GLEN MAXEY WINS STATE HOUSE RUNOFF

Fasy Win Makes LGRL Lobbvist First Openly Gay Elected Official in Texas History.

AUSTIN - The biggest news in Texas this past week was out of Austin, where Glen Maxey, chief lobbyist for the Lesbian-Gay Rights Lobby of Texas [LGRL], won the runoff in the Texas House District 51 race. His victory makes him the first openly gay elected official in the history of the state of Texas.

Maxey received 3,034 votes, or 54 percent of the vote to 2,576, or 45.9 percent, for his opponent, lawyer David Rodriguez. to fill the seat vacated by Lena Guerrero. Turnout in the runoff was down some from the 6.380 votes cast in the first round on February 9, though it varied widely from precinct to precinct. Maxey appeared to have won most of the precincts with the heaviest turnouts.

Maxey had led the field of 13 candidates in the first round of voting on February 9. but without a majority of votes cast, he was forced into a runoff. It was not clear at first who his opponent would be, but a recount gave second place to Rodriguez over Maria Luisa Flores.

Although the fact that Maxey is gay never became a campaign issue, the last few days of the race did take on a nasty tinge as the two candidates traded charges and countercharges. The Maxey campaign ran television commercials saying his opponent had not paid taxes and questioning whether he had even lived in the district for the required one year. Rodriguez in turn accused Maxey of mudslinging.

The 51st District has traditionally been represented by a Hispanic politician, and some observers had believed Maxey might not be able to overcome this factor in the runoff. But after some of Rodriguez' problems came to light, even some Hispanic community leaders began urging voters to choose Maxey.

BETH EL BINAH HOLDS PASSOVER SEDER

Traditional Celebration of Liberation Features Havdallah & Kosher Meal.

DALLAS - Congregation Beth El Binah, the gay and lesbian Jewish congregation of Dallas, will host a Passover Seder on Saturday, March 30, the second night of Passover.

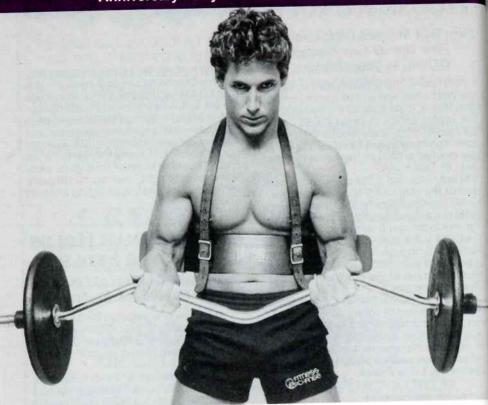

The first Passover, or Pesach, appears in the book of Exodus. The celebration of Pesach has been a Jewish tradition for over 2,000 years. The service, which retells the story of the Jewish Exodus, celebrates the liberation from bondage in all generations. It is also an affirmation of the promise of freedom to those who are still enslaved.

The story of Passover and the explanations of traditions and rituals in the Passover Seder are contained in a prayer book call the Haggadah. Congregation Beth El Binah uses its own Haggadah. The Hebrew is traditional, but the English used in the service reflects the congregation's commitment to nonpatriarchal, nonhierarchical and nonsexist Judaism.

Dinner will be kosher l'Pesach (kosher for Passover) and individual vegetarian meals are available upon request. The menu for the Pesach meal will consist of chicken, new potatoes, broccoli and carrots. Some ceremonial foods, such as

SAFER SEX WORKSHOP PRESENTED IN AUSTIN

Class to Provide Forum for Men To Share Feelings, Explore Ways Of Changing Sexual Behaviors.

AUSTIN - "Eroticizing Safer Sex": A Workshop for Gay and Bisexual Men, will be presented by Paul Clover and Marty Kosarik on Sunday, March 10.

This workshop, which has become the most widely used AIDS prevention intervention in the world, was originally developed in 1985 as a response to the difficulties gay and bisexual men were experiencing in adopting safer sexual practices. Up till that time there had been no forums, other than therapy or counseling groups, in which men could discuss and share their feelings about changing their sexual behavior.

Uncertainties concerning how risky various sexual practices are and how to change patterns of sexual behavior have created anxiety, fear and depression in many gay men. Many men are angry about AIDS and the changes necessary to protect themselves and others, and they may even feel trapped into choosing celibacy as the only way of avoiding infection. They then become more angry or depressed as a result. Still others defiantly refuse to practice safer sex, and thus endanger themselves and their partners. The workshop is intended to address all of these issues.

"Eroticizing Safer Sex" will be held on Sunday, March 10 at 7 p.m. The workshop is three hours in length and will be in Room 103 at AIDS Services of Austin [ASA], 825 East 531/2 Street. Call Kosarik at (512) 451-2273 for more information.

Names Project 'March' Events

New Quilt Panels to Be Carried In March to Capitol; Volunteers Needed for March Events.

AUSTIN — The Austin Names Project has a packed schedule of events lined up for the weekend of the March on Austin, March 15-17.

Quilt panels from the International AIDS Memorial Quilt will be on display in the lobby of the beautiful Radisson Plaza Hotel at 4 p.m. Friday, and in the evening at a fund-raising reception for the Names Project in the ballroom of the hotel from 7 to 9 p.m. Tickets to the fund-raiser are $10.

Panels will also be on display in the hotel lobby on Saturday from noon to 5 p.m. At that time the Names Project will be accepting new panels and will have merchandise available for purchase in the Lone Star room of the hotel.

Then on Sunday, the big day, volunteers will carry the new panels in the March to the Capitol. Following the March and rally at the Capitol, the Names Project will have a merchandise and information booth at the festival in Waterloo Park. The group will also be checking in and displaying new quilt panels at that time.

Clifford Ueltschey, chairperson of the Austin Names Project, told TWT NEWS that panels were still being accepted, and he issued an invitation to those interested interested in commemorative quilt panel. "Through the generosity of St. George's Episcopal Church of Austin, we have had space made available to us so that we may assist people in the creation of their panels as they wish. We have sewing machines, a selection of fabrics, ideas and expertise at the disposal of whoever might need us."

