BY JIMMY R. SMITH

People are always asking me what I like to listen to. And to be honest, I really do enjoy everything. Over the years what we call Dance Music has evolved and become so stylistically convoluted that it's often difficult to keep up with everything that's going on and even more so to describe that various genres and subgenres.

I know that, depending on where you live, the nomenclature can be a bit askew at times. For example, often when I am in the booth somewhere in the South, a person will come up and ask for say the "techno" mix of a Mariah Carey record. And I don't know how anyone can possibly use the term techno in the same sentence with Mariah Carey. Techno as a genre of music has been over since about 1995 or 6. While there may be offshoots such as Trance, or techno-flavored remixes floating around on certain records, or Tech-house, techno as a genre is pretty much over with and has been for about a decade. I also find that many people who will request hip-hop are in actuality wanting to hear R&B.

Brian McDermott

Paradise Garage club in New York where the sound was pioneered. Garage was an important step in the development of Drum 'n' Bass. Its characteristics are lots of bass, vocals, keyboards and sometimes even violins. These days Garage is extremely popular in the UK and amongst those whom I consider to have excellent taste here in the US!

All that being said I want to share with you one of my favorite "boutique" record labels here in the US, GLIDESLOPE MUSIC. Launched in October 2002, Glideslope Music made an instant impression by gaining massive worldwide attention from its debut release - "Daydreamin'" by Bravo Mike. The intense support received from the wide spectrum of DJ's made up of bedroom jocks to some of the top internationally known headliners put the label on the map. Promising to be a home for thoughtful deep house, the label is a presence made up of soothing and soulful sounds meshed with a modern tech edge to it.

Glideslope's founder, Brian McDermott is no stranger to the music arena. Having worn many hats in the industry, some of his credentials include editing and producing for Ultra Records, King Street Records, Strictly Rhythm Records, Todd Terry, Benn Watt, Mousse T, Boris Dlugosch, Ananda Project, Masters At Work, Ultra Nate and Joi Cardwell.

Over the past 4 years, Glideslope Music has consistently put out quality releases that have only expanded the label's visibility and caliber.

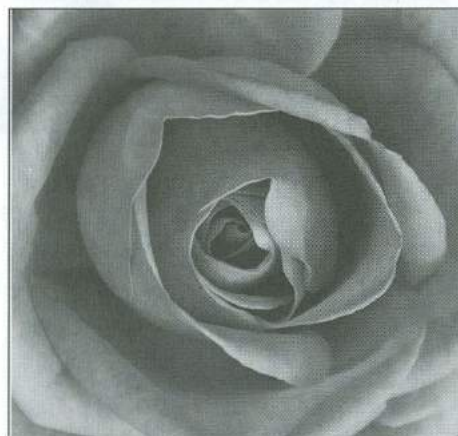

other titles to several labels around the world including Stealth Records for Roger Sanchez's Release Yourself 5 compilation due out any day.

We were privy this week to be able to hear the latest 3 releases from our pals at the label. Monica Lynk's new single "Without You" comes with a ton of mixes to satisfy anyone's taste, plus the new Cosmic Belt record "Time Flies," and this wonderful EP from The Blacklight Society "The Friscoque EP."

So if you don't want to be caught listening to the same ol' commercial stuff that everyone else is listening to, do yourself a favor and log onto beatport.com and do a label search for Glideslope...we're certain you'll be glad you did!

And that's the beats...THIS WEEK IN TEXAS..

As of late, Glideslope Music scored big success with their release "Do It" by Cosmic Belt, which has caught the ears of the global DJ elite and has been licensed to Ministry Of Sound. In addition, GSM has licensed out various

Dear Diva

The Diva is in the house...

Dear Diva:

I'm planning on attending my 20th college reunion next year, and would like to bring my partner of five years with me to the event. I attended Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia – not the most liberal of institutes of higher learning (in fact, it's an evangelical Christian university) – and I just know that it's going to be a difficult experience, to say the least. I was the quarterback of the football team, and dated the homecoming queen my entire senior year. What can I do to make my partner more comfortable – and how can I deal with what I know is going to be a really prejudicial reaction from my former classmates.

