A&M FACULTY SENATE VOTES AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

Measure Would Ban Discrimination In Hiring, Firing and Tenure; Awaits President's Approval.

COLLEGE STATION - The faculty senate of Texas A&M University voted Monday. February 11 to include sexual preference in a list of types of discrimination that will not be tolerated in hiring, firing and tenure decisions. The move will become school policy if it receives the approval of President William Mobley.

Those leading the fight for the inclusion believe that it is needed to prevent discrimination against openly gay and lesbian faculty members and potential faculty members.

A group of faculty members and others identifying themselves as "friends of the university" signed a petition opposing the move, claiming it was unnecessary and would give gays and lesbians special recognition. But their bid to stop the inclusion of sexual preference was defeated 44-18.

PWA COALITION NAMES COORDINATOR

St. Laurent Fills Newly Created Position Aimed at Improving Level Of Services to Area PWAs: Coalition Chooses Officers for 1991.

HOUSTON - In an effort to improve the level and consistency of services it offers to area PWAs, the PWA Coalition of Houston has created a new staff position of Administrative Coordinator. Karen St. Laurent, who has been involved with AIDS care for several years, was named to the position.

In explaining why there was a need for a full-time coordinator, President Bill Napoli told TWT NEWS, "The PWA Coalition is run by its board and by a dedicated staff of volunteers. One of the problems inherent in this is that there can never be any guarantee of the consistency of anyone's time. People have health issues and living issues that naturally take priority over their volunteer work. I understand this.

"But we need someone here to mind the store full-time. Our charge is to be here for PWAs....That's why we created this new position of Administrative Coordinator. Karen will coordinate all of our programs to make sure there is a continuity of quality and an absolute consistency in the level of our service. We are lucky to get her and we're delighted to have her with us at the PWA Coalition."

St. Laurent is well acquainted with AIDS. She was the Executive Director of Omega House from 1988 to 1990, and as such was in charge of the daily administrative operations of that special care facility for indigent AIDS patients. Asked what it was that drew her to this work. Karen answered, "Reading about the disease fascinated me so much that I wanted to work with PWAs. After three years of involvement I find there is something deep within me that tells me I am where I belong. I don't walk in thinking that I can change the world. But I do know that I can make a difference."

The PWA Coalition also chose its 1991 officers. Napoli was reelected president, and Gerry Quinones was reelected treasurer. Mark Siegworth is the new vicepresident and Jay Slemmer takes over as secretary. Siegworth and Slemmer have served on the coalition board since May and April of 1990 respectively. A special election will be held to fill three vacant PWA positions on the advisory board.

HOUSTON HEALTH DEPARTMENT SOLICITS FUNDING PROPOSALS

Funding to Go to Organizations Stressing Educational Outreach Targeting Hispanic Community.

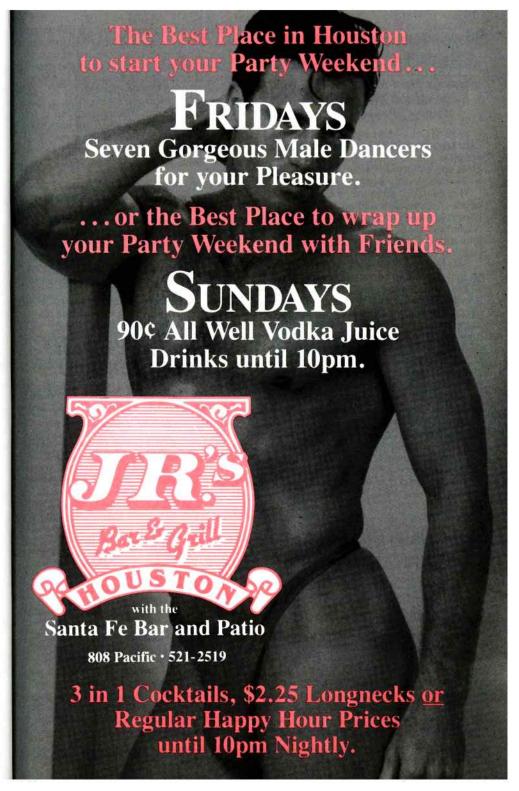

HOUSTON — The City of Houston Department of Health and Human Services [DHHS] has announced that it is accepting proposals from nonprofit organizations in the Hispanic community to fund educational outreach programs targeted to Hispanics.

Ğlenda Gardner, chief of the DHHS Bureau of HIV Prevention, told TWT NEWS, "Despite efforts to inform all segments of the population of the risk of HIV infection, the rate of infection continues to rise. We must try to make access to HIV information personal, immediate and interactive. An active outreach program can achieve that objective."

A look at the statistics reveals the need for such programs targeting the Hispanic community in Houston. Out of 561 AIDS cases reported among Hispanics in the Houston area, 77 percent have been attributed to male-to-male sexual contact. However, 16 percent of all children and 11 percent of all women with AIDS in Houston are Hispanic.

The Health Department stressed that proposals should emphasize street outreach and activities designed to assist infected individuals in adopting behaviors that will decrease the transmission of HIV.

Information packets are available at the DHHS Bureau of HIV Prevention. All proposals must be submitted by noon on Friday, March 15 in the Office of the City Secretary of the City of Houston at City Hall. For more information call (713) 794-9338.

Those unable to attend training in March may apply for the next training session, to be held in May. Anyone interested in signing up for either class, or obtaining more information about the switchboard, was asked to call GLSH at (713)529-3211, afternoons and evenings every day.

DALLAS — As part of its continuing efforts to meet the needs of people with AIDS in the Dallas area, the AIDS Interfaith Network has announced another training session for people interested in volunteering to provide direct home care to PWAs. The class will be held March 2 at Dallas Baptist University.

The AIDS Interfaith Network is a nonprofit organization whose purpose is to provide the communication network and volunteer coordination that allow religious denominations in Dallas to respond to the AIDS crisis in an effective and caring fashion.

