PLANS SET FOR HOUSTON GAY/LESBIAN PRIDE WEEK '91

Float and Walking Entries for June 23 Parade Being Accepted. Silent Walking AIDS Memorial Unit To Honor Those Lost to AIDS.

HOUSTON - The parade committee of Houston Gay/Lesbian Pride Week '91 is now accepting entries for the June 23. 1991 parade. Entry deadline is June 11.

This year's parade theme, "Feel the Music," is meant to encourage entrants to use music on their floats or in their entries. Jazz Paz, parade committee co-chair, told TWT NEWS, "Hopefully we will have a lot of floats with music playing to make the parade more festive and fun." Motorized, non-motorized and walking units are being accepted.

As an alternative this year, there will be a silent, walking AIDS memorial unit to honor those who have been lost to the AIDS epidemic. Co-chair James Laque said. "Persons who have never felt part of the parade, or who have avoided being part of it for whatever reasons, are encouraged to be part of this tribute." Each walker will pay a reduced entry fee and be allowed to carry a sign naming their memorial, according to the specifications of the parade rules.

In other Pride Week news, the Pride Guide is now accepting advertising for this year's publication. The guide will have a circulation of approximately 15,000, with three to five thousand copies being mailed directly to area homes. The format will be tabloid style with spot color available on some pages. The guide will also contain a schedule of events, the parade route, a resource guide and articles of interest to the community. Deadline for inclusion in the guide is May 28. For advertising rates and sizes, call the Pride Line at (713) 523-5263.

Pride Week merchandise is available by mail-order and at select outlets. T-shirts, tank-tops, squeeze bottles, souvenir cups, painter's caps and posters can be purchased. For more information on Pride Week, call the Pride Line at (713)523-5263.

AIDS RESOURCE CENTER PREPARES TO EXPAND SERVICES

DIFFA to Provide Funds, Center to Seek More from NAPWA.

DALLAS - Encouraged at the prospect of receiving financial aid from a variety of sources, the AIDS Resource Center here is moving to expand its already wide range of services to people with AIDS.

John Thomas, Executive Director of the Resource Center, told Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS that plans for service and assistance programs for PWAs are progressing smoothly. "DIFFA, the Design Industry Foundation for AIDS, will provide $15,000 for renovating our kitchen here at the Gay and Lesbian Community Center," Thomas said. "Bill Hunt, Client Services Manager for the AIDS Resource Center, will travel to Washington, D.C. to apply for another grant for $15,000 from NAPWA, the National Association for Persons with AIDS. All of this will help us get our meal assistance program in high gear."

Thomas explained that $10,000 of the NAPWA funds will go for actual food preparation, rather than equipment or renovation of facilities. The remaining $5,000 goes to People Like Us [PLUS], the HIVpositive advocacy group of DGA. DGA officials hope that PLUS will be designated as the local chapter of NAPWA.

Thomas also cited a national grant being channeled through Parkland Hospital that will enable the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic to hire a part-time social worker. "Through the Community Outreach Primary Care program, we can conduct ongoing education projects like the one in South Dallas at the Bluitt-Flowers Center. Education. along with wellness training and counseling should help people receive needed services without clogging the already overloaded services of Parkland Hospital."

Funds from Dallas County will enable the DGA to offer financial assistance to PWAs with their utility payments through the month of August. Those interested in volunteering were asked to call the DGA office and leave their phone number for Doug Crowder, who volunteers with the financial assistance program.

SA NAMES PROJECT ORGANIZING FOR 1992 AIDS QUILT DISPLAY

First Meeting to Be Held May 13; Volunteers, Contributions Needed.

SAN ANTONIO — In preparation for the 1992 display of the National AIDS Memorial Quilt in the Alamo City, the SA Names Project has announced the date and time of its first quilt planning meeting. The Names Project is encouraging everyone interested in making the display a success to attend this important meeting.

Jose Castaneda, co-chair of the 1992 display, told TWT NEWS, "It's important that we start to organize now for the '92 display. We can use volunteers in logistics, media, panel making, fund-raising and merchandise. We need a lot of volunteers and contibutions in order to make the '92 display a success. We invite anyone with a desire to help to attend the meeting on May 13."

The National AIDS Memorial Quilt was conceived of by its originators as a way of illustrating the impact of the AIDS epidemic and the need for an immediate and compassionate response. It also provides a positive and creative means of expression for those whose lives have been touched by the epidemic. On all of its various display tours around the country, it has raised funds and encouraged support for people with AIDS or HIV and their loved ones. Organizers of the San Antonio display stress that funds raised will stay in San Antonio, and will go to various AIDS related organizations.

The quilt planning meeting is being held on Monday, May 13 at 7 p.m. at the SAAF House, 818 E. Grayson. Information may also be obtained by writing to the San Antonio Names Project, 818 E. Grayson, San Antonio, TX 78208, or calling (512)225-4715.

OUT! CHALLENGES HOMOPHOBIA WITH GAY, LESBIAN ART

Houston Display Also Features Performance Artists, Local Authors; Exhibit Slated for Texas Tour.