Dallas Dude, Dallas, TX

Dear Dude:

My, my, my....the Diva is, once again, completely nonplussed by the depths of self-punishment and self-flagellation to which we mortals will subject ourselves and our significant others to. I mean no disrespect to your collegiate achievements, but for Ghandi's sake – that was twenty years ago, and you've obviously become a completely different person from the one that you were when you were schtupping the first of many queens in your life. Why, the Diva wonders, are you so hell-bent on putting you and your partner through the experience? What possible benefit will that reunion be to you, to your life and to your relationship with your man? Where can I get a picture of you in your pads and helmet? I believe – and I have consulted Psychic Sue on this matter – the event will bring nothing but tragedy to you and yours, and I am unanimous in the fact that spending the time, money and energy to participate in this travesty will bring hell-fire and brimstone – and a helluva lot of heartburn – to your relationship. Rather than place your partner and yourself in the positions of those little ducks that go back and forth at the carnival shooting gallery, why not break out your American Express card and spring for a long, romantic weekend on South Padre Island or in San Antonio or Galveston? The people that you went to school with at Redneck U 20 years ago won't miss you, and your time will be much better spent reuniting with that special part of your man's body than it will be reuniting with people whose wardrobes include white sheets and swastikas.

Dear Diva:

My best friend (I'll call him Mark) and I – we've known each other for over 10 years – have gotten into the habit of fooling around lately and, to be honest, it's been pretty amazing! I'm not trying to brag, but it's been the most intense sex I've ever had – and, in the morning, I actually look forward to seeing him! While you may not think this sounds like a problem, it's starting to worry me. I'm beginning to feel things for Mark that I've never felt before...I mean, I think I'm falling in love with him. I'm just so afraid that I'll lose the incredible friendship that I have with him if we take our relationship to a different level. What should I do?

Confused in Corpus

Dear Beach Babe:

Oh, the Diva feels for you – really, she does. I, too, once had a best friend of long duration that also became a sex partner of a, regrettably in my case, shorter duration. We are still the best of friends, thank goddess, and I remember quite fondly the time we spent between the sheets. Our sex, however, was not as intense as yours seems to be, and therein lies the rubber. So many people would suggest that you take it one day at a time...you know, just see where it leads. Others would chastise you for taking the chance that your seemingly idyllic relationship might become tarnished because of the exposure of that other side of you that many friends, best or otherwise, don't get to see of you. Both of those opinions are, to the Diva, trite and certainly don't help you to make a decision about your life and potential life-mate. I, for one, believe that life is much too short go for the gusto, as it were.

CLASSIC

26 Years Ago This Week in Texas

Just because Pride and July 4th celebrations throughout the state were a part of the history books, didn't mean that Texassexuals were lacking for exciting, enticing and enthralling events to fill-up their gay planners, and our adorable cover model 26 years ago This Week in Texas was proof positive of just how much there was to keep our minds - and other vital organs - occupied through the sultry months of summer. His name: Doug Summers; His game: enticing the Lone Star State with his toned body and chiseled features.

Now, where were we? Oh, yeah....

When we were through admiring Doug's assets, many of us ventured to such famed establishments as the Wild Crowd Saloon in Dallas, to hear the song-stylings of the Fitzhugh-renowned Mustang Band; Encore II, also in Dallas, to witness the 5th Annual Women's Motorcycle Club's De Ja Vu Variety Show; The Different Drum in Houston for the electronically-programmed music of Bud Mack; the Austin Country in...well, Austin, for their free beer nights on Tuesday and Wednesday; The Other Place in Ft. Worth, for their Super Sunday Show featuring Cheree, Lindsay Love, Nikki Shelton and Bette Sheba; The New Faces in San Antonio, for their Monday Night Face of the Month contest; and to Gay Country, back in Houston, just to see all those gorgeous cowboys in their oh-so-tight Wranglers.

And, when we played - and we DID play - we did so with balls, of course.

Lots and lots of them. Of course, we're talking about softballs, as teams from throughout Houston converged on Levy Field for the annual Montrose Sports Association Softball League finals. Teams from the Briar Patch, the Brazos River Bottom and the Copa all competed, but going into the finals, the second place Galleon team - featuring the delicious David Prejean, a future Mr. Gay Texas and TWT cover model - took on the first-place Parade in what can only be described as a battle of the bulges....Ahem....