AIN volunteers are organized into "Care Teams" of up to 15 individuals who commit at least two hours a week to helping a PWA with basic household chores and errands. Currently there are over 20 Care Teams in operation around Dallas, two teams in Denton and ten in Fort Worth.

DALLAS GROUPS PROTEST PHILLIP MORRIS EXHIBIT

GUTS, ACT-UP Chapter Sponsor Protest Action Against Corporate Supporter of Jesse Helms.

DALLAS — The Dallas chapter of ACT-UP and the Gay Urban Truth Squad [GUTS] have announced that they will host a protest of Phillip Morris' upcoming exhibition of the Bill of Rights in Dallas.

Phillip Morris, the parent company of Miller Beer, has been the target of a national boycott effort during the past year for the company's support of far-right-wing Senator Jesse Helms of North Carolina. Helms' vehement homophobia, racism and attacks on the arts have been supported by Phillip Morris' contributions.

GUTS, the direct action arm of the Dallas Gay Alliance, has networked with other minority-identified groups and the art community to express the community's outrage of this tarnishing of the Bill of Rights. The objective is to demonstrate the diversity of groups whose rights are being jeopardized by the actions of people like Helms. The sponsoring groups strongly urged community members to support the action and demonstrate their numbers.

The display is scheduled at Fair Park's Automobile Building, and will run from Saturday, March 2 to Tuesday, March 5. Those interested in joining the event were asked to call the Gay and Lesbian Resource Center at (214)521-5124. All calls will be returned. In order to maintain an element of surprise, no specific details will be given out over the phone.

DALLAS — Time is on your side if you were planning to go to the workshop organized by the Oak Lawn Community Services. Originally scheduled for the first Saturday in March, it has now been moved back to May 4, Evilu Pridgeon told Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS.

"The workshop is entitled 'Straight Talk About Gay Issues in the 90s,' and it will be a really special opportunity for communication," explained Pridgeon. "It will be an awareness workshop, in which you can learn healthy ways to deal with today's issues facing the gay community. You will get special tools to use in handling these situations."

The emphasis is on improving selfesteem and taking positive approaches to facing gay issues. Codependency, substance abuse and eating disorders are some of the topics that will be covered as they are manifestations of feelings of isolation and alienation. The workshop offers alternatives such as the importance of a holistic approach to achieve and maintain health. Coming out and parenting issues, as well as religiosity and sexuality will also be discussed.

The workshop will be held at the Center for Community Cooperation, 2900 Live Oak in Dallas. Early registration is $40 for the day-long seminar, and will include lunch.

The OLCS is a nonprofit community-based organization which provides mental health services specializing in wellness for gay men and lesbians. For further information, call (214)520-8108.

Garcia Resigns HGLPW '91

The following letter of resignation was sent to the Executive Team and members of Houston Gay/Lesbian Pride Week 1991 by Co-Chair Felix Z. Garcia.—Editor

Dear Executive Team and members:

It comes with a great deal of thought and difficulty that I must announce my resignation as Co-Chair of Houston Gay/Lesbian Pride Week 1991. As some of you may know, my present job requires that I spend many late hours at the office and I am therefore unable to dedicate the hours to this project that I feel are needed. In addition, my health is perhaps not what it should be or what it could be and I am now forced to eliminate as much stress in my life as possible.

I have confidence in the Executive Team of Gay/Lesbian Pride Week 1991 to deliver to the men and women of our great community another successful Pride Week Celebration in June. Let me assure all of you that I will be available to assist you as time and your needs permit.

I would like to thank my many friends and the community for their support. A special thank-you to the Executive Team for their dedication and loyalty. Please accept my sincere apology for any hardship this may place on the Committee.

Felix Z. Garcia Houston, TX

Thanks, Invite from Misty

Dear TW

I have been an entertainer in Galveston for the last seven years. I have had the privilege of performing with some of Texas' finest entertainers and the opportunity of meeting many new friends from all over the U.S.A.

I may have been used, abused and talked about in many ways, but that's life! As an entertainer I have learned to take criticism here and there. No matter who you are, someone out there thinks differently about you!

I have put my talent to good use and have used it annually to raise funds for Galveston AIDS patients. I am in the process of holding my fourth annual AIDS benefit show. As long as I can get off my fat ass and stand on my own two feet, I will hold benefits.

This year's theme will be "Proud to Be an American." It will be held Friday, March 15, 1991 at Greta's, 2214 Mechanic at 10 p.m. All proceeds will benefit Galveston AIDS patients. There will be plenty of food provided by Joe Navarro and his family. Prizes will be raffled off and anyone wishing to participate can call (409)763-3687.

Anyone wishing to donate a prize or floral arrangement can do so by calling the number above.

Thanks to Wendell, owner of Garbo's and Greta's, for his many years of support. All donations and participants are well appreciated.

Misty Valdez Galveston, TX

Newsletter or Advertising?

The following letter was sent to TWT COM-MENT, which asked for and received a response from Randall Jobe, Promotions Director of Charles Armstrong Investments, Inc.—Editor

Dear TWT:

Last week I sought the required permission from the Public Relations Director of Charles Armstrong's four Houston clubs, Heaven, JR's, the Montrose Mining Company and the Santa Fe Trading Company, to place our organization's newsletter, "Lambda B.S. Rag," which features international lesbian and gay news and classified ads, in his bars.

Mr. Randy Jobe, the director, accepted 50 copies for placement in JR's but made it clear that no more would be welcome in the future. As they have not appeared in JR's as yet, they possibly were trashed.

Mr. Jobe also indicated that this applies to all community organizations such as the new bicycle club, "The Chain Gang," for which I delivered flyers to these bars a couple of months ago. He said that none of the four establishments have space for community group flyers and that if he okays one, he has to do so for the others.

This seems to me to be quite unfriendly, since Mr. Armstrong's four businesses are immensely popular and surely he is doing well financially thanks to the gay and lesbian community. Without a doubt, he could find the space if he cared to. If the community supports his businesses, shouldn't he return the favor 100%?

