HIGHLIGHT

HOUSTONIANS TO WALK, RUN AND ROLL FOR AIDS ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Hoping for good weather and an enthusiastic response by diverse segments of the community, organizers of AIDS Foundation Houston's "From All Walks of Life" Walk-Run-and-Roll-athon have been working hard to make this year's event a success. The sixth annual fund-raiser is set for Sunday, November 6 in Tranquility Park, at the corner of Walker and Bagby in downtown Houston.

Participants may take part individually or in groups, and prizes will be awarded for those raising the most money. There will be a 5K Run as well as a 10K Walk and Roll.

From All Walks of Life not only helps fund the services AFH provides to those with HIV in the Houston area, but is designed to increase community awareness and encourage a broad-based response to the epidemic.

AFH, which currently has nearly 2,000 clients with HIV/AIDS, provides direct services in the form of food assistance (Stone Soup), permanent and temporary low-income housing, case management, transportation, and rental and utility assistance. In addition, the AFH Education Department reaches thousands of people each year with HIV/AIDS awareness programs, and the Foundation's Hotline handles in excess of 9,000 calls each year. Volunteers play a key role in AFH programs, providing over 21,000 direct client service hours each year.

Serving as honorary chairpersons for From All Walks of Life this year are Susan Starnes of KHOU Channel 11, Naomi Grabel of Dancie Perugini Ware and Dr. Adan Rios, M.D. of OnCol Medical Associates, P.A. Benefactors include Dr. Gary Brewton, M.D., Dr. Gordon M. Crofoot, M.D. and Dr. Jorge Quesada, M.D., all of Oncol Medical Associates, P.A.; an anonymous volunteer with AFH; Twelve Oaks Hospital; and Star Furniture.

Also signing on as Benefactors are 104 KRBE; Network Fax, Inc.; The Great Tastes of Houston (an annual event which is being held this year on November 4-6); the Hollyfield Foundation; and the Westheimer Art Festival/Westheimer Colony Association. Diane Butler Associates are serving as Underwriters, while Sponsors include Omni Hotel Houston, the Westin Oaks Hotel and Houston Lighting & Power. Texas Commerce Bank has signed on as a Supporter.

Registration and premium pick-up begin at 8 a.m. (registration fee is $15), with opening ceremonies to follow at 9. The 5K run starts at 9:30, with the 10K Walk and Roll beginning at 10. An awards ceremony will follow at 11 a.m. on the site of The Great Tastes of Houston, City Hall Plaza and Sam Houston Park. Participants who raise at least $75 will receive an official From All Walks of Life 1994 T-shirt, while those who raise at least $150 will get an event sweatshirt.

Pledge sheets are available through KRBE 104, KXJT 108 SuperTejano, Al's Formal Wear, SuperCuts, The Body Shop, Oshman's Sporting Goods, Bridal Warehouse and Bride 'n Formal. For more information, or to register, call (713)626-WALK.

RADIOLAND MURDERS

Fast Pace, Energetic Slapstick Make George Lucas Comedy Enjoyable

Robert Klein, Anne DeSalvo, Peter MacNicol, Harvey Korman and Bobcat Goldthwaite are overworked, underpaid writers struggling with rewrites in Radioland Murders.

The latest offering from writer/director George Lucas proves that if Steven Spielberg is Hollywood's child-trapped-in-a-man's-body, then Lucas is Tinseltown's adolescent-trapped-in-a-man's-body. Radioland Murders harkens back to an age of cinema that has generally been forgotten, that of slapstick comedy. One of the most enjoyable aspects of renting classic Hollywood movies is watching the great actors becoming great. Lucas remembers this and takes advantage of it. The formula consists in placing a few good performers in front of a camera and letting them do what they do best—perform. When done well, it still works wonderfully.

The film opens with Lucas' typical, manic 90-mile-an-hour pace, and rarely slows down. If you're looking for heavy drama, thought-provoking intellectualism or even a sturdy plot, don't bother with Radioland Murders. If you want funny and amusing, stay tuned.

A murder mystery is the vehicle that carries our two main characters, Roger and Penny Henderson, but it's really secondary to the relationship between these two characters. In the classic Spencer Tracy/Katharine Hepburn tradition, Roger and Penny fight, they work and they love. Brian Benben plays Roger to the maximum, goofy and cute. (And if you've seen him on HBO's Dream On, you've seen this character.) You can't help but find him endearing. As writer for WBN radio-turned prime murder suspect, Benben takes full advantage of the facial expressions and physical comedy that have made him worth watching on Dream On. Playing opposite Benben as Penny is Mary Stuart Masterson, assistant to the director of WBN-turned sleuth. The two leads work well together, playing off the adrenaline-pumped crazy man and his calm but easily inflamed estranged wife. Yes, we've seen this before (anyone thinking of His Girl Friday?), but everyone involved manages to make this tired plot seem a little fresher. Remember—watch and laugh; don't think.

Brian Benben and Mary Stuart Masterson are Roger and Penny Henderson, a couple with a troubled marriage who find themselves trying to solve a series of ingenious homicides in Radioland Murders*.*

Radioland Murders provides a plethora of cameos by familiar faces and even some serious, big-name stars. It's rather fun spotting them bouncing between the scenery and popping up every five minutes. Christopher Lloyd (of Taxi, Back to the Future and The Addams Family fame) provides many laughs as sound engineer Zoltan. Zoltan doesn't speak one word, but creates sounds for WBN's various shows in some unusual yet hilarious ways. This movie's strength comes from its large and talented supporting cast. Characters continually appear and disappear throughout, leaving the audience feeling a little bewildered but laughing all the way.

Lucas uses his cinematographer very well. Everybody in Radioland Murders is running from someone or to somewhere, and we go right along with them. Halfway through the film, this reviewer got the urge to stop and catch his breath. The director also uses grand, sweeping shots that leave us amazed at the new technological developments in cinematography.

Lucas has established himself as a director who could take a simplistic story and stretch it out into a broad, entertaining epic. From Star Wars to the Indiana Jones series, his keen eye for heroes, heroines and villains hits the mark time after time. If you can appreciate a dose of slapstick and a few good performances, or if taking a couple of hours away from the thinking process seems enjoyable, then Radioland Murders might be for you. Besides, you never know who you might see.

