MS. TUCKER Does it Again!

"Once during the lifespan of a musical style comes an extraordinary artist that captures the era. In Dance Music that is Barbara Tucker -- entertainer, writer, choreographer, dancer, and singer."

The world-renowned, leading diva of dance music is much more than just a vocalist -- she lives to bring the spirit of love from the stage to the floor. Strong in her belief of the power of the stage, she performs from her pulpit, singing the message of everyday people, everyday love.

Barbara also enjoyed a superb accolade recently at the annual house music awards in London. After performing an unforgettable set she received no less than three exceptional awards. These were for her 'Most Outstanding Vocal', unsurprisingly 'Best Live P.A.' and ultimately 'Track of the Year' for her work with her close friends Blaze on 'Most Precious Love', (originally included in the 'Keep Hope Alive' album).

bum of which all proceeds went to AIDS charities). It was because of these impressive awards that Defected Records decided to re-release the track, previously their 100th release. They further developed the concept by turning Barbara and the rest of her close house fraternity into cartoon characters for the video. She was joined by Louie Vega, Kenny Dope, Blaze and Dimitri from Paris, plus many other famous DJ's.

Barb's latest single is "Love Vibrations" and hits the shelves of retail in about a month. As usual, sister has turned it out and the package comes complete with a ton of remixes from folks like Josh Harris, DJ Escape & Johnny Vicious, Georgie Porgie, and more. And if you just don't wanna wait, you can always get the Turn It Up ca CD that I told you about a few weeks ago...it's also on there.

Dance music's got no shortage of highly 'individual' characters, but few as complex as Missouri-born DJ and producer Osunlade. The artist known for appearing with a bone through his nose is a fully-fledged priest in the traditional African religion Ifa, and this deeply spiritual approach to life reflected in long-player beyond Elements'. Partly inspired by recent travels in Turkey, it's an album Osunlade himself describes as 'eclectic and non-commercial', and which will delight those who like their house music deep and soulful with strong ethnic influences. With Osunlade himself on piano, guitar, drums, bass and vocals, this is an album not to miss. Available digitally only on Beatport and Traxsource.

Take Sarah Vaughn & Ella Fitzgerald, throw in a little Madonna & Kylie Minogue with a pinch of Mahalia Jackson & Shirley Bassey, stir in some Stevie Wonder & Sade, add a dash of George Michael and shake thoroughly with overtones of the musicals, Chicago & Cabaret and you've got a little taste of Rachel Panay!

After having 3 top 10 Billboard Dance singles, Rachel has released her debut album "Back To Love". This album not only encompasses both original and new versions of her hit songs "Back To Love", "I Still Believe", and "The Real Thing, but also debuts 10 new songs that are sure to top the charts. I don't know about that damn boa but the album's GREAT!

And that's music...THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Top 10

DJ Jimmy Skinner

1. Rihanna "Umbrella" (Haji & Emanuel Remix)
2. Jennifer Lopez "Que Hiciste"
3. Ultra Nate "Automatic"
4. Cube Guys "Show You"
5. Hillary Duff "With Love"
6. Ciara "Like a Boy"
7. Henri "Some Girls"
8. Stevie Nicks "Stand Back" (Ralphie's 2007)
9. A Girl Called Jane "He's Alive"
10. Rotation "Drums are Alive"

Dallas

Leaders of Dallas' LGBT community, LULAC 4871 (The Dallas Rainbow Council), the Dallas Tavern Guild and Cathedral of Hope recently finalized plans to hold a benefit fundraiser for the widow and baby of Jose Omar Landa, the young man who was murdered on his birthday in the popular Cedar Springs Gay entertainment district on April 16. The fundraiser will be held on Sunday, July 8 at 8 pm at the Round-up Saloon, 3912 Cedar Springs Road, and will feature an all-star cast of Dallas' best entertainers, as well as civic officials. The suggested donation at the door is $5. A bank account has been set up by the Cathedral of Hope to collect funds. For those who cannot make it to the July 8 event, you can make a donation at the Dallas National Bank, located at 2725 Turtle Creek Blvd. in Dallas, to the account "Cathedral of Hope for the benefit of Alicia Landa." LULAC 4871 was founded in Oak Lawn on June 2006. Its mission is to advance the economic condition, educational attainment, political influence, health and civil rights of U.S. Hispanics, plus create dialogue between the Hispanic and LGBT community. The Dallas Tavern Guild is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for those in the gay, lesbian, bi-sexual and transgendered community through various fundraising activities created and maintained to support the many needs of those they serve. The Cathedral of Hope is the world's largest liberal Christian church with a primary outreach to lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people. For more information about the event, please contact the LULAC office at 214-521-5342, ext. 1729.

