GLEN MAXEY STEPS DOWN AS LGRL EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

To Become Ex-Officio Member; Laurie Eiserloh New Director.

AUSTIN — In an effort to devote more time to his new job, recently elected State Representative Glen Maxey has stepped down as Executive Director of the Lesbian/ Gay Rights Lobby of Texas [LGRL]. He submitted his letter of resignation to the LGRL board at its May 4 meeting in Austin. The board expects to bring Maxey on as an ex-officio member at its July meeting.

For four years Maxey has worked for repeal of section 21.06 of the state Penal Code, the state's antisodomy statute, and also promoted AIDS legislation for funding and community-based programs. He also worked in coalition with CHOICE activists on legislation affecting a woman's right to choose abortion.

Maxey was elected State Representative from District 51 in south Austin on March 6 in a special election called after Governor Ann Richards appointed Representative Lena Guerrero to the Railroad Commission. Following his election, Maxey requested a ruling from the Legislative Legal Council to determine if he could stay on with the lobby in any capacity. The council ruled that he was well within the law if he maintained an administrative position, but that he could no longer engage in lobbying.

As the first openly-gay elected state official, Maxey says his decision to leave the lobby was not an easy one, but that several things finally convinced him it was a necessary and positive step. On a personal level, he said he struggled with burnout and realized there simply weren't enough hours in the day for him to do both jobs.

Maxey also says that, while current Texas law allows him to have a paid position with the lobby, that will likely change when new ethics legislation currently being written by the Legislature goes into effect in September. Maxey feels that it is crucial for the lobby to maintain a sense of propriety, and in fact to be a leader on the ethics issue.

Maxey's departure leaves the lobby under the direction of lobbyist Laurie Eiserloh. A recent graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, Eiserloh was hired by the LGRL board in November as a lobbyist and community organizer. Currently she focuses her efforts on legislation dealing with hate crimes, AIDS programs and funding, and repeal of 21.06. Her work also includes efforts to change child custody laws to prevent discrimination against gay and lesbian parents.

In addition to maintaining a full-time lobbyist in Austin, the LGRL also sponsors various events throughout the year, including the recent March on Austin for Lesbian and Gay Rights which drew 28,000 people. The LGRL board is made up of individuals who represent supporting organizations from around the state and atlarge representatives elected by LGRL membership.

PLUS + TALKS DIRTY FOR SAFER SEX IN DALLAS

Chuck Frutchey of San Francisco Conducts Workshop on Issues Of Sex, Being HIV Positive.

DALLAS — A recent Sunday afternoon really heated up with a lot of dirty talk, but it was all for a purpose, to promote safer sex. PLUS+, People Like Us, held their monthly meeting featuring Chuck Frutchey of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation. PLUS+ is the special interest group of the Dallas Gay Alliance for HIV-positive people.

At the beginning of the meeting, everyone in attendance was asked to rate their current sex life from 0-10. The average rating was pretty low. "If I came back in six months or a year, I would hope to see your answers averaging several points higher after this session," Frutchey said.

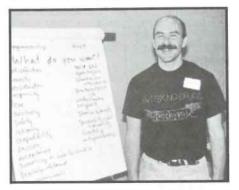

Why people have sex was the next question Frutchey raised. The answers ranged from pleasure and lust to love, affection and "skin hunger." "The reasons we have sex are many, and we shouldn't always expect fireworks to happen," he said. Knowing what one wants from sex and holding realistic expectations are essential.

Frutchey told participants to get out of their chairs and meet four other people they did not know, without using a traditional handshake. A lot of smiles and hugs helped to break the ice. After pairing off with a new partner, each person had to draw an image showing how he felt about being HIV positive. Each person then shared his images with his partner.

Groups of six people then formed from the pairs, each one receiving a printed word for one of six categories describing sex: oral, tactile, condoms, visual, verbal and intercourse. Through brainstorming, the groups listed specific ways to demonstrate these affections. The results were graphically exciting.

Chuck Frutchey of San Francisco AIDS Foundation addressed meeting of PLUS + .

After a short break, Frutchey discussed some of the psychological and emotional issues relating to sex among HIV-positive people. When questioned about their feelings toward men who are HIV negative, participants gave answers ranging from jealous to angry, questioning to avoidance to shunning. "There is a lot of excess baggage that we carry with us, being positive, before we have sex. We need to learn to eliminate that, emotionally and psychologically," Frutchey explained.

Participants were asked to admit if they had ever made a verbal commitment to someone else always to practice safe sex. Then they were asked whether, if they "slipped," they would confess it to someone else. Role playing was used among the pairs within the groups to encourage the use of condoms.

Frutchey demonstrated the proper us of a condom, stressing using the proper side and ensuring a snug fit. "You mulearn to eroticize condoms, to make the part of sex. After a while, the use of condoms will cease to feel awkward and wisimply become second nature."

The next meeting of PLUS + is on Sur day, June 9 from 3-5 p.m., at the Gay an Lesbian Community Center, 2701 Reaga at Brown.

CRESCENT THEATER PRODUCTION BENEFITS AIDS RESOURCE CENTER OF DALLAS

Special Gala Presentation of Bride Who Is a Stranger' Tonight; Play Being Underwritten by HMSS.

DALLAS — Looking for something special to do this weekend? Then why not consider the Crescent Theater's production of Bride Who Is a Stranger. A presentation of the Chicago Industrial Theater, Bride continues through June 2, with a special gala presentation tonight, Friday, May 31. All proceeds from the play will benefit the AIDS Resource Center.

Bride is about dealing with the AIDS crisis and the differing ways individuals and institutions have responded to it. When there are no "built-in" mechanisms for dealing with a situation, society and culture must struggle to reinvent these and adjustments.

Conceived and directed by Audrey Heller and Justin Hayford, the play concerns itself with the effect of AIDS on the publiand private conscience. "We have this in dissoluble union with the disease," explained Hayford, "and we don't even know that it is. We're walking down the aisle with a strange man or woman on one arm. There are no conclusions, only question which are both broad and personal. The idea is to find personal meaning in the images which linger beyond the theatre.

The Crescent Theatre is located at 2215 Cedar Springs, across from the Crescen Hotel. Performances are at 8:15 p.m., with a Sunday matinee at 2 p.m. Tickets are $10 and $25 for tonight's gala. For more information, call (214)522-4460.

John Thomas, Executive Director of the AIDS Resource Center, explained that Bride Who Is a Stranger is being underwritten by HMSS, a home health agency. Also sponsoring are Loyd & Paxton, the Arrangement, Evans-Harris, Cook Diamonds Mangia, Jerrard's Solaine, Crossroads Market, Balloon Bouquet and Ken Knight All proceeds benefit the AIDS Resource Center.

TGRA ANNOUNCES SITE OF 1992 ROYALTY COMPETITION

November 7 Competition Marks Culmination of Campaigns for Mr., Ms. & Miss Titles.

DALLAS — The Texas Gay Rodeo Association [TGRA] has chosen the location for its 1992 TGRA Royalty Competition.

Debe Powell, TGRA State President, told TWT NEWS the group had selected the Round-Up for the annual event, which takes place on November 7.

The competition marks the culmination of the Royalty Candidate campaigns of those members seeking the coveted titles of Mr., Ms. or Miss TGRA 1992. Having already completed the fund-raising portion of the contest, the candidates will be judged on the western attire and talent categories that evening.