While he does provide space for garage sales and car washes on his property and has welcomed the new bicycle group "the Chain Gang" to start rides from his parking lot, the same organizations are not welcome to leave flyers for the customers to see. It is important for all community organizations to be able to communicate with the lesbian and gay public, and flyers in gay businesses are a great way to do this. Maybe Mr. Armstrong and other business owners will try to support more fully our community organizations in the future. Most already do this, but some, like the four mentioned above, could improve a lot. We'll all gain for it, the businesses themselves and the community organizations.

Jobe Replies

Dear Mr. Hubert:

It greatly concerns me that your perception of my hesitancy in finding space for the "Lambda B.S. Rag," of which you are editor and sole advertiser, has been misconstrued to encompass all "community groups" and what you see as a failure to respond responsibly to requests to display printed materials. To even suggest that our clubs, Heaven, JR's Bar & Grill and the Montrose Mining Company, do not open our arms and hearts to the gay and lesbian community is, at best, misguided. What any business decides to promote within its walls should remain the prerogative of that business and its owner. I assure you, with the constant requests we receive, we do not take lightly the matter of selectivity. In fact, we fully accept the responsibility to our clientele to keep them informed, and attempt to make what space is available, most effective.

It is not uncommon within our clubs to find printed matter, posters and flyers promoting nonprofit community organizations and their fund-raising events. More often, though, upon authorization, groups are afforded a much higher visibility by being encouraged to utilize space at our clubs to hold fundraisers, sell tickets to their events, raffle tickets and other items. Other groups. again with authorization, choose simply to meet the clientele and distribute literature. and in some instances, solicit donations. Last weekend alone saw volunteers from the AIDS Foundation Houston distributing "safer sex" information and free condoms in front of Heaven. At JR's, volunteers sold tickets to EPAH's "Leather and Lace" party, proceeds from which will benefit the outstanding work done by the Colt 45's Trouble Fund and the Assistance Fund.

Currently on display in our clubs are posters for the March on Austin and schedules for the upcoming not-for-profit tour of gay and lesbian films hosted by the Montrose Activity Center. Flyers announcing a fund-raiser to "help elect Texas' first openly-gay public official" to the Texas House of Representatives are, as of this writing, available at JR's. Also, as you noted, we regularly make our parking lot available for car washes and garage sales, all of which raise funds for community and/or charitable endeavors.

However, to your request to display the "Lambda B.S. Rag," (which we have made space for in the past), we exercise our prerogative to decline for two reasons. Firstly, and this is a reason given to all who ask, the space for display is limited, and very few businesses deem it necessary to create space for items which are of the nature of your newsletter. Secondly, we recognize that the publication of which you are editor also lists your bookkeeping services as the sole advertiser in an "ad" carried in your newsletter. We are not in the business of directly promoting one person's small business venture through the guise of "community service." (I assure you that the requests to promote within our clubs everything from treetrimming to tax services to carriage rides have been innumerable.) Instead, may we recommend that you promote your business, as we do ours, through the support of gay and lesbian publications such as TWT and The New Voice, both of which provide affordable advertising rates.

Please, Mr. Hubert, before you stand in judgment of other successful gay businesses, please realize that those businesses did not rely on free advertising space. Rather, they formulated a marketing and development plan which included a budget for advertising. Though we wish you the best with your bookkeeping services, we are not prepared to use valuable "community groups" space to promote it. We hope that you respect our position, as we respect yours.

N o February would be complete with-out the annual brouhaha that accompanies the announcement by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences of their nominees for outstanding achievement in film for the previous year. And this year, as in all past years, Academy members dumbfounded the Oscar prognosticators with some of their choices.

Kevin Costner's breathtaking Western epic, Dances with Wolves, had far and away the most nominations at 12. Tied for second were Francis Ford Coppola's The Godfather Part III and Warren Beatty's Dick Tracy, each with seven, Most of the Tracy nominations, however, were in technical categories.

In the Best Picture category, Dances with Wolves, Godfather III, GoodFellas and Awakenings all received expected nominations. The fifth movie, Ghost, was a surprise. The Academy seldom recognizes films just on the basis of box-office draw, and despite being a highly enjoyable film, Ghost is nowhere near being one of the five best of the year. Alice, The Grifters, Longtime Companion, Mr. and Mrs. Bridge and Postcards from the Edge are all better movies.

One of the biggest slights in recent memory came in the Best Actor category. Overlooked when all the votes were tabulated was Robin Williams for Awakenings. This is even more surprising because Williams, a gifted comic, gave the best performance of his career in this dramatic role, and the Academy's inclination to neglect comedies is well known. Speculation abounded that Williams' successful transition to a "serious" role made him a shoo-in. His absence from the final five may have been attributable in part to a desire by Academy members to vindicate his co-star, Robert DeNiro, who was nominated. When the Hollywood Foreign Press Association announced finalists for the Golden Globe Award, Williams was included but De Niro was not.

Joining De Niro as Best Actor nominees are Kevin Costner (Dances with Wolves). Gerard Depardieu (Cyrano de Bergerac). Richard Harris (The Field) and Jeremy Irons (Reversal of Fortune). Costner and Irons both gave Oscar-caliber performances and their presence was expected. Depardieu is a minor surprise, but regardless, his American debut in Green Card was a better showing and more worthy of a nomination than Cyrano. Harris' nomination is a joke and reminiscent of the nod the Academy gave to Max von Sydow in 1988 for Pelle the Conqueror, and was certainly due in part to a heavy Oscar promotional campaign for the movie. Absent from films for several years before The Field, Harris' return to movie-making was well below the level of Williams, Al Pacino in Godfather III, Paul Newman in Mr. and Mrs. Bridge or even John Cusack in The Grifters.

Most of the Best Actress nominees were anticipated as well. The names of Kathy Bates (Misery), Anjelica Huston (The Grifters), Meryl Streep (Postcards from the Edge) and Joanne Woodward (Mr. and Mrs. Bridge) didn't cause a ripple when they made the list of hopefuls.

