THINK BEER FOR DRINK

Choice hops? 7 kinds of barley?

HEY, MAYBE YOU COULD BE A VEGETARIAN AFTER ALL.

Mmmm. Hops and barley.

For beer drinkers, there's nothing quite like a generous serving of pilsner beer.

What's pilsner you ask? For our brewmaster, it's simple. It's a bright, golden beer crafted in the strict pilsner tradition. A beer that uses only fresh, choice hops from the Pacific Northwest, and seven kinds of barley for flavor. A beer that's filtered three times for smoothness. A beer you know as Miller Lite.

But enough talk. Who's ready for seconds?

THE GREAT TASTE OF A TRUE PILSNER BEER.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH OF AN ANARCHIST

Here's the scenario: Mickey and Judy and the gang have the barn and oodles of talent, but what to do with it? Should they mount a big Broadway-style musical? Maybe a nice drawing-room comedy? A mystery-thriller? "I know!," says Mickey. "Let's do a satirical comedy about Italian politics written by the Nobel Prize-winning contemporary Italian playwright Dario Fo, translated and adapted from the Italian by Richard Nelson! It'll sell like hotcakes!" "Golly," says Judy.

"Golly" indeed. But that's just what Rebecca Udden and her hearty band of players at Main Street Theater have gone and done. And darned if they weren't right! Oh, there were some pitfalls – we'll get to those later –but the instinct was there.

The play, a sort of absurdist farce, is based on an actual incident. On the night of December 12, 1969, a bomb exploded and killed sixteen people at the Agricultural Bank in Milan, Italy. At the same time another bomb went off in Rome, and a third was found, unexploded, at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. A man called Guiseppe Pinelli, a known anarchist, was arrested and charged with the crime. While being interrogated at the station, he jumped out a fourth-floor window and was killed. The play is a recreation of the events of that interrogation.

Act one opens with a man known in the program only as "Suspect" (Jeff Johnson) being brought in for questioning by Inspector Bertozzo (Joseph E. Hudson). It seems the Suspect is certifiably crazy – in fact is proud of it– and has committed a list of crimes and impersonations that fill several files. The Inspector is striving manfully to get to the bottom of it all, and keeps having to deal, not only with the facts as he perceives them, but with the very personal "reality" of the suspect. Being the humorless bureaucrat he is, (think Herbert Lom's "Chief Inspector Dreyfus" in the Pink Panther movies) he cannot do it, but, aided by his bumbling assistant, the "Officer/Sergeant" (Todd Greenfield), he forges ahead.

It's this duality of what is real and what is perceived that is the engine of the play. "Suspect" simply sees things one way; the Inspector and his cohorts another. The question for the audience becomes, "Who is right?"

The center of the action is Jeff Johnson's "Suspect". Rarely on stage is an actor given such carte blanche, and it's every actor's dream. Not only is there so much opportunity for upstaging, he is actually directed to upstage, and it's a glorious candy store. There is not a moment onstage for two hours that all attention is not focused on Johnson. Well, that's not exactly true, because then it would be more or less a monologue. The other actors do take the stage occasionally, but they must fight for it, and that they succeed is an indication of their ( and the director's) skill.

Hudson's weary, put-upon "Inspector" is a perfect foil and Greenfield's clueless "Officer/Sergeant" adds another dimension. In the second act the cast is expanded as the "Captain" (John Kaiser) and the "Chief" (Robert Leeds) are bamboozled by the suspect, who convinces them he is a judge reviewing the case. It's a joy to watch them trip and fall all over themselves and each other in an attempt to place the blame. Add the crusading "Reporter" (Ginny Lang), and the mix is complete.

But in the end it's Johnson's show. He pulls every stop on the keyboard. He snarls, he spits—literally—he crawls and rolls and limps; he is a graduate cum laude of the Ministry of Silly Walks. And he handles props brilliantly, including a bit with a glass eye that you won't believe.

The performers benefit greatly from the very effective set, designed by Shane Merchant. It's one of the best I've seen at that location, which has two very problematic supporting columns on the stage. And Director Steve Garfinkel moves his actors through it with precision.

Which brings us to the pitfall. While 'Anarchist' is a comedy—and a very funny one—it is firmly rooted in the Italian tradition of political satire, and perhaps no politics in the world is more complex than the Italian. Now that doesn't mean that Americans can't understand it, although some of the subtleties may be lost. The problem is in the topicality of the material. Certain events are spoken of; references are made that are dated. The playwright recognized this, and some of these references were updated for American audiences, with his permission. Unfortunately, he gave permission in the script to make further changes when necessary, and it is here, in my opinion, that he set a dangerous and irresistible trap. The danger is, you never know who will be in the audience. As I settled in for an experience in Italian theater, set in Italy and populated by Italian characters, I was constantly jarred by American, and even Texan, references. Well-meaning attempts, I have no doubt, to help the audience along, but for me it was disrupting. Early in the first act, the "Suspect" is accused of impersonating a psychiatrist, and charging the exorbitant sum of 20,000 lire for a session. Everyone is outraged but me, and anyone else in the house who might happen to know that 20,000 lire is about $15.00. A bargain. Later, as the Suspect rants about the injustice of the justice system, he makes an unmistakable reference to the Oregon case. It stopped the action cold, as did a lame pun involving Tom DeLay. My advice? The next time you are tempted to rewrite the work of a Nobel Prize-winning playwright, think long and hard and then - don't do it. "Nuf" said.