INTERVIEW

BY SUSAN McDONALD

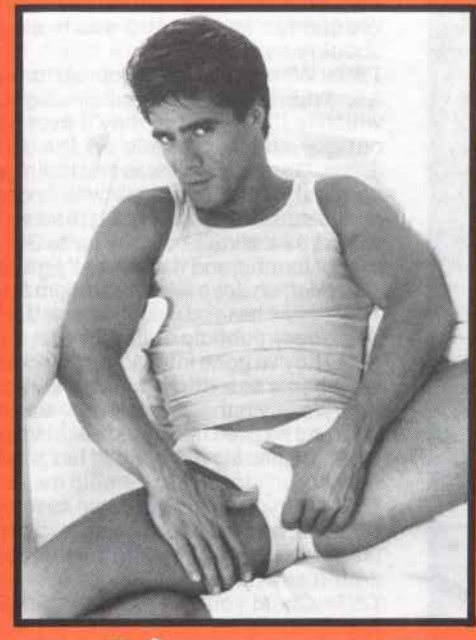

FUNNY BOY NEXT DOOR BOB SMITH GOES SOLO

Up And Coming Comic Performs in San Antonio on Halloween

"Audience-friendly" comic Bob Smith is a man of all medias—star of his own HBO special; veteran of clubs, theatres, radio, film and television; "comic pioneer" with Funny Gay Males; and co-author of a soon-to-be-published book called Growing Up Gay. Smith talked with TWT correspondent Susan McDonald from his home in New York.

TWT: Is this your first appearance in Texas?
Bob Smith: Yes, it is. I just show up at cities and hope someone will take me somewhere!
TWT: How did you get your start in stand-up comedy?
BS: I started at a jazz club in Buffalo, New York after high school. They had a comedy night on Tuesdays...I did about four minutes and got laughs...and then they used me every week. I kept writing jokes and moved to New York City. I started performing in straight comedy clubs, and a friend told me I should talk about being gay, and it worked really well, so I've always done it.
TWT: Were you the "class clown" in school?
BS: No, I was the class mime; it was really embarrassing! That's the loser version of the class clown! No, I was funny. I wrote skits in high school for variety shows, and that's really how I got started writing comedy. They were really popular, and the captain of the football team and the cheerleaders would ask to be in my skits, so every year the skits got bigger.
TWT: Were you out in high school?
BS: No, but my high school did have a Head Start program for homosexuals called the drama club!
TWT: Are you still performing as part of Funny Gay Males with Jaffe Cohen and Danny McWilliams? How did that trio come about?
BS: I am once in a while, but most I'm performing by myself. Funny Gay Males are actually finishing up a book called Growing Up Gay, which will be published by Hyperion, which is owned by Walt Disney. It will be a humorous book for adults on growing up gay. We all knew each other from comedy clubs in New York like Comedy U and Comic Strip and the Duplex. We put together a show, but didn't have a name, so we just called it "Funny Gay Males." It was like a mock of the personal ads. We were only going to do it for two weekends, but we got a really great review right away, which is very unusual, so we were booked again the next month. It turned into every weekend and the Village Voice wrote a really nice article about us. We performed there from 1989 to 1991.
TWT: Your comedy persona has been described as that of an "amiable, boy-next-door type who just happens to be gay." Is that rooted in your own personality, or is it a mask you put on when you step on stage?
BS: My act and the way I tell a joke or think about things is pretty much me. For instance, in college I experimented with heterosexuality. I slept with a straight guy—I was really drunk!
TWT: I understand you covered the Gay Games for radio "shock jock" Howard Stern. What was that all about?
BS: Howard said he wanted someone to cover the Gay Games on the radio show. I had already taped my HBO special, which would be coming out in July, and they wanted me to publicize it, and Funny Gay Males had already been on his show about four times, so they called up and asked us to cover the Games. I didn't want it to be mocked out, and they didn't have any specific ideas on what to do, so I suggested that I bring out some of the athletes. There was like a lesbian grandmother who was a wrestler, which I thought was hilarious. We had fun and Howard was really great about it.

TWT: Where else have you performed?

BS: This summer I went on Jay Leno, which is the first time they'd ever had an out gay stand-up comic on the Tonight Show. Garth Brooks was the main guest, so most of the audience was a country music audience, and I got a little worried when I saw all the cowboy hats. But I got a lot of laughs, and it went really great. I've also been on Joan Rivers and Tom Snyder.

TWT: How has your family reacted to your being very publicly out?

BS: They've gone into hiding and changed their name to a different Smith—no relation. No, my father is a retired state policeman and he even had friends of his tape my HBO special. My mother told her friends to watch....

TWT: Do you write your own material?

BS: Yes, and we've been very busy writing the book. We're handing in the second draft next week.

TWT: Could you talk a little about Growing Up Gay?

BS: We have a gay kid's guide to TV—like we look at TV shows in a funny/serious way. Like Bewitched—we all liked that show, and we look at that show and think that it's really about a woman who's in the closet. She can't come out about having her powers. We also talk about high school dating and silly stuff like gay "Ripley's Believe It Or Not." We talk about playing Monopoly, and I have a joke that we use in the book about how gay kids would always lose at Monopoly because they'd buy one house and use all their money fixing it up! It's like looking at Pop Culture from a gay person's point of view.

TWT: And you'll be working on a screenplay about a gay stand-up comic based on Paul Monette's book Halfway Home?

BS: Yes, it's for Steven Spielberg's company, Amblin Entertainment.

TWT: Do you have a partner? How does he feel about your career?

BS: Yes, I've been in a relationship for about five years. He's been very supportive and is totally honest. I'm always asking him, "Is this funny?" He'll either say it sucks, or really laugh and say it's good.

TWT: You've studied acting in New York and Los Angeles. Are you moving toward a career in that area?

BS: Writer/director Pat Proft, who did Naked Gun and Hot Shots Part Deux, saw my HBO special this year and wants to do a gay sitcom. We're still developing the plot, but it would basically be about a gay man living in Middle America working a regular job. It would be a very funny situation.

TWT: Are there any comedians, gay or straight, who have inspired you or whom you especially admire?

BS: I grew up listening to everyone from George Carlin, Woody Allen and Lily Tomlin. You know, the really smart funny ones. My friends have inspired me, too. My comedian friends Judy Gold and Margaret Cho are really funny. And Danny and Jaffe are really great.

TWT: Stand-up comedy can really be tough. Have you ever had a problem with the audience?

BS: Sure, but you try to overcome it. All audiences are difference. I've totally guessed wrong when I hear the audience backstage and think they really have a lot of energy, and they don't. What I always think is, you're not as good as your very best show but not as bad as your worst show....

TWT: What do you do to psyche yourself before performing?

BS: I always try to be rested and ready and go out there with a lot of energy.

TWT: Where do you see yourself in the next few years?

BS: Writing a book or doing a movie...I do have some ideas for movies. I can see myself doing sitcoms and I even feel like there's some things to learn in doing stand-up comedy. It's a good job.

