LEGS WIDE SHUT! TRICK EXPLORES TWO MEN'S QUEST FOR A LITTLE MEANINGLESS SEX

Who needs love and devotion when there's a stunning go-go dancer ready, willing and oh-so-able to fulfill a night of fantasy-fulfilling sex? OK, so that's a trick question. But in one tight little package, that's the basic premise to the gay one-night-stand comedy, Trick.

Of course, there is a little more to the plot than that. The story centers around a young musical theatre writer named Gabriel (Christian Campbell—yes, that's Neve's brother) who needs to better understand the complex emotions about which he writes. It doesn't help that his songs are belted out to his writing class by his over-eager, ditzzy actress friend, Katherine (Tori Spelling). So, one night while at a popular bar, he catches the eye of a thong-clad go-go boy named Mark (John Paul Pitoc) and they eventually end up on the same subway. Gabriel decides to seize the moment and takes Mark home for a little naked action. That's all much easier than it sounds, as it turns out, thanks to dozens of obstacles thrown their way throughout the night. Cold shower anyone?

This all may come across a bit contrived, but fortunately, clever writing and direction by Jason Schafer and Jim Fall, respectively, keeps Trick from turning into a made-for-the-big-screen, 90-minute sitcom. The characters actually achieve a great amount of depth through highly relatable (although extreme) circumstances and on-the-money acting by the key performers.

Campbell and Pitoc are engaging leading men who bring some awkwardly hot chemistry together. You'll know what I mean when you see the under-the-piano fantasy scene. Pitoc's ability to transcend the typical brainless dancer stereotype was an amazing feat in itself.

I'm sure by now you've heard about Spelling's much-publicized, nepotism-free role in Trick, and the fact is, whatever positive buzz she gets—she deserves. At least thanks to this great comedic role, she should never have to be one of those actresses forced to make melodramatic dribble like Mother, May I Sleep with

J.P. Pitoc, Christian Campbell and Tori Spelling star in Jim Fall's gay comedy Trick.

Danger? on TV. Oh wait, never mind.

As bitter-old-drag-queen Miss Coco Peru, Clinton Leupp threatens to steal the show, but I think that award clearly belongs to Steve Hayes, who plays Gabriel's cabaret-lovin' friend, Perry. It's this great father-figure friend who helps Gabriel realize his songs are lacking, well, oomph! And he should know, because his musical number at Eighty Eight's is the one real showstopper (just slightly above Tori's french fry fit).

"Filming that song was scary for me, though. When I went in, they told me I was going to have to sing the song a cappella to everyone in the room. I told [the film-makers], you're going to have a lot of angry extras, but it turned out ok," Hayes told me in a recent interview, in which I was hoping to get enough juicy gossip from the set to sell to The Weekly World News and build a pool in my backyard. So, I probed Hayes for some dirt.

"I was so fortunate to have such a wonderful movie be my first one. It's a lovely, romantic, funny, delightful movie and I'm very proud of it," Hayes said. "It was a delightful shoot. Everybody had such a good time and we all liked the material so much. That makes all the difference."

OK, so I guess next summer's going to be another one spent running through the sprinklers. But it was nice to hear such good karma generated from any movie set these days.

He kept me in stitches for nearly an hour with his stories, but I knew the one person everyone would want to know about. So, in a last ditch effort, I pulled out the big guns and asked about La Tori.

"Tori is an untapped comic resource. She did a great job. This is going to be the start of a lot of comedies for her," Hayes gushed. "My God, is she a trooper. She walked into her scene having never tap danced. It was the hottest day of the year in New York and she did take after take and never complained, so I figured I had to keep my mouth shut."

Let's just hope Hayes doesn't keep his mouth shut for too long. Even though Trick was his first movie, he's got wacky-gay-neighbor potential for any number of upcoming projects. And whether it had anything to do with him or not, it's his wonderful personality that shines from everybody in the film, making Trick at the top of my list of all the gay movies that have blessed us this summer. It's simple, sweet and a whole lot of fun—a great gay date movie, if ever there was one.

Trick opens today in Dallas. For other theaters across the state, check your local listings.