The appearance of Julia Roberts (Pretty Woman), though, caused many a raised eyebrow, and not necessarily with good reason. The Academy frequently rewards personally popular stars who score big at the box office. Some recent examples of this include Goldie Hawn (Private Benia-

Still, the fact that it's happened before doesn't make it any less frustrating to see worthier thespians like Mia Farrow (Alice), Andie McDowell (Green Card) and Susan Sarandon (White Palace) left off the list.

The race for Best Supporting Actor contained no surprises. Bruce Davison (Longtime Companion), Andy Garcia (Godfather III), Graham Greene (Dances with Wolves). Al Pacino (Dick Tracy) and Joe Pesci (GoodFellas) were all deserving.

On the other side of the spectrum, the Best Supporting Actress category was filled with surprises. Whoopi Goldberg (Ghost) and to a lesser extent Lorraine Bracco (GoodFellas) both made the cut as expected. The remainder of the field was comprised of Annette Bening (The Grifters), Diane Ladd (Wild at Heart) and Mary McDonnell (Dances with Wolves). While all three gave performances that may have been worthy of nomination, there was an unusually large number of strong performances that were equally deserving, if not more so. Among these were Shirley MacLaine's in Postcards from the Edge. Winona Ryder's in Mermaids, Dianne Wiest's in Edward Scissorhands, Bonnie Bedelia's in Presumed Innocent and Joan Plowright's in Avalon.

as usual, from the director's branch of the Academy, which failed yet again to nominate a woman for directing laurels. This year Penny Marshall (Awakenings) was slighted. The nominations of Costner (Dances with Wolves), Coppola (Godfathers III) and Martin Scorsese (Good-Fellas) came as no surprise. Joining them were Stephen Frears (The Grifters) and Barbet Schroeder (Reversal of Fortune). Schroeder's appearance wasn't that much of a surprise, while Frears' appearance was dramatic because it was unforeseen. in the cold along with Marshall were Woody Allen (Alice), Mike Nichols (Postcards from the Edge) and Rob Reiner (Misery).

The Academy Award nominations never please everyone and always anger someone. Each year arguments can be made in favor of those not making the cut. Much could be made, for instance, of the fact that some highly touted films like Avalon. The Russia House, The Bonfire of the Vanities and Presumed Innocent were shut out altogether in the major categories. Yet for all the posturing over this actor or that actress being robbed of a nomination, attention will quickly begin focusing on the real horse race with that golden statuette waiting at the finish line.

Are You Alone by Choice, or Lack of Choices?

"No matter who you are, there is someone for whom you are the perfect match."

- Meet men matched to your preferences (and you theirs).
- Effective, nonexclusive . . . inexpensive (fees start at $20).
- Assured confidentiality and discreet mailings.
- Satisfaction guaranteed (or your money back).
- Now get out your magnifying glasses and read on!

What is ComQuest?

ComQuest is gay North America's new way to meet compatible guys. ComQuest's computer-based matching system enables you to meet men from your area who match your preferences (and you theirs) for age, race, personality, lifestyle, physical attributes, and interests.

ComQuest began providing gay matching services in 1982 and now has thousands of members in over 60 major cities.

How does it work?

ComQuest's matching sytem, using advanced computer technology, analyzes your detailed questionnaire responses (see reverse side of page) and compares each of your weighted "ideal match" descriptive responses with the corresponding "self" descriptive responses of all current members, and vice versa, keeping track of the members having the highest matching scores.

What does it cost, and what do I get?

For only $20 or $30 you get the contact information for the 5 or 10 men, respectively, who are your best matches from our current pool of members in your area. Also, your contact information will be "listed" for three months (with free extensions) for other members to contact you (unless you leave Step 2 blank). You will know of these matches only when they contact you.

What if my matches don't work out?

ComQuest receives numerous letters from members who have found lovers or who are otherwise quite pleased with our service. However, if you are not satisfied, you will receive a prompt refund of your membership fee. (You have 30 days to notify us and return your match printout).

How long will it take?

We fill most orders within a week. If the difference between your postmark date and ours is more than 14 days, we will include an extra $5.00 credit voucher with your order, applicable to future ComQuest orders. All correspondence from ComQuest will be mailed in discreet envelopes.

OK, I'll try it. What do I do?

This is the hard part. But it can be fun, too. The questionnaire is on the other side of this page. Refer to the instructions to the right to complete Steps 3, 4, and 5. Read them carefully. If you don't follow the instructions we can't guarantee the results. If you need help call 1-708-991-0693 (9-5 CST, M-F). For additional application forms call 1-800-633-6969 (24 hours).

Send the completed form with $20 (for 5 matches) or $30 (for 10 matches) check or money order to:

ComQuest, PO Box 1069, Palatine, IL 60078

Questionnaire Instructions

Step 3 - Describe yourself by circling the word me beside each descriptive item which is a true description of yourself. You should circle at least one me under each category. Circle more than one me if appropriate.

Step 4 - Describe your ideal match by circling the word veto, no, ok or yes beside each and every item (including those by which you circled me) to indicate to what extent you would want that item to be true of your match. Circle exactly one of these responses per item, as described below:

Circle yes if you prefer that description to be true of your match. This is a vote for a trait—not a guarantee.

Circle ok if you don't care one way or the other. This is an abstention—no vote either way. Lines left blank are counted as ok.

Circle no if you prefer that description not to be true of your match. This is a vote against—not a disqualification. Treat it as a "maybe."

Circle veto if you want no matches with anyone for whom that description is true, even if they have other desirable qualities. This is a disqualification and is not affected by category rank. Treat it as an absolute "no." We recommend that you circle between 10 and 20 vetos to restrict age, race, residence, and other important traits of your matches.

Note: The use of vetoes restricts the number of members qualified to meet you. You are guaranteed the number of matches you order, but if you use too many vetoes you may get fewer matches than you ordered initially, in which case you will receive credit for the remaining matches. You can use the credit to alter your questionnaire and/or reorder matches anytime.