Just in time for ABBA's 25th reunion our friends over at Almighty in the UK are at it again with another Abba cover from Abbacadabra. This time out it's "Mama Mia." The track carries on in typical Almighty fashion—full-blown, glorious, and vocal-driven with all the production fanfare that should surround a track like this. You know the song already and I'm sure that your original is all worn out and full of popcorn, so this one's probably a good investment.

After the demise of BMG's Ariola Dance label last year, we've been wondering what would be the next effort from Hannah Jones. We're glad to report that the diva has signed to East Side in the UK and has just popped out a rousing rendition of the Jean Carne disco classic "Was That All It Was." The production is over-the-top and Jones delivers one of her finest performances to date on this peak-hour monster. Remixes by Love To Infinity and Rhythm Masters will work your nerves. And the other good news is that it comes from her upcoming, yes upcoming, June album Coming Back For More. What a great summer this is going to be!

Speaking of divas, there's a new single from Candi Staton entitled "Love On Love" that is really the tea. It's already getting radio and massive club support in the UK. Those in the U.S. who are getting the imports are already familiar with this title as well. The track was also a hit back in 1990 by E-Zee Posse on More Protein (Boy George's label). Staton is set to release an album this spring entitled Outside In. Club denizens will remember her for her earlier hits "Young Hearts Run Free" (also covered by Hanna Jones), and my personal favorite, "Victim." And if anyone knows where I can find a copy of "Victim," I'll pay dearly!

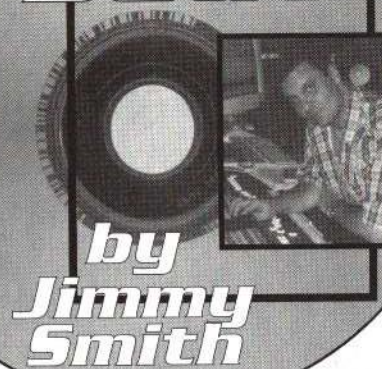

Staton's return comes at the hands of Thomas Foley's React label in the UK, who incidentally has also signed another one of clubland's favorites, Billie Ray Martin for an album deal. Billie is also co-writing songs for Staton's album.

Next up is The John Blair Party: Volume 1, a brand new mixed compilation from Logic Records. John Blair is the top promoter of New York City mega-clubs like Roxy, Limelight and the legendary Palladium. These high capacity, larger-than-life dance clubs cater to crowds of over 4,000 people nightly. John got his start at Studio 54 in the late 70's and has built a devout following over the past 2 decades. John Blair events feature the top DJ's in America, such as Junior Vasquez, Victor Calderone, James Anderson, and David Knapp (featured on this CD). David Knapp started spinning in Miami and gained notoriety as an up-and-coming talent at many large circuit parties across the United States. John Blair recognized David's potential and began flying him to NYC once a month to play at Roxy. Mr. Knapp's reputation as a top DJ grew to a national level because of the exposure he received from John Blair's events.

On the journey through the digital domain that comprises this compilation, you will find a non-stop excursion through some of the season's quintessential club favorites woven together by one of today's most popular turntable artists, DJ David Knapp. Along with brilliant vocal-driven floorfillers like Chris, and Cevin Fisher, not to mention Knapp's own production "Calling Back," which features the vocals of diva Angee Blake—a styling that should secure Knapp's position as one of today's hottest producers. Knapp treats the listener to over 70 minutes of sheer dancefloor delight while capturing the essence of what a John Blair event is all about. It's the next best thing to being there...maybe even better, because you can do it over and over again! And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

"Fluid Enough"

I think April is a very exciting, special month. The change of the seasons from the doldrums of winter days to the cheer of springtime is happening now. Those of our friends who live in the north, fearful of those love handles and bellies that grew out of a snowbound winter, are getting their exercise programs jump-started. Summer is just around the corner!

As athletes, we should always be thinking about proper fluid replacement (especially if you live in a rather warm, humid climate). The absolute most important nutritional concern you should have before, during and after exercising is replenishing the vital fluids your body needs to perform. If not, your physical performance can be severely hindered due to lack of hydration. And it all begins with good old H<sub>2</sub>O.

Water is vital to every cell in the body. Approximately 60% of your body weight is water. As you exercise, that water is lost through the skin as sweat (to cool the body) and through your lungs as you breathe. If you do not replenish this loss of fluid, you can become dehydrated. Lots of bad things happen to the body when it has a lack of fluids. When you become dehydrated, you have less blood circulating through your body than you would normally have. So, this means that if there is less circulating blood, then the heart will pump less blood. That all important life giver called oxygen will be depleted from the blood and consequently, the muscles will receive less of it. Oxygen is a necessary product for energy production in the muscles. This is when exhaustion sets in and your performance suffers. It's amazing that as little as a 2% reduction in body fluid during exercise will effect your performance. This "process" will sneak up on you before you know it. I know of lots of clients that wake up, have a cup of coffee, and then come to the gym and work up a good sweat. This isn't very smart. Actually, it's very dangerous. The body can't perform at its optimum level unless it's well hydrated. If you are wondering why you just don't have enough stamina in the morning, maybe its because you aren't fluid enough. So, drink before, during and after physical activity. That is the very best way to prevent dehydration. Now you know when to drink, but how much and what?

