BEER DISTRIBUTORS BEGIN GIVING TO DALLAS AIDS GROUPS

Dallas Tavern Guild Secures Additional $32,000 for Community Organizations through Meetings With Area Distributors.

DALLAS — With the ending of the boycott against Miller Beer and its parent company, Philip Morris, by the gay and lesbian community, Miller has joined other beer distributors in the Dallas area in making contributions to area AIDS organizations.

The Dallas Tavern Guild has played a major role in efforts to secure funding from the distributors, and thanks to these efforts, an additional $32,000 will go to the lesbian and gay community of Dallas this year.

Following a series of meetings of the three major beer distributors in Dallas—Budweiser, Coors and Miller—and the Tavern Guild, the following commitments have been made.

Ben E. Keith and Budweiser Beer are donating $10,000, to be equally divided among the AIDS Resource Center, AIDS Services of Dallas and AIDS Programs/Oak Lawn Community Services.

Willow Distributors and Coors Beer are giving $10,000 to Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Inc. to help increase revenues brought in by the annual fund-raising event, which will mean increased contributions to the three AIDS service agencies listed above.

Miller of Dallas and Miller Beer are giving $12,000 to the Food Pantry of the AIDS Resource Center, paid in installments of $1,500 each month from May through December of this year.

In addition, Miller of Dallas has already contributed $7,500 to the Food Pantry, with $3,000 of that sum being given in 1990 during the boycott of Miller and Phillip Morris products, and $4,500 given following the end of the boycott by Dallas gay and lesbian clubs in February of this year.

Ben E. Keith and Budweiser also contributed $200 last December to the Dallas Tavern Guild-sponsored Living Tribute in Lee Park.

Meetings began last November, with representatives of the AIDS Resource Center, AIDS Services of Dallas and Oak Lawn Community Services making presentations to officials of local Budweiser and Coors distributorships. Miller officials were not invited to the meetings meeting because of the boycott targeted at their company, although once the boycott ended they were then included in the meetings.

Tavern Guild officials explained that they discovered during the Miller boycott Dallas beer distributors had never been approached for large funding by any AIDS organization, and so were not aware of the funding needs of the AIDS community. The Tavern Guild then decided to educate the beer companies about the needs of the community.

Contributions from Budweiser Beer will be made to the three AIDS organizations during the Maple Avenue Carnival to be held on Sunday, June 16, on the Wave parking lot. The Carnival, a benefit of the Dallas Tavern Guild, is also being cosponsored by Budweiser Beer.

Budweiser is also co-sponsoring the Tavern Guild's The Big Event on September 15. Both events benefit the Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade, which will be held on Sunday, September 22, to conclude Dallas' lesbian/gay pride events for 1991.

LAMBDA PROGRAM OPENS AT STAFFORD MEADOWS HOSPITAL

Program Specializes in Mental Health and Substance Abuse Needs of Gay/Lesbian Community.

HOUSTON — Gay and lesbian people who are dealing with emotional problems or substance-abuse issues now have a new place to turn for help in the Houston area. Stafford Meadows Hospital has announced the addition of the Lambda Program to its roster of services.

The Lambda Program, the only one of its kind in Texas, is one of the few specialized treatment programs catering specifically to gay and lesbian adults in the country. It offers a completely gay supportive environment supported by gay and gay-positive staff.

Large numbers of gays and lesbians have been successfully treated for their emotional or substance abuse problems at institutions using Lambda programs.

Sharon Stone, founder and director of the program, and David A. Franklin, M.D., Medical Director, said they believed that the Stafford Meadows center would provide a safe, nurturing atmosphere for gays and lesbians, free from the shame-inducing environments often found in general medical or other psychiatric facilities.

The Stafford Meadows Hospital is located at 11919 West Airport Blvd. off U.S. 59 and Kirkwood in the Stafford/Sugar Land area, and is a full-service mental health facility providing treatment for psychiatric or substance abuse problems.

Additional information, referral or consultation may be obtained by calling Rusty Smith, Program Director of the Lambda Program at Stafford Meadows, at the Lambda Recovery Line, (713)240-2626. All calls are strictly confidential.

GAY CAR FANCIERS CONVERGE ON CAPITAL CITY

Participants from Around Texas, U.S. Enjoy Fun-Filled Weekend.

AUSTIN — "Golden Girls '91," hosted by the Austin and Houston chapters of the Classic Chassis Car Club, proved to be a huge success, with over 60 entrants displaying their classic and someday-to-be classic cars.

Participants from as far away as North Carolina, California, Ohio and Indiana, as well from all over the Lone Star state, converged on Austin for the Memorial Day weekend activities, which included a caravan to Lockhart and the Central Texas Automobile Museum in Rosanki. Then, on Saturday evening, the entrants enjoyed a dinner cruise aboard the Commodore's Pup on Lake Austin.

On Sunday, over 100 spectators came out to view and inspect the cars on display, which ranged from models made in 1951 to currently produced cars. Among the more unique models on exhibit were a Cadillac Camper, a '58 DeSoto and numerous Cadillac convertibles.