HOUSTON — DiverseWorks Artspace is presenting "OUT! Voices from a Queer Nation," an exhibit of artwork by lesbian and gay artists in Texas. Presentations by performance artists and readings by local writers will also be held in conjunction with the exhibit.

Organizers explained that the focus of the OUT! exhibit is homophobia as experienced, viewed and critiqued by its targets, lesbian and gay people. The artwork in the exhibit will serve as a direct challenge to homophobia as experienced in employment, health care, family issues, AIDS discrimination and the media.

The OUT! exhibit is meant to call attention to all of these issues. Participating artists have chosen to be visible as lesbians and gays in the production of their work. OUT! is the first exhibit to bring together lesbian and gay artists from across Texas. Arrangements are now being made to take the exhibit to other cities throughout the state.

The exhibit runs from May 12 through June 16 at DiverseWorks, 1117 East Freeway. The opening reception is tomorrow, Saturday, May 11 from 7 to 9 p.m.

"This is the thirteenth year," Masters said, "and we are pleased to announce that RDD will be held at Market Hall, 2200 Stemmons Freeway. The location is closer to the Crossroads than Fair Park, the site of previous Razzle Dazzle events. We think Pamala Stanley will be performing some of her classic dance hits like "Coming Out of Hiding" and "If Looks Could Kill" in the disco at 11 p.m. The entertainment will be really hot, so it's a good thing Market Hall has plenty of cool air!"

Joiner explained that preliminaries for Ms., Miss, and Mr. Razzle Dazzle Dallas will be held this month in three separate contests. "The Ms. contest is at Sue Ellen's on May 16, the Miss contest on May 21 at the Wave and the Mr. contest at the Round-up the following night. Masters noted that chartered buses will run again this year from the various bars, and there will also be free parking at Market Hall.

Joiner and Masters also said that the Razzle Dazzle Dallas Board of Directors felt lucky to have received a $10,000 corporate donation from Coors. "This will really be a big event and certainly one you won't want to miss."

Co-host Deborah Bell told TWT NEWS, "I enjoy working with Bruce and feel he is doing an outstanding job, having some big shoes to fill. Bruce is an activist just as Jack and I are, and therefore he has insight into the issues and concerns of our community."

The show, which airs on Monday nights at 9 p.m., features a calendar of community events, a segment of "This Way Out," a national program produced by the Pacifica affiliate in Los Angeles, interviews with local figures and music by gay and lesbian artists. "We have many exciting guests scheduled for upcoming programs. We will also be doing live on-air coverage of the Pride Parade on June 23, so listeners should remember to take along their portables."

Bell said she wanted to remind the community that groups can have their events featured in the community calendar segment of the program by sending the information to Wilde 'n' Stein, 419 Lovett Blvd., Houston, TX 77006. She also invited anyone interested in being part of the show to contact KPFT.

CLASSIC CHASSIS CLUB HOLDS AUSTIN MEET

May 24-27 Weekend Includes Car Show, Dinner Cruise on Lake Austin & Awards Banquet.

AUSTIN — The Austin and Houston chapters of the Classic Chassis Car Club are presenting a weekend of activities including a car show Memorial Day weekend, May 24 through May 27 in Austin.

Organizers of "Golden Girls '91" believe the gathering is the first ever all-national or even all-Texas gay car meet. There are an estimated 30 gay car clubs throughout the United States and Canada. The largest is the Los Angeles group, with 500 members.

Weekend events will include a trip to the Central Texas Automobile Museum, a dinner cruise on Lake Austin, a barbecue lunch in nearby Lockhart and, of course, the annual Golden Girls Car Show and Awards Banquet.

The car show will feature both classic and someday-to-be-classic automobiles. Organizers stressed that the cars don't have to be perfect restorations; the idea is to have fun, and not to get too serious. Trophies and awards will be given out based a popular vote and will be presented at the awards banquet Sunday evening on the veranda of the Marriott Hotel.

For information on registration and activity fee, call (512)867-3053 or write Classic Chassis Car Club, P.O. Box 12553, Austin, TX 78711-2553.

FOCUS OF HOUSTON CELEBRATES FIFTH

Ecumenical PWA Support Group Holding May 20 Reception at South Main Baptist Church

HOUSTON — The members of FOCUS, an ecumenical organization structured into care teams that provide support and assistance for people with AIDS, will be celebrating the group's fifth anniversary with a reception on Monday, May 20.

FOCUS, which stands for Focus On Caring, Understanding and Support, began in April of 1986 when concerned members of different religious denominations in the Houston area came together with the common goal of helping people living with AIDS. Since its inception five years ago, FOCUS has assisted approximately 40 PWAs, and the group currently has four on its client roster. Team members help out with household chores, provide transportation and in general try to make life easier for those suffering from HIV infection.

FOCUS is always looking for people interested in giving of their time, and organizers stress that members of all religious faiths, and even those who belong to no denomination, are welcome to join the group. One criterion for those wishing to join is a nonjudgmental attitude. Meetings are held the third Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Pine Room at South Main Baptist Church.