One trick to find out how much fluid you will need is to weigh yourself before you exercise. Then weigh yourself after. For every pound you lose after the workout, you will need to drink 2 cups of fluid to rehydrate your body. Also check your urine color. That's right! Your urine should look clear or resemble weak lemonade. If it's a dark gold color, like apple juice, then you are dehydrated. Don't let thirst be your guide to drink. If you are thirsty, then you are already dehydrated. According to the Clinical Reference Systems, most people do not become thirsty until they have lost 2% of their body weight. That's enough to decrease your performance. And if you drink only enough to quench your thirst, you may still be dehydrated. A good rule of thumb is to keep a water bottle when you work out and drink throughout the workout about every 15 minutes.

I usually bring a liter bottle of cold spring water to the gym. By the time I'm finished working out, the bottle is almost empty. Always remember to drink before, during and after!

Now you know when to drink and how much. Now the question that everyone wants to know is WHAT to drink? Are those sports drinks really good? Are they worth the money, or is water just as effective and less expensive? What should a sports drink have in it?

Researchers have found that a drink that has 6 to 8% carbohydrates (sugars) is best absorbed by the body. These drinks are as rapidly absorbed as water and have the added benefit of providing the muscles with the extra energy that water just doesn't have. This extra energy can delay fatigue and may improve performance. If you slurp down one of these sports drinks, you are actually allowing the blood glucose levels in your body to stay at a constant level, even though the muscles may be depleted of energy. Because the "stores" of readily available energy are full, the muscles can produce energy at an accelerated rate. Thus keeping you at peak performance throughout your workouts. Drinks that contain less than 5% carbohydrate were found to not improve performance. Conversely, drinks that contain more than 10% carbohydrate often have a negative effect. Sodas and some fruit juices can cause abdominal cramps, nausea and diarrhea, and can actually hurt your performance.

Sodium also seems to play a key role in our ability to retain fluids. Salt is an electrolyte that helps maintain proper fluid levels in the body. It is a vital element we all need. Researchers have found that a drink with 6% carbohydrate and 110 milligrams of sodium is absorbed faster in the body than plain water! If you think sodium is something to watch out for, you're right. Focus your attention on the salt shaker, the soda and the potato chips. Gatorade, and other sports drinks have about as much sodium as a cup of 2% milk. Here's how to remain fluid enough through your workouts.

- Drink at least 16 ounces of fluid 15 to 30 minutes before and 8 ounces every 10-15 minutes during physical activity.

- Drink a beverage that has 6 to 8% carbohydrate concentrations with some sodium and other electrolytes, like chloride and potassium. Stay away from caffeine and carbonated drinks, because they can have a diuretic effect. They can give you gastrointestinal upset and decrease fluid volume.

- Find a drink that's easy to drink. Cold and sweet is easiest to drink. If all else fails and you don't have a sports drink, go for a bottle of good, clean water!

Best of luck in your pursuit of the best for yourself and your body!

LETTERS

In this column, readers exchange ideas with other readers and our editor in a public forum. Writers must sign all letters and furnish their full name and address for verification. TWT will withhold name upon request. Please keep letters brief. TWT does not print letters sent to other gay and lesbian publications. Address all letters to: LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. Dear Editor,

The membership and Board of Trustees of Miss Camp America Foundation wishes to extend their heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported the Foundation's first fundraising event of the year, the "Deb-U-Not" Ball. The event was a tremendous success, raising over $20,000.00!

The "Deb-U-Not" Ball serves not only as a fundraising event, but it is also when the Foundation proudly presents its new associates to the public for the very first time on stage. This year's "Debs" went out of their way to ensure the success of the event and it was certainly evidenced by the results. Special thanks to our friends at Club Picasso and COPY.COM and all the event underwriters whose tremendous support helped set the stage for this successful event. Once again, many thanks to those who made their individual donations to the "Debs" as well as those who attended the Ball. We hope everyone had a great time!!

This year's beneficiaries, selected by the Foundation membership, include the Houston Body Positive Wellness Center, the Montrose Counseling Center Client Assistance Fund, The Colt 45's AIDS Trouble Fund, the Assistance Fund and PWA Holiday Charities' Thanksgiving and Easter Holiday Charities' food basket projects.

The membership asks the Houston community to join in congratulating this year's "Debs" for a job well done and also to continue its support by attending upcoming Miss Camp America fundraising events. Our next major event will be the fun-filled "Wigs on Fire" party in June. Resurrected last year, the "Wigs on Fire" event gives party goers an opportunity to have a great time and showcase the wildest and most imaginative hair creations this side of the Mississippi!!

