HOUSTON POST FIRES JUAN PALOMO

Columnist Now Believes Firing Was A Result of Revelation He's Gay.

HOUSTON — Juan Palomo, the metro columnist for the Houston Post who caused a sensation when he revealed recently that he was gay, was dismissed from his job on Friday, August 30.

Post officials insist that Palomo's dismissal had nothing to do with his homosexuality or the fact that he's Hispanic. They claim, instead, that it resulted from differences he had with his editors and the fact that he discussed internal matters with outsiders.

In his first statements made after learning of his dismissal, Palomo agreed that his dismissal had nothing to do with his personal revelation. He said he now believes, however, that the fact that he is gay was in fact a major reason he was fired.

The dispute that led to Palomo's firing last week goes back to a piece published by the Post in its July 9 edition. In the article, Palomo strongly denounced the murder of Houston banker Paul Broussard and the lack of public response to it. As he had originally written it, Palomo revealed in the column that he himself is gay.

His editors at the Post, however, insisted that he remove the reference to his homosexuality, saying that it was not appropriate for the column and claiming that it weakened the message Palomo was trying to convey. The column was published without Palomo's revelation.

Then Palomo gave an interview to the Houston Press in which he talked about the conflict he and his editors had had over the column. He was also interviewed in national publications, including the Washington Post.

The news of Palomo's firing brought a swift reaction from many in the community. A group of 20 Hispanic activists held a news conference on Saturday, August 31, accusing the Post of discrimination and urging members of the Hispanic community to drop their subscriptions to the paper.

The Houston tribe of the national gay and lesbian activist group Queer Nation staged a demonstration the same day in front of the high-rise condominium residence of Charles Cooper, Post senior vice president and editor.

Palomo told TWT NEWS he was impressed with the dedication and determination of Queer Nation. "I am in awe of their commitment. I haven't had much contact with them, but they appear to be one of the best organizations around."

"I am very gratified for their support, and it sounds as if they will continue this action."

Post reporters upset at Palomo's firing began circulating a petition asking that he be given back his job. At last count, they had collected dozens of signatures from fellow employees.

Post officials have indicated that they would consider talking with Palomo about returning to his job, and on Tuesday of this week he said he expected to be speaking with them about it shortly.

DALLAS GEARING UP FOR SEPTEMBER 22 FREEDOM PARADE

Final Parade Meeting to Include Vote on Grand Marshals.

DALLAS — Preparations for the eighth annual Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade are shifting into high gear as the September 22 gay and lesbian pride celebration approaches.

The final parade meeting will be at 2 p.m. next Saturday, September 14 in the Rose Room of Village Station. On the agenda will be the assignment of line-up numbers and final instructions for parade participants, as well as voting for this year's Grand Marshals.

All organizations and businesses that will have entries in the parade are required to send a representative to the parade meeting, except for out-of-town entries. Out-of-town entries will receive their information by mail. Parade applications and entry fees must be in the Dallas Tavern Guild office, 3900 Lemmon Avenue, by to-day. Friday. September 6.

The following names have been placed in nomination for the Grand Marshal positions by the community: For female, the nominees are B.J. Anderson, Carolyn Dunbar, Jill Havens, Stefanie Held, Sue Schrader and Charlotte Taft. Male nominees are Alan Gellman, Maury Held, the Rev. Robert Hensley, Phil Johnson, John Thomas, Dennis Vercher and Rodger Wilson.

One representative from each parade entry will vote in both categories. The Grand Marshals will ride in the parade as well as speak at the Celebration in Lee Park that follows.

Guild members met on August 14 to discuss the dress code contained in the parade guidelines. The Tavern Guild has recently received complaints that female impersonators were being discriminated against and would not be allowed to march in the parade.

Guild officials have responded by stressing that female impersonators are and always have been welcome to take part in the Dallas parade. The dress code has been amended to clarify the policy regarding participation by cross-dressers in the parade.

The amended code reads in its entirety:
"Costumes are encouraged and welcomed on all entries, such as clowns, western, patriotic, native or ethnic. Male or female impersonation or cross-dressing is allowed as an intricate part of a recognized, paid entry and when it is related to a purpose of the organization or business.

"Sexually-oriented costumes, which include G-strings, posing straps and seethrough lingerie, will not be allowed."

Ross explained, "This amendment to the parade guidelines was made to clarify the eight-year-old dress code, which has recently been perceived by a number of people to mean that female impersonation is now allowed in the parade.

"Female impersonation has always been allowed and accepted in the parade. In the past seven years of the parade, no person or entry has been removed from the parade for dress code violations," Ross continued. "Drag queens and female impersonators have been in all segments of the parade every year, and have been honored and a part of the ceremonies in Lee Park following the parade."

Ross said the Dallas Tavern Guild was enthusiastic about the parade, which takes place at 3 p.m., on Sunday, September 22. "We are looking forward to another wonderful 65-entry parade this year to celebrate the pride and positive image of the lesbian/gay community of Dallas."

AUSTIN'S LIBERTY BOOKS VANDALIZED

Front Door, Window Broken in What May Have Been Hate Crime.

AUSTIN — Liberty Books, a popular gay and lesbian bookstore, was vandalized recently and circumstances indicate the attack on the shop may have been a hate crime.

At approximately 6 a.m. Thursday morning, August 22, the manager of a nearby dry cleaning store noticed the glass had been broken out of the front door of the bookstore and a plate-glass window had been broken. Other nearby businesses were not broken into.

A large rock had been thrown through the front door with enough force to carry it 20 feet into the store. Another smaller rock was used to shatter the plate-glass window.

Since nothing was taken from the store, burglary does not appear to have been a motive for the crime. The owners have asked the police to classify the incident as a hate crime.

Johnson told TWT NEWS that the incident is the first time the bookstore has been the target of what appears to have been a hate crime. "I've been sort of grateful that we were tucked in this little spot where we are not as visible as other businesses," he said.

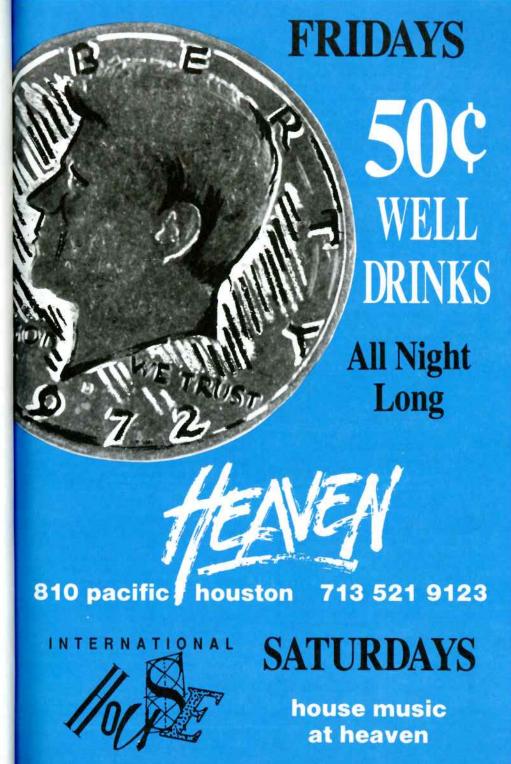

"I hope this will help alert the community to the rising pattern of violence. Liberty Books is a symbol to our community. In that sense, this was a major affront to all of us. But, in fact, nobody was hurt here.

