TOP NEWS STORIES OF 1991

In this last edition of TWT NEWS for the old year, our editorial staff, following tradition, has taken its annual look back into the 91st year of this century.

On the following pages are the top ten news stories of 1991 — a chronicle of the year's most important news developments from the perspective of the gay and lesbian community of Texas. These stories were selected on the basis of how they related to issues of greatest concern to gay and lesbian people in Texas.

TWT NEWS wishes a Happy New Year to all of our readers across the state of Texas.

HATE CRIMES ON THE RISE IN TEXAS

The obvious choice as the Top Story of 1991 has to be, regrettably, the rise in anti-gay hate crimes against members of our community as evidenced by its appearance in nine issues of TWT during the past 12 months. Beginning with the July 4 issue, and running frequently through the end of the year, the horror of murder and physical injury inflicted on our community by individuals opposed to our very existence continued to garner NEWS headlines.

Reports of this increased violence broke, initially, in our capital city of Austin where four men were attacked in separate incidents by a total of 38 men. In the first incident, two men were victimized at the corner of Fourth and Colorado, where as many as eight men attacked the pair using broken beer bottles — directly across the street from Austin police.

The second attack took place at the corner of Third and Lavaca where two men, both masculine in appearance, were set upon by up to 30 men yelling racial and anti-gay epithets.

Both incidents, which occurred between March and May of this year, served as the catalyst for the formation of The Austin Gay/Lesbian Antiviolence Coalition, chaired by Stewart Gallas. The Coalition, at the outset, was working to open a dialogue with the City Manager's Office, the City Council and the Austin Police Department to help find solutions to the unprecedented rise in violence against Austin's gay community.

July found Houstonians reeling from the effects of the senseless attack upon three members of the Bayou City's gay community. In this incident, the young men were walking to their cars after leaving a Montrose area nightclub when they were jumped by two carloads of 10 adolescents after they verbally acknowledged knowing the location of a well-known area club. Using two-by-fours studded with nails, the accused assailants pursued all three men, ultimately killing banker Paul Broussard.

The incident triggered a backlash from Houston's Montrose area, where over 1,000 gay and heterosexual residents marched through neighborhood streets picketing, chanting and slowing traffic.

Houston leaders were quick to respond by issuing calls for stronger hate crimes legislation in Austin, as well as by implementing increased undercover police programs in Montrose in an effort to curb the violence before it occurs. And, while the state government was slow to act, Houston plainclothes officers learned, first-hand, the extent to which members of the gay community have been victimized as they, too, were attacked by individuals who assumed that they were gay. The undercover operation, dubbed "Vice Versa" and thought to be the first of its kind, made national headlines and focused media attention on the many facets of hate crimes nationwide.

In spite of increased efforts by both community and elected officials to stem the growth of this outrage, two more gay men fell victim to acts of violence born of bigotry and ignorance. In Houston, Phillip W. Smith was shot to death in an aborted robbery attempt, simply because he smiled at his attacker. Meanwhile, in Dallas, two men were attacked in Reverchon Park while quietly eating a meal. They were severely beaten while their assailants finished the meal they had started. Thank died while his lover, Hugh Calloway, was hospitalized with complications resulting from his injuries.

Thus far, no convictions have been made in any of the cases, and state law requires only that hate crimes be documented.

STATEWIDE "WALKS" HELP FUND AIDS SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

While hate crimes challenged Texas gays, the state's citizenry continued to face obstacles to their very existence with the unrelenting onslaught of AIDS on its victims. But, armed with a sense of spirit and resolve that seems inherent in our community, gays, lesbians and heterosexuals literally "walked a mile"—and oft-times more—to help find a cure for this dreaded disease.

Beginning on October 6, Dallas' Oak Lawn Community Services (OLCS) Life-Walk, with close to 1,000 participants, raised in excess of $80,000 and, because of corporate sponsorship which resulted in no expense to OLCS, was able to direct all of the proceeds to AIDS-related services at the Center.

Two weeks later, on October 20, Austin held its fourth annual, and most successful, effort, "From All Walks of Life," sponsored by AIDS Services of Austin (ASA). Capital city tallies listed over 3,500 participants and over $163,000 in proceeds which were additionally distributed, through ASA, to ALLGO (Informe SIDA), Austin Immune Health Clinic, the C.A.R.E. Unit and the Waterloo Counseling Center, among others.

And, finally, on November 3, Houston staged its third annual "From All Walks of Life" benefiting AIDS Foundation-Houston. The event virtually doubled 1990's totals with over $80,000 in receipts.

The three city's totals, in addition to funds raised by San Antonio's first-ever walk, raised over $320,000 in the fight against AIDS.

DALLAS CITY COUNCIL VOTES FOR ZONING CHANGES

In yet another obstacle to the gay community's quest for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, Dallas City Council approved zoning changes, known as the "Oak Lawn Plan," which will fall on dance club owners who will be required to provide more parking space for their patrons.

Although the ordinance includes 37 other points, such as noise reduction and landscaping, the main thrust will require dance club owners to provide one additional parking slot for every 25 square feet of dance floor space. Previously, the requirement was for one parking space per 100 square feet of floor space.