TWT: Any last comments?

BS: Yes. I think all the world's problems could be solved if everyone would just follow my personal belief: Never criticize a drag queen until you walked a mile in his shoes. That's my credo.

Bob Smith makes his Texas debut at the Rivercenter Comedy Club in San Antonio this Halloween night at 7:30 and 10 p.m. Partial proceeds benefit the San Antonio AIDS Foundation, and costumes are encouraged.

A HALLOWEEN FANTASY

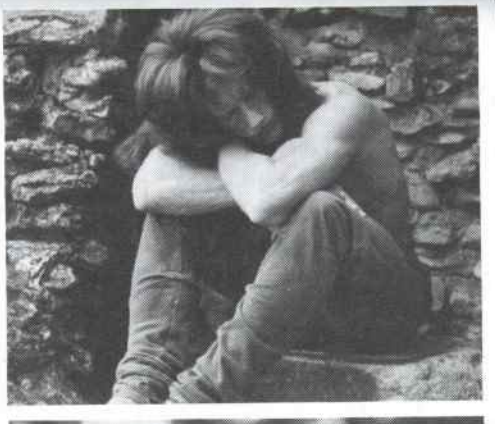

Mystery and romance come together to create this week's Halloween fantasy cover feature. The classic tale of The Beast is a familiar one to our community. The story of an outcast shunned just because he is different parallels the lives of many gay men and lesbians in Texas. But through courage and self-confidence, he finds love and acceptance.

This Halloween, at all of the parties and in all of the clubs across the Lone Star State, we hope that you meet a mysterious stranger and that behind the makeup and mask is that special someone just for you.

LITTLE TOUCHES MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE

We began as a retail pharmacy in the Hillcrest community of San Diego when there were no FDA approved medications for HIV/AIDS.

When prescription drugs became available, we were the first to serve the community. This pioneering experience has made us understand the importance of little touches. Hands-on services that mean a great deal to you.

Now that we're a national mail-order pharmacy, we haven't forgotten what we learned. You told us you wanted help - to cut down your hassles and watch out for your interests. So, that's what we do. You simply call and give us your physician's name. Then you get on with life, while we touch all the bases.

First, we get your prescriptions and refills from your doctor. Then, we verify your insurance coverage, handle all the billing paperwork, and deliver your prescriptions to your door overnight.

We help you get the maximum benefits you deserve - including many you may not even know about. We help you guard against side effects and drug interactions by monitoring your prescriptions and advising your physician.

PRIORITY PHARMACY

If these little touches make a big difference to you, call 1-800-487-7115. You'll find that Priority Pharmacy understands and cares.

Support Dallas Judge Denounced by GOP Official

Dear TWT:

Last year Gov. Richards appointed Judge Paula Larsen to the 303rd Family District Court. Judge Larsen's previous judicial experience as an associate judge made her uniquely qualified for that appointment. Judge Larsen has earned the respect and approval of her legal peers by receiving an astonishing overall approval rating of 92%.

Unfortunately, judicial races receive little attention in the media. The impact of judicial elections makes it critical that citizen networks be formed to insure the integrity of our judicial offices. Judge Larsen deserves the support of Democrats, Republicans and independents alike.

Recently, Judge Larsen was unfairly attacked by an official of the Republican Party of Texas who promotes the unchristian Christian Coalition agenda. I have enclosed a copy of the unjustified written assault precipitated by a representative of the Republican Party of Texas. [See letter below] The letter is filled with lies and innuendos.

Judge Paula Larsen's extensive judicial experience, her impartial demeanor on the bench and her caring role as a founding board member of Bryan's House, a community-based nonprofit that provides respite care for children affected by AIDS/HIV disease, all qualify her as an outstanding Family Court Judge.

The Texas Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits a judicial candidate from making "statements that indicate an opinion on any issue that may be subject to judicial interpretation by the office which is being sought...." [Cannon 7(1)]. Judge Larsen's opponent has declared his agenda. Partisan agendas should have no place in judicial races.

Please take a moment and read about Judge Paula Larsen and her unique qualifications as a Family District Judge. We need competent judges who will apply the law with integrity, impartiality and compassion.

Don Maison
Attorney at Law
Dallas, TX

Now more than ever before in history every one of us has to take a personal responsibility of seeing that the right men and women are elected to all offices.

Last year Governor Ann Richards, another Bill Clinton Democrat, appointed liberal activist Paula Larsen as judge of the 303rd Family District Court. A Jim Mattox portage [sic] with no prior judicial experience, Ms. Larsen now has control of decisions affecting families across Dallas County. This court can issue court orderd [sic] restraining orders to women who seek abortions, recognize same sex marriages and award custody of children to same sex couples. On Tuesday, November 8, we need to put an end to judicial incompetence in Paula Larsen. Replace this judge with a judge who truly cares about Texas families.

I recommend to you Judge Richard Johnson, a scholar with a demonstrated knowledge of the law, a caring jurist of unquestioned integrity and a lifetime of concern for the traditional family. We need his wisdom, dedication and family law expertise on this important bench.

The traditional family is the foundation of our country, therefore we need a judge in this position that holds to strong family values and ethics. I can't urge you enough to mobilize the voters in your precincts to vote for Judge Richard Johnson in the November elections for judge in the 303rd Family District Court.

Houston Judge Deserves Gay Votes

Dear TWT:

In making its endorsements, the [Houston Gay & Lesbian Political] Caucus overlooked a fine and well-qualified judge who has shown great sensitivity on issues important to the gay and lesbian community. Judge Carolyn Johnson deserves much credit for her sensitivity and should be seriously considered by voters in the upcoming election.

I was one of the attorneys who represented Lawrence White in his highly publicized and successful lawsuit against a care provider here in Houston. The jury found that the defendant had wrongfully taken property from and abused the trust placed in her by Lawrence, who was suffering from AIDS-related illnesses. Judge Carolyn Johnson was the judge who initially issued orders to freeze assets and expedite the discovery of information to develop Lawrence's case. The orders granted by Judge Johnson were not commonplace and are frequently denied by courts. However, she recognized the seriousness and urgency of the situation, which helped facilitate the expected progress of his lawsuit, enabling Lawrence to achieve a victory while he was still alive.

For these reasons, as well as her other qualifications, I believe Judge Johnson to be a fine judge whose record shows she should be reelected.