Since 1992, Miss Camp America Foundation has awarded nearly $400,000.00 in financial grants to local charitable HIV/AIDS service organizations. It's only possible with everyone's help, so come out and Be A Star! Persons interested in membership or would otherwise donate their time, talents, and treasures are invited to contact us by calling our hotline at 713-940-STAR.

Dear Editor,

In a fundraising letter mailed out, George W. Bush says that "While some others choose to talk about what they are against, I will tell voters I am for." That's funny. In recent days I have seen Governor Bush on the tube twice, touting things he is against, to -wit: abortion rights of teenage girls and lesbian adoption rights. The latter announcement merited his classic sneer, suggesting that he doesn't even take these rights seriously.

In 1988, Mr. Bush senior campaigned against the Bill of Rights in his race for President. I would now like to know more about the things Mr. Bush junior is against, since apparently freedom and equality are among them. This guy has ridden the crest of popularity on his mama's good name by keeping his mouth shut. All along, I suspected that as soon as he started to really open his mouth, he would go from being a big zero to a first-class jerk. I wasn't wrong!

He is trying to appear moderate by concealing his most right-wing beliefs. If he is elected, the results will be no different than if Patrick Buchanan or Gary Bauer were in the White House!

Dear Editor,

Finally, a positive note about the Texas AIDS Ride '98. Thank you, Dick Weaver. I agree with you completely. As a rider, I am very disappointed with all the AIDS agencies in San Antonio for quitting so quickly.

All the bad press, that ignored the awareness the ride raised with 700 plus cyclist traveling across rural Texas. People noticed. AIDS awareness is needed as much as money is needed. So when a rider asks for your support, please give it. Remember "Never give up!"

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for the time and effort expended in putting on the benefit for John Gonzales (a.k.a. Paivi Lee Love). Many thanks to the BRB for the use of their venue and to Shelby, Byron,

Woody, Selena and to all those who performed that night. Thanks to all who were in the audience. I know Paivi was watching and she is as thankful as I am, and honored that she was able to touch so many lives during her short stay among us. We thank the community on behalf of John's family and myself for your loving generosity.

Dear Editor,

I would like to thank the staff and management of Rich's/Houston for providing an exceptionally entertaining weekend for my wife and I at the Bette Midler performance. Having worked for Rich's as a DJ/VJ for the first 13 of the venue's 15 plus years, I have seen many thrilling shows there, by a lot of top-class acts; I was certain it couldn't get any better. I must say that seeing 'The Divine Miss M' live on the Rich's stage that Friday night was the ultimate! It was truly amazing to witness. My wife and I thank everyone involved at Rich's.

A special thanks goes to all the staff, both new and long-term, for the royal treatment we get whenever we make the trip from Dallas to see them. Extra-special congratulations go out to Jerry Ramsey, for displaying such excellent managerial skills in the operation of the club and to Warner Bros. Records, Jerry Van, Bart Johnson, and of course, to Ms. Midler herself, for gracing the Rich's stage for us. It was truly a magical night. Thanks again to Jerry and everyone else at Rich's, past and present, for making this and each visit to Houston a most pleasurable experience!

Dear Editor,

On Friday, March 5, Night in Black Leather '99 [NIBL] kicked off its weekend of events with a complimentary buffet furnished by local businesses and organizations. Mr. Rudy Villareal headed a silent auction with items that were also donated by local businesses and Mr. Mark Press sang live jazz. At 9:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 6, the spotlights came on and NIBL '99 was underway. Co-producer Regina Dane, master of ceremonies Larry Arbo and choreographer Billy Bailey, along with an amazing group of entertainers and production assistants, made this event a rousing success. Proceeds from both nights yielded a total of $14,000 for the Houston Buyers Club and their efforts to supply nutritional supplements for those living with HIV and AIDS.

I am very grateful to everyone who donated their time, talent and money to this annual event. It still amazes me at the end of the day how much can be accomplished when we work together as a great team. Special thanks go out to the Houston community for its continuing support. Once again, I thank you all. I'll see you next year at Night In Black Leather 2000.

HCFA ENFORCES MEDICAID REIMBURSEMENT FOR AIDS WASTING DRUG

NAPWA Applauds Ruling On Serostim®

TEXAS – Under pressure from the National Association for People With AIDS [NAPWA] and members of the HIV/AIDS community, the Healthcare Finance Administration [HCFA] has reversed an earlier statement that allowed the state of Texas to deny Medicaid reimbursement for Serostim®, the first biotechnology drug ever to be approved for the treatment of AIDS wasting, based on a loophole in the U. S. Social Security Act.

HCFA now confirms the clinical benefits of Serostim, a recombinant human growth hormone, for use in fighting this life threatening condition, and will require Medicaid reimbursement for the drug by all states effective April 5, 1999. Texas, with 20,000 HIV cases and the fourth largest HIV population in the U.S. welcomes the new ruling that affected approximately 5,000 sufferers across the state.