In addition, bar owners will now be required to re-apply every two years for a special use permit to remain in business. The bar owners vehemently objected to this provision, claiming that they would be under the continual threat that their businesses could be closed at the whim of a hostile city council.

Heightening the tensions was the perceived abandonment of Oak Lawn representative Lori Palmer's constituency by Ms. Palmer, who, prior to this incident had unanimous support from Oak Lawn business owners and residents alike. Ms. Palmer supported the Oak Lawn Plan.

The controversy becomes more problematic as other cities across Texas began preliminary exploration of similar restrictions affecting entertainment-oriented businesses in general and gay bars specifically.

RICHARDS TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

At 12:14 p.m. on Tuesday, January 15, Dorothy Ann Willis Richards moved to the podium at the South Capitol Entrance in Austin to be administered the Oath of Office, thus becoming the 45th Governor of Texas, and the first woman to hold the office since Ma Ferguson's term almost 60 years ago.

In an event witnessed by the official representatives of 35 countries and the governors of four Mexican states, the oath brought to a close 18 months of often bitter politicking in one of the most controversial election campaigns seen in Texas.

In remarks which outlined her plans for the next four years, Governor Richards declared:

"Today, we have the vision of a Texas where opportunity knows no race or color or gender—a glimpse of the possibilities that can be when the barriers fall and the doors of government swing open. Today, we have the vision of a Texas with clean air and land and water... a Texas where a strong economy lives in harmony with a safe environment. Today we have a vision of a Texas where every child receives an education that allows them to claim the full promise of their lives. Today, we have a vision of a Texas where the government treats every citizen with respect and dignity and honesty... where consumers are protected... where business is nurtured and valued... where good jobs are plentiful... where those in need find compassion and help... where every decision is measured against a high standard of ethics and true commitment to the public trust.

"Tomorrow, we must build that Texas." Hoping that "that Texas" is to be one for all Texans, Lone Star gays were conspicuous in their presence at all five inaugural galas, and at the People's March on the Capital Building.

GLEN MAXEY WINS STATE HOUSE RUNOFF

The fifth biggest news story in Texas was out of Austin where Glen Maxey, chief lobbyist for the Lesbian-Gay Rights Lobby of Texas (LGRL), won the runoff in the Texas House District 51 race. His victory makes him the first openly gay official in the history of the state of Texas.

Maxey received 3,034 votes, or 54 percent, to 2,576 votes, or 45.9 percent, for his opponent, lawyer David Rodriguez, to fill the seat vacated by Lena Guerrero. Maxey appeared to have won most of the precincts with the heaviest turnouts.

Although the fact that Maxey is gay never became a campaign issue, the last few days of the race did take a nasty tinge as the two candidates traded charges and countercharges concerning tax records and residency requirements.

The 51st District has traditionally been represented by a Hispanic politician, but after some of Rodriguez' problems came to light, even some Hispanic community leaders began urging voters to choose Maxey.

HOUSTON POST FIRES JUAN PALOMO

Juan Palomo, the metro columnist for the Houston Post who caused a sensation when he revealed that he was gay, was dismissed from his job. The event was seen by some to be a severe expression of anti-gay sentiment and a direct violation of First Amendment protection by the Post's editors.

Post officials insist that Palomo's dismissal had nothing to do with his homosexuality, despite the fact that Palomo's disclosure that he was gay was censored from a column he had written denouncing Houston banker Paul Broussard's murder.

The news of Palomo's firing brought a swift reaction from many in the community. The Houston tribe of the national gay and lesbian group Queer Nation staged a demonstration the same day in front of the high-rise condominium residence of Charles Cooper, Post senior vice-president and editor. In addition, Post reporters began circulating a petition asking that Palomo be reinstated. Officials at the newspaper indicated they would consider talking to Palomo.

QUEER NATION COMES TO TEXAS

Queer Nation, a gay activist group with chapters, or "tribes," across the nation, is organized in Austin, Dallas and Houston this year.

Queer Nation is a group of people helping to sensitize the heterosexual community about homosexuals. They deal with homophobia and gay and lesbian rights, as well as the AIDS issue.

The focus of their efforts, thus far, have been to introduce Queer Nation and individuals to the dominant culture and media with as many provocative local events, protests and invisibilities as they can possibly arrange.

In addition, the tribes have attempted to explore ways to support the legislative agenda of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby during the 1991 legislative session. And, the group has explored "direct action" ideas used elsewhere in the country, such as kiss-ins at various county clerks' offices and heterosexual clubs, and outreach efforts to homophobic churches.

TEXAS ATTORNEY GENERAL APPEALS 21.06 RULING

As many observers had expected, Texas Attorney General Dan Morales appealed State District Judge Paul Davis' decision in the case of Morales, et al v. State of course." In his decision, Judge Davis declared the law unconstitutional from the bench. His written order blocked the state "from arresting, prosecuting or otherwise enforcing" Section 21.06.