"People are getting hurt on the street. "We've got to be conscious of danger and protect ourselves and each other."

AIDS FOUNDATION HOUSTON SUFFERS FUNDING CUTS

Financial Assistance Program, Mental Health Services Suspended As Greater Houston AIDS Alliance Slashes AFH Grants by $65,000.

HOUSTON — AIDS Foundation Houston, the oldest and largest HIV service provider in the area, has announced that it is being forced to cut back on some of its services due to significant cuts in funding.

Linda Mullins, CSW, who has been named AFH Interim Executive Director to replace Evelyn Cox, who resigned recently, told TWT NEWS that a principal source of income for AFH has been the funds administered through the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance [GHAA], which distributes grants allocated by the Texas Department of Health. "Unfortunately, this year GHAA cut grant funds to AFH by $65,000. Alternative funding sources are being sought, but so far without success," Mullins said.

As a result of this very significant loss of funding, AFH is having to suspend both its Financial Assistance Program and its Mental Health Services. The Financial Assistance Program, organized in 1984, has provided rental and utility assistance. Mental Health Services has provided psychosocial support, mental health assessments and crisis intervention for PWAs.

AFH's Information and Referral Services department will be directing existing and potential clients to other AIDS-related service providers.

Mullins stressed the importance of AFH as the largest HIV service in the Houston area, noting that its outreach extends beyond the gay community. "Much of the community still sees the AIDS pandemic as a gay-related illness, and as a result, many believe that AFH provides services only for that interest group.

"However, it should be strongly emphasized that with the continued spread of the disease, almost half-forty percent-of our current client base is heterosexual. Also, the Foundation has been witnessing alarming increases in both the African-American and Hispanic populations, and we are making a concerted effort to be proactive in these communities by providing education and outreach."

Mullins moves into the role of Interim Executive Director from her previous position as Director of Social Services. Richard Franz has been named interim Director of Social Services, and Susan Patania, CSW, will assume the position of Interim Clinical Supervisor.

The Foundation will be moving its offices soon, and has already signed a lease for a new location. AFH's new address will be 3202 Weslayan, Houston, TX 77027. The phone numbers will remain the same, (713) 623-6796 and, for the Hotline, 524-AIDS.

AFH offices will be closed Monday, September 16 for the move and reopen in the new location the next day, Tuesday, September 17.

For further information, contact AIDS Foundation at (713)623-6796.

TEXAS AIDS PROJECT WILLASSIST AMARILLO AREA HIV-POSITIVES

Goal Is to Lessen Anxieties, Fears In Weeks Following Diagnosis.

AMARILLO - "The first six weeks of a positive HIV diagnosis are the most crucial to an individual's well-being. The shock and confusion during this time will affect his or her response to family and friends concerning the disease.'

Rick Efflandt, Executive Director of the Texas AIDS Project [TAP], spoke with TWT NEWS about his group's goal of helping people through the rough times following their diagnosis.

"TAP will be committed to the newlydiagnosed individual for a duration of approximately six weeks. Our primary goal will be to lessen the fears and anxieties that affect many people upon learning of a positive diagnosis.

TAP's staff will be composed of volunteers who have themselves been diagnosed as HIV-positive or who have AIDS. "Our purpose is to help the newly diagnosed by sharing our strength, hope and knowledge on a one-on-one basis. From that point, we can refer them to specific services or support organizations."

Efflandt stressed that TAP would not try to compete with other organizations in offering help to HIV-positive people. "Although our activities may overlap those of existing groups, TAP will not take the place of any other organization or project. We hope to work in partnership with existing organizations.

Executive Board Chairman Barry Oldfield said TAP is currently seeking volunteers to help with start-up activities and to begin training so that the organization can officially open its doors on December 1. "We are also seeking private donations in lieu of state or federal funding," he added.

Organizers are working to gain recognition of TAP as a nonprofit entity. "TAP is in the process of filing all the necessary state and federal funds," Oldfield explained. "We have about 15 months to complete all of the forms, but we anticipate completion of all paperwork shortly."

TAP welcomes inquiries, and may be contacted by calling (806) 371-7677, or by writing TAP, 401-A S. Maryland, Amarillo, TX 79106.

SAAF SEEKING VOLUNTEERS

Next Volunteer Orientation Scheduled for October 2.

SAN ANTONIO - The San Antonio AIDS Foundation [SAAF] is currently seeking people interested in volunteering their time to help the organization carry out its fight against HIV in the Alamo City area.

Volunteers may serve through direct support, staff assistance and in outside activities such as fund-raising. Byron C. Trott of SAAF told TWT NEWS the Foundation needs people with vehicles to provide PWAs with transportation to medical appointments and for meal delivery.

Volunteers are also needed to provide clerical assistance, and to help out with recreational activities, fund-raising events, HIV testing, data entry, the buddy program, the kitchen, videotape production and programming, and hospital visitation. Also needed are receptionists and telephone operators, as well as an editor for the newsletter.

SAAF provides a monthly orientation session to acquaint prospective volunteers with information on HIV and on the services offered by the Foundation. The next orientation meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 2 at 7 p.m. at 818 East Gravson Street.

For additional information, or to reserve a space for the orientation meeting, please contact Volunteer Coordinator Christina Shively at (512)225-4715.

'FIESTA ON PATIO' TO BENEFIT PARKER COUNCIL CAMPAIGN

Candidate Will Speak on Issues at Sept. 13 Fund-Raiser at Lovett Inn.

HOUSTON — The campaign of Annise Parker, who is running for a seat on Houston City Council, will be throwing "Fiesta on the Patio," a fund-raising benefit, on Friday, September 13.

Jim Owens, one of the coordinators of the fund-raiser, told TWT NEWS, "An exceptional number of gay and lesbian leaders have already come forward and paid $25 or more to be sponsors of this event, with more pouring in each day.

"Our community is long overdue in having an openly gay or lesbian presence at City Hall, and I'm sure that with the proper financial support and strong core of volunteers, Annise Parker can win this election." The other two coordinators for the fund-raiser are Felix Garcia and Jim Crary. Parker, a candidate for the Houston City Council District C position, said she would be setting forth her views on issues of concern to gays and lesbians as well as the larger community. "Next Friday evening will be a great opportunity for me to share with members of my own community some of my views on many of the broader issues which affect us."