The Turtle Creek Choral presents A Fond Farewell: The Roast, an evening celebrating and roasting Dr. Timothy Seelig's 20 year history with the TCC, on Saturday, July 7 at 8 pm at the Lakewood Theater, 1825 Abrams Parkway. The Roast benefits the Dr. Timothy Seelig Endowed Conductor's Chair, which will ensure that the legacy of the TCC lives on forever. Then, on Sunday July 8, join the Choral, The Women's Chorus of Dallas, One Achord, New Texas Symphony Orchestra, the Lay Family Organ and the Tesoro String Ensemble at the Meyerson Symphony Center at 8 pm as they present A Fond Farewell: The Toast, the final concert of Dr. Tim Seelig's 20 year career with the TCC. There will be tributes, both live and in video, but the focus will be on the music. There will be The Majesty and Glory, from Dr. Seelig's very first concert 20 years ago, right up to the World Premier of four songs composed in Dr. Seelig's honor by James G. Eakin III (composer-in-residence), Greg Gilpin, Mark Hayes and Joseph Martin. The concert will include some of the real "barn-burners" from the TCC repertoire including The Awakening and Groundless Ground from SING FOR THE CURE. The Toast also benefits the Dr. Timothy Seelig Endowed Conductor's Chair. For more information and for tickets, please call the TCC at 214.526.3214 or toll free at 800.746.4412.

Houston

Pride festivities continue this weekend as Theatre New West will present three staged readings from When I Knew, a collection of smart, hilarious and often poignant stories about that revelation for all gay men and women - when they first knew. Also mixed in are tales about when parents knew and when everyone else knew, as well as laugh-out-loud coming-out stories. Guest readers for this special event include Ron Jones, one of Houston's best directors and an accomplished actor, and Steve Bullitt, whose extensive list of credits include Bent and The Normal Heart, also produced at Theatre New West. Showtimes are at 8 pm tonight and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday June 29 and 30, and will be presented at The Loft, 436 Hawthorne and Garrott. Admission is free, but donations are accepted for Legacy Resale Shop. For more information and to reserve very limited seats, please call 713-522-2204.

San Antonio

The Alamo City hosts its Fourth Annual Gay Pride SA Block Party & Parade this Sunday, July 1 along the Main Avenue Strip from 3-11 pm, beginning with the Block Party at 3 pm in the parking lot at 1430 N. Main and continuing with a show at 6 pm and a nighttime parade at 9 pm. Various organizations and businesses will have booths at the Block Party, and the early evening show will feature some of the finest performers in San Antonio. Then, the Parade will be comprised of myriad clubs and organizations throughout San Antonio, with prominent people from the political, social and charitable sectors in festive floats, cars and marching groups. For more information, please e-mail HEATSA@aol.com

Dear Diva

Dear Diva:

I have been with my partner now for almost a year, and in that time the sex - which was frigging incredible for about the first six months - has turned kinky to the point of very real pain and suffering. Initially, my partner was tender and gentle - but now, he's turned into a veritable beast and doesn't seem to be able to satisfy himself unless he hurts me or shames me. He's now into entering me without benefit of lube and pounding me until I scream out and bleed, and has gotten into the habit of believing that I'm his own private urinal. I am not into either pain or piss, and haven't had a satisfying sexual experience with him now for about five months. In all other respects, he is the most perfect man that I have ever met, but I feel as though I'm being raped every time he comes near me. What am I to do?