Ueltschey also said volunteers were still needed for all weekend events. To volunteer for panel check-in and merchandise sales, call Michael Schidler at (512) 280-9414; for information about the March, call Tony Pavia (512)837-3635; and to volunteer for the festival in Waterloo Park, call Sandi Skaggs at (512)385-3094.

OLCS MOVING TO NEW HEADQUARTERS

Larger Facility Will House All Current OLCS Functions, Allow for Further Expansion of Services.

DALLAS — "We are moving, and we are excited!" exclaimed Terry Stone, Executive Director of the Oak Lawn Counseling Services. "We will be able to have everything in one location, at 3434 Fairmount," he told Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS.

Stone explained that OLCS had wanted to buy a permanent location, but decided instead on leasing. "We have a three-year lease on this property," he added, "and that will give us time to look further." Stone said that OLCS decided not to try to fund the purchase of a building at this time because there are several other large capital funds campaigns now in progress in the community.

"We will be able to have all our programs under one roof," Stone said. "This will include the Daire Center day care facility, the hotline, the Buddy Program and Oasis, for alcohol and drug addictions. We will be able to continue all our current programs, plus expand into other areas."

The two-story facility will house most of the health services downstairs, while counseling and seminars will be held upstairs.

"We are planning to move Easter weekend, on Friday, March 29," Stone said. "We will use all the help we can get, if anyone with a truck or van can give us a few hours of their time." Anyone interested in helping OLCS move was asked to contact Michael Doughman at (214)520-8108.

HOUSTON - Hoping to repeat the success of a similar fund-raising party held a year ago, the Design Industries Foundation for AIDS [DIFFA] is hosting a fundraiser for the Pet Patrol on Wednesday, March 13. Last year's effort raised over $2,500 in donations, pet food and services.

The organizers of this year's party hope it will prove even more successful. Featured will be animal-inspired tin jewelry and scarves by local artist Jody Wagner and a silent auction of pet-related gifts and services. Neiman Marcus has donated two "Doggie Vestitos," or Santa Fe blanket doggie coats.

The DIFFA-sponsored fund-raiser is being held at the Black Labrador Pub, 4100 Montrose, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Cover charge for the party is a pet food donation.

Hors d'oeuvres will be served compliments of the Black Labrador, and a cash bar at reduced prices will be offered.

The Pet Patrol is a nonprofit volunteer organization which provides in-home care for the pets of people with AIDS who cannot care for them. Patrol volunteers feed and walk the pets as well as provide transportation to the veterinarian or to visit a friend in the hospital. #### Loved Valentine Cover

Dear TWT:

We as members of the leather community would like to thank you for the great Valentine's issue cover of TWT [Vol. 16, No. 48].

Sometimes the leather family feels left out in "community" media coverage and this was a bright note. Leather men and women in this city do comprise a large group of people who are real, viable working members of the community. We have our AIDS charities and hold events but sometimes feel completely ignored because we are the "minority in the minority."

Thanks for showing leather people in a positive light. We aren't the ogres people make us out to be.

Oh, as an aside, checking the man's signal (hanky), we noticed he's a top (hanky on the left). We can only assume that the handcuffs being on the right simply mean he's right-handed!

How about a leather woman next?

Terrie Anderson Co-chair/National Leather Association Dallas Larry Arbo Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer 1990 Dallas, TX

Loved Woman on Cover

Dear TWT:

Loved seeing a lesbian on the cover! I feel TWT is sincere in its effort to support women in our community and look forward to more articles and features on women.

Advertising in TWT has been most beneficial to my goal of directing my business towards the lesbian and gay community. Thanks for being there.

Likes Women Writers, Stories

Dear TWT:

I have never written a magazine before, but I just want to tell you I am glad to see you are utilizing women writers and women's stories.

I enjoyed the article about Beaumont. I used to live there and I never knew then how interesting it was.

Sharon Christopher Houston, TX

Southwestern Bell Anti-Gay?

Dear TWT:

On November 20, 1990, I was suspended from Southwestern Bell Telephone Company pending termination. I was terminated on November 30, 1990 for what they classified as "gross misconduct." Thanks to AIDS Services of Austin [ASA] and other clinics and hospitals, I have still been able to receive my necessary prescriptions and such. Also, my doctor still wants to see me regardless of payment or not.

The main point of my letter is this: The Union, the ASA and my doctor feel I was fired to set an example to the rest the phone company's employees. We also feel that my diagnosis with AIDS last December also influenced their [SWBT's] decision.

In grievance meetings we have proven that other clerks have not only falsified records but monitored their home phones for hours at a time. My termination was based on the fact that I had been toying with the monitoring equipment, for I never was trained on this job upgrade (customer service rep.). I had only been upgraded in August.

Not once did I monitor a line to listen to conversations. Most of my spare time I would test the monitoring equipment on my home phone, when no one was home. The other phone I tested and monitored, I had written permission to do so.

Let Gays Serve Country

The following letter, a copy of which was provided to TWT COMMENT, was sent to Senator Lloyd Bentsen of Texas.-Editor

Dear Senator Bentsen:

I am writing you this letter to bring to your attention an injustice that U.S. service men and women serving in the Gulf War are being subjected to by our own government. While reading a letter written to the editor of THIS WEEK IN TEXAS Nol. 16, No. 49] written by Gene Elder of San Antonio, Texas, I discovered the injustice I am speaking of. It was revealed in the Wall Street Journal [Jan. 24, 1991, Sec. B1] that gay service men and women have been told by the military that they can serve in the Persian Gulf War and then they will be discharged when the war is over. The letter went on to say that 14 reservists have been notified of this decision by the military. The letter also states that one gay serviceman was told. "We're going to ship your ass to Saudi Arabia, use your butt for cannon fodder; and if you come back we'll throw you out."

