AFH FIRST CELEBRITY BANQUET

Actress Morgan Fairchild Is Guest of Honor at Banquet; Eleanor Tinsley Is Honored.

DALLAS — Actress Morgan Fairchild flew in from Hollywood last Friday, April 27, to be the guest of honor at the first black-tie celebrity banquet for AIDS Foundation Houston [AFH]. The elegant soiree, held at the Inn on the Park, was a fundraiser for AFH.

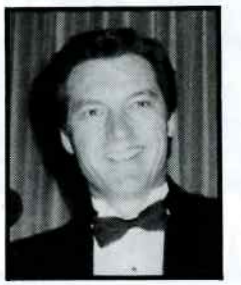

Fairchild, like Elizabeth Taylor and Dionne Warwick, has become a noted celebrity spokesperson in the battle to raise national awareness about AIDS.

At the Houston banquet, she told of how she first got involved in AIDS, recalling in 1981 when she read of a small cluster of young men in New York who had developed Kaposi's sarcoma. "They were gay, all 11 cases," said Fairchild.

"Then later I saw an article about 20 gay men in San Francisco who had developed pneumocystis pneumonia. One by one they started dying," she stated.

"That's when I got everything I could read about this strange new disease which at the time had no name. As the cases mounted, so did my concern.

"In 1985, my wardrobe man on my TV show died of AIDS. In the summer of that year, Rock Hudson woke up the press with the fact he was dying of AIDS," recalled Fairchild.

She told of how the press swarmed on Hollywood over the Hudson story and how the press came to her to speak about it.

"I was one of the only celebrities who knew anything about AIDS. I don't know why people will listen to an actress, rather than a doctor, talk about AIDS," questioned Fairchild.

"I decided to go on the networks to help stem the panic and educate the public. Also, I feared there would be a homophobic backlash because fear brings out the worst in people. Frustration. Rage. It's not a pretty disease, nor a kind disease.

"But, I must tell you that PWAs are the greatest people I've ever met," said Fairchild. "Being involved with AIDS has been the best use of my life."

Fairchild closed her remarks by saying she had recently spoken with former U.S. Surgeon General C. Everett Koop. "He gave me two things to tell you: Don't fall prey to complacency. And don't fall for the lie that AIDS is manageable."

Fairchild, formerly of Dallas, said she was still proud to be a Texan. In this AIDS crisis, "We have that good ol' Texas willingness to be generous."

Also honored at last Friday's AFH banquet was Houston City Councilperson Eleanor Tinsley. Presenting the award to Tinsley was John Paul Barnich, who said, "I am real proud of Eleanor. She's a breath of fresh air.

"She's earned our support in her bid for county commissioner," he stated. "She came to AFH when AIDS first came along. She asked, 'What can I do?' She was there when we cut the ribbon on the food pantry," recalled Barnich.

In accepting her award, Tinsley remarked, "AFH has been in the trenches fighting AIDS for eight years. The foundation's work is so desperately needed. And you desperately need new and bigger quarters for the food pantry."

Tinsley quoted some numbing statistics about Houston, which has the country's fourth largest AIDS population. "Someone dies of AIDS in Houston every 17 hours and a new case is diagnosed every 12 hours, according to the statistics I get," said Tinsley.

During the program, Janice Gore Thomas was introduced as the new chairperson of the AFH Board of Trustees, succeeding Barnich, who recently stepped down after many years of service.

In her remarks, Thomas said she was "thrilled that the board of directors is a working board, devoting their efforts." She also recognized AFH member Jack Jackson for recently being honored with Mayor Kathryn Whitmire's Volunteer of the Year award.

Master of ceremonies for the black-tie banquet was Bob Boudreaux, news anchor for KTRK-TV. "AIDS is an affliction that affects more than just one segment of our population," he said in his introductory remarks.

Evelyn Cox, AFH Executive Director, told the audience that she hoped to make the celebrity banquet an annual affair. "I want to thank everyone who attended and especially those who bid on the silent auction," said Cox.

She also thanked the Inn on the Park for donating their dining room and all the entertainers who donated their time.

The evening ended with Morgan Fairchild pulling out the winning ticket stub in the raffle. "The winner is Joe Ricker," said emcee Boudreaux.

The choir of the Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church closed the evening with a stirring montage of spirituals, ending with the national AIDS anthem, "That's What Friends Are For."

"The evening was a sold-out success with over $25,000 raised from table reservations," Cox said in an after-dinner conversation with TWT NEWS.

DALLAS PWA HOUSE FIRE

Oak Cliff Apt. House for PWAs Suffers Third Fire. Arson Causes $150,000 Ruins.

DALLAS — There's been another fire of strange origin at the PWA Apartment House in suburban Oak Cliff. Even more strange is that this is the third fire the apartment unit has suffered in the last two years.

Like other fires, arson or carelessness at the hands of vagrants is suspected as the cause. Over $150,000 in damage was estimated by the project's Executive Director, Don Maison.

Maison blames the fire, in part, on slow city funding which delayed putting up a security fence around the apartment project to keep out vagrants who are believed to have caused the fire.

In this latest fire, occurring Monday afternoon, April 23, 13 residents were forced to relocate. The Red Cross said it was helping the eight adults and five children find temporary housing .

The first fire destroyed eight units in November of 1988. The second fire, more minor than the other two, erupted last New Year's Day. The latest fire destroyed 10 units.

NORTH TEXAS REST AREA POLICE SCAM

Over 400 Gay Men Bilked Out of $140,000 in False Arrest Bail Bond Swindle.

FORT WORTH — Evidence of police officer John Byron Yarbrough's dark side continues to mount since TWT NEWS first reported on April 6 that the former Fort Worth police officer had been charged with capital murder in the death of a Fort Worth gay hairstylist, Jerry Lee Shaw, 29, in a shooting incident at a rural rest area on Interstate 35 West, near Burleson, Texas.

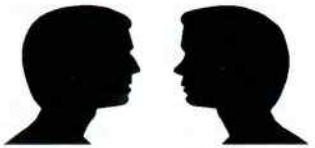

Investigation shows that Yarbrough bilked unsuspecting gay men out of $140,000 in an undercover operation by Wise County deputies.

It turns out that Yarbrough, while sheriff, cooked up a scam for bogus bail bond fees with a friend, David Lowayne Box, who owned a bail bond company. Together, Box and Yarbrough would often pocket up to $1,000 per arrest for reducing charges to a misdemeanor.

The ongoing investigation shows that over 400 men were arrested in the ill-fated sting operation. Often men who had simply stopped at the rest area to use the restroom were accused on trumped-up charges of public lewdness or indecent exposure.

According to a statement released to the Dallas Morning News, an accomplice of the two said, "When he [Yarbrough] was a cop, he used to mug gays in roadside rest stops. He would give the gay men the opportunity to pay him money or go to jail."

Naturally, most of the men paid the money to avoid embarrassment. The scam continued until it backfired with the recent murder of Shaw.

AUSTIN CITY COUNCIL ELECTION THIS SATURDAY

ALGPC Endorses Max Nofziger For Place 1 & Sally Shipman for Place 3 on Austin City Council.

AUSTIN — The Austin Lesbian/Gay Political Caucus [ALGPC] recently held its City Council Candidates Forum and endorsed two candidates in the upcoming City Council elections. The election is this Saturday, May 5, reported ALGPC's Rich Bailey.

After listening to the candidates, caucus members voted to endorse Place 1 incumbent Max Nofziger over his several challengers. In the race for Place 3, the caucus endorsed incumbent Sally Shipman over challenger Louise Epstein.

After listening to four of the eight candidates in the race for Council Place 1 who asked for the caucus endorsement, the caucus gave its endorsement to incumbent Nofziger with 72% of the vote.

In the Place 3 race, with three candidates challenging incumbent Shipman, the caucus voted, after much debate over Shipman's role in the closing of Sally's Apartment, to award her the endorsement with 66% of the vote.

Of the four candidates vying for the Place 4 position, currently held by George Humphrey, none of the candidates managed to gain the 60% of the vote necessary to win an endorsement.

Therefore the caucus gave a "failed to endorse" in that race. Challenger Susan Toomey Frost and George Humphrey were the top vote-getters, with 18 and 13 votes respectively.

Over 50 caucus members listened to and asked questions of the 10 candidates who had asked for the caucus endorsement. Questions ranged from concerns over AIDS funding and how the candidates would deal with the continued attacks on the lesbian and gay community from fundamentalists and APD Vice Squad activity, to questions about moving the airport.

Political Action Chair Cathy Cook expressed her satisfaction with both the turnout from the caucus and the number of candidates who asked for the caucus endorsement, saying, "I think that once again, the candidates have shown how important they consider the ALGPC endorsement. I was also pleased with the number of caucus members who showed up and asked hard questions of the candidates."

If a runoff is needed, it'll be held on Saturday, May 26. Absentee voting took place from April 16 to May 1.

"The caucus encourages everyone to make their voice heard, by voting in this Saturday's City Council election," Bailey remarked.

VIOLENCE AGAINST AUSTIN GAYS IS ON THE RISE

ALGPC Meets with Mayor Cooke to Probe Dramatic Rise in Vice Squad Activity.

AUSTIN — In recent weeks, TWT NEWS has reported that violent acts and police arrests of gays were on the upswing in both Dallas and Houston. Shootings, stabbings, muggings and police harassment have become more common.

Now, TWT NEWS reports that similar acts of violence and discrimination are also on the rise in the capital city. Thus, such incidents have spread into Texas' three largest gay communities.

ALGPC Public Affairs Chair Glen Maxey said he had met recently with Austin Mayor Lee Cooke to discuss the issues surrounding the dramatic rise in vice squad harassment of gay men.

Maxey reported that the Mayor agreed strongly with ALGPC's position that this misdirection of the police department's personnel is of concern.

Maxey related to the Mayor the concern that anti-lesbian/gay violence and harassment is on the upswing in Austin, and that the police should be used to protect the safety of Austin's citizens as a priority over patroling bookstore arcades.

ALGPC has received many calls in recent months concerning police arrests for public lewdness of men who are by themselves in arcades.

"To the best of our knowledge, all of these cases are being thrown out by the courts as non-prosecutable," said Maxey.

"And yet, the vice squad continues to waste time, tax dollars and effort, as well as disrupting these persons' lives by arresting them in what appears to be a systematic plan of harassment," he remarked.

Mayor Cooke stated that the City Manager was to meet with the Police Chief and determine why these actions were occurring, and promised to report back to the ALGPC very soon.

As a follow-up, ALGPC will continue to press elected officials for resolution and explanation of these police actions.

Meanwhile, in Austin's adult arcades, not breaking the law can land one in jail. Vice squad officers "inspecting" arcade booths for required health warnings are using their "inspections" as probable cause to arrest single individuals within the privacy of a booth.

Vice officers Richard Blackmore and Richard McFadin appear to be using this tactic in a personal crusade, observed Maxey. And, even though municipal courts and the Travis County Attorney have declined to pursue these cases, police administrators are pressing for prosecution in other courts, it was learned.

Defense attorneys are working to develop an accurate picture of the scope of these bogus arrests, TWT NEWS learned.

AUSTIN FORUM ON TB & AIDS

Doctors Hopewell & Lopez Say There Is Definite Linkup Between AIDS & Tuberculosis.