"Fiesta on the Patio" is being held at the Lovett Inn, 501 Lovett Blvd., on Friday, September 13. There will be cold beer, sodas and Mexican-style appe "teasers" as well as musical entertainment from 6-9 p.m. A donation at the door of $5 is being requested to assist the Parker campaign in raising money.

Parker has served as president of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus, chair of the Houston Police Advisory Committee, chair of the Houston Police Advisory Committee, Grand Marshal of the 1990 Gay & Lesbian Pride Week Parade and as co-chair of the 1991 Pride Awards Dinner.

Parker, a graduate of Rice University, has also been associated with the Harris County Woman's Political Caucus and the United Way of Houston.

OAK LAWN BAND GETTING READY FOR PRIDE WEEK CONCERT

35 Members to March in Parade; 'An Afternoon at the Pops' Concert At MCC September 15.

DALLAS — "We feel that we are a focal point for gay and lesbian pride, and that we provide one of the few avenues where men and women can all get together," said James Gebhardt. The president of the Oak Lawn Band spoke with Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS about the Band's contributions to the community at large.

"The Band was formed in 1980 as part of the Gay Pride Week celebration," Gebhardt said. "This year, we have 35 members who will be marching in the Dallas parade. We also participate in the Oklahoma Pride Parade every year, as well as marching in this year's Fort Worth parade."

Gebhardt was a performance major at North Texas, playing the flute. Because the Band had only one trombone, he took up playing that instrument. He also plays around the Dallas area, performing freelance woodwinds.

"We are also very excited that we will play a part in this year's Texas Gay Rodeo in Dallas in November. We will perform at the grand entry opening ceremony, doing country tunes and marching music," Gebhardt said. A Christmas concert is also planned, with the Turtle Creek Chorale as special guest performers at the MCC this winter.

"Our organization is open to anyone who feels comfortable about getting involved in the community. We are open to people with all levels of musical expertise. Our band is growing all the time," Gebhardt said.

The Band will be performing on Sunday, September 15, at 3:15 p.m., at the Metropolitan Community Church at 5353 Maple Avenue. "An Afternoon at the Pops" will cover all types of music, from Broadway show tunes to the theme from Batman. The concert will cost $5, and tickets can be purchased at Curious Times, the MCC Bookstore or at the door the day of the concert.

Dallas' Oak Lawn Band [above and below] has played a part in pride celebrations of the past, and will again this year with a contingent marching in the Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade on September 22 and "An Afternoon at the Pops" at MCC on September 15.

Gebhardt invited the community to attend the Band's concert on Sunday, September 15 and spend "an afternoon at the Pops."

23rd Annual Miss Camp America

Sept. 14 Pageant to Benefit Bering Dental Clinic, Pet Patrol & Assistance Fund.

HOUSTON — The Miss Camp America Pageant, a parody of the Miss America Pageant and a 23-year-old Houston tradition, is being held this year at the Music Hall on September 14 beginning at 8 p.m.

The show, in the style of La Cage aux Folles, features music, dancing, clever dialogue and costumes that look as if they came straight from Broadway. An all-male amateur cast puts on the annual event, which began back in 1969 when 11 friends gathered to watch that year's Miss America Pageant.

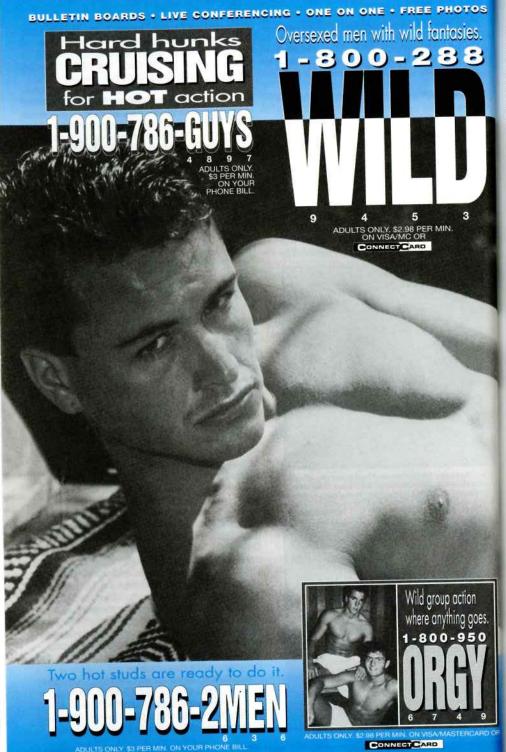

Pageant Director Pat Petty said of his cast, "The one thing they all have in common is their desire to perform, providing an evening of wild, zany and sometimes heartwarming entertainment."

"We hope you'll join us this year for one of our most spectacular shows ever and the crowning of the 24th Miss Camp America, a Houston Tradition. If you like Broadway, you'll love Miss Camp America."

Proceeds from ticket sales are used to support Houston-area AIDS-related charities. Beneficiaries this year are the Bering Dental Clinic, which provides free dental care for PWAs, and the Pet Patrol, an all-volunteer organization which provides assistance for animals belonging to PWAs who are unable to care for themselves.

Also receiving a share of proceeds from Miss Camp America will be the Assistance Fund, which provides insurance payments when people with AIDS have lost their jobs and are no longer able to continue making the payments themselves.

Tickets to Miss Camp America can be reserved by calling (713)783-1872. They are also on sale at Basic Brothers and Appearances, and can be purchased the day of the event at the Music Hall Box Office.

In this column, readers exchange ideas with other readers and our editor in a public forum. Writers must sign all letters and furnish their full name and address for verification. TWT will withhold name upon request. Please keep letters brief. TWT does not print letters sent to other gay and lesbian publications. MACT Celebrates Differences

Dear TWT:

At the most recent March on Austin, I saw a group of men of several races wearing T-shirts that had "MACT" on them. I approached a couple of guys and asked them what MACT is. "Men of All Colors Together," they told me, is a national gay interracial organization committed to fostering supportive environments wherein racial and cultural barriers can be overcome.

I knew then that I wanted to get a chapter started in Austin. After contacting the national chapter development chairman, I learned that MACT is also known as Black and White Men Together in many cities, usually depending on the ethnic makeup of the locale.

My personal commitment to this is a response to the separatism I've encountered between the races in the gay community. As gay people, don't we already face enough alienation from society because of our sexual orientation? Why, then, do we seem to be following society's lead in avoiding members of other races?

In the days of Stonewall, difference—such as color—as embraced. Somewhere along the line, a lot of us seem to have forgotten about that. Gay people carry a marginalized status in society. Can we really afford to continue creating divisions along race and class lines? MACT/Austin is one step toward unifying the gay community.