The candidates compete in five categories: fund-raising, western attire, talent, horsemanship and interview. The latter two categories are judged at the rodeo arena grounds the following day.

Marc Alexander, 1991 TGRA Royalty Chair, told TWT NEWS that the Round-Up was chosen because of the facility's many features. "We will have space for reserved seating, eight service bars, a central video screen and monitors and a capacity of up to 800 people. In addition, the facility is located in the heart of Oak Lawn."

Judges for the competition are selected from member associations of the International Gay Rodeo Association.

THRF HOSTING HOUSTON MIXER

Gathering Being Held in Conjunction with Gay & Lesbian Art Show at DiverseWorks.

HOUSTON — The Texas Human Rights Foundation [THRF] is holding a mixer in conjunction with "OUT! Voices from a Queer Nation" tomorrow, June 1.

The THRF mixer is free to the public and starts at 7 p.m. at DiverseWorks Artspace, 1117 E. Freeway. Complimentary beer, wine and nonalcoholic beverages will be available. Musical entertainment will be provided by Buddy Johnson, who is heard on "After Hours" every Saturday at midnight on KPFT-FM 90.1.

The OUT! exhibit features artwork by lesbian and gay artists from around the state and deals with homophobia as experienced, viewed and critiqued by its targets.

THRF trustee Robert Rosenberg, one of the organizers of the show, is participating as an artist as well.

Suzy Wagers, Director of Development for THRF, expressed the hope that the event would draw a large crowd. "The show is very powerful and very good, and the mixer will give folks a chance to learn more about THRF while having a really good time."

The Texas Human Rights Foundation is a statewide, nonprofit organization dedicated to fighting discrimination against gay men, lesbians and HIV-positive individuals through litigation.

Currently THRF is sponsoring a lawsuit challenging 21.06 of the Texas Penal Code, the law that makes sexual relations between adults of the same sex a crime. THRF attorneys anticipate that the case will be heard at the appellate level at the beginning of the year.

L.I.B. EMPOWERS WORKING LESBIANS

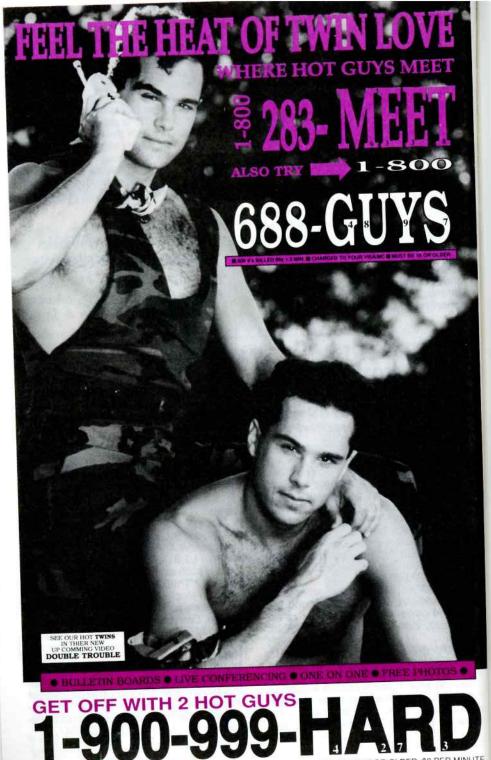

'Lesbians In Business' to Provide Forum for Networking, Sharing Business Opportunities & Info.

HOUSTON — A group of lesbian women is forming a new organization open to all lesbians in any job, occupation or profession. Lesbians In Business [L.I.B.] is intended to serve as a forum for members to meet other working lesbians and to share business opportunities, information and skills. Meetings are planned for the lirst Friday evening of each month at Inklings Bookstore, 1846 Richmond Avenue at Hazard.

The first meeting of L.I.B. is scheduled for Friday, June 7 from 6-8 p.m. at Inklings. From 6-6:30, participants will have an opportunity for networking, then Inkling owners Pokey Anderson and Annise Parker will speak on "How to Start and Promote Your Own Business."

Suzanne Anderson, one of the organizers of L.I.B., explained the potential appeal of such a group for women in the community. "Think about it, eventually you'll need an electrician, plumber or locksmith; maybe an accountant or, God forbid, a lawyer. Everyone needs a doctor. One day you may want to buy a home or lease an apartment, and everyone eats out now and then. Wouldn't it be nice to keep the business in the community?"

There is no charge to attend the meeting, though a $3 donation may be made at the door to help defray the cost of printing and refreshments. For further information about L.I.B., call (713)522-9837.

Scared on the Beach

The following letter, from a reader living in a small Texas coastal community, concerns this excerpt from an article printed recently in the local newspaper: "If you write me a "letter to the editor" and if you have AIDS, please don't like the stamp (staple it to the envelope) and don't lick the flap (tuck it inside the envelope). And if you have AIDS and wish to place an ad in this paper, please wear gloves when you write the check. Do not come by in person as we are closed this time of year."

Dear TWT:

I am a PWA living in a small town on the beach. I moved here a little while ago hoping the weather and peaceful environment would help me in my fight against this disease.

However, after reading an editorial in an issue of the local newspaper, I think I may have made a mistake. This article proves just how far we have come in educating the people of Texas about AIDS. To know that this type of attitude not only exists, but can be published and supported by advertisers, really scares me. I'm afraid if my disease ever became known, I'd have burning crosses on my lawn and lynch mobs at my door. I have a difficult enough battle for life; I don't need to live in fear of my neighbors. Please let your readers know how much work still has to be done by our community to fight this type of gross ignorance.

Ever onward, troops!

Take Control of Your Health

Dear TWT:

As with many of us in the community, I could fill a book with the number of tragic stories of people discovering they are HIV positive only once they have become desperately ill, often at a point when little can be done to help them. This situation really angers me because it can be prevented.

Taking the HIV antibody test is still a choice (so far), but many people don't realize that getting tested can be considered a life-saving decision. Not knowing your HIV status can be more stressful than finding out that you are HIV positive.

Now I don't mean to suggest that being diagnosed with HIV isn't stressful, but at least you may have a chance to intervene and take control of your health. There are many opportunities in Houston and in other major cities in Texas to improve one's body, mind and attitude to best deal positively with the challenges of living with HIV and AIDS.

Unfortunately, few people are aware of these opportunities or know how to find out about the various classes available. The AIDS Foundation Houston [AFH] Wellness Program began in 1989 to increase this public awareness and help consolidate the many sources. To accomplish this, AFH publishes a monthly "Wellness Calendar" that summarizes upcoming events of interest, promoting free or low-cost classes to teach people with HIV and AIDS how to enjoy fuller and healthier lives

Many of the classes are available on a monthly basis and encompass such areas as nutrition, stress management, self-hypnosis, exercise, spirituality, safer sex and personal growth. Although targeted primarily to persons infected with HIV, the classes are open to all interested people.

If you are (or might be) HIV positive, or know someone who could benefit from our program and would like to be on our confidential Wellness Calendar mailing list, please call me at (713)623-6796.

Bart Loeser AFH Education Coordinator Houston, TX

Dear TWT:

As my year as Miss Gay Fort Worth draws to an end, I reflect upon the many fortunes and wonderful friendships this title has brought me. As this year closes for me, I must take a moment to thank some very special people who have helped me learn and grow.