One reason we are in this war is to stand up for what is right and for freedom, which are the ideals we try to promote around the world, and then our government does this to its own defenders? The evidence that gavs have served and can serve this country, as well as anyone else, in the armed services is overwhelming. (A copy of the "Pentagon Report on the Suitability of Homosexuals in the Armed Services" may be easily obtained from Congressman Gerry Studds, along with other documentation to this effect.)

Sir, I request that you investigate this matter and take action on the behalf of these brave, patriotic men and women who are serving our country in the war. Additionally, I request that you let me know the results of your investigation concerning this matter and what action, if any, you take.

Despite the fact that gay people can easily avoid the dangers and sacrifices of military service, most of us have chosen to serve when the time came, and as with others who have served, some of us have made the ultimate sacrifice. The time for full citizenship for gay citizens is long overdue. Our lives, too, have been laid down for the security and freedoms we all have.

No Substitute for Action

Dear TWT:

To these people who think activism is something that should be done away with, they need to stop and look around them. Stop and look at the women's movement, Martin Luther King and the recent boycotts. In order for something to happen, action must take place. I am sure they use the freedoms other activists have gotten for us. I am sure they will use the ones we will be getting in the future. Before they talk badly about it, they need to read [the obituaries] in the back of TwT every week. Try feeling what the people who wrote them felt, more so if the person died of AIDS.

If my presence in a street or on a sidewalk will help get new freedoms or more money for AIDS treatment or will save a life, then I say do it. As for Queer Nation, I think it is great. I would love to be a part of it. How do you become a member?

Ericka Thanks S.A.

Dear TWT:

On Saturday, February 16, 1991, A
Valentine Benefit in Memory of Courtney
Rose was held as a fund-raiser for the San Antonio AIDS Foundation. I am proud to announce that over $2,100 was raised that night in memory of Courtney Rose for S.A.A.F.

As emcee of this benefit show, I would like to thank many different groups of people who helped make this benefit a success: the performers, who contributed their time and efforts (This show ran five hours and 20 minutes and the audience stayed with us to the very end!); the businesses and individuals that also helped by donating items to be auctioned during the benefit; and, of course, another special group of people to thank are the owners and staff of Memories, who allowed us to hold this benefit in memory of Courtney Rose in their bar.

Most of all, I would like to thank the many people who attended the benefit show and with their contributions made the evening a huge success.

Montrose Singers Update

Dear TWT:

My thanks to TWT for publishing information about the Montrose Singers' participation in "Texas Sing Out," the concert for the March on Austin. Since the original plans were made, some things have changed. Turtle Creek Chorale has withdrawn from the performance, unfortunately for us all, but Alamo City Men's Chorus and Tapestry (the Austin women's chorus) have committed.

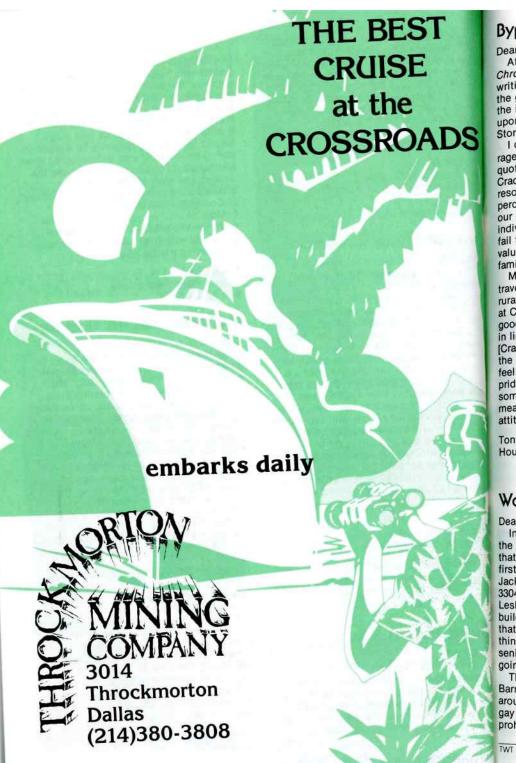

Your readers may be interested to know some things about the Montrose Singers. We have tripled our membership in two years, and doubled it in 1990 alone, making the past two years the first time the Singers have had consistent growth since their premiere concert in 1980. Not bad, huh?

Furthermore, our programming is now more specifically geared to music which promotes human rights, specifically gay and lesbian rights.

If you will be in Austin for the march, I hope you will attend the concert. It promises to be an inspiring event.

Again, thanks for your concern about our efforts. The Singers have some impressive events lined up for the future, and we have impressive, hard-working, multi-talented men who will make these events work.

Bypass Cracker Barrel

Dear TWT:

After reading an article in the Houston Chronicle dated February 28, 1991, I am writing this letter in the hopes of making the gay and lesbian community aware of the incredibly unjust prejudice brought upon us by Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores Inc.

I can't begin to express the anger and rage that I felt after reading the following quote [from a policy statement issued by Cracker Barrel vice president of human resources William A. Bridges]: It "is perceived to be inconsistent with those of our customer base to continue to employ individuals...whose sexual preferences fail to demonstrate normal heterosexual values which have been the foundation of families in our society."

My lover and I and numerous friends traveling the highways and byways of the rural South always made it a point to stop at Cracker Barrels to indulge in some good food and quick shopping. However, in light of the feelings expressed by [Cracker Barrel] vice president Bridges and the company chairman, Dan W. Evins, I feel that all gays and lesbians who take pride in our lifestyle should find somewhere more traditional to enjoy our meals. After all, "traditional" is a social attitude.

Tony Corrigliano Houston, TX

Work for Cohesiveness

Dear TWT:

In the last week of February, I read in the Dallas Times Herald about two events that were directed against gay people. The first was Dallas County Commissioner Jim Jackson's attempt to move the precinct 3304 voting location away from the Gay and Lesbian Community Center. He said, "This building is occupied by an organization that is controversial in our society. I don't think anyone would find it astounding that senior citizens would be uncomfortable going into a gay center to vote."