SAY, WASN'T THAT....Pre-Weather Girls Two Tons of Fun at The Copa in Houston, The Copa in Beaumont, Tex's Colorado Street Bar in Austin and the Village Station in Dallas; hunky staffers Ron Fowler, Gary Ervin, Jack Witten and John Crumb at the new Unicorn in Houston; cuisine master Bob Graves at Baja's in Dallas; birthday boy Tom Trimble blowing out the candles on his cake at the Tarrant County Mining Company in Ft. Worth; Mr. Gay San Antonio, Kevin Wagner, cutting the ribbon on his new card and gift shop in San Antonio; Sabrina Ross passing along her bejewelled headdress to the new Miss Gay USA Texas, Vonda DeLayne, at the Austin Country in Austin; Houston Muscle and Power Company's studly Stewart McCloud, joining forces with the equally gorgeous Charles of Wilde 'n Stein Books and the similarly spectacular Steve of the Sports Locker in Houston...for what, only the three hunks know the answer; Vera, unpacking her moving boxes at the The Hi-Lite Ranch's new location at 6620 1/2 Main, still in Houston; and Shreveport-based all-girl band, Impulse, pulsing the tunes at Jugs, back in Dallas. Finally, poppers....poppers will put them to sleep...sleep...Oh, wrong story. At any rate, poppers were all the rage throughout the Lone Star State, with brands such as Hardware, Bolt, Discorama, Ban-Apple Gas, Rush, Climax, Hi-Ball and Quicksilver being a prominent part of the party scene's nighttime accessory packages. And you could get the precious little bottles of liquid heaven at First Star News in San Antonio, the Gaspipe and Telestar Head Shop in Dallas, at virtually every bar in the state - AND, through state-wide distributor, Alice Phallus!

Talk about your lost weekends....

And that's the way it was 26 years ago, This Week in Texas.

how to travel "our" way with Anna Tripp

Vacations are no fun when you are traveling with your gay partner if you have to go overboard watching your P's and Q's. God knows you can't hold hands around the Holiday Inn swimming pool with Wanda Whitetrash and her beergutted husband and those skanky kids looking on. Let's face the music here. We are in a severely RED state and if we want to enjoy our travels, it's probably best to stay with "people like us." Let the commoners stay where they will. As for me and my hell-bound homosexual comrades, we stay where we are appreciated and wanted!

First stop, Austin. PARK LANE GUEST HOUSE is located in historic Travis Heights and features both a casual elegance and artistic flair. Over 15 restaurants are within walking distance from the inn and only 2 miles away is the Austin Convention Center, State Capital Building, Botanical Gardens and the Colorado River. Relax poolside on their natural stone patio, sit amongst the birds and butterflies in the native Texas garden, and then take a dip in their private swimming pool.

Guestrooms and large jacuzzi suites with fireplaces include plush robes, gourmet coffee, a full in-room breakfast, and free high-speed internet. There is a rooftop hot and sunning deck with views of the downtown skyline. Popular with both men and women.

Heading all the way down to South Padre? Well the UPPER DECK is a must do. The Upper Deck is the only GAY Hotel and Bar located on "South Padre Island, Texas". It's a gay resort with mostly men but women are welcome. To visit the Hotel (pool, patio & hot tub area) you must be 18 or older, for the bar you must be 21 or older. If you are on the island for the day or over night stop by and visit, cool off in the pool and of course if you need a place to stay they would love to have you stay at the hotel. The local GAY BEACH area is just down the street from the Hotel at the end of Atol Street. Weekends draw the best crowds for the gay beach, so sashay down for some fun in the sun!

TEXAS TEA

Tea by the Sea

Corpus Chris"tea"

We at Hot Tea are pleased as the proverbial punch to return to beautiful Corpus Christi, and even more delighted to do so with our very good friend, Alan Toves, whose new club Q's is generating more buzz than a shot of sex on the beach! Our spies tell us that the enormous new party beach!

New on the scene and on the Seawall is 3rd Coast Beach Bar where we found Bartenders C.J.,

Chris and Larry. On your next stop in this bar, be sure to tell them Hot Tea sent ya!

palace will soon be hosting shows under the capable direction of femme mimic extraordinaire, Brittany Andrews. Stay tuned for updates as they become available....and our very best wishes to Alan and his staff for much success!