Anyone wishing to attend the fifth anniversary reception on May 20 was asked to call Dorothy Bailey at (713)433-9746. For more information about volunteering with FOCUS, call Ross Hancock at 868-9723.

Bigotry in the Pulpit

The following letter was sent to Dr. John R. Walchenbach of the Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church of Dallas concerning a sermon he gave on the Presbyterian Conference to be held this summer. Dr. Walchenbach expressed his opposition to conference recommendations regarding the ordination of gays and lesbians as minister.—Editor

Dear Dr. Walchenbach:

Usually on Sunday mornings I never have the chance to listen to other pastors in Dallas because I am attending my own church. As it happened, I heard your sermon on Sunday, April 21, and will assume the views expressed in your sermon are shared by those in attendance at your services.

if I arrived for a visit at your church, I would probably find a white middle- to upper-class church that does little but tolerate women, minorities or gay people. It was interesting to note that you have felt such hurt at being identified as a white male household leader who has contributed to the ills of the world. Yet in reality your belief system could use adjustment.

When you can understand others in such a way as only to tolerate, and not accept them, you miss the fact that they are persons who have not attained equal status in the U.S., taxpayers who pay a great majority of the taxes for being single, patrons of the arts, leaders in all walks of life and God's children—formed in the image and expressions of God in his/her many ways.

Just to think that you will presume to know how to minister to the needs of these homosexuals needs exploration. Perhaps they do need a church that will bless, guide and help them to retain their human dignity. You know the committee's report was correct—men of your age do not have any business running the political structure of the country or religion.

In the years to follow, when the gene for homosexuality is found, it will be seen that the persecution, supposed tolerance of the Church and the unfair treatment of the dignity of many people were not attended to in the manner that Christ asked for in his own persecution.

Bravo to the Presbyterian Committee Conference. In another 100 years, when the old limited beliefs are gone, the new will add dimension and love to God's true work on earth.

To you, Dr. Walchenbach, I wish you the honesty to state your hatred of these people and not the intellectual approach. It doesn't work. Your love isn't there and it shows.

Who Are the Guilty Ones?

Dear TWT:

Each time I hear, or see in print, someone describe persons living with HIV/AIDS as "innocent victims" or "deserving of what they got," I ask myself who has been given the authority to make such judgments? Who decides that transfusion recipients, babies born to infected mothers, hemophiliacs and a young female dental patient are elevated to innocence and gay men, intravenous drug users, prostitutes and "promiscuous" heterosexuals are downgraded to deserving or guilty of their infection? More importantly, why are we making such distinctions?

Somehow this "hierarchy of worth" gets brought up when discussions turn to whether we should spend money on prevention, treatment and services for persons with HIV/AIDS. Funding is fine for the innocents, not for the guilty. Is this what our society has come to reflect? I can only hope that it is not so.

I suggest to those who make these judgments that they spend one day at the bedside of a gay man, a drug user, a child

Nightmare at Ben Taub

Dear TWT:

The nurse accidentally dropped the tray of food on the floor. She promised to be back shortly to clean it up. Yet after several days, the tray and all its spilt food were still lying on the floor.

The incident sounds like a dream sequence out of an Alice Cooper nightmare, or a small slice of the movie Misery. In reality, the spilt food incident recently took place in the room of an HIV patient at Ben Taub Hospital in Houston.

If you think this less than human treatment of HIV patients should stop. then I urge you to contact an elected official today. Ask them to contact Ben Taub officials about their treatment of HIV patients.

AGN Spreading the Word

Austin Gay Nudists held officer elections in mid-April. The new officers are Michael C., President; Jayson K, Vice-President; and Alvin H., Secretary-Treasurer. Through commitment, good ideas and good leadership, the membership has grown to include 41 guys from the greater Central Texas area. Successful monthly events have been held and summer '91 outdoor events have been plannned at Hippie Hollow, Recreation Plantation and in Cuero, Texas.

In January the club held its first mixer at the home of one of its members. The idea was successful enough to warrant another, so the club has planned a public mixer for Saturday, May 18 from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Hippie Hollow (McGregor Park); proceed to the first cove past the end of the paved road. A small banner with "AGN" sewn onto it will be displayed on one of the trees. Guys who've been interested in AGN but were too afraid to ask can become acquainted with the club and its members at that time. Considering that the social will be held in public, clothing-optional park guests can choose to join us in the buff or remain undressed!

This letter is an open invitation to your readers to attend our AGN mixer on Saturday, May 18. An after-party will be held at a nearby lakehouse, but details will be withheld until the day of the mixer.

Thanks for helping spread the word. Our mailing address is P.O. Box 142801, Austin, TX 78714-2801. A stamped envelope with the sender's address (SASE) should be included for a quicker response.

Use Ashtrays, Not Carpet

Dear TWT:

The reason I'm writing is that I was so surprised when my partner and I went to the Village Station to see what it was like. We loved it, as so many other people do.