The other event concerned the Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores, a chain of around 100 restaurants. They fired several gay persons because company policy prohibited homosexual employees. After national gay and lesbian leadership confronted Cracker Barrel, management ostensibly backed down while declaring it had not violated any law when the helpers were dismissed.

Both happenings needlessly single out gay people and blatantly discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation. In addition, both cases seem to suggest a meanness factor and general disregard for the needs and feelings of gay Americans.

The entire gay community needs to augment its focus on the issue of "friendly versus unfriendly" to our needs. When we united last fall and voted as a block for Ann Richards, and against the contempt and arrogance of Clayton Williams, we felt proud. We made the difference last fall and we knew it. If we continue to work for that kind of cohesiveness, we will succeed in the long run beyond our wildest dreams and put a stop to many of the needless cases of discrimination that continually haunt members of our community.

The first half of the book discusses the various benefit programs a PWA may be entitled to, including less well known programs such as the Hill-Burton program and the Department of Veterans Affairs pension program. For each program, the book provides a summary of the eligibility requirements, the benefits available, where and how to apply, the appeal rights and any pertinent additional information. There is also a list of suggestions for improving the system in Texas and other states through legislation or political action, for anyone so inclined.

Lawyers and social workers who are trying to assist PWAs obtain various benefits are all too often frustrated and baffled. A PWA who is trying to navigate through the system can all too easily lose his way in the labyrinth and become thoroughly discouraged.

"...careful study of the book will help explain what help is available, who is entitled to it and how one goes about getting it."

Now, however, there is a guide. Thomas McCormack's new book provides a comprehensive review of the various welfare HAMBUR programs, explains how to obtain the (Sunda benefits a PWA is entitled to and answers 3p.7 many questions that all too often one cannot get answers to when applying for benefits.

The second half of the book, equally useful, contains a series of appendices. Some of the appendices contain invaluable information on Social Security disability programs, forms that can be filled out by physicians and PWAs who are applying for Social Security disability benefits and which can be of great help in establishing eligibility for Social Security disability benefits. Also included in the second half of the book is a list of documents to bring when one is applying for any kind of benefits: the information contained in this list is invaluable, as anyone

TOM STODDARD

Speaks Out on Health Care Issues Facing Gays and PWAs

Tom Stoddard, Executive Director of the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund of New York City, recently came to Houston to take part in a legal case involving a local man whose employer had virtually eliminated his AIDS heath insurance benefits. Stod. dard, who visits Texas frequently as part of his legal work and to visit his parents, spoke with Brian Keever of TWT NEWS about some of the legal and health care issues facing gays and people with AIDS across the nation.

TWT: Tom, would you like to comment on the federal and state legal battles surrounding the health care issue, testing of health care workers and, in particular, the role of the Centers for Disease Control in this matter?

TS: CDC follows a pattern of provocation and withdrawal, and I don't know what this pattern will yield. But the CDC isn't the last word on this. If necessary, we'll litigate it, and I'm sure there are others who will litigate it, too, because it's a matter of law, it's not just policy.

If we lose this health care issue, it will unravel all the testing issues around the United States, because there's even more argument for testing patients than there is for health care workers. Both of the arguments are specious, but the politics of accepting one, I think, leads to accepting the other, and then we unravel all the progress that we've made for the past few years. We're working very hard on that issue. The CDC had a conference two weeks in Atlanta to hear comment on this issue. Lamda doesn't have a very large staff, but we sent three lawyers because we just have to be as active as we can. We're working in coalition with the ACLU and a whole lot of other groups on it. I just did a TV show on it [Oprah Winfrey], which was a very painful, difficult show, because it had the woman from Florida who claims she was infected by a dentist.

TWT: I still don't believe that happened. TS: You know what the rumor is. . .

TWT: I don't believe that happened. TS: I don't either, but the rumor would explain it.

TWT: What is that?

TS: The rumor is that there are three patients who apparently have the same genetic version of the virus as the dentist. One is this young woman, one is an older woman and the third one is a male. The rumor is, and I have no way of varifying this right now, that the man was his lover, that he operated on his lover and then he operated on these two women, and it infected the equipment. That would be plausible none of the rest of it is plausible, but that would be.

TWT: That's scary.

TS: But the show was rough, because the audience is not sympathetic to our position.

TWT: Oh no, not at all.

TS: But we did what we could.

TWT: In an article I read in the Advocate recently, someone said, "This is really a workplace safety issue here." That's the first time I had seen that said, and it really jumped out at me.

TS: And the CDC and the AMA should be concerned about standards of care in

by Brian Keever

every dental and medical office. They don't care about that; they only care about stigmatizing people with AIDS and HIV. That's why it's scandalous.

TWT: We have a dental clinic here in Houston, funded through the Bering Foundation, which treats PWAs and HIV-positive people.

What about the recent change in the immigration regulations that kept people with AIDS out of the United States?

TS: Congress not only repealed, changed the standards for HIV, it repealed the antigay exclusion, which is the only statutory exclusion in all federal law. And that's [Rep.] Barney Frank's doing. He's a great hero; in fact, we're giving him one of our Liberty Awards this spring in honor of the immigration bill.

There's another AIDS issue nationally that has ramifications in every state, and it's connected with the health care issue. It's the keeping of lists of HIV-positive people. There are now nine states that keep these lists and do not permit exceptions; that is, they don't permit anonymity in clinics. Texas, thank heavens, is not one of those states.

TWT: I'll bet you North Carolina is.

TS: South Carolina is; I don't think North Carolina is. The real prime mover behind this is Colorado. Colorado did it in 1985 and they've been promoting it for a long time. We're involved in a lawsuit in New York in the highest court in New York, comparable to the Texas Supreme Court, in which the doctors' organizations are trying to force New York State to keep one of these lists [of people who have tested HIV-positive]. If we lose that, particularly given the fact that there are more HIV-positive people in New York than in any other state, the political significance will be very great. This comes at a time when the AMA has just endorsed record-keeping [of such cases]. The AMA's been much too busy on these subjects; somebody should punish them. And the CDC has made noises that they think this is a good idea.

