ALLEY'S ARENA THEATER; 228-8421.

"EXECUTION OF JUSTICE" A new docudrama set in San Francisco in 1979, following the double murder of Mayor Moscone and gay leader Harvey Milk. In recreating Dan White's trial, the play raises searching questions about the American system of justice. (White was sentenced to 7+ years in prison, and released after 5 years.) Since its national premiere last year, EXECUTION OF JUSTICE has already won critical praise: "challenging and provocative," "powerfully absorbing," "a play worth every effort to see."

STAGES; 3201 Allen Parkway #101, 527-8243 (52-STAGE)

"THE LEARNED LADIES" Moliere's satire on the intellectual "elite"! Stages resets this classic comedy in the Paris of the Roaring Twenties, where a colorful household of pompous humbugs threaten a budding romance! Thru Nov. 17.

STAGES announces the inaugural season of EARLY STAGES - theater for kids of all ages. Tickets $4.50, group rates available. Daytime theater.

"CHARLOTTE'S WEB" E.B. White's charming fable of a little girl, her pet pig, and a literary spider. Fern and Wilbur learn of friendship and growing up from Charlotte, who spins out a life-saving message. This classic children's story brings a barnyard to life! Thru Nov. 17.

MAIN STREET THEATER; 2540 Times Blvd.; 524-6706

"THE MEMBER OF THE WEDDING", unforgettable drama by Carson McCuller. A touching, memorable treatment of the hunger and heartbreak of adolescence, the play also creates an accurate, unsentimental picture of life in a small community in the deep south. Directed by Jay Julien, with Houston actress Karen Chatfield in the role of Frankie. Thru December 1.

WOMEN'S NETWORK

LAWNDALE ANNEX, 6001 Gulf Freeway. Hours: 12-6 Wed.-Sun. For info: 921-4155.

"DISCOVERY II" Open art exhibit by Texas Artists. Nov. 22 - Dec. 22.

"WOMEN: war & PEACE - A Cultural Approach to Freedom" An Exhibit coming in January, sponsored by Lawndale Alternative and Houston Area Women's Center.

Lawndale will devote the entire month of January, 1986, to a series of events by, for and about women and their efforts towards Peace and individual freedom.

These events will examine the roots of social violence, discrimination and inequality in the home, on TV, in movies, advertising, literature, pornography and in our economic system. They will also look at what individual women have been able to do to create change; examine how women have focused attention on issues of World Peace through their non-violent protests and demonstrations; and how much of women's creativity is geared towards a peaceful alternative.

If you or your organization would like to participate in the planning and fund-raising for this month of activities, please call Lawndale (921-4155) or Houston Area Women's Center (528-6798).

KAUFFMAN GALLERIES, 2702 West Alabama, 528-4229.

"WINDOWS, CURTAINS, MAPS & ROCKS: PAINTED PAPER & WOOD" by Nance O'Banion. Nance O'Banion will attend the opening reception of her one-woman show. Ms. O'Banion's wonderful kitelike constructions made of bamboo, handmade paper, and string have long attracted collectors far and wide. Thru November 18.

HOUSTON CENTER FOR PHOTOGRAPHY; 1441 W. Alabama, 529-4755

"THE PHOTOGRAPHIC PRINT: EARLY PROCESSES", Olivia Parker and Rosamond Wolff Purcell. Also, "SIDEWALK SCENE", John Bernhaard. Thru December 1.

HOUSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY, 500 McKinney, 222-4456

"THE RIBBON FOR PEACE, TEXAS PANELS". Exhibit of Peace Ribbons created by individuals from all around Texas. These Ribbons traveled to Washington, D.C. and participated in a peace action on August 4th of this year to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The 400 Texas panels joined with the estimated 35,000 panels from across the nation and several other countries in an encirclement of the Pentagon, the Capitol, the Lincoln Memorial, The Washington Monument, and the White House Ellipse. Fifteen thousand people held the Ribbon panels aloft in a continuous stream of personal expression and power; celebrating our love for the earth and all her people - celebrating our unity, honoring our diversity.