DFW BLACK TIE DINNER ANNOUNCES 1999 BENEFICIARIES

DALLAS – The Dallas Ft. Worth Black Tie Dinner committee announced its selection of local beneficiaries to receive funds from the annual charity dinner. The event, which also benefits the Human Rights Campaign Foundation [HRC], will channel funds to the following selected Metroplex organizations: AIDS Arms, AIDS Interfaith Network, AIDS Outreach Center, AIDS Services of Dallas, AIDS Services of North Texas, Calkin Fund of LGRL, Cathedral of Hope, Congregation Beth El Binah, Dallas Gay and Lesbian Alliance Education Fund, Fort Worth Men's Chorus, Legacy Counseling Center, Oak Lawn Community Services, PFLAG, Resource Center of Dallas, Turtle Creek Chorale, Walt Whitman Community Church, White Rock Community Church, Women's Chorus of Dallas.

"Selecting beneficiaries for the Dallas Ft. Worth Black Tie Dinner is one of the committee's most important tasks each year. We put a lot of our hearts and souls into the process to make sure that each applicant is screened and evaluated on a fair, factual and consistent basis. We're delighted to announce the eighteen beneficiaries for the 1999 dinner and look forward to their support as we plan this year's event," said Dinner Co-Chair, Sue Wyll.

This year's event, as reported earlier, will take place on Saturday, September 25 at its annual host-site, the Wyndham Anatole Hotel. ## KIM PERROT INVITED GUEST SPEAKER AT L. I. B. DINNER

WNBA Point Guard Gives Motivational Speech Scheduled For Friday, April 16

HOUSTON – The Houston Comet's point guard, Kim Perrot will speak to Lesbians In Business [LIB], a women's empowerment group, about her battle with cancer and beating the odds. Best known for her aggressive play on the court, Perrot has most recently made the headlines when her battle with cancer became public. A non-smoker, Perrot developed lung cancer that later spread to her brain. Only a month-and-a-half following brain surgery and still undergoing radiation treatment, Perrot will speak to LIB members about fighting the odds and winning. "Determined to Win" is the message the WNBA icon wants to share with her fans as the key to being successful. Perrot's commitment to continue to connect with her fans is a demonstration that she is a fighter. "She doesn't take no for an answer. Fighting the odds from making it to the WNBA to cancer, she has a message for everybody," said Tim Simms, her agent.

The planned event will take place at Kim Son Restaurant on 2001 Jefferson St. The reception will commence at 6:30 p.m. to be followed by the scheduled speech at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $25 for LIB members, $40 for new-members and $50 for non-members and will include a full-course meal. For those wishing to make reservations in advance, call (713)529-0077 or e-mail the organization at LIB@wt.net.

BACKSTAGE

Actors Theatre of Houston will present the regional premiere of The Uneasy Chair, a new play by Evan Smith. The production will play Friday and Saturday nights at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday afternoons at 2:00 p.m. through May 8. Witty dialogue, humorous plot twists and a fussy attention to matters of style and propriety makes this production move and feel like the great comedies of Oscar Wilde and George Bernard Shaw. The theatre is located at 2506 South Boulevard (one-half block east of Kirby Dr., one block north of Bissonnet). Tickets are $14, $10 for students and seniors. For reservations call (713)529-6606.

Stages Repertory Theatre presents Valley Song by South African playwright Athol Fugard. Directed by Alex Allen Morris, the play opens Friday, April 9 and runs through Sunday, May 2. In the dawn of a new South Africa, a young woman is eager to take on the world, to experience life without limitations including the stranglehold of the past. Valley Song is a tender tale of love, rebirth and the miracle of letting go, and has been hailed as one of Fugard's finest plays. [Valley Song is an official event of the Houston International Festival.] Showtimes are Wednesday-Saturday at 8:00 p.m. and Sundays at 3:00 p.m. Tickets range from $18-$30 ($10 for students, based on availability) and can be purchased at the box office, located at 3201 Allen Parkway at Waugh. Call (713) 52-STAGES for more information.

Alan Waldock and Martin Burke wonder: what else to do? in the Bard's Twelfth Night at Austin's Planet Theatre.

Austin's Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Rd. and Sneak Up! Productions [SUP] in association with Vortex Repertory Company presents Twelfth Night, or What You Will by Wm. Shakespeare, April 17-May 8. SUP revives the Bard's romantic comedy in which six actors and three umbrellas transport you to the shores of Illyria, a fanciful land where a maiden grieving for her lost brother can masquerade as a man, be sent by a duke to woo a countess, and find herself in love with the duke and the countess in love with her. Showtimes are Thursdays ($8), Fridays and Saturdays ($12) at 8:00 p.m.; Sunday, May 2 at 6:00 p.m. ($12). Celebrate Shakespeare's 435th birthday with cake, ale and entertainment following the Friday, April 23 performance. For tickets call (512)454-TIXS.

Meg Murphy, Norman Blumensaadt and Diederik Aragon star in the Acting Studio's Production of The Hypochondriac.