TWT: I still don't understand why. I mean, the paperwork alone would be ridiculous. We have enough bureaucracy now, not to mention that.

TS: The government likes to gather unto itself whatever information it can. But the really bad aspect of it is that we know that people do not get tested under those circumstances. For example, in Colorado. a colleague of mine, a doctor who's conducting a protocol, says that people who enter that protocol are sicker than in a similar protocol he conducted in Massachusetts, and he thinks it's because they're postponing getting the test and therefore not getting AZT and other drugs. He's also refused to turn over the names of his subjects and so we're representing him in Colorado in a challenge to the state health department.

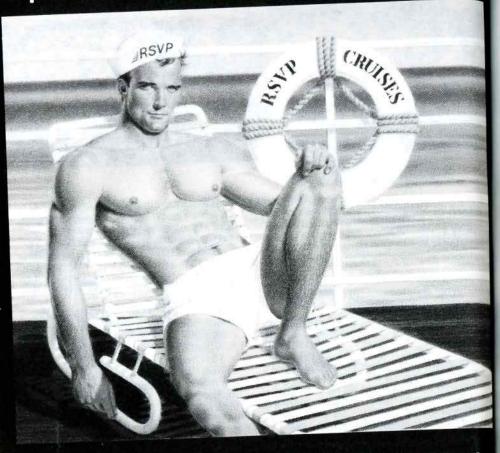

TWT: That's great. Do you have any more you might like to say to our readers?

TS: The future of the country is in Texas. as it affects both the gay and nongay communities. The right wing and fundamentalists and our community always square off and fight here in Texas, and what happens here affects the entire nation.

TWT: Thank you for speaking with us. Tom.

TS: Thank you.

Movies. Movies. Movies. Hundreds of them are made each year. Some of them are so bad or have such limited audience appeal that they never even make it into general distribution; these are sent straight into the home video and cable markets. Of those that do come to Houston, there are so many that it would be impossible for a weekly publication to cover them all unless it was devoted solely to film (which would be fine by me, but probably wouldn't make our readers happy). Therefore, to maximize the amount of coverage we give to films, while minimizing the space requirements, we present "Short-Takes"—mini-reviews of a sampling of the options at our local theaters.

nce Around. An exuberant comedy about a headstrong Italian woman, Renata Bella (Holly Hunter), who, shamed that her younger sister, Jan (Laura San Giacomo), has married first, applies pressure to her live-in boyfriend to tie the knot. When he jumps ship, Renata heads for the Caribbean to begin her life anew. There she meets real estate salesman Sam Sharpe (Richard Dreyfuss), who also happens to be as obnoxious as he is wealthy. Swept up by his enthusiasm, Renata decides to marry Sam and takes him home with her to Boston to meet her traditional, close-knit family. Renata's parents, Joe (Danny Aiello) and Marilyn (Gena Rowlands) and the whole Bella family grapple and groan with this new development in Renata's life as Sam does his best to be accepted. Director Lasse Hallstrom (My Life as a Dog) has scored big in his American film debut. Although at times a bit corny, Once Around is gushing fun.

Sleeping with the Enemy. This is your basic uninspired attempt at a thriller. Laura Burney (Julia Roberts) is a beautiful woman married to a highly successful stockbroker, Martin (Patrick Bergin). Trouble is, Martin is actually a possessive, manipulative, iron-fisted wife-beater. Having made careful preparations. Laura takes advantage of a sudden storm and fakes her drowning in a boating accident. Through an innocent condolence call, Patrick learns that he's been duped and he begins his maniacal search. A few close calls later, and Patrick has caught up with Laura. From that point it's all a matter of time or a waste of time if you're sitting in the audience. Bergin is the best of the cast, while Roberts and Kevin Anderson, as a wimpy next-door neighbor, are wasted. Director Joseph Ruben and screenwriter Ronald Bass have created your run-of-the-mill stalker picture with very little to redeem it.

A. Story. This film couldn't be any more Steve Martin if Martin himself had been the sole creative force behind it. And since he is the writer, star and coproducer, he does indeed get most of the credit and blame for this curious outing. Martin plays Harris K. Telemacher, a zany TV weatherman who hates his job and his girlfriend. Things begin to change for him when he thinks he's received a message from a flashing traffic alert sign on the highway. He's convinced something big is going to happen, and sure enough he's fired from his job when a pre-taped weather report turns out to be preposterously wrong. He also discovers his girlfriend has been sleeping with his agent, but this proves to be a blessing, since he now has the freedom to pursue Sara McDowell (Victoria Tennant), whom he had met at a brunch. Even though the movie was directed by Mick Jackson, it has Martin written all over it. It's a half-baked comic love story that wants to be a California equivalent of Woody Allen's Manhattan, but this one lacks the intelligence and the wit. * *

Silence of the Lambs. This is the psychological thriller that almost is, but not quite. It does have some tantalizing moments, but it falls short of overcoming its initial plot weaknesses. For instance, it's never adequately explained why a student at the FBI Academy, Clarice Sterling (Jodie Foster), is selected as the woman to probe the mind of an imprisoned psychopath, Dr. Hannibal Lecter (Anthony Hopkins). Or why, having been assigned to gather information from "Hannibal the Cannibal," Clarice wastes no time in disregarding the explicit instructions given to her by three different people on what to do and not to do in dealing with Lecter, Still, despite these plot holes, the movie does maintain interest, primarily through the calculated interaction between Foster and Hopkins. Hopkins, in particular, is remarkable as the brilliant serial killer who adapts his intelligence to fulfill his homicidal tendencies. Jonathan Demme has done a fine job directing, but he misses the mark in writing.