A group of us have been meeting to start MACT/Austin. Men seeking a safe environment for socializing with people of other races are encouraged to join, as are interracial couples and folks interested in brotherhood. MACT/Austin will engage in educational, political, cultural and social activities, like rap groups, workshops and parties, to contribute to the elimination of racism, homophobia, sexism and other prejudices that hurt us.

For those interested in coming to our inaugural bash on September 28, or finding out more about the organization, please call me at (512)452-7360.

'BP Follies' a Smash

Dear TWT:

On behalf of the BriarPatch, I would like to extend a huge thank-you to everyone who worked so hard to make the BriarPatch Follies such a huge success. We haven't stopped counting, but thus far we have raised over $22,000 for the benefit of the Assistance Fund and Stone Soup Pantry.

Special thanks go to our cast, our guest performers and all the great people who worked backstage to help pull off our gift of love, the BriarPatch Follies. To those of you who bought raffle tickets and brought items for our silent auction, it just would not have happened without you.

Your encouraging comments and suggestions have made all of us extremely proud to be part of the Houston Gay Helping Network for those less fortunate than we are.

By the way, we're already working on another show for you. Bring us your suggestions and come see how much fun you can have being a part of the Follies.

No Right to Kill Unborn

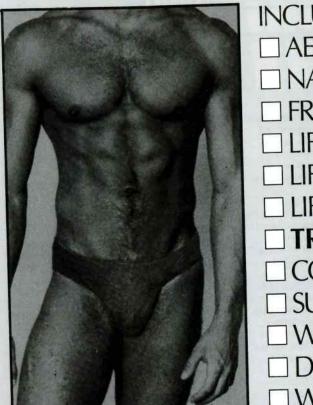

Dear TWT:

I would like to add my opinion to the point Barry Skiba ["Pro Gay Doesn't Mean Pro-Abortion," Vol. 17, No. 15] brought up concerning the idea that pro-gay means pro-choice.

I firmly believe that as individuals we have the right to choose who we are, how we live and what we do, but to say we have the right to choose whether or not an unborn child lives or not is absurd.

We are currently battling the hate crimes that plague our community and the big issue that one person does not have the right to terminate the life of another. Is abortion any different?

The main misconception is that the "thing" in the mother's womb is not a person until birth, but scientists and doctors both agree that at the point of conception it is a living organism.

Another idea is that if the mother does not want the child, she can always abort it. That should not be the option considered. There are many childless people in our country who would gladly give all they own in order to get what one person decides to just throw away.

An unborn child should not have to pay the price of "one night of passion" that "became a mistake."

I firmly believe that we should stand on the issue that pro-gay means pro-life.

Boycott Greensheet

Dear TWT:

On August 13, the Houston chapter of the lesbian/gay rights group Queer Nation called for a boycott of the Greensheet. The action is being taken in response to the weekly newspaper's discrimination against lesbian and gay people in its personals section, called "Heart T Heart." The boycott is part of a larger effort to transform the Montrose area into a discrimination-free zone.

The Greensheet's "Heart T Heart" section offers free personal ads to readers. However, the ads are available only to individuals seeking those of the opposite sex. Queer Nation members seeking to place personal ads have been told that ads from lesbian and gay people will not be accepted.

In response to this blatant homophobia, Queer Nation is calling on all people concerned about discrimination to take several actions. First, we are asking that people stop reading the Greensheet. Second, we ask all advertisers to pull their ads from the newspaper. Third, we are asking businesses in the Montrose area to stop distributing the Greensheet. In addition, we ask lesbian, gay and bisexual people to emulate black civil rights activists of the past who attempted to eat at segregated lunch counters by calling the Greensheet every Monday beginning at noon to attempt to place a personal ad.

Several businesses in the Montrose area have already offered their support for the boycott by pulling the Greensheet from their literature shelves. These businesses include Butera's, several locations of Eckerd's Drugs, Infinite Records, A Moveable Feast, House of Pies, Whole Foods Supermarket, two Appletree locations, Walgreen's, First Stop Food Store and one Shell Oil and Gas. Queer Nation is in negotiations with a number of other businesses to remove the newspapers.

Queer Nation is a diverse group of women and men united to end homophobia in all its forms. We use nontraditional, nonviolent tactics to increase the visibility of the lesbian and gay community and "zap" homophobes. We are opposed to all forms of discrimination. The group first formed in New York in June of 1990, and several dozen chapters currently exist around the nation. The Houston chapter formed in January of this year. Meetings are held every Tuesday at the Montrose Palace, 1501 Nevada at Commonwealth.

Brian D. Bradley Houston, TX

Force Won't Work

Dear TWT:

In reference to the "Queer Nation" group of activists, by placing "Queer Nation" stickers in places in such a way that it defaces others' property, and by promoting and insisting on a "Queer Nation," you are no better than those who try to forcibly change homosexuals.

This is not and will never be a "queer nation" or a "straight nation," for that matter. This should be a nation united under God for the good of all!

If we do not like how things are run, let's get out and vote and pray to God for changes. If we do not do this, then whatever we may do to forcibly change the system will not work. It will only bring more grief, pain and hate.

Is that what we want?

Remembering Raina Lea

Dear TWT:

Remember a vivacious and ebullient bundle of talent who was always the first on the scene when anyone needed help? Remember that from Houston to Denver and from Fort Worth to El Paso, you could always count on one person to be the first in line to aid any worthwhile cause? To do so is to remember Raina Lea.

From a passionate love of pageant life to a never-ending quest to unblemishingly represent the community as a monarch of the court system, Raina truly earned the accolade of "living legend."

Unfortunately, Raina, a.k.a. Gary Taylor, is lying withered and lifeless in the hospital. It is now our turn to say thankyou for all she has done for us and to give back some help.

On Labor Day weekend, we held a series of benefit shows to help pay necessary expenses, and this will establish an ongoing fund in Raina's name to assist other persons in need. We thank all of those who participated and gave so generously in Raina's memory.

Thanks also to TWT and to the clubs and entertainers who helped. We could not have done it without you.

Jack Guthrie a.k.a. Jacki Jori Fort Worth, TX

Mr. Guthrie informed us that Raina passed away on the day after this letter was received at TWT.-Editor

Support the Arts

Dear TWT:

I'm a local artist, gay and concerned about the attitude of Cedar Springs/Oak Lawn area business owners and support of the arts outside of Oak Lawn.

The double standards within the gay community are really quite disturbing. It's the 1990s and I feel that overall the gay community wants to be recognized and accounted for equally and fairly by "straight" society in such crucial issues as religion, politics, employment rights and others.