A very heartfelt thank-you to Charlie Grimms for all your confidence in me. It helped me become what you always knew was possible. Many thanks to David Hicks and Dennis McCullough for their patience and perseverance when it seemed I had

Let me also thank Tasha Kohl and Rachel Masters for being so inspiring to new entertainers. A wonderful thank-you to Jimi Dee for allowing me to tap your vast experience in the arts of female impersonation. And to Essence DeVille, Kenny, thank you so much for always being there and teaching me to beat this mug in the beginning. Your beliefs and responses have kept me positive during the most trying times.

To the people of Fort Worth, thank you for all your love and support. Since I didn't have as much time to spend with you as I would have liked, I look forward to meeting those of you I have not yet had the opportunity to meet. To my many friends, thank you. I will always hold you dear to my heart.

During the last month there have been many rumors and myths about the Miss Fort Worth pageant. To put it briefly, they have no merit or legitimacy. A very special thank-you to all those who have helped put a stop to these myths.

To the next Miss Fort Worth, may you inherit my greatest belief in this system and look forward no matter what obstacles stand in your way. May all the love that Fort Worth has to give fall upon you. Thanks again to each and every one of you.

Where Were Eiserloh, Danburg?

Dear TWT:

I read, with interest, Lauri Eiserloh's "Capitol Report" entry in the May 17 issue in which she reports the bashing by members of Rev. W.N. Otwell's church of HB 1592 carried by my Representative, Debra Danburg. She notes "the bible thumping craziness of Otwell and his cronies seems to have convinced the committee that HB 1592 is very unnecessary." (This bill would have protected the rights of parents in a custody dispute. The courts would have been disallowed from using sexual orientation as a factor in awarding custody.)

What Ms. Eiserloh failed to mention is that she could have spoken in favor of the bill to the subcommittee of the Judicial Affairs Committee that was holding the open hearing. But she chose not to be there. Instead, she sent one of her staff members who reported to me that what she witnessed was just too horrifying.

Two other items need note concerning that hearing. First, only two members of the subcommittee were present. They chose not to comment or curtail the six hours of bashing that went on. Second, when it became evident that this was going to be a bashing of the bill, the counsel of the committee sent for Rep. Danburg. She sent a reply that she would not be seen near the building where the hearing was being held that day. In essence, the bill was killed because no one was willing to stand in front of the "crazy" (Eiserloh's adjective in the article) people and defend its value. The authors of all of the other bills being considered by the subcommittee that day were present!

Furthermore, the whole Judicial Affairs Committee was to hold a hearing for Rep. Danburg's "gay marriage" bill. I was told that it was decided to simply drop the "gay marriage" bill because the committee could not count on Rep. Danburg's presence to defend that bill, and they did not want a repeat of what had transpired earlier. This same committee reported out the "decriminalization of dildos" bill which passed the House last week.

Yes, we need to write our legislators to protect the bills that could benefit us. But we need to have those who are elected and/or paid to represent us to be present, speak and be heard in the defense of rights as well. Shame to Laurie Eiserloh and Debra Danburg. You need to write them as well and present your displeasure!

Crosses Not Just Religious

Dear TWT:

I have just read the article in today's Houston Chronicle about the scuttling of the AIDS memorial planned by AFH board member John Paul Barnich for Memorial Day. The event was to have been a large number of white crosses placed in the esplanade along Montrose and Westheimer to symbolize a cemetery much like Arlington National Cemetery. Anyone who has been to or seen pictures of the Arlington cemetery knows that the rows and rows of crosses make a very moving image, much better than a list of numbers.

Unfortunately, the use of crosses for this commemoration was deemed unsuitable by a group of people. I was unable to determine from the article if it was the ACT UP organization itself, or just some of its members, which caused the cancellation of the event. Because they found the cross to be a symbol repugnant to them for its religious connotations, they overlooked the larger purpose which Mr. Barnich had in mind: public awareness of the large number of people who have died of AIDS.

The claim that this was a "religious ceremony" is ridiculous. While the cross is a religious symbol, in the context in which it was being used it is recognized as a symbol of death by most Americans. That is the point that was being made, the needless death of a large number of people, not the promotion of a deity.

It has been my understanding that ACT UP and its members wish to promote AIDS awareness by any means necessary. Is it impossible for them to put aside personal feelings about a symbol in order to do this? Would they, or anyone else, have been injured by the use of this symbol? I begin to wonder about their sincerity.

Atheism Kills Love

Dear TWT:

Upon reading of Don Sanders' and Leslie Perez' latest self-serving antics to block the AIDS memorial here in Houston, I became outraged to that they assume they speak for me.

Whatever happened to the premise that religious concepts (or lack thereof) vary from person to person, and so does one's way of remembering his or her loved ones. I do not force my religious ideals on Mr. Sanders and Ms. Perez; however, they are forcing their fanatical beliefs on me.

God only knows how these two zealots believe they are helping our inclusive community. They have eliminated Houston from this statewide memorial observance to those who have fallen to AIDS. This memorial could have shown the entire state how we are determined to stick together through this health crisis.

"AIDS doesn't kill love," atheism does. If this is an example of an "inclusive" community, count me out!

WITH END OF BOYCOTT, COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS ENCOURAGED TO APPLY FOR GRANTS FROM PHILIP MORRIS

by William W. Waybourn Executive Director of Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund

ur community has been through some rough times. We are constantly reminded of AIDS and its tragic toll; how our brothers and sisters are discriminated against in employment, housing and child custody cases; and how we are frequent targets of abuse, hatred and indiscriminate physical violence.

All too often, our community is shortchanged by an uncaring and seemingly indifferent corporate environment. Certainly, this appeared to be the case when the Dallas Gay Alliance, the Tarrant County Gay/Lesbian Alliance, the Dallas Tavern Guild and various ACT-UP chapters from around the country called upon Philip Morris Companies, Inc. (specifically, Miller Beer and Marlboro Cigarettes) to cease giving political action committee funds to bigoted Sen. Jesse Helms' reelection campaign last year.

When such requests failed, a nationwide boycott of these Philip Morris products was called. Our community responded in a definite and responsible manner, as a recent survey (Washington Blade, 5/10/91) showed that more than half (51 percent) of the beer-drinking lesbians and gay men in this country were actively boycotting Miller Beer. A smaller number (7.5 percent) said that they no longer smoked Marlboro Cigarettes.

As you will soon learn, representatives of the organizers (including DGA and ACT-UP) and Philip Morris executives have been in negotiations to determine mutually beneficial and constructive projects that our community and Philip Morris could share.

As the announcement today indicates. Philip Morris and representatives of ACT-UP and the gay and lesbian community have agreed upon a plan to encourage community-based organizations to apply for grants from Philip Morris.

The guildlines for these grants are simple: (1) Requests must come from groups considered nonprofit, tax-exempt or 501(c)3 organizations; and (2) projects to be funded must be based in, or directed to the gay and lesbian community. Successful grant applications may include organizations providing direct services and making innovative efforts that cannot find funding from more traditional sources. Educational efforts to combat AIDS and homophobia discrimination may also be funded. All agencies providing these programs to the gay and lesbian community are encouraged to apply.

A committee composed of community activists will identify worthwhile projects and bring them to Philip Morris' attention. As the DGA and Texas representative to this committee, I encourage you to be creative, concise and community-oriented. Successful applications will be awarded based upon concept and need. Professional grant-writing skills and neatness are not determining factors.