As we walked around, we saw plenty of ashtrays for people to use. We do not smoke and we have no problem with those who do; to each his own. But when we saw about ten different people put their cigarettes out on the carpet, it just made me so mad, and I just had to say something.

Have some respect for our clubs, I'm sure you wouldn't want someone to come to your house and use your carpet for an ashtray.

The Design Industry Foundation for AIDS [DIFFA] was formed in the 1980s by creative professionals as a means to assist AIDS-related organizations. The Dallas Collection is a special fund-raising event sponsored by DIFFA/Dallas. Last year's event raised over $140,000 for AIDS programs in the Dallas area.

Patrick Norris, costumer supervisor for ABC's thirtysomething, has designed a special jacket to be modeled by Timothy Busfield during the live auction of the jackets. Busfield portrays Elliott on the popular television series. Norris is also chairing the auction's Costume category, while Dorothy Kalans, editor-in-chief of Metropolitan Home, will chair the Interior Design category. In addition to the denim jackets, this year's event will feature items donated and decorated by fashion, interior, jewelry and costume designers and artists.

Saturday night's activities begin with a cocktail party from 7-8:30 at the Dallas Convention Center Arena. A cash bar will be available, as well as all types of hors d'oeuvres. A special show highlighting some of the jackets begins at 8:30, with the live auction afterwards. Only 25 jackets will be sold during the live auction in order to shorten that segment of the show this year, and the remainder will be sold during silent auctions following immediately in the foyer.

Prices for the evening range from $35 for reserved seating to $150 for center stage, runway seating. "All the seats will be good this year," Steve Burrus of DIFFA/Dallas told TwT, "because it's being held in the round. There won't be a bad seat in the house."

DIFFA began in New York in 1984 when a small group of interior designers and architecture professionals banded together to raise funds for AIDS organizations. Four years later, the Metropolitan Home Show House produced a net revenue of $800,000 and national recognition in the media. DIFFA has now grown to encompass all aspects of design, including fashion, graphics, textiles, display, visual merchandising, tabletop, products and crafts.

The first Dallas Collection, held in 1987, featured the creations of Dallas-area fashion designers. For the second show, in 1989, Levi Strauss donated denim jackets which were customized by fashion luminaries like Bob Mackie, Zandra Rhodes, Donna Karan and Karl Lagerfeld. Mackie's designs drew the highest bids in both the 1989 and 1990 collections. This year's auction has been broadened to include art and photography, jewelry, interior design, costuming and fashion.

Designs in this year's show include works by Mikhail Baryshnikov, Geoffrey Beene, Donna Karan, Perry Ellis, Victor Costa, Mary McFadden, Adrienne Vittadini and Todd Oldham. Texas-based artists with entries include Diane Malouf, Sherry Hayslip, Siros, Bert Scherbarth, and Bullard and Jones.

Steve Burrus [I] of DIFFA/Dallas and designer Sherry Hayslip [r] with jacket for 1991 Dallas Collection,

"Quite a few of the designers are coming in themselves for the evening," Burrus said, "including Fabrice and Rifat Ozbek. It will really be a very special night."

As anyone who has attended previous Dallas Collections can attest, the entire evening is not to be missed. The jackets and other creations are always visually stimulating, and one can often meet the individuals behind the works. Where else can one have so much fun and feel so good about doing it?

It's 1975, and a young policewoman, just out of the academy, is teamed with an experienced vice officer to work undercover to purge a small Texas city of its flourishing drug trade. In reality, it's 1991 and MGM Pictures is currently filming Rush in Houston. Specifically, in the Montrose area of the city.

Rush is unique in its approach to the subject matter of police and drug investigations in that its primary focus is on the devastating effect narcotics have on everyone—on both sides of the law.

To create the small southwestern town of Katterly, Texas, the fictitious setting for Rush, director Lili Fini Zanuck brought her cameras to Houston and surrounding areas. Since the film is set in 1975, she had to avoid the bustling center of the country's fourth-largest city and instead use a compilation of places, photographing portions of each to make the whole.

The result is that, when audiences see Katterly, Texas in their theaters, they will, in fact, be seeing portions of towns such as Kemah, Freeport, Richmond, Booth, Humble, Clear Lake, Morgan's Point, Missouri City, Galveston, Pasadena and parts of suburban Houston.

And the name of the city is as fictitious as its composition. Katterly is the first name of the movie's first assistant director, Katterli Frauenfelder, with the change of "i" to "y."

Blending the look of all the different locations to create the illusion of a single city, as well as recreating the year 1975 in each place and on every set, was the domain of production designer Paul Sylbert. He and his team are proving to be more than up to the task. Sylbert is accustomed to meeting such challenges. He has designed for motion pictures, theatre and opera; written and directed a film; directed television productions and authored a book.

Rush stars Jason Patric, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Sam Elliott and Greg Allman. Allman makes his motion picture debut as a dramatic actor with this role, and the famed musician not only doesn't sing or play so much as a single note during his performance, he doesn't even tap his foot when he hears music on the radio.