Capping off the weekend was the awards banquet held at the Marriott Capitol. Rod Johnson and Tony Martinez of Artesia, New Mexico won best of show with their 1954 Buick Skylark Convertible, of which only 800 were ever produced.

Joe Prado, club president, told TWT NEWS, "The Golden Girls Rally was more successful than the club had anticipated, and we are looking forward to next year's event." DALLAS AGENCIES BEGIN APPLYING FOR RYAN WHITE GRANTS

AIDS Resource Center, Nelson-Tebedo Seek $200,000 To Help Area PWAs.

DALLAS — AIDS funding and education continue to be time-consuming and controversial in the Dallas area. Recently, numerous agencies have been busy making applications for $1.3 million to be distributed in the Metroplex.

John Thomas, Executive Director of the AIDS Resource Center, told Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS that local agencies were required to file written requests for funding and then make verbal presentations. Committees will review the requests on June 12, and then send the applications to the HIV Services Planning Council. Final approval will come from the Commissioners Court.

The AIDS Resource Center and the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic have applied for $200,000 to provide food, clothing and household goods for Dallas-area PWAs, Thomas said. He explained that the grants are designated for services only, and may not be used for AIDS prevention or education.

The HIV Emergency Relief Grant Program is the first of four parts of the Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Resource Emergency (CARE) Act of 1990. Two types of grants are involved in Title 1: formal grants based on incidence of AIDS cases, and supplemental grants based on demonstrated need in a given metropolitan area.

Thomas explained that it had not been any easier increasing AIDS education in the school system, and a recent incident in a Dallas suburb illustrated this. High schools are required to provide AIDS education, so two days prior to the end of the school year, Shepton High School in Plano contacted the Dallas County Health Dept. to provide a speaker to meet the requirement.

The speaker, Suzanne Wilson, addressed the first group of approximately 30 students and told them she was HIV-positive. After finishing her talk, she was asked by school officials to leave. Before she left, she told the students that the school was not giving them the AIDS education they needed.

Some of the students decided to hold a sit-in the following day to protest the school's treatment of Wilson. After talks between the AIDS Resource Center and faculty and staff members, Wilson was allowed to address four more classes the following day.

AFH PRESENTS FUNDS TO HOUSTON AIDS GROUPS

PWA Coalition, Assistance Fund & Montrose Counseling Share Proceeds of Foundation Walk '90.

HOUSTON — Three area organizations recently benefited from the generosity of the AIDS Foundation Houston, Inc., [AFH], which made grants to each of the groups to help them continue their assistance to people with AIDS. The total amount awarded, $11,000 represents 25% of the net income from the AIDS Foundation Walk '90.

The PWA Coalition received $4,800, which will go toward rental payments on the group's warehouse, which stores furniture and appliances donated for the use of PWAs.

Loren Allen, Vice Chair of the AFH board of trustees, presents grant checks to Robert Miller, Treasurer of the Montrose Counseling Center, and Karen St. Laurent of the PWA Coalition.

Another $4,700 was awarded to the Assistance Fund, which provides financial support to PWAs for the payment of insurance premiums and various medical services and treatments.

The final $1,500 was donated to the Montrose Counseling Center, which provides comprehensive mental health services for area PWAs.

AFH is the oldest and largest service provider exclusively dedicated to offering quality, compassionate support and assistance for PWAs in the Houston area.

EBERLE TO SPEAK AT DIGNITY/DALLAS

Presentation Part of Group's Lesbian/Gay Pride Week Activities.

DALLAS — The Dallas chapter of Dignity is bringing nationally recognized speaker Stephen W. Eberle to town for a special evening presentation, "Coming Out: Together in Pride," in connection with the city's Lesbian/Gay Pride Week.

Eberle, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, has spoken at college campuses and civic organizations throughout the United States on issues related to coming out. He is associated with the St. Joseph PWA Hospice in Tulsa and is a board member of Shanti.

Eberle, 36, is HIV-positive. He recently filed a complaint with the Oklahoma Human Rights Commission based on several grounds, including discrimination, in connection with losing the job he had held for 14 years.

Eberle's presentation, which is being offered on June 18 as part of Dallas' Lesbian/Gay Pride Week activities, will follow Mass, scheduled to start at 7:15 p.m. The evening is being held in the Main Sanctuary of the First Unitarian Church, 4015 Normandy at Preston Road. Visitors of all denominations are welcome and encouraged to attend.

BAHR HOSTS PANEL ON ALTERNATIVE RELATIONSHIP ISSUES

Topics Covered to Include Child Custody & Home Ownership.

HOUSTON — On Tuesday, June 11 the Bar Association for Human Rights hosts a panel discussion on the subject of "Handling Disputes in Alternative Relationships."