Hurting in Huntsville

Dear Victim:

So, how is life in Polunsky, sweetie? Been in for about a year now, huh? Bless your heart. How long did you get? 'Cause whether you're in state or not, you're definitely a prisoner of love or lust and definitely need to do something to change your circumstances. Now, if you really are locked in a cell with this loony lothario, you're options may be limited and you may just have to pray for an early parole but, if you actually call Huntsville home because you've chosen to live there and have relative freedom of movement to come and go without being under the watchful eyes of a beefy guard, then you have consigned yourself to a life of absolute torture for reasons that only you and your hairdresser know for sure about, and I can only assume that you have some serious self-esteem issues that preclude you from having a satisfying intimate relationship with a man. Honey, you feel as though you're being raped because you are and, despite the master/slave elements of S&M, the unspoken rule has always been that both parties must be "in" to the scene. If you're not "in" to it, then you don't want to do it - and being forced into sexual acts against your will is rape. Plain and simple. It doesn't matter if you're partners and living together, it's still rape if you say no. What you are to do, since you asked, is to firmly share with your partner that you do not wish to be entered without benefit of condom or lube, and that the next time he has the urge to purge he is to go immediately to the bathroom and use a toilet like the rest of the civilized world. If he does not adhere to your wishes, you are to leave him post-haste, and begin intensive counseling with a qualified therapist who will help you truly get to the root of your problems with intimacy. I promise you, there is a "perfect man" out there that is also a perfect lover, and you deserve to find him - and soon!

Dear Diva:

If you found out that you only had six weeks to live, and were told by your doctor that you could only have sex one more time before you died, with whom would you share that special moment?

Pete in Plano

Dear Pete:

I just know that you want me to mention one of the incredibly sexy men that I have had intimate encounters with during the course of my many careers - men such as Johnny Depp and Sean Connery and Jesse Metcalfe and...well, the list goes on and on - or even the unknowns that I have given pleasure in my travels, such as the cabana boy in Rio and the gondola driver under the Ponte di Rialto in Venice. But, I'm going to surprise you here and tell you that, though all of those experiences were absolutely divine, I would probably have sex with myself. Now, before you think me so completely self-consumed and freakish as to relegate me to some tawdry sex manual or book of records, please consider the fact that no one knows my hot spots better than I do, and there's really no one better to have sex with before the big transition than the one that you're going to be spending eternity with. In addition, why spend your last few moments on earth ruining the fact that you're never going to see the hot man that you just did the deed with ever again, when you can have sex with yourself and know that the person that last gave you pleasure is going along for the ride - wherever it might ultimately lead to. Plus the fact, who wants all the gooey, emotional entanglements that go along with a last screw - the tears, the sadness, the what-ifs, when you can take matters into your own hands and be done with it all? Self-love is the only love, as all those LSD-popping gurus used to chant way back in the 20th Century, and it seems completely appropriate for a final act.

Wondering what to get the happy couple on the occasion of their union? Uncertain about the appropriateness of a Bris Milah at the age of 50? The Diva can help! Write her care of: twtmagazine@aol.com, Subject Line: Dear Diva.

HOMOSCOPIES

Aries March 21 April 19

Check with Sagittarius before proceeding. Consolidate all your recent gains. Get some advice from a close friend. The money picture is not as bleak as it originally appeared. The Number 1 will be a winner. There should be a good meeting of the minds where you will learn much. You may have been the one at fault in a recent argument with a loved one.

Taurus April 20 May 20

Be tactful with touchy loved ones. Scorpio and another Taurus have key roles. Around lunch, you will run into difficulty with friends. The Number 6 is a winner. Watch out what you are given to eat and drink in an unfamiliar place this evening. You may feel like taking some time off. I say take the time. Your deliberate actions may be covered up in one way or another.

Gemini May 21 June 20

Abide by the tried and trusted methods of others. Aim for the prizes that life is ready to distribute. Aries plays a key role in the week ahead. Cash in on the Number 5. If a change of assignment is your goal, this is a fine time to discuss it with the person in charge. Resist the temptation to say things you wish you had kept to yourself concerning a loved one.

Cancer June 21 July 22

Be weary of meeting new people. Bills are lurking on the horizon, so make sure that you have them covered. Check with Libra before proceeding. You have a tendency to attempt too much at work, slow down some. You may feel that you need some advice, go get some from a close friend who knows you well. Your hot Number is 8. You may have been the one at fault in a recent feud with a loved one. Admit your mistake and make up.