Grant applications should be directed to Stephanie French, Vice-President for Corporate Giving and Cultural Affairs. Philip Morris Companies, 120 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10017. Please send a copy of your cover letter to my attention, Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund, P.O. Box 34715, Washington, D.C. 20043. This will enable me to identify local and state requests as they are received at Philip Morris. Please do not send your actual application to me, as this will only delay consideration of your request.

Your involvement in a national effort (the boycott) to educate Philip Morris on concerns affecting our community is greatly appreciated. We knew it would take lesbian and gay consumers, acting individually, ordering other brands, to make the difference. You have proven Thomas Jefferson's statement that "One man (or woman), with courage, makes a difference." I encourage you to redirect the commitment that guided you throughout the boycott to now purchase Philip Morris products. Just as we showed them then that we cared, we should show them now our appreciation for the commitment they have just made upon behalf of our community.

LIVING WITH HIV

Brought to you as a public service by Body Positive Houston, Amigos Volunteers in Education and Services, Bering Community Service Foundation, Chicano Family Center, Montrose Clinic, Over The Hill Inc., P.W.A. Coalition Houston; and American Academy of Dermatology, American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of General Practitioners in Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery, American Osteopathic Association, American Social Health Association, National Association of People with AIDS; and Burroughs Wellcome Co.

This year America's pharmaceutical companies will invest $9.2 billion in research and development of effective therapies to deter AIDS. Only one new AIDS-related drug received FDA approval in 1990, Diflucan (Fluconazole).

Diflucan is a once-a-day, broad spectrum antifungal agent used to treat cryptococcal meningitis and severe, systemic candidal infection. Candidiasis affects about 90% of people in advanced stages of AIDS. Diflucan is seen to have several advantages over the previous antifungals because of its low toxicity and the longer time it remains in the body.

Another 62 medicines and vaccines are currently under development by 40 companies to counterattack AIDS-related disorders.

Last fall, New Zealand was the first country to approve Imuthiol (sodium ditiocarb or DTC). It is an oral or IVadministered medication intended for HIVpositive individuals at least 18 years old whose T4 cell count is less than 200, or for symptomatic persons who cannot tolerate AZT regardless of their T4 level. Its major effect seems to be a decrease in the number of opportunistic infections experienced by PWAs. Although the way it works is not fully understood, trials of up to 74 months in length have not turned up any significant toxicities.

The PWA Health Group in New York City (212/532-0280) has made Imuthiol/DTC available to buyers for $30 for a month's supply.

An existing drug marketed for leg pain associated with heart disease, Trental, has been determined to slow multiplication of the AIDS virus in the laboratory. It has also been found to lower the body's level of TNF (tumor necrosis factor), which causes fever and wasting in cancer patients. There is evidence that Trental might increase the potency of AZT if they are taken together. Human trials will begin soon at Boston's Beth Israel Hospital.

Bristol Myers has recently applied for government permission to market its anti-AIDS drug, ddl, which would become the second approved therapy that slows the progress of AIDS. Under the brand name Videx, ddl is similar to AZT in that it inhibits an enzyme that HIV needs to grow. AIDS activists have been pushing for speedy approval of ddl. Over 23,000 patients have participated in worldwide clinical trials. The FDA has promised to move "as rapidly as possible" on the company's application.

The problem in creating a vaccine for HIV is the relatively quick mutation which a viral strain goes through.

It's old news that pentamidine can prevent 60-70% of recurring attacks of PCP (AIDS-related pneumonia), but a recent issue of the New England Journal of Medicine claims the drug could avert initial attacks as well. A team of Swiss and Italian doctors have determined that it costs about $8,500 to treat a case of PCP as opposed to about $4,000 to prevent one. The main side effect of pentamidine in this study was moderate to severe coughing when it was inhaled.

Peptide T, a synthetic protein that appears encouraging as a possible AIDS treatment, is the subject of the first major study designed to determine its effectiveness, the National Institute of Health said recently.

Jazz Paz has been an AIDS specialty nurse for almost as long as AIDS has been around. She created Triplex AIDS Network in 1986 and is now active in many AIDSrelated organizations in Houston.

Studies done on Peptide T, developed in 1986, have so far been limited to a tiny number of patients and dealt mainly with toxicity and dosage levels. AIDS activists have been agitating the government to proceed with further studies on Peptide T. calling it "a promising drug."

Even more promising, however, are the optimistic predictions of the long-awaited AIDS vaccine. The FDA has approved clinical trials for humans to test a prototype AIDS vaccine manufactured by Immuno-US, Inc. of Rochester, Minnesota, The vaccine, rgp 160, successfully protected a chimpanzee from AIDS for nearly three vears in a preclinical study. This is the longest known protection provided by any AIDS vaccine tested on animals.

Phase I trials will take place in five centers where 12 volunteers per center will be vaccinated. All volunteers must be healthy and at low risk for AIDS.

Dr. Dani Bolognesi of Duke University believes that a vaccine is still three to five years away, however. The doctor notes that research has been more effective in preventing AIDS transmitted by needles than by sex. Dr. Jonas Salk is hopeful that vaccines will be found to suppress the virus, minimize damage and prevent symptoms. He doubts that human vaccines will ever eradicate the virus once it has entered the body by any route.

The problem in creating a vaccine for HIV is the relatively quick mutation which a viral strain goes through, which renders it immune to antibodies elicited following vaccination, Dr. Adan Rios of Houston thinks he may have a product that will overcome this problem, HGP-30. A Stage I trial is almost finished in London and the first human trials on HIV-positive individuals are underway in California.

There are similar studies in other Texas cities. Ask your health care providers for advice on how to apply for inclusion. Among your resources, include nurses, therapists and agencies that serve PWAs.

Always remember that there is strength and comfort and perhaps real healing in the power of asserting personal responsibility for one's health. Here's to yours.

Proudly Sponsored by COORS

This has been a busy week for homophobes at the state Capitol. Although it is a little too early to tell, it appears our community may have emerged from this round of gay bashing relatively unscathed.

One of the worst bills this session—HB 702, introduced by Democrat Ron Wilson of Houston—passed the House with only five opposing votes on the third hearing. Those casting opposing votes were Reps. Glen Maxey, Debra Danburg, Sherri Greenburg, Elliot Naishtat and David Hirschi. Rep. David Cain was not on the floor at the time of the vote. Rep. Wilhelmina Delco could not vote because she was acting as Speaker.

Had it become law, HB 702 would have required all dentists and doctors who practice while knowingly infected with HIV to be reviewed by their licensing boards. All HIV-positive patients who failed to inform their doctors and dentists of their HIV status would have been subject to $10,000 of civil liability. Also, doctors and dentists could have refused to treat HIV-positive patients.

It appears our community may have emerged from this round of gay bashing relatively unscathed.

The real effect of HB 702 would have been upon patients, particularly those in rural communities. In larger cities there may be doctors who will treat PWAs, but in rural communities, where there is already a shortage of doctors, patients may have a difficult time getting medical care. Because this bill would have allowed doctors and dentists to refuse to treat persons with AIDS, it presumably would have violated the Americans With Disabilities Act.

The good news about HB 702 is that it was effectively killed in the Senate last week when it was tagged by Senator Eddie Bernice Johnson (Dem.-Dallas) and Senator Rodney Ellis (Dem.-Houston), two members of the Black Caucus.

