HOUSTON LESBIAN AND GAY PRIDE WEEK 1996

MAY 1996

From the Pride Parade Co-Chairs

Robin Duncan & Ray Ramirez

Pride Week is almost upon us again, and it should be noted by those who have something to sell that the Pride Parade and associated events are one of the best opportunities to market to the lesbian and gay community. We're asking that you plan now what your organization or business would like to accomplish during June 14 through 23.

To bring this thing off, we're going to need the help of volunteers. We intend to streamline the mandatory meeting for volunteers and registration procedures to be held at 7 p.m. June 11 at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center at 1475 West Gray at Waugh.

Also, our parade staging area will still be around Lanier Junior High School on Westheimer. It is our intention to have more parade committee volunteers assisting with the parade. Abercrombie's office has assured the committee that the officers to be on duty are sensitive to alternative lifestyles. We as responsible citizens must abide by many rules and regulations in order to have a parade. We have assured the constable's office that our community will do so. If you need to report an incident of non-compliance with rules of the parade or applicable laws, please see a parade staff member.

The theme "Pride Knows No Borders" brings to mind many interpretations. Remember, we reserve the right to remove any individual or organization that is not in compliance with the rules and regulations set forth by the Pride Committee. If your organization does not have a sign already made, general guidelines we recommend are that it be three feet by eight feet with a PVC frame. The Pride Committee must abide by

1996 Pride Merchandise Available

This year's logo, "Pride Knows No Borders," is now available on T-shirts and tank-tops. Both T-shirts and tanks are white with the logo printed across the chest. The shirts are 100 percent cotton and are available in small, medium, large and extra-large. The price remains the same as last year, $10.00. One improvement over last year is smaller arm holes in the tanks, which should be welcome news to the ladies. Starting April 21, T-Shirts and tanks can be found at Inklings, Lobo, Crossroads Market, Basic Brothers and Wear It Again Sam's. Check next month's newsletter for other locations. Also new this year are our adjustable bottle straps. The strap is designed with a rubber ring that fits over the neck of any size bottle. It frees up your hands for other things but keeps your drink handy. The straps, a very popular item at the Westheimer Street Festival,

MISSION STATEMENT

The Pride Committee of Houston, Inc. is a non-profit (c)(3) organization whose purpose is to coordinate and promote events which celebrate the diversity, unity and history of the Lesbian and Gay Community. We do not discriminate on the basis of color, gender, transgender or bi-sexual identification, the physically challenged or differently abled or on the basis of age.

We are here to commemorate, educate and celebrate our pride and to create a path towards a positive future for all humanity not to exclude any segment of who we are as a people.

To bring this thing off, we're going to need the help of volunteers. We intend to streamline the mandatory meeting for volunteers and registration procedures to be held at 7 p.m. June 11 at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center at 1475 West Gray at Waugh.

Also, our parade staging area will still be around Lanier Junior High School on Westheimer. It is our intention to have more parade committee volunteers assisting with the line-up. Plan to hear a few whistle commands to stand ready and move out. There is much interest in the community, and momentum is building. We ask that two pacers from each organization assist with parade movement. These pacers should make themselves easily identifiable by wearing white shorts and white shirts.

Water stations will be available at staging and route areas of the parade. Portable restrooms will be on Harold St. Please remember to bring a trash bag or two and use them. Please be responsible for the litter of your own group and report incidents of littering to parade staff. The parade staff will be identified by Pride Parade Staff/Parade Volunteer T-shirts.

Security for the parade and festival will be provided by Constable Jack Abercia's of-the parade or applicable laws, please see a parade staff member.

If your organization does not have a sign already made, general guidelines we recommend are that it be three feet by eight feet with a PVC frame. The Pride Committee must abide by the ordinances of the City of Houston and the laws of the State of Texas. Please remember, be friendly, work together and have a safe, good time.

If you would like to volunteer for the parade committee, please call the Pride line, 521-6979 and ask that someone from the parade committee return your call. We look forward to seeing you at the parade.

BUNNIES

What started as an informal backyard party about 16 years ago is now what you know as Bunnies on the Bayou, the Easter Sunday fund-raiser that this year raised more than $20,000 for gay and lesbian related charities.

"It basically started in someone's backyard as an Easter party, and it continued to grow and grow and grow," said Jim Taylor, president of the Bunnies organization. "For many years, it was held on Polk Street at an apartment complex around the pool. That's where we started initially just asking for food donations for Stone Soup food pantry, and then I think it was in 1991 that we moved it down to the Wortham Center Fish Plaza."

Bunnies has been so successful, drawing more than 2,300 this year, that the Wortham Center site is growing cramped. "I'm sure we'll do something similar this year. It may be at the same location. It may not. Basically, we're bursting at the seams. We can barely get any more people in there it's so crowded." However, if a park expansion is completed by Easter 1997, the venue will likely remain the same as there will be more space available.

Of the money raised by Bunnies this year, the Pride Committee will receive about $4,500, Taylor said. Last year, Bunnies gave the Pride Committee about $2,500.

Of the money raised by Bunnies this year, the Pride Committee will receive about $4,500, Taylor said. Last year, Bunnies gave the Pride Committee about $2,500.