Step 5 - Rank the categories. The questionnaire is divided into 16 categories. To insure that your responses on the less important items won't override those on the more important items, you must indicate which categories are important to you. Using the blank to the left of each category heading, either . . .

Rank each category from 1 to 16 in its order of importance to you, with 1 as the most important and 16 as the least, using each rank once, or ...

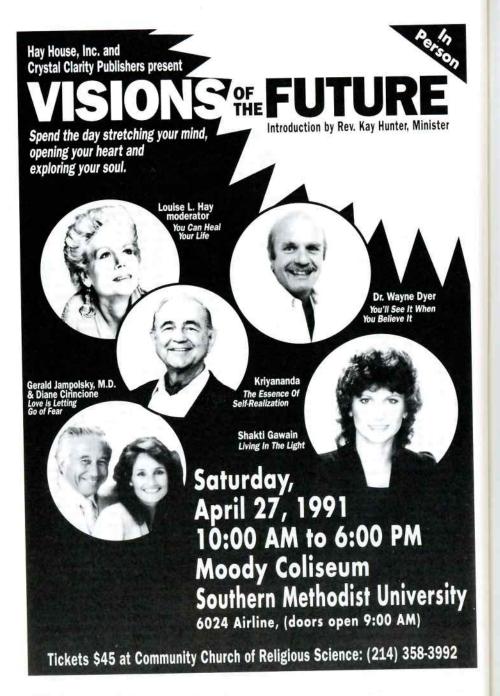

Put a check mark beside the five most important category headings, leaving the rest blank.

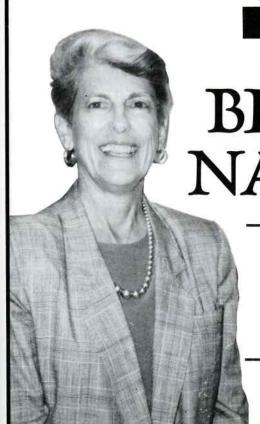

Note: Your matches will be based mostly upon the more important categories, with the less important ones serving only as the breakers. Noes and yeses have very little effect in the lower ranked or unchecked categories. Some of your matches may have traits by which you circled no. However, vetoes are exclusive regardless of category rank.

Bettie Naylor, one of Texas' foremost gay and lesbian rights advocates, was born in Wichita Falls, Texas on June 23, 1927 to Carson and Hazel Marlow Steele. She and her sister, Barbara, spent most of their childhood and adolescence in the Wichita Falls area, graduating from Wichita Falls Senior High School.

After pursuing an associates degree from Harden Junior College (now Northwestern University), Naylor married in 1946; the marriage produced three children. In 1950, her husband entered the Air Force, a move which resulted in frequent transfers throughout the world for the family.

It was during a stay in California that Naylor first experimented in politics, taking an active part in that state's efforts to guarantee John Kennedy's nomination as the Democratic candidate for the presidency.

In 1963, the Naylor family settled in San Antonio, where Naylor continued her political efforts. In 1972, she began to focus her attention on the women's movement, and her position as a precinct committeewoman helped her to push forward with rape and fair credit reforms for women, and to pursue her ongoing fight to ensure

Then, in 1975, Naylor experienced a "lifestyle change," divorcing her husband and adding her rather powerful voice to a burgeoning gay rights movement in Texas—a movement which, she feels, has resulted in a tremendous attitude change since the mid-seventies. In 1975, remembers Naylor, "gays were run out of town," whereas today candidates "are gaybaited, but are elected anyway."

Bettie Naylor (r) and then BOAT president Jay Allen (1987).

Because of Naylor's untiring efforts and devotion to justice and rights for all Texans, she has, naturally, appeared frequently within the pages of TwT. Some highlights include:

April 24, 1976: "Sampling Texas" reported on the adverse homophobic publicity-including scathing editorials and antigay resolutions by county commissioners-surrounding a conference entitled "Gay in San Antonio-a Sense of Belonging," scheduled for later in the month. The conference was part of the American Issues Forum Committee of San Antonio. which was presenting a forum on issues relevant to nine groups, including blacks. women, Mexicans, Indians and gays. Much of the hoopla surrounding the event was the result of San Antonio columnist Paul Thompson's claim that "gavs from all over the country were going to descend on San Antonio."

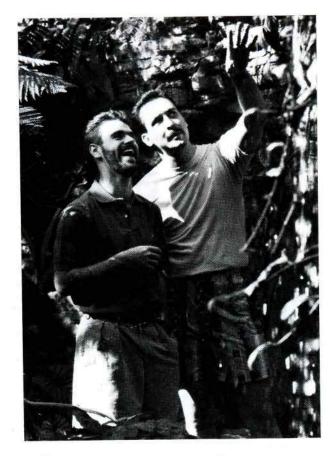

Bettie Naylor (I) and Frank Baker of San Antonio's Gay Switchboard (1983).

Despite death threats and other acts of violence, as well as the Oak Hills Motor Inn's refusal to allow organizers of the event to hold the conference, conference organizers Naylor and Kathy Deitsch asked everyone to remain calm, and assured Texans that the conference would go on as scheduled.

June 27, 1980: TWT NEWS reported on a gay rights resolution which was presented at the Texas State Democratic Convention in San Antonio. Naylor, then with the Texas Gay Task Force, exclaimed, "It's the first time that I can remember that a gay rights resolution has ever reached the floor. Two years ago, it would have been quickly defeated." Only 11 people in Naylor's district voted against the resolution, with 104 delegates voting in favor of it.

March 25, 1983: TWT NEWS reported on a new anti-gay bill trying to make it to the floor of the Texas Legislature. The bill, sponsored by Representative Bill Ceverha of Dallas, would have made all homosexuals lawbreakers. Austin gay lobbyist Naylor pleaded with the gays and lesbians of Texas to notify their representatives of their opposition to the bill, especially since it was so stringent it would have made one man's asking for a kiss from another man a crime.