Gina Lolabrigida

Leo July 23 August 22

Let the world know that you are present. Libra and Gemini both come out and help put you front and center. The Number 2 is a winner for you. Watch out for co workers who only want to use you. Work out your differences with a loved one. You don't have to go along with anything you don't want to. Keep a lid on any and all disagreements you may have with a family member.

Virgo August 23 September 22

Diversify but keep the mood light this evening. Expressing family closeness will may your weekend brighter. Keeping a loved one happy is the key right now for you. Take a chance on the Number 3 to win. Taurus is helpful with decision making. There is opposition from a close knit friend that momentarily puzzles you. Use wisely your power of choice.

Libra September 23 October 22

All conditions are go. Although strings may be attached in a new deal, it shouldn't slow you down. Learning something new will give you ideas for a future project. Leo gives the nod of approval. Relationships with relatives or friends of your beloved will go well. Take a chance on the Number 6. Your deliberate actions may be covered up in one way or another.

Scorpio October 23 November 21

An older Pisces of the opposite sex does care and will show it today. Friendships and day to day working relationships contribute much. Meeting someone new will spark a new interest. Play the Number 9 to win. Relaxing with a hobby should lift your spirits this evening. Romance is highlighted and you'll take center stage this coming weekend ahead.

Sagittarius

November 22 December 21

A burden may be lifted that you have carried for awhile. Aquarius plays a key role in helping. Demonstrative love won't go begging under the current cosmic trends. Don't let personal affairs get in the way of doing business. Don't let someone teasing you get in the way of your work. Take a chance on the Number 7. You need to make a fresh start. You decide whether it is work, school or a relationship.

Capricorn

December 23 January 19

Aggression won't get you in trouble if you are sure of the facts. Call your competition's bluff, it will pay off in your favor. Go ahead and spread your wings. Take a chance on the Number 1. Taurus and Gemini play a key role in your life. The approval you give others will mean a lot and you can expect to see many smiling faces. You will feel closer to your beloved.

Aquarius

January 20 February 18

Be prepared for a deal you've been working hard on to collapse today. Cancer gives the nod of approval. Double check your work, you may have made a slight error. Keeping family members happy may prove to be a mistake. Serenity is reached in household chores. Take a chance on the Number 2. Tingles of attraction that you feel for a difficult member of the opposite sex can alarm you.

Pisces February 19 March 20

Take care of your bills before they pile up to high. The Number 3 will pay off for you. Tonight you should be able to relax. Under prevailing conditions, you aim to please your loved one. You have untapped talents that you aren't using, now is a time to test them out. You'll get an exciting last minute invitation. Capricorn and Taurus figure in your weekend plans.

Big D TEA

Our special focus on gore guys that really melt our butter a few weeks ago was so popular that we decided to re-focus our attention on men of the hunky persuasion to get the fireworks started just a wee bit early.

First up, hunky does not even begin to describe all the deliciousness that Lee over at Pekers possesses, from his massive and lightly fur-dusted pecs down to the treasure trail and trouser trout that, regrettably, we are unable to show you...despite our very best efforts to convince him otherwise. Oh, we didn't say that we didn't reel it in...just that we can't show it to ya....but, trust, we needed a lot of bait for that bad boy. Ahem... More will be revealed when the simply scintillating stud bares yet more of his best assets for an upcoming cover of This Week in Texas. We can hardly wait, and are currently brushing up on our fluffer skills....

Speaking of waiting, we never have to wait for a shot of our favorite refreshing adult beverage when we saddle up to the Tequila Shack bar at the Round-up. That's because our very best bud and personal licker, Dade, is usually always on-hand to make sure that we've got something extra cool when we come in out of the heat. Then, after we've regulated our temperature, he's kind enough to use that extraordinary tongue of his to remove the sweat from our brow....'cause that's just the kinda guy that he is.