Participating on the panel will be District Judge Alice Trevathan; Laura Oren, a professor of law at the University of Houston; Connie Moore, an attorney who has specialized in alternative relationships; John Gill, the pastor of MCCR; and Angela Passarati, a counselor at the Montrose Counseling Center. The moderators will be Mary Anne Bobinski, a professor at the University of Houston, and Christopher Bacon, an attorney with the law firm of Vinson & Elkins.

The panel will discuss questions of particular interest to gay and lesbian couples since the traditional legal constructs that apply to straight marriages are often difficult to apply in other contexts. Topics covered will include home ownership, personal property, child custody, domestic violence, death and transgenderalism.

The Bar Association for Human Rights [BAHR] was formed in April of this year for the purpose of providing a forum for lawyers to exchange ideas and information of mutual concern. The organization is open to all lawyers. Those who have often felt excluded by mainstream bar associations are especially welcome. BAHR seeks to be an inclusive organization.

The panel discussion is being held at 7 p.m. at MCCR, 1919 Decatur. Attendance is free to all. Lawyers who are not members of BAHR and who want MCLE credit will be charged $30. Annual membership dues for BAHR are $40. For membership information, call Christopher Bacon at (713) 524-5549.

This week we devote our entire TWT COM-MENT section to the debate raging over the recent Crossroads '91 controversy. It all began when John Paul Barnich and the AIDS Foundation Houston announced plans to hold a Memorial Day tribute to loved ones who have died of AIDS. As originally planned, participants in the May 27 project were to place crosses and other symbols on the esplanades of Montrose BIvd., each one representing a person lost to AIDS.

Crossroads '91 was placed on hold, however, when members of ACT UP Houston and the local chapter of American Gay/Lesbian Atheists brought the project to the attention of the city Parks & Recreation Department, which decided that the plan would be in violation of a state statute.

The following letters constitute a representative sample of reader opinion on this controversy, and this is the last TWT COMMENT will publish on the issue. Any further comments concerning this matter should be addressed directly to those involved.—Editor

Fed Up with ACT UP

Dear TWT:

Once again, Leslie Perez and her band of morons have struck. This time, their goal is to deny the mainstream Houston gay community the right to commemorate the lives/deaths of thousands of our loved ones by the placing of crosses or other forms of remembrance on Montrose Blvd. on Memorial Day.

After months of seeing ACT UP/Houston's imbecilic posturing, seemingly designed to try to splinter the gay community at every turn, one has no choice but to question ACT UP's agenda. I for one am embarrassed to have ACT UP presume to represent me. Do decibels = life?

I don't intellectually disagree with ACT UP's proclaimed intention of drawing attention to the plight of PWAs by grabbing media attention. Must that attention be grabbed, Ms. Perez, by attacking other members of the gay community and doing your best to create rifts rather than unity? The straight community is already quite adept at doing just that.

I find it extremely interesting that Ms. Perez' Nazis have the right to offend as many people as they wish (and I don't question that right), but Ms. Perez' fragile sensibilities would be shattered by the sight of a memorial with possible religious overtones. What's next? Another "Kristallnacht" visited upon all of us who don't adhere to ACT UP's party line?

I would really enjoy seeing another of Ms. Perez' literate and erudite responses in reply to this letter. Remember, Leslie, sentences all begin with capital letters, end with some form of punctuation and, ideally, contain some manner of coherent thought in between. Now that I think of it, "coherent thought" may be an oxymoron (look it up) in your case.

D. Wilson Houston, TX

Crosses Belong in Churches

Dear TWT:

Mr. John Paul Barnich and the AIDS Foundation Houston [AFH], with no regard for the rights of others, tried to stampede the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution by selling religious symbols to anyone, disregarding the religious affiliation of the dead. I vigorously opposed this religious service which was held in Bell Park. I certainly don't think that the Bell family would have approved of having crosses, stars of David, etc., in their parking knowing their intent of prostituting dead people.

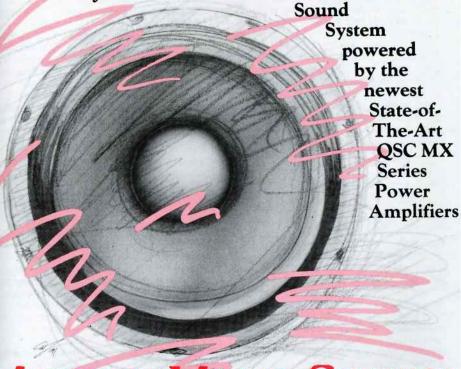

Don't misunderstand me. I am not opposed to remembering those who have died of AIDS. However, I simply object to the AFH's method of selling crosses and other religious objects. Why could not the triangle, the rainbow flag or the lambda symbol have been used? It is Mr. Barnich who has caused this division by using religious symbols.

Religion should be a private matter. Mr. Barnich should not be prostituting it with such little regard for the dead he seems to care so much about. Also, AIDS is not just a "gay disease," as Mr. Barnich seemed to imply. He sent an incorrect message to the entire community, thereby stirring homophobia and falling into the trap of the right-wingers like Steven Hotze and Mark Weaver.