AUSTIN — Speaking Friday, April 20 at an all-day forum at the Wyndham Southpark Hotel, doctors Philip Hopewell and Sylvia Lopez were joined by ASA's Dwayne Haught in presenting data that continues to show there's a definite linkup between AIDS and tuberculosis.

The audience was told that in New York City, there have been striking increases in numbers of tuberculosis cases. Between 1981 and 1984, the annual number of newly reported cases was steady at approximately 1,600.

However, in 1986, this number increased to 2,200, a 36 percent increase. This increase largely occurred in groups that epidemiologically were more likely to have the HIV infection, said the doctors.

Tuberculosis is perhaps the only HIV-associated infection that clearly can be transmitted from person to person, whether or not they are HIV-infected. If diagnosed, the disease can be effectively treated, they told the audience.

During the forum it was stated that at the turn of the century, tuberculosis, the white plague, was the nation's leading cause of death. As medical science advanced, the threat of tuberculosis diminished. Until now.

Many Americans are now aware of AIDS, which breaks down the body's immune system, which normally protects us against diseases such as tuberculosis.

Unlike other diseases, tuberculosis can gain the upper hand in a person in the early stages of the HIV infection with less severe degrees of immune system compromise. "Data suggests that the rate of persons infected with both HIV and tuberculosis is very high," said the medical officials.

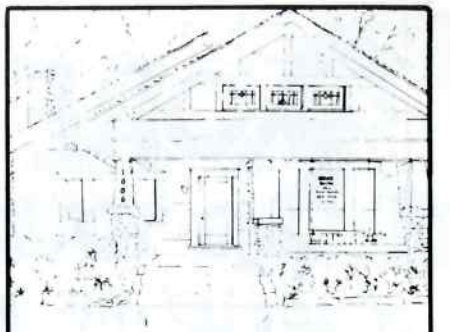

Friday's forum was presented by AIDS Services of Austin in cooperation with the American Lung Association of Texas.

THRF GETS TWO GRANTS

DIFFA Donates $1,000 & Razzle Dazzle Dallas Gives $600 in Addition to $6,120.

AUSTIN — The Texas Human Rights Foundation [THRF] announced the receipt of two grants totaling over $1,600 from the Design Industries Foundation for AIDS [DIFFA] and from Razzle Dazzle Dallas.

The monies will go toward support of THRF's two main current areas of work—its AIDS Legal Resource Project and prosecution of its challenge to the constitutionality of the Texas sodomy statute in the 21.06 case.

Of the grants awarded, one is for $1,000 from DIFFA. DIFFA was the main producer of the national tour of "Heartstrings: An Evening of Hope for the Healing of AIDS," which featured former President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter as national honorary chairpersons. "Heartstrings" played in Houston in February of this year and in San Antonio and Dallas last year on its three-city Texas tour.

The $1,000 will be utilized by THRF to help pay overhead costs in the operation of its AIDS Legal Resource Project. During the 12-month period ending March 31, the AIDS Legal Resource Project served a total of 528 clients. The project is a statewide counseling and referral service for persons who have AIDS-related legal problems.

Margaret Tucker, coordinator of the AIDS Legal Resource Project, expressed appreciation for DIFFA's support of the project and reiterated the need for legal services for persons with HIV infection.

"Texas now has three cities—Houston, Dallas and Austin—on the Centers for Disease Control's latest list of the 20 metropolitan areas with the highest incidence of AIDS diagnoses," said Tucker.

"At the same time, Texas has a legislature which has refused to provide specific protections for persons with HIV infection against employment and health care/insurance discrimination, but focused instead on criminalization of HIV transmission and homophobic limitations on AIDS care funding. Legal services are, unfortunately, an essential part of the AIDS struggle," she said.

THRF has also received a grant of approximately $600 from Razzle Dazzle Dallas, receiving notification recently from that organization's president, Reed Hunsdorfer.

The $600 grant represented additional proceeds held back by Razzle Dazzle Dallas after its 1989 event as an emergency fund, to be distributed Razzle Dazzle Dallas to organizations in the lesbian and gay community if not tapped sooner for an appropriate need. THRF had previously received $6,120 from Razzle Dazzle Dallas as a beneficiary of the proceeds of the 1989 event.

THRF board member David Bryan said that the monies from Razzle Dazzle Dallas would be used to help pay legal fees and educational costs in THRF's lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the Texas sodomy statute, Section 21.06.

BIG CHANGES AT NAPWA

National Reorganization Puts Texas in Four-State Unit 9; Jerrell Replaces Mason as Prez.

TEXAS — Austin PWA Charles Caulfield has just returned from the National Association of People With AIDS [NAPWA] annual Board of Directors meeting held in Seattle April 4-11, and reported that since requests for NAPWA's services have caused a massive organizational growth, structural changes in the geographic divisions of NAPWA have been made.

Regional congresses of local coalitions will allow a high participation in the activities of the national coalition, without the high cost of traveling to the national meetings, Caulfield told TWT NEWS.

Texas is in the newly created four-state Unit 9, which includes Kansas, Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma. Local coalitions will be contacted through the national offices about how to proceed if they choose to participate in NAPWA.

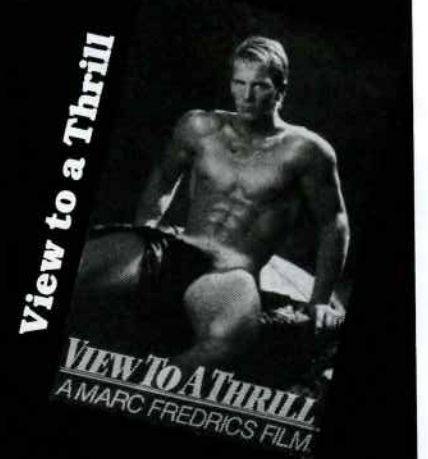

Belinda Mason has resigned as president of the organization. Some recent health problems and her commitment to participating on the National AIDS Commission meant that she was not able to devote enough energy to the organization.

In her stead was elected Ron Jerrell, from Kentucky, as the new president of NAPWA. He will be the U.S. delegate and keynote speaker at the International Conference in Madrid, Spain in May.

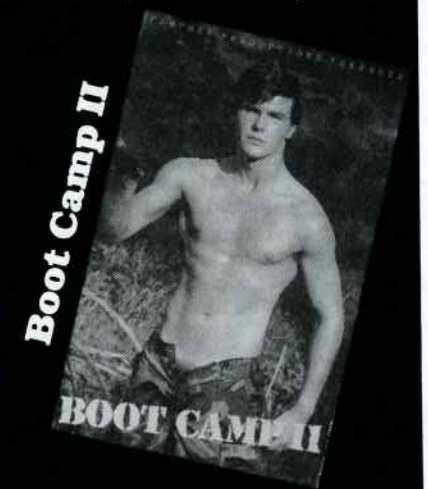

The Medical Affairs committee, which consists of Chuck Mayer of Tucson and Caulfield of Austin, has resulted in a standard of PWA participation in policy surrounding AIDS in all its aspects.

Two successes were NAPWA's participation in the creation of the Parallel Track in Drug treatment access, and the negotiations with Burroughs Wellcome resulting in a 20% reduction in the price of AZT.

Billy Burton of Dallas resigned as a board member of NAPWA and as its liaison to the National Lesbian/Gay Health Foundation. He said he will remain an emeritus board member, with all privileges but voting.

As NAPWA reorganizes, coalitions will be updated on the changes as they occur. Until a Region 9 congress of PWAs can be convened, Caulfield said he will be the voting board member and interim chair.

BOAT OPPOSES NEW TABC RULES ON DRINK PRICES

Bar Owners Prez Says Proposed Rules Are Not Needed Since Bartenders Know Who's Drunk Enough.

AUSTIN — As the TABC hearings on regulating discounted drink pricing got under way last Monday, Billy Ray Hill, president of the Bar Owners & Associates of Texas [BOAT], issued a stern statement opposing what has been proposed.

In a statement made available to TWT NEWS, Hill said the TABC doesn't need to set up more rules as there are already enough regulations in place. Hill also said that bartenders know better than anyone else who's had enough to drink and don't need any more rules to that effect.

"Each and every drink is served one at a time, no matter what the price," said Hill. "With each serving, the server [bartender] has another opportunity to look at the purchaser [customer] and make a judgment as to their level of intoxication before serving them again."

Hill also told the hearing panelists that servers, managers and bar owners "are well aware that the violation of any rules could lead to the loss of their business and their investment.

"This fact, coupled with the present rules and their active enforcement by the [TABC] commission, as we know they do, would seem to be more than adequate to restrict service to intoxicated persons in mixed beverage establishments without expanding the rules and without further restricting the manner in which permittees are allowed to conduct their business," said Hill, a longtime Fort Worth bar owner.

The proposed rules which Hill refers to would place new regulations on happy hour, outlawing happy hour discounted pricing after 11 p.m.; eliminate two-for-one drinks; rule out nickel beer nights; nix liquor busts where customers can drink unlimited alcohol for one price; and other regulations such as serving larger drinks at regular prices.

"We feel that most of these new rules will only serve to restrict the boundaries within which responsible business persons will be allowed to operate their business," said Hill in a statement obtained by TWT NEWS.

FORT WORTH — Ken Huntington, cofounder of Texas Gay Veterans, has advised TWT NEWS that he has been asked to testify before Congress on many veterans issues on Wednesday, May 16.

The Joiner Center has arranged for Huntington and Arnesen, as well as leaders of gay veterans organizations in California, to testify before the Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations, part of the Veterans Affairs Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives. Chairman of the Subcommittee is Congressman Lane Evans of Illinois, a supporter of many gay issues.

During his testimony, Huntington said he will brief members of Congress and congressional staffers on many issues of concern to all veterans, such as AIDS, homelessness, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), quality of hospital care, as well as the importance of Congressional repeal of Article 125 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, all of which is contained in Title 10 of the U.S. Code.

Article 125 of the UCMJ contains the onerous anti-gay provisions, and repeal or amendment of Article 125 would be a giant step toward allowing gays and lesbians to serve in the United States Armed Forces with dignity and honor.

After that, a Department of Defense policy needs to be rescinded. That policy, instituted in 1981, states that homosexuality is not consistent with good order and discipline in the armed forces.

Based on information received from NEGLBV and the Coalition of California Gay & Lesbian Veterans Organizations, Texas Gay Veterans is the only gay veterans organization between the Appalachians and the Rockies.

Texas Gay Veterans, in cooperation with the Tarrant County Gay Alliance, was at the forefront of last December's investigation of a witchhunt of over 20 gay soldiers at Carswell Air Force Base.

CINCO DE MAYO PARTY

AFA, FAR & GLAD Join to Present Holiday Celebration This Saturday, May 5, in Dallas.

DALLAS — This Saturday, May 5, will be a special day for two reasons. It is the date of the Cinco de Mayo Party at the River Oaks Condo Clubhouse, and it is an event sponsored by three different gay and lesbian organizations. AFA, FAR and GLAD are joining together to sponsor a party which celebrate's Mexico's independence.

AFA [AIDS Funding Assn.] was formed over two years ago to provide funds for special needs of PWAs. Alan Cutler, President of AFA, said that his organization is smaller, so they can give funds directly to those in need.

AFA hosts social functions once a month, as well as a monthly business meeting. Dues are $12 annually.

They also hold special fund-raising events, like their recent garage sale that netted almost $800. For more information, call (214)520-7865.