Lili Fini Zanuck turns in her producer's hat and for the first time dons one as director of Rush, a project she has herded through development since the Zanuck Company first optioned the best-selling novel.

Hollywood's RUSH To Houston

Visit to Set by Governor Richards Highlights Filming of Movie

by Marc Alexander

Zanuck's last motion picture effort was as co-producer with husband Richard D. Zanuck of the Academy Award-winning Best Picture Driving Miss Daisy.

Richard D. Zanuck is acknowledged as one of the film industry's most distinguished leaders, a position he has attained by being a progressive studio executive and producer during the past 30 years. Zanuck received the prestigious Irving Thalberg Award at the recent 1991 Academy Award ceremonies.

Perhaps it is his look, his speech, or simply that he has starred in numerous vintage westerns over the years that makes people think Sam Elliott is a "true Texan." In fact, Elliott was born in Sacramento, California and raised in Oregon. His parents' families do, however, extend back through several Texas generations. Elliott has starred in such feature films as Murder in Texas, Gone to Texas, The Sam Houston Story and The Yellow Rose. He even looks and talks like a cowboy when he's off-screen; a true Texan if there ever was one.

Another true Texan involved with the shooting of this film is Texas Governor Ann Richards. The Governor visited the Montrose location of Rush last week and while on the set, she reminded the attending media that Texas has enjoyed a long association with the movie industry. Millions of dollars generated by the film industry pour into state coffers annually. There is even a state agency, the Texas Film Commission, which regulates the local film industry.

Governor Richards also mentioned that movies had been produced here in Texas since 1924, when The Warrens of Virginia filmed here. Finally, in a marketing program designed by Donna Summer, The Village People, the one group with a higher gay population than most metropolitan areas, remained silent on the question of their huge gay following as they attempted to become more mainstream in their entertainment efforts.

Those crazy macho men! And so it was, this week in Texas, 1979.

Week of May 10-16, 1991

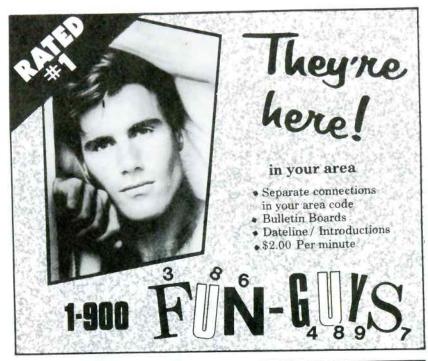

SKY SHOW TRIO — The heavens over Texas are getting set to present one of the most spectacular sky shows ever. It's the sort of thing you'll be talking about years from now and won't ever forget. Right now three mighty planets—Venus, Mars and Jupiter—are lined up in a row in the early evening sky, above the western horizon.

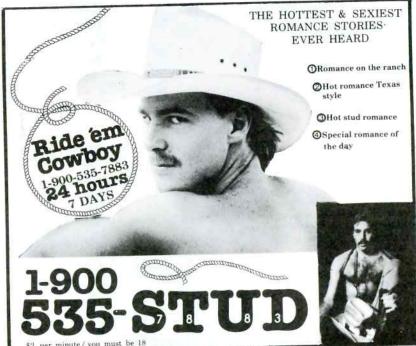

But by mid-June, the three planets will have moved close together to form a three-way conjunction in the sky. This is rare stargazing. You haven't seen such a three-way pileup in your lifetime.

From now until mid-June, go outside at least once a week, look up and you'll see these three planets making their moves. Each time you look at them, they'll be a little closer together than the last time you were out stargazing. As May begins, the trio is 40 degrees apart. By the end of the month, the gap closes to within 15 degrees.

In the meantime, on the evenings of May 16, 17 and 18, you can watch the thin New Moon move by each planet, night by night. On May 16 the Moon zips by Venus, the next night by Mars and the third night, the Moon will be next to Jupiter.

MAY NEW MOON — This month's New Moon occurs in Taurus, the sign of money. The New Moon comes around midnight next Tuesday, May 14. The New Moon is the topic of this week's STARSCOPE.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Your best time of the year is here as the Sun is in Taurus for a 30-day annual visit. It's the best time when your personal goals can be realized more easily, and it's also a cycle when you are in control. Others will find you more dynamic than usual! Your typical steady Taurus nature will remain unwavering as the May 14 New Moon occurs in your zodiac sign. The New Moon gives you extra vitality. It's your best New Moon of the year.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your twelfth house. Your social nature will give way to aloneness, and you'll find yourself retreating into your inner self. Selfanalysis is indicated by the May 14 New Moon. You'll do much thinking.

CANCER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon will be placed in your eleventh house. A preoccupation with career will give way to being social. Friendships and group activities will be accentuated. You'll go out more often, especially on the May 14 New Moon.

LEO: (Jul 23-Aug 22) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your tenth house. You will now be more occupied with your career and employment achievements, and work will consume much of your time. Your main drive is your career goal as the May 14 New Moon gives your employment picture an economic charge.