C'mon guys, if you want to be treated fairly, with equal rights, freedom and respect from others, you must give in order to receive! I know a lot of customers who purchase items at these gay area businesses are not gay, and of course these businesses do not seem to have a problem taking their money!

With all the publicity concerning artists' rights, gay rights and censorship issues, the gay community needs to be more supportive of the arts and of artists. I might also mention that a large percentage of artists in this world are gay (as well as some of the artists participating in the Artscene show) and the numbers are decreasing due to the AIDS epidemic.

Please support the arts and the ban on censorship, and help promote freedom of expression. Let's work together to make this world a better place to live.

Artscene, an art show to be held in Deep Ellum, will be September 13, 14 and 15. There will be an artist appreciation party at the Artbar on the evening of the 14th. For more information, call (214)824-1377.

HIV Not End of the World

Dear TWT:

Regarding "Too Much to Lose" [Vol. 17, No. 24], to "Name Withheld" and all others who test positive for HIV:

Yes, the statement, "You're HIV-positive." is the last thing anyone wants to hear. But it's not the end of the world. It does signal time for a change of direction in your life; new goals, new friends, new ideas, changes in lifestyle, and, above all, new information.

For those just diagnosed, we have our "Buddy Program" which is a one-on-one support program. For those who have gotten over the initial shock and are ready to move forward, we have our "Peer Counseling" closed group sessions.

We also offer the following support functions: "Positively," our monthly newsletter; the "Andrew Arthur Boyd HIV Resource Library"; a Speaker Forum; a Community Garden Project; our "Get Tested Now" ad campaign for early testing and early intervention; weekly stress reduction and relaxation classes; and social events throughout the year.

Body Positive/Houston is open to everyone. For more information, please call our office at (713)524-2374, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. (closed noon until 1).

NUTRITION AND HIV INFECTION

by Richard Elbein, M.S., R.D., L.D.

N utrition plays a pivotal role in the on-going health status of HIV-infected individuals. Nutritional adequacy is often compromised by factors directly and indirectly related to the HIV virus. Changes in patterns of consumption, or in the body's absorption or metabolism, can dramatically increase the risk of complications from undernutrition or malnutrition.

In this article, I will discuss some of the major points to consider for HIV-positive individuals interested in improving their nutritional status. While I do not want to dwell on basic nutrition information, I think an understanding of the functions of the nutrients is critical.

The basic nutrients to be considered in this article are water, protein, carbohydrates, fats, vitamins and minerals. Since each nutrient is essential to health, they must be regularly included in your diet. Calories, the name given to energy in food, are provided only by protein, carbohydrates and fats. Vitamins, minerals and water do not provide the body with energy, and therefore cannot be substituted for meals.

Ideally, the majority of the energy in our diets is provided by starches (complex carbohydrates) or sugars (simple carbohydrates). In addition to their energy value, complex carbohydrates provide fiber, vitamins and minerals. Fiber helps food wastes move through the digestive tract; it should be avoided during bouts with diarrhea. Sugar, which tastes sweet, is found in ripe fruit, young vegetables and sugar cane, and is a great source of quick energy. For this reason, it is often given in the hospital as intravenous glucose.

Protein foods, such as meats, cheeses. eggs, fish and vegetable sources like tofu. beans and grains, are needed by the body to maintain and repair tissues. The body's need for protein increases during any illness due to the extra demand for repairing damaged tissues. Protein foods often provide vitamins (particularly B-6 and B-12) and minerals (iron and magnesium). Protein will only be used for tissue repairs if you have consumed adequate calories (energy) to meet basic needs.

Fat, a concentrated energy source, is rich in vitamins A and E. Fat plays a critical role in the formation of hormones and digestive enzymes, and in the protection of the internal organs.

Vitamins and minerals, which exist naturally in foods, assist in various body processes. During periods of severe physical stress, your need for some vitamins and minerals increases. Unfortunately, excesses of vitamins and minerals can be detrimental.

Water is critical because it comprises over 60% of the body. It aids in digestion, absorption, circulation, excretion and, possibly most importantly, temperature regulation. For this reason, your fluid requirements increase dramatically during periods of fever. A reasonable lower limit for fluid intake would be eight cups of noncaffeinated beverages daily.

First and foremost, your diet should include adequate calories for activities, and additional calories for physical stress or fever. Under normal circumstances, you need 14-16 calories per pound of body weight per day, and up to 20 calories per pound per day if you are running a fever or experiencing weight loss.

Adequate calories will protect the protein consumed, and help prevent the "wasting" associated with HIV. After meeting the body's energy requirements, the next important nutrient to consider is protein. You should eat one ounce of protein per 10 pounds of body weight per day, and up to one and a half times that while experiencing fever or weight loss.

I recommend a vitamin and mineral supplement for anyone who is HIV-positive—my choice is a prenatal supplement. Remember, when it comes to vitamins and minerals, more is not better. You should take less than 300% of the USRDA for any vitamins or minerals listed on the label. The exception to that rule would be vitamin B-6. I encourage anyone who is HIV-positive to take a separate B-6 supplement providing 20 mg. per day. Finally, discuss with your physician a monthly B-12 injection of 1,200 mcg.

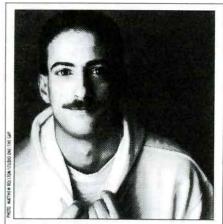

You can only maintain your health with a variety of foods by eating a balanced diet—one which represents all the food groups. The basic daily diet for HIV-positive individuals would include at least the following: two servings of milk, five servings of breads/grains/starches, three servings of fruit, three servings of vegetables and two servings of meat or meat substitutes.

Be wary of any specialized diets which limit or eliminate the basic food groups. Many specialized diets, particularly those directed at HIV-infected people, eliminate dairy products, breads and starches, or meats. By choosing one of these meal plans, you may eliminate essential nutrients such as protein, calories, vitamins or minerals. Restricted diets can be a complicating factor in the development of malnutrition in HIV as the disease progresses.

Finally, I encouraged you to monitor your weight and take steps to prevent weight loss. Furthermore, make a concerted effort to gain up to 20 pounds above your "ideal body weight," preferably in the form of muscle. This will be your safety net against rapid weight loss brought on by opportunistic infections. Get ahold of a good guide to digestive complaints common to HIV, and familiarize yourself with the appropriate dietary changes.

The best time to begin changing your dietary habits to battle the HIV virus is while you are still asymptomatic. It is easier to prevent malnutrition than it is to reverse it.

DEIDRE McCALLA

in Concert

by Jazz Paz

Planet Earth Productions does it again! Last summer, as multitudes of happy women will recall, Denise E. Chambliss and the Lone Star Symphonic Band brought Deidre McCalla, Teresa Trull and Monica Grant to Houston Lesbian/Gav Pride Week '90 in a women's concert that raised our consciousness, opened our hearts and made us proud.