The recent Meteor Ball over at Throckmorton Mining Company was a rousing - rousing, do you hear - success, and we think we have an idea why. Please notice in the Cruise Camera photo taken at the event a certain creature whose perfection is so total that it leaves those within a five mile radius completely thunderstruck; whose body is so stunning that it weakens the knees of everyone in its sphere; whose talent is so extraordinary that it leaves the folks at American Idol in tears. Noooo, sweeties, it's not Gary - though his talents are legendary - it's none other than the tantalizingly toned Tyson, who single-handedly raised over twenty grand at the event. Okay, there was some other help....but Gaea knows that we and event host David certainly would have plopped down at least that much to be thunderstruck, weak-kneed and in tears....

As we continue our stroll down Gore Guy Lane, please allow us to present to you a particularly urbane and charismatic fellow by the name of Scott that we happened to run into at the Rose Room the other night while we were there to see someone else by the name of Hedda Layne, who just released a new CD or something. Scott simply charmed the pants right off of us which, as you devoted readers of this column know, isn't exactly the hardest thing in the world to do....BUT, Scott really gave us pause and made us extra glad that we had stopped in to see Hedda whatever her name is....no, y'all, we're just kidding. Hedda is a goddess, her new CD is divine and her manager is....well, you know....Oh, and please don't forget to stop in and congratulate the breathtaking and supremely talented Layla Larue, who recently captured the title of TWT's Entertainer of the Year for the State of Texas with a whopping 578 votes. You go, sistah!

Our guydar led us over to Crews Inn recently, for what we thought would be another sonar sighting of the studly Chad. Instead, we spotted the dee-lish duo of Abel and Richard standing demurely off to the side and naturally just had to introduce ourselves as their newest best friends and greatest admirers. We asked the comely couple what had brought them to the Crews Inn and, after looking at us as if we'd just fallen off a combine, gleefully exclaimed, "Why, to visit with Kourtney Wells, TWT's Entertainer of the Year for Dallas, you mindless ninnies." Needless to say, we were properly abashed....and devastated that they weren't going to be our newest best friends...jeeze, one little slip-up.... Thankfully, Kourtney did her best Joan Crawford and we so cowered in fear that Abel and Richard decided to let bygones be bygones since there's safety in numbers....

Finally, if the faces of the two festive folks in our cruizy CC Image look familiar to you, it's because they belong to Mickey and Peggy, two of Big D's most recognizable recognizables, who we happened to bump into at Joe's after we escaped Joan's clutches. We've known the terrific two for years, honeys, and are always glad to run into them whenever the stars and the planets and the need for a potent potable bring us together....which is usually about every four to six hours....hey, we've got a great star chart.

Cowtown TEA

So, we were out at Stampede and who do you think we should run into but Emperor 9 Rudy Martinez, who reigned with the inimitable Foxie Roxie mumblesomething years ago. Next month is coronation, and Rudy and Foxie will celebrate the 20th anniversary of their reign....we've even heard rumors that Foxie is going through her rather significant gown collection and will be making an appearance at the roayl event. Rudy, however, says the verdict is still out. Well, sure....it's easy when all you have to do is dust off the tuxedo - try going shopping for Pantyhose sometime....

Speaking of rumors....we heard that there is no Empress candidate running this year. Apparently, one desperate diva wanted to, but certain members of the Board decided not to let her because she didn't know the organization's by-laws well enough. Hmm, since when did knowing by-laws have anything to do with raising money? One might wonder what is worse...not knowing by-laws, or constantly figuring out new and inventive ways to manipulate them for your own agenda....okay? Were those our outside voices talking?

We popped in to the Copa Cabana the other evening to see all of the lusciousness inside the cages, but were having a very difficult time leaving the parking lot. You see, there's this hunk that works security at the front door, and we were so mesmerized by his manly muscles that we plum forgot all about the cage contents inside the club. We oh-so-desperately wanted the sexy stud to frisk us for contraband, but wouldncha know it? He's a gentleman! Just our luck, we finally found one....

Capital CITEA

The hue and cry that erupted after last week's revelation of the titillating torso of Cockpit Club's very own Ty was so enormous that Kindell is considering selling tickets to the studly staffers upcoming shirt-shredding sessions. And, we're pleased as pecs to announce that we are not the only ones that experience a hardening of the tongue (and other vital organs) whenever the T-man's nifty nips are exposed to the air, as evidenced by the cruizy CC photo that we snapped of another bodacious beau's equal ardor. We're convinced - convinced, do you hear - that as the temperatures rise along with our obsession that we will be able to convince Ty that it's simply too sultry to be wearing pants, and that the shredding of that particular clothing item would be perfectly acceptable. We'll work on the boxers next....