VIRGO: (Aug 23-Sept 22) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your ninth house. Your main interests during the cycle will be travel, study, learning and deep thought. You are not as interested in work at the present time as the May 14 New Moon urges you to take time away from your job and travel.

LIBRA: (Sept 23-Oct 23) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your eighth house. You will find your sex drive accentuated during this period. There will also be a tightened involvement with other people's money, taxes, material goods and gain as the May 14 New Moon opens up new financial doors of opportunity.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24-Nov 21) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your seventh house. Since the seventh house rules marriage and partnerships, you can expect such areas of your lifestyle to take on extra meaning and time. The May 14 New Moon rings wedding bells for serious romance.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your sixth house. Since the sixth house rules health and employment, you can readily expect your physical well-being to be a stimulated factor in your life. Menial tasks and dealing with co-workers take on extra attention. Use the May 14 New Moon to make your career environment healthier.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your fifth house. Since the fifth house rules entertainment and love affairs, you can fully expect such things to be accentuated favorably. Love can blossom easily under the lovely spell of the May 14 New Moon.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your fourth house. Since the fourth house rules the home, such domestic areas take on added importance. Redecorating, moving or just enjoying your home life are keyed by the May 14 New Moon.

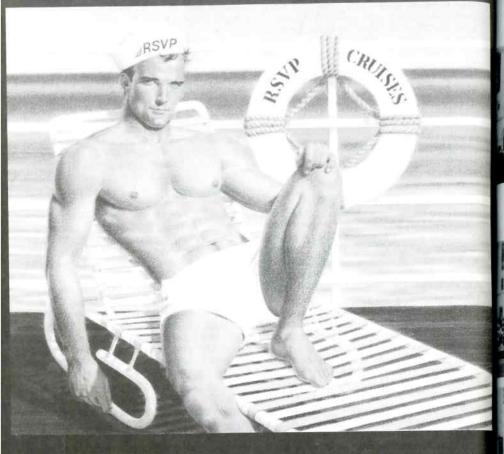

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your third house of communication. You are in a period of phone calls, letter-writing, talking endlessly about anything and taking short trips. Use the May 14 New Moon to guide you in all you say and write.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) The Sun's movement into Taurus ushered in a 30-day cycle when the Sun and the New Moon are placed in your second house of money. Budget, finances, earning, saving and investing now become more important as the Sun moves out of your personal house. Your personal goals and self-improvement now give way to improving your financial situation. Use the May 14 New Moon to protect your world of money. Business moves made under the New Moon promise success.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Venus, the planet that rules love, left Gemini and entered Cancer on May 8 for a brief four-week visit.

Larry Arbo of Dallas

Larry Arbo, Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer 1990, has had a mission this past year. "I have tried to dispel some of the erroneous myths about the leather community," Larry said. "We are a viable and active part of the gay and lesbian community, and we are always there to help in time of need."

Larry, a very handsome and rugged 39-year-old Virgo, moved to Dallas 11 years ago from Connecticut to make a "fresh start." He works as district sales manager for a publishing company, and enjoys physical activities and working out as much as possible. He also serves as social coordinator for People Like Us, or P.L.U.S., the HIV-positive social wellness and advocacy special interest group of the Dallas Gay Alliance.

Larry's titles include Mr. Ripcord 1990 and Mr. Firedancer 1990, and he is also co-chair for the National Leather Association.

Larry plans to stay active with P.L.U.S., and to continue volunteering his time for leather and non-leather fund-raising events.

"We all have a right to be ourselves," Larry added, "even though we may not all agree on our lifestyles. We, the gay and lesbian community, are a force of people that, joined together, can make a difference."

George Birimisa, the president of ABS, talked about the innovations for Physique '91. "There will be two new features. The first is the introduction of the novice class for women and men. This allows for first-time competitors to strut their stuff, to win a medal and bring glory to their local gay community. The second innovation is random testing [of urine) for anabolic steroids. We are very proud that Physique '91 is a natural competition with the emphasis on good health and wellbeing.'

Bodybuilders from all over the United States and Canada will be in attendance at Physique '91. Guest posers will be Dianne Aaronson and Neil Nabbefeld, gold medal winners in Gay Games III for Pairs.