John Paul Barnich and the AIDS Foundation did accomplish one thing besides raising money by prostituting the dead—they helped to further divide the community with their blasphemous AIDS vigil, complete with crosses. The aftershocks of Crossroads '91 will last well into '92 and beyond.

I can only ask that if there is a Crossroads '92, its coordinator will have the good sense to leave divisive religion out of it. Crosses belong in churches. To a great many in our community, they represent oppression, homophobia and death. Crosses are an insulting symbol which all gays and lesbians should find abhorrent.

It is a shame that Mr. Barnich felt it necessary to divide the community by using those who have died of AIDS. But what can one expect from a group of individuals and organizations that have never involved themselves with activism, but instead with teas and socials? We just hope that Mr. Barnich will now put his crosses to good use and ram them up the backsides of the likes of Jesse Helms.

Leslie Perez President/ACT UP Houston

Be Proud & Stand Together

Dear TWT:

"With pride in yourself you can appreciate the differences in others" read the Take Pride posters.

As a person living with AIDS, I am disappointed in the lack of support and trust among ourselves in the gay community. Recently, "Crossroads '91," a fund-raising event for AIDS Foundation Houston, was rescheduled and moved to a different location due to "religious connotations."

Don Sanders, Leslie Perez and John Paul Barnich all represent their organizations, each with a purpose and identity. Likewise, Crossroads '91 has stated that its own purpose is to raise funds for AFH and to memorialize the many who have died of AIDS.

I agree with Mr. Barnich that the esplanade on Montrose Blvd., which was to have been filled with crosses on Memorial Day weekend, could have done more than turn heads. Imagine the controversy the media could have created from it—the idea that these individuals didn't die in war, but from AIDS. Actually, little credit is given to the gay community for the war we have been fighting—AIDS. With no thanks to our government, we have invested more than 10 years in this battle.

During the period of my involvement, I found a gay community with many needs and very much alive; a community that wants to be a part of society and no longer a victim. This letter is not about who's right or wrong, but about being sensitive to others; being sensitive to nurture the needs of each other and to sacrifice a little of our beliefs for a bigger reward.

The celebration of Houston Gay/Lesbian Pride Week '91 is less than two weeks away. At the parade, let's hold hands with the person next to us and wave them high over our heads as the HG/LPW unit passes by. Like "The Wave" that took place on Memorial Day weekend, it will be our way of demonstrating our support for one another.

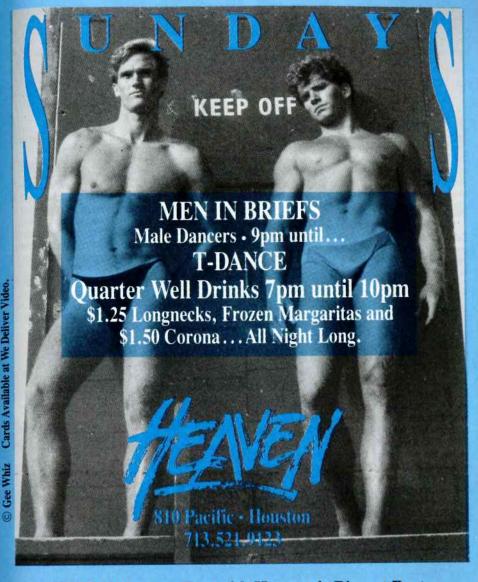

Felix Z. Garcia Houston, TX

Using Cross Is Repugnant

Dear TWT:

We are fortunate in our gay community to have not one or two but three internationally recognizable symbols. These are the triangle (usually pink), the lambda and the rainbow flag. Had any one of these symbols been chosen, the great cross flap would have never occurred. However, by choosing the symbol of Christianity, John Paul Barnich has created the furor.

To all too many gay men and lesbians, the Christian cross symbolizes the very people responsible for the deaths of so many people with AIDS. Conservative Christians are directly responsible for Join the Beach Party Sundays at 800 Pacific.

FRIDAYS... are Fun with Houston's Biggest Party and 50¢ WELL DRINKS All Night Long.

holding hostage any federal funding for anything relating to AIDS for fear it would "promote homosexuality."

To me, using the cross to represent the lives of people who died of AIDS is repugnant and is to be likened to using the Nazi swastika to represent the lives of those who died in the Holocaust.

Are Campaign Signs Illegal?

The following letter was sent to Councilmember Vince Ryan concerning the Crossroads '91 controversy and the state law which apparently prohibits the planting of signs on the esplanades of city streets.—Editor

Dear Councilman Ryan:

Now that the Parks & Recreation Department of the City of Houston is aware of a state statute which prohibits signs on esplanades, is this going to be enforced and, if so, will the guilty party (parties) be fined?

It is something we need to be aware of at election times, since that is when our esplanades, curbsides and freeways bloom with many and diverse signs. Who would be responsible? The party who provides the signs or the one who puts them up?