In his motion for appeal, Morales said, "Our obligation is to defend the laws of the state when they are challenged. Our goal is to seek a determination once and for all on the constitutionality of this particular law." The Texas Human Rights Foundation (THRF), which is paying all court costs and attorneys' fees, filed the original challenge to the law in 1989.

THRF's Legal Coordinator Margaret Tucker said, "We welcome this appeal. An appellate court victory would clearly establish a statewide precedent on the unconstitutionality of Section 21.06. The upcoming appellate court battle is crucial in insuring equal rights for gay and lesbians in this state."

TEXAS GAYS MARCH ON AUSTIN FOR EQUAL RIGHTS

While 30,000 might have appeared to be a hefty number to beat, that was the exact number organizers of the second March on Austin hoped to top as they urged the state's gay community to show their pride by coming forth in record numbers to demand equal rights and protection under the law.

With an agenda that included demands for new laws protecting gays and lesbians — as well as persons living with HIV, ARC and AIDS — recognition of gay unions and passage and enforcement of hate crimes legislation, the March on Austin Executive Committee hoped that, through unified participation, the community could make their views on issues of importance to the gay and lesbian population known, both on the state level and nationwide.

Some announced events included a showing of the NAMES Project Quilt, a gala banquet reception and concerts and plays presented by local and national talent. In addition, presentations by Urvashi Vaid, Executive Director of the National Lesbian/Gay Task Force, and Larry Lingle, President of the Houston Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus, highlighted the march to the capital.

TEXANS CELEBRATE GAY PRIDE

Celebrations of gay pride round out twt's Top Ten news stories, as festivities across the state showed the world, and ourselves, who we really are.

Dallas led the way, with traditional Razzle Dazzle Dallas events, plus the addition of Gay Day at Six Flags and the Maple Avenue Carnival. In Ft. Worth, Austin and San Antonio, parades, carnivals and picnics were the norm, with special new features including chorale concerts and art exhibits. And finally, in Houston, festivities began with the Pride Awards banquet and culminated with that city's "Feel the Music" parade and Star Nite '91 after a week of concerts and theatrical performances.

All in all, Texans illustrated just how great gay pride still is, some 22 years after Stonewall, the birth of the gay rights movement.

Colts Are Grateful

Dear TWT:

The Colt 45's and the AIDS Troublefund would like to thank all those individuals and organizations that have assisted us during the past year. We would especially like to thank the members of the Colts and the AIDS Troublefund Citizens Advisory Board who have given so much of their time to raise and distribute the funds we have received. We also thank the Garden Party for their support of over $6,000; Outrage '91 for their support of $6,709; The Military Ball and its support of $5,369; and Heaven for their fund-raiser and support of $1,794. Many others have given contributions and support and, although you are not named here, you are in our hearts.

As many people know, the Colt 45's and the AIDS Troublefund assistance project are completely volunteer. All money we receive goes directly to PWAs and other terminally ill residents of Harris County. We are grateful for the ability to serve the community and have so much community support.

We wish you all the best in the coming year.

Waco Is Flawless

Dear TWT:

On Friday, December 13, I had the honor of being crowned Miss Waco Mining Company 1992. The experience was unbelievable. The people of Waco are a warm and loving crowd, who accept me, an out-of-town entertainer, with open arms. I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for their support and acceptance.

I would also like to thank my fellow competitors for their kindness; they all deserved the title. I would also like to commend Alberto "Raven" James for a wonderful pageant.

The following night, I had the pleasure of appearing at the 1992 Mr. Waco contest. Again, the crowd was spectacular. Congratulations to Richard, Mr. Waco 1992, for a job well done. I look forward to performing with this handsome gentleman this year.

I would like to extend a special thank you to my "new sisters," Bebe, Tica, Nicole Miller and Vanessa Raye. I look forward to working with you soon.

To the staff and management of the Waco Mining Company, the "Shining Star of Central Texas," thank you!

May I close by saying, "Waco, you're flawless!"

Being Gay

Dear TWT:

Yes, we may be gays in a world of straights who will never accept us as we are, but being gay is nothing to be ashamed of, even though we hide away.

Being gay is a world of its own; people come and people go, but most who come are here to stay.

We are human and our needs are few, we share our feelings the same as you. We love, we hurt, we lose and hurt just as you.

Yes, we may be gay, but we are as normal as you and all we want is to be loved and wanted the same as you, but never abused.

Do we not hurt the same as you when we lose the one love of our life?

We are not something that you can love for a while and then throw us away as if we never cared.

Yes, we are human and our needs are true, because all we want is to be the same as you.

Give us hope, give us love, give us the most precious thing of all, give us the right to live in a world that was meant for all.

Jack Varsi's Favorite New Year's Resolutions

Made your New Year's Resolutions yet? Well why bother? It's an utterly ridiculous waste of time and energy to even speak of those annual impossible-to-keep promises that you always break by the second week of January, so why not cut yourself a little slack this year and stay the way you are. Let's face it, no matter how good your intentions are or how much will power you kick the year off with, you know you're not going to get very far with the really important resolutions. You're not going to lose weight. You're not going to start saving money. And God knows you're not going to stop cruising the bus station, so why not just resolve to accept yourself exactly as you are now? Just relax and enjoy yourself while your friends struggle with their usual resolutions, some of which we've tried to illustrate with this pictorial.