BACKSTAGE

The regulars at the Stonewall Inn thought it was just another day at their Greenwich Village club. But Judy Garland's funeral was held that day, and when the cops staged another of their countless raids on the little gay bar, some of the patrons decided they'd had enough and weren't going to take it anymore. Houston's The Company We Keep presents the Southwest premiere of Thomas O'Neil's Judy at the Stonewall Inn, which looks at that fateful day in 1969 when gay people threw away that "wounded look" and began to fight back. Shows are at Stages, 3201 Allen Parkway, Fridays and Saturdays, October 28–November 12, at 8 p.m., as well as Sunday, November 13 at 5 p.m. and Monday, November 14 at 8 p.m. This evening and tomorrow (October 28 and 29), performances will be followed by post-curtain receptions with playwright/Emmy Award winner O'Neil and the cast. For tickets ($12–$22), call (713)523-9000.

Beginning November 3, Houston performer John Jonns presents "Divine... Portrait of a Sex Goddess," billed as a work in progress that will paint "as vivid a picture as one can" of the legendary cult icon created by the late Glenn Milstead. Shows are Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays through November 19 at the Houston Skyline Theater, 1617 Fannin. For reservations, call (713)759-0701. This show contains graphic content which may offend some audience members.

Goat Song Productions holds read-from-the-script auditions for Gary Laird's Christmas Present from 2–4 p.m. Saturday, October 29 and Sunday, October 30 at Kuumba House, 3414 LaBranch. Needed are three men 25–35, and one man 20–25 (dancer's build) who will play a male stripper. Actors will be paid. For more information, call (713)525-5960.

The next production of Dallas' Theatre Three is The Frogs, a musical comedy based on the writings of Aristophanes, written by Stephen Sondheim and Burt Shrevelove. The plot centers around Dionysus' journey to Hades, where he tries to obtain the release of George Bernard Shaw so that the desperate state of the theatre on Earth may be alleviated. The play runs October 29–November 27, with performances scheduled Tuesday–Saturday evenings at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday evenings at 7:30 p.m. Matinee performances are Saturdays and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. Tickets ($11–$23) can be purchased by calling the box office at (214)871-3300.

The International Theatrical Arts Society [TITAS] brings the British sensation "Stomp" to Dallas November 3–5. "Stomp" is a unique 90-minute industrial garbage jam during which eight performers employ trash cans, brooms, cigarette lighters and other assorted junk to create a "scintillating sweep of syncopation." Shows are at 8 p.m. at McFarlin Auditorium at Southern Methodist University. Tickets ($7–$40) are available by calling (214)528-5576.

Kitchen Dog Theater kicks off its fifth season with Zastrozzi by Canadian playwright George F. Walker. This piece examines the nature and is filled with sword-wielding murderers, religious fanatics and even a leather-clad dominatrix. Shows are Wednesdays–Saturdays at 8 p.m. at McKinney Ave. Contemporary arts space, 3120 McKinney, through November 26. For tickets ($6–$12), call (214)520-ARTS.

Jump-Start Performance Co. in San Antonio presents "My Queer Body," a new show by renowned gay performance artist and right-wing political football Tim Miller. Says Miller of his new show, "If you listen carefully, your lips remember your first kiss and your first loss. Queer places have their history in flesh and blood and breath and spirit." "My Queer Body" contains nudity and adult language. Shows are at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, November 4 and 5 at the Jump-Start Theatre, 108 Blue Star. Tickets are $8 and $10. For reservations, call (210)227-JUMP.

STARSCOPE

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

WEEK OF
October 28 - November 3, 1994

TEXAN DALE EVANS
BORN IN UVALDE, ON HALLOWEEN
OCTOBER 31, 1912

Let us examine November in its entirety this week. The Rainbow turns autumnal as the month positions us for the upcoming holiday season. It can begin with a passionate kick in the patoot as the Sun enters Scorpio (let's heat up the scene at election time, kids) and conclude with a gleeful, in-your-face display with the Sun in zestful Sagittarius. All signs will undergo a change of perspective as the planets heat up new areas of our lives. Read ahead to get a clue....

SCORPIO: (October 24 - November 22) Scorpios can not only light up the center stage this month, but can set it on fire. There's every indication that the time has come for you to demand your rightful place in the world and in the corporate arena. Yes, it's transformation and assumption time, so plan your course carefully and strategically in true scorpion fashion. Meet, greet and succeed!

SAGITTARIUS: (November 23 - December 21) Itchy feet? You may be tempted to travel and seek unexplored vistas. Gain new perspectives on life by either packing your bags and getting out of town or volunteering your services for a gay cause or two... or three. (Sagitts have unbounded energy when they are motivated.) Intuitively, you know which activity will provide you with that special surge.

CAPRICORN: (December 23 - January 20) Friends are there when you need them and need them you might. You are also able to lend support to a pal in trouble. Strength is derived through large social groups and organizations, so it's wise to get involved. Although it may appear that you can't seem to say the right thing at the right time, they do say that actions speak louder than words. Do it!

AQUARIUS: (January 21 - February 19) It is possible to cash in on career aspirations now. The planets indicate that lucky opportunities will come your professional way and a whole new adjustment is possible. Is it that you're finally dancing to the rhythm of corporate politics? Not bloody likely, with that independent, spit-into-the-wind attitude! It's just that you now have an opportunity to grab onto a shooting star.

PISCES: (February 20 - March 20) You continue to suffer from a lack of self-confidence, but you must realize that it's all in your mind. If you feel undereducated, enroll in a class. If you feel stifled, travel out to open spaces. Don't encourage the gremlins with sad-sack thoughts. Give yourself a break and fulfill your dreams. There's nothing like a personal victory to drive away the blues.

ARIES: (March 21 - April 20) Activity is centered on self-discovery and psychological breakthroughs. Are you living up to your true potential? Are you living your life true to yourself? If the answer is "no," or even a qualified or wavering "maybe," you can do what needs to be done to correct your journey. Let's just say the planets have handed you a roadmap.

TAURUS: (April 21 - May 21) Partners are the key to your happiness and fulfillment this month. If you are in a solid relationship, you're able to feast upon its offerings. If you're searching for that special someone, you have a clearer idea of what type of individual will suit you best. Pursue all leads and give halfway hearts a push in one direction or the other.

GEMINI: (May 22 - June 21) Beneficial payoffs are imminent to all gay Twins who have faithfully placed their noses squarely to the old grindstone. The job might have required a greater effort than usual and you might have felt unappreciated and overworked, but the rewards are now there if you've put in the necessary effort and speak up for your rights and dignity.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 23) You are tempted to spend a little well-earned lucre where you'll have the most fun. This is not a bad thing if you can truly afford it. (In fact, if you've done your financial homework you will be rewarded with a little investment payout.) Watch the bottom line, but don't be afraid to have a good time!