A few weeks ago we mentioned how much we enjoyed flossing with a certain Aussie's chest hair after we'd finished eating him....eating, we mean just eating...during one of our nightly visits to 'Bout Time, and are now completely and devastatingly embarrassed about the entire event. We mean going on and on as we did about how incredibly satisfying an experience it was, and making a big deal about going under with the man from down under as we did, it just made us seem so tawdry and cheap. The thing we're so devastated about, however, is that he's not from Australia as his accent led us to believe, but is in fact a Kiwi. Can you believe it? We went under with a Kiwi! Oh, the shame....especially since we crooned Have You Never Been Mellow to him during a particularly inspiring moment. Now, we've got to learn a Kiri Te Kanawa aria....

Speaking of sopranos, we reached a high C note the other night when we popped into Charlie's in search of David and Mac and bumped into the awesome and inspiring talents of a certain penile projectionist by the name of Guy whose mere presence forced us to begin singing nothing you can say can tear me away in something more closely resembling a falsetto than we've heretofore been able to accomplish. Needless to say, we quickly became a coloratura – especially when the dee-lish dude began to lower the waistband on his boxer briefs. You've never heard Ah, sweet mystery of life at last I've found you sung with more passion, babies...OH! And congratulations, felicitations and a rousing round of applause for Jame Perry, who captured the coveted title of TWT Entertainer of the Year for Austin. We always knew ya had it in ya, honey.

Well, the 80's Prom at Rain is over...and, just like back in the day, no one asked us to dance, no one wanted to go under the bleachers and go all the way, and no one promised to respect us in the morning if we would just do one thing. Our currently-reigning significant others warned that chartreuse wasn't a good color for us, but we didn't listen. So now, bereft, we focus on the next big thing at the club, which is Celebrity starting this very Sunday. It features our best gal pals Goldie Haynes and Vanessa Gordon, and is certain to make you want to pull out your autograph books and grab your Instamatic 'cause we hear there's gonna be a slew of red carpet arrivals....

Finally, temptingly-toned guys have always left us a little parched, so it's incredibly convenient to have a temptingly-toned fellow with obvious attributes serving up shots at Oilcan Harry's, so that way when he makes our mouth go dry he can provide us with the cure. The dee-lish dude that we're speaking of is none other than Chad, and he has left us virtually arid on more than one occasion. So, we buy copious amounts of potent potables from him...which seems to help...until we ogle a bit more, and are forced to buy more....we can just see a whole Lillian Roth I'll Cry Tomorrow thing about to take place, we swear. But, hell, it was gonna happen anyway....at least, thanks to Chad, it'll be a helluva lot of fun.

Space CITEA

While poor Paris languishes in the hoosegow, trying to restore her tarnished image, you and we are still free to go out and play and party to our heart's content – and what better place to do that than the Free Paris party at South Beach, where all things celebrity were celebrated by the baring of chests and the displaying of all things pulchritudinously perfect. Between hirsute hunks like Merlin and our personal favorite, Javier, and the suave and smooth talents of danceur de dique

Fernando and an unknown hunk who escaped to a holding area before we could accost him, the last thing we were concerned with was whether or not Ms. Hilton was in need of a hacksaw-laden cheesecake. Of course, Fernando's talent – which he was in the process of offering us for inspection when we snapped the CC image of him – would be more than adequately up for the task of opening locked access routes...

And while we're on the subject of enormous talents, as we were, we invite you to view four absolutely male men by the names of Ben, Daniel, Casey and Alberto that we were fortunate enough to come between the other evening at JR's. These luscious lugs were so full of testosterone that OUR voices got deeper just being near them...and we even noticed an increase in the number of chest hairs peeking out through our D & G showy shirt. We were absolutely delighted when our new husband Alberto asked us to join them for a game of touch football, but were somewhat disappointed when we found out we were really gonna be playing football. Not that we turned them down, of course...the huddles – and all that butt-slapping when we scored – were divine....ahem.