By law the bartender can be held liable for selling that extra drink even though another individual could run afoul of the law in some manner. To whom should such violations be reported? Perhaps I can perform a civic duty by removing any such signs, as and when they appear, thus assisting in maintaining our environment and at the same time maybe saving someone from prosecution for flouting the law.

While I respect the right of Ms. Perez and Mr. Sanders to their opinions, I resent them being forced on many of us by such devious means. I wonder whether Ms. Perez was aware of this obscure statute at the time of her unsuccessful bid for election when her signs proliferated on esplanades and curbsides.

Since my involvement with the AIDS issue in 1982, I have known hundreds who have since died. I know of none who did not wish to be memorialized in some way. In 1983 and 1984 I was personally involved in candlelight vigils held around City Hall reflection pool. These were extremely meaningful to all who attended. In memorializing someone we assuage our grief and at the same time honor those who have died.

Thank you for your continuing concern for our community.

Jack G. Jackson Houston, TX

ACT UP Not Representative

Dear TWT:

The gay community of Houston as well as the general community at large have been done a grave injustice, not to mention a disservice, by Don Sanders' and Leslie Perez' recent antics. You two have deprived thousands of Houstonians of the chance to remember their family members. What right do you have to tell me how I can or cannot remember and pay tribute to my dead exlover? If you don't agree with the way the memorial was originally planned, don't go! You probably weren't invited anyway! I certainly haven't heard of any better suggestions or another idea for an alternative memorial from either of you. With as many religious symbols and religious memorabilia as are found throughout the Quilt, why doesn't your "group" protest the public display of it? A little too controversial?

When ACT UP/Houston or AGLA are interviewed on "quality" shows like Donahue, who cares? Nonpolitical, noneffective, close-minded, unemployed homemakers. Donahue also interviews corrupt politicians, mass murderers or any small faction with an unpopular cause in an effort to keep his ratings high. Just because the media give an issue some attention, it certainly doesn't make it a just cause. When organizations like yours get media attention, I exercise my right and change the channel.

Find a real job, Sanders and Perez, and do the community a service (instead of a disservice) for a change. Aren't we all in this together anyway? Why waste energy fighting, creating more factions when there is only one real issue here—AIDS. Get a life, or better yet, a new address (i.e., outside of Houston). BACKSTAGE By Marc Alexander Josefina Lopez' Real Women Have Curves opens tonight, Friday, at the Houston Community College System's Theatre One in the Museum of Fine Arts Brown Auditorium. The production is a special collaboration with Teatro Bilingue de Houston, with performance dates of June 8, 14 and 15 at 8 p.m. Set in a sweatshop dress factory, RWHC resonates with tangy bilingual humor and strong profeminine themes. Five full-figured women, who love to gossip and eat, share their hopes, fears and dreams during an overwhelming week at work. This comedy of physical and verbal byplay is bound to keep you in stitches, but it will also tug at your heartstrings. Call (713)921-5093 or 630-1138 for ticket information.

"Committed to advancing, as essential, intracommunal patronage within the gay/ lesbian community." That's the statement of purpose of Melting Pot Studio, a new gallery in Houston representing gay/lesbian artists to foster increased awareness of the contributions of the homosexual experience. Isn't it great to get a positive image of the Houston gay and lesbian community, one that supports rather than attacks our very existence? Tim Duvka is the creator of Melting Pot Studio in conjunction with David Williamson's Chain Chain Chain at 1508 Westheimer, Williamson's shop features funktique with an assortment of chain mail couture and accessories. Stop by and say hello, and all you area artists can contact Tim at (713)529-0060.

Jack Bolton [i] and John Broom [r] play prison lovers in Todd Haynes' Poison.

Todd Haynes' controversial new gaythemed film Poison opens at the River Oaks Theatre in Houston on June 14-just in time for Houston Gay Pride weekendand at the Inwood Theater in Dallas on July 12. Poison, based on the writings of French author Jean Genet, has come under attack by the Rev. Donald Wildmon and his American Family Association. Haynes received a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts for his first full-length feature. which explores the fate of outcasts in a society that destroys them. For schedule information, call (713)524-2175 in Houston and (214)352-6040 in Dallas. And see next week's issue of TWT for a review of Poison. which is already being hailed by some as the most important gay film of our time.

The Black Rose Theatre in Austin is enioving a successful run of The Lisbon Traviata, which was written by Terrence McNally and stars Jeff Shaevel, Lorne Loganbill and Norman Miller. The play is set in Manhattan and concerns the love triangle between three men-Mendy loves Stephen and Stephen loves Michael. The production depicts the opera-like quality these mens' lives take on when Michael tries to divest himself of the entire situation, with fatal consequences. The Lisbon Traviata, a recently-released recording of the late Maria Callas, escapes Mendy's grasp at every turn and forms the aesthetic backdrop for the action. This is the first production of The Black Rose Theatre and is also the Austin premiere of McNally's work. For ticket and performance schedule information, call (512)335-3459 or 322-0553.