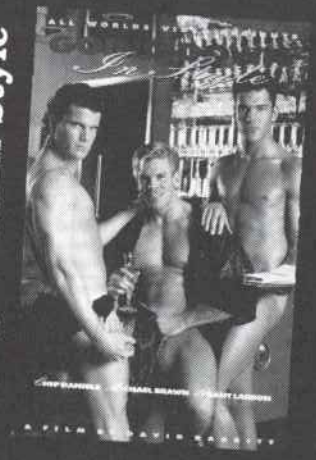

LEO: (July 24 - August 23) The limelight beckons. Will you heed the call? (Look who I'm talking to... Leo the dramatic!) This is the time to set foundations for future success and stability. It can either be achieved on sheer chutzpah, through your winning personality and sense of leadership, or it can be built through family connections and lifelong associations.

VIRGO: (August 24 - September 23) Communications become crystal clear and affirming. Give yourself a wider than average berth of comfort to say what needs to be said. You're able to sugarcoat even the most rancid of news and the most biting of commentary. Try your hand at writing—you can make a name for yourself (as well as help our community) through the literary of journalistic sphere.

LIBRA: (September 24 - October 23) Money may have been a concern in the past, but the planets seem to have given you a respite from worry. Maybe friends will come through just when you need them, or maybe you've finally developed a bit of monetary sense. Either way, you need to build on the advantage gained today in order to insure a secure and golden future.

Whistler Gay Ski Week '95

Whistler, BC — Over 2,000 gay men and lesbians are expected to converge on this Canadian ski resort next February 5 for their Annual Gay Ski Week. Home of the Whistler and Blackcomb mountains, Whistler is one of the most popular destinations for skiers in North America.

Last year's event, attended by over 1,200, was a huge success. For 1995, organizers have expanded the schedule of events and activities, which will include sleigh rides; barbecues and elegant dinner parties; mountaintop tea dances and New York-style dance parties; helicopter skiing and snowboarding.

For more information, contact Event Coordinator Brent Benaschak at (604)938-0772.

From All Walks of Life in Austin Raises Nearly $300,000

6,000 Turn Out for Event Benefiting ASA, Other HIV Service Groups.

AUSTIN — An estimated 6,000 walkers took part in the seventh annual From All Walks of Life 5-kilometer pledge walk last Sunday in Austin and raised $298,000 for AIDS Services of Austin [ASA] and 15 other HIV service providers.

"With the money from Dining for Life and Pacesetters, plus late walk money still to be collected, we hope to wind up with between $325,000 and $350,000," walk coordinator Kathy Taylor beamed. "Last year we raised $275,000 the day of the walk, and finished with $303,000 when we closed the books."

"This year's walk has gone beautifully—a beautiful day, a lot of people who care and are aware. The only thing that's a challenge is there's so much demand on the community for good causes; we have to put out a solid effort to make this a special event. It takes over 500 volunteers to put on and orchestrate this walk, and they really do a magnificent job."

One of those volunteers was Casey Magnuson of Austin's First Methodist Church, busy directing participants toward the starting area. "I've walked every year, and this year they asked my help," she said. "It's just a wonderful event, for such an important cause. After I see everything's okay with the start, I may just go ahead and walk, too."

Seventeen-year-old Jessica Rowell of Austin Crockett High School was a first-time walker, and was still brimming with enthusiasm after completing the 5K trek around downtown Austin. "I looked forward to this for two months," she explained while recovering with fellow walkers Andrea Julian and Kathy Kanges. "It meant a lot to me, the fact I could do something like this. The unity of the people here is something special. I raised $151 (in pledges); I'm really happy about that!"

Phillip Jordan was the grand prize winner of two tickets to any Delta Air Lines destination in the world after raising $4,092. For the second straight year, the top team in collecting pledges was the Central Texas Medical Center in San Marcos, whose walkers raised $3,641.

Special speakers before and after the walk included ASA clients such as Marion Winik, whose husband Tony died of AIDS in August, and grandmother Mary Moreno, who has been HIV-positive for almost 11 years. There were also words of encouragement from Judge Bill Aleshire and state Sen. Gonzalo Barrientos; Austin Mayor Bruce Todd was a last-minute no-show because of illness. Entertainment included The Cow Pattys before the walk and Susanna Sharpe and the Samba Police after, with the Metropolitan Community Church of Austin Band cheering the walkers on musically from the steps of the Capitol as the participants trekked up Congress Avenue.

"Every year it gets bigger," marveled volunteer Clifford Ueltschey as he scanned the widely diverse but mostly youthful crowd at Waterloo Park, where the walk began and ended. "This should be a banner year."

As Moreno told the crowd, "All of us need to feel love. All of us need to work together... Because of your willingness to volunteer your money and your time to help me and others with AIDS, it gives us courage to face another day. Your courage and support are among the reasons I have lived for almost 11 years with HIV. Thank you, and God bless you."

DIFFA Sets Feb. 10 For 7th Annual Jacket Fund-Raiser

Calvin Klein, Gianni Versace Among Those Who Will Contribute Designs to Benefit.

DALLAS — The seventh annual Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS [DIFFA] auction of Levi jackets designed by celebrities from across the nation will be held February 10, 1995 at the Loews Anatole Hotel.

DIFFA Dallas Executive Director Steve Burris told TWT NEWS contributors of jackets to date include Mel Gibson, the casts of Melrose Place and Married with Children and Gene Wilder. Designers Calvin Klein, Gianni Versace and Donna Karan have also signed on. A host of country performers such as Carlene Carter, Rodney Foster, Vince Gill, Hal Ketchum and Patty Loveless have all committed to designing jackets. Sports figures with the Dallas Cowboys, the Mavericks and the Stars have also expressed an interest in the fund-raiser. Other celebrities who have been contacted and will also probably contribute jackets, Burris said, are Arnold Schwarzenegger, Tom Cruise, Lily Tomlin and Bruce Springsteen.

Organizers have confirmed that actor Steve Guttenberg (Bedroom Window, Three Men and A Baby) will be attending the event, as will openly lesbian TV actress Amanda Bearse. Designer Richard Tyler will serve as Designer Chair for the benefit.

Burris told TWT NEWS that he expects the February event to net around $250,000. He added that DIFFA would limit attendance at the event to 2,000 in order to make it more manageable.

DIFFA funds grants to local organizations that support and encourage AIDS care, treatment, education, prevention and advocacy. In the six years the organization has been raising money, it has collected more than $650,000 for Dallas-area groups.

Sponsors for the fund-raiser are Neiman Marcus and the Levi Strauss Co.