FAR [Friends Associating and Relating] is a social group that provides an alternative to the bar scene. Their adventures range from trips to Six Flags and Scarborough Fair to potluck dinners.

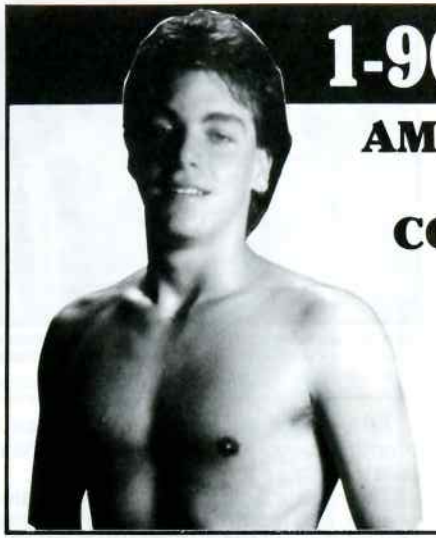

There are no dues, and the only requirement for membership is attendance at three functions. They meet every Tuesday night, and at other times for special functions. For more information, call (214) 727-4163 or (214)625-9775.

GLAD [Gay & Lesbian Hispanics of Dallas] is a special group that is bonded together in two ways: members are either Hispanics or are interested in Hispanics, and they are gay or lesbian.

Roland Cruz, a board member of GLAD, said the group has recently reorganized and drawn up a five-year plan for their goals and purposes. For more information, call Roland at (214)526-5893.

Together these groups will hold the Cinco de Mayo Party, this Saturday night, May 5, from 8 p.m. to midnight. The $5 donation at the door will include unlimited beer or soft drinks, a Mexican buffet and live entertainment. The address is 4837 Cedar Springs, with parking on the upper level.

With all three groups joining together, they told Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS that they expect a large turnout and a great time. Celebrate part of your Texas heritage by joining them this weekend. And then exercise your community pride by getting involved in one of these organizations. Happy Cinco de Mayo!

COMMENT

Muggings & Jumpings

Dear TWT:

I'm writing this COMMENT letter in concern about the frequent muggings and jumpings in the Montrose area! A lot of people have been laughing about it as if it will not happen to them. But to those who laugh it off, that's a bowlful, because it happened to me last night!

Yes, I'm upset and a lot shaken, and put back because it happened to me. Someone needs to have more patrols out there. Being gay is being proud of what and who we are; not being preyed upon! Come on, let's get together, not let one little downfall put a bruise on our spirits.

We don't have to be so damned weak to have people jump on us in our community. If this is gay pride, then it's a disgrace. I want people to know that these frequent fag bashings aren't proper.

But what are we supposed to do about it, "hide and watch and hope it will go away"? It will not until we learn to protect our pride. I'm not some token fag-basher's punching bag. I'm a human that loves life to the fullest.

But I will not stand by and be silent. Something has to be done and soon! If there's nothing done, who are we going to find dead on the street? All my life I've been told to stand proud and tall. But how can I when I'm taking a few steps to socialize, and then jumped from behind?

For the love of God, do we have to shout and then scream? The police will not touch something gay-related. Come on, guys and girls, let's come together please! We need to!

Shawn V. Cole
Lee Kubiak
Houston, TX

You'll be pleased to learn that steps are being taken to correct the situation. New hate crimes legislation was recently passed by Congress. And, in Montrose, club owners are taking steps to protect the community. You're right, Shawn and Lee, none of us are "token fag-bashing punching bags." Our City Council members are aware of the problems. The machinery at City Hall is investigating complaints like yours. Things will get better.

Also, nightclub owner Charles Armstrong advised TWT NEWS that last Monday he hand-delivered an "urgent memorandum" to new Houston Police Chief Elizabeth Watson and assistant police chief Thomas Koby, documenting no less than six incidents by "hijackers." So, as you can see, steps are being taken to make Montrose safer.—Editor

Arrieagus Booking Fiasco

If you were expecting Florida entertainer Tiffany Arrieagus to do a show recently at a club near you on her recent 12-city Texas tour and wondered what happened, the following COMMENT letter of explanation from Tiffany will relate the rest of the story.—Editor

Dear TWT:

I must make a public apology to a number of Texas nightclubs that were interested in booking me but were not able to confirm with John David Williams, who was representing me after orchestrating a wonderful tour for me last January.

Can you imagine how I felt after taking off work in Florida to come to Texas for three weeks, only to find out that only two of the 12 bookings guaranteed me by John were completed? Others were completed, but because of John, dancers didn't show up, thus making one of those contracts null and void. However, of the four (only four) contracts that I received from John, two were legally signed and two were forged.

Some people may think that writing this letter in a magazine is a bit extreme, but I don't. The public has a right to know when there is someone in our community that is totally wrong. No one deserves to be lied to and travel halfway across America at their own expense for work that isn't there. I've learned recently that I am not the first.

Nightclub owners and managers do not need or deserve the added expense or embarrassment of advertising an act that cannot be there because contracts were not completed, thus lending itself to disputes over original agreement and new deals because John lied. Now everything must change.

The disappointment is a two-way street—the lost revenue is shared between all parties involved, and most of all the customers are totally shot because they aren't given what they were promised.

John has hurt many entertainers, bar owners and customers—people who didn't need his interference in their lives.

I thank with all my heart those clubs who understood and still allowed me to perform in spite of John's foolishness. Thanks for believing in my talent and desire to entertain despite the odds and controversy. Your compassion will be with me forever.

I am once again doing my own booking. For information please call Arrieagus, Inc. (813)876-8667.

Leonard Tharp Tribute

Dear TWT:

I was saddened to learn of the recent passing of Houston's Leonard Tharp.

Anyone familiar with Leonard was aware that his artistic abilities in floral design were without parallel.

When I first moved to Houston in 1977, Leonard was already the golden boy of the River Oaks social scene. He was diligently sought after by hostesses desirous of his unique and natural designs.

Indeed, Houston Home & Garden sometimes seemed a singular showcase of his talents.

I was really moved when I read Leonard's obituary in the major Houston [newspaper] dailies. Listed first among the survivors was his companion. That's very refreshing at a time when other notables in the design industry still refuse to publicly acknowledge their lifestyle.

AIDS has already cut a horrible wound into our community. Now that wound is yet deeper, and ever more painful.

Fortunately, in 1986, An American Style of Flower Arrangement was published, and it leaves us a wonderful reminder of the man and his art. The pages literally glow with the richness of his work, a total delight to the senses. If you're lucky enough to see that book, check out page 183; because, yes, that is Rich's Disco!

I will certainly miss Leonard, his warm spirit, and the magic and beauty he shared with us for so many years.

Art Fest Riddle

Dear TWT:

I just returned from Houston where I attended the Westheimer Art Festival, located at Montrose and Lovett. As usual, the festival created lots of fun for thousands of people. The only disappointment and funny incident is that I could not believe that a gay business would advertise for the Westheimer Colony Art Festival, the very same committee that was responsible for moving the festival away from Westheimer where more gay establishments would profit from the festival. Does this colony of people use any of their profits from the festival to benefit any gay organization, especially an AIDS group?

Why did the Westheimer Colony Art Festival move the festival and why don't they call it the Lovett Montrose Art Festival? The festival was and is a great time for gay and straight people to have fun together. After all, what kind of festival would it be if every gay person would decide not to attend the festival one year? The Westheimer Art Festival belongs on Westheimer, and I for one will donate 10 free spaces for the next festival. Come on, Westheimer merchants, donate free spaces for the next festival. Let's bring the festival back home to Westheimer.

Robert Alfaro
Lafayette, Louisiana

The art festival has nothing to do with sexuality—straight, gay or bi. Instead, it has to do with fun, art, community—a neighborhoodfest. The block of art on Lovett began several years ago so there could be a space for "serious" artists after Liberty Bank closed and was torn down. However, the crowds have never left Westheimer, as you well know by having yourself attended the April 21-22 event. As for free spaces, many Westheimer merchants do make space available to artists, vendors and organizations.—Editor

Sam called the Houston TWT office last Monday and left a message that we should meet him at Mother's on Lovett at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Wasn't it special—the Sam and Jerry Morning Club hosted a surprise thank-you party for us. They even had Keoki Keona there to play for us; weren't we surprised to learn that we had given away a number of tickets to last weekend's performances of the Taffetas at the Tower Theatre? And didn't we have several gin and tonics to recover from the shock of discovering that Sister dearest had discovered our one and only credit card when she dropped by for a cup of coffee last week? She raced to her favorite Rainbow Ticketmaster and charged all those tickets on our card! We believe in being generous, but don't you know that American Express wants their money yesterday.

The situation worsened when Randy Ormes stopped us on the street to tell us how much fun his staff at J.R.'s had giving Taffetas tickets away every hour on the hour. And producer/director Randy Johnson sent a thank-you note written on the back of one of those "free" tickets. Needless to say, Keoki is brushing up on his funeral dirges, 'cause he knows Sister is dead meat when we catch up with her. Watch us play executor of her estate. And now that we are bankrupt, you'll have to purchase your own tickets at the Tower Box Office or at any Rainbow Ticketmaster for the final weekend of the Taffetas.

As If There Weren't Enough to Do: But isn't it great when one has the opportunity to be selective. Cinco de Mayo is being celebrated everywhere in Texas this weekend. If you don't believe us, check out the display ads in this issue of TWT; then you best attend the San Antonio Symphony's evening at the Sunken Garden Theatre in Breckenridge Park in SA. Pops conductor David Mairs and international Tejano star Patsy Torres join the Symphony at 8 p.m. tonight (Friday) for one of those special events sponsored by Bank One. The finale of this event will be a spectacular fireworks display; hurry over to the park, this one is a freebie.

Cruise Alert: Had a call from R.S.V.P. Cruises; Sister just used our credit card to book herself on an extended Caribbean cruise—check out the photo—those are members of her entourage. Call your favorite travel agent or watch the TWT display ads—R.S.V.P. may be running special cruises.

The Wiseguys.

Back on Dry Land: The Dallas-based vocal trio Wiseguys have completed their six cruise ship performance tours with such notables as Harvey Fierstein, Thelma Houston, Diane Schuur and Pudgy. The Wiseguys recently opened for Joan Rivers at the Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis; this week they are in Chicago and then on to New York for a two-week stint at Eighty-Eight's. In late August they are off to the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel's famed Cinegrill for a two-week booking. And aren't we proud that they recently won an award from the Manhattan Association of Cabarets, which was accepted on their behalf by pal Harvey Fierstein.

SYPHILIS AS AIDS, Robert Ben Mitchell

Although there is strong evidence linking syphilis to the AIDS epidemic, the government and medical comunity have, by and large, chosen to ignore that evidence. Forewords by Harris L. Coulter, Ph.D. and Dr. Stephen S. Caiazza.

The Unitarian Fellowship Coffeehouse at 1321 Wirt Road in Houston wants you to join their Cinco de Mayo celebration tomorrow evening, May 5. They are featuring William Reeder, who has recently returned from a tour of France as an accompanist for St. Joseph's Folkloric Dance Group. From "Bach to rock," there will be lots of entertainment for you from 7:30 till 11 p.m. Need a phone number, call (713)673-4034.