Different Stages continues its new season with The Hypochondriac, a new translation of Moliere's The Imaginary Invalid by Martin Sorrell. Moliere's last play is a satire about the medical profession that will have you in stitches. The play runs at the Acting Studio, 5811 Burnet Rd., April 17 through May 8. Performances are Thursday-Saturday at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are "pay what you can" on Thursday evenings and $12 on Friday and Saturday. There will be a Sunday night performance, May 2, at 6:00 p.m. For reservations and information, call (512)454-TIXS or contact Norman Blumensaadt at (512)453-7943.

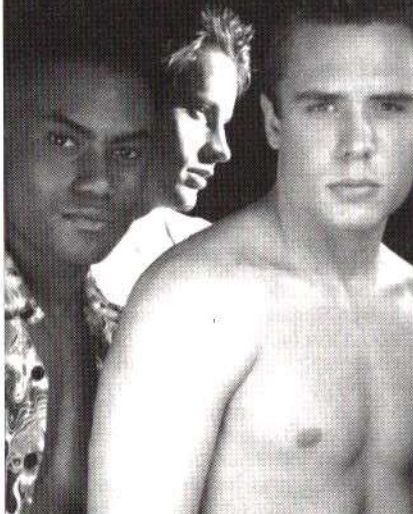

Dallas' Pegasus Theatre, 3916 Main St. presents Unrequited Love's a Bore directed by multiple Leon Rabin Award recipient Bruce R. Coleman and written by Leon Rabin Award winner Steve Lovett. Unrequited proves that sometimes love, like accidents, occur close to home. The entire proceeds from the April 16 opening night's ticket sales will be given to Legacy

A hysterical and historical look at this country's forefathers and an event that almost never happened! The show runs April 22-May 23 at the theater's 305 West Main St. location. Performances are Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.; Fridays and Saturdays at 8:00 p.m.; Sunday matinees on May 1, 16, and 23 are at 2:00 p.m. Tickets range from $12-$16. # April 9 - April 15 1999

DENNIS QUAID
April 9, 1954

Lovely Venus changes signs this week moving from sensual Taurus into electric Gemini. We can put our ardor into words and act upon it. The trick is to do, not just think and wonder. We're not getting any younger cousin! Prepare for a few moments of clarity and perhaps a happy zetz or two.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Gay Rambos are usually the strong silent type. Now with sultry Venus entering feisty Gemini you become fairly mouthy. (Thank goodness!) Even recalcitrant Rams feel the urge to say what they feel and feel what they say in love... and war. Refine your inflammatory remarks so you can take your manifesto to the immediate world and set the stage for the revolution!

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Lovely Venus helps all devil may care proud Bulls get down to financial brass tacks. Life need not look all that taxing if you examine your bottom line while Venus holds the strobe. Make a purse out of a sow's ear. (And goodness knows, we tend to have a crate of sow's ears at our disposal...) Repent! Repent! Fairly soon you'll have to put your mouth where your money is.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Venus in your own sign prepares you for a magnanimous grand entrance. Meet and greet cousin and don't stop until you have exhausted all opportunities. Pink Twins exude diplomacy and charm and may display more self confidence than usual. It may be that, as you open up to the world, you will get a few insights into the true lavender you. Do you like what you see?

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) If queer Crabs exhibit a spark of intuition now, give a big thank you to Venus which shines a light on an otherwise dark and mysterious corner. It is also an excellent time to volunteer for a great gay cause. (Is there any other??) Doing good gay deeds bring happiness to others and builds up those personal karmic points like money in the bank. Go on a spending spree!

LEO (July 24 - August 23) Grab a few compadres and create a social scene when popular Venus traverses friendly Gemini. Proud Lions find that pals and large social gatherings provide them with affirmation and a sense of well being. You ache to be with others. Is this the independent Leo we have all come to expect? I wouldn't be surprised if you became leader of the pride pack by the end of this transit.

VIRGO (August 24 - September 23) What advice can I possibly give to one with the key to political charm? Charismatic Venus in Gemini whips up your best diplomatic cream and gay Virgins are ready to spread it around. Why not use it to grease the corporate machinery and wiggle into the inner sanctum? Grab for the glory when the energy is right, cousin. Hey, is that a cherry on top??

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23) Venus in Gemini casts gay Libras a wide net. Take a walk on the wilde side and see what the world has to offer. The urge to explore and experience the unusual and exotic may be too tempting for otherwise occupied Libras. If you're too strapped to travel why not benefit from a course of study? On second thought, take the exotic stranger....

the hot tub rages to a stiff boil, thank the pleasantly perky vibes of Venus in Gemini. Gay Scorps can relax now and enjoy themselves sexually so choose your quarry wisely and safely jump in. Of course, the other opportunity available to you now is a more personally probing one; You can get to the root of any deep psychological problem. Heck, probe someone instead.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 22)

Proud Archers need romance as they need air and water now. Thankfully, with lovely Venus in flirtatious Gemini, if you are serious in your pursuit of a meaningful relationship, you may just succeed in your search. For those lucky Sags who are already part of a pair, use this delightful energy to affirm, enhance and spoil your partner mercilessly.