San Antonio Caucus Issues Endorsements

23 Democrats, Five Republicans Backed for November 8 Election.

SAN ANTONIO — The San Antonio Equal Rights Political Caucus issued candidate endorsements for the November 8 election recently, and 28 hopefuls came away with the group's backing.

In statewide races, the Caucus endorsed Democrats Richard Fisher for the U.S. Senate, Ann Richards for Governor, Bob Bullock for Lt. Governor, Garry Mauro for Land Commissioner and Marvin Gregory for Agricultural Commissioner. In state judicial contests, SAERPC is backing Democrats Alice Oliver-Parrot for state Supreme Court Place 2, Jimmy Carroll for state Supreme Court Place 3 and Betty Marshall for the Court of Criminal Appeals Place 2.

In Congressional races, candidates winning the Caucus' backing are Henry B. Gonzales (Dem.) in District 20 and Rolando Rios (Dem.) in District 23.

Endorsements were made on the basis of answers given on questionnaires the Caucus sent to hopefuls who had indicated an interest in receiving the group's backing, as well as on each candidate's known history on issues of importance to the gay community. In the race for Bexar County Clerk, Caucus officials said they faced a difficult choice when incumbent Robert Green, a Democrat who has a record of support for the gay community, failed to return his questionnaire prior to the group's endorsement meeting. Green's Republican challenger, Gerald Rickhoff, did return his questionnaire, with supportive responses. The SAERPC Steering Committee voted to endorse Rickhoff. Both candidates had been represented at the Caucus's "Meet the Candidates" night on September 30.

In down-ballot races, SAERPC has endorsed James Saunders (Dem.) for state Senate District 25, Gregory Luna (Dem.) Senate District 26, Sarah Duncan (Rep.) for the 4th Court of Appeals, Place 1, Catherine Stone (Dem.) for the 4th Court of Appeals, Place 4, Mario Bordini (Rep.) for the 186th District Court, Gabe Quintanilla (Dem.) for the 187th District Court, Shirley Ehrlich (Dem.) for the 224th District Court, Bruce Mery (Dem.) for the 285th District Court, Don McManus (Dem.) for the 288th District Court and Jim Greenfield (Dem.) for the 290th District Court.

Bordini is running against incumbent judge Terry McDonald, who outraged many in the community when he gave a lenient sentence to Anthony Giangrasso, a young marine convicted in the killing of Charles Resendez, an openly gay man.

Also endorsed by SAERPC are Fred Rodriguez (Dem.) for District Attorney; Anthony Ferro (Dem.) for County Court #1, Shay Gebhardt (Rep.) for County Court #3, Sherry Ugarte (Dem.) for County Court #5, Bill White (Rep.) for County Court #7, Bonnie Reed (Dem.) for County Clerk #9 and Alfonso Alonso for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 2.

Houston Activist Plans Response to Attacks on Gay-Backed Candidates

Ray Hill Will Lead Group to Nov. 6 Service at Baptist Church.

HOUSTON — Saying that a response is long overdue, local activist Ray Hill announced plans this week to counter conservative attacks on candidates who have received gay backing. Specifically, Hill will lead a peaceful, nondisruptive action at the 11 a.m. service at Second Baptist Church, 6400 Woodway, next Sunday, November 6—three days before the general election.

He described the action as an effort to draw public and media attention to right-wing and Christian fundamentalist attacks on political hopefuls who are running with the endorsement of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus.

Hill led a similar peaceful protest several years ago after Second Baptist, one of the largest Baptist churches in the Houston area, refused to allow a musician with AIDS to perform during the congregation's Easter services.

"It is time to go back to church," Hill said. "Each year on the Sunday before election day, fundamentalist political activists print and distribute flyers in the parking lots of churches all over the county. These flyers are designed to attack the candidates endorsed by [HGLPC] and promote their opponents. The flyers are full of distortions, lies and hate.

"We have sat idly by for several years while this hate campaign has continued."

The right-wing effort against candidates endorsed by HGLPC mirrors similar campaigns being waged elsewhere across the U.S. In Houston, Dr. Steven Hotze has played a key role in targeting gay-backed candidates, and Hill noted that Second Baptist Pastor Ed Young, an influential figure in the fundamentalist wing of the Southern Baptist Convention, is a supporter of Hotze's efforts.

In 1985, Hotze led the "Straight Slate," a roster of City Council candidates who ran on an explicitly anti-gay/lesbian platform. None of them were successful, although two gay-supportive incumbents were forced into runoffs by Slate candidates. Young introduced the Straight Slaters from his pulpit on the Sunday before that year's elections.

Hill said he had already informed officials at Second Baptist Church of his intention to bring a group of "worshippers" to the church's 11 a.m. service. "This is not a confrontational demonstration. We are not going to interrupt services or carry placards or signs. We are going in peace to call attention to the lies and distortions told about us in their flyers."

Hill urged those who plan to take part to dress appropriately for church attendance, and added that because Second Baptist is a very large church with parking problems, participants should arrive early.

AIDS Resource Center in Dallas Receives Grant for Insurance Assistance

Will Help Clients Pay Premiums for COBRA, OBRA Plans.

DALLAS — The AIDS Resource Center has received a grant under the Ryan White Care Bill II Funding Act to help those who are HIV-positive make their COBRA or OBRA monthly insurance premium payments.

COBRA stands for Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, which required employers to offer their employees and their employees' families the opportunity for a temporary extension of health coverage in instances where the coverage would end, as through termination. OBRA further extended those temporary benefits.

Armando Arellano, Insurance Program Administrator for the Resource Center, told TWT NEWS the Center received the grant in mid-October and has to dispense the money by March 1, 1995.

Those qualifying for the grant need to meet four criteria: (1) they must be currently making their own payments toward their COBRA insurance; (2) they must have recently lost their job and don't know how they are going to make their COBRA insurance payments; (3) they must be HIV-positive; and (4) they must be permanently unemployable. People meeting these four criteria would be eligible to receive up to $200 in monthly insurance premium assistance, based on income and grant guidelines.

Recipients must also be clients of the AIDS Resource Center. To become a client, one must go through an initial intake session to determine his or her needs. Prospective clients must also be HIV-positive, and must bring picture ID and a letter of diagnosis from their physician.

The Resource Center also provides a listing of viatical settlement companies for those who choose to sell their insurance policies. However, Arellano said the Center does not make any recommendations as to which companies are best.

Those who believe they qualify for assistance under the COBRA/OBRA grant should contact Arellano at the AIDS Resource Center, (214)521-5124.

Houston Black Tie Dinner Set for Nov. 5

Fancy Affair at Westin Galleria To Benefit HRCF, 10 Local Groups.