San Antonio's Carver Community Cultural Center's dance series continues with the Saturday, June 8 performance by Stephanie Skura and Company. This group has developed a no-holds barred approach to modern dance. It is wild, immediate and rigorous work packed with keen intelligence and quirky wit. For a penetrating, unorthodox perspective on contemporary life, take time to witness this exceptional performance dance group. The Carver Box Office number is (512)225-6516.

True West is the current production being offered by the Major Theatre in East Dallas. The play is a comedy by Sam Shepard about an aspiring Hollywood screenwriter who finds an unexpected rival in his brother. Austin, the writer, who lives in his mother's house, is visited by his older brother Lee, a drifter drunk. Enter Soul, a trendy film producer who is negotiating

M axine Mesinger, Ron Stone, Marvin Zindler, Carolyn Farb and Dr. Neal Frank all have two things in common each of them is, or will be, the butt of at least one Bottoms Up '91 joke; and each of them has ordered tickets for an upcoming performance of the show at the Tower Theatre in Houston.

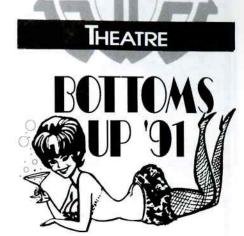

The wit of Breck Wall and his co-writer. Suzanne Buhrer, combine for some goodnatured harassment of local celebrities. The movers and shakers of the Bayou City love it; it's rather like a status symbol for Breck Wall and Company have been entertaining audiences in Texas and Nevada for 32 award-winning years. The revue is pretty much a legend—hell, it is a legend! I was amazed at the number of people in the audience on preview night who raised their hands when Breck asked how many of them had seen a Bottoms Up revue before. I asked table mate Marsha Carlton how many times she had seen the revue. "Let's see, in Dallas, at the Windmill here in Houston, in Las Vegas, Reno, Tahoe. Of course, that's more than once in each location," said Marsha. At this point I figured I had lucked out on the seating arrangements, since Marsha would guide me through my first experience with the Bottoms Up cast.

The glitz and glamour of Vegas are evident in the superb dance numbers throughout the show. Intricate routines combine with rhinestones and flesh to transform the Tower stage into a casino showroom. Which number was my favorite? All of them! The "Elastic" number is a study in dance artistry. The performers weave intricate patterns about the stage which delight the senses. Lee Lewis, Jennifer Burton, Brigid Little, Nicole Stuart, Ric Heath and Jett Fast are stunning in their execution of the choreography. The synchronization of these individuals serves to magnify their brilliance as performers.

The "Zebra" number will astound you. The set for this piece utilizes black and white cubes just large enough to permit the dancers access. Black and white zebra print costumes add to the fluidity of the dancers' movements as they maneuver through the maze of cubes.

Houston artist Howie Keck stopped by earlier in the week and Breck Wall talked him into sketching out a spider web cutout pattern that the show's costumer could use for the bodysuits the dancers would be wearing for the "Web" number. In Nevada, the dancers perform this number "nearly nude," which of course would never happen in Texas. The law might prohibit our seeing something we should have the right to close our eyes to, but thanks to Howie, the illusion remains. "The Web" leaves little to the imagination and lots for the desire. The only bad thing about the Bottoms Up dancers is that they leave you hungry for more of their talent.

Breck Wall, creator of Bottoms Up '91 revue.

This was also my first opportunity to watch Houstonian Jimmy Emerson perform in a legitimate theatre. What a difference a stage makes! Emerson does very well on the nightclub circuit, although his forte is obviously in a theatrical setting. The man is pure shtick—his ability to play off his fellow thespians is marvelous. And the things he does with balloons! There is a genuineness about his laugh that gave me the impression that he was having as much fun as, if not just a bit more than, his audience.

duo, these two will make you laugh or come down into the audience and ask you why you aren't!

David Harris has a voice that emcees pray for; he is an exceptionally talented man. He has more awards than Dolly Parton has wigs. His takeoff on Cher in the star segment is totally brilliant. You have to see it to believe it—a nine-foot-tall Cher! The man is outrageous and a supreme talent.

Suzanne Buhrer has created a special salute to Ann Richards that the Governor would love. Buhrer's jokes about Claytie and Modesta had all of the audience in hysterics and Ms. Richards would have let loose with one of her famous laughs had she been there.

Breck Wall continually adds new material to the show, and his adaptations for Houston audiences are hilarious. No one and nothing is sacred with Breck and his cohorts in crime. The crime isn't serious, it's just about making people laugh till their stomachs ache, till tears of laughter roll down their cheeks. There is no doubt in my mind that Opal from Sharpstown will treasure the memory of her evening with Breck Wall for the rest of her life. Breck worked the poor woman's nerves all evening and she loved it. You'll love it, too, the glitz, glamour and humor of Las Vegas right here in the Bayou City.

On Our Cover SCOTT WALL of Houston

This week's cover boy is Scott Wall. Originally from Las Vegas, his job helped him to migrate to Houston. He is a stagehand with Breck Wall's 1991 Bottoms Up revue.