VOLLEYBALL TOURNEY

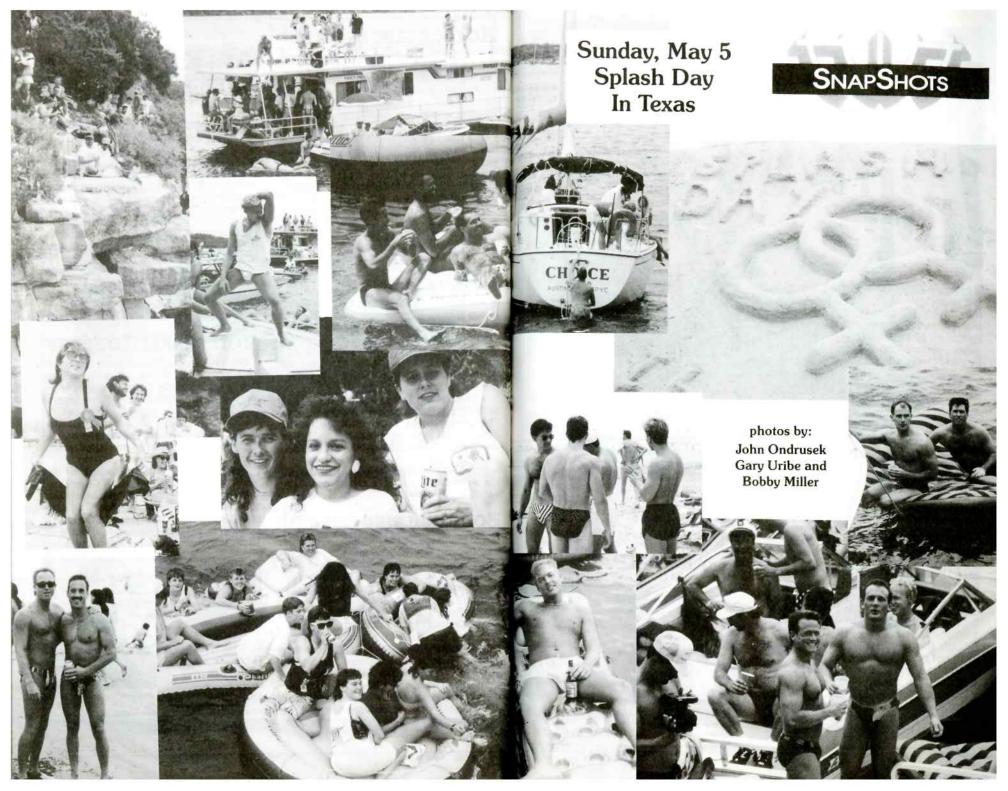

Louisville, KY - The Houston Venture-N VP's competed in the Louisville Derby Volleyball Tournament last weekend, team member Frank Mirandola told TWT SPORTS. With 24 teams vieing for top honors, the VP's brought back second place to the Lone Star state in the BB division. The VP team has attended three out-of-town tournaments recently and placed in each one.

Next, the VP's head to Chicago for the North American Gay Volleyball Championships to be held Memorial Day weekend. Over 100 teams from all over the world will be competing for the North American title. Good luck from TWT SPORTS to the Venture-N VP's and all Texas teams attending the tournament.

If you see only one movie this year, make it Impromptu. Make it for the costumes, the comedy, the photography and the fact that feminist author George Sand was better known during their time than the composer Frederic Chopin. Played brilliantly by Judy Davis, she may soon be again.

Judy Davis is George Sand, a celebrated novelist who scandalizes Paris with her Bohemian lifestyle in Impromptu.

Most of us made the acquaintance of George Sand in high school English when we learned that women were not published in the 1800s, so a rambunctious few took the pen names of men. What we didn't learn, however, was that Sand not only assumed a literary identity, but crossdressed and agitated for education and marriage laws favorable to women, even though she believed women in general were not ready for the vote.

Admired by Oscar Wilde, Henry James and Matthew Arnold, visited by Robert Browning, Gustave Flaubert and Victor Hugo, Sand was described by Dostoyevsky as "a writer almost unique in the strength of her intellect and talent."

Marie D'Agoult (Bernadette Peters) is Franz Liszt's jealous mistress in Impromptu.

Chopin (played vividly by Hugh Grant) was peculiarly meek, perhaps as a result of his chronically fragile health, and so proper and priggish that if Sand had not fallen in love with him before their meeting, this delightful meringue would never have been whipped up.

The setting is Paris during the mid-1830s, when the most scandalous woman of the period is dressing and smoking like a man, and writing as if obsessed. She loves with the same energy, although she is presently out of love with her exsweetheart Mallefille (Georges Corraface) and the poet Alfred de Musset (Mandy Patinkin).

Hugh Grant stars as legendary composer-planist Frederic Chopin in Impromptu.

[Back, I-r] Judy Davis, Julian Sands, Bernadette Peters, [front, I-r] Hugh Grant and Mandy Patinkin star in romantic comedy Impromptu.

Visiting old friends Franz Liszt (Julian Sands, another great) and his mistress, Marie d'Agoult (Bernadette Peters!), Sand falls under the spell of Chopin's music and heartfelt expressiveness when she hears him playing his "Ballad in G Minor" in the next room.

To make him more accessible to her admiration, she invites herself to a fortnightlong artistic salon that the Duchess d'Anton (Emma Thompson) is gathering in the country for Chopin, Liszt and Marie, and artist Eugene Delacroix (Ralph Brown). Mallefille de Musset, forged letters, duels at dawn, runaway horses and explosively mischievous children complicate the retreat for Sand, and Chopin is so appalled by the spectacle that he studiously avoids her back in Paris.