Gorgeous cover boy Kendall.

5...4...3...2...1—Happy New Year!

Mayday, Mayday. This is the S.S. Poseidon....

Oops, sorry! Visions of Shelly Winters in a chocolate brown chiffon cocktail dress swimming, like Orca, through a submerged corridor, overcame me and I forgot the purpose of this column—to titillate, excite and inform you, our dear readers.

This column, at the suggestion of our Publisher, will be devoted entirely to New Year's Eve through the years, as seen through the eyes of THIS WEEK IN TEXAS. The staid and traditional free champagne and party favors aside, provided below, and listed chronologically in technicolor detail, are the ways Lone Star gays have amused themselves as they rang in the New Year...

DECEMBER 31, 1975: Contests were the rage of the day, as clubs in Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston offered cash prizes, color TVs and ten-speed bikes. At Entre Nuit in Dallas, for example, you could be named Miss 1976 in drag, Mr. 1976 in butch drag, or Baby 1976 if you were under 25. And at Le Pisoire in Wichita Falls, Glenn's World—Famous Homemade Chili was served all evening.

CLASSIC TWT BY BOB DINEEN

NEW YEAR'S EVE THROUGH THE YEARS THIS WEEK IN TEXAS

DECEMBER 31, 1976: Food and Fun became the order of the day, as clubs across the state offered a traditional fare of cocktails and party favors, with the addition of blackeyed pea and cornbread buffets at midnight, such as that offered by the Misty Blue Club in Odessa, and champagne breakfasts like that served at the Old Plantations in Dallas and Houston. And drag at the Depository II in Houston with Jerry Vanover, Tiffany Jones, Eartha Kitt and Donna Day.

DECEMBER 31, 1977: More of the same, but the addition of gorgeous cover boy, Kendall, offering a celebration of a different sort....

DECEMBER 31, 1978: Cover charges got bigger, but then so did the promises and allusions to more bang for the buck offered by a plethora of clubs across the state. From the "Lots of Surprises" at Arlington's Mad Hatter and Inside/Outside to the "Special" Surprise at The Barn in Houston to the "Surprise" guests at Dimension Three in Dallas and Ram Rod Tavern in Houston, it was no surprise that Texassexuals were surprised.

DECEMBER 31, 1979: Balloon drops and drag with only one bar, Sunset Boulevard in San Antonio, offering both. More importantly, the highlight of the Boulevard gala was "a surprise expected return to the stage of Miss Jahonau Reis (in) her final performance with male organ."

DECEMBER 31, 1980: Theme parties, such as "Old Year's End" at Babylon in Houston, proved to be de rigueur. In addition, "Breakout '81" at Alcatraz in Dallas, "Armageddon" at The Different Drum in Houston and "Country Caravan" at Red River Crossing in Austin all proved to be the places to be as Texassexuals entered the new decade.

DECEMBER 31, 1981: My, how things have changed in ten years... The OP in Houston presented "The Show of the Year" as Tiffany Jones, Big David, Jerry Vanover and Kitty Keye "remembered the Red Room with old hairdos, old songs—old queens!" The Conference Room in Dallas presented C&W songstress Dena Kaye. Private Cellar in Austin held a Hero and Outlaw Contest. The Other Place in Fort Worth presented a special show starring, among others, the late Raina Lea and Bette Sheba. Zodiac in Corpus Christi offered to "let you escape for the New Year's weekend." The Copa in Beaumont presented the Mr. and Miss New Year's Eve contests with "cash prizes to the winners of all three categories." Ernestine headlined at Astraptes in College Station and Sunset Boulevard, "the Showbar of the South," presented Donna Day, Pauletta Leigh, Sabrina Ross, Naomi Sims plus the newly crowned Miss Gay Dallas Tasha Kohl and "Miss Gay Rest Area Emeritus" Alice Phallus in a "Gayla Salute to Broadway."

DECEMBER 31, 1982: TWT NEWS lamented over the verdict and appeal of the 21.06 case and reported on the first five deaths in Texas attributed to AIDS. Tootsie was the gayest picture of the year, but SHOWBIZ's Jack Varsi awarded his Best "Actress" award to John Lithgow for his role in The World According to Garp. Varsi named Mel Gibson "Sexiest Hunk of 1982," but had a tie for "Biggest Tits in the Movies" between Dolly Best Little Whorehouse Parton and Arnold Conan the Barbarian Schwarzenegger.

DECEMBER 31, 1983: Individual clubs added more and more "traditions" to their lineup of party events, including The Copa's every-hour cash drawings in Houston, the first-ever Masquerade Ball at Faces in San Antonio, and the Ms. Thang Awards at The OP in Dallas. But the biggest addition to the lineup of holiday diversions was live performances by disco artists such as Taka Boom at Rich's in Houston and Jayne Edwards at The Ritz in Galveston.