Barbara Entman of Houston writes poetry—and she is off to Austin tomorrow, May 5, to give a poetry reading at the Poetry and the Arts Festival in Splash Country. Drop by the Austin History Center at 810 Guadalupe at 2 p.m. on Saturday and enjoy one of the arts we rarely have an opportunity to mention.

Dream Castles: The natives of Galveston Island have a passion for restoration and preservation. One particularly dedicated group is the Galveston Historical Foundation. This Saturday, May 5, you can join the tour of eight private homes and three apartments that will lift your spirits and enhance your appreciation for the arts. Yes, architecture is art—the Galveston Historical Homes Tour is a magnificent example.

The J.C. Trube House.

Share our fantasy or create your own, tour the 1890 J.C. Trube Home. The builder sought to imitate the gothic features of Danish castles. The other homes on the tour are equally beautiful. Get away for a day, head off to the Island City and enjoy the tour. Then kick some sand on Stewart Beach during the Splash Day festivities. You best be checking out the display ads and discover what the island folk and the hill country people have in store for you. Pick up the phone and talk to someone at (409)765-7834—tell them you want to take the Home Tour. You'll feel ever so grand afterwards.

Gary Karr and Harmon Lewis.

How Sweet the Sand: You say you want to go to the theatre after the beach and before you party at the island bars? Good, then call (409)765-1894 and reserve your seat for tomorrow night's (Saturday) "musical comedy of a different ilk" at the Grand 1894 Opera House. Gary Karr and Harmon Lewis will make you hum and chuckle as they spread the "Good News" about the beauty of the double bass. This duo is renowned for songful legato, controlled and eloquent phrasing and extraordinary articulation and balance. Go on, try something new.

Musical History: Give My Regards to Broadway II takes you on a journey through American musical theatre from Gilbert and Sullivan through Andrew Lloyd Weber. Ken Johnson directs on the Musical Stage at Austin's Hyde Park Theatre. Call (512) 452-6688 and they will tell you more. See, we told you that you could Splash, do theatre and then party down at the bars.

Applause, Applause: Texan Clint Black did great at the Music Awards, four, count 'em, four awards. And did you see him last weekend at the Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion in the Woodlands of Houston? You know that Brian Black, who has been playing at the BRB in Houston, is Clint's younger brother. Of course, you know that Pace Entertainment says the Pavilion is the "type of facility performers dream of." We'll tell you more about this new theatre in future issues.

Have two-for-one on us, Cinco de Mayo and Splash Day.

CLASSIC TWT
BY BOB DINEEN

10 years ago this week in Texas

I ask you, how was anyone supposed to pay attention to the news stories and reviews within the pages of TWT when cover shots, such as the one featured this week, were commonplace. Thank God for Splash Day!

Kinda takes your breath away, doesn't it?

Speaking of breathlessness, I know I could barely breathe as I followed the exciting story of Danny Levin's search to find the killer of Bill Raines for a Moustache Magazine expose on the murder in Carl Cochran's torrid critique of the gay publishing business, THE VALLEY OF THE BALLS.

Chuck's TEAsers this week included trumours of bar openings statewide (including the Different Drum and the Unicorn in Houston, and the Tarrant County Mining Company in Arlington), in addition to beachy news of the newly crowned Mr. Splash Day, Mark Firner.

Miss Cesar's Palace triumvirate: Kelly (first runner-up), Scarlet Fever (Miss Cesar's Palace) and Peaches (second runner-up).

SAY, WASN'T THAT... Alan Fredricks being welcomed aboard the Galleon; Linda Petty of Pavillion, simply back by popular demand at Baja's of Dallas; The Stars of Dallas, twinkling brightly on the Landing stage; Terry Chapman, Racking up the hits in Houston; John, Mike (Big Mama) and Ron, 44 years young at the Pink Elephant; Walter and Ronnie at Galveston's Silver Palace Saloon; Rick Harvey and Wayne Barton beached in a bamboo hut for Splash Day; Nichole Cheri, she of the pantomime set, leading the pack at the Face of the Month contest, with Marla Cheri and Nakoma Shaye bringing up the rear; multi-talented Scarlet Fever, wielding yet another crown as she was named the first and only Miss Cesar's Palace; and the entire gay population of Texas on the beach in Galveston and on the rocks in Austin for Splash Day; and Jim Deen, celebrating his 30th birthday all over town. Uhm, let's see, that would make him...oh, you figure it out!

Members of the cocktail set could find comfort in the fact that Dallas' Fraternity House, Galveston's Mary's II, San Antonio's Talk of the Town and Austin's Tex's Colorado Street Bar all boasted bargain basement beverage prices for cost-conscious Texans.

And, finally, should you ever find yourself speechless in an awkward social situation, the Ballsy Carl Cochran offered some LITTLE WHITE WHOPPERS to be used in lieu of less-than-desirable, but more honest, responses. An example, you say? How about, "We'll have to get together sometime," when you really mean "When donkeys orbit!"

And so it was, this week in Texas, 1980.

GALVESTON SPLASH — To the beach! Right on. Yes, Sunday is Splash Day on Galveston Isle so grab your swimsuit and sun tan lotion and kick off summer. The annual Mr. Splash Day contest is this Saturday night at the Kon Tiki. You won't want to miss that. Then, Sunday, after the beach, there's a swimsuit contest at Garbo's. Competition for both guys and gals.

AUSTIN SPLASH — This Sunday, May 6 marks the unofficial start of summer with Splash Day at Hippie Hollow on Lake Travis. Beer, music, fun, sun and thousands of beautiful people from all over Texas. Get your official Splash Day T-shirts from any of the Austin Tavern Guild host bars so you'll have a souvenir to help show off your first tan of 1990. See you at the lake this Sunday.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Here's the latest gossip going on THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN from Capital City HOT TEA. It's Splash Day weekend and that means Austin will be packed out with out-of-towners coming to the first rites of summer at Hippie Hollow. And all the bars have cooked up some great fun and entertainment to complement the weekend. See the Splash Day travel section in the front of this week's edition of TWT....

Before or after the lake bake, come to Charlie's where [top, l-r] former TWT cover boy Reggie Saunders is joined by Charlie's new manager Joe Paolucci and the dapper Drew Lewis [below]. Hot fun at Charlie's....

HOT TEA

The Crossing holds a triple contest this Sunday in conjunction with its double trouble T-Dance. Cash money for the winners of Mr. Splash Day, Best Tan Line and Best Swim Suit competition....

Need something naughty to wear for Splash Day? See Gene [see photo] at For-bidden Fruit. You're sure to stand out in the crowd at the lake with something naughty from Forbidden Fruit....

New Bars: There have been some changes on the bar scene since travelers visited Austin for last year's Splash Day. Here's your 1990 Splash Day real estate update. Snuffy's is gone and in its place is Sadie's Place. The Maxx is gone and in its place on the same corner is art deco Vanities. In between Vanities and Sadie's Place is Buckles Saloon, where they hold a "tight jeans" contest this Sunday. Rupert's is gone and in its place is the new classy and comfy Juniors. The Rupert's gang has moved up Red River and opened up the multi-level Alegro. The new downtown convention center has forced both Nexus and 505 out of their former locations. The 505 is now located across town on Fourth Street in beautiful new quarters. Check the Austin map in this week's Splash Day travel section in the front of this week's issue of TWT to see who's where....

Guess who celebrated their fourth anniversary last weekend? Chain Drive! That's where the CRUISE CAMERA spotted Dan [see above], your friendly afternoon bartender who will be glad to read TWT to you. Or, read you. Just kidding....

The academy award-winning documentary about the AIDS quilt, "Common Threads," plays at Doby Theatre May 11 to May 17. Flash: There's a special sneak showing at 7:30 next Wednesday, May 9 as a fund-raiser for the Austin Names Project, said Scott Dinger, Doby Theatre owner. Don't miss "Common Threads" as it weaves a distinguished and moving tribute to all those fallen of AIDS....

The general volunteer meeting for the Austin NAMES Project is next Thursday, May 10, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Austin History Center, 810 Guadalupe. For more information, call Mary Gottwald at (512) 452-1083 or Clifford Ueltschey at (512) 448-4508....

Spring Cotillion: Dallas has its Red Dress party. Houston has its Garden Party. And Austin has its annual Spring Cotillion, which was held last Saturday evening at Johnson House. TWT photographer Chris Zimmerman said this year's event was as vivid as ever and he's got the SNAPSHOTS to prove it on page 69. The Cotillion was a benefit for ASA.

HOUSTON HOTteaLINE — Here's the latest gossip going on THIS WEEK IN HOUSTON from HOT TEA: Let's begin by showing you how Team Houston raised over $2,700 last weekend. Here are three of the Synergy women's softball team: [l-r] Cathy, Sherra and Tammy at the Montrose Mine last Friday selling raffle tickets while the Mine's team sold hot dogs to raise money for Team Houston. And, as the Team Hosuton weekend continued at 800 Pacific, Victoria Lust [l] and her cast of lovelies put on a show of pride at Heaven last Sunday afternoon. The show was entitled "Pride in Performance" and also featured the Montrose Cloggers [see photo].

Shown are cloggers Bill, John, Rusty, Laura, Evie and Carol. The benefit raised money for this summer's Houston Pride Week, said TWT photographer Barry Bass....

The Team Houston weekend climaxed at JR's last Sunday for their monthly fashion show, emceed by Randy Jobe [r], shown above with gorgeous April Taylor [l], who brought down the packed house when Randy had April bare her voluptuous attributes. Hmmmmm. Also stealing the show was Christopher [see above], who tossed out the new Basic Brothers T-shirts to the crowd. Speaking of Basic Brothers, here are [l-r] Bill Pearse with owner Richard Wiederholt and Cody Holt, who you'll note has his shaved chest covered up by one of those low-cut tank tops from Basic Brothers....

After you get back from Galveston's Splash Day at Stewart Beach this Sunday, come to Rich's for their annual Splash Dance. No need to change clothes as beach attire is most welcome. Cool off with two hours of free drinks. Insiders said not to be surprised if a mermaid in a wheelchair shows up to entertain on stage at Splash Dance....

Held Over: The spring edition of the Briar Patch Follies was such a hit a couple of weeks ago that they've held it over for one more performance. 8 p.m. this Sunday. Don't be late as it starts right on time. And, if you're at the Patch this Saturday night, come celebrate Cinco de Mayo. The works....

Craig Henderson of USA Pageantry, Inc. has purchased the preliminary rights to the 17th annual Mr. Texas Pageant, announced Jerry Bird. Mr. Texas will be held at Rich's on the night of June 15. On a related matter, Henderson said he had also purchased the rights to Miss South Texas/USA, Miss Metro Houston/USA and Miss Harris County/USA. The three titles will be combined into one "Triple Crowning" on June 10 at Miss Kitty's....

Country music singer Lacy J Dalton will perform on stage at the Brazos River Bottom a week from Friday, May 11. She'll be singing her new hit "Black Coffee." It's another top recording act, appearing exclusively in Houston at the world-famous BRB. Save $3 on advance tickets....

Benedict "the perfect way." TWT photographer Barry Bass said the champagne and Mimosas were flowing plentifully. Sunday brunch on Mother's patio this spring....

And, it's time again to howl under the Full Moon at the Montrose Mining Company's monthly Full Moon Madness blowout. Come get full under the Full Moon next Wednesday night.