As an encore, in March, Planet Earth Productions sponsored Monica Grant's return to Houston for an intimate evening bursting with laughter and song and tunes that played in our minds for days.

On September 14 at 8 p.m., Planet Earth presents the phenomenal feminist musician Deidre McCalla in concert at the University of St. Thomas' Jones Hall in Deidre is one of the few prominent black women of the contemporary singer-songwriter genre. She cut her second Olivia Records album, With a Little Luck, between her appearances at the National Women's Music Festival, the Michigan Women's Music Festival, the Southern and West Coast Women's Music and Comedy Festivals and the New England Women's Music Retreat as well as at colleges. clubs and coffeehouses throughout the United States and Canada.

Deidre says she finds inspiration for her songs in everyday occurrences like the relationships between mothers and daughters and her own ongoing battle with her lover's cat.

With another album in progress, Deidre will be sharing new material with her audience, as well as those songs we already know and love.

Deidre's first Olivia Records album, Don't Doubt It, was released to critical acclaim, receiving New York Music Award nominations for Best Album on an Independent Label and Best Song on an Independent Album. With a Little Luck was heralded by the Boston Globe as "the arrival of a major singer-songwriter."

With her attitude of vulnerability, an aura of honesty and quiet toughness, a sense of hidden emotion in her voice, pushing up from beneath the lyrics, Deidre touches all of us. Her style is down to earth and uplifting, with a strong rhythmic sense reminiscent of Motown.

Her heroes are other women artists like Joan Baez, whom she admires "less for her music than because she was a woman in control of her music and her career." Deidre says she believes "women's music is also women as heads of record companies, producers and engineers in studios, and as concert producers."

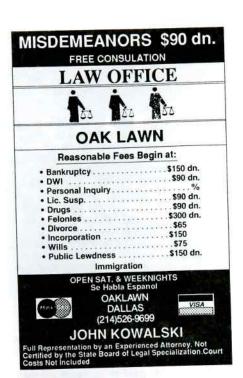

Denise E. Chambliss agrees with her friend about that. A professional musician and producer of women's concerts, Chambliss' personal goal is to raise enough money to open her own venue to spotlight women's talent and entertainment. Part of her plans to accomplish this include pricing the tickets to the Deidre McCalla concert on a sliding scale, from $10 to $20 for general admission. "Pay more if you can, less if you can't" she suggests, as part of her efforts to enable more women to share Deidre live.

Tickets are on sale at Inklings, 1846 Richmond, and at the door. For more information, call Planet Earth Productions at (713)528-0748.

It's beginning to look a lot like Tuna.

BACKSTAGE By Marc Alexander

Fort Worth's Casa Manana Theatre has given BACKSTAGE the inside story on their winter season lineup. Jaston Williams and Joe Sears arrive at Casa on September 24 to open their four-week run of last year's megahit, A Tuna Christmas. If you haven't had the opportunity to see this hilarious adventure into a joyful holiday, then you should make plans now to attend. This is one of those rare productions that one never tires of. Take a friend who hasn't seen the play and enjoy their reactions to the inhabitants of Tuna.

Casa is also negotiating with the awesomely talented Michael Crawford. Certainly you recognize the name; after all, he is the originator of the role of the Phantom in Phantom of the Opera. Hopefully, Casa Manana will secure a contract with Crawford to star in *The Music of Andrew Lloyd*Weber. While you're waiting for BACKSTAGE to announce the outcome of the negotiations, you might take the time to dial (817)

Men's blues. Women's blues. Anybody's blues. The blues of Sandra Reaves-Phillips stem from the essence of the Negro spiritual to the full sound of a brass band. San Antonio's Carver Community Cultural Center invites you to spend an evening of risque, naughty and nice blues. You're going to love this show; Reaves-Phillips will make you feel as if she's singing the blues just for you. Artistic Director Dani R. Livingston of The Dallas Alliance Theatre has informed BACKSTAGE that the presentation of Robert Patrick's Homosexual Acts, which consists of two one-act plays, is currently onstage at The Rose Room in the Village Station. The production opened September 27. The two plays are Bill Batchelor Road and Odd Number. Both are part of a seven-play series written by Patrick, who is best known for his play T-Shirts. Bill Batchelor Road is set in the 1940s, while Odd Number takes you into the very different world of the postwar 50s.

The Rose Room at the Village Station has presented a variety of entertainment since its opening last spring. Caven Enterprises Promotion Director Keith Kuykendall told BACKSTAGE that he had considered the idea of staging a play at the club and that after he'd spoken with representatives of the Dallas Alliance Theatre, he decided to try out the concept. BACKSTAGE often meets people who say they would like to see just such a development, so here's your chance, Dallas. Dial (214)824-1215 to reserve your seats for this special event.

This year's event, co-chaired by Kathy Wetmore and Clint Willour, with chairs underwritten by Finger Office Furniture. will be held Thursday, September 19 at INNOVA, Houston's commercial design center, 20 Greenway Plaza, from 7-10:30 p.m. Most of last year's artists have agreed to participate again including Rusty Arena. Gertrude Barnstone, Wayne Braun/PDR, Susan Budge, Richard Fluhr, Phyllis Hand, Mary Jenewein, Greg Lofgren, Ken Luce, Deborah Magill, Barry Moore, Jesus Bautista Moroles, Adam St. John, Cal Stockton, as well as Ted Mengers, Michael Baker, and Rich Brian from Pyranak, designers of last year's top-selling chair, which went for more than $5,000.

This year, DIFFA has added Michael Graves, internationally known architect and designer, menswear designers Bill Robinson and Jhane Barnes, local artists Arthur Turner, McKay Otto and Gail Siptak, florist Lyman Ratcliffe, George Shackelford, curator at the Museum of Fine Arts/ Houston, and Ezra Charles, bringing the total number of "chair creators" to over 80.

Additionally, this year the graphic design community has been asked to participate by submitting original poster artwork using the ladderback chair as a starting point for the design. Three of the 30 posters will be printed as a limited edition poster series to be sold at the event, and all of the original work will be auctioned at "Take A Seat."

The gala will also feature hors d'oeuvres provided by Evan's, Ruggles, River Cafe and 8-0, La Strada, Armando's and How Sweet It Is. A cash bar and live entertainment provided by Ezra Charles and the Works round out the evening.

DIFFA is the only national industrybased foundation in the U.S. that funds the entire range of responses to the AIDS crisis. Founded in 1984, DIFFA combines the efforts of all sectors of the design world: interiors, architecture, furnishings, fashion, floral, graphics, textiles, industrial, tabletop and others in the fight against AIDS.

DIFFA's principal activity is raising and distributing funds to AIDS organizations and projects nationwide. DIFFA financially supports direct patient care and services; preventative, post-diagnostic and community education; housing, meals, emergency assistance and legal advocacy; treatment and community-based research.