You know that for every Madonna original there will always be at least two or three covers. Sometimes they're good and others...well, you know without me going and getting messy. The latest of these often little-known marvels comes from Italy by a group known as In-Deep. Full-blown gay circuit sounding madness with glorious Mark Farina synths surround this lovely female vocal. And she sounds almost like the real thing-and no accent!!

If you want to get the jump on the next Amber single, the import is out already. This pianoy houser comes with a lovely Robbie Rivera mix that will completely blow you away. This isn't slated for a US release until next month.

Probably one of the biggest club records of all time, "What Is Love" by Haddaway, gets a new reread courtesy of Todd Terry and the Mosquito Heads. Tee's mix carries on with lots of organ stabs and killer reworking of the already fabulous vocals. The MH mix is filled with circuitry....way nice!

After the closing of Popular Records a while back, we wondered about the fate of many of their artists. Well, yet another, The Porn Kings, resurfaces on Globe Records in the UK with a new single "It's A Party When We Party". This record is pure underground house music at its best. Rumor has it that there is an album in the works. We'll keep you posted.

The boys over at Klone in the UK are at it again and this time it's a Norma Lewis record. Many remember Norma for here rendition of "Maybe This Time" from back in '81 (my training bra years!). This time out Norma does the Natalie Cole classic

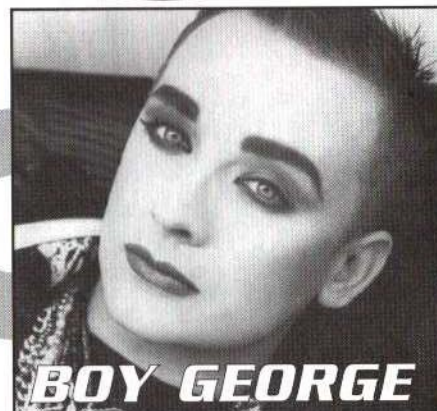

"Someone That I Used To Love" fine justice. This anthem-like masterpiece has been all the rage at this season's circuit events, but has been extremely hard to get ahold of as it was basically a white label promo circulated by Octave On High, an NYC record store who also happens to be OH Boy records. Ok ladies, time to head down to the record rack!!

DJ Dado is back with "Forever" (again) and these new re-mixes are sensational. Steve "Silk" Hurley has gloriously re-worked Dado's huge circuit smash with his house wizardry. The record was already brilliant and these new mixes just give you a reason to play it even more!

There are dubs and then are dubs. Check out the Inside OU vs. Diana Ross for "Upside Down 2000". This classic disco hit truly gets worked over by the Brits. It's definitely not a remake, but a true underground, dance floor-rum-

by Jimmy
Smith

bling dub utilizing the vocals of Ross. Way over the top and way nice!!!

Speaking of the Brits...there's a track by Aquarius called "Lay Dee" on Spirit UK. The track is built around a sample from the Isley Brothers' "That Lady" and evolves into a cutting edge specimen the likes of Pete Heller, Phats & Small etc. This group is actually Spacedust in disguise.

And finally a must-have for all collectors is the new Culture Club single. That's right...Culture Club!! "Your Kisses Are Charity" offers a strong reggae-influenced summer single for the girls. No real dance mixes here, but it's not every day you get a new Culture Club, huh? And that's Dance Music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

BILLY RAY CYRUS
August 25, 1961

The Sun changes signs this week moving from regally dramatic Leo to serious and servicing Virgo. Good thing too, I was getting tired of all those theatrical solar displays over the past month. It's time to shake the thunder clouds, com-padres, and display the rainbow in time for the next election. Hey, we don't need a weatherman to tell us which way the wind blows.

LEO (July 24 - August 23) Proud Leos can't help but count their pennies during the Sun in Virgo. Financial matters take on a greater importance in your life and you may find yourself in a more acquisitive phase. Possessions alone cannot bring happiness and security cousin, but you're not listening. No matter; Once this phase is over, even the most obstinate gay Lions will learn a monetary thing or two.

VIRGO (August 24 - September 23) The Sun in your own sign heralds in a new, rejuvenating phase in your life. Happy birthday queer Virgin. It's time to play to the audience and take your show on the road. Get out into the social swirl to meet and greet. This transit encourages you to begin new projects and perhaps initiate a change in appearance. Start by dumping that tired wardrobe. Did I say dump? I meant refresh, cousin.

