast with a Grimm's Twist," Our 40th Anniversary Coronation.

Hugs and Luvs...Forever and Always...