ALICE DOES DALLAS — Here's what's going on THIS WEEK IN DALLAS from Big D HOT TEA: The Wave's new gameroom and patio/cabana complex is open for business and it certainly has been doing big business since it opened last week. Of course, last week's 90 degree-plus temperatures didn't hurt anything, and the pool was packed with gorgeous, beefy, hunky men, all laying around tanning themselves. Howard Okon was also there. So were bartenders Henry Bransletter [l], Tom Smith [r] and manager Bill Kristoff [c]. (We'll pretend this caption was written on Sunday morning)....

Can't get to Churchill Downs for the 116th annual run for the roses this weekend? Then make your plans to be at JR's tomorrow, Saturday, May 5, for their Kentucky Derby party. Can you imagine a nicer way to while away a Saturday afternoon in the spring than by sipping mint juleps at the all-new and better-than-ever JR's? It's still the best view on Cedar Springs....

Now is the time to cast your ballot for your favorite Hartie Boy dancer in Hartford's Man of the Year contest, a two-week competition that winds up on May 22, when the top vote getters will compete on stage for the chance to win and go on to the Mr. Texas All-American contest. Hartford's is also the host of the Crossroads Tournament of Champions, a pool tourney with cash prizes open to everyone, on Tuesday, May 8. Please register by 7 p.m., and play begins at 8 p.m....

Crews Inn is planning an RDD preliminary, this one for Miss Razzle Dazzle Dallas, on Thursday, May 10. For information, contact manager David Moore, at (214)526-9510. When you go, look for their newest employees, Murrell Massengill [l] and Johnnie Lee Ammons [r]....

While we're talking about Mr. Razzle Dazzle preliminaries, let's talk about the one that Round Up held recently. Last year's Mr. RDD winner Mark Jiminez is many a man's fantasy, and he presented his fantasy on stage [see photo above] to get the show rolling. Then came the contestants, and when the judging was over,

Gary Scott [see photo above, l] was the winner and Stan Reed [r] came in second. Who's that in the middle? Of course, that's the hilarious Mr. Michael Lee, the emcee for the event....

John L's winds up the season of RDD prelims on Thursday, May 24, when they host the final one for Mr. RDD. All the winners, as well as all the runners-up, will compete for the three titles at Razzle Dazzle Dallas at Fair Park on Saturday night, June 16....

Miss Gay America Brandi Alexander [see photo above] whirled through Big D last week, and SRO audiences at two Crossroads clubs quickly learned why she won her title. Brandi is phenomenal, and the fans loved her at both Village Station and Sue Ellen's, where she was special guest along with Kathy Jack and her gorgeous cast that includes, among others, vivacious Chase....

Dallas has a new club at the Crossroads called B-lo Xero, which opened last night. It has been described as industrial, but you really need to experience it to grasp its bold, new concept. Talk about promotions! For starters, they're giving away an unbelievable superstar weekend in L.A. to some lucky winner, who will receive a pair of tickets to David Bowie's May 26 concert, as well as round-trip airfare for two, hotel accommodations and tickets to several southern California attractions including Disneyland and Universal Studios. Register now to win at the club, 4001 Cedar Springs....

the Hideaway that we promised you last week. Could it be that Alice was so smitten with him that she kept the photo an extra week for her own personal gratification?....

You can still register to win a free pair of tickets to Madonna's May 7 Blond Ambition concert by simply dropping by Oak Lawn Records and registering. The show is a sell out, so if you want to go, this might be the only way to get in. But you'd better get there quick: The drawing will be held at 6 p.m. tomorrow, May 5....

Contest Tea: Village Station hosts the official Miss Gay South pageant, a direct preliminary to Miss Gay America, on May 15. For information, contact Donna Day or the club. The Miss North Texas pageant has been scheduled to be at Raps on May 19. For information on that contest, speak to manager Betty Neal. The winner will go on to Miss Gay Texas this September 19-21 right here in Dallas. So will the winner of the twenty-first annual Miss Gay Dallas pageant, which will be held at Village Station on June 20. For details on that one, call TWT in Dallas at (214) 521-0638. The Power Company holds Miss Gay Latin Texas/USA on Friday, May 18 and the very next evening, Cezanne, the newly-crowned Miss Gay USA, appears as Sheri's special guest, along with their regular cast. They'll also host the Miss Power Company contest, a Miss Gay Dallas preliminary, on May 29....

Finally, here is one of your last glimpses of the new Union Jack in its under-construction state. Why? Because it's almost ready and after HOT TEA's tour of the new store, we can tell you that it will certainly be worth waiting for. It's fantastic, and so is their selection of the hottest 1990 swimwear which is arriving daily, just in time for Splash Day this weekend in Austin and Galveston, and next weekend right here in Big D.

SAN ANteaONIO — Here's the latest HOT TEA brew being stirred THIS WEEK IN SAN ANTONIO where this week is Siesta instead of Fiesta: Fiesta has pretty much done the Alamo City in. What with parades, fairs, parties, food, booze and fun, its no wonder that this town is rather quiet....

Congratulations go out to the gang over at the 2015 Place where the Tavern Guild voted their decorations fiesta's finest....

This Sunday at the Nite Owl, TGRA candidates host a spagetti dinner to go with "Splish-Splash" Day for all those who can't make it to Hippie Hollow outside of Austin....

Next Friday Naomi Sims returns to San Antonio to host the 13th annual official Miss Gay San Antonio Pageant. It's upstairs at the Bonham Exchange....

And while on the subject of pageants, the Miss Texas-At-Large/USA Pageant will be at the Paper Moon on May 18. And congratulations are extended from HOT TEA to long time San Antonio favorite Trixie La Rue on becoming the new Miss Queen William recently at the El Jardin....

I'm sure that this after Fiesta Siesta hush across the city won't last too long. However beware—there is a vicious rumor that Fiesta will last two weeks next year in honor of Fiesta's 100th Anniversary!...

But, before we leave this year's Fiesta forever, turn to our SNAP SHOTS on pages 58-59—photo memories of 1990's events, captured on film by Joe Virjan's roaving CRUISE CAMERA.

CHEERS & JEERS — Cheers to President George Bush, who last week in the presence of several invited openly gay and lesbian activists, signed the Federal Hate Crimes Statistics Act in a White House ceremony. NGLTF hailed the event as a "major milestone" in the national and grassroots gay movement. About 150 attended.

"The fact that Bush invited gay and lesbian organizations and activists into his home to witness the signing of this important bill is a major advance for gay and lesbian political visibility and effectiveness," exclaimed Urvashi Vaid, NGLTF executive director....

Jeers to the U.S. Army for ordering ROTC cadet James Holobaugh to repay the $25,000 scholarship he received as top ROTC member after the Army learned that Holobaugh was gay. He voluntarily and courageously came out to the public. The 24-year-old cadet had been a top performer in the ROTC program at Washington University and had even appeared in a ROTC recruitment advertisement. Now the Army wants to disenroll him. Holobaugh has challenged the Pentagon's anti-gay policy.

PEGASUS SOFTBALL

DALLAS — The Pegasus Softball Association reports that the season is well underway. In recent games Hunky's routed Club Body Center [10-3], Dallas Voice shut out Hidden Door [15-0] and Team Dallas/Wave slid by That Special Blend [10-2], TWT SPORTS reported.

After several weeks of heated competition, the standings are as follows—Competitive Division: That Special Blend [5-1], Team Dallas/Wave [5-1] and Dallas Voice [4-2].

Recreational Division: Club Body Center [2-4], Hidden Door [1-5] and Hunky's [1-5].

BIKE RALLY

HOUSTON — Bike riders can help support children with cancer by joining local bike riders on the 10- or 18-mile Sunshine Trail Bike Rally through Houston's Memorial Park beginning at Sun & Ski Sports Expo in the Briargrove Plaza Sunday, May 20, 8 a.m.-noon, during National Bike Month.

One-hundred percent of the bike rally proceeds raised go directly to the Sunshine Kids, a local nonprofit organization that brightens the lives of children seriously ill with cancer.

Entry forms are available at all Randall's stores or can be obtained the day of the rally. Entry is $15 per person. All participants receive T-shirts and other goodies.

For more information, call (713)783-3853.

MSL SOFTBALL OPENING

HOUSTON — Opening day for the 1990 season of the Montrose Softball League was last Sunday at Tim Hearne Field. Under a beautiful blue sky, Betty John of the Houston Women's Softball League threw out the ceremonial first ball of the season.

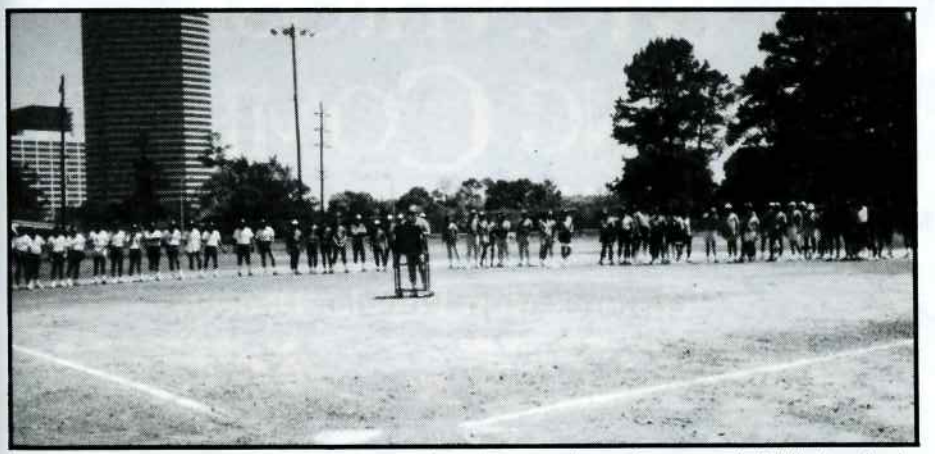

The following game results were reported to TWT SPORTS by Roy Green: Montrose Voice vs. Miss Camp America [20-5], BRB vs. Voice [3-0], EJ's vs. 611 [13-3], Rich's vs. Miss Kitty's [14-0] and Mine vs. Briar Patch [10-4 & 8-6].

Games will be played at Tim Hearne Field just off Waugh Drive on Memorial throughout the summer. The public is invited to attend.

STARSCOPE
BY MILTON VON STERN

Week of May 4-10, 1990

METEOR SHOWER — This weekend is a stellar time to go out and look up for shooting stars because the Eta Aquarid Meteor Shower is here. Look in the southeastern sky around 3 a.m. You'll see up to 40 shooting stars per hour. These meteor showers are debris—ice and rock—left over in space from a recent visit of Halley's Comet.

COMET AUSTIN — Here it comes from outer space. May finds Comet Austin at its peak. Look for it before sunrise above the northeastern horizon. Its tail points upwards.