DECEMBER 31, 1984: JR's Dallas' annual Black Tie Affair was the place to be, while the Round-Up offered a C&W Hoedown. Freda Payne appeared at Studio 4 and Patrick's welcomed "another class act," Bentley's Restaurant, to Dallas. Rascal's in Houston presented Samantha Samuels while across town, BRB kicked off the year with singer David Houston. Miss Charlotte's presented Mundo Earwood and the Copa featured Jimmy James in concert. Sir Bud's in Fort Worth hosted "Odyssey: A Journey into a New Year." Cahoots in San Antonio welcomed patrons to their 1st (and last) annual Red and White Ball. In San Antonio, the Mustang Band helped ring in the new year at Snuffy's.

DECEMBER 31, 1985: Picture this: the culmination of ten years of New Year's Eves... You dress up in a costume (or in drag), go to your favorite club for their theme party, pay a huge cover charge and get all sorts of party favors and "surprises." Then, at midnight, you watch a drag show on one stage and a live performance by a disco artist on another, and are hit in the head with a barrage of dropping balloons as you eat blackeyed peas and cornbread while waiting for the drawing for your free trip to Cancun where you can spend the money you just won in an hourly cash drawing. And, in case you were still hungry, a champagne buffet at 4 a.m. Tradition. That's basically what Texas clubs were offering. Tradition.

DECEMBER 31, 1986: Oh, what AIDS hath wrought. Where the magazine's ads once beckoned fun-loving gays to hours of decadence and non-stop partying, more and more clubs offered alternatives, such as a quiet evening around the piano at John L's Entertainment Extravaganza in Dallas, or the dancer stage at JR's in Houston. Even more indicative of the change was the sight of a scantily-clad phoneline Santa offering the safe-sex alternative to a midnight dance-floor coupling.

DECEMBER 31, 1987: The Eagle Nest in Dallas had Butchella throwing her recovery beer bust. The Brazos River Band performed at—where else?—the BRB in Houston. Dallas' AIDS Resource Center, OLCC and PWA Coalition hosted "Back to the Future," a huge disco and laser light extravaganza. La Cage Bookshop in Dallas had a lunch hour rental special: You could rent movies for 75¢ each. Chapultepec in Houston offered complimentary holiday breakfasts. In San Antonio, Paper Moon's New Year's Eve Party included a costume contest. The No. 1 video was Fascinated by Company B. In Austin, progressive dance club Westend invited you to experience "another piece of progressive culture during Westend's phenomenal 56-hour New Year's Party."

DECEMBER 31, 1988: New Year's Jockey Shorts contests, such as the one at Across the Street in Fort Worth, Dallas' own version of Times Square at JR's and the Village Station... and even more of that other stuff.

DECEMBER 31, 1989: Gay 90's parties. This was, after all, the last New Year's of the decade. Oh yeah, and all that other stuff.

DECEMBER 31, 1990: 'Bout Time in Austin presented tons of fun with a Masked Ball. In Houston, Martha Wash was the special guest at Rich's New Year's Everybody, while across town, revelers at Miss Kitty's "danced out the decade." Four gorgeous male dancers and Moet French champagne were the highlights at JR's and Heaven. New Year's Eve marked the beginning of "a new dance experience" at the Wave in Dallas. San Antonio celebrated country and western style with a Hoe-down at the Silver Dollar Saloon.

DECEMBER 31, 1991: It hasn't happened yet. It can be whatever you want it to be. A quiet evening at home with someone wonderful. Or a night on the town, at one of probably a hundred exciting events around the state, surrounded by the people who make you feel special. Whatever you choose, please remember three things: Choose safety over danger, choose love over hate and choose to spend New Year's with someone who might otherwise be alone.

Week of December 27-January 2, 1991

by Leonard Byram
Member, American
Federation of Astrologers

Happy New Year, Texas. As we head into 1992, there are two astrological changes that will affect Sagittarius. Jupiter, the ruler of Sagittarius, retrogrades (appears to go backwards) Monday at 3:31 in the afternoon Texas time except for El Paso, where Jupiter retrogrades at 2:32 p.m. The next day, New Year's Eve, Venus moves into Sagittarius, ushering in a month-long cycle of sex appeal. Since Venus is the planet of sensuality and love, single Sagittarians should take advantage of this transit if looking for a relationship. This transit will not return until October. The 4th quarter moon occurs in Libra at 7:57 p.m. on Friday, the 27th.