Galves"tea"on

Texas has Valley's, Mountains and Plains! It also has the Sea!!! What better place to get away from it all than Galveston, Texas! Here we give you our "Tea By The Sea" version of Hot Tea! With several establishments eager to welcome you with great service, exceptional deals and great people, Galveston, Texas certainly has so much to offer for every want and need.

Here we have dropped in on a few Galveston hot spots, some new, some legendary but above all else, all fantastic!!!

We caught up with some great folks over at Robert LeFitte's shown here celebrating July 4th fireworks from the outdoor pool and patio! A great place to wind down after a hot day at the legendary establishment. We snapped bartenders Kyle, James, Jimmy and the new Owners of Garza's KonTiki J.P. & Tricia enjoying a fantastic evening during one of the Sat.night shows.

Down the street from the Kon Tiki, we ventured into Undercurrent. This by far is the largest club on the island offering two floors of entertainment. The downstairs club offers the best in the latest sounds and a fantastic dance floor, while the upstairs venue offers female impersonation shows produced in a theater style setting. We caught up with bar owners Kevin & Marvin with Showcast - Shelby St. John, Southern Comfort and Sofonda St. John. If you want to get away and don't want to go too far, be sure to head down South to the Island, Galveston Island and experience paradise all over again!

Cowtown Tea

The Cowtown coronation is over and Hot Tea has found that Melody Lane and Janie "Mom" Stanton have emerged as the new monarchs. This will be Melody's second attempt at being an empress and Janie's a virgin emperor. The court would like to announce that their Investitures will be held at Best Friend's on Saturday, July 26th at 6PM with a show at Stampede to follow at 10PM. There will also be an organizational meeting at 3PM August 6th also at Best Friends, so if you are interested in being in the court and helping to raise money for charities just head on over!

Stampede is hosting its Man of the Month contest this coming Monday. Make sure to stop by and see some of the loveliness that goes on. The winner each month gets money, a photo shoot and spot on the Stampede calendar, plus a chance to be a TWT cover model. Now how can you beat all that? She show is hosted on the last Monday of the month by the amazingly lifelike Shamoo. We caught Shamoo trying to pick up DJ Darrell Jett at the club. Darrell is Mr. January for the contest and you can also hear his clever mix of Country and Pop every Saturday at the club.

Over at Stampede things are always hopping. Fridays are always filled with hottie bois like Isreal Stop in and see if you can grab one to go! We have a unconfirmed rumor that the club is bringing back a Saturday night Ft. Worth tradition with cheap drinks on Saturdays from 9-11. Watch Hot Tea as we uncover the details. Speaking of rumors...we saw sign in the window of the vacant building located across the street from Hot Shots. It says that someone has applied for liquor to be sold there. Owner Steve Ray will neither confirm or deny that The Station has indeed found a new home...hmmm, guess we will have to wait.

Alamo Ci'Tea"

The Silver Dollar Saloon recently hosted a TGRA Benefit show for the lively Kelly C., Mr Gay Fiesta. The captivating Krystal Kelly was on hand to entertain the crowd, and TJ, Lisa and Melissa were on hand lending their support. Kelly C works so hard for the community, that it's no surprise that the club was packed, girls.....Great show!

That same night, the 2015 hosted its own TGRA show - part of a veritable traveling tour, doncha know. The always popular and hugely talented Bobby G performed acapella, and gorgeous Cliff and Blake were on hand to support the benefit and to have an exciting nite of drinks, dancing and a competitive game of pool. There's always something or someone to do at the 2015....

Big "D" Tea

Hot Tea brownie points to Mickey's for their innovative Monday Night Sing To America Show. Its karaoke broadcast live on the net from 10PM-midnight. All you have to do is go to www.mick-eysdallas.com and register for a slot. Then on Monday night you can sing live and tell your friends and relatives to watch...the traditional karaoke contest goes on from 12-2AM....and its all hosted by Wayne Smith and Chanel.

The Big D classic Bowling Tournament is right around the corner. But tonight the Roundup with host the Big D Classic show in the Parlor Get there early and lasso your self a good seat. After the show you can stick around for a rootin' tootin' time like we caught patrons Keith and David having last time we were in with our little TWT-cam. Beware of those cheap jell-o shots!