Another bill that has received a lot of attention this week is a hostile amendment to SB 1316. SB 1316 is a civil rights bill that protects an individual's contractual rights by prohibiting discrimination on the basis of race, sex, religion, disability, national origin, color or age. Sexual orientation is not included in this bill. However, homophobic Senator Kenneth Armbrister (Dem.-Victoria) added an amendment stating, "Nothing herein shall be construed to permit marriage licenses to be issued for a marriage between persons of the same sex."

Legally this amendment accomplishes nothing. Persons of the same sex are already prohibited from obtaining marriage licenses under a specific provision of the Texas Family Code. Specific statutes like the marriage license statute of the Family Code usually preempt general statutes. Currently I am lobbying in the House to drop this homophobic amendment from the House version of this bill. Again, things are changing so rapidly with this bill that writing to specific senators or representatives would not be useful.

Finally, there has been another shift where the hate-crimes bills are concerned. Several weeks ago it appeared that both House and Senate were going to adopt very general hate-crimes bills that would punish hate crimes against "traditionally disfavored groups." Now it seems that the Senate is considering a hate-crimes bill that would protect specific groups, including gay and lesbian people.

It is important to realize that without an appeal, our community has only a district court decision...with little or no precedential value outside of the district in which the court sits.

Both approaches have advantages and disadvantages. The Senate's bill is useful because it specifically mentions gay and lesbian people as a group and gives us protection. However, given the homophobic tenor of the Senate this session, sexual orientation could be deleted from this bill at any time. The general protections of the House bill, while not as strong as the specific guarantees of the Senate bill, have a better chance of passing without hostile exclusions or amendments.

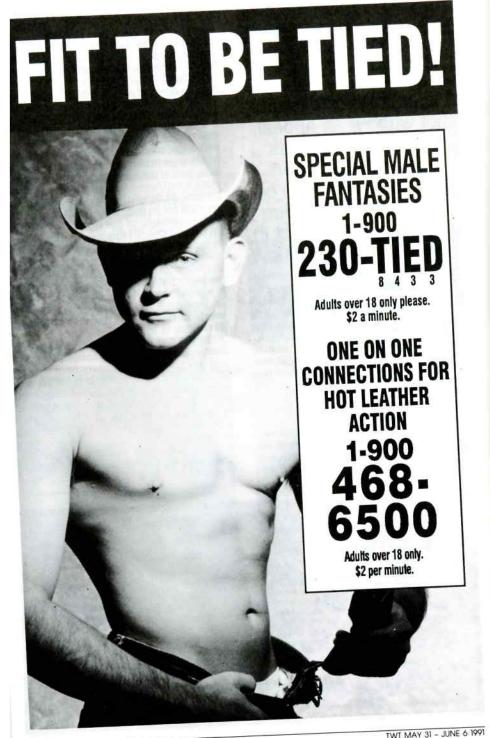

After the session is over. Attorney General Morales may be able to render an opinion defining "traditionally disfavored groups" and include gay and lesbian people. Call or write your senator and representative and state that you support HB 1568 and SB 1317, the hate-crimes bills. If you do not know the names of your senator and representative call 1-800-253-9693 or in Austin call (512)463-1251. Senators may be reached at P.O. Box 12068, Austin, TX 78711. Representatives may be reached at P.O. Box 2910, Austin, TX 78768-2910.

It is important to emphasize, once again, that the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby, along with most if not all other gay and lesbian rights organizations in the state, supports an appeal of the case which overturned the state's anti-homosexual conduct statute. section 21.06 of the Texas Penal Code. Support for an appeal has confused many people because of our victory in the Austin District Court. However, it is important to realize that without an appeal, our community has only a district court decision. District court decisions have little or no precedential value outside of the district in which the court sits. Therefore, in Austin, where the case was decided, 21,06 has been overruled. But in the rest of the state it remains in force.

On the Saturday before the March on Austin, Morales met with about 15 lesbian and gay community leaders from around the state and promised that in his appeal, he would stick to legal issues and avoid the morality issues that have plaqued other appeals of 21.06 and similar statutes. He also pledged his support of our community.

If you have any questions about the court appeal, please feel free to call the LGRL in Austin at (512)474-5475.

n this sometimes difficult world in which we live, it is often difficult to maintain one's sense of humor. Face it, the AIDS crisis, societal pressure, financial concerns and the omnipresent search for love, happiness and the American dream-or a reasonable facsimile of it-all create such mental and emotional pressure on us all that the last thing any of us think of is to laugh, at ourselves or at funny situations.

Peter McGehee's first novel, Boys Like Us, is one man's effort to do just that—to laugh at the world around him through the eyes of his alter ego, Zero MacNoo.

Now, Zero is a great guy. He's attractive, well-built; he's got a good job and a beautiful lover, and is loved by a wide circle of friends. But something is missing. For one thing, he hates his job. After years of being self-employed, Zero has returned to the corporate world as a secretary, simply because he was so afraid of being without medical benefits should "that" disease afflict him. And his distaste for his new career is all too apparent, especially to his boss, whose face he has slammed many a door in.

Okay, so he doesn't like his job, but what about all those other fabulous life attributes? His gorgeous lover? Well, there's a problem there, too. Zero really doesn't love him-deep down! Sure, their sex is great, and they live in a great apartment, and everyone thinks they're the perfect couple. But Zero just can't say those three little words.

And as for his coterie of friends—well, they're dying. His very best friend, Randy, is devastatingly ill, and is not expected to last very much longer. And his newest friend, David-well he's his ex-lover so, well, that's different. And one of his other friends, Jesus Las Vegas, an impersonator de la femme par excellence, had the audacity to sleep with Clay, Zero's new paramour. So you really can't say that he has a wide circle of friends, or that he is particularly loved by any of them. Can you?

AN R.J. PRODUCTION PRESENTATION

until the man that I really love is free to marry me when he wakes up and realizes that the woman he has been married to for over 40 years is not the one for him. So. you're coming home, then?

And home Zero goes. To his Mamma. who you already know about. To his father, a man who has lapsed into a deluded world of his own, wandering through the streets of the town in his military uniform, muttering under his breath, eating leftovers off other people's plates in the downtown diner and making a conscious decision not to remember anyone he has ever dealt with in his entire 62 years on the planet. And to Stellrita, the elderly black woman who raised him, now 120 years old and living only on the front porch of her house, the remainder of the building having been closed off "because of all the memories."

An oddball bunch, you say? An eclectic band of loonie tunes, you mutter? Yes, But it's Zero's family. And, as so often happens when we return to our roots, our minds clear and the true purpose of life becomes clear-to be happy!

...when we return to our roots, our minds clear and the true purpose of life becomes clear to be happy!

So, having connected with his touchstone, Zero returns home, carries out all the changes necessary to make his life perfect and lives happily ever after. The End.

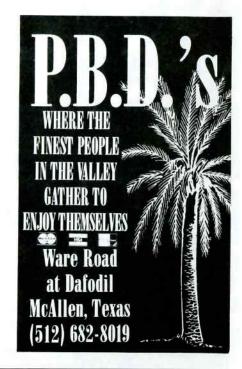

For those of you who have been devotees of my reviews, you'll probably remember that I don't particularly care for huge, voluminous tomes, I mean, unless the author is detailing the entire history of the universe since the very first amoeba slithered up out of the primordial sludge. I just don't see that 400-plus pages of printed prose are necessary. So when a clever little work such as Boys Like Us comes along, I feel vindicated, Here, in 166 pages, are all the wit, all the wisdom and. most importantly, all the laughs you will ever need on the $15.95 table at your neighborhood bookstore.