Lesbian and gay Texans couldn't have asked for a better aspect than the one between the Moon and Venus that occurs early in the wee hours of the first day of 1992. This aspect favors Taurus, Cancer and Libra. It also blesses any party, puts more life into sex and gives romantic encounters a boost. New Year's Eve begins with a blase feeling, with the Moon in between signs early Tuesday morning, but by Wednesday morning plans are back on track. You'll end up where you intended to go, but you might have to take a few detours to get there. This week's STARSCOPE combines advice for the New Year as well as this week.

happily. Best days: Friday and Saturday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) For Sagittarius all systems are go, although the emphasis for 1992 is more on finances than on romance. Watch for trickery in people who would be too happy to help you spend your money. Sometimes you are too naive; don't let this kill your optimism. Be with friends this weekend, but on Saturday watch out for someone whose schemes are impractical. You may think you're in love with someone you barely know and vice versa. Keep a clear head. On New Year's Eve, you're the center of attention. Best days: Wednesday and Thursday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) 1992 will be an excellent year for you. Be patient with yourself and others. You feel a sense of relief that 1991 is over as Saturn moved out of your sun sign last year after a 26-month stay. Some effects are still being felt, but will subside by early January. '92 will strengthen your already keen self-discipline. This week you have a tendency to scatter your energies too thinly. Best day: Friday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) You may feel that others are not doing their fair share of work this year. This is a practical year for you, but not without its share of good times. Make a New Year's budget and stick to it. Aquarians are great rationalizers, so don't waver on money issues. A perfect year for a lasting relationship. If already with someone, your love grows deeper. Have faith in yourself career-wise; you're doing better than you feel you are. This weekend someone exceeds expectations. The new year begins

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) This year brings the unexpected. There is a strong desire to change things overnight, but remember that change strictly for the sake of change only worsens the situation. Don't allow others to push you into a relationship. Much harmony with loved ones, but you still feel trapped. This week, self-analysis keeps you balanced. New Year's finds you with a person unfamiliar to you or from a very different background. Make plans to meet with a platonic co-worker for the evening of the last day of the year. Best day: Monday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) Domesticity is up- permost in your mind this year. You make a lot of changes in friendship this year. An unusual person will come into your life and stay awhile. You may seek a job or location change early this year. This weekend be more approachable; let people come to you. This is difficult for Aries. In April, a special person becomes infatuated with you. On New Year's day be creative; take a drive off the beaten path. Best days: Friday, Monday and Thursday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) '92 begins with you finding yourself interested in a longtime friend, someone you never thought of as a potential lover. This coming month, the stubborn Taurean streak will become apparent beginning on the 9th and lasting until late February. Compromise and negotiation should be a priority. This weekend the urge to buy something you can't afford is overwhelming. Yet inhibitions from the past fall away now. Best day: Wednesday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Be more assertive this year at work and pleasure. You've let other people take credit too long. Do closet cleaning emotionally; wrap up old business. Avoid dwelling in memories. A fresh heart wound heals quickly. This weekend promises deeper understanding between lovers. Enjoy this weekend with neighbors. Relatives are more liberal, so talk to family. On Saturday and Sunday, be careful of smooth talkers and con men due to an aspect between Mercury and Jupiter. Best days: Friday and Monday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) What a great year to accomplish and work toward all of your goals, whether they be financial, marital or others. Ambitions can be realized with a moderate amount of effort on your part. Start any new self-improvement programs soon. If you felt you got the short end of the stick last year, this year will more than make up for it. Spend this weekend close to home. Any entertaining done will surpass expectations. On New Year's, lovers are extra demonstrative. Insights are gained through children. Best days: Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) What you have worked on this past year is coming to fruition so enjoy it, instead of worrying if everything will continue to go all right. A more prosperous year. You can let up some and not work so hard. Less self-indulgent than last year, but work on giving others compliments as this is difficult for you. Snap decisions cause a backlash this weekend. New Year's Eve and day, enjoyable and funny situations happen. Best days: Friday, Wednesday and Thursday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) A tendency to gain weight easily this year as Jupiter moves through your solar first house, which improves your appearance, health and self-image. A banner year for anything new, including partners. This weekend, agreements made concerning money can meet with difficulties. Avoid lending money. Even if you get it back, it won't be as much or on time. New Year's festivities can be even more festive spent with old friends. On Saturday, a strained conversation with someone close. Keep anger in check. Best day: Monday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Marriage is more agreeable this time than last. Business and/or love relationships are highly favored in 1992. If with a lover currently, spend more time together; maybe putting together a small business could benefit and cement your relationship. If in business with a friend, take care not to shrug off a partner's suggestion. The same goes for co-workers. This weekend get into a group. You'll be popular and people will seek you out to have a good time. New Year's Eve promises to be just as great, but watch money closely as it is easily lost. Best days: Friday, Saturday and Wednesday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Inwardly, you are in the middle of a cycle in which you are up and down. Many gains have been made, but some of the losses have made you feel that working isn't worth it. April will bring you happiness and get you back on your feet again. After a false start, romance gets better than ever. This weekend you may feel like being alone and left alone. The solitude brings answers to some of the questions of the last 12 months. But you will more than make up for this weekend's solitude on New Year's when you feel appreciated by those most important to you. Best days: Sunday and Monday.

COMING NEXT WEEK: The Quadrantid meteor shower. Also, how to impress a Capricorn and how Capricorns can impress others.

BACKSTAGE By JAZZ PAZ

A recent Gallup study indicates that three-quarters of the American people still believe that more than one person was responsible for John F. Kennedy's assassination. Many people also believe the worst about us gay and lesbian citizens who raise good children, go to work every day, meetings every night and go to church. The movie JFK is out to reinforce the public's worst fears about both the assassination and "queers" by portraying one character who was out, well known and respected as a smarmy, despicable pedophile. THIS WEEK IN TEXAS will not review JFK.