Scenes from a Mall. This movie serves notice that it just doesn't pay to anticipate a motion picture too eagerly. But surely a little excitement is understandable about a film that combines the tremendous talents of Bette Midler, Woody Allen and Paul Mazursky, Understandable or not, this movie was one big disappointment. Mazursky, who has previously shown such intuitive flair with other comedies (Down and Out in Beverly Hills. Moon over Parador), has come up with a flat and droning piece this time around. Deborah and Nick Fifer (Midler and Allen) are celebrating their sixteenth wedding anniversary with a dinner party. They go to the mall to buy supplies for the party, and it is there that they decide to play true confessions. First Nick, then Deborah, bare their souls about infidelity, both reacting with hostility and then forgiveness. And it all takes place in the mall. The concept is good, but Midler and Allen never quite click. This is one long, boring shopping trip.

King Ralph. All fluff and nothing but. This is a cute, innocent enough little comedy that pleases without inspiring. Its success is due almost solely to star John Goodman, who plays a Las Vegas piano player, Ralph Jones. Ralph, whose grandmother became pregnant from a one-night stand with a member of the British royal family, finds himself on the throne when the entire House of Windsor-Mountbatten is electrocuted while posing for a portrait. King Ralph, of course, must be educated in the ways of royals, and in this he is ably assisted by his private secretary, Willingham (Peter O'Toole). The king, however, is quite content with his blue-collar way of life and in no mood to adopt pretentious mannerisms, especially when it means he can't see his new-found English love interest, Miranda (Camille Coduri). Throw in a resentful aristocrat, Graves (John Hurt), with aspirations of his own to the throne and you have lighthearted fare that'll make you smile.

The station is hoping that Frank Sinatra, Fred Astaire and Patti LaBelle will help to boost its March Live Pledge Drive. The various features will consist of film clips, interviews and performances. The Frank Sinatra feature will be presented March 9 at 9 p.m., the Fred Astaire show will be broadcast on March 17 at 5:30 p.m. and Patti LaBelle will put her whole heart into "Going Home to Gospel with Patti LaBelle" on March 16 at 7 p.m. Patti will have an assist from such notable gospel greats as Mighty Clouds of Joy, Albertina Walker, Edwin Hawkins and the Barrett Sisters. Tune in, and for you folks throughout the rest of the state, check your local listings. Perhaps your local PBS station will be conducting its own live pledge drive at this time.

Back in Dallas, vocal group RSVP returns to the Dallas Repertory Theatre stage in three cabaret concerts March 11. 17 and 18, backed by their four-piece band. The four talented singers, Carol Farabee, Julie Johnson, Michael Justis and Ernie Ritchie, will present an electric repertoire of jazz, Broadway, country and original music with their signature tight harmonies and down home humor. RSVP's musical director is Bob Hurley and their band includes Peggy Woywood, Willie Welch and Tim Benton on drums. Want to reserve a ticket or two for this special cabaret concert? Then call (214)369-8966.

Theatre Southwest director Carole Dimon's selection of Robert Harling's worldfamous Steel Magnolias has proven to be a major hit for the theatre. The camaraderie that develops among six women during their weekly visits in their small-town beauty salon, over a period of years, brings a wonderfully funny, witty, charming, heartwarming and all too true story to the stage. The production runs through March 23 and you can make your reservations by dialing (713)661-9505. Of course, you could also stop by and pick up your tickets at any area Ticketron outlet.

Passionate, sensuous and fiery best describe ballet when performed by the legendary artist Rudolf Nureyev. Join Nureyev and friends as they illuminate the stage at the Grand 1894 Opera House tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. Would you like to meet the legend? This particular event offers you the opportunity to do so. There will be a reception on-stage after the performance in honor of Nureyey, featuring iced vodka and Russian delicacies. For ticket information, dial (409)765-1894, and if your area code is 713 dial 480-1894.

Currently in production in Houston at the Music Hall is the sizzling saga of New York gang rivalry and starcrossed romance, West Side Story, a stirring tribute to composer Leonard Bernstein, TUTS' artistic staff has selected this vehicle as a means of honoring the great maestro's memory. Hailed as a bold and daring concept when first presented on Broadway in 1957, West Side Story uniquely blended story, music, lyrics and dance, and proved that male dancing can be tough, masculine and tremendously exciting. Jeffrey Dunn directs with an assist from choreographer Edmond Kresley. Tickets to West Side Story are on sale at all area Ticketron outlets. If you would like to charge by phone, then dial (713)629-3770.

The really big news this week was the forthcoming appearance of Divine at Houston's Babylon, and Rob Clark, he of the casting couch set, made sure that anxious Texasexuals had all the dirt on the person that many critics had labeled "a living art form." Fresh from a photo session in which the Lady D portrayed Creem magazine's Creem Dream, the star of Pink Flamingos felt sure that she would leave Texas with a hat and a new pair of cowboy boots, depending, of course, on "what people leave in my room."

Meanwhile, the NEWsprint was just dripping with stories concerning then city comptroller Kathy Whitmire's anticipated announcement of her candidacy for mayor drew Exler and Shawn Elliott of California to appeal the decision of Orange County Superior Court Judge John K. Trotter, Jr.

Texas' torrid sex kitten, Jahonau Reis.

SAY, WASN'T THAT. . . Jahonau Reis, being welcomed home from an extended tour of North Carolina by Naomi Sims, Lisa King, Jennifer Foxx and Marissa Marlowe at the Boulevard in San Antonio: David and Dazzle at Astraptes Garden Disco in College Station; Nat and Janet at Baja's in Houston: Herb Parker, Richard Taylor, Terry Railey, Tony Castillo, Joe Campisie and Leroy Bower judging the contestants of the Miss Metro Houston pageant at the Old Plantation in Houston; Candi Staton waking up at Tex's Colorado Street Bar in Austin; Dion Martell sporting her new Miss Frat House chapeau at the Frat House in Dallas; Dale Howard signing over ownership papers for Crew's Inn Country to Ray Martin: the very handsome Don Gill sporting a new do at Haircraft in Houston; and deejays Frank Collins, Otis James and Phillip Large parading around the Parade Disco in Houston.