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23) It's time to face your personal dragons and get on with living your life to the fullest. The major lesson to be learned from the Sun in Virgo is what childhood and family nonsense is responsible for repressing your dreams and wishes today. It's time to clean out that closet, my queer dear. Throw out that rancid old trash once and for all. It's a new epoch and a new lavender you.

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22) Strategic Scorps usually feel most in the pink when they are completely in charge, but now, with the Sun in Virgo, it may be best to run with the herd for a while. Allow the group dynamic to call the tune; You can decide if you want to dance or sit this one out. The most important thing is to figure out how you can best interact with others and whether you like what you see in yourself.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 22) Most of the time, proud Archers could really care less about what those in command think of them. However, now with the Sun in conservative Virgo, even the feistiest of Sags manage to pour themselves into pinstripes to face the corporate music. Ever dream of territorial domination? This solar plexus strengthens your prospects. Please be a benevolent dictator when you reach the top.

CAPRICORN (December 23 - January 20) Even dour gay Caps can't resist the illuminating effect of Sun in Virgo. Happily, anything you decide to do to expand your vistas will prove to be personally successful and satisfying whether it's a vacation, a course of study or latching onto a fabulously exotic group of cohorts. Try approaching life from a new angle; you may find yourself dancing to the pulsating beat of a different drummer.

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19) The Sun in Virgo brings on a case of the touchy feelies which can really rattle otherwise untouchable Aqueerians. It feels like a strobe light has illuminated and exposed your most personal fears and secrets. How does it feel to be naked to the world? (Wear ample sun-screen...) And yet, this psychological catharsis may be just what you need to live life proudly out and open. Hmmm.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20) An interesting effect of Sun in Virgo is how you begin to regard relationships. Sensitive pink Fish ache for romance and ephemeral, dreamy tete-a-tetes. Well that can only take you so far, my friend. This solar phase encourages you to more fully examine partnerships on a more pragmatic, self interested level. What are you getting out of this act? Are you road manager or groupie?

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) The Sun in meticulous Virgo encourages all proud Rams to get down to the nitty gritty at work. Use the next four weeks to prioritize tasks and tackle any onerous projects once and for all. It will be a productive time even though you are not in charge. Might I suggest a reassessment of any exercise and diet regime? It's never too late to get any drydocked relic in ship shape for cruise season.

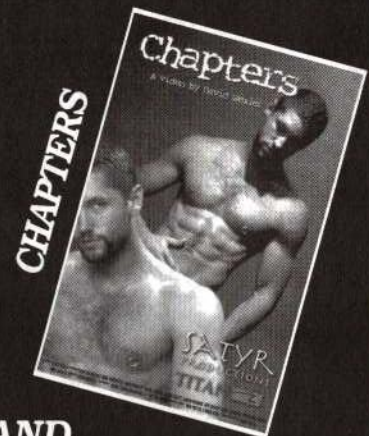

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) What self respecting queer Bull could resist the excellent vibes that come with the Sun in Virgo? It's the perfect time of year to let those creative juices flow out, over and beyond the rainbow. The most important thing, of course, is to have fun. Any artistic pursuits can bring affirmation, harmony and (dare I say) romance. Study nude photography and see what develops in the dark-room.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Even devil may care Geminis need a bit of f.l.c. Now, with Sun in Virgo, gay Twins find the comfort they need right in their own backyard. Gather kindred souls together and plan more at home entertaining. If family issues are still a burden, you may feel more prepared to handle such nonsense now when the past comes back to bite you on the butt. Closets are made for clothes, not people.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Revise your personal message when the expressive Sun traverses meticulous Virgo. Pink Crabs are loathe to express themselves freely around others, but now you can hardly resist mouthing an opinion or five. Good thing too! Shout it out and let others know what's on your mind. It's those nasty little second thoughts that often undermine a great gay concept. Now you have no excuse.

TEA BY THE SEA—Traveling Texans are sure enjoying the beaches this summer and the proof is in the surge of nightclub goers on Galveston Island. A recent trip to the

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists
from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish,"
"acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub,"
"back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.