You may have heard the soon-to-be hit single "Everybody Else" by singer/songwriter Christian Andreason, performed at benefits in Texas clubs this month. Andreason wrote it after one of his friends died of AIDS unattended and rejected. The song is intended to educate people about the victimization PWAs and their caretakers and friends suffer, explaining that people affected by AIDS are "just like everybody else" in their need for friendship and understanding. You can order a recording of "Everybody Else" by calling (713)723-2045. Proceeds will support the nonprofit Project Everybody Else, which will distribute the money to Texas AIDS agencies.

The Lesbian and Gay Public Awareness Project's ads have appeared across the nation in a variety of publications in the last five years, but this issue of People magazine (the year-end 1991 issue) marks the first ad one purchased in a national publication. Appearing in ten major metropolitan areas (including Dallas/Fort Worth), it will be seen by 1.7 million people. Look for it!

The most fun you can have in a Dallas Theatre is Pocket Sandwich Theatre, 5400 E. Mockingbird Lane, where, for $40 admission, you'll ring in the new year with the opening of Jack the Ripper—The Monster of Whitechapel, silly hats, food and beverages, and noisemakers at midnight. What more could you want? Tax and tip are included; all tickets must be prepaid. Call (214)821-1860.

Tonight (December 27) and tomorrow see Fine Arts, a two-act musical extravaganza featuring Howard and the Fine Sisters (fine!) at 8 p.m. $10. Reservations recommended. Pocket Sandwich Theatre. (214)821-1860.

One more time: The Pocket Sandwich Theatre, Sunday night (December 29), 7 p.m. The Dixie Chicks, Dallas' own cowgirl band, in concert, $10. (214)821-1860.

The Dallas Bach Society is celebrating New Year's Eve by presenting two complete performances (at 8 p.m. and 10 p.m.) at St. Thomas Aquinas Church, 6306 Kenwood Avenue at Abrams Road. Tickets are $20 reserved (available in advance only) and $15 general admission. Call Paul Harry Hunsacker, world-famous detective and aspiring actor, returns to Pegasus Theatre in A Trifle Dead (what a way to start a new year!) on December 31 at 8:30 p.m. This special performance is $32.50 and includes the show, party favors, champagne and a light buffet. It's presented in "living black and white" with everything on the stage rendered in shades running from black to white. The effect is like watching an old movie. Tickets are available for shows other than New Year's through Rainbow Ticketmaster, or through Pegasus Theatre (for all shows, including New Year's). (214)821-6005.

It's also New Year's Eve in Houston, and Miss Camp America is ringing it in Tuesday night at 9 p.m. at the Bayou Terrace, 711 Franklin, with a lavish buffet, four complimentary cocktails and champagne. There will be T-Dancin' to the hottest music of the decade, and the $35 admission at the door all goes to The Cause. Enjoy!

Some of us will identify with Murray Burns, who must choose between his "unconventional lifestyle" and the custody of the kids he is raising in A Thousand Clowns, at the Actors Theatre of Houston. Tonight (December 27) at 8 p.m., $12; Saturday at 8 p.m., $15; Sunday at 4 p.m., $10, with discounts for seniors, students and groups. A special New Year's Eve performance is scheduled for 9 p.m. Tuesday. $20 includes champagne and brunch. (713) 529-6606.

There's a New Year's Eve production of Smoke on the Mountain at Stages. Its 1938 Appalachian despair gives way to spirit-filled joy as Pastor Oglethorpe prevails on the retired gospel-singing Sanders family, and the audience, to help save Mount Pleasant Baptist Church. It will put a song in your heart. (713)527-0240 or 52-STAGE.

It's a conspiracy, all right, to get all the Scrooges happy. The Santa Conspiracy is at Curtains Theater through January 11, on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. Thursdays, $7, Fridays and Saturdays $8. 3722 Washington Avenue. (713)862-4548.

The Kuumba House hosts an Art Bash tomorrow (December 28) at 9 p.m. to celebrate Ujima (collective work and responsibility), the third principle of Kwanzaa. The evening will be filled with great jazz, excellent art and authentic African cuisine. The $5 donation will benefit the Kuumba Kids Program. 1417 Holman, near La Branch. (713)524-1079.

Austin's all a-twitter over Barry Pineo's new apocalyptic comedy, Future Mix. Combining comedy with science fiction sounds like serious business, but it's hilarious! Tonight (December 27) and tomorrow at 8 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m. $8, students $6. Vortex Performance Cafe, 1921 E. Ben White Blvd. (512)448-2299.

Also at the Vortex, through January 4, and complete with nudity, Jerker, Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. $8, students $6. If you miss it, don't admit it. (512) 448-2299.

The Sam Bass Theatre is conducting auditions for Don Rausch's comedy, Nuts, Bolts and Carnations, on January 4 from 2-4 p.m. and January 5 from 7-9 p.m. Needed are two women 20s to 30s, one woman 40-50, a male 20-30 and one 40-50. Performances are February 14 through 29. Call (512)224-0440.