CAPRICORN (December 23 - January 20)

While it's not the most exciting prediction, I see a much easier time for you with day to day tasks. Gay Caps can master any job more easily whether its hauling rocks in the salt mine or hauling weights at the gym. It's time to roll up your sleeves and tackle strenuous or onerous details now when the planetary energy is strong. It will build up your confidence and tone a few peccs.

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19)

Despite the most persistent obligations, Aqueerians find time to lie back and smell the flowers when Venus changes signs. Pastimes and delightful pursuits have a way of fitting into your busy schedule just when you need a lift, so don't fight it. See if you can combine business with pleasure; the drops of creativity that you paint today can become the masterpieces of tomorrow.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20)

Pink Fish face the familial music much more easily when diplomatic Venus glides into expressive Gemini. If parental constraints have kept you from feeling true to yourself, at least Venus can help pry open that closet door a bit wider. Affection and mutual respect reign so do what you must do to be fulfilled and proudly happy. Life is far to short to compromise, cousin.

TEXAS TEA ☕

SAN ANTONIO TEA - Bonham Exchange is magnificently anchored within a stones throw of the Alamo and all the pretty party people pack the house nightly. Cute customer Chris [right] was captured by the CRUISE CAMERA enjoying the sights and sounds at the Bonham. The visitors coming to town this month for Fiesta will certainly make the club a meeting point after exploring the events along the famed River Walk. Coming up on Monday, April 19 is the twelfth annual presentation of the Miss Gay Fiesta Flambeau pageant starring Donet McKim, Canela, Jesse-John Perez, Cinnamon Sweet and Jordan Scott. Applications are available at the club....

Downtown, you'll find the Metropolis staff gearing up for a fierce Fiesta this year with everyone from the old Crew joining in and welcoming all the new faces to the closest club to all the River parades. Speaking of sights to behold, on Good Friday, Tiffany Clark was crowned Queen William XI in the venerable pageant held at Metropolis. She was crowned by Tipper Neer, QWX, amidst revelry customary to this year's River Parade/King William Festival warm-up. The contestants and special guests raised $1,400 for the Providence Home and Wellness Connection. Make sure you stop in and see your friends at Metropolis this weekend....

This Saturday, April 10, nationally-famed puppeteer impressionist Jerry Halliday appears at Myth with his wicked puppets including Bette Davis, Joan Rivers, Lolas the Gossip Lady and the newest addition to the troupe, Sista Girl. A hilarious gay time is guaranteed! Myth bartender K.C. [left] is always ready to show a man a good time. The Catalina Video Model Search is coming soon to Myth. Practice up at Myth's Monday Strip-Off or Thursday's Boxer Shorts contest. Next Saturday, April 17, is when San Antonio's first Bubble Party happens at Myth. There will be lots of bubbles and specially priced bubbly for an effervescent evening....

All of you coo-coo canaries, dove-tonseled dulcimers and wicked warblers should head on over to Webbles and join in on the karaoke fun every Monday and Thursday at Sparks. If you can carry a tune, you better carry it on over to the club and surprise all your friends and hopefully fans....

A special event, held at The Annex by the Firedancers [above] last Saturday, was a tremendous success, and the hundreds of dollars that were raised will go to local charities. Great show guys! Preceding that, was the annual 'Switch Night' on April 1st, and what a show it was. Some of these guys looked really great- maybe they should do it more often. HA! Consider the odds! This weekend, the Annex is sharing some free goodies with customers, tomorrow night, in celebrating the beginning of their third year of service to the community. There's going to be something happening every night throughout the month of April. More details can be found right here in their weekly ads....

The Saint presents pageants, pageants and more pageants. You can always find a goddess to worship on their stage, which features a vivid array of entertainers from legendary icons like Pauletta Leigh and Shady Lady to goddesses in the making on Tuesday Talent Night. Get ready for Babe Meyer's eighth annual Miss Gay Fiesta pageant next Friday, April 16 with a legion of lovelies ready to entertain the masses as Fiesta kicks-off on a royal foot again this year. Thursday, April 15 trumpets the return of the talented and tantalizing National Entertainer of the Year Daisy Deadpetals, direct from Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She's the toast of the nation and the tops in gay entertainment. Mark your calendars now for Sunday, April 25. That's the date for the return of fiercest preliminary in the USA crown, Miss Gay South USofA pageant. Lovely Tersa Matthews crowns her successor, who'll be competing at the Miss Gay USofA pageant in Dallas this coming May 25-26-27-28. Whether you're a boy or a girl or somewhere in between, you'll always have a good time at the shows at

The Saint. That's where we captured super sexy Sergio and absolute goddess Erica Andrews [above, l-r] having a most pleasant evening in the city that will be welcoming the world of visitors this month. See you there.

AUSTINTeaCIOUS - Charlie's is celebrating their annual Bluebonnet Festival. We of central Texas love our bonnets, blue and otherwise. Jame Perry [left] hosts a bevy of nearly naked hunks at her amateur strip contest every Tuesday. We also love all the cuties in the Monday night Wet Underwear Contest. Hostess Heather Thomas has returned and promises you a good dose of comedy, while the boys give you a good dose of bulging undies and "swinging" boxers. The only way to catch all of the action is to show up by midnight on Mondays....