The consequences of his offended airs are further gender-bending, stalking, startling, but never insincere.

Filmed in and about the actual chateau of the Duke and Duchess d'Anton in the Loire Valley, and other locales, including the town of Versailles, and employing early 19th-century fabric patterns and even some of Chopin's detailed notes to tailors in the design of costumes, the film is historically accurate to the smallest detail, but broadly interpreted with cleverness and aplomb by screenwriter Sarah Kernochan and her husband, director James Lapine.

Part musical comedy, part modern romance, part fresh and free—impromptu—this funny, fluffy frolic will be the film people are humming about next spring when Oscars are being awarded.

"People thought I must be gay. To keep from getting beat up, I studied fighting. I grew my hair long, in redneck Texas, mind you, then went around waiting for someone to throw a punch. I became a very angry young man."

-Actor Patrick Swayze. on his early days as a ballet dancer.

ALVIN C. "A.C." SCARBOROUGH

Born December 15, 1954 in Ovett, Mississippi, A.C. moved to Dallas in the early 1970s and went to work as a barback at the Old Plantation, Bill Hargis and Ray Hardin hired him as a bartender at the Villa Fontana Club in 1975. Later, when they opened the Eighth Day, A.C. stayed with them and worked at the club for the next ten years. In 1989, Mr. Hargis opened the Cove and A.C. went with him. He was employed at the Cove at the time of his death.

A.C. was not only well known in Dallas' gay community, he was also loved and respected. He gave much of his time and talents to worthy causes and benefits. Who doesn't remember his many performances as "Nadia" or some of the fabulous parties "Black Betty and White A.C." gave? He surely will be missed by all those whose lives he touched.

He is survived by his mother and father, two sisters and numerous nieces and nephews, all of Mississippi. He was laid to rest last week in Richton, Mississippi. Arrangements were handled by Jones and Son Funeral Home. A memorial service was held last Wednesday, May 8 at M.C.C. Dallas.

OBITUARIES

Thomas B. Palombo (above)
Dec. 10, 1935 - April 22, 1991
This was the day we said goodbye to Thomas.
He was always cheerful and loved to laugh. Who can forget his laugh? Many of us remember his Jan.
1 get-togethers. May he rest in peace.

John, Kaye and Bobby Patrick Michael Carraway

November 5, 1948 – May 1, 1991
Patrick Michael Carraway, son of Marguerite and Walter Carraway of Dallas; brother of Ann Pierce and Kelli Zeiler, of Plano; grandson of Faye Carraway of Dallas. Mass of Christian Burial was held Friday, May 3 at All Saints Catholic Church.

"Gentlest Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the Soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment but let some drops of Thy precious blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou O merciful Saviour send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

A memorial service was held Saturday afternoon at the Memorial Park Gardens in Amarillo, Texas, where family and friends gathered to celebrate the life of Rob Rountree.

"Robble" died Thursday morning, April 25, 1991 at his home in Dallas of a heart attack at age 27. He was in his last semester at North Texas State University, Denton, majoring in computer science.

Rob was not only a very intelligent man, but a very loving one also.

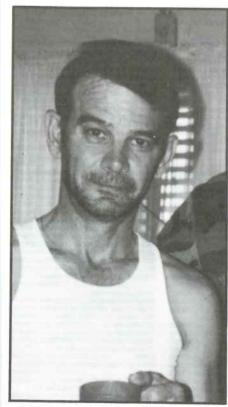

Jay Lynn Gittins (above) May 19, 1962 - May 6, 1991

Jay Gittins ended a two-and-one-half-year battle with AIDS on May 6, 1991, shortly before his 29th birthday, Jay lived his life fully. It was a life of many journeys; journeys through many people's lives and to many places. In his final journey, Jay leaves his mother, Connie Quick, of Columbia Falls, Montana; brother, Tom Gittins of Helena, Montana; and the close friends who were at his side throughout the end of his life. Jay brought us together and created a family where we all found love and security. A love and security we will maintain and cherish until we meet Jay again.

Oh, we never know where life will take us.
I know it's just a ride on the wheel
And we never know when death will shake us
And we wonder how it will feel.
So goodbye my friend, I know I'll never

Lance Wickwire (above) 12/2/39 - 3/26/91

Lance Wickwire passed away on March 26, 1991, the victim of a brutal homicide in the Oak Lawn area. He was the son of famous actress Martha Scott. Lance settled in the Dallas area in the early 1970s after retiring as a flight attendant on pioneering intercontinental travel. He also enjoyed a mild success directing off-Broadway in the 1960s.

Lance was a unique person with a gentle soul who shared his wonderfully dry wit with his many friends. There is no way to express the tremendous loss that we all feel, and the only thing that can fill the gap now is the knowledge that he is in a far better place.

Lance has gone home to Pennsylvania, but his memory will live in the hearts of his second family in Dallas. We love you—John-David G., Mark P, Steve & Randy, Elaine & David, Dwayne, Merle, Gill,

Jim, Scott, Jeff, Tim and many more