Bunnies party hosts are invited to join the Bunnies group that puts on the party. The group is never larger than 30 members. This year there were 29 who contributed their time and money to making the party a success. Sponsors and contributors also support the party. For instance, this year's biggest item, beer, was picked up by a sponsor who made an in-kind contribution.

Other organizations who will benefit from this year's Bunnies party are the Assistance Fund, the PWA Coalition, the Montrose Clinic. Also, Stone Soup receives food donations every year. For the first time this year, Street Wise will receive the donations of toiletry items.

"One thing I think is something we're very proud of is 100 percent of everything that is donated at the Easter Sunday event goes to the charities. None of the money that's donated on Easter Sunday pays for the party," Taylor said. The hosts and sponsors paid about $13,000 to put on this year's party.

The non-profit 501(c)(3) status of Bunnies is pending with the IRS. If you would like to make a donation or would like more information on Bunnies on the Bayou, write to P.O. Box 66832.

Get Involved !!!

Join Us to Make a Better Pride Week

Events

This committee stimulates interest and gathers applications to schedule community activities during Pride Week for publication in the Pride Guide and other media releases. Lots of fun, lots of work, lots of opportunities to meet people and be in the know.

Fund-raising

A year-round committee that thinks up and produces fun events that raise funds for the Pride Committee's operations budget. The committee also develops joint efforts with other non-profit organizations. If you want to be involved with only one project or event, come join us. Ideas are always welcome.

Media, outreach, video

This committee reaches out locally, statewide and nationally via print and broadcast media to let everyone know what the Pride Committee is doing. The committee also promotes interest in Gay and Lesbian Pride mail to the Post Office.

Merchandising

This committee selects merchandise to sell, solicits bids, places orders and coordinates sales parties. The group consists of people who like to meet new people.

Newsletter

Once a month throughout the year, the Pride Committee publishes a newsletter (this one, in fact). Members of this committee find out what is happening with the other committees and report on the progress and development of Pride Week and other community activities. The committee solicits articles and produces the newsletter. This is a great opportunity for anyone interested in writing articles or gaining valuable experience with print media.

Pride Guide

Once a year, the Pride Committee publishes the Pride Guide. The publication is distributed in time to promote Pride

Parade

This committee is in charge of hundreds of people marching down Westheimer. The committee seeks sponsorships, obtains insurance, organizes with the police and health department, arranges cleanup, obtains city permits, sends applications to participants, organizes parade volunteers, finds judges, assembles reviewing stands, handles street decorations, trophies, Pride Committee transportation and orders banners. This committee needs many people with strong organizational and communication skills to make it work.

Pride Fest

This group isn't happy unless there's a huge party waiting to reward our marchers and attendees at the parade's end. They find entertainment, solicit vendors, decorate the grounds, coordinating efforts with the Parade Committee.

PUMPED UP ON ART:

Pumped up On Art is an auction that takes high-heel pumps of celebrity women and auctions one shoe, autographed as is. The other is turned into a work of art by a local artist reflecting who the celebrity is. Shoes already have arrived from Gloria Estefan, Dionne Warwick, Sally Jesse Raphael, CeCe Penniston and Ruth Buzzie, as well as others. Promises of shoes to come are in from The Pointer Sisters, Morgan Fairchild, Charro and Elton John.

This event, in conjunction with Pride Fest '96, will raise money for Milam House, The Gay & Lesbian Switchboard and The Texas Lesbian Conference. Pride Fest '96 is a free, outdoor concert immediately following the Lesbian & Gay Pride Parade. Pride Fest '95, a first-attempt at this format, saw 8,000 attendees by official police count following the parade to a concert featuring Houston's own Pinque Chicago House Divae Dajae and Lesbian Dance Band Fem 2 Fem. Pride Fest '96 will expand on the success of last year's event by adding even more and bigger talent. The line-up for the 1996 event includes the stage debut of up and coming Houston singer Maison and non-profit organizations. If you want to be involved with only one project or event, come join us. Ideas are always welcome.

Media, outreach, video

This committee reaches out locally, statewide and nationally via print and broadcast media to let everyone know what the Pride Committee is doing. The committee also promotes interest in Gay and Lesbian Pride Week.

Mailouts

Every month, we publish this newsletter and once a year we mail 5,000 Pride Guides. This committee learns the U.S. Postal Service routines, organizes mailout materials, provides motivational food and music for volunteers at the mailouts and delivers bags of completed Pride developments of Pride Week and other community activities. The committee solicits articles and produces the newsletter. This is a great opportunity for anyone interested in writing articles or gaining valuable experience with print media.

Pride Guide

Once a year, the Pride Committee publishes the Pride Guide. The publication is distributed in time to promote Pride Week. It contains a resource guide that is a listing of local organizations and services. This committee solicits advertising to offset its costs, gathers and develops content, designs, produces and distributes the guides. If you've ever wanted to gain large-scale print media experience, then this is the committee for you.

Please specify if the event is not open to everyone. Use our format as a guide for listings, including time, date, place, contact person and most important, a phone number.