October 26, 1984: TWT NEWS reported on the formation of the Bar Owners Association of Texas in Austin by owners of 58 gay bars across Texas. The owners unanimously elected Naylor to be the group's executive director and lobbyist. BOAT was formed as the result of Texas bar owners' desire to protect their interests after a new 20% liquor tax increase took effect earlier in the month.

On the glossy pages contained within these essays, the reader (or, in this case, the voyeur) could find "the real thing; not a group of angular Zoli models giving attitude in designer jeans."

Meanwhile, on a decidedly musical note, the very real Mardi Coleman offered his opinions of Bernadette's new release, "Midnight Lover," a tune which Mr. Coleman fervently believed would become "a huge after-hours hit" on the VINYL FLASH circuit.

By the way, did you know that you could obtain your very own Mr. Texas 1978 Mike Rosen paper doll by picking up a copy of this week's magazine? And that the only article of clothing provided by Fort Worth artist Lance to cover the very muscular drawing of Mr. Rosen was a very tight pair of warm-up pants? I thought you did!

movie theaters across Texas were packed with thousands of Texasexuals who had forsaken the bright lights and glitz of neighborhood drinkatoriums for the darkly entertaining auditoriums of local cinema palaces. Who could blame them, with such enticing offerings as Tom Stoppard and Charles McKeown's Brazil, Akira Kurosawa's Ran and Eleni, starring Kate Nelligan and John Malkovich waiting to touch their imaginations and warm the cockles of their hearts!

And finally, SMART set members, including Mitchell M. Bartlow, could be found throughout Houston, viewing the 64 exhibitions making up the first ever international month of photography, Houston Foto Fest. With entries from over 15 countries, the event offered not only exhibits, but guest lecturers and extensive photo opportunities as well!

Now really folks, who else would offer you such comprehensive exposure?

And so it was, this week in Texas, 1986.

Did you ever think you'd have a reason to be grateful to Jesse Helms? Not genuine gratitude of course, as in appreciation for all the fine work he's done (I hope we all recognize sarcasm when we see it), but rather the smug satisfaction of knowing that he and his hysterical ravings have served as one of the catalysts for "Passion, Politics and Popcorn—The New Festival National Gay and Lesbian 1991 Film Tour," which opens its Houston run tonight, March 1, at the Rice University Media Center.

The idea for the New York International Festival of Lesbian and Gay Film, now entering its third year, quickly took fruition among film advocates and aficionados in the Big Apple determined to fight rightwing attempts at censorship of lesbian and gay artists. Held in conjunction with Gay/Lesbian Pride Week, the New York City Festival is now a permanent exhibit.

In order to more effectively counter reactionary elements intent on stifling artistic freedom, a dedicated group of individuals concluded that a highly visible national tour promoting the diverse quality of gay and lesbian cinema would be an ideal way of ensuring that creative expression is brought to all parts of the country, even in the current political climate. Thus, the New Festival tour was born.

Executive Director Susan Horowitz, Associate Director Nan Buzart and Tour Director William Vance Deare have been at the administrative and promotional helm of the festival since its inception. Serving as Program Directors for the tour are Sande Zeig and Jeffrey Lunger.

Zeig and Lunger, who both have extensive film backgrounds, had the primary responsibility for selecting works to be included on the tour; these selections were then presented to the governing body of the festival for final approval. The end result is a wonderfully multifarious collection of cinematic achievement from eight different countries (nine if you count separately a film produced in East Germany prior to reunification). Besides the United States, artists from Great Britain, Germany, New Zealand, Australia, Canada, Hungary and Denmark are represented. The diversity, however, is not merely based on country of origin. The films being showcased cover a broad range: powerful, sometimes scintillating dramas; intense stories wrapped in sultry film noir; off-beat and refreshing comedies; stylish collections of shorts; thought-provoking experimental works; and probing and revealing documentaries. Taken as a whole, the body of feature-length and short films being presented is an arresting, invigorating display of the lesbian and gay experience.

In deciding which works to include, the directors made a clear effort to use a variety of sources. Some of the titles are well recognized—Longtime Companion, Desert Hearts, Common Threads, Parting Glances—and are included in this festival for their historical impact, their significance and even their creators. A good many others are imports discovered by affiliates of the festival through a network of independent filmmakers or at cinematic exhibitions such as the Berlin International Film Festival, the world's largest showcase for independent filmmakers.

Several of the films, including the opening night features, Comrades in Arms and Nocturne [see following reviews], have come to the festival through Maya Vision, a London-based production and distribufact that some large gay urban areas, namely San Francisco and Los Angeles, already have sizable festivals of their own. Additionally, geographic distribution and the occurrence of any local festivals were considered before the final stops and dates of the tour were announced.

The final schedule begins with Seattle, February 15-21, followed by Houston, March 1-10. Then the tour will move on to Washington, D.C., March 15-24, Boston, April 5-14 and Atlanta, April 19-May 2.

In Houston, the Montrose Activity Center is serving as host organization. The festival tour has taken advantage of the substantial support network MAC already has in place, including the use of mailing and phone lists as well as volunteers to ensure the smooth operation of the festival.

tion company which, since its founding in 1983, has been providing an avenue for gay and lesbian filmmakers to bring their works to the screen.

Not quite as voluminous a task as selecting the content of the tour was the decision on which cities should be included. In considering the many potential sites, the governing body gave a great deal of weight to the presence of a host organization to facilitate planning and the existence of facilities with the appropriate technical equipment and contractual availability. Also taken into account was the

In discussing the future of the touring portion of the festival, tour director Vance Deare stated that the hope is to make the gay and lesbian film tour an annual event, with different tour stops every year. "We are also working on the development of an international tour along the same lines," said Deare.

Operating under a nonprofit status, the festival tour hopes to gather enough support from around the country to establish itself as a permanent fixture, traversing the nation as a voice for artistic freedom and a voice for our community.