HOUSTON — A thousand or more gay men and lesbians and their supporters, turned out in their finest, are expected to attend this year's Houston Black Tie Dinner, set for Saturday, November 5. The elegant affair, which kicks off at the Westin Galleria starting at 7 p.m., benefits the Human Rights Campaign Fund and ten local charitable groups.

Keynote speaker at this year's dinner is David Mixner, a friend of and advisor to President Bill Clinton. Entertainment will be provided by comedienne Georgia Ragsdale and the Ed Gerlach Band, and a silent auction with fabulous merchandise will be conducted before and during the dinner.

Co-chairs Shelley Porter and Frank Campisi said they hope for an attendance of around 1,000, an increase over last year. Campisi, who also serves as president of Houston Black Tie Dinner, Inc., noted that the event has shown significant growth each year since its inception. This is the second year the Dinner is being presented by its current organizers.

One-third of the proceeds from each ticket go to HRCF and one-third go to the charity or charities of the purchaser's choice. This year's beneficiaries are AIDS Foundation Houston; The Assistance Fund; AVES, Inc.; the Bering Community Service Foundation; the Lesbian Health Initiative; Omega House; the Montrose Clinic; the Montrose Counseling Center; P-FLAG Houston; and the Texas Human Rights Foundation.

The largest group of its kind in the nation, the Human Rights Campaign Fund works to advance the rights of lesbians, gay men and those with HIV through lobbying and financial contributions to supportive candidates. Recently HRCF has been coordinating Americans Against Discrimination, a nationwide effort aimed at defeating right-wing anti-gay initiatives.

Tickets ($150 and up) to the Black Tie Dinner are still available for purchase. For more information, call (713)523-9611.

Preparations for TGRA Rodeo In Full Swing

11th Annual Event Kicks off November 10 in Austin.

AUSTIN — Just two weeks remain until the start of the 11th annual Texas Gay Rodeo Association Rodeo, to be held this year at the Travis County Expo Center in Austin.

Rodeo events are on tap for November 12 and 13, getting under way at 9 a.m. each day; the grand entry each day will be at noon. In addition, the Doubletree Hotel will be the site of the Kickoff dance (featuring Brian Black) on November 11, the Stampede dance (featuring People's Choice) on November 12 and the awards dinner on November 13; each begins at 8 p.m.

Package tickets cost $25 and are good for both days of the rodeo and the two dances. They are available in Austin at 5th Street Station, Lobo, Liberty Books and Top Drawer Thrift, or from any of the 450 TGRA members statewide. TGRA has chapters in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio, and has raised $1.2 million in its first decade of events for AIDS charities, pediatric care groups, women's centers and the like.

The event kicks off the 1995 rodeo season for the International Gay Rodeo Association. The IGRA held its finals last weekend in Denver, and De Shannon of Austin (the reigning Miss TGRA) was crowned as Miss IGRA—only the second Texan ever to win that honor.

Be sure to wear your costume to Zippers this Saturday night when Lady Shawn hosts the club's costume contest at the stroke of midnight. We definitely like the costume dancer Luke Larken [above] had on when we stopped in the other night, and it was definitely a treat to see him. It's not tricky to see dancers at the club, since there are two delectable ones on weeknights and three stunners on the weekends. Be sure to wish ultra-sexy bartender Zak Hamilton a happy birthday this Saturday, and say "hi" to new staffer Buck Swan....

He's no Lorena Bobbitt (thank goodness), but Moby Dick bartender Chad Whyrick [above] is good with a knife, as evidence by the "mo' better jack-o-lantern" he carved the other day. Thursday nights, bring in your gym ID for special drink prices, and exercise you right to have a good time. You may even work up a sweat when you see some of the hunky staffers, like buffed bartender Tim Combs, who we're sure has sky-high phone bills because of his long-distance relationship with a certain someone in Houston....

We're not sure if the moon will be full outside for Halloween weekend, but you can count on something like that inside TMC on Sunday night when contestants strip down to near-nothing for the Bear Buns contest. They'll have a few more clothes on for the costume contest, though, on Monday night. That's spinmeister John "Fuzzy" Carpenter pictured above, and HOT TEA is sure you can tell how he got his nickname. We're told Todd Whitmire has an affinity for red pickups lately—and Miss Ellie has a thing for 18-wheelers. Charlotte, we've also heard, should apply for a credit card at the local Shell station; she likes the service she gets there, and she always gets full service....

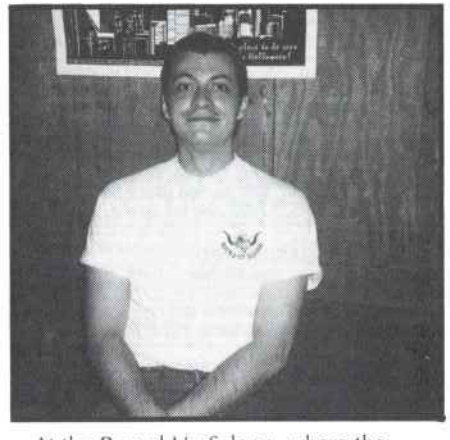

They're gearing up for Halloween at Village Station, and staffer Brett Fowler tells us all the decorations should be up at the popular dance club in time for the weekend festivities. The Block Party on Cedar Springs Saturday night has become a tradition, and

Coming in November, Perry Wood will be entertaining the Wycliff regulars on Sunday with his all new band....

Things are always hot at Crews Inn, whether it's this Saturday's costume contest hosted by Lady Shawn at 12:30 a.m. or Tuesday nights when the club is the place to be seen. We've also heard it's pretty hot when bartender Brian Costly barbecues at home—we hope he made enough food for the fire department when they showed up....

At the Round Up Saloon, where the cowboys roam, they're going all out for Halloween. Just check out the glow-in-the-dark front bar or the staffers who are dressing up as characters from the movie Priscilla. HOT TEA can't wait to see everyone's favorite floorwhore, Bob "BB" Craig, dressed up as Bernadette—a role he was destined for. We wonder who doorman Bobby Crainshaw [above] will be? Don't pack your costumes up when the weekend's over, because Michael Lee will emcee a Halloween costume contest on Monday night. Congratulations to Randall "Amnesia" Vickers, who has a new addition to his family, Baxter....

You'll be in for a treat this Sunday at the Brick Bar when Fantasy man Marco Rossi rides in—but it won't be on a broomstick. First off, though, it's after hours Friday until 4 a.m. Saturday, dress as your favorite superhero for the Hero Worship Party. Halloween night, it's the Black Mask Party with the first 150 customers receiving a free mask. Saturday, the Headquarters will open for Halloween weekend, and then officially open November 10. HOT TEA wishes bartender Brian Amann a happy birthday, and they welcome new staffer Michael Knapp....