Moving from behind the scenes into the spotlight, Scott recently joined the Muscles in Action male dance troupe. At 6'3" tall, with blond hair and blue eyes, he is sure to be a success.

As much as he adores the crowd's attention, Scott enjoys getting away from it all. Skiing, fishing and swimming help him to relax.

here was just no doubt about it, my dears, the summer party season was definitely in full swing, as evidenced by two major citywide parties being held in Texas' premier cities, Dallas and Houston. In the Neon City, Dallas' gay community geared up for an evening of enlightenment as that city promoted a 21.06 Awareness Day, designed to remind Dallasites, and all Texasexuals, of the importance of the 21.06 appeal, scheduled to begin trial in New Orleans in just 10 days, on June 17. From beer busts at 4001 and Throckmorton Mining Company to a 10¢ Tea Dance at the OP and an extended happy hour at JR's, Dallas Tavern Guild bars were determined that our voices be heard.

Meanwhile, about 240 miles south on I-45, the Houston Organization of Bar Owners presented their first ever pre-Pride Week Night Out Party, billed as a Funraiser. Houston drinkatoriums from the BRB to JR's, from the Briar Patch to the Ripcord joined together to provide an evening of drink specials, shows, games and prizes for the discriminating party-goer.

at the Throckmorton Mining Company; Denis Weir, Divinely wiping the birthday cake from his face at the Old Plantation, also in Dallas; Robert and John unloading the moving van at LaFitte's beautiful new location oh-so-near the Seawall in Galveston; Joyce Diamond and Mark Little at Rascal's in Houston; Terry Coon and James Chapman spinning the sounds fantastic at EJ's, also in Houston; and Vance Gilliam and Sabre Garth dipping their paintbrushes into a bucket of turpentine at the freshly-painted Wild Crowd Saloon in Dallas.

Miracle Man William Calderon.

On the HEALTH front, the true story of William Calderon was catching attention. Calderon, a 43-year-old San Francisco hairdresser, was given a clean bill of health—totally and completely free of the AIDS virus—after having been told just two years earlier that he only had a short time to live. Calderon's secret cure: "I had an open mind. I didn't let my opinions get in the way of my getting well...In my mind, I changed my attitude about the whole thing." Calderon went on to admit that he felt sure that he had contracted the AIDS virus at a time when he was very unhappy with his life and, consequently, very depressed—a condition which resulted in his immune system being depressed as well.

By the way, did you know that you could, in 1985, purchase two bottles of poppers for the low, low price of just $7 at the Gaspipe in both Dallas and Arlington? I thought you did!

And finally, Nancy Roth, the Executive Director of the Gay Rights National Lobby, reported that the number of cosponsors of the Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights Bill "now stands at 60, with the recent addition of representatives Lindy Boggs of Louisiana and John Miller of Washington"—two additions which were of considerable significance because Boggs was a Southern Democrat, while Miller was a Republican.

Now really, folks, who else would keep you advised of such partisan events?

And so it was, this week in Texas, 1985.

TWT JUNE 7 – JUNE 13 1991 PAGE 61

Week of June 7-13, 1991

SKY SHOW TRIO — The most spectacular sky show of our three brightest planets occurs this month. For the past few months Venus, Jupiter and Mars have been growing closer together each night. In mid-June the trio make a stellar conjunction, and even more spectacularly, on the night of June 15, a thin crescent moon nestles in close to the trio.

Jupiter is on top, Mars is in the middle and Venus is on the bottom. Venus is the brightest of the three; look for its silvery color. Jupiter is creamy white, while Mars, the dimmest of the three, is orangish-red.

Go outside tonight after sunset and look above the western horizon to see this dramatic lineup of planets. This type of planetary pattern will most likely not be seen again in your lifetime. It's a very special sky show event.

JUNE NEW MOON — This month's New Moon occurs next Wednesday, June 12 at 7:06 p.m. Texas Daylight Savings Time, and shines forth from the zodiac sign of Gemini. On the same evening, the Moon will be at perigee (closest to Earth in its monthly orbit), putting the Moon only 222,314 miles from Earth. Tides may be unusually high along the Texas coast.

To see where next Wednesday's New Moon occurs in your own individual horoscope, read this week's STARSCOPE message.

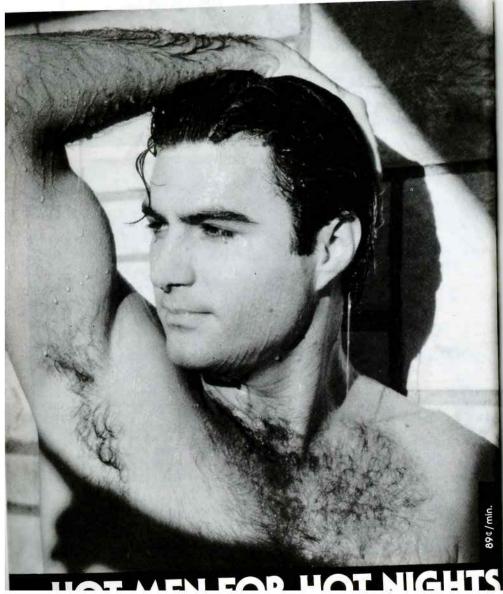

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) This is your New Moon. It occurs in your sign. Therefore, this is your best time in 1991 to launch any personal goals. A new hairdo, a new outfit, a new attitude or a new health and exercise program—if started now—can bring quick and exciting results. This upbeat cycle starts next Wednesday and continues for two weeks until June 26.