The Houston chapter recently approved grant requests to the local chapter of the American Red Cross, to the Association for Community Television for the production of the documentary "The Challenge of Change: AIDS and the Seven Choices," to The Assistance Fund and to Casa de Esperanza. Eighty-five percent of all funds raised by DIFFA/Houston at "Take A Seat" will remain in Houston to provide support for local citizens with AIDS.

So, where were you in 1976?
I was just beginning my junior year in high school, fresh from a summer spent in movie theaters with my cousin, watching Saturday Night Fever 17 times, and literally drooling in boyish glee over the ohso-athletic form of the then oh-so-cute John Travolta in his oh-so-brief black bikinis, as my adolescent hormones just

I think I wore bell bottom patchwork Brittania jeans, a quilted Western shirt, web belt and Earth shoes—yes! Earth shoes!—my first day back, with hair parted in the middle and just a tad bit too long. And lest you chastise me severely for this obvious fashion faux pas, please do remember that, in 1976, young ladies were wearing cork wedgies and Farrah Fawcett wings.

Speaking of wings, Phoebe Schwartz was seen munching on the chicken variety at the elegant Toddle House with her very dear friend Vera in an effort to lessen the pain of yet another divorce. Her ex, a longtime companion of three nights, was one of only a very few husbands, who, unlike Phoebe, weighed in at less than 200 pounds and caused so much tortuous grief to the desolate Phoebe that even a trip to Astroworld could not console her.

Alvena Grease (I) and Kitty Litter, two of the fabulous Grease Sisters.

By the way, did you know that you could, in 1976, do all your one-stop shopping for whatever you were looking for in a gay bar at Bailey St. Wherehouse in Fort Worth? I thought you did!

In shopping matters of a different kind, NEWS reports from the Alamo City cautioned River City residents against cruising Travis Park due to a recent spate of Lilly Law sightings in that lovely greenspace. But for those still in the mood, the Plaza behind Baptist Hospital was considered to be "just the TEE!"

And finally, in our constant effort to ensure that every living and breathing Texasexual in the Lone Star state was kept abreast of all the entertainment happenings from Hollywood, the body of Woody Allen's work was REVIEWED within the pages of the magazine this week. While our staff found his messages to be "fatalistic...his pacing sophomoric and unsteady," they were still seen rolling in the aisles of the theater during the attack-ofthe-50-foot-bra scene from Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Sex ... '

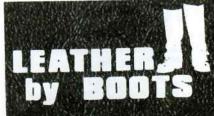

Well, maybe not sophomoric! And so it was, this week in Texas, 1976.

STARSCOPE By MILTON VON STERN

Texan Billy Preston Born in Houston September 9, 1946

Week of September 6-12, 1991

STARGAZER — Before sunrise, stargazers can now see Venus, Mercury and Jupiter. The best view of Mercury is about a half hour before sunrise. Venus, brightest of the three, now becomes the "morning star."

Of course, Venus isn't a star, it's a planet. Remember, planets shine steadily; only stars twinkle.

Milky Way: As summer gives way to autumn, the Milky Way stretches across the sky from Sagittarius on the southern horizon to the mid-sky point of the constellation of Cygnus. As we all remember, the Milky Way is made up of all the millions of stars in our own galaxy. So, when you look into the Milky Way, you're actually looking at an edge-on view of our own spiraling galaxy.

SUMMER ENDS — Summer comes to an end at 7:48 a.m. on Monday, September 23, ushering in autumn and the Full Harvest Moon, which comes about ten hours after autumn begins.

NEW MOON — This month's New Moon will be at 6:01 a.m. this Sunday, September 8, in Virgo. This is your last summertime New Moon—your last chance to accomplish the tasks of summer.

Since New Moons are traditionally known in astrological lore to be the best times of the year to begin all new projects and launch endeavors for a successful start-up and a fruitful outcome, it is important for all STARSCOPE readers to utilize this beneficial cycle to accomplish their personal goals. This beneficial lunar cycle will last until September 23, the date of the Full Moon. In other words, while the Moon is growing larger and fuller each night for the next two weeks, your chances for success continue to grow larger and fuller.

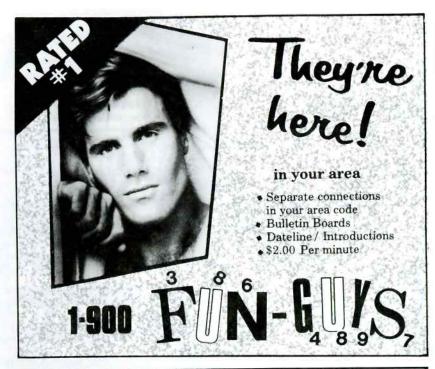

Read your personal zodiac sign to determine what area of your life will receive the maximum reflection from the September New Moon's vibrations.

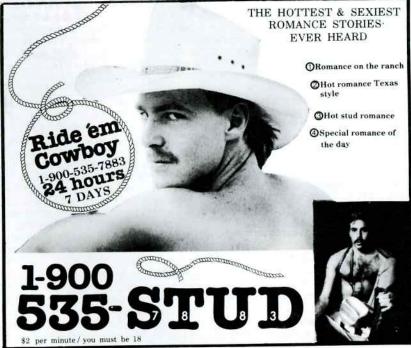

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sept 22) This is your best New Moon of the year because it illuminates from your own sign. Because this Sunday's New Moon occurs in your own sign. it is strategically placed in your first house of personality. Thus, between now and September 23 is the time when you should launch all your personal projects. A new exercise program, a new attitude toward life and others, and a new spirit of private vigor are all blessed by this Sunday's New Moon. This is your best time of the year to turn over a new leaf, to start anew!

LIBRA: (Sept 23 - Oct 23) This Sunday's New Moon in your twelfth house of inner self indicates your could accomplish the unexpected with some severe behind-the-scenes maneuvering. Secretive plans can yield a bundle of good will. Pay attention to all idle gossip, as where there's smoke there's bound to be some fire directed at your plan. Use the New Moon cycle from now until September 23 to further your private interests.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Social plans, parties, group functions and gatherings are where you can make your biggest mark while the New Moon cycle continues to be operable. This upbeat social trend starts with this Sunday's New Moon and continues until September 23, affording you the opportunity to let friends help you and advance your causes. Lunar luck seems to be on your side. Trustworthy new friendships blossom early.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Your career stands to receive a generous boost from this Sunday's New Moon cycle, which lasts until September 23. Use this period to launch a job interview for a successful outcome or to further your own interests in your present employment. Business ventures stand to gain if you act now. Others will pay attention to your advice.