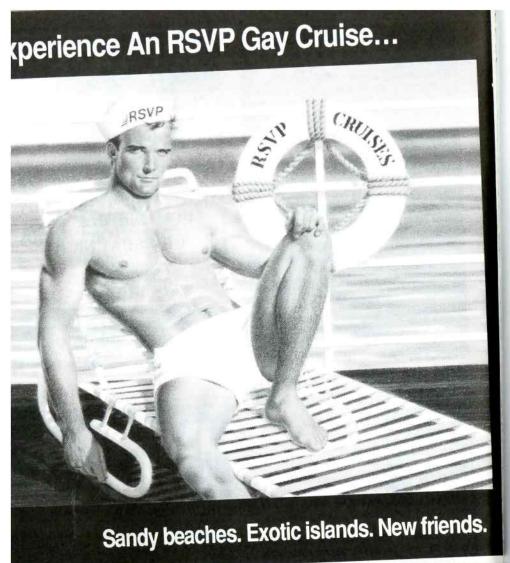

Greek tragedy, of course, is slightly more expensive!

Jeff Corbett makes his film debut.

Texas movie houses have several new movies opening this month and in early June. Talent for the Game opened last weekend at neighborhood theaters. The movie introduces Jeff Corbett in the role of Sammy Bodeen. Corbett played base-

Daddy's Nostalgia opens tonight at the River Oaks Theater in Houston, Dirk Beaugard returns to the screen after a ten-year absence. His co-star is Jane Birkin. Soapdish stars a renowned ensemble cast, including three Academy Award winners, in a comedy about the off-camera. off-color lives of the cast and crew bringing a long-running daytime series to American viewers. Sally Field, Kevin Kline, Robert Downey Jr., Cathy Moriarty, Whoopi Goldberg and Elisabeth Shue share top billing in this motion picture. Soapdish is described as an actor's nightmare-people fighting in a comical way for insubstantial little bits of turf. The comedy comes from the amount of energy expended for the absurd gains that are made.

CHRISTOPHER MOODY OF DALLAS

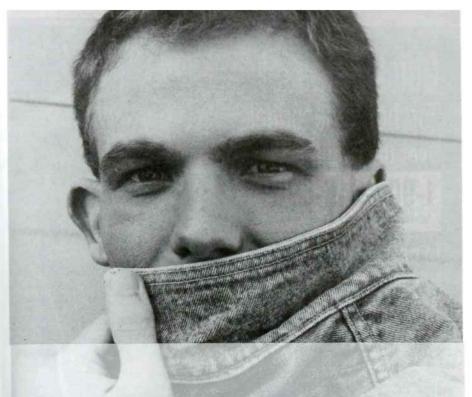

Christopher Moody, an aspiring young actor, was recently captured by MR Productions as he visited the arts district in Dallas known as Deep Ellum. Originally from St. Louis, he moved here less than a year ago to attend college.

This 22-year-old Taurus loves to "get into a character" by changing his wardrobe or his looks to suit his mood. He is also somewhat down to earth, combining business studies with his theatrical work.

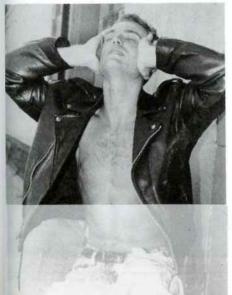

Outside of classes, he works part time. "Not having much free time, I don't get out to socialize a lot," Christopher says. "I take care of myself, eating right and exercising regularly, especially swimming."

Christopher's efforts have obviously paid off. As comfortable as he is in front of the camera, he plans to continue doing fashion modeling while pursuing his acting ambition.

ENTERTAINMENT was at the forefront eight years ago this week as Rob Clark, he of the press kit and promo poster set, highlighted the openings of Ronald Harwood's The Dresser at the Dallas Theatre Center and Shelley Fitze's Daughters of Heaven at Stages in Houston.

And, since Rob had just a few extra sheets of paper left in his basket and a few yards of ribbon left on his word processor, he also submitted an exclusive INTERVIEW with Della Reese, the cherubic chanteuse of "You Came a Long Way From St. Louis" fame. Asked if she was aware of her large gay following, the inimitable Ms. Reese quipped: "I also have a large Chinese following, a large Japanese following... so why should I isolate gays?"

Two snaps in a circle!!!

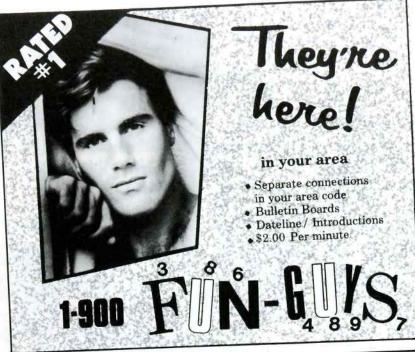

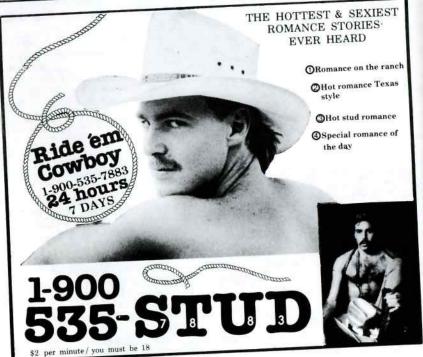

The fabulous Gary Monier.

SAY, WASN'T THAT ... Ray Hardin, Gary Monier, David Reed, Joe Elliot, Ray and Jim O'Conner on stage at the Crib in Dallas; Chris Eichman, David Nastasi and Dennis McGinnis giving the crowds at Dirty Sally's in Houston 12 inches every night; Bill Reiber, Scott Stevens, Zack, Doug Schultz and winner David Crosby at the Mr. Gay Tarrant County contest at the Lumber Company in Fort Worth: Andy White managing the Hidden Door in Corpus Christi; Mama Jo blowing out 40 candles perched oh-so-demurely atop her oh-so-big birthday cake at the Ranch in Houston; the unparalleled Marylyn and Company at Lurtino's in Dallas; and Bernie Siben keyboarding it at the Private Cellar in Austin.

By the way, did you know that you could, in 1983, drink free beer at The Copa in Houston, enjoy the new acu-massage table at Club Dallas in Dallas and sign up for a free three months of Nautilus training at Fitness Exchange in both cities? I thought you did!

It must have been all the free beer at The Copa that caused shown legend Jack Varsi to cause his legion of fans a moment of pause as they reacted to the news that Mr. Varsi had watched Steve Martin's film Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid literally dozens of times during the past week—not to monitor the expert comedic talents of Mr. Martin, but for the "sheer enjoyment of Rachel (Ward's) performance." Thankfully, Mr. Varsi's sudden interest in Ms. Ward was not romantically induced, but was the result of Jack's interest in continuing his long-regarded title of Texas' premier tastemaker.

And finally, with good taste in mind, the Gay Unitarians of Dallas offered the first-ever prom designed for two distinct groups of people: those individuals who went to their prom under the false pretense of being heterosexual, and those people who stayed home because they—and everyone else—knew what they were. Decorations for this once-in-a-lifetime soiree included the requisite Kleenex flowers, crepe paper and a lovely garden trellis complete with artificial flowers.

Now really folks, who else would keep you advised of such scholarly happenings? And so it was, this week in Texas, 1983.