'Bout Time is always a fun place to play. They have darts, pool and volleyball. Couple all this competition with an occasional drag show and you have a festive time waiting for you. Last Saturday, the bar presented a benefit for the Pediatric AIDS League. It is always a pleasure to see such talent being used to generate funds for such a worthy cause. Speaking of talent, the Miss Universal Thang Contest is coming up quick. Ima Calienta, it's time to give up the crown, but you will always be reigning in our hearts....

Rainbow Cattle Company is still buzzing from last Sunday's twelfth annual Austin Babbist Women Easter Show. As always, Ophelia was wearing white shoes for her trademark cartwheels. They are well on their way to their fifth million in funds raised. Our hat is off to these dedicated philanthropists.

Handsome Chad and Garret [right, l-r] were on hand to join in the merriment. Make sure to stop in for line dance lessons on Monday nights at 8:00 p.m. and regular dance lessons on Tuesdays. There is nothing like a man that knows how to dance. Just a note: learn to lead and follow, you never know who will ask you to dance. On May 20, Tim Caswell presents the Mr. Capital of Texas Contest. Contact Tim at (512)494-0294 for more information....

Splash Video Bar has finished the new construction on the pool area. It is rather nice to shoot a game of pool without being bumped by guys cruising someone else.

These three adorable boys [above] just happened to be shooting pool during our latest visit. You can be sure we made every attempt to bump into them. On the construction note, we hear a rumor that Randy C. is planning on adding a rooftop patio in addition to his already festive ground level patio. We know that you all love cocktails outside in the fresh Austin air. Make sure to stop in and say "hi" to new bartender JD; he is quite a looker and we are told that he is single....

The Forum is thrilled for deejay Danny C. Reportedly, he has a handsome new boyfriend these days. The bar also has two new employees. Finus, the new bartender, is from Baton Rouge and Ray is the new barback. Wednesdays are still "Back to the Boathouse" night, but now they've added a new twist with local goddess Kelly Kline hosting The Newlywed Game. Sounds like it should be a bunch of fun. Owner Mark tells us that he is planning on several circuit parties this summer and a few porn stars as special guests. Last summer's appearance by J.T. Sloan was a huge hit.

DALLAS TEA - This Sunday, April 11 JR.'s presents a Bachelor Auction benefiting the Walt Whitman School. Get on down and bid on the available bachelors and their event packages, starting at 4:00 p.m. Norval Sykes, Stephen Yearek and Terry Williams [below, l-r] are three cute cus-

Lunch is served daily from opening until 4:00 p.m. For eighteen years, they've offered fabulous sights, sounds and service. Wanda's Newlywed Game happens every Tuesday at 11:00 p.m. Wanda returns on Wednesdays at 8:30 p.m. for the double elimination pool tournament. Every Friday and Saturday, it's Cruisin' The Crossroads from 9:00-9:30 p.m. and kicking off the night like nowhere else in town. Sunday's Anything Goes contest with Wanda begins at 8:30 p.m. Sixty-one video montions on two levels are controlled by Michael Burden, Mark Rinewalt and Bryan Hamric for a treat of the senses that is seldom felt. Emotions are in motions at everyone's favorite corner club, JR.'s Bar & Grill....

Paivi Lee Love

Houston legend and reigning diva of EJs, Paivi Lee Love, departed quietly from this life on March 22, 1999 at 2:00 p.m. in the company of numerous friends and family. TWT and the Houston community would like to express their most sincere condolences to her relatives and partner Jack in acknowledgement of her many contributions and artistic efforts on behalf of her "other" family. You will always be our "Lucy in sky with diamonds!"

"Babe, of all the people I have encountered in this life you were the only one that truly touched my heart. I love you and will never forget you." From Miss peanut and Mr. Barney: "Mama, we love you and will miss you very much," and from Papa: "I love you and will hold your memory in my heart until I see you on the other side. Until then my love—All my love!, Jack Rhodes.

Don "Ducky" Housen

(June 14, 1941 - February 20, 1999)

Don lost his courageous battle with cancer on February 20, 1999, in the V.A. Hospital of Houston, with friends and relatives at his side. Born and raised in New Jersey, Don had spent the last twenty-nine years as a resident of Houston. He served in the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam conflict from 1964-1967. He worked in the newspaper business for thirty-eight years, twenty-five at the Houston post. Don loved bowling, photography, the arts, the beach, his friends and family, his new found toy—the internet and life in general. He was a team member of Five Easy Pieces of the Montrose Monday night bowling league. His smile and thoughtfulness will be greatly missed by all those lucky persons whose lives he touched.

We love and miss you Don. Until we meet again Your longtime friend., Helen, friend and confidant, Jeff, team mates Doug, Mike, Gerald and Karl.

DONALD E. RIDDLE

(September 14, 1956 - March 9, 1999)

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love to work or play, tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that place at the close of the day, if my partings has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief, lift up your heart and share with me. God wanted me now. He set me free.

We love and miss you—Rick, Shannon, Denise and Peter.