If you feel like wrapping your lips around something big, thick, and brown, then blowing drop into the Dallas Eagle tonight from 9-11 for the Lonestar Cigarmen social. Tomorrow night is Daddy Richard's boy Auction Join Daddy Richard as he heads up this boy auction like none other that has been seen. Starts at 9:00 pm and goes thru midnight. And all the madness happens on this Sunday cuz it's Turn-About time! Yep, It's back! Come by and cheer on the guys as they go all out for this yearly event hosted by Marte Akin. Show starts at 7:00 pm.

Chari-TEA...

The Leather Knights of Dallas, with the help of the Dallas Eagle conducted one of their largest annual fundraisers, Military Maneuvers, on Armed Forces Day benefiting AIDS Services of North Texas. On July 18th a check in the amount of $3500.00 was presented to Brian Schmedinghoff, Development Director and Hannah MacIntyre, PR and Outreach Coordinator for AIDS Services of North Texas. The Leather Knights would also like to thank the Ben E. Keith Company for their sponsorship and help with a donation of $1000.00.

Also, everyone know Ruth "the Rose Lady." What they may not know is that the money she raises selling all those roses goes to AIDCharities. Join the crew over at Mickey's at 9PM August 9th (that's a Wednesday) for a very special benefit show with Rose and a cast of many...proceeds from the show will go to the Food Pantry.

Space Ci'Tea"

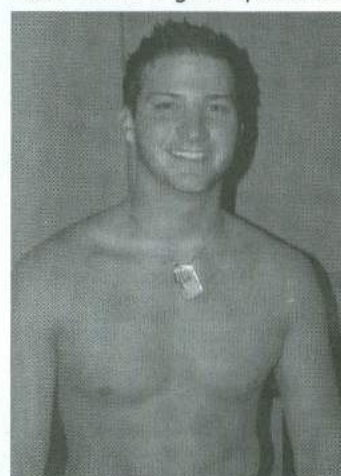

This was certainly a great but HOT week here in the Space City and that was not going to stop us from catching up with the latest on what was happening here in town!

Our cruise camera was fortunate enough to catch the incomparable, Kristine W. while on her recent tour stop at Rich's. Here she is posing with a copy of TWT Magazine advertising her show at the club along with Houston TWT Sales Rep. and Hot Tea photographer, Chris Perez.

The place to see and be seen is definitely South Beach! Known as the "Coolest Place On Earth", you'll certainly see why when you walk thru these doors. The "ice" bars are like no other and the Water wall is a great spot to see some of the hottest men dancing in Houston. Bartender Chris is always on hand to offer you some of the best concoctions that you may thirst. Be sure to check out the clubs' many monthly events that happen here.

The Montrose Mining Company is a Houston legend like no other. Where else can you find some hot men, great drinks and hot male dancers all under one CAVE? Be sure to stop by and mingle on the outdoor patio and do some people watching down below.

Capital Ci'TEA"

Buns. Glazed Buns. Cinnamon Buns. If you're in the mood for buns, then you've got to be in the mood for Hot Buns, and the place to be - as we found out during a recent sojourn in Austin - is the Cockpit Club on Thursday nights. Why, when we were there, there were so many gorgeous examples of gluteus maximus that we felt as if we were in a Mrs. Bairds' factory! Add to that the vivacious talents of the club's very own Paris Chanel, and it became, truly, an evening to remember!

" Okay, now....raise your hands. Who remembers Vanessa Gordon? Whoa, wait a minute....don't all answer at once. Well, for the thousands of you that raised your hands, then you probably also remember that Vanessa is the hostess of her very own eponymously-named review with extra special guest stars each and every Thursday night at Charlie's. What? You didn't know that? Glenn and Thom did! Well, now you do....

Speaking of evenings to remember, that's what we always seem to have when we two-step it over to the Rainbow Cattle Company, where Pappy and Juan - two of the friendliest staffers we've ever met! - hold sway over a very happy crowd. Finally, don't forget to stop by the world-renowned Midtowne Spa, the home of former TWT cover model, Jeremy! Each and every time we're in Austin, you can pretty much be sure that we'll be at the Spa, both to see Jeremy and club manager, Richard...we admit, we may not get done as many reps in the fitness center as we'd like, but an afternoon around the club's sparkling pool seems to make up for that, doncha know! We've even found a few dates there...and we don't mean from a palm tree!

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of such license be on file at TWT.