YOUR JUNE LOVESCOPE

JUNE SKY — As the sixth month begins, the Sun is in Gemini. Mercury is in Taurus, but only until June 6, when it moves over into Gemini. The next day, June 7, Venus leaves Cancer and enters Leo—changing the tone of your June LOVESCOPE.

Meanwhile, sexy Mars spends all month in Leo. And with both Venus (love) and Leo (sex) in the same zodiac sign, starscopers can expect some steamy sensualities this month. Love will be as hot as the steamy Texas summer.

Outer Planets: Jupiter is also in Leo this month, bringing good fortune and happy luck to all these sexy Mars-Venus romanticisms. Saturn remains in Aquarius, Uranus and Neptune are still in Capricorn and Pluto is in the last 12 degrees of Scorpio.

The Moon: This month's New Moon occurs on June 12 and this month's Full Moon comes two weeks later on June 26.

Stellar Events: Although there are no major meteor showers in June, there is a penumbral eclipse of the Moon on June 26—viewable in most of North America, starting at 7:46 p.m. and not ending until 10:43 p.m.

Solar Eclipse: A total eclipse of the Sun will follow next month on July 11. It, too, will be visible to all of North America, except Alaska. Best views will be Hawaii and along the Baja Peninsula. It's being hailed as the best solar eclipse of the decade!

SKY SHOW TRIO — Go out tonight and look above the western horizon after sunset. You'll see our three brightest planets—Venus, Mars and Jupiter—in a row. They're moving closer together each night. By mid-June, the trio will have closed the gap and be within one degree of each other. It's exciting to watch these three big planets make their move into a three-way conjunction. It's the sort of thing you'll talk about years from now and be able to tell others you saw it.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) As your June LOVESCOPE begins, Venus, which rules love, is still in Cancer—putting this powerful planet in your second house of money.

Thus, the emphasis remains on spending wisely and purchasing pleasureful items. On June 7, Venus shifts into your third house, ushering in a cycle of increased travel and better communications.

CANCER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) Venus, the planet of love, begins your June Lovescope in your first house, placing the emphasis on improving your self-image and physical appearance. This upbeat personal cycle lasts until June 7, when Venus shifts into your house of money. Make the most of your major purchases during mid to late June.

LEO: (Jul 23 - Aug 22) Your June LOVESCOPE starts on a secretive note as Venus, the planet which rules romance, is now in your twelfth house of inner self and hidden plans. You'll remain behind the scenes in your lovemaking until June 7, when Venus shifts over into your first house. Thus, late in the month will be best suited for improving your image—both physical and mental. VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sept 22) Venus, which rules all matters pertaining to romance, begins your June LOVESCOPE in your eleventh house of friendships. This upbeat social cycle lasts until June 7, when Venus moves over into your twelfth house of secrets. Thus, early in the month is ideal for social matters and accomplishments through friendships. And late September is better suited to quieter, behind-the-scenes romantic interludes. LIBRA: (Sept 23 - Oct 23) Your June LOVE- SCOPE begins on a note of emphasizing career as Venus, the planet which rules romance, is now in your tenth house. Venus, now placed atop your horoscope, helps you in your job and favors you for bonuses from your employer. Later, after June 7, Venus shifts into your eleventh house, swinging the positive influences of Venus from your career to pleasure. Late in the month is more ideal for developing friendships and benefits through social groups. SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) A June LOVESCOPE vacation is in the stars as Venus, the planet which rules romance, is still in your ninth house of travel. An end-of-spring trip taken now will introduce you to an admirer from afar. It will go smoothly with no delays. After June 7, a trip will be harder to schedule since Venus will be placing its emphasis on work rather than pleasure. Thus, wait to ask for a raise from your boss until midmonth.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Your June LOVESCOPE begins on a lusty note as Venus, the planet which rules romance, is now in your eighth house of sex. This puts you on the trail of a nonstop sex hunt until midmonth when Venus shifts over into your house of travel. Wait to schedule your early summer vacation until after June 7, when fewer delays will occur.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Venus is now in your seventh house of marriage, making this one of the best periods of the year to find a mate or keep the one you already have. Use this positive marital cycle to accomplish your serious romantic goals. After June 7, Venus will shift into your eighth house, putting the emphasis of your June LOVESCOPE on shared expenses.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Venus continues to boost your health and well-being as the planet's positive vibrations are pumping renewed energy into your physical body. After June 7, Venus shifts into your seventh house, ushering in one of your best cycles of the year for marriages. Use late June to find a serious mate or deepen the ties that already bind. Your June Lovescope spotlights good health and good love.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Your June Lovescope begins with Venus, the planet which rules love, in your fifth house of love affairs. This can cause you to continue your lovemaking spree with many different partners of sensual interest. This upbeat romantic cycle lasts only until June 7, when Venus shifts over into your sixth house of health. After mid-month will be the best time to start a new exercise and diet plan for improving your well-being.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) Your homefront is operating more smoothly than usual because Venus is now in your fourth house of the home. This positive cycle for domestic affairs lasts until mid-month. After June 7, Venus will be in your fifth house of love affairs. This will cause a shift of emphasis in your June Lovescope from wanting to stay at home to wanting to be away from home so you can go on the romantic prowl.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Your June Lovescope begins with short journeys and lots of conversation since Venus is still in your third house of communication. This travel cycle lasts only for a little while. On June 7, Venus will shift into your fourth house of the home, swinging your interests from traveling about to staying at home. If you're planning to move, redecorate or by or sell real estate, wait until late, June when Venus blesses such matters.

COMING NEXT WEEK: The June 12 New Moon.

ROLLERSKATING CLUB

Houston — Two hundred fifty lesbians and gay men and their friends frolicked at the Carousel Skating Rink recently to celebrate the second annual Gay Skate Nite. Highlighting the evening were the "three-way skate" and the "Hokie Pokie," in which approximately 125 skaters joined in a circle and danced. Organizers hope these gay skate nights, sponsored by the Star Nite Pride Festival, will become regular monthly affairs.

The next Gay and Lesbian Skate Nite is Monday, June 17 from 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. at Carousel. A $5 donation includes skate rental. Beer and wine are available for purchase.

A group will also be skating in the Houston Gay/Lesbian Pride Week Parade on Sunday, June 23 at 5:30 p.m. Rental skates are available for $10, which will include wrist and knee pads. Call the Lambda Rollerskating Club at (713)523-6381 for more information.

TWT MAY 31 - JUNE 6 1991

CELEBRItea PHOTO OF THE WEEK —

Two icons of gay culture in Texas are Hot Chocolate [above, l] and superstar Whitney Houston [r]. Whitney was in Las Vegas last week and went to the Riviera Hotel to catch La Cage. "She loved the show, especially Kourtney Van Wales and me," Chocolate told HOT TEA. After the show, Ms. Houston went backstage and posed with Larry. They're both coming to Texas: Whitney Houston appears in concert tonight, Friday, May 31 in Dallas, then on June 2 in Houston and on June 5 in Austin. Chocolate returns home on July 2 for a special Independance Day show at Heaven in Houston.

HOUSTON HOTteaLINE — Here's what's happening this week in Houston from Houston HOT TEA....