Speaking of divine, we've always thought that it took that sort of power to produce Montrose Mining Company penile projectionist Davier, since nothing that stunning could ever come from anyplace but the ethers. When last we visited with him, we captured him in the throws of accentuating the positive, as it were, much to the delight of his many fans. And, of course, being the helpful and considerate people that we are, we offered to help him in the accentuation process in the hopes of accelerating the end results. It may sound like a lot of corporate mumbo-jumbo honeys, but it's the bottom line that always matters in the end....oh, we are just kvelving over all the double entendres in that statement, babies....

Over at La Academia, we ran into our very dear friend Erica Andrews the other night as she was coming out of the club after one of her usual packed performances, and we asked her if she would be our partner should the club ever decide to have another Roller Derby Night – ya know, we figured we could all go as the Bay City Bombers and Erica could be Raquel Welch. Well, she couldn't commit, dammit, 'cause she's so busy with pageant preliminaries and out-of-town bookings and such... 'cause that's what happens when you're a legend.

If you've ever wondered who the citizens of H-town have to thank for making the Gay Southwest so...well, gay...then wonder no more, for we have a Cruise Camera' photo of the one and only Mansoor and his charming, elegant and sophisticated esposa, Zorida - who not only give us the Crystal of dance halls, but also manage to throw in handsome hombres such as the caliente cashier that we introduced you to in last week's column. Regrettably, we had to return the cashier....

As we've matured....fine, as we've aged. FINE, as we've gotten older, we've found that our taste in men has changed to include a whole new genre that we, quite frankly, never believed we'd ever be attracted to back in the days when over 21 meant don't touch to us.

Of course, we were much younger, too, so it wasn't necessarily a felony. But, we digress....the reason we bring this up is because we bumped into a perfectly delightful specimen of sex appeal in the form of a dapper and dashing dude by the name of Bob at In & Out the other evening, and were so taken with his charm, good looks and Nautica striped chemise that we suddenly realized how wrong we've been to be hanging around at the high school track. His very dear friends Steve and Mel went a long way in convincing us that being experienced is a good thing, especially when they provided us with a C.V. that lists all of Bob's many special talents....we think we've finally found Nirvana.

We got a phone call from Viv the other day, and she told us that she had just gone on a huge shopping spree at the Galleria and had gotten herself a new summer frock that was just the envy of the other gals over on Dacoma. Naturally, she demanded that we come view said frock and that we bring our trusty fashion lens with us to document its beauty for posterity. We must admit that the diva did look absolutely stunning, particularly when posing with her staff-members and customers – all of whom paled in comparison to the glam gal. We can't all be natural beauties, after all...

So, it's ten am on a Sunday morning, and we're desperately in search of some orange juice with just a splash of the potato with which to start our day, and we seemed to remember that ole George was gonna start opening his eponymous libation lounge at that bright and early time, so off did we skip to see if we could borrow a cup of the old hair of the dog. Well, weren't we just chapped to find that the door was bolted and the potato juice still on the vine when we got there....of course, now we know that this new early bird special won't happen until THIS Sunday, but you can imagine how embarrassed we were when someone dropped a quarter in our cap while we were sprawled at the front door dying from heat prostration...

Finally, we've never been one for games of eight ball (don't go there, Mary Helen Louise,) and never thought that we'd ever find anything particularly exciting about the game to pique our interest. That was before we ran into Rudy and Eric over at Tony's Corner Pocket, who instructed us in all the subtleties and fine points of the game, including the proper handling of one's stick. Well, now that we know that one must use a FIRM grip, we're suddenly much more into it...

Alamo CiTEA

Texas is all about cowboys, and whenever we want to ride one or spit-shine some ropers, we always saddle up and mosey on over unannounced to a TGRA meeting - unannounced because we much prefer to view them acting naturally...ya know, all manly and virile, just like out on the cattle drive. Well, honeys, we found ourselves just full of spit and having a new shammy with which to buff recently, so off did we gallop to the local meetin' hall for a nice long viewing - and we were not disappointed, as we ran into Chad, Jay and Steve lookin' just like we like our Bareback Mountain men to look, doncha know. Needless to say, we buffed all three to a perfect sheen...