Once you've toured the Block Party Saturday night, stop by JR's and see what's going on. You may catch manager Donald Soloman [above, c] dancing on the bar, which has become a tradition whenever they play "These Boots Are Made for Walking." Staffers Kyle Hennigan [l] and R.J. [r] are shown with Donald, as is Monday's Martini Madness mascot Spot the Dog. Tuesday nights, there's no dogs in the Stud Search contest with Whitney Paige, just sexy men showing you their best side....

It's going to be an inferno at Millennium this weekend when the club heats up your Friday with DarkDance—go go dancers, body painting and lots of men. Saturday, it will be even hotter when they celebrate Halloween with costume contests and Coco's Men of Millennium strip show. Sunday, hot oil wrestling returns. Monday, Trella Thomas oversees costume contests all night long. We're told staffer Daryl Morgan has everyone's number—and one everyone would like to have, especially bartender Freddy Covantes.

Born in Honolulu, Hawaii, he moved to Archer City in 1965 and graduated from Archer City High School in 1977. He graduated in 1992 from East Texas State University in commerce with a degree in commercial art. Since 1982 he had lived in Dallas, where he owned and operated Donald Hill Flowers.

Survivors include his lifemate, Rocky Gregory of Dallas; parents Monroe and Margaret Williams; sisters Paula Bradley, Donna Williams and Traci Gipson; and brothers Richard Hill and Rooney Williams, all of Archer City and Wichita Falls.

Mario Erasmo Rodriguez (above)
August 19, 1961 - September 10, 1994

Mario was born in Hearnes, Texas, but always called San Antonio his home. He never asked for much out of life; his wants and needs were always so simple. He always had a way of brightening a room with his kindness and charm.

He quietly passed away at home on September 10 with his longtime companion by his side. He was also survived by his mother, two sisters, two brothers and the entire Lopez family, who truly accepted Mario as one of their own. He will definitely be missed by all who knew him.

The love, caring and respect we felt for each other will always remain forever in my heart and only time can ease the pain of the loneliness of not always having you by my side. We never did anything without each other. It will never be the same without you.

I will always love you...
Until the end of time,
Hector

Ben Hamlett
July 26, 1954 - October 19, 1994

Ben (Benny Max) Hamlett, 40, died Wednesday evening, October 19 in a Houston hospital after a long battle against AIDS. He was predeceased by his brother, Gordon.

Ben was a graduate of Deerfield Academy and Tufts University. He took a medical retirement from AIM Investments.

Survivors include his parents, two brothers and three sisters.

A memorial service will be held at Palmer Memorial Episcopal Church, 6221 Main in Houston at 3 p.m. on Saturday, November 5. A reception will follow in the parish hall.

His urn will be buried in Waco at a later date.

George F. Barnhart

A memorial service for George F. Barnhart, founding director of AIDS Alliance of the Bay Area [AABA], has been set for Wednesday, November 2.

Barnhart, 47, died Tuesday, October 4 after a diligent battle against AIDS.

"He was living in San Leon when he was diagnosed and he found that the only place people from the Bay area could get AIDS services and support was on Galveston Island or in downtown Houston," said Lew Wiggs, President and Senior Case Manager of AABA. "This prompted him to found AABA so that people would not have to go so far for support and services."

The two-year-old alliance now has offices, a paid staff of three and 45 volunteers to work with people with AIDS. The organization serves 45 clients on the Galveston County mainland and 11 clients from the Bay area of Harris County.

The memorial service is at 11 a.m., November 2, at the Unitarian/Universalist Fellowship of the Bay Area, 17503 El Camino Real in the Clear Lake area of Houston.

The service has been scheduled for what would have been Barnhart's 48th birthday.

I thank God for giving me
So much.
He gave me two eyes
And when I open them
I'll see the difference Between black and white between father, friend and brother.
I can see a bright light
Shining on the face of the one
I love most.
I thank God
For giving me so much,
He gave me sound and the alphabet,
With it, the words I say and think.
With them I know the difference
Between happiness and sadness,
The two materials that form my song,
The song of everyone
Which is my own song.
I thank God so much.

David, you are gone but not forgotten.

Robert Goin (aka Misti Summers) passed away on the 11th of October. Robert was raised in Denton, Texas and was currently living in Lake Dallas. Robert was a wonderful person to know. He was always very cheery and never met a stranger. You could never catch Robert when he wasn't wearing a smile. Robert left behind lots of great memories with his loving family and a great many friends. For those of us who had the pleasure of knowing him, we will miss him. Those memories will always be cherished.

Greg, a longtime resident of Houston, passed away on October 5, 1994 in his adopted home of Seattle, having moved there in 1991 with a loving companion. Greg was kind, caring and extremely intelligent, not to mention a very good listener. Greg worked hard as a computer systems analyst, became a business owner, contributed to many charities and gave much more to the community than he received—that was what he preferred. Greg was preceded in death by his wonderful, loving companion, Marty Nowicki, and is survived by parents and friends who miss him dearly. Greg truly made the world a better place despite such a brief visit.

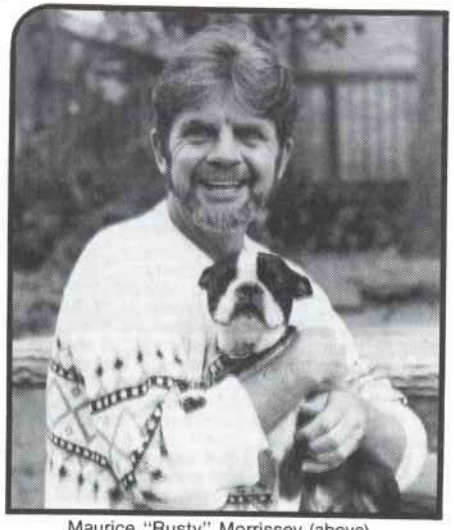

Gary Lee Thompson

October 12, 1994 was a wonderful day full of beauty, warmth, sunshine, sorrow and death. I held Orlando Oscar Ordonez's hand. His breathing was labored, a tear ran out of his right eye. The birds were singing as his soul went up into the sky.

You became friends if you met him, that's just the way Orlando was. He was born the first child of Oscar and Anita, with siblings Tammy, Prissy and Robert.

Orlando requested to be cremated, his ashes scattered over Lake Buchanan.

Today shall be a wonderful day, full of beauty, warmth, sunshine, sorrow and, yes, somewhere... death.

Special thanks to Joe, Daniel, Linda and Rex.