Looking for Langston and Comrades in Arms

So many documentaries are nothing more than video lectures, that when one comes along that enlightens without being pedantic, it's a joy to watch it, to absorb, learn, even be entertained. Two such works are being presented as part of the New Festival National Gay and Lesbian 1991 Film Tour. They are Looking for Langston, which chronicles the life, love and work of Langston Hughes, one of America's renowned black poets, and Comrades in Arms, in which six gay men and lesbians recount their experiences in the British armed forces during World War II. Both documentaries employ stylized dramatizations, but the resemblance ends there.

Looking for Langston is a provocative narrative of the life of Hughes, who made his greatest literary contributions during the Harlem Renaissance of the 20s, 30s and 40s. He was an unabashed homosexual who reveled in his lifestyle and drew eloquent praise from his contemporaries. In this retrospective of his work, we find his words spoken over lushly erotic sequences. At times the narration is combined with blues melodies by Essex Hemphill which lend a cultural and period force to the dramatizations. The sequences themselves combine archival footage with beautifully photographed images which underscore and enhance the text of the poetry. Looking for Langston does justice to the aching grievance and unforced contentment that mark Hughes' work.

Comrades in Arms might seem mere fluff by comparison, but a comparison is not in order. This is a far more "traditional" documentary. The men and women you met relay their experiences with a humor, frankness and confidence that is both casual and forceful.

For the most part, these are memories fondly shared. One elegant gentleman happily recalls the time he was informed of his call to service. Friends, he tells us, informed him he didn't have to go if he would admit his homosexuality; they urged him to get out. "Get out!" he shrieked, "but I want to get in!" If there is any complaint at all about Comrades, it's that there isn't enough of this type of light banter.

The other stories are, to be sure, equally informative, and Comrades in Arms is a warm account of the life of gay men and women in a time when discretion was not a choice but rather a necessity.

Nocturne

The use of parallelism is an enticingly effective means of underscoring the dramatic evolution of a protagonist, and in Nocturne, one of two short British films being shown on opening night of the film tour, it strikes a cerebral chord.

It opens with Marguerite a woman of striking appearance, contemplating the death of her mother. She sits at a piano in a drawing room, and a mellifluous Chopin nocturne elicits telling memories of her childhood. She recalls the stern formality of her mother and the unrestricted affection of her tutor. We also meet Sal and Ria, a carefree young couple with little regard for social niceties.

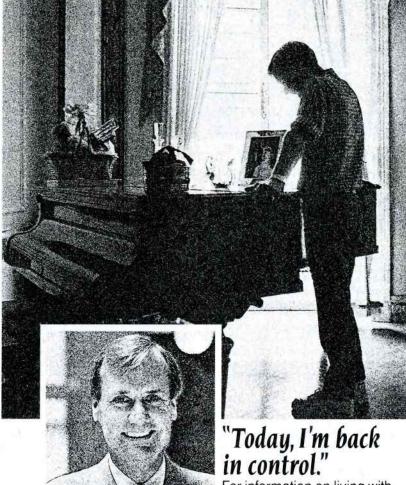

A rainstorm brings their lives together in what develops into a moment of discovery for Marguerite, and on the screen it is played out as a powerful juxtaposition. There is the young couple awakening latent desires in Marguerite interspersed with Marguerite's recollection of her mother's ardently suppressed passion slowly exposing itself through contact with the tutor.

The rainstorm itself serves as a symbolic cleansing for Marguerite, but as a sinister circumstance for her mother. This is exemplified by the French doors leading into the drawing room from outside. The mother has left them shuttered to keep out the elements, and when young Marguerite and the tutor run in through the doors to escape a sudden shower, her reaction is unintentionally captivating to the mother. The mother acts on an impulse, and then angrily dismisses the tutor.

Marguerite, however, wants the doors left open. When the storm begins in the present, Sal and Ria seek shelter through the open doors. The same wet and alluring sexuality that was present on the tutor is found on the vagabond couple, but Marguerite invites them in, setting the stage for her self-discovery.

Director Joy Chamberlain has crafted an earthy, pleasing tale of two very different emotional responses to the same feeling of desire. She has succeeded in making this short film intelligent and evocative. It is a supple, sublime work that for many may trigger memories of their own self-realization.

MARCH SKY — As the third month of the year begins, the Sun and Mercury are in Pisces. Venus, the planet which rules your March Lovescope, begins the month in Aries; but moves over into Taurus at mid-month. Mars, which rules your sex drive, spends all month in dual Gemini.

Outer Planets: Jupiter has not been as lucky as usual because it has been in retrograde motion since the last day of November. This backwards motion continues only for a little while longer. On March 30 Jupiter turns forward, causing Lady Luck to return after a four-month absence.

Saturn continues its sojourn in the early degrees of Aquarius, where it will remain for $2\frac{1}{2}$ years. Meanwhile, Uranus and Neptune remain clustered together in Capricorn.

The Moon: This month's New Moon comes on March 16 in Pisces. This month's Full Moon comes two weeks later on March 30 in Libra.

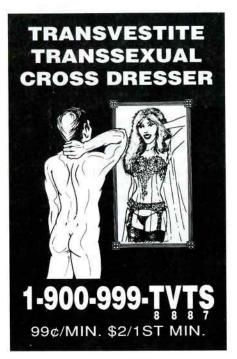

Spring Begins: The long-awaited arrival of springtime begins March 20 at 9:02 p.m., Texas Time, the time of the Spring Equinox—a time to see spectacular northern lights. This year's displays promise to be more spectacular than usual.