Meanwhile, Wayne Hoefgen stocked up on tissues on his way to the movies in anticipation of a major crying jag over the "sterling" performance of Jack Lemmon in the film adaptation of Bernard Slade's smash Broadway play, Tribute. The film deals with the stormy relationship between Lemmon and his film son Robbie Benson as both try to come to terms with the impending death of Lemmon's character.

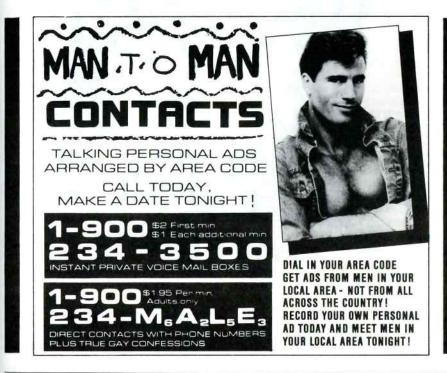

On a more harmonious note, the results of the just-held Grammy Awards were detailed, with Christopher Cross, he of the flash-in-the-pan set, sailing away with four, count 'em, four awards, including best record, song and album of the year. Pat Benatar, Billy Joel, Barbra Streisand and Bette Midler also received awards in various categories.

And finally, did you know that you could purchase, every Tuesday night, Schnapps, in any flavor, for a mere fifty cents at the bar that inspired an industry, Dallas Crude in, where else, Dallas? I thought you did! And so it was, this week in Texas, 1981.

Week of March 8-14, 1991

FARAWAY MOON — The Moon reaches apogee at 6:56 p.m. Texas Time this Friday, March 8. Apogee is the point in the Moon's orbit around Earth which puts the satellite at its farthest distance from our planet-251,208 miles away. The Moon at apogee comes on the last quarter moon before the March 16 New Moon.

WINTER SKY — The sky over Texas is dotted this winter with three brilliant planets. Above the eastern horizon, after sunset, is very bright Jupiter. Arching overhead is ruddy Mars. And above the western horizon is an even brighter Venus. Three in a row!

SATURN SIGN SHIFT — Whenever one of the huge outer planets makes a change in zodiac signs, all persons are deeply affected. And when it's a big planet like Saturn, the event does not go unnoticed.

Since it is located a great distance from the Sun, Saturn moves very slowly—taking 30 years just to go around the Sun once. It takes Saturn 2½ years just to travel through one zodiac sign. For the past 21/2 years Saturn has been in Capricorn where it has been causing detours and delays in the lives of Capricorns.

On February 6, Saturn left Capricorn and entered Aquarius where it will plod along for the next 2½ years. Indeed, Aquarians are in for a maturing experience. Saturn is often called the great teacher that teaches its subjects the way of life the hard way.

Whether you're an Aquarian or not, your life is to be affected by the entrance of Saturn into a different house in your own horoscope. Read this week's STARSCOPE message to see how the sign change of Saturn will color your life for the next 21/2 years.

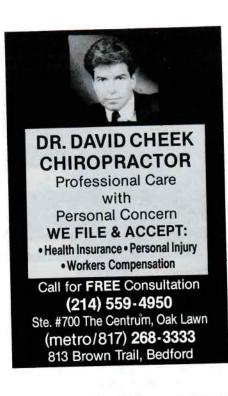

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) For the past 21/2 years Saturn has been kicking up its problems in your eleventh house of social situations. Your popularity now soars as Saturn leaves this sector of your life. Ahead is the 21/2-year visit of Saturn in your twelfth house. Look for delays in all matters secretive and behind the scenes. Somehow others find out what you're up to.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) For the past 21/2 years Saturn has been traveling through your tenth house of career, causing problems at work. Better times on the job are ahead as Saturn exits this sector. Ahead is a 21/2-year stay of Saturn in your eleventh house. Expect the times ahead to be strewn with social blunders, rumors and a lack of popularity. Try to keep to yourself so you will not be defamed.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) For the past 21/2 years Saturn has been causing problems in your ninth house. Since this house rules travel, education and legal affairs, such things have caused you concern. Ahead is the 21/2-year stay of Saturn in your tenth house of career. Expect a period of working hard, little recognition and backbiting by co-workers. But in the end, you will win favor in employment matters.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) For the past 21/2 years Saturn has caused delays in eighth house matters of joint money. With the exit of Saturn from this house, monetary problems ease. Ahead is the visit of Saturn in your ninth house, which rules education, travel and attorneys. The coming 21/2-year Saturn cycle will be a great learning experience, after which you will be wiser, happier and richer.

CANCER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) For the past 21/2 years Saturn has been kicking up storm clouds in your seventh house of partnerships. Marriage has been difficult, if not impossible. With the exit of Saturn from your seventh house, partnership matters smooth out. Ahead is a long 21/2-year visit of Saturn in your eighth house. Caution: Be careful with all tax matters, and don't misuse other people's money.