Jump-Start Performance Company is closing their season with Trade/Winds, writer/performer Debra Medows' tour de force about female rites of passage, tonight (December 27) and tomorrow at 1035 S. Alamo in San Antonio. A music, dance and poetry performance work by a native daughter (who now lives in Atlanta). 8 p.m. $7, $5 students. Call (512)227-JUMP.

The Carver in San Antonio is offering ceramics classes in January for all ages and levels of expertise. $20-25. Call the Carver Community Cultural Center at (512) 225-6516 or 299-7211.

It's coming to Fort Worth! The national tour of Ziegfeld: A Night at the Follies, the musical extravaganza that opens at the Tarrant County Convention Center January 7 and runs through the 12th. Tickets run from $15-32.50 and are available through the box office of Casa Manana Theatre, (817)332-CASA and Rainbow-Ticketmaster outlets. Boasting pure glitz, the elegance, opulence, panache and fun that characterized Ziegfeld, A Night at the Follies is a 32-song show featuring the best of this tradition. See it!

And if you are still not in the Christmas spirit, go see THE CHRISTMAS movie STAR, by Connie Whitt-Lambert, at Circle Theatre, 1227 W. Magnolia Ave. #520 in Fort Worth. You'll learn, as does a former silent movie queen, the true meaning of Christmas. Tonight (December 27), tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. and New Year's Eve at 7 p.m. $14, kids under 12 half price.

Feliz ano nuevo.

A LOOK AT TEXAS SPORTS IN 1991

The past year was another busy one for gay and lesbian sports enthusiasts across Texas. Between annual tournaments, regular sports league seasons, the Gay Rodeo, the North American Gay and Lesbian Bodybuilding Championships and preparations for IGBO, Texans participated in a wide range of sporting events. On these two pages we present a collage representing some of these events.

TWT SPORTS wishes sports devotees and their supporters a happy and prosperous new year in 1992.

OBITUARIES

Gemini 1959 - 12/4/91

What lips my lips have kissed, and where, and why,
I have forgotten, and what arms have lain
Under my head till morning; but the rain
Is full of ghosts tonight, that tap and sigh
Upon glass and listen for reply,
And in my heart there stirs a quiet pain
For unremembered lads that not again
Will turn to me at midnight with a cry.
Thus in the winter stands the lonely tree,
Nor knows what birds have vanished one by one,
Yet knows its boughs more silent than before:
I cannot say what loves have come and gone,
I only know that summer sang in me
A little while, that sings in me no more.

Edna St. Vincent Millay

Mike Watson

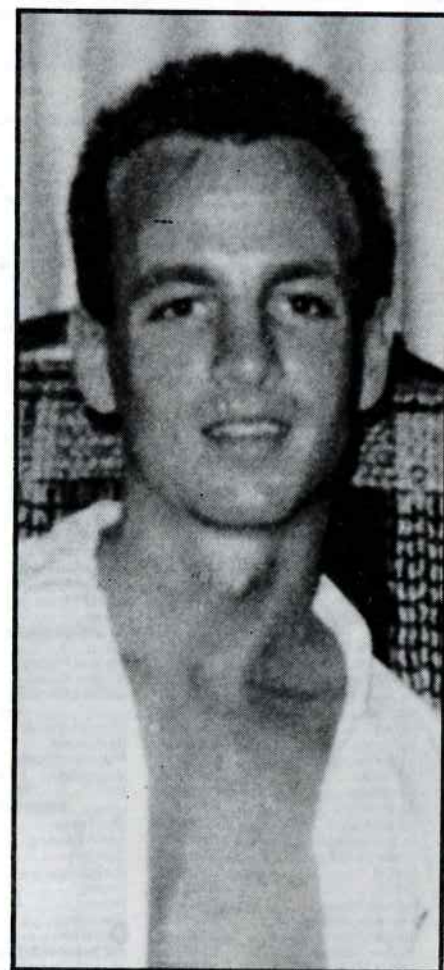

August 22, 1961 - December 8, 1991

Mike, formerly of Dallas, passed away peacefully of AIDS on Sunday, December 8, 1991. He was well known in Dallas as he used to be a fitness instructor at the Club Body Center and Fitness Exchange.

Mike, we will miss your presence, but will remember you always.

Mike is survived by his mother of St. Louis, Missouri, and special friends in Dallas, Doug Prejean and John Kirk.

Memorials may be sent to AIDS Resource Center, P.O. Box 190712, Dallas, Texas 75219.

January 26, 1956 - November 19, 1991

My love for you will never diminish, my heart will always hold you close, my mind will never forget. God be with us Joe, together and apart.

Your partner and friend Tim Taylor

It is my pleasure to live, my glory to die. But never my hunger to ask Christ why. When I know I'll see Him face to face. Why should I want to slow death's face?

For I will see Christ's glory.
In the air I will see thousands of angels
Welcoming me to the throne of grace,
To the heavenly embrace!

I will see Christ's glory shed for me.

—Joe Parker