Did you get your free leis at Miss Kitty's during last Saturday's Tropical Heat Wave Party? Craig Henderson did, as shown in the CRUISE CAMERA photo above. Note Craig's ever-so-groovy hula moves. The club's new patio is huge, and Ken did all the work with his own hands. Stop by and check out Ken's skills as a landscape architect. Miss Kitty's capped off their Memorial Day celebrations with a special guest appearance by Jimmy Emerson (a.k.a. Roxie Starr), who had the audience in stitches with his many impersonations....

Pacific Street was packed with thousands of party-goers last weekend. Naomi Sims kicked off the party last Thursday at Heaven with Texas' newest resident male dancer Scott [below], formerly of Las Vegas. Next Thursday we're going back to see dee-drag show queen on dee-diet. Donna Day is on a diet and just in time for the Colonel's new lite chicken. Don't worry Donna, we'll bring the scales to check your progress....

Speaking of progress—have you been by the Montrose Mining Company to check on the installation of their new JBL Sound System? It's state-of-the-art and the official debut is Thursday, June 6 with the Mine's salute to the late Leonard Bernstein, "Fanfare for the Common Man," beginning promptly at 9 p.m. The crew at the club also wants you there on June 6 to help celebrate their 13th anniversary (it keeps getting better!) between the hours of 8 and 10 p.m. Charlie, Red and the rest of the crew will be on hand to share their traditional toast with you. HOT TEA likes a toast now and then, so join us for the celebration....

Tonight at 9:30 p.m., Little Bit of Texas performs for your pleasure on the Brazos River Bottom bandstand. Coming to the BRB on Sunday, June 2, it's "Sharing, Caring, Loving," produced by Jackie O'Dare and Miss TGRA '92 candidate Chablis Lee Love. It's a super show benefiting Kolbe House. Then, on Sunday, June 9 at 7 p.m., Anita

One-Shoe, Miss Montrose '91, hosts a fundraiser for Stone Soup entitled "A Royal Wing-Ding" featuring Mr. TGRA '91 Doug Toman as co-emcee and the 1992 TGRA Royalty candidates. Meet the folks who are vying for the titles of Mr., Ms. and Miss TGRA '92 from the Houston chapter at this special event. There will be door prizes awarded at random throughout the evening. To register, simply bring a nonperishable item for Stone Soup. Both of these worthy fund-raisers are on Sunday, which is also Steak Night at the BRB, so go early, eat and then hang around for the shows....

Here are the top three winners in last week's Brief Encounters contest at Gentry: [I-r] first runner-up Jesse Herrera, winner

Mitchel Rainey and second runner-up Dan DiDonato. Want to see more of Mitch? Watch for his upcoming TWT cover! Gentry continues their first anniversary celebration now through June 9, and you can sign up for the chance to win a fabulous fiveday/four-night vacation for two in Las Vegas. The prize includes round-trip air fare, four nights at the Riviera Hotel and car rental for one day. You must be present to win the June 9 drawing at the club. Friday, Saturday and Sunday the Boys Next Door dance for you. Get there early for the best little happy hour in Texas with complimentary hors d'oeuvres. It's the deal on Richmond Avenue....

The Bottom's Up '91 musical comedy currently onstage at the Tower Theatre is flaawwless! Celebrities are showing up from all over to catch this mega-hit. And no wonder, Breck Wall knows the world! HOT TEA ran into Breck and video superstar Rex Chandler having lunch at Chapultepec on Richmond. Then Lee Greenwood dropped by the theatre to chat with Breck and the cast backstage. Did you know Lee was once a cast member of Bottoms Up in Las Vegas? Uh huh, he also married one of the girls in the show. Lee was in town for the huge Memorial Day Desert Storm celebration. Anyway, drop by the nearest Ticketron and get your tickets to BU '91, or charge them by phone at (713)629-3700....

The Santa Fe Bar and Patio across the street at JR's fell out for Taj last weekend. He was everything and even more than HOT TEA predicted in last week's column. That's lickable Taj on the right with fellow dancer Chris in the CRUISE CAMERA photo above, onstage at Santa Fe. You can bet the petition is being signed for JR's to bring Tai back for more of your viewing pleasure. And then there are the emcees at IR's Sunday through Wednesday contests and shows. Just teasing! Naomi Sims, Randy Jobe and Miss T are there to entertain you and there is always something festive happening with these three-if you talk real nice, one of them might divulge the tea on the big todo coming up at JR's on June 20. More details later....

Tonight at Rich's, it's Pride-A-Thon '91 featuring special guest Texas recording artist Pamala Stanley. The dance marathon and deejay spinoff is the brainchild of Pride Week '91 co-chair Annabel Evora, who jetted off to the Big Apple to begin her new job last week. Pride Week '91 will elect a new female co-chair at the next regular meeting and in the meantime, Rich's promotion director, David Hemmer, takes over as host of Pride-A-Thon '91. David is no stranger to Pride Week, as he has been serving on the Fund-raising Committee all year and has done an excellent job. Let him know you appreciate his concern for the community by showing in force for this mega-event. Last Friday's Funderwear Party was ultra-teaful, with lots of gorgeous party revelers revealing their finest in undergear. and we'll have the photos to prove it next week.

Prom Night was a smashing success at the BriarPatch last weekend, as you can see in the CRUISE CAMERA photo above of the club's crowded dance floor, which reminds us to tell you that the BriarPatch has designated Wednesday as "Slow Dance" night on their intimate new dance floor. You can snuggle up to your favorite dance partner and enjoy the romance of slow dancing. Live piano music continues nightly at the club with cold snacks at happy hour on weeknights. It's all prepared in Wayne's private gourmet kitchen in the privacy of his home. Can you stand it? He cooks, plays piano, slings cocktails and still has time to "slow dance."

TARRANT TEA — Here's what's happening THIS WEEK IN FORT WORTH and ARLINGTON FORM Cowtown and Mid-Cities HOT TEA....

Tarrant County Gay Pride Week begins this Sunday, June 2 and runs through next Saturday, June 8. This year there are three Grand Marshals for the parade: Bob lackson, Tom Merrick and Barbara Koslow. The parade begins at 2 p.m. this Sunday, June 2. The route is Rosedale down South Jennings to Pennsylvania. The GPW Carnival is 3 p.m until dusk on the 651 club parking lot. This year's GPW picnic is noon until 6 p.m., Saturday, June 8, and is named in tribute to the late "Mother" Michial Robinson, a man who was instrumental in the success of these events over the past decade and who made many other contributions to the community. The TCGPW committee has worked very hard this year to plan everything for us all to enjoy. Thanks to carnival coordinator James Smith, parade coordinator Gerald Ford, picnic coordinators Tony Dunlap and Lohn Cearnal and program coordinator De Joyce and TCGPW president Steve Vaughn; but most of all, come out and enjoy the festive

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, rwr policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisement and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at nwr. It's the law—a "consumer protection" statute.

The earth has grown old with its burden of care But its spirit is always young, The heart of the jewel burns lustrous and fair And its soul full of music breaks forth on the air. When the song of the angels is sung.

We Remember Him

At the rising of the sun and at its going down we remember him.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of

we remember him.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of

we remember him.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer

we remember him.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of

we remember him.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends we remember him.

As long as we live, he too will live:

for he is now a part of us,

as we remember him.

When we are weary and in need of strength we remember him.

When we are lost and sick at heart

we remember him.

When we have joy we crave to share we remember him.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make we remember him.

When we have achievements that are based on

we remember him.

As long as we live, he too will live; for he is now a part of us, as we remember him.