FULL MOON — If next Wednesday's Full Moon seems especially bright, it's because the Moon is now approaching its closest point to Earth, spilling more moonshine onto the nighttime landscape. This makes the vibrations of the Full Moon even stronger than usual. The full illumination comes at 2:31 p.m. from Scorpio on the afternoon of May 9. This extra-bright Full Moon is the topic of this week's STARSCOPE message.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Across from the Taurus Sun—on the other side of your horoscope—is the Moon, and it will be full next Wednesday, May 9. The period leading up to this fullness will be full of stress, emotions and needless concern. This is your bluest Full Moon of the year for partnership matters. But do not become an alarmist. As long as you keep your vengefulness, jealousies and emotions under control, all will pass smoothly. In fact, you could use this period to practice new self-discipline. When others are expecting you to be difficult, you will shock them with your reasonableness. As a result, you will gain the upper hand. Stay in control, Taurus.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Next Wednesday's Full Moon is bound to affect your health. A temporary illness could occur. An old ailment coulf flare up. An accident could leave its bandage. Take extra precautions against personal loss. Seek early treatment for any ailments because, under the Full Moon, early treatment can nip a problem before it gets beyond control. The period building up to the Full Moon will be stressful with coworkers. However, your usual adaptable and mental inner-workings should be able to keep others fooled and at bay. Just don't fool yourself into thinking that your health is all right, when it might not be.

CANCER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) What happens when you date when the Full Moon is in your fifth house of love affairs? You are about to find out. The period between now and the date of the Full Moon, May 9, could find you expecting more out of an affair than it is capable of giving. Do not allow yourself to be dazzled by the glitter and flattering remarks of another. All is not what it seems on the romantic horizon during this Full Moon cycle. To cope, simply don't believe everything you hear. Avoid being gullible and being played for a fool.

LEO: (Jul 23 - Aug 22) Next Wednesday's Full Moon will stir up some old resentments about the homefront. Perhaps you will once again begin to dwell on a lost love. Don't. Use your typical Leo positiveness and independence to realize that everything really is happening for the best, whether it's clear to you or not. Full Moons have a habit of blowing worries out of proportion. Seek the comfort of someone new. Don't look back until the Full Moon has exited your fourth house of the home next Wednesday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) You love to travel. You love to communicate. You love to play detective. You love to be in love. Yet you always get bogged down in mental details. All of these typical Virgo traits will be amplified during this period leading up to next Wednesday's Full Moon. The snag in your traveling may hit a detour; your detective work may mislead you from the right decision; your words may be mistaken; and your worry over little details may cause you to miss the larger overview of romance. Perhaps a low profile on these matters would be beneficial until the Full Moon passes from your third house of communication.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Your love of luxury, nice comforts, travel, marriage, artistic moments and mental balance has been costly. Now it is time to pay the piper. Money, money, money. That's the bottom line predicament that needs to be resolved before you can move onward. Since next Wednesday's Full Moon occurs in your second house of money, not much can be done now about such matters. However, after May 24 you will be able to successfully conclude most money matters and follow a financial approach to more secure ground.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) You, more than anyone else in the zodiac, will be the most affected by next Wednesday's Full Moon, since it occurs in your own sign—a once-a-year happening. This is your most stressful Full Moon of the year, since it occurs in your first house of personality and private matters. If others find you behaving strangely and difficult to reason with, tell them that you will be better after the Full Moon has moved out of your sign, because you will be better.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) There is a hint in next Wednesday's Full Moon that you will somehow be dealing with an institution, whether it be a school, church, hospital, jail or a government building. The twelfth house Full Moon on May 9 will involve you in a private matter that may be kept secret from friends. It's something that only you can do. No one will be able to do it for you. The sooner you realize this and do something about it, the sooner it will be all over. And, it certainly will be all over by the time the Full Moon is over next Wednesday.

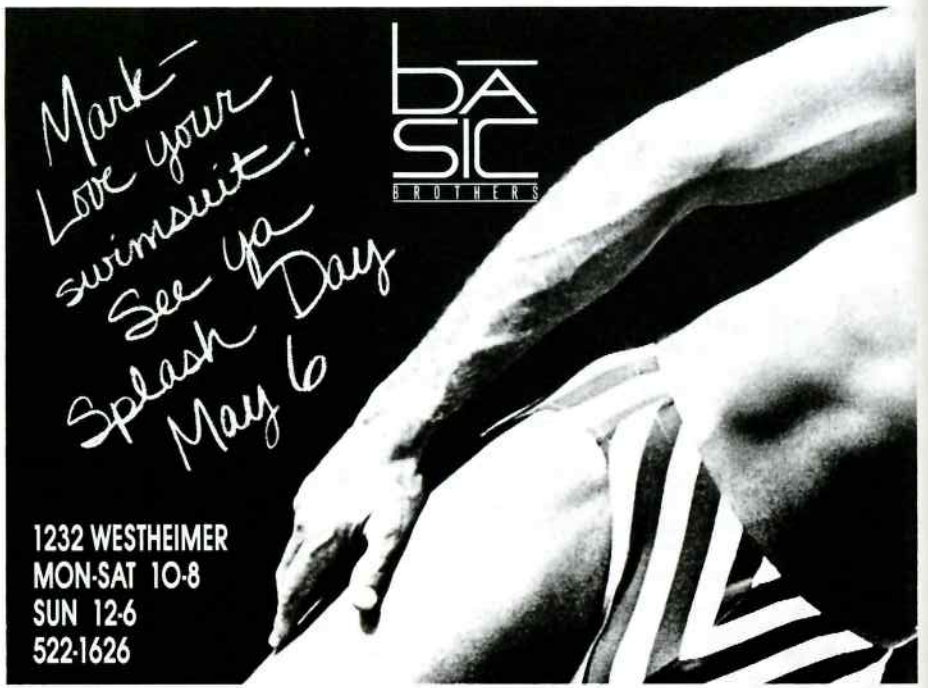

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) You can be social when you have to, but it is not your usual nature. Your normal nature is to be serious and hardworking. Pleasure, friends and social gatherings often seem like unpleasant burdens. Such matters will become amplified under the magnification of the Full Moon, which occurs next Wednesday, May 9 in your eleventh house of friendships, social events, hope and wishes. If possible, postpone all social obligations until after the Full Moon passes. Otherwise, others may wonder what's bothering you and why you aren't having a good time.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18) Unfortunately, you're having troubles with work again. Why is it that delightful Aquarians have so much trouble sticking to a regimented work environment? Next Wednesday's Full Moon in your tenth house of career is certainly no help in solving this eccentric trait. Thus, you might as well resign yourself to an unsettling period with your job responsibilities until the Full Moon passes from your tenth house. Under no circumstances quit your job or shirk your duties, as next Wednesday's Full Moon will lead to an emotional loss.