LEO: (Jul 23 - Aug 22) For the past 21/2 years, Saturn has been at the root of all the problems you've experienced on the job and with your health. With the exit of Saturn from your sixth house, your career should get back on track and your health should improve. Ahead is a 21/2-year-long visit by Saturn in your seventh house. This will cause marriage problems and shaky dealings with partners, whether in business or on a personal level.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) For the past 21/2 years, Saturn has been kicking up its heels in your fifth house of entertainment and love affairs. With the exit of Saturn from this house, these matters should resume normalcy. Ahead is a long 21/2-year visit by Saturn in your sixth house. This can undermine progress in the workplace and bring about failing health. Get plenty of rest, eat right and exercise to counter this Saturn punch. At work, don't be part of a rumor or you will lose.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) For the past 21/2 years, Saturn has been causing problems on the home front as the planet has been in your fourth house of the home. With the exit of Saturn from your fourth house, matters surrounding real estate should ease. Ahead is a long 21/2-year visit by Saturn in your fifth house. This can make it touch and go for lovemaking, dating, popularity and entertainment. A quieter cycle is at hand.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) For the past 2½ years, Saturn has been in your third house of communication. This has brought about delays in travel, letter writing, contract signing and miscues in telephoning. All of this communication garbage lifts as Saturn moves. Ahead is a long 21/2-year visit by Saturn in your fourth house. So expect delays in matters dealing with real estate, apartments, domestic squabbles and discord at home.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) For the past 21/2 years, Saturn has been in your second house of money. This has made it very difficult to earn big bucks, to save for the future and sometimes even to have enough money just to live a comfortable life. All of these financial woes end now that Saturn has exited your house of money. Ahead is a 21/2-year visit by Saturn in your third house. Expect delays in travel, confusion with phone calls, problems with signing contracts and misguided letters. Be careful what you say and write, cautions disruptive Saturn.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) For the past 21/2 years, Saturn has been disrupting your personal life. You have had health concerns. You haven't felt good about your appearance. But all these personal problems now ebb as Saturn exits this sector of your horoscope. Ahead is a long 21/2-year visit by Saturn in your second house of money. Be very careful of theft. Guard your pocketbook. You'll earn every penny you make. Saturn is teaching you some invaluable lessons about money. The fact that Saturn has left Capricorn is wonderful news. And it won't be back for another 30 years.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) For the past 2½ years, Saturn has been in your twelfth house where it has had a disturbing inner effect on your life. Secrets, behind-thescene matters and clandestine affairs have been all too commonplace. Ahead is the 21/2-year-long visit by Saturn in your first house of personality. This can mature you very quickly. Saturn visits Aquarius only every 30 years to teach you some invaluable lessons. You are now in a maturing cycle that will leave you much wiser and smarter. Saturn now teaches you hard lessons, the kind you never forget.

COMING NEXT WEEK: The March 16 New Moon in Pisces.

TENNIS WINNER

Houston - Congratulations to David H. for bringing home Houston's only trophy from the national tennis tournament in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, "David was runner-up in the B division in one of the toughest singles draw in the country," reports Randy Miller to TWT SPORTS. "As a matter of fact. Steve Bearden of Houston was the only ranked player in the B division to make it to the quarterfinals," he added. Looks like there was some stiff Tennis competition in Florida.

This Sunday, March 10, the Houston Tennis Club [HTC] will be holding an annual fun doubles tournament at Memorial Park Tennis Center. This tournament is strictly for fun and is set up to include all levels of play. Nonmembers of any ability are welcome to participate. Also spectators are encouraged to attend and root for their favorite players.

The club is also preparing for the upcoming Texas Cup battle in June with Oak Lawn Tennis Association of Dallas. The club will also hold a singles championship in April and the doubles championship in May.

For more information on HTC, call Bernie at (713)665-1579 or Barry at 622-7303.

VOLLEYBALL HONORS

Houston - Congratulations goes out to Houston's Venture-N-VP's for taking second place in the BB Division of the Tampa Volleyball Tournament. The seven man power-house team traveled to Florida to dominate the BB Division of the tournament. "While I wasn't their to witness the event, I am sure the words cocktailed, dominate and face were used repeatedly to describe the team," said league president Ken Newberry. No one knows for sure what the "VP" in the teams name stands for, maybe V for vicious and the P, well you take a quess. They will definitely be a team to watch in the upcoming International Lone Star Volleyball Classic III to be held in Houston over Easter weekend.

In other league news, the Sunday recreational division voted to start league play. Teams will be forming over the next two Sundays, March 10 and 17. Open play will continue until the league begins. Anyone interested joining the league should call Jeff at (713)862-2889 for more information.

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "swedish," "accu-pressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology" "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or "manipulation of soft tissue."

OBITUARIES

Robert W. Rupp (above) aka Courtney Rose 8/2/62 to 12/1/90

In the presence of family and friends, Robert made a peaceful transition from this earthly life in the early morning hours of December 1.

Although fighting the AIDS virus himself for over 18 months, he spent his time performing and raising money for the San Antonio AIDS Foundation to help others also infected and affected by this dreadful disease.

He will always be remembered for his many achievements—Joan Rivers Look-a-Like winner from San Antonio to Hollywood, Christmas in July and Halloween Extravaganza Benefits for S.A.A.F.; the Grand Duchess de San Fernando of the Royal, Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Alamo Empire Regent I; and many other awards and projects.

Robert is survived by his parents Sharen and Bob Rupp, brothers David and Michael, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, his niece Kristal, his companion Alan, his cohort in crime Bill, aka Ericka Raye, and his many, many friends and family at Memories and throughout San Antonio.

Funeral services were held December 4, 2 p.m. C.S.T./2:15 p.m. D.Q.T.

Donations may be made to S.A.A.F., 3530 Broadway, San Antonio, TX 78209.

Courtney—One day we will all be together again, but until then we will continue your projects...we will always remember and never forget....
"Start spreading the news..."

Victor K. Berry May 1, 1963 to March 1, 1991

David R. Cabrera (above) 8/5/57 - 3/8/89

Two years ago today David passed on to another life, leaving behind many friends along with accomplishments. We look back and remember the good times and never forget that we will meet again one day. Although it's been a while, your absence is as vivid as yesterday. We miss you so.

is as vivid as yesterday. We miss you so.

As we mend the pieces of our heart, we realize that one of those pieces you've captured, and just knowing it's with you helps us understand and move on. Until we meet again.

From those who care

Don Mason (above) of Houston 5/15/49 - 1/6/91

Goodbye dear brother of many years. Our hearts ache from your passing. We all miss you very much. Now you are beyond the pain of your long battle with cancer; in your escape from suffering we are gladdened. You are now with your Creator, Savior and Holy Spirit; in your new life we rejoice. Praises and thanks to your loving parents, Billy and Helen Mason, who reared such a fine and popular son.

Don was friendly to everyone; a great ambassador of goodwill for the Lancers MC. We will sorely miss his easygoing companionship. The Lancers Motorcycle Club