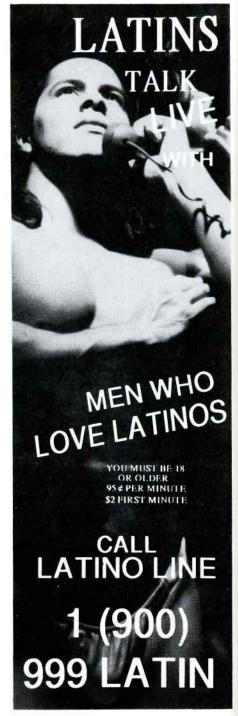

There are no major meteor showers and no eclipses this month. Thus, the stage is set in the sky over Texas for your March LOVESCOPE, a monthly forecast for romance.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Since Venus (love) is now in your second house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way. But these arrows will cost you money since they are coming from your house of money. Somehow you end up paying for affection. Venus causes you to buy some sort of present during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) Since Venus (love) is now in your first house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way from a personal point of origination. This can cause you to radiate more charm and personality, which in turn attracts others more easily into your spell. Others find you attractive. Admirers should be plentiful during the early part of March.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Since Venus (love) is in your twelfth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way along a private course. A secret affair of the heart is indicated. A sidebar attraction can divert you from your real love. Cupid causes the early part of your March LOVESCOPE to dip into clandestine affairs.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Since Venus (love) is in your eleventh house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE. These arrows will emanate from your house of social situations, parties and friendships. It is along these avenues of pleasure that you will likely meet a stranger who steals your sideshow for love. A friend may introduce you to the right person.

CANCER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) Since Venus (love) is in your tenth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE. These arrows of romance will fly around your base of operations—your employment. Through your career, you meet an attractively stimulating admirer whom you can't erase from your mind.

LEO: (Jul 23 - Aug 22) Since Venus (love) is in your ninth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March Lovescope. They land in your midst, having been fired from a long distance. These missiles of sensuality cause you to seek out their point of origination. This causes you to take a journey. Long-distance romance comes into play as your admirer lives far away.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) Since Venus (love) is in your eighth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE. These arrows are carrying a payload of lust. This explosion leads you into the sex hunt once again, seeking adventure and new admirers. Your admirers will be many as the month progresses.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Since Venus (love) is in your seventh house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE. Since these arrows hit the seventh house, which rules marriage and partnerships, these are serious-about-love arrows. They hit their mark readily and you easily fall victim to their piercing. The sting may be hurt and jealousy from another. If sex (Mars) and love (Venus) are not equally balanced in a marriage, you will go searching once again this month.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Since Venus (love) is in your sixth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE. Since the sixth house rules your employment, it's quite possible that one of these arrows was aimed at you from a coworker. This could produce an unusual situation at work as both of you try to keep this attraction secret. Some clever maneuvering is anticipated.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Since Venus (love) is in your fifth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March Lovescope. This could be quite a month for admirers since Cupid's base of operations is in your house of love affairs. A bountiful selection of dates will keep you extremely busy. Your eyes will be constantly on cruise control.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Since Venus (love) is in your fourth house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way during the early part of your March LOVESCOPE. Your domestic scene is now the object of Cupid's arrows since this sensually romantic planet is now moving through your house of the home. Real estate transactions move along speedily and with ease. Redecorating and moving are also blessed by Venus.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20-Feb 18) Since Venus (love) is now in your third house, the stage is set for Cupid to shoot his arrows your way from afar during the early part of your March Lovescope. Long-distance affairs, love letters and phone calls from an admirer are promised. You may even take a trip in the name of love and suddenly meet a stranger from afar who bowls you over.

MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, ner policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisement and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT. It's the law-a "consumer protection" statute.

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, Twr policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "swedish," "accu-pressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology" "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or "manipulation of soft tissue."

Ronnie Mathews (aka "Mark," "Jim") (above) died suddenly Sunday, January 27, 1991 of a heart attack at the age of 42. Ronnie was born August 31, 1948 in Longview and had resided in Austin for the last 16 years. He was buried in Tatum Cemetery on Thursday, January 31. A memorial was held with his friends on Sunday, February 17. Ronnie was a familiar face at the pool tables at Buckles and Chain Drive. He was a hard living man and was hard to get to know well. He will be sorely missed by those of us who made the effort and were rewarded with a unique and wonderful friend.

Richard A. Knerr aka Bette Sheba

July 22, 1957 - February 18, 1991 Born at England Air Force Base in Alexandria, Louisiana. Ricky died 11 a.m. on Monday in Huntsville Hospital surrounded by his loving parents Eugene P. and Christene B. Knerr of Huntsville, brother Phillip Dennis Knerr of Houston, longtime friend and roommate Jimmy LaVelle of Dallas and former roommate Judy Rehders of Arlington. His illness was brief and kept secret so as not to be a burden to those that he loved. Ricky was happiest when he could make others happy. He chose not to share his pain but only the happy times. That's just the way he was!

Funeral services for Richard A. Knerr, 33, of Dallas were conducted at 4 p.m. Wednesday, February 20, at Greenwood Funeral Home in Huntsville with Brother Jeff Hackleman officiating, Burial followed at Greenwood Memorial Park.

Ricky was a widely known entertainer for over a decade in the Dallas/Fort Worth/Arlington area, performing as the divine Bette Sheba. Beginning his show business career at Aub's Steakhouse (1975-77) as Show Director, Miss Aub's '76 and Miss Tarrant County '77; Bailey Street Wherehouse '77; Mad Hatter (1980) as Show Director and Miss Mad Hatter '90; The Other Place (1980-82) as Show Director, Miss Other Place '81, Fort Worth Entertainer of the Year '81; Tarrant County Mining Company (1982-85) as Show Director and Miss Arlington '82; Vickery Station (1987-88) as regular cast member; 651 Arlington (1988-89) as Show Director; Britches (1989-90) as Show Director, Ropers (1990-91) as Show Director. and Blue Parrot (1991) as semi-regular cast member, Bette's most recent appearances were in Dallas at the Cove, Big Daddy's, Buddies and the Blue Parrot.

Top state and national titleholders joined scores of local entertainers for a farewell memorial tribute last Wednesday, February 27, at Ropers in Arlington.

"I'll miss you and your spunk and stubbornness I admired, your talent and creativity I respected, and your zest for living life to its fullest! Thanks for one irreplaceable friendship. I love you, Aunt Bettysleep well my friend." Love, Jimmy.