CANCER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) Next Wednesday's New Moon catapults you into a very introspective mood. You will now be able to go off by yourself and clearly think things through. You will be able to examine your goals closely, and to understand yourself better. Your inner self is strongly highlighted through June 26. Use this period to begin anew from within yourself. What you are on the outside is determined by what you really are on the inside.

LEO: (Jul 23 - Aug 22) Next Wednesday's New Moon tosses you into a social whirlwind of parties, fun, excitement, friendships and gatherings with important people. You can gain immeasurably through these avenues of life if you keep your ears and eyes open and your mouth mostly shut. Others can help you if you remain quiet and appear as if you need help. This rare opportunity for others to want to assist you lasts until June 26.

1-900-HOT-1500

You can listen to what others want and leave your answer in complete privacy, or make your own hot voice mailbox and begin receiving messages yourself.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sept 22) If you've been experiencing career problems, the period from June 12 to 26 marks a time when new beginnings can achieve much. In fact, much that was believed lost and in jeopardy can be saved by plans laid during the New Moon. The two-week New Moon cycle is your best time of the year for career advances because the June New Moon occurs in your tenth house of employment.

LIBRA: (Sept 23 - Oct 23) Travel, escape and learning activities are highlighted by next Wednesday's New Moon. The period between June 12 and 26 marks an upbeat cycle for philosophical beginnings, too. This means that you will now have the inner drive to alter your philosophy about life and other people, which will enable you to go with the flow of humanity rather than trying to buck the tide. You now have a oncea-year opportunity to advance your inner self successfully, thanks to next Wednesday's New Moon.

scorpio: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Partnership finances can be ironed out under the blessings of the June New Moon. This positive lunar cycle lasts until June 26. Now is the best time of 1991 to iron out any mutual problems with an associate. Tax matters, income altercations, bonus plans, inheritances and other monetary situations which involve another person are all now under a favorable vibration. It's also a good time to launch a business partnership venture.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) If marriage is on your mind, then the period from June 12 to 26 is the best time of the year for you to make your moves. The June New Moon, occurring in your seventh house of marriage, is a high-water mark for serious romance. Single Sagittarians should strive to tie the knot for keeps during this lunar-blessed cycle. Married Sagittarians should use this cycle to deepen an existing relationship. Problems can be smoothed out more easily now than later. Have that talk with your mate tonight. Speak honestly. After June 25, the door to communication will shut.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Being a worrier by nature, you should see a doctor or dentist now, during this New Moon cycle, to put your mind at ease. With next Wednesday's New Moon occurring in your sixth house of health, all medical matters will be helped along to a speedy diagnosis, accurate treatment and a quick cure. This upbeat health cycle also marks the best time of the year for you to begin a new diet and exercise program for solid success. You can look like you want to if you start between June 12 and 26, while the New Moon is fertile.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Since your sign has never reared back at the chance to take a chance, it should come as second nature to you to jump in and take some gambles. With next Wednesday's New Moon occurring in your fifth house of speculation, the bets you place now will pay off handsomely. This chance-taking also spills over into your social life, since the fifth house also rules love affairs. The date you thought would fizzle may turn out to be a success if undertaken by June 26.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) By June 26, you will have made a good and lasting decision about your home life. This is true because the June New Moon occurs in your fourth house, which rules your home and the ambiance therein. Between June 12 and 26, while the Moon is growing larger, your outlook on how to handle your domestic situation will grow and widen. Follow your inclination, as it will lead to self-contentment. Any decision made after June 26 will backfire and lead to near hysteria.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) The best time to take your summer vacation is between June 12 and 26, while the June New Moon vibrates from your third house of travel. If you are unable to travel during this cycle, then at least make your travel plans during this period. Reservations made now will not have to be altered. Itineraries planned now will not meet with detours and delays. Act now.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Money, a subject near and dear to you because of what it can buy and do for you, is the subject of the June New Moon. The lunar lights are now shining down on your pocketbook. Invest, save and make wise purchases. The money you spend between June 12 and 26 will reap growth. It will bring you riches and rewards. Money will grow for you while the Moon is growing larger because the June New Moon occurs in your second house, which rules finances. Undoubtedly, this is your best two-week cycle of 1991 for making money decisions.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Venus and Mars in Leo, a dynamic placement for summer romance.

MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide. state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, two policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisement and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT. It's the law-a "consumer protection" statute.