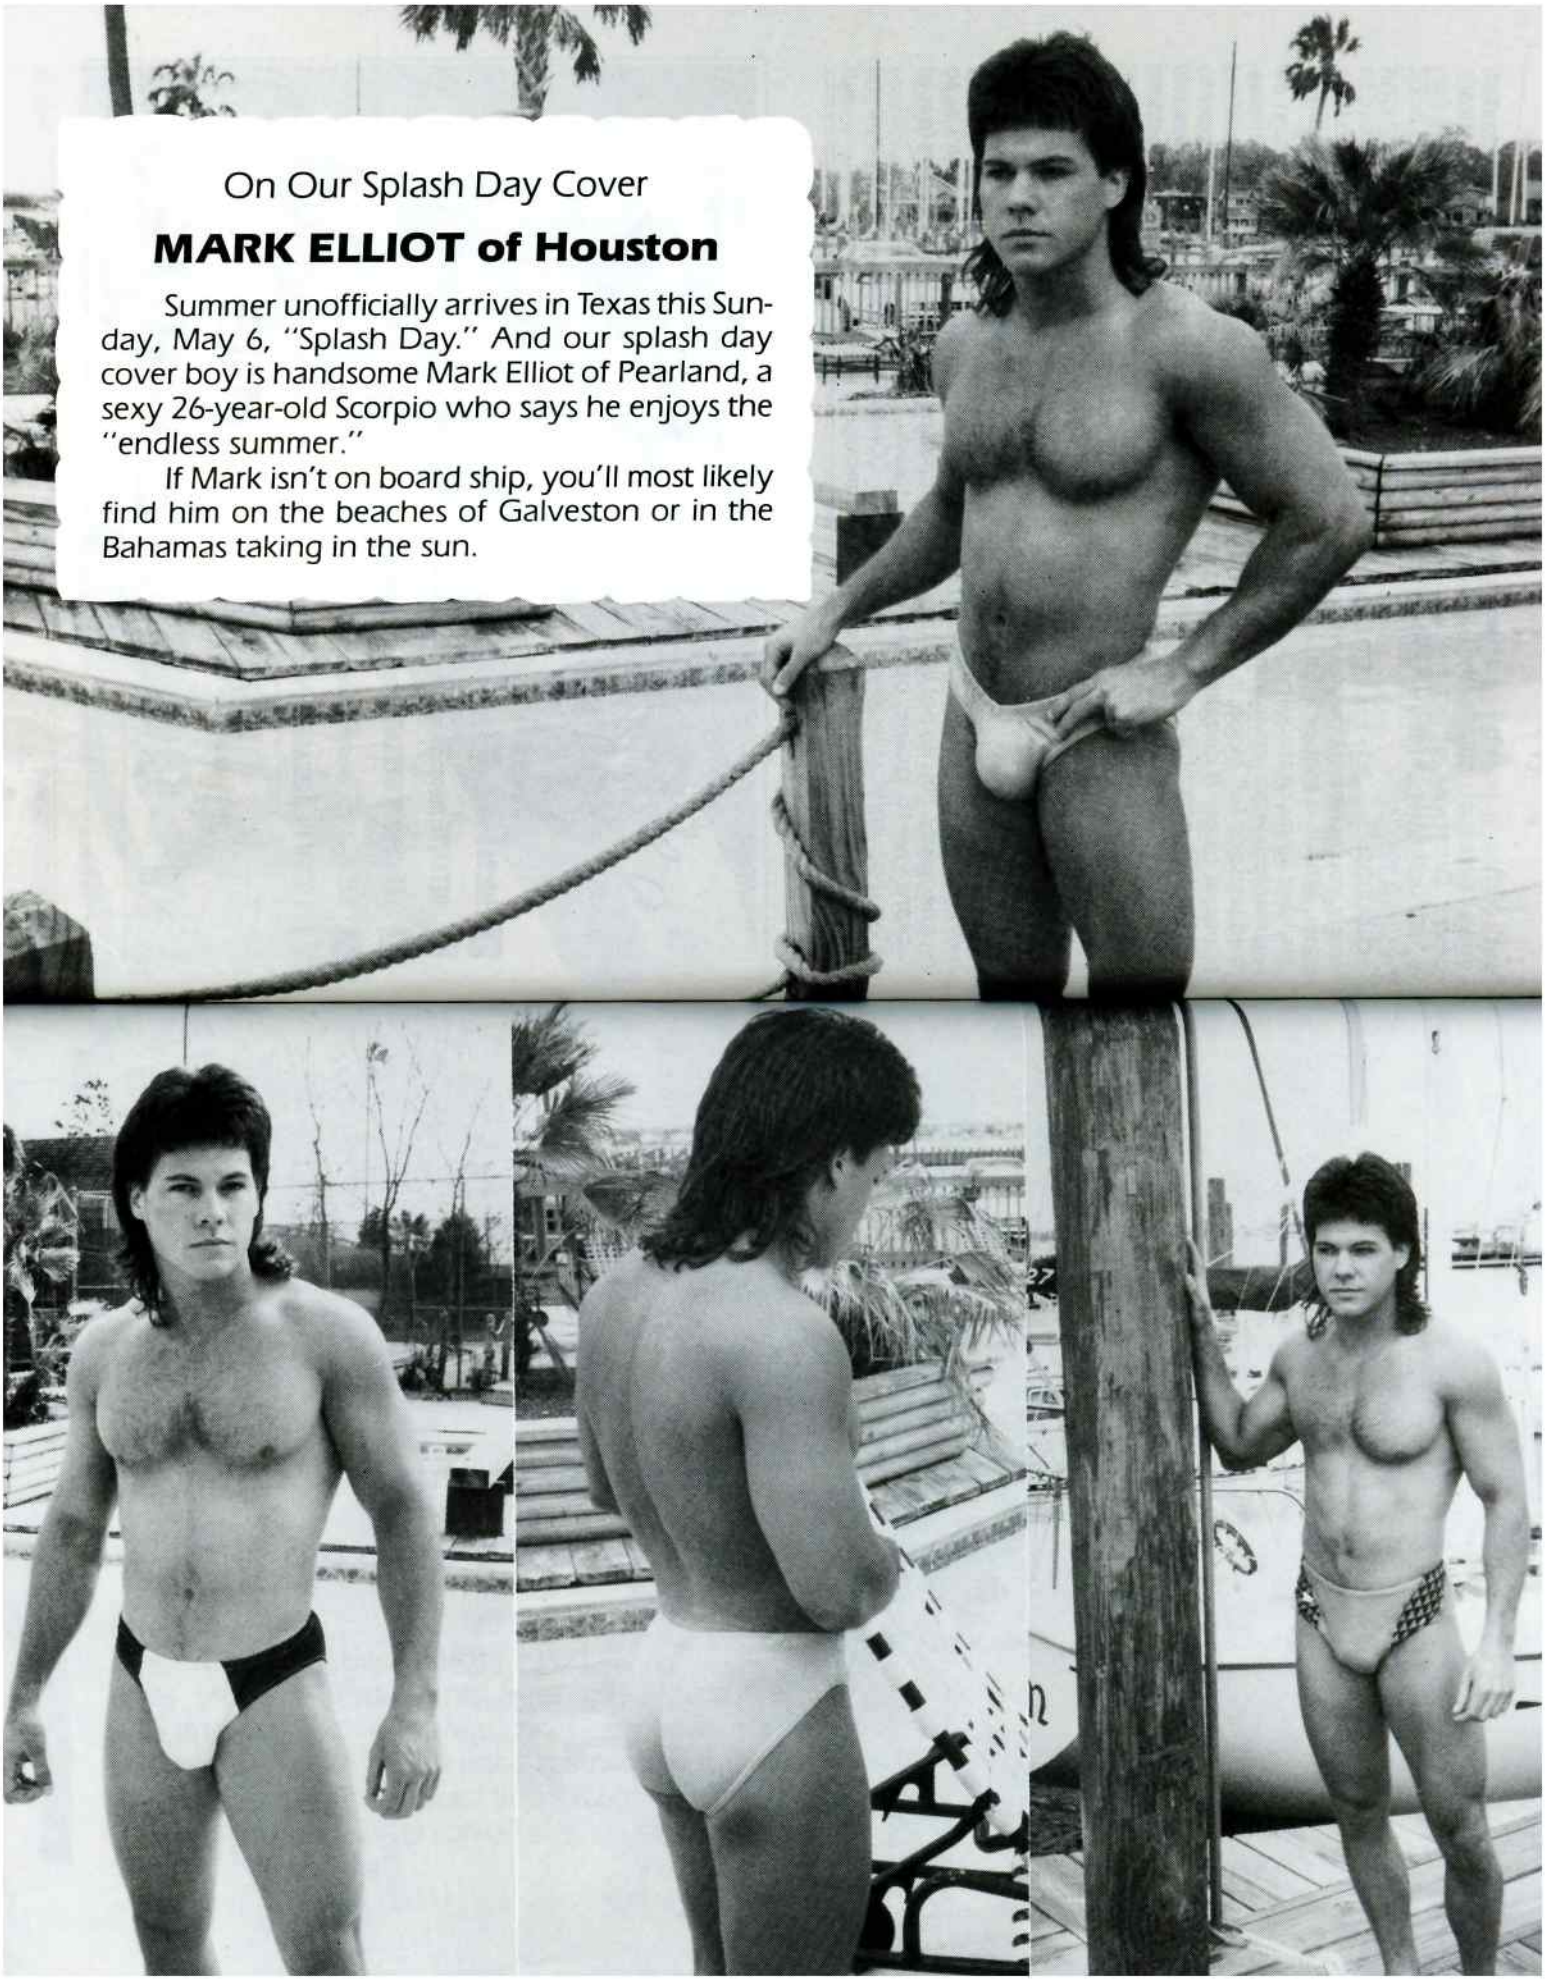

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) For some strange and unexplained reason, travel is becoming a necessity. You do not like the idea. Pisceans love to escape; but not physically—just spiritually and mentally. Although you'd rather escape with a good book or some other creative outlet, next Wednesday's Full Moon practically demands that you become physical. Perhaps you could take along a good book on your trip so you could escape in your own way, while you are being forced to escape in other ways. Only Pisceans have the capability to unquestionably understand this message.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) The impulsive nature of Aries will be increasingly pushed to the edge as the time draws closer to next Wednesday's Full Moon. You will dive into new waters without checking depth, currents and temperature. Most likely you will bruise yourself, as usual. Your friends will tell you, "I told you so." But, under the spell of the May 9 Full Moon, you will not listen to logic. So, rather than demand the impossible from you, STARSCOPE suggests you simply stay away from the water so you won't be so tempted to dive in where others fear to tread.

COMING NEXT WEEK — Venus is now in impulsive Aries.

On Our Splash Day Cover

MARK ELLIOT of Houston

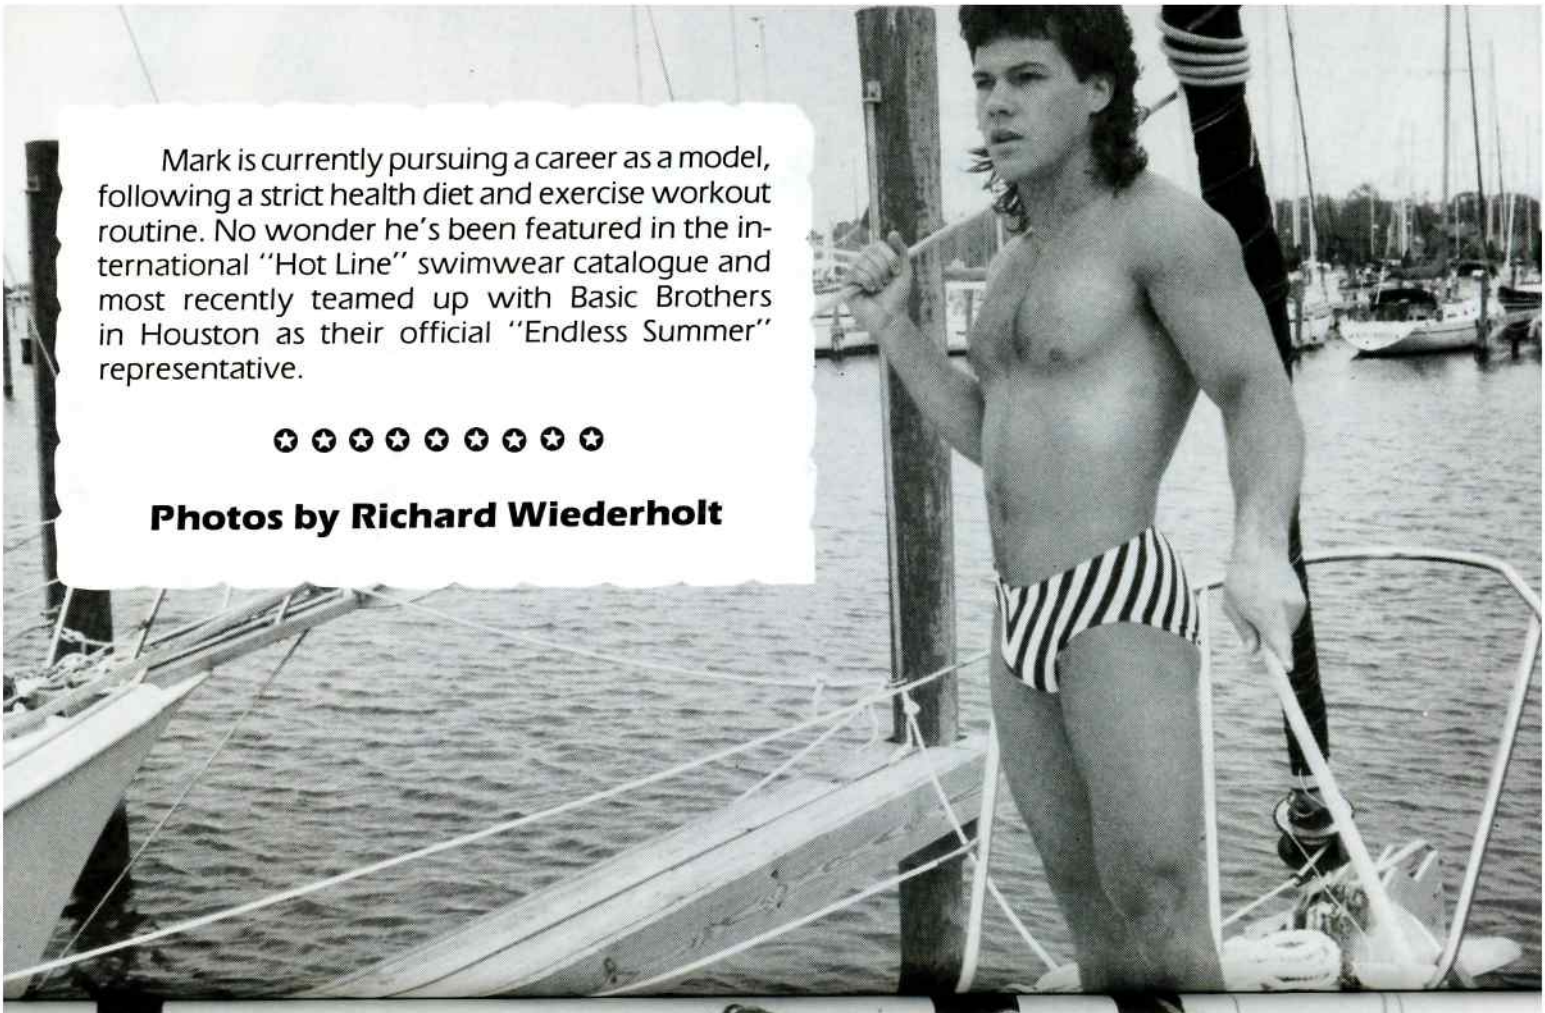

Summer unofficially arrives in Texas this Sunday, May 6, "Splash Day." And our splash day cover boy is handsome Mark Elliot of Pearland, a sexy 26-year-old Scorpio who says he enjoys the "endless summer."

If Mark isn't on board ship, you'll most likely find him on the beaches of Galveston or in the Bahamas taking in the sun.