capricorn: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Enrollment in school is highly favored by this Sunday's New Moon. This positive cycle remains operable until September 23. Use this period to choose the right courses. This period also assists those who find they must or want to travel. Legal entanglements can also be resolved under the lunar vibration. you can sign important contracts knowing that integrity will surround the signing.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) If you need to unravel a tax mess, estate problem or a business partnership, then this Sunday's New Moon affords you the blessings of a favorable outcome so that all involved will be satisfied. Be careful to guard your own financial interests so that another doesn't take advantage of your pocketbook. Sexually, this cycle until September 23 is a very upbeat and driving period when your sensual charisma can bend the will of others in your direction.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) If you're single, this Sunday's New Moon cycle is your best time of the year to launch a new, long-lasting partnership with what you hope will be a lifemate. With the current New Moon illuminating your seventh house of marriage, you are in a very favorable position to pick the right mate and make the right decisions regarding serious love, provided you act prior to September 23. If you're married, the same New Moon advice holds, as you have the opportunity to either deepen an existing relationship or smooth out any rough edges so you both can reach a domestic compromise.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) With this Sunday's New Moon occurring in your sixth house, you are blessed with smooth sailing in employment matters. Situations with coworkers that have caused some anguish and unpleasantness can now be worked out agreeably and softly, prior to September 23. In addition to this good blessing in your employment sector, you are also blessed in areas of your health. Any ailment can now be properly diagnosed and treated successfully, enabling a quick and speedy recovery. This Sunday's New Moon encourages exercise and wholesome living. A new fitness program started now can produce lasting results.

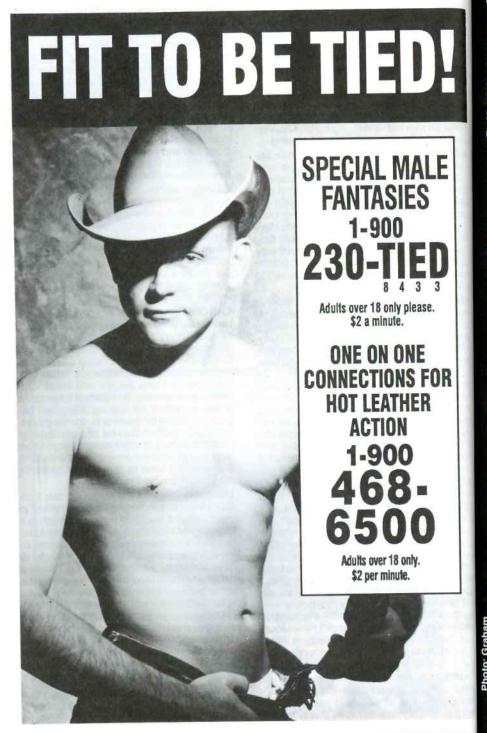

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) It's time to break out from your conservative mold and have fun dating lots of different and fascinating people, if you are single. This Sunday's New Moon occurs in your fifth house of love affairs, which means that the current period through September 23 is ideal for meeting the kind of people and admirers who enjoy life to the fullest. Somehow, your "type" just happens to be in the right place at the right time. Only the New Moon could have planned it; not you or anyone else. Fate is playing lady luck in matters of romance. If you're married, this upbeat lunar cycle relates to your quick and increased ability to meet new friends whom both you and your mate will welcome into your fold for whatever pleasure you both have mutually or individually intended.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) This Sunday New Moon cycle, which lasts until September 22, is ideal for all home and domestic matters. Looking for real estate, redecorating and entertaining in your home are some of the many close-to-home matters which can be successfully completed during this lunar cycle. You are encouraged to enhance your homefront at this time because your efforts will be fruitfully rewarded.

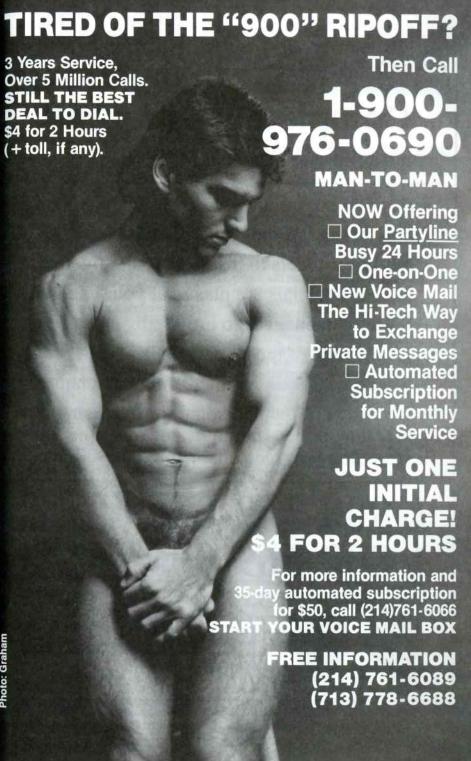

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) If you were unable to swing a summer vacation or quick retreat, then this Sunday's New Moon cycle opens previously locked doors to a trip so you can escape—provided this is set in motion prior to September 23. After that date, don't travel as you will meet with delays and detours. This upbeat lunar cycle is also excellent for signing important papers, agreeing on contracts, forming partnerships whether they be of a personal or business nature, and for communicating on all levels of selling, convincing and leading the way. It's time to make your strategic moves before time runs out.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Although this Sunday's New Moon begins its illumination in your second house of money, which is a blessing for all financial matters, it would be wise to remain cautious when it comes to investing and speculating. Be sure to check all securities for past performance. To invest on a hunch will lead to loss. However, the cycle between now and September 23 is a splendid time for you to increase your earning power. Your sudden ability to shore up a sagging pocketbook is due to the blessings of the lunar light reflecting directly from your second house of money. Purchases made during this cycle will be wise and bring both satisfaction and pleasure.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Jupiter leaves Leo and enters Virgo on September 12, changing your luck.

Gary Taylor

Gary Taylor, a female impersonator who performed on the gay nightclub circuit from Galveston to Denver, died Wednesday at a Fort Worth nursing home of complications from AIDS. He was 42.

A longtime Fort Worth resident, Taylor was a gay rights activist who launched Tarrant County's Gay Pride celebration a decade ago. He also was an early supporter of the county's gay church movement and the Lesbian and Gay Alliance, both initiated in the Taylor performed under the stage name Raina Lea, inspired by actress Ruta Lee, In 1980, Ruta Lee borrowed Taylor's tiara for her performances as The Unsinkable Molly Brown at Casa Manana.

As Raina Lea, Taylor once led a Broadway-style dance troupe of 15 drag performers touring the gay nightclub circuit from Galveston to Denver.

Taylor's survivors include three brothers, Robert Allen Taylor of Dallas, Teddy Taylor of Azle and Tommy Taylor of Grand Prairie.

A memorial service was held Sunday, September at Trinity Metropolitan Community Church of