Speaking of buff, that's exactly what we saw Heat's RJ in recently, when we espied him in a rather passionate embrace with a super-stud from out of town during the recent TWT's Enter-tainer of the Year Contest....speaking of which, honors were won by Heat's very own Layla Larue, who not only captured the EOY for San Antonio title, but went on to win the entire state as well. We at This Week in Texas are delighted to have such a beautiful and talented entertainer represent us, and look forward to working with La Layla in the coming year and for many years to come....you rock, sis-tah!

And while we're in a contest state of mind, the Saint has become the premiere pageant palace in Texas, hosting city, state and regional preliminaries to all of the national pageant systems. Why this very weekend, for example, the captivating Erica Andrews and Okie Kenny Bales present the Texas EOY pageant, a direct preliminary to National Entertainer of the Year being held in Louisville, Kentucky next month. Special guests for the evening include Erica, as the currently-reigning National Entertainer of the Year, as well as the Eyes of Texas Whitney Paige and a host of other current and former title-holders that will leave you simply stunned. Stunned, do you hear...

So, we were at the airport the other evening, dropping our latest truly significant other off for his flight home, and we realized that it had been more than twenty minutes since we had last imbibed. Knowing that we still had mucho shopping to do at North Star, we didn't want to drive all the way back downtown...what to do, what to do? Wait, we thought....the Bermuda Triangle. Yes, the BT. And before you could say charge it, we were there - and, honeys, our eyes gaped and our jaws dropped and we were left almost speechless (we ARE talking about us, so you know we weren't completely non-plussed) over all of the beautiful changes that Jill and the gals have made to the famed libation lounge. It's really purdy, y'all. Just ask Mischka, Bob Fogg or Dan the next time you see them - 'cause they thought it was fagulous, too!

Something else in the River City that is fagulous is the divine yet demure Teresa down at the Bonham Exchange. The glam gal is such an incredible person, and the way she wo-mans the desk at the club's elegant entrance portal is so amazing that even we can't get in without an ID, sweeties. And she needs all the talent she can get for the job, now that the hordes are descending upon the club to donate to MDA in honor of Niecy's birthday. What? You didn't know about that?? Oh, yes, honeys....If you wanna celebrate La Lewis' natalversary, you've gotta donate to MDA.....It's her favorite charity, and you can do it right at the club. Teresa'll make sure you do it right....

Doing it right is something that Jim and Cody and David have definitely done at the X-ing, what with all the incredible reduxing that's taken place and the four - count 'em, four - dance floors and the super staff and all and all. Why, our very dear friends Jeremy and Artie were completely overwhelmed with how beautiful the place is - in fact, Jeremy stated that the last overhaul that he'd seen that turned out as well was the one that Artie had a few years ago. He used to be a blonde, doncha know....

Finally, BEAT AIDS is one of the city's most noted and successful charitable organizations, and the good work that the group in minimizing the effects of the AIDS pandemic on Alamo City residents is first-rate. Part of the reason for their success is definitely due to Alfredo, the first person that you'll see when you go into their offices. This tireless worker does so much to organize and manage everything that goes on in the place - and he does it all with a smile and a great sense of humor. We love Alfredo...and we're so thankful for BEAT AIDS! Kudos, guys and gals....

PageantTEA

Congratulations to Allyssa Edwards on capturing the Miss Texas Continental crown at the Saint last week. Mr. Texas Continental was won by named RK LaRue. Best wishes to them both as the journey to Chicago for the nationals, Miss & Mr. Continental, later this year.

Also belated Crowning Congratulations go out to the lovely Amunike Mathews, the new Miss Gay Alamo City USofA; first alt. Beyonce; and second alt. Amaya Iman who competed in a JEMS Productions event earlier this month. Exclusive pictures of these contests and many others will be featured in future Lipschtyck columns.

MODELS/ESCORTS

TWT POLICY
Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, State Law prohibits the placement of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also State Law prohibits nonlicensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage," or any term which indicates bodily contact.

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY
Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of such license be on file at TWT.