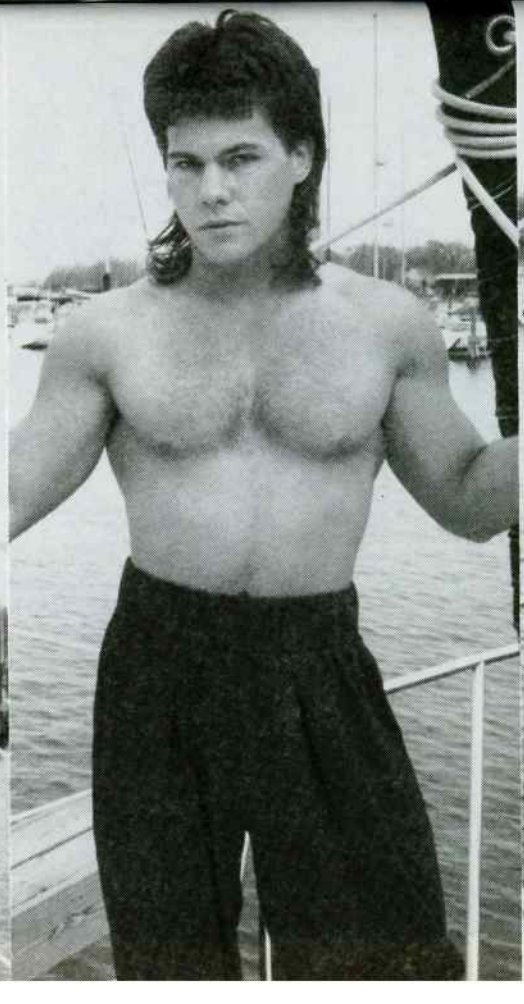

Mark is currently pursuing a career as a model, following a strict health diet and exercise workout routine. No wonder he's been featured in the international "Hot Line" swimwear catalogue and most recently teamed up with Basic Brothers in Houston as their official "Endless Summer" representative.

MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisement and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT. It's the law—a "consumer protection" statute.

MODELS/ESCORTS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or "manipulation of soft tissue."

PUBLIC NOTICES

Houston. Caution: Please be advised that one or two, possibly three black males have targeted gay males for robbery in the area bounded by Westheimer and Fairview and between Montrose and Taft.

Individuals have been stabbed, physically beaten and verbally threatened by one or more black males. The victims have been robbed of watches, jewelry, wallets and cash.

If any black males (one or more) approach you while you are walking in this area, run like hell and yell for help. Only half of these crimes have been reported to Houston police.

Please report all crimes and attempted crimes to the police or contact management at JR's, Heaven or Montrose Mining Company so that we can assist you in documenting these "hate crimes."—Thank you, Charles Armstrong.

OBITUARIES

FREE OBITUARY POLICY

TWT does not charge for a standard size obituary which includes either 100 words plus a photo or 150 words if no photo is used. Additional words cost 85¢ each, the usual rate.

TWT runs obits on a first-come, first-printed basis. Unfortunately, because of the large number of obits, TWT cannot always guarantee next-week placement of obituaries.

November 11, 1952 - April 15, 1990

Scott was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, but he called Houston home. He'd worked as a bartender at the downtown Holiday Inn/Days Inn for the past six years. He was much loved for his wit and compassion. We will all miss him very much.

On Earth Day, we unfortunately lost probably the most important person in our lives. Although he was not the most environmentally-minded person on this planet, he cared more for humanity and our kind than anyone we have ever known.

This is not said to make a saint out of one man, but to make saints of those who have suffered in the name of dignity because of what they had and not what they were.

Although Jimmy is survived by many loved ones, his and our hearts go out to those who have lived and died of AIDS. As Jimmy would want it, we ask that everyone everywhere care enough to send a contribution to the AIDS Foundation of Houston in his name.

Jimmy, we will always love you and miss you. You are so special.

Love, Melvin, Rodger, Jason, Joe, Martha, Janice, Mark, Debbie, Susan, Nick, Jon, Ralph, Catherine, Bill, Jenny.

After a long illness, Samuel R. Goforth, native of San Antonio, Texas, died Thursday, April 19, 1990. Sam's many friends will long remember and enjoy his personality and ready wit.

Those wishing to make memorial contributions please consider Stone Soup Kitchen or the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Born: April 3, 1959, Long Beach, California, entered into rest April 5, 1990, Park Plaza.

Survivors: Marie Keller, mother; Joyce Robinson, Vera Gamez, sisters; John K. Smith, life partner.

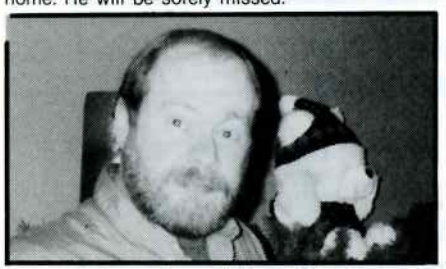

It Was Time...
To take the Hands of Hands,
To claim the victory, His reward,
To be with Jesus, always and forever.

A celebration of his life was held Sunday, April 29 at MCC Church of the Resurrection.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18.

James Peter Griffin, Jr., died April 12, 1990 at age 47. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. James P. Griffin, Sr., Quitman, Georgia; sister, Jan McCracken of San Diego, California; brother, Joe Griffin of Valdosta, Georgia; seven nieces and nephews; and many friends.

As a true Southern gentleman, Jim has returned home. He will be sorely missed.

4/14/47 - 4/4/90

He will be remember by his friends for his love of people, quick wit and outgoing personality. Those who met him in the last two years will also remember a person with great courage and a real fighter.

Mike wanted not to be remembered as a person who died of AIDS but rather one who overcame it as best as he could and lived a full life. During this time he became closer to his family and tried his hands at different things, with photography and gardening being his favorite.

One of his last wishes was "that his friends think of him from time to time." People like Mike are rare and his friends will not find it difficult to honor.

Although there is not space here to mention everyone by name, Mike's family and myself would like to thank everyone for their help and support..

Mr. Bart E. Jourdan, age 33, of Universal City, passed away April 18, 1990 in San Antonio. He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Robbins of Universal City, sister, Bridget Montgomery of San Antonio, and brother, Zachary Paul (Zeke) Jourdan of Houston. A rosary was recited on Friday, April 20 at the Colonial Funeral Home and a graveside service was conducted Saturday at Holy Cross Cemetery, with Father William Watson officiating. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to: San Antonio AIDS Foundation, 3530 Broadway, San Antonio, TX 78209. Arrangements: Colonial Funeral Home, Universal City, Texas.

September 19, 1945 - April 23, 1990

Robbie Roberts died at home after a 2½-year battle with AIDS. He died with his friends at his side.

The memorial service for Robbie will be held May 7 at the Bering Chapel, 7 p.m.

In accordance with Robbie Roberts' last wishes, notice is hereby issued that he requested one (and only one) benefit show be conducted. He also requested that William Grable and Carlos Lopez arrange such benefit show. Date and location for this benefit show will be published in a later issue of THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Robbie also requested that his personal effects (gowns, records, etc.) be sold and the proceeds donated to the Omega House. The date and location of this sale will be published in TWT in the near future. Anyone wishing to make a donation to the Omega House or the AIDS Foundation in Robbie Roberts' (Jose Roberto Perez) name prior to the sale may do so.

April 7, 1951 - April 19, 1990

In memory of Terry Lee Caffey, a beautiful person.

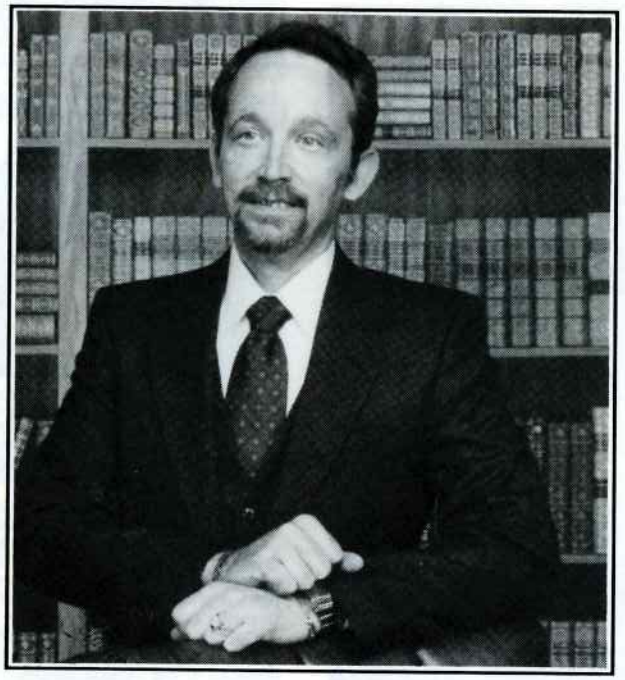

Terry passed away peacefully at Omega House in Houston.

He is survived by his mother Gladys Caffey and several sisters and brothers.

Terry also leaves behind many wonderful memories and friends that cared for him.

Much love from those whose lives you've touched.

In Memorium

Dale Russell Nye
7/22/35 - 10/30/89

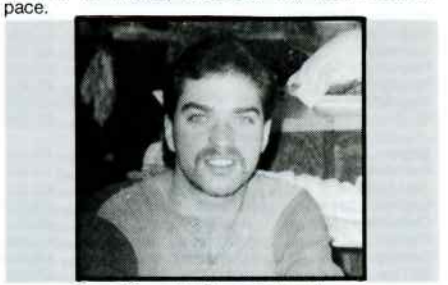

A resident of Houston since 1974, he served in the Air Force for 20 years. Nye worked as a postal employee for 14 years .
He left many friends including his life mate of 7 years, Kenneth King. He was from Tiffin Ohio.

Contributions should be made to the Colt 45's Aids Trouble Fund.

"You always are and were my rock of Gibraltar. I love you and have you in my heart forever."

In Memoriam
Joseph M. Huggins
(January 19, 1957 - March 30, 1990)

Joseph Huggins, formerly of Houston, died at his home in Butner, North Carolina after a three-year struggle with AIDS. Joseph died a very peaceful, happy and holy death, surrounded by people who loved him very much. Joseph's unique presence is deeply missed. As a friend, he radiated simplicity, warmth and hope. "The just man, though he die early, shall be at rest." (Wisdom 4:7). Requiescat in pace.

Dane A. Morse (above)
11/21/59 - 4/11/90

After being reared in Spokane, Washington, Dane lived in San Antonio since 1985. His leaving will be felt forever by those he touched in so many positive ways. His sense of humor and his ability to make others smile will be missed by those he knew. By the grace of God, preceding his leaving, he was able to spend time with his sisters Christy and Marla and his brothers Jack and Sam, along with his parents Jack and Joanie. His parents feel truly blessed that he was fortunate to have the San Antonio AIDS Foundation, with its Casa of Care and its caring peole, to share his last months. Their gratitude toward Papa Bear and all the foundation's staff cannot truly be expressed in this limited space.

His Texas friends displayed toward his parents graciousness and compassion and a true understanding of what unconditional love is all about. So many will be missed by all of his family, but lessons were learned well. Forever loved he will be.

Born 10/14/53 Passed Away 4/19/90

Born in Lawton, Oklahoma, but lived in Dallas and Houston most of his life.

He leaves behind his best friend and lover Roger Manchester of Houston; a sister, Stella Davis; father, Ken Phillips; one nephew and one great nephew, all of Irving, Texas plus many friends from both Houston and Dallas. Services were held at Hayes Funeral Home in Santa Fe, Texas, Tuesday 4/24/90.

The Lord may have taken him from us, but he will never be forgotten by the ones that loved him.
